FANTASTIC 14

There's something uncanny about Chris Roberts and the number 14. As a sophomore, the outfielder/pitcher from Middleburg was nothing short of amazing on the 14th of each month.

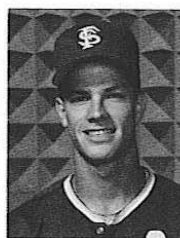

It started on Feb. 14 at Arizona, where Roberts blasted two home runs and drove in four. He went four-for-six in FSU's 15-8 win. On March 14 vs. Richmond in Tallahassee, Roberts was two-for-four with four RBI and two more home runs in a 12-4 FSU win. The unlucky opponent on April 14 was Miami. All Roberts did at the plate against the Hurricanes that day was go two-for-four with two more home runs and four more RBI. He also picked up the win on the mound for FSU with eight innings of work.

Roberts hit .571 (eight-for-14), drove in 12 runs and blasted six homers on the 14th's. And on May 14th? Well, the Seminoles were not in action. But that was the day Roberts learned he had been named the Metro Conference Player of the Year.

Oh by the way, Chris Roberts' number? 14, of course!
