PLAYERS

42 RYAN REID

SENIOR | FORWARD | 6-8 | 235

Hometown: Lauderdale Lakes, Florida
High School (Coach): Boyd Anderson High School
 (Eugene Richardson)

Ryan Reid is one of Florida State's most improved players throughout the course of his career – and is its only senior for the 2009-10 season. He will be counted on to have his best season in order for the Seminoles to continue their ascent into the upper level of the ACC and college basketball on a national level. He is one of the Seminoles' most important reserves and helped lead Florida State to the 2009 NCAA Tournament and to the championship game of the 2009 ACC Tournament. Reid enters the 2009-10 season having played in 95 career games and will reach the 100 mark for games played early in his senior season. He has played in three post-season tournaments (one NCAA and two NIT) and has been a part of 66 victories in the first three seasons of his career. Reid blocked a career-high 23 shots as a junior and enters his senior season ranked 21st in blocked shots in school history – he needs 20 blocked shots to become only the 13th player in school history to block 75 or more career shots. He enters his senior season with 367 career rebounds and needs only 133 rebounds to become the 31st player in school history with 500 or more career rebounds.

AS A JUNIOR (2008-09)

- Averaged 4.9 points (sixth on the team), 3.7 rebounds (sixth) and a career-high 0.7 blocked shots as he played in a career-high 35 games in helping the Seminoles reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998 and play in the ACC Championship game for the first time in school history.
- Established career-high statistics for total points scored (172), field goals made (62), field goals attempted (141), free throws made (48), free throws attempted (76), defensive rebounds (78), total rebounds (130), assists (26), blocked shots (23), steals (23) and total minutes played (669).
- Started the first 16 games of the season before becoming one of the most effective sixth-men in the league during the ACC portion of the schedule.
- Led Florida State in scoring once (14 points against Cincinnati, Nov. 28 in the Global Sports Classic) and in rebounding twice (7 at Boston College, Feb. 24 and 5 vs. Clemson, Feb. 28).
- Averaged 3.3 points and 4.7 rebounds in three games during the ACC Tournament as Florida State advanced to the championship game of the event for the first time in school history. He shot .500 from the field (four of eight) and blocked two shots as the Seminoles defeated Georgia Tech in the quarterfinals, No. 1 ranked North Carolina in the semifinals and played Duke for the ACC Tournament championship. He scored six points and pulled down seven rebounds in the Seminoles' victory over No. 1 ranked North Carolina in the semifinals – a victory which sent the Seminoles to the ACC Tournament championship game.

- Scored two points, pulled down one rebound, earned one blocked shot and one steal in 20 minutes of play in the Seminoles' game against Wisconsin in the NCAA Tournament (March 20). The game was played at the Taco Bell Arena in Boise, Idaho and was the Seminoles' first NCAA Tournament game since the 1998 season.
- Averaged 7.8 points and 3.3 rebounds in four games during the Global Sports Classic. He started all four games for Florida State and scored 14 points in the Seminoles' semifinal round win over Cincinnati (Nov. 28). He also added nine rebounds and two blocks against Cincinnati and totaled seven points and five rebounds in the Seminoles' championship game victory over Cal (Nov. 29).
- Scored in double figures with 13 points in Florida State's third consecutive victory over Florida (Dec. 7).
- Averaged 5.0 points and 5.0 rebounds in two games against NCAA Tournament participant Clemson. Reid scored two points and pulled down five rebounds as the Seminoles defeated Clemson (Feb. 7) on the road in Clemson, 65-61, helping the Seminoles recover from as much as a 19-point deficit. He then scored his ACC season-high of eight points, pulled down a team-high tying five rebounds and earned his ACC season-high of three assists as the Seminoles defeated the Tigers, 73-67, in Tallahassee (Feb. 28)

- Averaged 2.7 points and 2.7 rebounds in three games against NCAA Tournament participant Duke. Reid scored four points, pulled down three rebounds and earned one steal as the Blue Devils defeated the Seminoles, 79-69, in the championship game of the ACC Tournament at the Georgia Dome.

- Averaged 2.0 points and 3.0 rebounds in two games against Georgia Tech. He earned two blocked shots and two steals as the Seminoles defeated the Yellow Jackets at home during the regular season and at the Georgia Dome in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament. Reid totaled four rebounds in Florida State's 64-62 victory over Georgia Tech in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament (March 13) as he helped the Seminoles outrebound the Yellow Jackets, 35-34, in the win.

- Scored six points and pulled down four rebounds in one game against NCAA Tournament participant Maryland. His six points in 18 minutes helped Florida State defeat Maryland, 76-73, in overtime in Tallahassee (Jan. 17).

- Averaged 5.0 points and 5.5 rebounds in two games against NCAA National Champion North Carolina. Scored six points and pulled down seven rebounds while blocking two shots in 18 minutes of play as Florida State shocked the basketball world by defeating No. 1 ranked North Carolina, 73-70, to advance to the championship game of the ACC Tournament.

- Earned the Unsung Hero Award from the coaching staff at the Seminoles' annual honors banquet in 2009.

AS A SOPHOMORE (2007-08)

- Averaged 5.6 points (sixth on the team) and a career-high 5.0 rebounds (second) while playing in 25 of the Seminoles' 34 games during his second season as a Seminole. He led a sharp shooting Florida State team with a .531 field goal shooting percentage.
- Started a career-high 21 games as a sophomore after not starting a game during his freshman season and averaged a career-high 24.1 minutes played per game and played in double figures in each of the 25 games he appeared in. His career-high of 36 minutes came in the season finale against Akron in the Seminoles' NIT game against the Zips.

- Improved his scoring average by nearly three points per game as a sophomore, as he scored at least one point in each of the 25 games he played in -- in contrast he went scoreless in eight different games as a freshman.

- Improved his rebounding average by nearly two rebounds per game as a sophomore as he pulled down at least two rebounds in each game he played in -- in contrast he pulled down one or fewer rebounds in eight different games as a freshman.

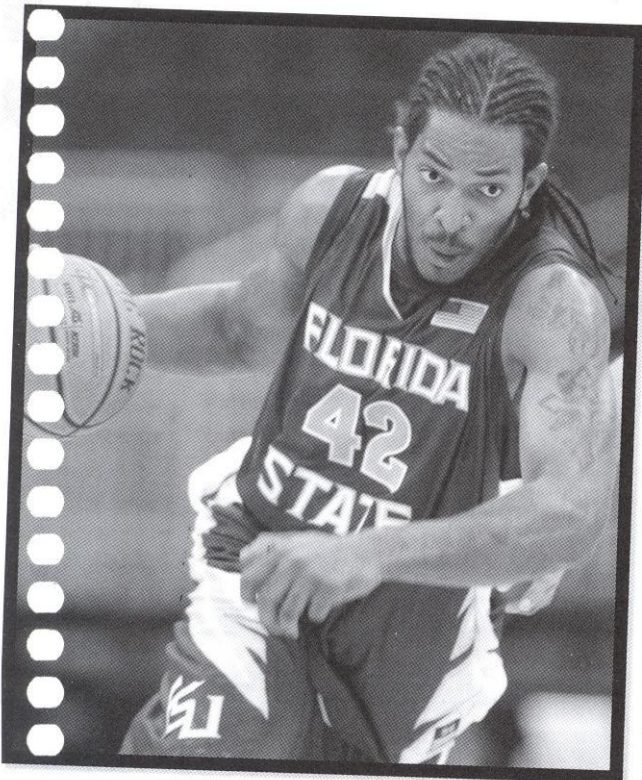

- Led the team in rebounding a career-high five times to tie for second on the team for times leading the team in rebounds.

- His biggest improvement came from the free throw line as he shot a career-high .679 from the line as a sophomore. He was at his best from the free throw line as he made seven free throws on a career-high nine attempts in Florida State's victory over Miami on March 8 in Tallahassee. Reid was a perfect six of six from the line in the final 4:31 of the game to send the contest into overtime where the Seminoles gained the 75-72 win.

- Scored in double figures in a career-high five different games as compared to one game in double figure scoring as a freshman, with four of those double figure scoring games coming in ACC play after scoring in double figures zero times in ACC play in 2006-07.

- Scored 10 points and pulled down five rebounds in Florida State's only game against NIT participant Maryland during the 2007-08 season. He finished as one of four Seminole players in double figures as Maryland rallied to win at the Comcast Center in College Park, Md. (Feb. 16).

Signature Game

Ryan Reid scored 14 points and pulled down six rebounds against Cincinnati in the semifinals of the Global Sports Classic at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas on Nov. 28, 2008.

AS A SOPHOMORE (2007-08)

- Averaged 6.5 points and 3.5 rebounds in two games against NCAA Tournament participant Miami.
- He scored 11 points and pulled down four rebounds in his ACC career-high of 32 minutes as Florida State defeated Miami, 75-72, in overtime in Tallahassee (March 8) as he scored seven of his 11 points from the free throw line and made a career-high seven free throws in a career-high nine attempts in the victory. Reid scored six second-half points – all on free throws and all in the final 4:31 of regulation to tie the game and send it into overtime. His two free throws were the final two points of regulation. Reid played all five minutes in the overtime period as he scored two points in the extra session -- it was his lay-up with only 19 seconds into the overtime period that set the Seminoles on the course to victory.
- Averaged 4.3 points and 5.7 rebounds in three games against ACC Champion and NCAA Tournament semifinalist North Carolina. He totaled 17 rebounds and shot 1.000 percent from the 3-point line in the three game series against the Tar Heels. He scored five points and added three rebounds to go along with two blocked shots as the Seminoles played host to North Carolina in Tallahassee (Feb. 3) and made the biggest shot of his career with 8.1 seconds remaining in regulation as he scored a 3-point shot from deep in the right corner to tie the game at 67-67 and send it into overtime...the 3-point shot was the first attempt from the bonusphere during his career.

- Scored 14 points and pulled down seven rebounds in the Seminoles' game against Akron in the first round of the NIT. He made his career-high of six field goals in a career-high tying eight field goal attempts and was a perfect two-of-two from the free throw line in finishing as one of two Florida State players in double figure scoring.
- Scored five points and pulled down five rebounds in 26 minutes played as a starter in the Seminoles' 65-51 victory over No. 24 Florida in Gainesville (Nov. 23). All five points and four of his rebounds came in the first half to stake Florida State to a 34-21 lead at the intermission. It was a Reid lay-up at the 6:19 mark of the half that gave the Seminoles their biggest lead of the game at 29-10 (+19).

- Earned the team award for the top field goal shooting percentage from the Seminole coaching staff at the annual team banquet in 2008.

AS A FRESHMAN (2006-07)

- Averaged 2.9 points (ninth on the team) and 3.2 rebounds (fourth) while shooting .562 from the field and averaging 16.1 minutes played per game (eighth).
- One of only seven players on the roster who played in all 35 games and one of only eight players on the team who played in all 16 ACC games.
- Averaged more rebounds (3.2) than points (2.9) and blocked more shots (16) than all but two Seminoles as he accepted his role as a defender from day one of pre-season camp.
- Scored more points than he had rebounds only 11 times and recorded more blocked shots than he scored points four times in his 35 games played.
- He rebounded extremely well on the offensive end of the court as he finished second on the team with a 1.3 offensive rebounds per game average. His 46 total offensive rebounds placed him second behind only Seminole All-American Al Thornton.
- Led the Seminoles

2 JORDAN DEMERCY

JUNIOR | FORWARD | 6-7 | 215

Hometown: Norcross, Georgia
High School (Coach): Norcross High School (Eddie Martin)
 Greater Atlanta Christian (Ron Bradley)

Jordan DeMercy is one of the most important Seminoles whose athletic ability on both the offensive and defensive ends of the court allow him to play a number of multifaceted roles within not only every game but within every possession. He is often called upon to shut down the opposing teams' top offensive player on the perimeter and has had amazing success with those assignments. DeMercy has been a starter during his career, and could develop into a starter once again this season. He has accepted his role as one of the top and most experienced sixth men in the ACC. He helped Florida State reach the NCAA Tournament and helped it reach the championship game of the ACC Tournament as well as in the championship of the Global Sports Classic during his sophomore season. As he enters his junior season he will be one of the Seminoles' most experienced players with 66 games and 16 games started – the second highest number of career games played by a current Seminole. During his career he has helped lead Florida State to a pair of victories over ranked Florida teams, a pair of victories over ranked Clemson teams and a victory over No. 1 ranked North Carolina in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament.

AS A SOPHOMORE (2008-09)

- Averaged a career-high 3.1 points (ninth on the team), a career-high 2.6 rebounds (seventh), a career-high 1.7 assists (fourth), and a career-high 0.8 steals (fifth) while playing in a career-high 35 games.
- Was a starter in the first 16 games of the season as he earned the first 16 starts of his career and averaged 4.2 points and 3.4 rebounds as a starter.
- Established single-season career-highs for games played (35), games started (16), field goals made (39), field goals attempted (104), 3-point field goals made (11), 3-point field goals attempted (43), free throws made (18), free throws attempted (31), free throw percentage (.581), total points (107), average points per game (3.1), offensive rebounds (21), defensive rebounds (69), total rebounds (90), average rebounds per game (2.6), assists (60), blocked shots (12), steals (27), minutes played (688) and average minutes played per game (19.7)
- Scored his career-high of 12 points to go along with four rebounds, two assists and one blocked shot in 30 minutes played to lead Florida State past No. 21/23 Florida (Dec. 7). DeMercy scored all of his points in the second half as he led the Seminoles to the 57-55 victory.
- Scored in double figures twice as a sophomore (the first two times of his career) as he totaled 10 points in Florida State's season opening victory over Jacksonville (Nov. 15) and a career-high 12 points in the Seminoles' win over in-state rival Florida. He also scored nine points in the Seminoles' road victory at La Salle (Nov. 18). His nine points against La Salle came in a starting role in 28 minutes played as he scored the final four points of the game in the final 28 seconds to give the Seminoles the 65-61 victory.

- Averaged 2.5 points and 1.5 rebounds in two victories over NCAA Tournament participant Clemson. He scored five points and added one assist, one steal and one blocked shot in the Seminoles' 65-61 victory over Clemson on the road as he helped the Seminoles register one of the most memorable and terrific comebacks in program and ACC history. Florida State was down by 15 points with 8:56 left in the game.
- Averaged 2.0 points and 2.7 rebounds in three games against ACC Tournament champion and NCAA Tournament participant Duke. He scored two points and pulled down two rebounds in 21 minutes of play against the Blue Devils in the ACC Tournament championship game in the Georgia Dome with his two points for the game coming on two free throws in the first half.

- Averaged 4.5 points, 2.0 rebounds and 20.0 minutes played in two games against NIT participant Miami.
- Earned one assist in 11 minutes of playing time as the Seminoles defeated No. 1 ranked North Carolina, 73-70, in the semifinals of the ACC Tour-namment in the Georgia Dome (March 14). His assist came on a basket by All-American Toney Douglas that gave Florida State a 38-34 lead with 18:28 remaining in the game. The Seminoles' victory over the Tar Heels sent them to the ACC Tournament championship game for the first time in school history and was the third ever victory over the nation's No. 1 ranked team in school history.

- Scored his ACC career-high of seven points to go along with three rebounds and one blocked shot against NCAA Tournament participant Wake Forest.
- Scored one point and earned two assists and one steal in the Seminoles' NCAA Tournament game against Wisconsin. The Badgers rallied in the second half to defeat the Seminoles in overtime, 61-59, in a game played at the Taco Bell Arena in Boise, Idaho. The game marked a return to the NCAA Tournament after an 11 year absence and was Florida State's first appearance in the event since 1998.

- Earned the Sixth Man and the Mr. Hustle Awards from the coaching staff at the Seminoles' honor banquet which honored the Seminoles' 2009 NCAA Tournament team.

AS A FRESHMAN (2007-08)

- Averaged 1.4 points (tied for 10th on the team) and 1.5 rebounds (10th) while earning 15 steals in an average of 9.6 minutes played as he appeared in 31 of the Seminoles 34 games and shot 50 percent from the field.
- As his playing time increased so did his production. He scored more points in 16 ACC games (24 total points / 1.5 ppg) than he did in 15 non-conference games (19 total points / 1.3 ppg) and earned 10 steals in 16 ACC games and five steals in 15 non-conference games. His field goal shooting percentage increased to .550

(11 of 20) in ACC games from .444 (eight of 18) in non-ACC games when he gladly accepted increased playing time after the unfortunate season-ending injury to Isaiah Swann against Miami (Feb. 6).

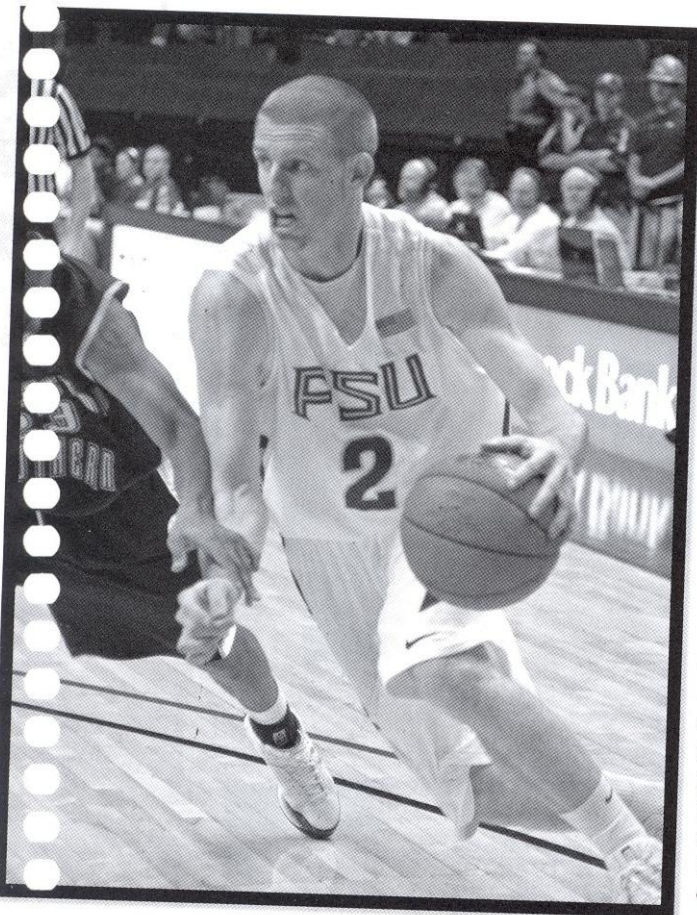

- Saw his playing time nearly double after Isaiah Swann's injury as he averaged 13.5 minutes played per game (149 minutes in 11 games) as compared to 7.5 minutes played per game (150 minutes in 20 games) before Swann was injured and lost for the season.

• Finished his first season as one of seven Seminoles with double figure steals (15) with most of them coming during critical times in games and many leading directly to made baskets for Florida State. His 15 steals were the most on the team by a player who did not start a game. DeMercy's steals came in 11 different games with multiple thefts coming in four different games. His career-high two steals in victories over Georgia State (Nov. 12), Maine (Dec. 8) and in ACC road games at Maryland (Feb. 16) and at North Carolina (March 4).

- Scored four points and pulled down two rebounds as the Seminoles faced Boston College only once during the 2007-08 season. He helped Florida State take an important 66-63 victory to gain the first victory over Boston College (Feb. 23) in the series and since they joined the ACC for the 2005-06 season.

- Scored five points and pulled down one rebound in the Seminoles' only game of the season

Signature Game

Jordan DeMercy

Jordan DeMercy scored 12 points and pulled down four rebounds in the Seminoles' victory over No. 21/23 Florida on Dec. 7, 2008.

against Georgia Tech. Florida State rallied from as much as a 10-point deficit to gain the 66-64 ACC season opening victory on the road in Atlanta (Dec. 30). DeMercy's five points were crucial as they helped the Seminoles take a 40-34 lead at the intermission and aided in the Seminoles' final margin of victory in the game. His first 3-point shot was one of the big differences in the game as he gave Florida State a 29-27 lead with 5:22 left in the first half.

AT NORCROSS

- Graduated from Norcross High School in 2007
- Averaged 9.4 points, 4.2 assists, 2.8 steals and 1.1 blocked shots in leading Norcross to the Class 5A state championship and the No. 12 national ranking by USA TODAY.
- Shot .575 from the field, .324 from 3-point range and made 23 3-point field goals as a senior. He led Norcross to a 30-3 overall record and an unblemished 17-0 record in conference play.
- Led Norcross to a No. 12 national ranking in the final poll by USA Today as a senior
- Helped his stock reach the sky after he was named to the All-Star team at the Nike All-American Camp prior to his senior season. He was initially invited to the camp but traveled to Indianapolis, arrived at the site and waited four hours for his name to be called as an alternate. All he did from there was become one of the top players in the camp.

- Did not play on the Norcross varsity as a junior in 2006 due to Georgia high school athletic association transfer rules and broke his wrist prior to the spring 2006 evaluation period, thus limiting his ability to be seen during the most important of recruiting periods.
- Transferred to Norcross from Greater Atlanta Christian School between his sophomore and junior seasons. Because he did not change his address, the Georgia High School Athletic Association ruled him ineligible for varsity competition. He averaged a double-double as a member of the J.V. team as a junior.
- A member of the always strong Georgia Hurricanes AAU team.
- An outstanding athlete; he placed second in the high jump (6-2) and second in the long jump (21-8) in the state championship track meet as a senior.

22 DERWIN KITCHEN

JUNIOR | GUARD | 6-4 | 198

Hometown: Jacksonville, Florida
Previous Team (Coach): Iowa Western CC (Jim Morris)
High School (Coach): Raines High School (Douglas White)

Derwin Kitchen is one of the rising stars in the Atlantic Coast Conference who began to make his mark as a sophomore and who must accept the high expectations that will be placed on him as a junior for him to continue his ascent into the upper level of players in the nation's top basketball conference. He developed into a starter for the Seminoles and led them to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998 and into the ACC Tournament championship game for the first time in school history. Kitchen enters his junior season of 2009-10 with two seasons of eligibility remaining after playing his first season as a Seminole during the 2008-09 season. He is a transfer from Iowa Western Junior College where he earned All-America First Team honors during his only season with the Reivers.

AS A SOPHOMORE (2008-09)

- Averaged 7.9 points (fifth on the team), 4.6 rebounds (fourth), 2.5 assists (third) and 1.2 steals (third) while playing in 26 of the Seminoles' 35 games in his first season as a member of the Florida State basketball team.
- He finished the season as Florida State's fifth highest scorer and with its third highest assist total despite playing in only 26 games.
- Finished third on the team with a 25.7 minutes played per game average and was one of only three players on the team who averaged more than 25 minutes played per game.
- Played the first game of his Seminole career at Georgia State (Dec. 13) when he scored two points in six minutes of play as the Seminoles defeated the Panthers, 62-57. His two points came on two free throws with four seconds left to up Florida State's lead to 62-57 and seal the important road victory for the Seminoles.
- His career-high scoring game of 19 points came in a victory at Virginia Tech (Feb. 21) as his 19 points against the Hokies were one of nine times he scored in double figures in his first season as a Seminole. In addition, 16 points came in his first career ACC game against Duke at home in Tallahassee (Jan. 16) while 11 points came in the Seminoles' ACC Tournament semifinal victory over No. 1 North Carolina.
- The biggest basket of his first season at Florida State came against Georgia Tech in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament (March 13). He took an inbounds pass from guard Luke Loucks and made a reverse lay-up to put Florida State ahead, 63-62, was fouled on the play and made the free throw to give the Seminoles their 64-62 margin of victory.

- Scored 14 points, pulled down five rebounds and was credited with three assists in the Seminoles' only game of the 2008-09 season against NCAA Tournament participant Boston College. His 14 points ranked as his second highest scoring total against an ACC opponent during his first season as a Seminole.
- Averaged 5.5 points, 4.0 rebounds and 1.5 assists in two games against NCAA Tournament participant Clemson. He scored one point, pulled down four rebounds, earned one steal and one assist in the Seminoles' monumental, season-changing, come-from-behind victory over No. 10/10 Clemson, 65-61, on the road in Clemson, S.C. (Feb. 7). The Seminoles trailed by as many as 19 in the second half but rallied to win the game.
- Made his ACC debut against Duke with a 16-point, five rebound and five steal performance against the Blue Devils in Tallahassee (Jan. 10).

- Averaged 10.5 points, 3.5 rebounds and 3.0 assists in two games against Georgia Tech as the Seminoles defeated the Yellow Jackets twice during the season. He totaled eight points, three rebounds and five assists in the Seminoles' 64-62 victory over Georgia Tech in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament.
- Averaged 7.5 points, 6.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists in two games against ACC regular season champion and NCAA National Champion North Carolina. After falling to the Tar Heels by three points on a buzzer beater in Tallahassee the Seminoles defeated the No. 1 ranked Tar Heels in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament. The victory over the Tar Heels in the ACC tournament was the third ever over the nation's No. 1 ranked team in school history and propelled the Seminoles into the championship game of the ACC Tournament for the first time in school history. Kitchen recorded a near double-double as he scored 11 points, pulled down nine rebounds and earned four assists in a career-high 38 minutes in the Seminoles' thrilling 73-70 ACC Tournament victory over the Tar Heels.

- Averaged 12.5 points, 4.5 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 2.0 steals as the Seminoles' defeated NIT participant Virginia Tech twice during the regular season. Scored his career-high of 19 points to go along with six rebounds, three assists and three steals in the most complete all-around performance of his first season as Florida State went into Blacksburg and came away with a 67-65 win (Feb. 21). Kitchen led Florida State with 13 of his 19 points in the first half of the game to lead the Seminoles to a 43-33 lead at halftime. Among his career-high 19 points was an acrobatic 3-point shot that was named as the No. 6 Play of the Day on ESPN's SportsCenter following the game.

- Averaged 6.3 points, a team leading 5.7 rebounds and a team-leading 4.3 assists in helping lead the Seminoles to the championship game of the ACC Tournament for the first time in school history. He led (or was tied for the team lead) in both assists and steals in two of the Seminoles' three games (five assists and three steals against Georgia Tech; six assists and three steals against No. 1 North Carolina) and was tied for the Seminoles' lead in assists in the championship game against Duke.
- Scored six points and pulled down a game-high and team-leading eight rebounds as the Seminoles played Wisconsin in the NCAA Tournament. The Badgers rallied to force overtime and rallied again to defeat the Seminoles, 61-59, in overtime in the first round game played at the Taco Bell Arena in Boise, Idaho.

AT IOWA WESTERN

- Graduated from Iowa Western Community College with an Associates Degree in 2008.
- Averaged 14.0 points, 6.1 rebounds and 3.3 assists during the 2007-08 season in his only active year at Iowa Western.

- Ranked among the IWCC leaders in scoring (third / 14.0 ppg), rebounds (third / 6.1 rpg) and steals (first / 1.8 spg) during his only season as a Reiver. He finished second on the team with an .805 free throw shooting percentage and a .529 field goal shooting percentage.

- Started all of the IWCC's 32 games, and led the team in minutes played and led the Reivers to a 28-5 record including a 5-1 record in conference play.
- Helped IWCC to within one game of the National Junior College Championship tournament as the Reivers lost to Indian Hills in the Region XI championship series. He led IWCC with a team-leading 17 points and 10 rebounds in a 61-42 victory over Marshalltown in the opening game of the 2008 Region XI tournament semifinals.
- Earned three double-doubles in the final six games of the season.

- Named as the Jacksonville Player of the Year in 2004 and 2005 by the Florida Times Union.
- Rated as the 57th best overall player, the 22nd best shooting guard and a top four-star prospect in the 2005 high school class by Rivals.com
- Was a four-time all-city and all-conference selection and was selected as the First Coast Player of the Year in 2004 and 2005.
- Closed his prep career as the all-time leader in points, steals and assists at Raines.
- Led Raines to a pair of state championships in 2003 and 2004. He scored 31 points in the regional semifinal game to propel Raines past Bucholz and into the championship game. Kitchen then won the championship game for Raines with a 25-foot jumper with 1.3 seconds remaining to give the Vikings the Class 5A championship clinching victory over Boynton Beach in 2003. His basket broke a 47-47 tie and gave Raines the 50-47 state title clinching victory.

- Named the MVP of the state tournament for his buzzer-beating performances.
- He led the Vikings to a 63-57 victory over Winter Haven for the Class 4A state title in 2004.
- Finished his high school career as one of only 11 players in Jacksonville high school history to score 2,000 or more career points.
- Led Raines to a 98-26 record during his varsity career.

32 SOLOMON ALABI

Hometown: Kaduna, Nigeria
High School (Coach): Montverde Academy
 (Kevin Sutton)

Solomon Alabi is destined to be one of the great centers in Florida State history after earning Freshman All-America Honorable Mention, All-ACC Freshman following the 2008-09 season as he led the Seminoles to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998 and into the championship game of the ACC Tournament for the first time in school history. He was also named to the All-ACC Defensive Team as he became only the seventh freshman in league history to lead the ACC in blocked shots – he was the only freshman on the All-ACC Defensive Team in 2009. Alabi earned Freshmen All-American Honorable Mention Honors by CollegeHoops.net and was named to the All-ACC Freshmen team by the Atlantic Coast to Sports Media Association and Rivals.com, was also named to the All-ACC Freshman Team, to the All-ACC Tournament Second Team and was named the ACC Rookie of the Week twice during his outstanding freshman season in 2008-09. He was named to the All-ACC Tournament Second Team as he helped lead the Seminoles to the championship game of the ACC Tournament for the first time in school history. He ranked 36th nationally and fourth among all Division I freshmen in blocked shots with 73 and a 2.1 blocked shots per game average during the 2008-09 season. He enters his second full season in 2009-10 with 84 career blocked shots in 45 career games for a 1.87 career blocked shots per game average. His 84 blocked shots ranks him in a tie for 11th all-time for a career at Florida State. Alabi enters the 2009-10 season looking to become only the ninth player in school history with 100 or more blocked shots and only the fourth player in school history with 150 or more blocked shots. He was granted a medical redshirt in 2008 and has three full seasons of eligibility remaining as the 2009-10 season begins season.

AS A FRESHMAN (2008-09)

- Averaged 8.4 points (second on the team), 5.6 rebounds (first), 2.1 blocked shots (first) and shot a team leading .540 from the field in his first full season as a Seminole.
- He ranked third on the team in total minutes played (779), fifth in average minutes played per game (22.3), was the leader and one of only two players on the team to shoot 50 percent or better from the field for the season, was fourth on the team in free throws made and attempted (51-75), led the team in offensive rebounds (75/2.1 orpg), defensive rebounds (122/3.5 drpg), total rebounds (197/5.6 rpg), and had 18 steals.
- Blocked at least one shot in 32 of the Seminoles' 35 games and had multiple blocked shots in 22 of Florida State's 35 games.
- Ranked among the top freshmen in school history in six statistical categories: second in blocked shots (73), second in total rebounds (197), third in field goals made (122), fourth in rebounds per game (5.6), tied for sixth in total points (295) and 10th in field goals attempted (226). His 73 blocked shots ranks as the third highest single-season total in school history behind only 111 by Rodney Dobard (1992-93) and 74 by Corey Louis (1994-95).
- Earned Rookie of the Week honors twice during the 2008-09 season to become only the fourth player in school history to earn the honor multiple times in a single season. He joined only Bob Sura (three times during the 1991-92 season), Michael Joiner (three times during the 2000-01 season) and Von Wafer (twice during the 2003-04 season) as honored rookies.

- Scored in double figures 14 times including a career-high 17 points in the Seminoles' monumental victory over Clemson (Feb. 7) on the road. He helped Florida State to the come-from-behind victory that saw the Seminoles rally from as much as a 14-point deficit with 10 minutes remaining in the game. He scored in double figures in seven of 16 ACC games during the regular season and in all three games during the ACC Tournament as the Seminoles finished fourth in the ACC standings and advanced to the championship of the ACC Tournament for the first time in school history.
- First career double-double with 16 points and 14 rebounds in the Seminoles' victory over Charleston Southern (Dec. 18).
- Averaged 11.7 points, 5.3 rebounds and 1.7 blocked shots in three ACC Tournament games as he earned All-ACC Tournament Second Team honors. His play elevated the Seminoles to a victory over Georgia Tech in the quarterfinals, over No. 1 ranked North Carolina in the semifinals and into the ACC Tournament championship game for the first time in school history. He scored in double figures in all three games with 14 points against Georgia Tech, 11 against North Carolina and 10 against Duke in the championship game and at least one blocked shot in each of the three games with two against Georgia Tech and North Carolina and one against Duke.

- Scored six points, pulled down four rebounds and blocked one shot in the Seminoles' NCAA Tournament game against Wisconsin. The game was played at the Taco Bell Center in Boise, Idaho and was the Seminoles' first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 1998.
- Scored 16 points, blocked four shots and pulled down seven rebounds in the Seminoles' only game of the season against Boston College (Feb. 24).
- Averaged 11.0 points, 5.5 rebounds and 3.5 blocks in two games against

NCAA Tournament participant Clemson. The Seminoles swept the regular season series against the nationally ranked Tigers as Alabi shot a combined and team-leading .833 (10 of 12) from the field in the victories. Scored his ACC career-high of 17 points to go along with nine rebounds in a near double-double as Florida State won at Clemson, 65-61, as they rallied from as much as a 19-point deficit to earn the season changing victory on the road (Feb. 7). Alabi began Florida State's comeback in earnest with a thunderous dunk at the 14:00 minute mark to pull the Seminoles to within 14 at 44-30

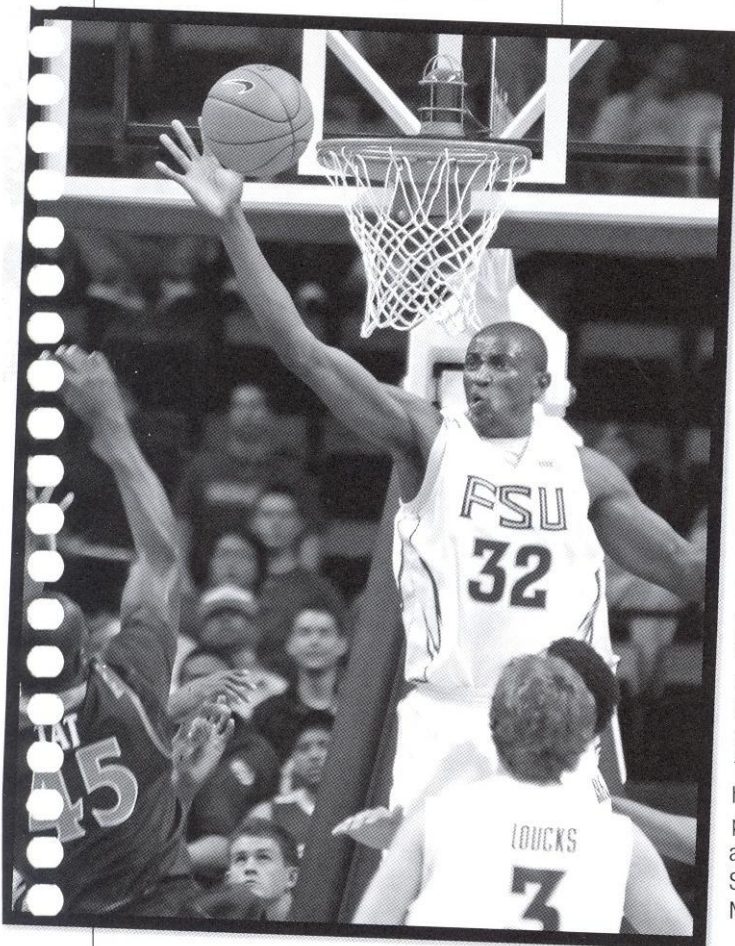

- Totaled his first career ACC double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds in his first career trip to Cameron Indoor Stadium to play Duke (March 3) and scored 10 points, pulled down five rebounds and blocked one shot as the Seminoles faced Duke in the championship game of the ACC Tournament in the Georgia Dome (March 15).
- Averaged 11.0 points, 6.5 rebounds and 2.0

blocked shots in two games against Georgia Tech. He scored 14 points and pulled down a team-high six rebounds to lead Florida State to a momentum building 64-62 victory over Georgia Tech in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament. He totaled 10 points in the second half as Florida State rallied from a late deficit to earn the victory.

- Averaged 8.5 points, 5.5 rebounds and 1.5 blocked shots in two games against NCAA National Champion North Carolina as the Seminoles split the two games played with Florida State's win over No. 1 ranked North Carolina in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament. The victory over the Tar Heels sent Florida State to the ACC Tournament championship game for the first time in school history. Scored 11 points, pulled down five rebounds and blocked two shots in the Seminoles' 73-70 victory over No. 1 ranked North Carolina in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament.

- Scored 12 points, pulled down four rebounds and blocked two shots in the Seminoles' only game against NC State during the 2008-09 season. He was hot from the field as he made six of seven shots in the first ACC road game of his career as Florida State won in Raleigh (Jan. 13) and scored what proved to be the game tying and game winning baskets as Florida State won 78-65.
- Averaged 11.5 points, 5.0 rebounds and 2.0 blocked shots in two games against Virginia as the Seminoles swept the regular season series against the Cavaliers for the second time in the last three seasons. He shot the ball well from the field against the Cavaliers as he made 11 of 18 field goal attempts (.611 percent) in the two game sweep.
- Totaled 11 points, pulled down eight rebounds and blocked one shot as the Seminoles defeated NIT participant Florida in the annual game against the two in-state rivals. He scored eight second half points as Florida State gained the 57-55 victory in Tallahassee (Dec. 7).
- Earned four awards at the Seminoles' Basketball Honors Banquet in 2009: The Dave Cowens Chairman of the Boards Award, the awards for the best field goal percentage, most improved player and as the Seminoles most improved student athlete.

Signature Game

#32

Solomon Alabi scored 11 points, pulled down five rebounds and blocked two shots in Florida State's victory over No. 1 ranked North Carolina in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament on March 14, 2009.

AS A FRESHMAN (2007-08)

- Averaged 3.9 points (eighth on the team), 2.2 rebounds (ninth) and blocked 11 shots (tied for fifth) while playing an average of 9.4 minutes per game.
- Was granted a medical redshirt after playing in only 10 games because of a leg injury. He underwent surgery on Jan. 2, 2008 to correct a tibial stress fracture in his right leg and was sidelined for the Seminoles' final 20 games of the season. He played in 10 of the Seminoles' first 14 games of the season before Head Coach Leonard Hamilton decided to end his season and advised him to have surgery on his leg.
- He played double figure minutes in three games with his career-high of 22 minutes coming against Maine in the first start of his career. He also played 14 minutes in the Seminoles' victory over Stetson (Nov. 30) and 13 each against the College of Charleston (Dec.

- 18) and at Providence (Dec. 22).
- Scored at least two points in eight of his 10 appearances with a career-high six points coming in three different games. He totaled six points in victories over Stetson (Nov. 30), Samford (Dec. 2) and against NCAA Tournament

- participant Butler (Dec. 15).
- His career-high of three field goals came as the Seminoles played Butler in the Wooden Tradition in Con-seco Fieldhouse. He also earned his career-high of three field goals against the Bulldogs.
- Alabi scored three points and pulled down his career-high of seven rebounds in Florida State's victory over Maine
- Blocked at least one shot in eight of his 10 appearances and blocked 11 shots in 94 minutes played – an average of one blocked shot every

QUOTING BOB RYAN OF THE BOSTON GLOBE

Said Bob Ryan of the Boston Globe during the 2009 ACC Tournament: "Mark this name down: Solomon Alabi. He may very well be the next great thing. What we are talking about is 7-feet of astonishing young grace, agility and sheer athleticism. He is not just a dunker. He has a face-up jumper, a nice little jump hook and he can even put it on the floor a little. But what is so great about him is that every shot he takes looks like it is supposed to go in. When he first went to the foul line against Boston College on the night of February 24 I naturally assumed it would be a brickerama. Hah! He went eight-for-eight, swishes all. I'm sitting there going "Omgod, what is this?" Yes, I am going to hit him with the dreaded "P" word. His potential is enormous. Of course, he has a lot to learn. He needs to rebound more consistently, and he just needs playing time. He came to the USA in 2005, hoping to find an institution where he could develop his English and become a basketball player. He is said to be very intelligent and he is obviously a hard worker. Best of all, this game looks like it all makes sense to him. He's a have to be lottery pick. So I have seen the future of Bigs and its name is Solomon Alabi."

AT MONTVERDE

8.5 minutes played during his first season as a Seminole. He blocked two shots in Florida State's victories over Georgia State (Nov. 20) and Stetson as well as on the road against Providence (Dec. 22).

- Graduated from Montverde Academy in Montverde, Fla. in 2007. Montverde is an academic institution of nearly 500 students in grades PK3-12 representing 36 different countries and 11 states and is located just outside of Orlando, Fla.
- Averaged a double-double of 17.5 points and 11.4 rebounds in leading Montverde to a perfect 30-0 record as a senior in 2007. He also averaged 6.0 blocked shots per game and set a single-season Montverde record for blocked shots in a single-season with 180.
- Led Montverde to an undefeated 30-0 record and a No. 4 national ranking in the final USA Today high school boy's basketball poll. Alabi and Montverde were named the National Champions in the HoopsUSA.com rankings.
- Earned All-State First-Team honors in Class 2A as a senior and was named to the All Central Florida Boy's Basketball First-Team by the Orlando Sentinel.
- Named the Most Valuable player in the Montverde Invitational Boy's Basketball Tournament during his senior season and helped his team to championship at the Montverde Tournament, Mount Dora Thanksgiving Tournament, the Les Schwab/Nike Challenge Tournament in Sacramento, Calif., the Junior Orange Bowl Tournament in Miami and the Omaha Shootout as a senior.
- Helped Montverde close out his senior season with 15 points in a 75-41 victory over Omaha (Neb.) Central in the Championship game of the Omaha Shootout. The victory allowed the Eagles to close out their season with a perfect 30-0 record.

- Averaged eight points, seven rebounds and five blocked shots as a junior in his first season of organized basketball in the United States in 2005-06.
- Born March 21, 1988.
- Is a tremendous shot blocker with good timing off the ball and is measured with a 7'3" wingspan and a 9'1" standing reach.
- Spent his time during his redshirt season (2008-09) working on his ball handling, passing, catching and shooting form drills since he could not run or jump.
- Came to the United States in June of 2005 to attend high school and earn admission into a college or university in the United States. He began playing basketball in 2004 and has developed into an all-star candidate player.
- Ranked as the No. 24 ranked overall player in the nation as a senior by Rivals.com and earned All-Star status at the Nike All-American camp prior to his senior season.

• Attended the same high school as UCLA's Luc Richard Mbah a Moute who was selected in the second round of the 2008 NBA Draft by the Milwaukee Bucks.

• Compared by many in terms of build and body to Antonio McDyess. Has good hands and an explosive vertical leap.

• His participation in the Nike All-American camp in 2007 helped earn him a starters role where he starred for the Nigerian Junior National team as they dominated and won the African championships. The Nigerian team qualified for the 2007 FIBA Under 19 World Championships by winning the African Championship and he averaged 9.2 points, 7.2 rebounds and a tournament-leading 2.8 blocks per game at the FIBA Under 19 World Championships during the summer of 2007.

• A high school teammate of Wake Forest junior Gary Clark – who was also an All-State First-Team selection in 2007

• Played a lot of soccer in Nigeria and has very good footwork.

• Lists his favorite book as 1984 by George Orwell

• Selected Florida State over Arizona and Virginia.

4 DEIVIDAS DULKYS

SOPHOMORE | GUARD | 6-5 | 196

Hometown: Silute, Lithuania
Henderson, Nevada
High School (Coach): Findlay College Prep (Mike Peck)

Deividas Dulkys enters his sophomore season with his sights set on becoming the top 3-point shooter in the ACC and helping the Seminoles back to the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season. He helped lead Florida State to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998 and to the ACC Tournament championship game for the first time in school history during the 2008-09 season. Dulkys also led the Seminoles to the championship of the Global Sports Classic with the semifinal and championship rounds of the tournament having been played in his adopted hometown of Las Vegas, Nevada. He was Florida State's sixth leading scorer in the ACC Tournament as he averaged 4.7 points scored per game in helping the Seminoles to reach Championship Sunday for the first time in school history.

AS A FRESHMAN (2008-09)

- Averaged 3.6 points (seventh on the team), 0.9 rebounds (10th) and 0.8 assists (seventh), while ranking third on the team with 28 3-point field goals made.
- He finished his first collegiate season with an .833 free throw shooting mark as he made 10 of his 12 shots from the line during the season including the final seven of the season.
- His 28 3-point field goals ranked as the fifth highest single-season total by a freshman in school history.
- Ranked fourth in the ACC among all league freshmen in 3-point field goals made during the 2008-09 season. He trailed only Seminole teammate Chris Singleton (34), Virginia's Sammy Zeglinski (33) and Georgia Tech's Iman Shumpert (32) in the ACC statistics for freshmen.
- Earned playing time in Florida State's victories over No. 21/23 Florida (Dec. 7), its monumental come-from-behind victory on the road against No. 10/10 Clemson (Feb. 7), its victory over No. 12/13 Clemson at home (Feb. 28) and its win over No. 1 ranked North Carolina in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament. The Seminoles' victory over No. 1 ranked North Carolina was only the third time in school history the Seminoles had defeated the No. 1 ranked team in the nation and the first time it had done so in post season play.
- Finished his first season as a Seminole with 18 steals (0.6 spg) to rank as one of nine Florida State players who earned double figures in steals during the 2008-09 season.

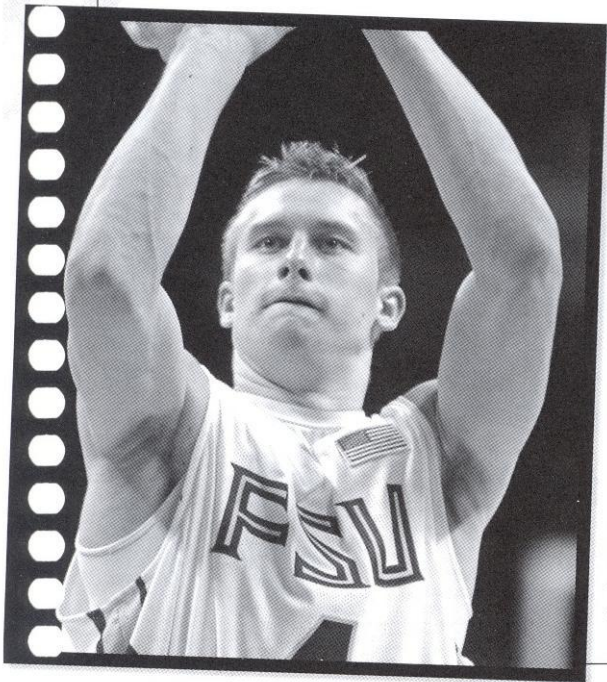

- Played extremely well in the ACC Tournament as he averaged 4.7 points scored in the three games as the Seminoles advanced to the ACC Tournament championship game for the first time in school history.
- Averaged 2.8 points and 1.3 rebounds while helping Florida State to the championship of the Global Sports Classic. The Seminoles' victories over Cincinnati (NIT) and Cal (NCAA) in the Global Sports Classic came against two teams that played in post season tournaments.
- Made back-to-back 3-point shots and eight total points in the first half in helping the Seminoles recover from as much as a 12-point first half deficit to defeat Western Kentucky in the Orange Bowl Classic at the Bank Atlantic Center in Sunrise, Fla. (Dec. 28). All eight of his points against the Hilltoppers came in the final six minutes of the first half as the Seminoles rallied from a 16-4 deficit to take a 37-34 lead at the intermission.
- Averaged 5.0 points and 2.0 assists in two games against NCAA Tournament participant Clemson. Scored three points and added one assist and two steals as Florida State earned one of the most incredible come from behind victories of the year in all of college basketball in defeating the Tigers, 65-61, on the road

(Feb. 7). The Tigers led by as many as 19 in the second half before the Seminoles came crashing back to silence the sold out crowd at Littlejohn Coliseum. His only made field goal of the game came in the first half with 6:58 left before intermission.

- Scored two points in eight minutes played as the Seminoles traveled to play at Cameron Indoor Stadium in Durham for the first time in his career. the Seminoles fought valiantly but fell in the final seconds 84-81 in Durham (March 3).
- Averaged 4.0 points and 2.0 assists in two games against Georgia Tech as the Seminoles defeated the Yellow Jackets during the regular season and again in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament. He totaled two points and one assist in the Seminoles' 64-62 victory over Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament at the Georgia Dome (March 13).
- Averaged 5.5 points, 1.0 assists and 1.0 steals in two games against NIT participant Miami. He scored six points to go along with one rebound, one assist and one blocked shot as the Seminoles traveled to play at Miami (Jan. 18).
- He scored five points and was credited with one assist and two steals in leading the Seminoles past the Hurricanes, 80-67, in Tallahassee (Feb. 18). Was one of the Seminoles main defenders against Miami's All-ACC First Team selection Jack McClinton in an effort that held the star to only 13 points.

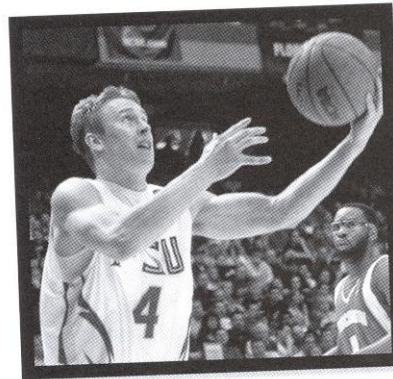

- Tied his career-high with nine points in the Seminoles' 73-70 victory over No. 1 ranked North Carolina in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament

-- the victory propelled the Seminoles into the ACC Tournament championship game for the first time in school history. He scored six of his nine points in the second half as the Seminoles led for much of the final 20 minutes in taking their first ever ACC Tournament victory over the Tar Heels.

- Scored nine points, pulled down four rebounds and earned two steals in the Seminoles' only game against NC State during the 2008-09 season. All nine of his points came in the second half as the see-saw game tilted the Seminoles way for the victory. Was nearly unstoppable in the final 3:24 of the game with six points and three rebounds to help the Seminoles retain the lead and win the game.

• Averaged 7.5 points and shot .556 from the 3-point line in two games against Virginia as the Seminoles swept the regular season series with wins in both Charlottesville and Tallahassee. All five of his made baskets against the Cavaliers were from the bonusphere. He scored six points, pulled down one rebound and added one assist as Florida State won 73-62 at Charlottesville (Jan. 24) and tied his ACC and career scoring high with nine points -- all on 3-point shots -- in the Seminoles 68-57 victory over Virginia in Tallahassee (Feb. 10).

- Averaged 4.7 points, 1.7 assists and 13.0 minutes played in three games during the ACC Tournament played in the Georgia Dome in Atlanta (March 13-15) as he helped the Seminoles to victories over Georgia Tech in the quarterfinals (64-62, March 13) and No. 1 ranked North Carolina (73-70, March 14). The victories over the Yellow Jackets and the Tar Heels advanced the Seminoles to their first appearance in the ACC Tournament championship game in school history. He scored two points and added one assist against Georgia Tech, totaled a career-high tying nine points and two assists against North Carolina in the semifinals and had three points and two assists against Duke in the championship game.

- Scored three points and pulled down one rebound in six minutes of playing time as Florida State played their only game of the season against NIT participant and in-state rival Florida. Florida State won the game, 57-55, in Tallahassee (Dec. 7) to mark their third consecutive victory in the series over the Gators. His first career 3-point basket against a ranked team came in the first half and gave Florida State a 15-8 lead with 7:52 remaining before halftime.

- Earned the Mr. Hustle Award from the Seminole coaching staff at the annual Honors Banquet in 2009.

1 XAVIER GIBSON

SOPHOMORE | FORWARD | 6-11 | 240

Hometown: Dothan, Alabama
High School (Coach): Northview (Floyd Griffin)

Xavier Gibson is destined to become one of the top players to wear a Florida State uniform during the remaining three seasons of his career based upon the awesome athletic and basketball skills he displayed during his first season as a Seminole. He displayed flashes of brilliance in the 32 games he played in as a freshman and with continued hard work and improvement will continue to help the Seminoles become one of the top teams in the nation. He is blessed with the ability to score points in bunches and is one of the most per minute productive players on the Seminoles' roster. Quite often during his freshman season it was a Gibson basket, steal or blocked shot that provided a winning difference for the Seminoles in a given game. Gibson is one of the Seminoles' top field goal shooters who finished his first season with a shooting percentage of nearly .530 percent to rank as one of two Seminoles who shot 50 percent or better from the field during the 2008-09 season. He helped lead Florida State into the 2009 NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 1998 season and into the championship game of the 2009 ACC Tournament to mark the first time the Seminoles had advanced to play on championship Sunday at the ACC Tournament.

AS A FRESHMAN (2008-09)

- Averaged 2.3 points (11th on the team), and 1.4 rebounds (eighth) while shooting .528 from the field (second) and blocking 11 shots in 32 games played during his freshman season.
- Was a potent scorer despite playing limited minutes with his points coming in bunches and at very opportune times for the Seminoles.
- Among the Seminoles' three true freshmen, Gibson played in the third highest total number of games (32) behind only Chris Singleton and Luke Loucks who played in all 35 games during the 2008-09 season for the Seminoles.
- Scored his career-high of 11 points against Charleston Southern (Dec. 18) and scored his ACC career-high of six points at Miami (Jan. 21) and in the Seminoles' win at home against Clemson (Feb. 28).
- Scored three points on three second half free throws as Florida State won on the road in Philadelphia against La Salle (Nov. 18). His free throws came during a very productive stretch of the second half and helped the Seminoles climb back into the game after trailing by as many as eight points to gain the 65-61 win.
- Displayed his scoring abilities early during his freshman season as he totaled his career-high of 11 points in the Seminoles' victory over Charleston Southern. He was nearly perfect from the field (three of four) and from the free throw line (five of six) as he helped Florida State to the 71-48 victory over the Buccaneers. Gibson's 11 points ranked him second in scoring on the team (behind ACC All-Freshman selection Solomon Alabi's 16 points) and third in the game among high scorers as he played his career-high of 17 minutes in the win over the Buccaneers.

- Averaged 2.5 points and 2.0 rebounds in four games of the Global Sports Classic as the Seminoles won the championship of the event. He averaged nearly eight minutes played per game in victories over Coastal Carolina (four minutes of play in Florida State's 82-70 victory), Western Illinois (three points and four rebounds in the Seminoles' 67-55 win), Cincinnati (four points and two rebounds in the Seminoles' 58-47 victory) and Cal (three points and two rebounds in the Seminoles' 80-77 championship game clinching victory over the Bears).
- Averaged 4.0 points in two games against NCAA Tournament participant Clemson during the 2008-09 regular season. He was nearly perfect from the field (.800) as he made four of five shots as Florida State earned two victories over the Tigers who were ranked in the nation's top 15 during both games. Gibson scored two points in five minutes of playing time in the Seminoles' monumental come-from-behind victory over the No. 10/10 ranked Tigers on the road in Clemson. The Seminoles trailed by as many as 19 points midway through the second half in recovering for the season-changing 65-61 win (Feb. 7). Totaled an ACC career-high tying six points on a perfect three of three shooting from the field in the Seminoles 73-66 victory over Clemson in Tallahassee (Feb. 28).

- Averaged 2.0 points in two games against Georgia Tech during the 2008-09 season. Florida State defeated the Yellow Jackets during the regular season in Tallahassee and in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament at the Georgia Dome. Scored four points and pulled down two rebounds in eight minutes of playing time as Florida State defeated Georgia Tech, 64-62, in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament (March 13). He totaled two points in each half with his four total points once again turning out to be the Seminoles' margin of victory over the Yellow Jackets.
- One blocked shot in six minutes of playing time in the Seminoles' thrilling 73-70 victory over No. 1 ranked North Carolina in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament (March 14). His blocked shot came on an attempted lay-up by Deon Thompson and kept the Seminoles within striking rage

- His blocked shot came with the Tar Heels up 12-8 at the 13:14 mark and limited the Tar Heels chance to increase their lead.
- Scored four points to go along with two rebounds and one steal as Florida State defeated Virginia, 73-62, in Charlottesville (Jan. 24).
- Pulled down his ACC career-high of three rebounds as the Seminoles defeated Virginia, 68-57, in Tallahassee (Feb. 10). All three rebounds came in three minutes of play in the first half and helped Florida State pull to within 22-20 at halftime after the Cavaliers had taken as much as a four point lead. The Seminoles took control of the game with under seven minutes to play in gaining their 19th win of the season.
- Averaged 1.7 points and 1.3 rebounds in three games during the ACC Tournament as Florida State advanced to the championship game for the first time in school history. He scored four points and pulled down two rebounds in the Seminoles' victory over Georgia Tech in the quarterfinals, and had one blocked shot in six minutes of play in the Seminoles' win over No. 1 North Carolina in the semifinals of the event.

- Totaled one point and two rebounds in the ACC Championship game against Duke.
- Scored six points and pulled down one rebound against Wisconsin in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The Badgers rallied from a first half deficit to force overtime and defeated Florida State, 61-59, to gain the victory.

- Scored one point in two minutes of playing time in the Seminoles' only game of the season against NIT participant Florida. The Seminoles claimed one of four wins over a ranked team during the 2008-09 season with a 57-55 win over the No. 21/23 Gators. His one point came on a free throw with 9:57 left in the first half and gave the Seminoles a 12-7 advantage.

3 LUKE LOUCKS

SOPHOMORE | GUARD | 6-5 | 196

Hometown: Clearwater, Florida
High School (Coach): Clearwater High School (Jack Coit)

Luke Loucks is in line to be the next great point guard at Florida State with his incredible court vision and ability to get of his teammates involved in every possession. He was a key reserve as Florida State advanced to play in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998, played in the ACC Tournament championship game for the first time in school history and finished with a 25-10 record during the 2008-09 season. With Loucks in the line-up, Florida State earned a 10-6 record and a fourth place finish in the ACC standings – only the third time in school history the Seminoles had won 10 or more league games and the only time in school history that they had finished fourth or higher in the team standings. Loucks played in four victories over ranked teams during his freshman season – wins over No. 21/23 Florida (Dec. 7, 2008, 57-55), at No. 10/10 Clemson (Feb. 7, 2009, 65-61), No. 12/13 Clemson (Feb. 28, 73-66) and against No. 1/1 North Carolina (March 14, 2009, 73-70). The Seminoles' victory over No. 1 North Carolina was the third in school history and first over the No. 1 ranked team in the ACC Tournament in school history and advanced Florida State to the ACC Tournament championship game for the first time in school history.

AS A FRESHMAN (2008-09)

- Averaged 3.1 points (eighth on the team), 2.1 assists (second) and 0.9 steals (third) while playing in all 35 games for the Seminoles. He earned two starting assignments (against Western Kentucky and at Wake Forest) which made him one of only two true Florida State freshmen to earn a starting role during the 2008-09 season.
- He ranked third among all freshmen in the ACC with a 2.1 assists per game average. He averaged 16.9 minutes played per game (eighth on the team) and played a total of 593 minutes in his first season as a Seminole while finishing fifth on the team with 16 3-point field goals made.
- Averaged 7.5 points and shot .588 from the field (10 of 17) in helping lead Florida State to the championship of the Global Sports Classic with victories over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 22, career-high 14 points), Western Illinois (Nov. 24, .500 shooting from the field), Cincinnati (Nov. 28, four points and two rebounds) and NCAA Tournament participant Cal (Nov. 29, seven points and three rebounds).
- Scored in double figures twice during his freshman season with 14 points in the Seminoles' come-from-behind victory over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 22) and their overtime victory over Maryland (Jan. 17) while his career high of six assists came in the Seminoles' victory over Coastal Carolina.
- Multiple assists in 18 of the Seminoles' games and assists in 32 of Florida State's 35 games with double figure minutes played coming in all but five games

- He played a career-high of 28 minutes in the Seminoles' victory over Cal.
- His 73 assists during his freshman season rank as the seventh highest total by a freshman in school history while his 31 steals was the eighth highest total by a Seminole freshman.
- Averaged 1.5 points in two games against NCAA Tournament participant Clemson and had better than a 2:1 assist:turnover ratio with seven assists and three turnovers (2.3:1) as the Seminoles took two wins over a ranked Clemson team in both games – in Clemson and in Tallahassee. His biggest shot of the season – a 3-pointer – came in the Seminoles' 65-61 come-from-behind victory over the Tigers. The Seminoles were down by as many as 19 points including 15 with just under nine minutes remaining when they made their incredible run to victory. Loucks had one basket and three assists in the second half to help key the comeback. It was a 3-pointer by Loucks that tightened the score to a one point deficit at 59-58. From there, the Seminoles outscored Clemson 7-2 to win the game

- Scored six points, pulled down three rebounds and was credited with one assist as the Seminoles played Duke in the championship game of the ACC Tournament in the Georgia Dome (March 15). It marked the first time the Seminoles played in the ACC Tournament championship game in school history.

- Averaged 3.0 assists and 2.0 rebounds while earning six assists in two games against Georgia Tech. The Seminoles defeated the Yellow Jackets during the regular season in Tallahassee and defeated Georgia Tech in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament in the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. The Seminoles' victory over the Yellow Jackets in the ACC Tournament was their first step in advancing to the ACC Tournament championship game for the first time in school history. Loucks was not credited with an assist but had the biggest pass of the day for the Seminoles as he inbounded a pass to Derwin Kitchen who took the pass and scored on a reverse lay-up with 7.7 seconds remaining in the game to give the Seminoles the lead at 63-62.

- Scored his ACC career-high of 10 points and was credited with two assists in the Seminoles' overtime victory over Maryland in their only game against the NCAA Tournament participant Terps during the 2008-09 season. Scored on back-to back long range shots (both on run outs after missed Maryland field goal attempts) and forced Maryland to take a timeout to slow the Seminoles onslaught. Earned two minutes of playing time in the overtime period and sealed the game with a steal of Dave Neal with one second left in the game -- his steal changed possession and did not allow the Terps to take a potential game-tying shot.

- Averaged 2.0 points and 2.5 assists in two games against NCAA National Champion North Carolina. He earned five assists and three steals as the Seminoles were 1-1 with a victory over the No. 1 ranked Tar Heels in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament. The victory over the Tar Heels in the NCAA Tournament was the third over a No. 1 ranked team in school history and sent the Seminoles into the championship game of the ACC Tournament for the first time in school history.

- Scored four points and earned one assist in the Seminoles only game of the season against NC State. He made his only shot from the field against the Wolfpack -- a 3-pointer -- and had one assist in the Seminoles' 78-65 win on the road in Raleigh (Jan. 13).

- Averaged 2.0 points, 1.7 rebounds and 1.7 assists in three games during the ACC Tournament. He totaled five assists was tied as the third highest among all Seminoles in their historical run to the championship game in the tournament. Totaled six points and three rebounds in the Seminoles' game against Duke in the ACC Tournament championship game. Averaged 12.0 minutes as he earned playing time in all three games of the Seminoles first ever run to the championship game of the ACC Tournament.

- Totaled one steal in four minutes of playing time in the Seminoles game against Wisconsin in the NCAA Tournament (March 20).

- Scored three points, pulled down two rebounds and had one assist in 13 minutes of playing time as the Seminoles defeated in-state rival and NIT participant Florida in the only game of the season between the two teams. He scored what proved to be one of the biggest shots of the game for the Seminoles -- a 3-pointer -- to give Florida State a nine point lead (22-13) with 6:10 remaining in the first half. Not only did his basket allow the Seminoles to hold a 26-25 lead at the intermission, but his basket proved to be the winning margin in the Seminoles' 57-55 victory over the No. 21/23 Gators.

- Earned the first-year academic achievement award from the Seminoles' coaching staff at the 2009 Men's Basketball Honors Banquet.

31 CHRIS SINGLETON

SOPHOMORE | FORWARD | 6-9 | 227

Hometown: Canton, Georgia
High School (Coach): Dunwoody High School (Scott Bracco)
 Cherokee High School (Roger Kvam)

Chris Singleton earned Freshman All-America Honorable Mention and All-ACC Freshman Team Honorable Mention honors as he enjoyed a standout season in his first year as a Seminole. He earned All-America Honorable Mention honors by CollegeHoops.net and All-ACC Freshman Team Honorable Mention honors by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association and is destined to be one of the great players in Florida State basketball history as he continues to mature physically and learn the nuances of the game of college basketball. His freshman year was a successful one personally, and for the Seminoles, as he enjoyed one of the top seasons of any freshmen in school history as he helped lead the Seminoles to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998 and to an appearance in the ACC Tournament championship game for the first time in school history. Singleton totaled 54 steals and 47 blocked shots – he was the only player in the ACC who earned at least 50 steals and at least 45 blocked shots during the 2008-09 season. He was one of only seven players in the nation – and the only freshman – to earn at least 50 steals and to block at least 45 shots. He is one of nine McDonald's High School All-American's to have played for Florida State, joining Irving Thomas (1985), David White (1987), Douglas Edwards (1989), Corey Louis (1994), Lamarr Greer (1994), Randall Jackson (1995), Anthony Richardson (2001), Von Wafer (2003) and Michael Snaer (2009).

AS A FRESHMAN (2008-09)

- Averaged 8.1 points (fifth on the team), 4.9 rebounds (third), 1.5 steals (second) and 1.3 blocked shots (second) as he averaged 26.9 minutes played per game (second) in earning Freshman All-America Honorable Mention and All-ACC Freshman Team Honorable Mention honors as he helped lead the Seminoles to the NCAA Tournament and to the first appearance in the ACC Tournament championship game in school history.
- Ranked second on the team with 34 3-point field goals made and was second on the team with 65 offensive rebounds as he is one of only four Seminoles to play in all 35 games and one of only two who started at least 34 games.
- He ranked 10th in the ACC among all players with 54 steals and a 1.5 steals per game average. He was second in the league among freshmen with only Georgia Tech's Iman Shumpert (64 steals / 2.1 spg) finishing ahead of Singleton among all conference freshmen. He ranked ninth among all players in the ACC with 47 blocked shots and a 1.3 blocked shots per game average and was the ACC's fourth leading blocked shot artist among all league freshmen.
- Also ranked fifth in the ACC among all freshmen with his 8.1 points per game scoring average, fifth among ACC freshmen with his 4.9 rebounds per game average, fourth with his 26.9 minutes played per game average and tied for third with two double doubles.

- Only the third freshman in school history to earn a double-double in his career debut with 12 points and 17 rebounds as the Seminoles defeated Jacksonville (Nov. 15) in the 2008-09 season opener.
- Earned double-doubles in two of his first three games with 12 points and 17 rebounds at Jacksonville and 10 points and 10 rebounds against Stetson at home (Nov. 20).
- His rankings among freshmen all-time at Florida State were phenomenal: 47 blocked shots (third highest all-time among Seminole freshmen), 54 steals (third highest), 102 3-point field goals attempted (third highest), 34 3-point field goals made (fourth highest), 172 rebounds (fourth highest), 95 free throws attempted (fifth highest), 58 free throws made (six highest), 4.9 rebounds per game (tied for seventh highest) and 282 points (seventh highest).

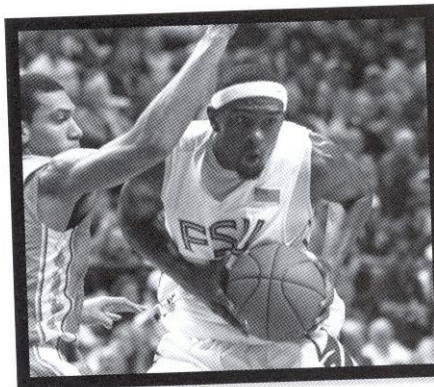

- Was named the ACC Rookie of the Week on Dec. 15, 2008 for his performance in the Seminoles' victory at Georgia State.
- Scored 11 points, pulled down three rebounds and blocked one shot in Florida State's road win over the Panthers in his return to Atlanta, Ga.
- Totaled 54 steals and 47 blocked shots – he was the only player in the ACC who earned at least 50 steals and at least 45 blocked shots during the 2008-09 season. He was one of only seven players in the nation – and the only freshman – to earn at least 50 steals and to block at least 45 shots. He was joined by only Marques Blakely (Vermont; 67 steals and 88 blocked shots; a senior in 2009-10), Kenneth Faried (Morehead State; 68 steals and 68 blocked shots; a junior in 2009-10), Tony Gaffney (Massachusetts; 61 steals and 115 blocked shots; a senior in 2009-10), Damian Johnson (Minnesota; 58 steals and 60 blocked shots; a senior in 2009-10), Damian Sanders (Duquesne; 71 steals and 79 blocked shots; a junior in 2009-10) and Diamon Simpson (St. Mary's; 61 steals and 57 blocked shots; eligibility completed).
- The Seminoles' leader with four games of 10 rebounds or more (17 at Jacksonville, Nov.

15, 2008; 10 vs. Stetson, Nov. 20, 2008; 10 vs. California, Nov. 29, 2008; 10 vs. Florida, Dec. 7, 2008), ranked third on the team as the Seminoles' leader in rebounds 10 times and tied for second on the team with two double-doubles (12 points and 17 rebounds at Jacksonville, Nov. 15, 2009; 10 points and 10 rebounds vs. Stetson, Nov. 20, 2008).

- Averaged 7.5 points, 3.5 rebounds and 3.0 steals in two games against NCAA Tournament participant Clemson in the Seminoles' two-game regular season series sweep over the Tigers. He scored five points, pulled down six rebounds and earned a game-high tying four steals in the Seminoles' momentum-building 65-61 victory over Clemson on the road in Clemson (Feb. 7) as he helped the Seminoles recover from as much as a 19-point second half deficit to steal the important win on the road. Florida State rallied from a 14-point deficit with 11:57 left in the game to stun the No.

Tech at the Georgia Dome in the ACC Tournament quarterfinals. His five blocked shots is tied for the third most in a single game in the ACC Tournament by a freshman. All five points came in the first half and helped Florida State jump to a 33-27 lead.

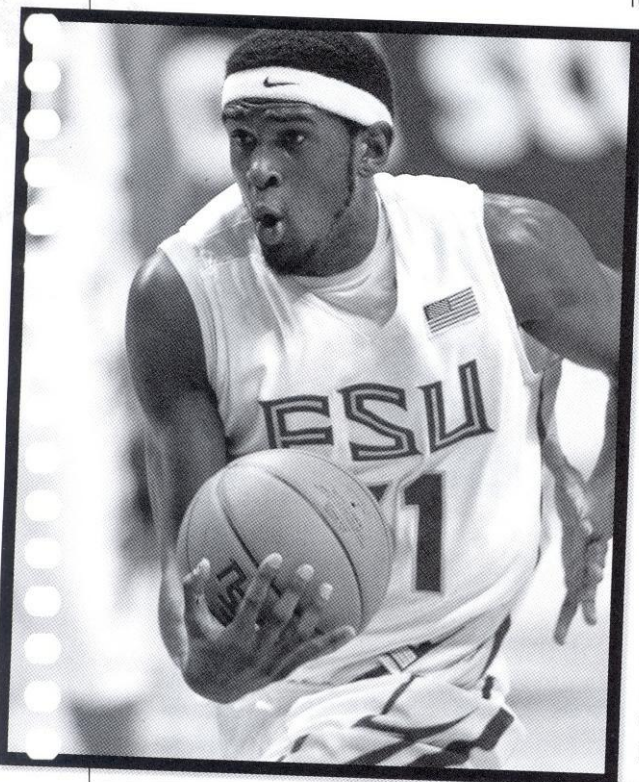

- Scored nine points, pulled down six rebounds and blocked five shots in Florida State's only game of the season against NCAA Tournament participant Maryland. Made two free throws in the final 16 seconds of the overtime period to seal the victory for Florida State. His first extra session free throw came at the 0:16 mark and put the Seminoles up 74-72 while his second free throw closed out the Terps at the 0:01 mark to make the final score 76-73.

- Averaged 7.5 points, 2.0 rebounds and 1.5 blocked shots in two games against NCAA National Champion North Carolina. He scored 10 ranked Tigers and the partisan crowd at Littlejohn Coliseum. He totaled 10 points, two steals, one blocked shot and one rebound in the Seminoles' victory over No. 12 Clemson, 73-66, in Tallahassee (Feb. 28).

- Averaged 9.7 points and 5.3 rebounds in three games against NCAA Tournament participant and ACC Tournament champion Duke with his best performance of his first post-season coming against the Devils with 15 points and a game-high nine rebounds as the Seminoles played No. 7 ranked Duke in the championship game of the ACC Tournament at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta (March 15). His 15 points came as he tied for game high honors with four made 3-point field goals. He also blocked a game-high three shots as the Seminoles set a high bar by playing in the ACC Tournament championship game for the first time in school history.
- Scored five points, pulled down four rebounds and was a defensive demon with five blocked shots in helping lead Florida State to a 64-62 win over Georgia

PIERRE JORDAN

FRESHMAN | GUARD | 6-0 | 165

Hometown: Dunwoody, Georgia
High School (Coach): Dunwoody High School (Scott Bracco)

Pierre Jordan was granted a medical redshirt after playing in only six games during the 2008-09 season and has four full years of eligibility remaining beginning at the start of the 2009-10 season. He played in six of the Seminoles' first seven games of the season and helped the team to victories in each of his appearances before deciding to end his season following the Seminoles' victory over Cal in the championship game of the Global Sports Classic on Nov. 29. He continued to stay as part of the Seminoles regular practice routine on a daily basis as he worked to get his knee back into playing shape, traveled with the team and continued to work with the Florida State coaching staff to learn the nuances of the Seminoles' offensive and defensive game plan. He played on the same Dunwoody High School team as current Seminole teammate Chris Singleton in 2008 and helped lead Dunwoody to the state tournament Final Four in 2008.

AS A FRESHMAN (2008-09)

- Averaged 1.0 point (tied for 11th), 0.7 rebounds (11th) and 0.2 assists (tied for 11th) while playing in only six games because of a recurring knee injury during his first season as a Seminole.
- Played in both of the Seminoles' two exhibition games and in six of the first seven regular season games of the season before deciding, after extensive consultation with the Florida State coaching staff and his family, to not play during the remainder of the year and work on rehabilitation in order to be fully ready for summer workouts and the start of practice in October of 2009.
- Helped the Seminoles to six victories and to the championship of the Global Sports Classic in limited minutes as he earned his first taste of life as a college basketball player.
- Earned five minutes of playing time in his Seminole debut against Jacksonville and scored two points in the Seminoles' 57-55 victory over the Dolphins on the road (Nov.

- 15). His second half basket proved large as it helped the Seminoles win the game by two points. Scored on a lay-up at the 10:44 mark to give the Seminoles a 43-32 lead.
- Averaged 1.0 point, 1.0 rebound and 5.3 minutes played as he helped the Seminoles win the championship of the Global Sports Classic. He played in all four games of the event and contributed to the team championship. Jordan earned playing time in Florida

Notes

Florida State returns three starters and eight letter winners from its 2009 NCAA Tournament team... the Seminoles appeared in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the championship game of the ACC Tournament for the first time in school history in 2009... the Seminoles won 25 games and finished with a record of 25-10 – the 25 wins were tied for the second highest single season total in school history... the Seminoles also won 10 ACC games and finished in fourth place in the ACC standings... the 10 wins in ACC play rank as the third highest total of wins in ACC play in school history and most since the 1992-93 season... Florida State returns eight of its top 10 scorers including two players (All-American Candidate Solomon Alabi and All-ACC Candidate Chris Singleton) that averaged more than 8.0 points scored a season ago... Alabi and Singleton return as the Seminoles top two rebounders as the Seminoles return three of their top four and eight of their top 10 rebounders from a season ago... Alabi led the ACC in blocked shots in 2009 and enters the 2010 season looking to become the fifth player in ACC history to lead the conference in blocked shots as both a freshman and a sophomore... Singleton totaled 54 steals and 47 blocked shots – he was the only player in the ACC who earned at least 50 steals and at least 45 blocked shots during the 2008-09 season and was one of only seven players in the nation – and the only freshman – to earn at least 50 steals and to block at least 45 shots... both Alabi and Singleton earned Freshman All-American Honorable Mention honors during the 2008-09 season.

Under Leonard Hamilton the Seminoles have won an average of 18.7 games per season with at least 20 wins coming in three of the last four seasons... the Seminoles have increased their victory by 11 wins since Hamilton's arrival... Hamilton, the 21st winningest coach in ACC history, has put the Seminoles on the cusp of becoming the next great program in one of toughest conferences in the nation... Florida State ranks as the fourth winningest program in the ACC in the last three seasons with a cumulative record of 67-38 for a winning percentage of .638. During the last four seasons, Hamilton has elevated the Seminoles' play in the ACC as he has guided Florida State to a 33-31 record (.516 winning percentage) - tied for the fourth highest win total in ACC play since the start of the 2005-06 season.

Florida State defeated four ranked teams in 2008-09 (No. 21/23 Florida, No. 10/10 Clemson, No. 12/13 Clemson and No. 1/1 North Carolina) in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament... Florida State's victory over the No. 1 ranked Tar Heels was the first over a team ranked No. 1 in the nation in the Seminoles' post season history and the third over a team ranked No. 1 in the nation in school history... the Seminoles' four victories over ranked teams was the most since also defeating four ranked teams during the 2003-04 season and ran the Seminoles' consecutive season streak of having defeated at least one ranked team to 19 consecutive seasons.
