COLLEEN BUCKLEY CALLAHAN

This Assistant Director of Flight Operations for the Federal Air Marshall graduated Magna Cum Laude from FSU in 1979 with a BS degree from the School of Criminology. She was one of the first female athletes at FSU to receive an athletic scholarship, being one of Coach Graf's early softball players.

Prior to her current position, she had a 22-year career with the United States Secret Service (USSS) with assignments including investigative and protective duties in various cities and with the Presidential Protective Division. She served as the Assistant Special Agent in Charge-White House Division, Deputy Assistant Director-Administration, Deputy Assistant Director-Office of Inspection, Special Investigator and writer for "The Waco Administrative Review." She was the first female in the USSS to serve as a certified Polygraph Examiner, Detail Leader for a Presidential Candidate, and to supervise a Presidential Protective Shift.

Honors include being a finalist for the Woman in Federal Law Enforcement "Manager of the Year" Award and a 2001 recipient of a Fairfax County "Professional Woman of the Year" Award. She is also a very active volunteer for Vienna youth activities.

This outstanding FSU graduate resides in Vienna, VA with her husband Kevin and their three children.

ROBERTA BOYCE STOKES

This Navy brat, a 1961 Cum Laude graduate of FSU's Physical Education Department, is a nationally recognized educator, coach, civic leader and author. Her educational experiences range from teaching a high school in Miami, to being a professor and coach at Miami Dade Community College. As a coach her teams won state championships in badminton (3), basketball (1), softball (4), and volleyball (12). Eleven times the Miami Dade volleyball teams finished the season ranked in the nation's top 10, placing second 3 times.

Her extensive involvement off campus includes membership on the boards of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Special Olympics, Baptist Health Trustees, and the Orange Bowl. She was a Founder and President of the Dade County Sports Society, President of the State Physical Education Association, President of the Florida Community College Activities Association, and active in the National Association for Girl's and Women's Sports.

Honors include being awarded an Endowed Teaching Chair at Miami Dade, selected to the National Junior College Hall of Fame and the Florida Community College Hall of Fame, and receiving an Honor Award from the Florida Physical Education Association. She is the co-author of 10 professional books related to computers, coaching, health and fitness.

This outstanding FSU graduated resides in Miami with her husband, Bill.
