FLORIDA STATE

LIGHTS OUT

Florida State, which averages more than 20 wins and has advanced to the postseason in the last two years, returns four starters and nine letterwinners for the 2007–08 season as it looks to continue a five-year upswing of success under head coach Leonard Hamilton. The Seminoles will be led by a pair of veteran seniors — Jason Rich and Isaiah Swann — and a tested junior — Toney Douglas — as they continue to establish the Florida State basketball team as one of the top programs in the nation.
