NCAA Tournament History

1967-68

Led by sophomore Dave Cowens, Florida State made its first NCAA Tournament appearance during the 1967-68 season. The Seminoles finished the year with a 19-8 record after a 79-69 loss to East Tennessee State in the first round of the Midwest Regional. Cowens had an outstanding season averaging 18.8 points and 17.0 rebounds per game while hitting 53.8 percent (206-of-383) from the floor. Junior Jeff Hogan (13.8 ppg) and sophomore Jan Gies (12.7 ppg) also averaged in double figures for head coach Hugh Durham's second FSU team.

Dave Cowens helped Florida State to its first berth in the NCAA Tournament.

1988-89

Florida State used the 1988-89 season to serve as a national coming out party. The Seminoles topped one outstanding season with another, making the NCAA Tournament in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. FSU, which returned four starters from the previous year, opened the season by winning 16 of its first 17 games, the best start in school history, and rose to as high as No. 8 in the national polls. The Seminoles also won the Metro Conference regular season crown, earned the fourth seed in the NCAA Southeast Regional and finished with a 22-8 record. George McCloud (22.8 ppg) and Tony Dawson (21.0 ppg) again led FSU by both averaging at least 21.0 points per game.

Tony Dawson helped Florida State to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time in the program's history.

Florida State had the most successful season in school history in 1971-72.

1971-72

Entering the 1971-72 season, Florida State head coach Hugh Durham had one primary goal for his players. Said Durham prior to the season, "I want to get our players to play to their potential. If they do that, the wins will take care of themselves. By any standard, Durham succeeded. That season, Florida State fielded its most successful team in school history, winning a program record 27 games against just six losses. The season culminated with an NCAA Midwest Regional Championship, a trip to the Final Four and a date with five-time defending national champion UCLA and legendary coach John Wooden in the national championship game. Along the way to the title game, Florida State knocked off perennial powers Minnesota, Kentucky and North Carolina. In the championship game, FSU fell just five points short of a national championship, going down 81-76 to the Bruins.

1977-78

Florida State found its way back to the NCAA Tournament in head coach Hugh Durham's final season at FSU, 1977-78. The Seminoles rolled through the Metro Conference to win the league's regular season title with an 11-1 record before falling in the conference tournament title game to Louisville 94-93. FSU's season ended in the NCAA Midwest Regional when it lost to eventual national champion Kentucky 85-76. Harry Davis capped his Seminole career by leading Florida State in scoring (19.5 ppg) and rebounding (7.4 rpg).

Two-time team Most Valuable Player Harris Davis keyed Florida State's 1977-78 trip to the NCAA Tournament.

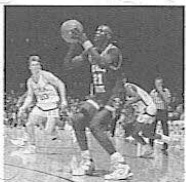

Junior guard Mickey Dillard was the leading scorer on Florida State's 1979-80 NCAA Tournament team.

1979-80

The trio of guard Mickey Dillard, forward Murray Brown and center Elvis Rolle helped Florida State to its second postseason appearance in three seasons with its trip to the 1980 NCAA Tournament. The Seminoles posted a 22-9 record and finished as Metro Conference runners-up. FSU beat Toledo 94-91 in the first round of the NCAA Midwest Regional for its first postseason win in eight years before being eliminated by Kentucky. Dillard led Florida State with a 20.4 points per game scoring average while Brown (18.6) and Rolle (15.3) also averaged in double figures for head coach Joe Williams' club.

1987-88

Head coach Pat Kennedy's second team at Florida State returned to the NCAA Tournament after a seven-year absence. The Seminoles' Cinderella season began with low expectations as the Tribe had been picked to finish near the basement of the Metro Conference standings. But two personnel decisions turned the season into a satisfying one for Seminole fans. The first was to move a previously overweight, seldom-used forward to point guard and the other was to offer a scholarship to a junior college transfer whose left leg was shorter than his right. The twosome - George McCloud (point guard) and Tony Dawson (junior college transfer) - transformed FSU into an NCAA Tournament club that earned the 12th seed in the West Regional before falling to Iowa 102-98 in the first round. McCloud (18.2 ppg) and Dawson (17.9 ppg) both averaged more than 17 points per game for the 19-11 Seminoles.

George McCloud's move to point guard helped the Seminoles exceed expectations and make the NCAA Tournament field in 1988.

Charlie Ward entered the Florida State starting lineup midway through the 1990-91 campaign and Florida State's season took off.

1990-91

After a one-year absence, Florida State returned to the NCAA Tournament in 1990-91. Heading into the season, most experts thought that it would be head coach Pat Kennedy's most challenging since coming to Tallahassee. The Seminoles struggled early in the season and opened the year just 5-5. But in game 11 head coach Pat Kennedy inserted Charlie Ward in the starting lineup at point guard and FSU began to surge. Florida State won 12 of its final 17 games and rolled through the Metro Conference Tournament in three games to claim its first tournament title in its final season in the league. The Seminoles were the seventh seed in the NCAA Tournament's Midwest Regional and defeated USC in the first round 75-72, for FSU's first tournament win since 1980. Florida State's season would end with a 21-11 record after a second round loss to Indiana.

1991-92

Not many college basketball experts predicted that Florida State's first game and season in the Atlantic Coast Conference would be so successful. The Seminoles' first game turned out to be one of the greatest wins in school history and the season was one of the finest in program annals. FSU's ACC opener at North Carolina would provide a glimpse of what was to follow that season. Playing without star forward Doug Edwards and with just one senior on the roster, the Seminoles went into the Dean Smith Center and stunned the fifth-ranked Tar Heels 86-74 before more than 19,000. Florida State rolled on to a 22-10 record, an 11-5 conference record and second place finish, and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. Seeded third in the West Regional, FSU defeated Montana and Georgetown before giving Indiana everything it could handle in defeat.

Bob Sura and the Seminoles beat Alonzo Mourning and Georgetown on the way to the 1992 Sweet 16.

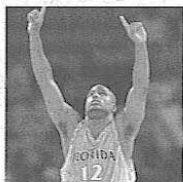

Florida State advanced to within a game of the Final Four in 1995. The Seminoles lost to Kentucky in the Southeast Region Championship game.

1992-93

One year after advancing to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament, the 1992-93 Seminoles did their predecessor one better - a trip to the Elite Eight. The second most successful season in Florida State basketball history ended just 40 minutes shy of the Final Four with a loss to Kentucky in the Southeast Regional Championship Game. Led by the quintet of Sam Cassell, Rodney Dobard, Doug Edwards, Bob Sura and Charlie Ward, the Seminoles went 25-10, including a 12-1 mark in the ACC. Florida State's 25 wins were the second most in school history.

1997-98

Steve Robinson's first season as the Seminoles' head coach was a successful one as he took his team back to the NCAA Tournament. Florida State opened the season by winning 12 of its first 14 games, including an 84-79 win over defending national champion Arizona in Tallahassee. After a late season stumble, FSU picked itself back up in the first round of the NCAA Tournament's Midwest Regional. The Seminoles, seeded 12th, played one of its best games of the year in beating No. 5 Texas Christian 96-87. Florida State's season would end in the second round with a heart-breaking 83-77 overtime loss to Valparaiso and an 18-14 record.

Kerry Thompson and FSU celebrated its return to the NCAA Tournament with a first round win over Texas Christian.

Seminoles in the Pros

With five former players on rosters at the end of the 1997-98 season, few college programs are better represented in the NBA than Florida State. Four times in the last six seasons, a Seminole has been selected in the opening round of the draft.

Bob Sura, the Seminoles' all-time leading scorer, was the most recent first round pick when the Cleveland Cavaliers took him with the 17th overall selection in 1995. When James Collins was taken in the second round of the 1997 draft, he became the fifth Florida State player selected in the last six drafts.

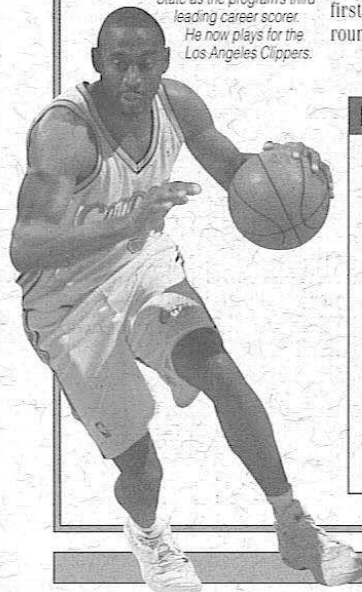

Collins joined former teammates Sura and Charlie Ward (New York Knicks), along with Sam Cassell (New Jersey Nets) and George McCloud (Phoenix Suns) in the NBA.

Cassell has wasted little time leaving his mark on the league, capturing two Former Florida State guards Sam Cassell (above left) and Charlie Ward (above right) are enjoying solid careers in the NBA. Cassell is the starting point guard for the New Jersey Nets while Ward earned the starting job for the New York Knicks.

James Collins (below) left Florida State as the program's third leading career scorer. He now plays for the Los Angeles Clippers.

Bob Sura just finished his third season with the Cleveland Cavaliers.

George McCloud has played in the NBA for eight seasons. He recently completed his first year with the Phoenix Suns.

NBA titles with the Houston Rockets in his first three seasons. He led the Nets in scoring a year ago and has emerged as one of the NBA's top young point guards.

Ward was the Knicks starting point guard as they advanced to the Eastern Conference semifinals. Sura fought through an injury plagued season but is still considered one of the better young players in the Eastern Conference. McCloud, who is one of the NBA's best three-point shooters, signed with the Suns as a free agent last offseason and averaged more than 10 points per game in the playoffs.

Dave Cowens remains the most accomplished Seminole in NBA annals. Cowens, who just finished his second season as head coach of the Charlotte Hornets, enjoyed a long career with the Boston Celtics, leading them to a pair of World Championships. The star center is a member of both the FSU Athletics and Pro Basketball Halls of Fame. He enjoyed a nine-year NBA career and was the first Seminole ever taken in the draft's opening round when the Boston Celtics tabbed him in 1970. In his two seasons as a head coach, Cowens has guided the Hornets to a pair of 50-win seasons. He was runner-up in the NBA's Coach of the Year balloting in 1996-97.

Florida State has had eight players taken in the first round of the NBA Draft, including five in the last 10 seasons. In the 51-year history of Florida State basketball 30 Seminoles have been taken in the draft and 35 players have signed NBA contracts. Dave Fedor was the first-ever FSU alum selected in the draft when the Philadelphia 76ers chose him in the third round in 1962.
