The Florida State men's basketball team travels on charter airplanes to nearly every destination on it's schedule throughout the season. Charter flights reduce travel time considerably and allow the team to get to any location easily and comfortably. In addition, this type of travel minimizes time away from campus and out of class which increases time spent concentrating on academics.

Pictured right is the Magic Carpet Ride – the official airplane of the Orlando Magic basketball team of the NBA. When it is available, the Seminoles travel on the Magic Carpet Ride. The convenience and comfort of charter airplane travel helps the Seminoles stay grounded and focused on their academic and athletic performance.

While enjoying the most comfortable and efficient methods of travel, the Florida State practices in the very best facilities when they are on the road. During the 2001 season, the Seminoles practiced in the Gund Arena (home of the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers) and the Phillips Arena (home of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks) and played in the Georgia Dome (site of the 2002 NCAA Final Four).

The Seminoles travel to selected destinations on the official charter plane of the Orlando Magic.

The Gund Arena, home of the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers, hosted the Seminoles for a practice session during the 2000-01 season.

The ACC Tournament:

A One-of-a-Kind Event by the Members of a One-of-a-Kind Conference.

That Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament is the greatest gathering of the greatest college basketball players of any conference tournament in the nation. It is recognized as "The Grandfather of All Tournaments" because of its ability to sustain its competitiveness, success, passion, enthusiasm and commitment to excellence since the first ACC Tournament in 1954.

ACC basketball is something special and the ACC Tournament only adds to the athletic luster of the nine conference institutions. The tournament's pageantry, quality, tradition, players and coaches make it the most special of all the conference tournaments.

Last year's ACC Tournament at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, Ga., was the most attended college conference basketball tournament in NCAA history.

The tournament set NCAA attendance records for total attendance (182,525), per session averaged (36,505) and single session attendance (40,083).

The ACC Tournament was held at NC State's Reynolds Coliseum for its first 13 years (1954-66). Since then, it has been held at the original Charlotte Coliseum, the Capital Centre in Landover, Md., the Omni in Atlanta, Ga., the current Charlotte (N.C.) Coliseum, the Greensboro (N.C.) Coliseum and the Georgia Dome.

The inaugural ACC Tournament in 1954 attracted 39,200 fans to the seven games at Reynolds Coliseum. The last year there was a "public" sale of ACC Tournament tickets was 1966. Over the past two decades all of the tournaments have been sold out in advance as the tickets are equally distributed among the nine-member institutions.
