Photo: George McCloud burst upon the college basketball scene last year after Pat Kennedy moved the former forward to point guard. McCloud finished the season as the Seminoles' leading scorer and earned a spot on the all-Metro conference team. Extended an invitation to tryout for the U.S. Olympic Team this summer, McCloud will be one of the Metro's top players as a senior.

Enters the season as one of the Metro Conference's brightest stars ... seldom-used forward his first two seasons, McCloud made a difficult transition to point guard look easy ... finished a cinderella season with all-Metro honors and an invitation to the United States Olympic basketball trials ... deadly accurate from three-point range ... handles the ball extremely well for a guard his size ... his passing can be devastating ... has become a hot commodity on NBA draft lists with his height and ball-handling skills as well as scoring abilities ... FSU coaches insist he is still improving and adjusting to the guard position ... excellent shooter with deceptive passing skills ... good ball-handler who responds well to pressure.

As a Junior (1987-88): Began the season as one of FSU's question marks and finished with first team all-Metro honors ... overtook Dawson for the team scoring title late in the season ... finished with an 18.2 points per game average ... invited to U.S. Olympic Trials, but was hampered by a broken hand suffered in a pick-up game after the season ... exploded in Metro games, averaging 21.7 points per contest ... hit for a career-high 34 against Cincinnati in the Metro tournament ... earned Metro all-tournament honors as he averaged 26 points over two games ... joined Dawson on Red Lobster Classic all-tournament squad ... led team in scoring in 16 of 30 games and 11 of 14 Metro contests ... carries an 11-game double-figure scoring streak into the 1988-89 season ... nailed 72-of-159 (45.3%) of his three-point attempts ... failed to hit at least one three-pointer in only three games last year ... led team in assists with 105 and free throw shooting at 78.6% ... joined by Tat Hunter as the only Seminoles to start all 30 games last season ... not afraid to take the important shot for FSU a year ago ... averaged 30 minutes playing time per game last year ... mature player who gave the Tribe leadership.

As a Sophomore (1986-87): Played in all 30 games starting four ... was the first player off the bench in most ball games playing one of three positions (shooting guard, wing, or power forward) ... lived up to physical ability as the Seminoles' most versatile player ... showed excellent ability under the basket ... averaged 20 minutes a game ... finished the year third in assists with 39 ... scored in double figures in seven games including stretch of three in a row ... had an excellent game in 80-72 win over South Carolina hitting a perfect 8-8 from the field and 4-4 from the line, while nailing one-of-three from out-side the 3-point line ... ended the year on a high note with 18 points in the NIT loss at Vanderbilt.

As a Freshman (1985-86): McCloud started one game and played in 27 of the team's 29 contests ... averaged 10.5 minutes of playing time ... for the season, scored 4.4 points per game and pulled down an average of 1.8 rebounds ... scored a career-high 15 points vs. New Orleans while hitting 4 of 5 floor shots and connecting on 7 of 8 from the free throw line ... scored 11 points three times against Pitt, Miami and Louisville and rounded out his double-figure games with 10 points against Western Carolina ... added five rebounds to his scoring figures in the Pitt and Western Carolina games but his career-high performance came in a second game with New Orleans where he had six.

High School: A first team all-state selection as well as an Orlando Sentinel "Sweet 16" pick ... was also named to the All-South squad and played in Florida's North-South all-star game ... averaged 20.9 points and 7.9 rebounds while passing out 85 assists for Mainland High School ... was team MVP ... also named top player in his junior season, when he averaged 18.6 points and 7.6 rebounds.

Personal: College major: Social Science ... Roommate: Tharon Mayes ... Hobbies: Fishing, hunting and travel ... Notables: second cousin Andra McCloud plays for Seton Hall ... Birthday: May 27, 1967.

Senior
Cantonment, FL

One of the biggest surprises in the Florida State lineup a year ago ... gifted athlete whose ability to leap and defend in the paint is unquestioned ... FSU coaches never could have hoped Hunter would finish the year as the Metro Conference's top rebounder ... played a limited role in the offense ... made most of his offensive opportunities and kept larger defenders at bay ... a personable young man ... has as quick a leap as anyone in basketball ... development may be the key to the success of the 1988-89 team.

As a Junior (1987-88): Entered the year as one of the Seminoles' biggest question marks ... responded by leading the Metro Conference in rebounding with 9.0 per contest ... faced taller players in 28-of-30 contests, but made up the difference with determination, great leaping ability and outstanding quickness off the floor ... reached double figures in rebounding in 11 games last year and led the team in 16 ... was the difference in FSU's impressive win over conference rival Louisville by grabbing a Civic Center record 20 rebounds ... snagged 34 caroms in the last two games of the regular season against Virginia Tech (19) and Southern Mississippi to take the conference crown ... finished season with the best field goal percentage (58.9%) on the squad, but did not have enough attempts to qualify ... scored in double figures in 16 games, including seven of the last nine ... joined McCloud as the only Seminoles to start all 30 games last year ... despite defending taller opponents, fouled out only three times ... Florida State was outrebounded just seven times last year ... coaches give Hunter most of the credit for that amazing statistic ... led the team with dunks with 40 last season.

As a Sophomore (1986-87): Struggled to fit into the new style of play that Kennedy installed at Florida State ... did some spectacular things in limited playing time ... always seemed to make a contribution in every game he played ... Hunter was a starter on opening night and drew three more starting assignments during the Seminole's mid-season slump ... had his best game of the year in an 11-point, six-rebound outing at Memphis State ... Hunter had an incredible 10 rebounds in only 14 minutes of playing time in FSU's late season win over Miami ... shot a respectable 50.4% from the field ... his eight blocked shots and nine steals are excellent considering his limited playing time.

As a Freshman (1985-86): Was one of the pleasant surprises of the season ... started off with a bang but his playing time diminished until the end of the season when he came on strong once again ... was the Seminoles' second leading rebounder with a 4.6 average despite averaging less than 17 minutes on the floor ... that went along with a 6.8 scoring average ... scored 22 points in his first collegiate game against Tampa and hit 21 against Florida the next time out ... he followed those performances with games of 12 and 11 points, thus scoring in double figures in his first four collegiate games ... also played well in December against North Carolina, getting 18 points and nine rebounds ... never scored in double figures again until the last two regular season games ... shot well on the season (55.7 percent), but had trouble at the line (43.8 percent) ... will be remembered most for his dunk at the buzzer after a rebound against Memphis State that gave FSU a two-point win over the fourth-ranked Tigers ... he scored just six points in that game but pulled down seven rebounds.

High School: Averaged 15.1 points and 12.1 rebounds as a senior at Gonzalez Tate High School ... led his team to a 22-6 record despite missing a few games ... named to the Orlando Sentinel's "Sweet 16" team along with fellow FSU freshman George McCloud ... was also a second team all-state selection ... one of 26 finalists for the Florida AAU team ... as a junior averaged 18 points and 13 rebounds while his numbers were 14 and 10, respectively, as a sophomore.

Personal: College major: Social Science ... Roommate: Aubry Boyd ... College course most enjoyed: Career Planning, Sociology ... Best summer job: Working in Coca-Cola bottling plant ... Few players entered Florida State with more impressive credentials than Dawson . . . earned first team junior college All-America status at Gulf Coast Community College in Panama City, FL . . . a prolific scorer . . . as talented an offensive player as the Metro has to offer . . . specializes in scoring in traffic with ability to shoot with either hand and a penchant for an awkward delivery . . . jumps from either foot which helps him force defenders into fouling . . . with addition of Irving Thomas, may be even more effective at the three position with his ability to score away from the hoop . . . still walks with a limp because of a childhood accident . . . his left leg was injured so badly it is still shorter than the right . . . FSU trainers have worked with him over the summer to strengthen his body and leg . . . employed an automatic stair walking machine to whip the senior into shape.

As a Junior (1987-88): Led Florida State in scoring almost the entire season before McCloud passed him in the last week . . . finished with a 17.9 point per game average . . . ranked among the best scorers in the Metro Conference . . . recognized by The Sporting News as one of the top five junior college transfers in the nation . . . extremely talented offensive player . . . proved to be as consistent as he was spectacular with the basketball in his hands . . . reached double figures in all but one game, including a strong close that saw him hit 10 or more points in the last 12 contests . . . missed just one start in his first year at FSU . . . had big scoring nights of 22 or more on six occasions, including a career-high 30 in the NCAA tournament game against Iowa . . . led the team in rebounding in ten games . . . finished with an impressive average of 7.5 per game . . . exceptional scorer especially around the bucket, who carried the offensive burden for the Seminoles during the early season . . . 53.9 field goal percentage led the team . . . earned all-tournament honors at Red Lobster Classic . . . grabbed 20 rebounds over two games and led the team in scoring (18) in near upset of third-ranked Pittsburgh . . . was perfect from the foul line in nine games and finished with 72.5 percent for the year . . . strong player with great finesse around the iron.

Junior College: Recognized as one of the top junior college prospects in the nation while starring for Gulf Coast Community College in Panama City . . . named first team All-American and Florida Junior College Player of the Year for 86-87 . . . averaged 30 points per game for Coach Jim Oler, who is still FSU's all-time leading scorer . . . shot 68% from the field and grabbed an average of 12 rebounds per contest . . . scored 26 points on 11-of-13 shooting in junior college all-star game.

High School: Starred at Kinston High School in Kinston, North Carolina . . . played center position at high school level winning all-state recognition by several polls . . . came from same high school that produced NC State center Charles Shackelford and local press believes he had the most talent . . . high school area produced some of the nation's top talent including former Seminole Mitchell Wiggins.

Personal: College major: Criminology . . . Roommate: Derrick Mitchell . . . Notables: Played on same high school team with NC State's Charles Shackelford . . . Freak auto accidents as a child resulted in breaking same leg two times . . . Birthday: August 25, 1967.
