Florida State vs. East Carolina

1979... 11-0 ORANGE BOWL

Tribe Tonight

by Mark Carlson, Sports Information Director

Numbers have become a conversation piece for Florida State football fans this week.

No. 1 is the place the Tribe holds in the rather informal rankings of college football teams on CBS's "The NFL Today Show."

No. 1 is also the spot FSU has in the defense against scoring category compiled weekly by the NCAA. The Seminoles are tied with four other teams for the top spot with two shutouts but only FSU and South Carolina have played two games. North Carolina State, Hawaii and Tennessee State have each played one.

No. 2 is the spot where FSU's defense is ranked in yards allowed per game among Division I-A squads. The Tribe is giving up 147.5 yards per game compared to the 73.5 yield of next week's opponent, Miami.

No. 9 is the Seminole position in the Associated Press Top 20 poll.

No. 10 is the FSU slot in the United Press International Top 20 poll.

But, those numbers will mean nothing if the Tribe is beaten tonight by East Carolina (1-1). A lot rides on this final home game for September. There is no doubt the Seminoles need to continue the momentum built up in the opening victories over LSU (16-0) and Louisville (52-0). A win tonight is a must as the Tribe begins preparations for a rugged three-game stretch that includes engagements at Miami (Sept. 27) and Nebraska (Oct. 4) and then the Oct. 11 home date with Pittsburgh.

"There is no way we can let up," Tribe mentor Bobby Bowden says. "One slip and it hurts our chances for national ranking."

In 1979, Bowden was normally tight-lipped about the rankings. He didn't want to talk about the AP or UPI polls until after the season.

"Only one of those polls count—the last one," Bowden said more than once.

This season, however, he slips every now and then and does mention the Seminoles' top 20 standing.

"We got a taste of the polls last year and what it can mean to a football program," Bowden related. "It has been good for our football team and if that's what it takes to motivate our club I'm going to use it to our advantage."

One person who will use the Tribe's national ranking for motivation purposes tonight is East Carolina's rookie mentor Ed Emory. The Pirates with a win in Doak Campbell Stadium could score the major upset of this 1980 college football campaign.

And, don't for one minute think ECU is not capable of pulling off a win. The Pirates have a history of playing top 20 teams off their feet. Last year, for instance, North Carolina was ranked in the top 20 and hosting the Pirates. When the game had ended the scoreboard showed 24-24 tie and the Tarheel ranking was tarnished. That same North Carolina team went on to topple Michigan in the Gator Bowl.

This Pirate team is very capable despite the surprising 27-21 loss to Southwestern Louisiana last Saturday. In Anthony Collins, ECU has one of the nation's premier running backs. Already in 1980 he has scored 26 points and gained 111 yards rushing. Last season he was the fourth best all-purpose runner in the NCAA with 1,695 yards, including 1,330 rushing, 16th best in the nation. He averaged 7.3 yards per carry in 1979 and began this season second among active players in yards gained per rush with a 6.63 career average.

Again for Florida State the key to victory will be the defense. If the Tribe defenders can continue their domination it will be a major aid in producing the Seminoles' 18th straight regular season victory.

TRIBE TIDBITS: Seminole QB Rick Stockstill won two major awards for his performance last week vs. Louisville...Associated Press named him and Mississippi State QB John Bond as its Southeastern Offensive Player of the Week...For those who would not remember—the last time the Seminoles had three straight shutouts was at the start of the 1964 season—Miami (14-0), TCU (10-0) and New Mexico State (36-0)...an interesting comparison—East Carolina has gone 100 straight games without being shutout, the fourth longest current streak in the NCAA.

Sims Won't Forget Butler

by Mike Fish

Early last summer, after being named to yet another All-America team, Ron Simmons slipped away to Connecticut for the usual coat-and-tie awards ceremony. Charles White, Lam Jones and all the regulars were in attendance. And so too, of course, was Billy Sims of Oklahoma.

A lot had transpired in the long months since the Orange Bowl in Miami, but Sims hadn't forgotten Florida State or its skinny cornerback—No. 21. Bobby Butler? Smooth talking, fleet-footed Bobby Butler?

"I'll never forget that guy, ever," Sims assured Simmons. "He's still on my mind."

Butler looks out of place on the playing field. A smaller man—even bony—among college football's imposing physiques. Stand him alongside Ron Simmons and he looks malnourished. But against Oklahoma, it was Butler who gave the former Heisman Trophy winner his stiffest test.

When Sims skirted to the outside against FSU, Butler was usually there for the tackle. And, as Sims remembers, a constant verbal challenge. It was the great on-the-field debate. Here was Bobby Butler, an unassuming-type, taking on a fellow soon to be the NFL's No. 1 draft pick.

"I was trying to intimidate him, see what kind of a player he was," Butler explains. "I was just so psyched up that I was shooting off at the mouth. He told me I was obnoxious, can you imagine that?"

Unfortunately for the Tallahassee contingent, Sims proved to be everything they said he was: quick, elusive and strong. Yet the 170-lb. Butler, as he had all season, waged a battle on every down.

He finished the season with 79 solo tackles—a fair share for any defensive back. It was against Mississippi State All-SEC wide receiver Mardye McDole that Butler—the defender—enjoyed perhaps his best game last fall. McDole, who only a year earlier had burned FUS for two touchdowns and 175 yards, caught two meaningless passes for 25 yards.

Butler's toughest enemy, however, has been injuries. Two years ago, he donned Johnny Unitas-like high tops after injuring his ankle in preseason. It was a lost season.

"Ol' Bobby Butler is deceptive," says FSU coach Bobby Bowden. "He doesn't look like much size-wise, but you know he can get the job done."

This might be a case where physical appearance is misleading. Butler has mimicked his teammates. He's eaten the extra food and religiously made the daily treks to the weight room. But the product has been altered slightly. He's still the slender kind.

It's his foot speed—a team best of 4.33 for 40 yards—that is responsible for allowing him to survive the weekly football grind. So it wasn't a surprise when last season drew to a close, and Butler decided to put this speed to good use with the Seminole track squad.

In the third meet of the indoor season, Butler leaped 24-5 to capture the long jump at the Metro Conference Championships in Blacksburg, Va. He returned to Tallahassee with both a conference and school-record, and also a painful hamstring pull that would curtail his jumping career.

When the outdoor season rolled around, Butler recuperated well enough to run the lead-leg on FSU's impressive 400-meter relay team. Running with Kevin Johnson, Mike Roberson and Walter McCoy, Butler and FSU placed third (39.1) at the NCAA Championships in Austin, Texas.

"I just figured that this year I'd go out and improve my speed," he says.

Suddenly, in the time required to blaze 100 meters, Bobby Butler had become a two-sport man. No Lam Jones or Curtis Dickey, mind you. But the FSU senior had earned himself another plus with the professional scouts.

"He can run like the devil...very, very fast," offers New York Giants general manager George Young. "Just like somebody said to me one time: 'He's not very big but his speed makes him 7-foot tall.' He's one of these guys who can make up for his stature with sheer foot speed.

"If you can run 4.3 that's just unbelievable. The better you play the less weight is a problem. A lot of guys (in the NFL) are listed as being bigger than they actually are."

Like everything, football goes through its cycles. Not too long ago every program in the country seemed intent on incorporating some facet of the wishbone, then it was the veer and more recently college football has rediscovered the passing game.

Woody Hayes recruits one Art Schlicter, and suddenly Ohio State introduces the passing Buckeyes. You can state a case for similiar conversions at Wake Forest, Minnesota, Brigham Young and Michigan State. Many of the so-called reborn programs have been successful because of the forward pass.

In professional football, Gil Brandt talks about the quick defensive back. According to Brandt, the Dallas Cowboys personnel director, Butler fits nicely into the new cycle.

"He's only 170 but we're throwing the ball so much that we're looking for a guy who can run with the pass receivers," he says. "If you bring sprinters into the league on offense, it's only logical that it affects who you bring in to cover them.

"You run under 4.5 and you excite me. We're in a passing cycle. Rules have been changed, things like bumping the receiver only once. So you need quicker defensive backs."

Butler, the near constant smile adorning his face, nods his head in an I-told-you-so fashion. Yes truly, Butler possesses something far more rare than brawn and bulk.

LANIER STEALS THE SPOTLIGHT ....QUIETLY

by Debbie Geiger

Let's examine the facts. Take a four year starter embarking on his senior year on a highly ranked football team; a team coming off an undefeated regular season and a trip to the Orange Bowl; a team which looks to return with all the intensity of their illustrious 1979 counterparts.

Now one would expect the limelight to be getting pretty bright down there at his spot on the field. But such has not been the case for offensive tackle Ken Lanier who locked up one of the starting line positions in the second game of his freshman year and has been a regular fixture ever since.

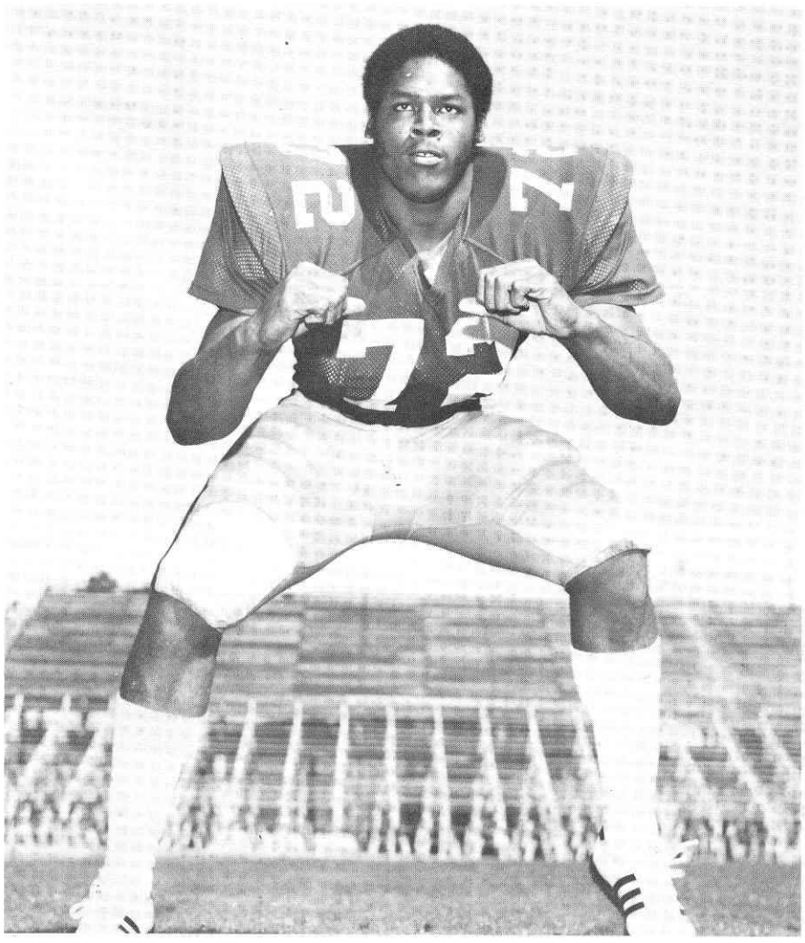
Lanier (6-4,260), whose labors have thus far been performed in the relative anonymity of the offensive line will not go unnoticed much longer. During his tenure at Florida State, Lanier's accolades have included selection to the Associated Press All-South Independent first team and Honorable mention as an All-American. In addition, he holds the FSU outdoor track record with a mark of 60-4 in the shot put.

Lanier anchors an experienced offensive line which has materialized as a dependable Seminole stronghold. Four of five starters return from last season's durable unit.

"Experience is a major factor in our performance," says Lanier. "Individually it helps because you learn to read the defensive stances and know what to expect. Overall on the line it improves our timing. We know how long to hold our blocks and we work better as a team."

For three years the offensive line has been co-ordinated around the protection of drop-back quarterbacks Jimmy Jordan and Wally Woodham. However, that situation will change this year with the installation of junior quarterback Rick Stockstill who has demonstrated a high degree of mobility.

"I expect the line will have to be a lot more alert this year," says Lanier.



"Rick runs right out of the pocket and we'll have to be prepared for that."

Involvement in a program with a reputation for placing top players in the NFL is bound to produce aspirations towards professional football.

"This year a lot of my motivation is the chance to play pro football," says Lanier. "However I'm being cautious. Injuries are always a possibility. Also, I've taken steps to insure that I'll graduate in June with a degree in industrial arts, so if it doesn't work out for me I know I can get a job in my field."

"Ken's record speaks for itself," says head coach Bobby Bowden. "He has the potential to be as good as he wants to be and this ought to be his best year yet. He has the physical tools to go as for as he wants."

The Florida State squad faces a vigorous schedule in 1980 but expectations are running high in Seminole territory, including those of Ken Lanier.

"I expect this season to be our best yet," says Lanier. "We should be even better than last year because of improvements in our running game. We're hoping for another post season bowl invitation. I plan to be a lot more intense this season and I'm going to go out and make a lot of things happen."

WRITTEN FOR USE AS DESIRED

THREE ON THE TEE--Southern independents Florida State (2-0) and East Carolina (1-1) play their third game of the season Saturday.

SITE--Doak Campbell Stadium (51, 094), Tallahassee.

KICKOFF TIME--7:00 p.m. EDT.

EXPECTED ATTENDANCE--A late buying spree by the general public could give FSU its second straight sellout, but more than likely the crowd will number about 47,000.

THE SEASON--FSU has opened with a pair of shutout victories. The Tribe opened on the road, winning 16-0 at LSU. That was followed by a 52-0 thrashing of Louisville in last week's home opener played before a record Doak Campbell crowd of 52,623. East Carolina bumped Duke, 35-10, in its opener then lost a 27-21 verdict last week to Southwestern Louisiana.

LAST WEEK--Everything clicked for Florida State as it waltzed to a 52-0 win over Louisville in the Tribe home opener. Three FSU quarterbacks tossed six touchdown passes. Four were the responsibility of junior starter Rick Stockstill, who sat out most of the second half but still completed nine of 12 for 115 yards. Sophomore Blair Williams and freshman Kelly Lowrey each hurled one TD pass. A pair of sophomore receivers--Dennis McKinnon and Hardis Johnson--each caught two scoring passes. McKinnon was the top Seminole receiver with six catches for 113 yards. Johnson and Kurt Unglaub each had two grabs. Meanwhile the Seminole defense was picking up its second consecutive shutout. The defenders, without the services of senior All-American noseguard Ron Simmons, held Louisville to minus five (5) yards rushing and a total of 56 yards total offense.

Turnovers were a problem for East Carolina in its surprising loss to Southwestern Louisiana. The Pirates were charged with eight fumbles and lost five. The first four times they touched the ball in the third quarter resulted in fumbles and three of those turnovers led to Southwestern Louisiana touchdowns. Quarterback Carlton Nelson sparked the Pirate offense with 73 rushing yards in 12 carries. He also passed for 108 yards with 12 completions in 21 attempts. Just behind Nelson in the rushing stats was Mike Hawkins, who carried 11 times for 71 yards and a touchdown.

THE COACHES--Bobby Bowden (Samford '52) will be coaching the third game of his fifth season when East Carolina invades. His FSU record is now 36-12 and includes 17 straight regular season victories. The Bowden record is mighty impressive when one recalls that in 1976--his first season--the Tribe went 5-6 and started 0-3. Twice in the last three years Bowden has taken the Seminoles to bowl games--1977 Tangerine and 1980 Orange. Last season Bowden was rewarded for his team's perfect (11-0) season when ABC-TV and Chevrolet named him its Division I-A Coach of the Year and the -more-

Associated Press gave him a similar honor among Southern Independents. This is the third head coaching stop for Bowden. He was previously at Samford (31-6) and West Virginia (42-26). His overall coaching record is 109-44. The victory total (106) at the start of the current season rated 10th among active head coaches in I-A. The percentage (.709) was 11th among I-A and I-AA coaches.

Ed Emory (East Carolina '60) had an outstanding career as a playing Pirate, starting for four years on the offensive line. His play resulted in all-conference honors for three years, all-NAIA for three years, most outstanding lineman for two years, most outstanding blocker for two years, third team All-America and co-captain during his senior season of 1959. After college graduation, he worked at the high school level before advancing to the collegiate ranks in 1967 and 1968 as the runningback coach at Wake Forest. His other college stops included Clemson, Duke and Georgia Tech. The East Carolina post is his first as a head coach.

THE SERIES--This is the first meeting between the two schools. It's also the only game presently scheduled.

WHAT COULD HAVE BEEN--Last spring it appeared the story line for this week's game was going to involve two Bowdens. The first, naturally, is Bobby, head coach for FSU. The second, though, was to involve his son, Tommy, a former part-time assistant at FSU, who last spring took the job of secondary coach at East Carolina. During the summer, however, Tommy moved to Auburn where he now coaches the runningbacks. If Tommy would have stayed at East Carolina, the story line would have been great fun for all writers since Tommy's secondary would have been tested by the Tribe's passing game.

HEGGINS RETURNS--There is going to be a familiar face on the ECU sidelines Saturday. Former FSU linebacker and noseguard (1974-77) coaches the tight ends for the Pirates. This is his first collegiate coaching assignment after serving as an assistant coach in 1978 and 1979 at South Miami Senior High School.

ATTENDANCE THE BEST--Expanded Doak Campbell Stadium gave FSU its largest home crowd in history last Saturday. A total of 52,623 were in the stands, topping the old mark of 49,490 set last year in the Homecoming game vs. South Carolina.

ABOUT SHUTOUTS--With its second straight shutout last Saturday, FSU has now scored back-to-back whitewashes for the first time since the start of the 1964 season. That year the Tribe started out with three straight shutouts, beating Miami, 14-0, TCU, 10-0, and New Mexico State, 36-0. It also marks the first time since 1966 that FSU has picked up more than one shutout in a season.

ABOUT 52 POINTS--The 52 points scored by FSU vs. Louisville was the second most scored by the Tribe since Bobby Bowden arrived on the coaching scene. FSU scored a 66-17 victory over Memphis State last season on the evening it received the Orange Bowl invitation. It's only the third time since the 1954 season FSU has scored 52 or more points in a game. In 1954, Villanova fell, 52-13.

MARGIN WAS BIGGEST FOR BB--FSU's winning 52-point margin was the biggest for Bobby Bowden since he became head coach for the Seminoles. It passes the 49-point difference of last year's Memphis State game.

MORE ABOUT MARGINS--The win over Louisville provided FSU with its third largest victory margin. The Tribe's biggest win total came vs. Whiting Field in 1949, 74-0. Then in 1953 FSU scored a 59-0 win. The victim that night--LOUISVILLE. The 52 points of last Saturday replaced the Memphis State game in third position among all-time winning margins.

CARDS HAVE TROUBLE SCORING--Louisville has had its problems scoring points vs. FSU. In the six meetings--the Seminoles lead series 4-2--the Cards have not scored in three games, including the last two, 27-0 in 1979 and 52-0 this year.

STREAK--FSU has a win streak of two games. The Seminoles 15-game win streak was broken in the Orange Bowl loss, 24-7, to Oklahoma.

ECU STOPPED--East Carolina's 27-21 loss to Southwestern Louisiana ended a five-game winning streak for the Pirates that included the final four games of the 1979 season. It was also the first loss in nine games for the Pirates, who finished last season with six wins in seven games, including a 24-24 deadlock with North Carolina.

TRIBE REGULAR SEASON STREAK--FSU now has a regular season win streak of 17 games. The Tribe has not been beaten in a regular season contest since Pittsburgh turned the trick, 7-3, on October 21, 1978. The Seminoles finished the 1978 season with four straight wins, had 11 more last season and now two in '80.

HOME STREAKERS--Florida State has now extended its home field win streak to 10 games. The last team to beat FSU on the natural turf of Doak Campbell Stadium was Houston (27-21) during the 1978 season. It was the only home loss in a six-game home schedule that season and last year the Tribe finished 5-0 in its home stadium.

BB IN DOAK--Doak Campbell Stadium has treated Seminole head coach Bobby Bowden well since 1976. In that time the Tribe has an 18-4 record, with two of the losses coming in the first year--33-26 to Florida and 15-12 to Clemson.

STOCK IS RISING--FSU signal caller Rick Stockstill threw for four touchdowns in the romp over Louisville last Saturday. Contrary to early reports at the game, graduates Jimmy Jordan and Wally Woodham DID each throw for four touchdowns in their career. Each accomplished the feat during the 1978 season--Jordan vs. Navy and Woodham against Southern Mississippi. FSU topped Navy, 38-6, on November 18 and the Tribe bested Southern Mississippi, 38-16, on October 28.

MORE ABOUT RICK--Stockstill, who didn't get his first collegiate start until the opener at LSU, is off to a fast start in the passing department. His season totals are now a nifty 15 of 23 for 150 yards and four scores. One of his tosses was picked off by the enemy. Rick now has career stats of 22 of 33 for 251 yards.

ABOUT TD PASS RECEPTIONS--When Hardis Johnson and Dennis McKinnon caught two TD passes vs. Louisville, it marked the first time since 1978 a Tribe player had caught more than one TD pass in a game. The last time an FSU player had multiple TD catches was November 18, 1978, when Sam Platt caught three Jimmy Jordan aerials in a 38-6 Homecoming win over Navy.

ABOUT TOTAL TD PASSES--Florida State's school record for TD passes in a single game is five. That mark has been reached three times, most recently by Gary Huff vs. South Carolina in 1971. Steve Tensi did it vs. Oklahoma in 1965 and Bill Cappleman vs. Wake Forest in 1968.

ANOTHER NEW COACH--Ed Emory, the ECU head coach, is the third new mentor the Tribe has faced this season. Emory and Jerry Stovall of LSU are both head coaches for the first time. Louisville's Bob Weber is guiding the Pirates for the first time, but previously was a head coach at Arizona.

RUSH DEFENSE DRAWS TEST--FSU is having a good season statistically on rushing defense after the opening two games. The Tribe defenders have given up just 45.0 yards per game to LSU and Louisville and 1.4 yards per rushing play. Louisville finished with minus five (-5) yards rushing for the day. East Carolina will provide a stiff test to those statistics since the Pirates led the nation in rushing last season with an average of 368.5 yards per game.

WHAT THE PLAYERS SAY...

DB MONK BONASORTE--"Our only goal now is to get our third straight shutout. The defense has been together for three years now and we know what each one of us will do in a given situation. Our goal is to be the best defensive team in the nation against the score--I guess we're at least tied for No. 1 right now. East Carolina was the best rushing team in the nation last year (368.5 yards per game) so they present us with a different challenge."

DT MARK MACEK--"I hope our fans don't become greedy with these shutouts. We're playing as a team, not individuals. Six of us (Herring, Piurowski, Simmons, Butler, Bonasorte and myself) are three year starters. We're all seniors and this is our last chance. After the past three seasons, we know what it takes to win. Everyone talks about pride, but in this case I really think it fits. We want to win every time we step on the field. We played about as well as we could against Louisville."

WHAT BOBBY SAYS...

ABOUT LOUISVILLE WIN--"This was a case where we out-manned the other team and also played a good football game to boot. Everything seemed to be clicking. What I don't know is whether Louisville is that bad or maybe that we're a little better than I've suspected."

ABOUT STATE OF SEMINOLES--"We can't level off. This team needs to improve each week. Our schedule isn't going to become any easier. East Carolina is going to be better than Louisville. Then comes Miami, a team I believe may be the most improved in the country this season. After that it's Nebraska and Pittsburgh. There is no reason for us to become complacent."

ABOUT FSU OFFENSE--"I guess that everyone who thought we'd given up the passing game can now forget that theory. We showed against Louisville that the passing game is still part of our offense. What I hope is happening is that we're making it a lot tougher for teams to defend against the pass because our running game is looking so good. Heck, Sam Platt gained more than 100 yards against Louisville and we only used him for one series in the second half. And, Mike Whiting is doing a great job blocking for us out of the fullback hole."

ABOUT KICKING GAME--"Rohn Stark didn't need to punt much against Louisville, but when we did call on him he did the job. Bill Capece continues to do a good job on placements and kickoffs. We did a lot of kicking off Saturday, but Louisville could only bring two of them back. I'm pleased with our special teams. That is an area where a team must excel to end the season with a good record."

ABOUT POLLS--"Yes, I'm more interested this year than last in where we are each week. I guess that since we got a taste of that sort of thing last year we are more involved. Our team was upset when the pre-season poll came out and we weren't in the top 10. I think that is good though, it shows the players have pride in the Florida State football program. Still, we can't get caught up in the poll thing. The only poll that counts is the one taken at the end of the season."

ABOUT EAST CAROLINA--"I know they gave one away last week with a whole bunch of fumbles (eight) against Southwestern Louisiana. Teams that normally do that sort of thing come back strong the next week because they've embarassed themselves. For East Carolina this is a big game. Those Pirates have an opportunity to spread the word about that football program across this entire country by beating us on Saturday. Don't expect anything to come easy for us. East Carolina's program has been on solid ground for a couple of years and with Ed Emory they have a coach who is used to playing and coaching in important football games.

"Our defense against the run will get a good test. East Carolina uses the wishbone offense and the last time we saw that was New Year's Night against Oklahoma. I don't need to remind you of that result. We also saw the wishbone last year in a home game with Mississippi State."

ECU TRAVEL PLANS--The Pirates will leave Greenville, N.C., Friday at 9 a.m. Arrival in Tallahassee is slated for 10:30 a.m. The team will have an afternoon workout at Doak Campbell Stadium. Team and official party headquarters in Tallahassee will be the Holiday Inn, Apalachee Parkway (904/877-3141).

SID ADVANCE--East Carolina sports information director Ken Smith arrives in Tallahassee Wednesday evening. He will visit with Tallahassee media representatives Thursday and Friday. Smith's Tallahassee headquarters will be the Holiday Inn, Apalachee Parkway (904/877-3141).

INJURIES--Tribe defensive end Arthur Scott sustained a hip pointer on the first play of the Louisville tussle. His status for ECU test is questionable. Noseguard Ron Simmons continues to be plagued by an ankle sprain and is also questionable for ECU.

PLAYERS TO WATCH...

FLORIDA STATE

NG RON SIMMONS (No. 50, 6-1, 245, Sr., Warner Robins, Ga.)--missed the Louisville game with a bad right ankle. He sustained a sprain in the opener at LSU. He's the most heralded player in FSU football history, making consensus All-America last year as a junior. In addition, he took ninth place in the Heisman voting and was a finalist for the Lombardi Award. Among the All-American first teams he made last season were Associated Press, United Press International, Walter Camp, Football News and the American Coaches Association (Kodak).

DB MONK BONASORTE (No. 42, 6-0, 175, Sr., Pittsburgh, Pa.)--had an interception in season opener at LSU which brought his career total to 12, including eight last season when he was a third team Associated Press All-American. His total steals in 1979 ranked fourth in the country. Monk is one of the leading success stories in college football this year--he came to FSU as a walk-on tight end.

CB BOBBY BUTLER (No. 21, 5-11, 175, Sr., Delray Beach, Fla.)--blocked the sixth kick of his career in game at LSU. Last season he had one vs. Louisville and got another in Orange Bowl game vs. Oklahoma. He ranks as the quickest player on Tribe roster and spent this spring as a member of the Seminole track and field squad where he was a member of the 400 meter relay team, running the lead off leg. That group finished third in the NCAA championships and Butler was credited with All-American status.

OT KEN LANIER (No. 72, 6-3, 270, Sr., Columbus, Ohio)--the only starter in the offensive line who will be in that capacity for a fourth straight season. He is one of the most talented offensive linemen ever to play for the Tribe. He has been a starter since the second game of frosh season. Ken is also a member of the FSU track and field team that has won the Metro Conference team championship the last four years. He has won the league shot championship the last two years.

TB SAM PLATT (No. 29, 6-0, 190, Sr., Jacksonville, Fla.)--became the first Seminole to rush for 100 yards this season when he picked up 107 in 19 carries vs. Louisville. This is the first year he has played in the Tribe backfield since he previously was a wide receiver where in three years he caught 32 passes for 628 yards and nine touchdowns.

WR DENNIS McKINNON (No. 6, 6-1, 175, So., Miami, Fla.)--caught six passes vs. Louisville for 113 yards and two touchdowns. The total catches were two more than his career total starting the game (four for 60 yards). He's considered the most exciting player to don a Garnet & Gold uniform for the Tribe since Larry Key, who graduated in 1977. McKinnon also is slated to return kickoffs and punts this fall for the Tribe.

EAST CAROLINA

RB ANTHONY COLLINS (No. 33, 6-0, 204, Sr., Penn Yan, N.Y.)--an All-South Independent selection last year he began '80 season eighth on East Carolina's all-time career rushing list. Last season he was the fourth best all-purpose running in the NCAA with 1,695 yards, including 1,330 rushing, 16th best in the nation. He averaged 7.3 yards per carry in 1979 and began season second among active players in NCAA in yards gained per rush with a 6.63 career average. This season he has gained 111 yards in 22 carries while catching seven for 63 yards.

QB CARLTON NELSON (No. 6, 6-0, 170, So., Portsmouth, Va.)--is passing at a 64 percent completion rate this fall for Pirates. In two games, he has hit on 16 of 25 attempts for 159 yards. None of the passes have gone for scores, but none have been intercepted either. As a freshman he had completed just two of seven attempts. Against Duke in the season opener, he completed four of four.

IMPORTANT: Most player categories are ranked on per-game average. Thus, it's vital that you consider every player (on both teams) with any statistics in any game this season (get season player statistics from both SIDs). Then list below the last name of players who have season figures but did NOT play in this game. All players with previous statistics will be charged with a game unless you indicate otherwise under DID NOT PLAY IN THIS GAME. A game played is one play—whether or not the player touches the ball. (For guidelines on a game played, refer to BI-7 in 1980 Official Football Statisticians' Manual.) ## SCORING SUMMARY

List all scoring plays in sequence. "Time left" means time remaining in the quarter at the conclusion of the scoring play. Under "play," to save you time, please use only: Rush, Pass, INT, PR, KOR, FUM, FG, or SAF (instead of writing out interception, punt, kickoff and fumble returns, field goal or safety).

On pass play, list passer first, then receiver and combined yardage of pass and run. All plays are measured from the line of scrimmage except field-goal attempts—from the point of kick to the goal posts (goal line plus 10 yards).

After each touchdown, please continue on the same line and under "FOR EXTRA POINTS ONLY" check (✓) type of PAT (kick, pass or run) and whether good (G) or no good (NG).

Florida State vs. East Carolina

Coaches Quotes

Bobby Bowden, Florida State

"There were too many things going for us tonight--- the heat, the troops. We just outmanned them. They (East Carolina were just dead at the end. On that last drive you could tell they couldn't even stand up."

"Our plan was to wear them down."

"That's the first time we've lost two centers on two successive plays."

"I woulda hated to play ECU up there. It would have been a litttle different ball game."

"The running set up the cheap pass. We were happy when we scored in the 40's but the last two touchdowns came as a result of cheap fumbles.

"The specialty teams played well except for the one kickoff return. Eventually, people are going to score on you."

"We tried to play a lot of people tonight and run, run, run."

Ed Emory, East Carolina

"I want to congratulate Coach Bowden and his very fine football team. They've got great coaching and a fine team. Their ranking is justificable We have only six seniors out of 144 players right now. I hope he (Bowden) will have compassion to line up and play us again. I promise you the score is no indication of the type program we have at East Carolina. Our tradition and our fine program are far better. We're on the map, but Florida State has everything going right now. I've never had anything like that happen to me in my coaching career. But we have just begun to fight and come back. I would be happy to line up and play Florida State next week. We want to play the best. Nothing they did surprised me. They are quick, fast, play with lots of intensity and swarm the ball on defense. Football means so much to Florida State University, from the top man down. Frankly, I've been here before with other teams when it wasn't so important (with other teams as assistant coach). On defense I didn't think they could sweep us like they did. They just kept us out on defense like we've never been kept out before. I know they're going for all the points they can. But that's every football team's opportunity. It doesn't both me."
