No other man can claim a longer or more successful career as a Seminole than Mike Martin and as he enters his 19th season as Florida State's head baseball coach, he nears another milestone — his coveted 1000th victory. Martin has been associated with 26 of Florida State's 51 seasons of baseball — two as a player, five as an assistant coach and is currently gearing up for his 19th year at the helm of the Seminole baseball program.

With his most recent accomplishment, Martin guided his 1997 squad to the Seminoles' second Atlantic Coast Conference championship in the last three years, as his pitchers hurled four complete games in the five-game sweep. His 1997 team also reached 50 victories for the 16th time in Martin's 18-year career.

In 1996, FSU's 19-5 ACC record and first ever first-place conference finish in the regular season, earned Martin 1996 Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year honors.

His 1996 squad made history as they put together an FSU-record 22-game win streak and traveled to the College World Series for the third consecutive season and the first time in school history.

Martin has become a familiar face in Omaha, as he has guided nine teams to the College World Series including four of his past six squads. Seminole teams have been invited to the NCAA Regionals every season under Martin, 18 years of FSU's 20-year streak in the post-season. Martin ranks second among the nation's winningest active Div. I coaches and ninth among winningest all-time Div. I coaches with a .745 percentage.

Winning, however, has not been Martin's only goal in his brilliant career. He believes making a difference in his players' lives off the ball field, as well, is just as important as his win-loss record.

When the skinny kid from Charlotte transferred to FSU from Wingate Junior College in 1965 to play centerfield for the Seminoles, it was the beginning of a love affair that has never ended. His love for the game of baseball is matched only by the success he has had teaching it to aspiring players. And teaching the game with his fire and drive has given Florida State perhaps the nation's very best all-around college baseball programs. From the facilities, to the coaching staff, to the unequalled community support, Mike Martin has improved an already strong Seminole baseball tradition with every season.

Martin just keeps getting better and better. Just when it seems that the program can reach no higher plane, something bigger and better comes along. When Martin took over in 1980, it was taboo to mention the word Omaha around the ball club. No one wanted to jinx an FSU team that had made it to the College World Series only three times in the previous 15 seasons. After taking the Seminoles to that hallowed ground in his very first season, Martin would eventually make Omaha not only a household word, but a second home to the Seminoles. Martin has led the Tribe to the CWS eight times in the last 12 years, including six of the past nine seasons.

In 1993 with his youngest club ever, Martin's team failed to win 50 games and/or reach the College World Series for the first time in his 14 seasons. FSU's 46 wins marked, yes, the lowest total of wins during the Martin Era. For 12 consecutive seasons since his arrival, Martin's clubs achieved 50 wins, an unprecedented run in college baseball.

The numbers Martin and his FSU teams have posted are monumental. During the 1992 season, the Seminole coach collected his 700th career victory. That milestone came earlier than any coach in NCAA history — just 13 seasons.

Martin's succession of Dick Howser as FSU head coach seemed a perfectly logical step in 1979. As a player in 1965-66, Martin hit .354 in two seasons as the starting centerfielder for the Seminoles. He was a part of the 1965 College World Series team and earned all-District honors in his senior season. Martin then went on to play professionally in the New York Mets and Detroit Tigers organizations for three years prior to embarking on his career as a coach.

Martin began his career as a baseball and basketball coach at the junior high level, then became head basketball coach at Tallahassee Community College before spending four seasons as basketball coach at Tallahassee's Godby High.

head baseball coach in 1975, he quickly called on Martin to assist him. He served five seasons as the number one assistant, under Woodward for four years and then under Dick Howser for one. When New York Yankee boss George Steinbrenner called Howser in November of 1979, it was an obvious choice as to who would succeed him as head coach. And since that day in 1979, there has been no doubt that Mike Martin and Seminole baseball are a perfect match.

For Martin, it is a dream come true. He would be the first to tell you his current position is his ultimate thrill. Martin has compiled a 969-330-3 record and is Florida State's winningest coach. Seminole baseball teams have participated in the NCAA Tournament every year under Martin — 18 consecutive years. That run, on the heels of appearances in 1978 and 1979, gives FSU 20 consecutive tournament trips. Only one other team in the nation—Miami—has a longer string of consecutive appearances. Martin has been involved in 11 of the 15 College World Series trips that Florida State has made, as a player, assistant and head coach.

Martin says his years around FSU coaches like Fred Hatfield, whom he played for in 1965-66, and Woody Woodward and Dick Howser, whom he coached under, instilled in him the desire to produce winners on and off the playing field. Stepping out of their shadows, Martin has built his own legacy in Tallahassee.

*Active Coaches

During his tenure, 34 different players have earned All-America honors, 68 have been named to all-conference teams and an incredible 84 players have signed professional contracts. Most recently, centerfielder J.D. Drew took home consensus All-American honors, as well as player of the year awards from Baseball America, The Sporting News, and Collegiate Baseball. Drew also became the first Seminole to win the Dick Howser Award, named after FSU's former All-American and head coach. Three of Martin's Seminoles —Mike Fuentes, Mike Loynd and Drew—won the Golden Spikes Award, honoring the nation's best amateur baseball player.

A popular speaker, Martin has delivered keynote addresses at several state and national meetings, including gatherings of the Florida High School Coaches Association, Atlanta Braves instructional clinics and Seminole booster clubs throughout the Southeast. He is also in demand as a speaker at churches and is active in national and local Fellowship of Christian Athletes activities.

A 1966 graduate of Florida State, Martin earned his master's degree from Florida A&M in 1971. He and wife Carol have three children, Mary Beth (28), Melanie (22) and Mike, Jr. (25), a former starting catcher and current volunteer coach at Florida State.

Asst. Coach Chip Baker

The senior member of coach Mike Martin's staff, Chip Baker enters his 14th season as a Seminole assistant coach. This 1998 season will, again, see Baker continue to fill many roles for the program.

Baker will return to familiar ground as third base coach for the Tribe. In addition, he is responsible for scouting opposing teams and directs the Seminoles defensively. Baker also oversees the Seminoles' efficient bunting game and FSU's catchers, a position that has shown consistent play since his arrival.

A former assistant at Virginia Tech and Georgia Tech, Baker is one of college baseball's premiere catching instructors. During his tenure, Baker has coached four All-Americans, including Ed Fulton, Barry Blackwell, major-leaguer Marc Ronan and first-team All-American Pedro Grifol. In fact, every starting catcher that has played under Baker has went on to play professional baseball.

Baker's duties go beyond the field. Administratively, he coordinates team travel plans, the purchasing of equipment and the overall administration of the total program.

During each summer, Baker is the director of the Mike Martin, Seminole Advanced Baseball Schools and Super Skills Academy. These camps have not only proved to be popular, but beneficial. Over 70 former campers have gone on to swing the bats for the Seminoles and several have advanced to the major leagues.

Baker is a popular speaker and has addressed Seminole Booster clubs and civic organizations around the state. He has been on the staff of national and regional baseball clinics. Baker works closely with Tallahassee area youth organizations and has put together clinics for the Tallahassee Babe Ruth League and other little leagues.

The 40-year-old native of North Carolina has written articles for Scholastic Coach and Collegiate Baseball magazines on the subjects of catching, third base coaching and bunting.

A 1980 graduate of High Point College (University) in North Carolina, Baker led the Panthers to four Carolina Conference championships. He was a member of the High Point team that finished second at the 1979 NIAA World Series.

After completing his bachelor's degree in physical education, Baker earned his master's degree in motor behavior at Virginia Tech, where he began his collegiate coaching career.

Baker is married to the former Julie Larsen, a record-holding pitcher on FSU's 1985-88 softball team who was inducted into the Florida State Hall of Fame in 1995. The two were married in 1991 in a most memorable ceremony — between games of a doubleheader at Dick Howser Stadium. The Bakers are the proud parents of a two-year-old daughter, Katie Nicole, who made her first trip to the College World Series in 1996.

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

Asst. Coach Jamey Shouppe

Jamey Shouppe begins his eighth season as an assistant coach for Florida State where he serves as recruiting coordinator and pitching coach.

Shouppe has been the catalyst in attracting top caliber talent to Florida State since taking over as the recruiting coordinator in 1990. His last five classes has been ranked in the Top-10 nationally. This year's class earned a No. 4 ranking by Collegiate Baseball. After garnering top recruiting class honors in 1992, Shouppe's '93 and '95 classes were rated the third, while his '94 class was ranked eighth best in the country.

Four years ago, the former Seminole hurler added the role of pitching coach to his duties, with equal success. Under Shouppe's tutelage, the Florida State pitching staff has consistently been among the nation's best. The Tribe followed up a 2.90 team ERA, good for fourth in the country in 1993, with a 3.09 mark in 1994, the nation's eighth best. The 1995 squad was third with a 2.72 ERA, while the 1996 staff finished at 11th with a 3.55 mark. Last season, the Seminole pitching staff was once again among the country's finest with an 11th-ranked ERA.

A former Seminole pitcher, Shouppe played under Mike Martin in 1981-82. In two seasons with the Seminoles the southpaw compiled a 10-4 record. During his career Shouppe stood a top the pitching mound in 60 games and posted a 3.78 ERA. He fanned a total of 122 batters in 126 innings of work and was named to the Metro Conference All-Tournament team his senior year.

A native of Chattahoochee, Fla., Shouppe came to FSU via George Wallace Junior College in Dothan, Ala. At Wallace, he earned all-conference, all-state, and all-region honors in each of his seasons while playing outfielder and pitcher.

The Houston Astros drafted Shouppe in the eighth round following his senior season at FSU. He played three years in the Astros organization at the A and AA levels and was invited to Big League Camp in 1984, before retiring from the sport in 1985.

Shouppe received his bachelor's degree in physical education from FSU and a master's degree from Nova University in Fort Lauderdale. He held various coaching and teaching positions in Florida before returning to FSU in 1990.

In addition to his coaching duties, Shouppe also teaches classes in the physical education department at FSU. He has worked as director of the Mike Martin Baseball School, 6-9 age division, for the past eight years.

Shouppe and his wife, former FSU cheerleader Karen Hall, have three children — 10-year-old Jake, six-year-old daughter Kasey, and four-year-old Jared.

Mike Martin, Jr. VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

Mike Martin, Jr., enters his first season as the Seminoles volunteer assistant coach after returning to Tallahassee following his professional baseball career. Martin will be responsible for working with the Florida State outfielders and serve as FSU's first base coach.

Martin was the Seminoles starting catcher from 1993-95 before being selected by the San Diego Padres in the ninth round of the 1995 draft after his senior season. He batted .272 with 20 home runs and 148 RBI in his career. Martin was the Most Valuable Player of the NCAA Atlantic II Regional as he led the Seminoles to the College World Series and also garnered second team All-ACC honors in 1994. He was also selected to the 1995 NCAA Atlantic I Regional All-Tournament Team as the Seminoles returned to Omaha for the second straight year. Martin was a member of Team USA in 1993.

After playing for the San Diego Padres organization for two years, he was signed by the Seattle Mariners as a free agent in 1996 before retiring from professional baseball in 1997.

Martin was an all-conference selection as a member Manatee C.C. squad in his only year of junior college. The Tallahassee native attended local Maclay High School where his jersey, #10, is retired.

John Rombough EQUIPMENT & CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

John Rombough enters his second season as Florida State's equipment and clubhouse manager and fifth year of association with the Seminole baseball team. Rombough served as FSU's bullpen catcher from 1994-96.

Rombough has many responsibilities throughout the year. His foremost duties are ordering and maintaining all equipment for the Seminoles.

When FSU travels, Rombough coordinates the transfer of luggage and equipment for the team. In addition, Rombough is responsible for the managing the upkeep of the clubhouse and lockerroom in Dick Howser Stadium — one of the finest facilities in the nation.

A native of Lake Mary, Fla., Rombough's FSU baseball career highlight was a pinch-running appearance in the 1994 College World Series. Rombough graduated with a bachelor's degree in finance in December 1996.

Duane Brooks BASEBALL TRAINER

Duane Brooks enters his fifth season on the Florida State training staff and his second as assistant athletic trainer. Brooks previously served as a graduate assistant in the FSU training room for two years.

Brooks' main responsibilities are split between the Seminole football team and the FSU baseball squad. Brooks' duties also include the supervision of the student trainer education program and the maintenance of insurance claims for all male sports.

A 29-year-old native of Tampa, Fla., Brooks graduated from Florida A&M University in 1994 with a bachelors' degree in Applied Physical Education. Brooks worked with the Rattlers' football team, was well as other sports, as FAMU's head student athletic trainer from 1991 to 1993.

Brooks received his masters' degree in April in 1996 from Florida State University in sports administration. He has also served as a summer assistant athletic trainer for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Tallahassee Sports Council. Brooks is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, Athletic Trainers Association of Florida and the Ethnic Advisory Council.
