Head Coach Mike Martin

Seven straight Top 10 finishes. Three consecutive trips to the College World Series. Seven straight 50-win seasons. Before Mike Martin's arrival in 1980, those accomplishments would not have been mentioned in the same sentence with Florida State baseball. Now, 21 years later, they define the program as Martin has built FSU into a national baseball power. Martin's 2000 Seminoles continued all of those streaks — a current run that is unmatched by any school in the country. To do so, they had to come out of the loser's bracket in NCAA Regional play, defeat arch-rival Miami in what was regarded as the top Super Regional matchup, and rally from an opening round loss in the College World Series. The Seminoles' never-say-die attitude and outstanding character in the most difficult of times stem directly from their head coach.

Mike Martin's blood runs garnet through his heart of gold. The truest of Seminoles, Martin will celebrate his 22nd season as Florida State's head baseball coach in 2001.

No other man can claim a longer or more successful career as a Seminole than Martin. Martin has been associated with 29 of Florida State's 54 seasons of baseball — two as a player, five as an assistant coach and is preparing for his 22nd year at the helm of the Seminole baseball program.

Martin seems to outdo his accomplishments every season. He was named the ACC Coach of the Year in 1999 after his team won the ACC regular season with a 22-2 mark, the best regular season record in conference history. The Seminoles finished second nationally in 1999 and followed with a No. 3 ranking last season. No school has finished the year ranked in the Top 10 more times (10) than Martin's Seminoles. His 2000 team reached the 50-win plateau for the 19th time in Martin's 21-year career.

The Seminole skipper earned his 1,000th victory in a 4-3 decision over Jacksonville on April 9th, 1998. He became the second fastest head coach to reach the 1,000-win mark in NCAA Division I baseball history.

Former FSU players, friends and Bullpen Club members honored Martin for his 1,000th win with a special ceremony and diamond-studded gold Rolex watch. Martin also garnered ACC Coach of the Year distinction from his peers for his efforts.

Martin guided his 1997 squad to the Seminoles' second Atlantic Coast Conference championship in the last three years, as his pitchers hurled four complete games in the five-game sweep.

In 1996, FSU's 19-5 ACC record and first ever first-place conference finish in the regular season earned Martin 1996 Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year honors. His 1996 squad made history as they put together an FSU-record 22-game win streak and traveled to the College World Series for the third consecutive season, the first three-year streak in school history.

Martin has become a familiar face in Omaha, as he has guided 12 teams to the College World Series including six of his past eight squads. Seminole teams have been invited to the NCAA Regionals every season under Martin, 21 years of FSU's 23-year streak in the post-season. Martin ranks second among the nation's winningest Winning, however, has not been Martin's only goal in his brilliant career. He believes making a difference in his players' lives off the ball field, as well, is just as important as his win-loss record.

When the skinny kid from Charlotte transferred to FSU from Wingate Junior College in 1965 to play centerfield for the Seminoles, it was the beginning of a love affair that has never ended. His love for the game of baseball is matched only by the success he has had teaching it to aspiring players. He teaches the game with a fire and drive that has given Florida State perhaps the nation's very best all-around college baseball program. From the facilities to the coaching staff to the unequalled community support, Mike Martin has improved an already strong Seminole baseball tradition with every season.

Martin just keeps getting better and better. Just when it seems that

No one wanted to jinx an FSU team that had made it to the College World Series only three times in the previous 15 seasons. After taking the Seminoles to that hallowed ground in his very first season, Martin would eventually make Omaha not only a household word, but a second home to the Seminoles. Martin has led the Tribe to the CWS 11 times in the last 15 years, including nine of the past 12 seasons.

In 1993 with his youngest club ever, Martin's team failed to win 50 games or reach the College World Series for the first time in his 14 seasons. A tribute to his success, FSU's 46 wins marked that year marked the lowest win total during the Martin Era. For 12 consecutive seasons since his arrival, Martin's clubs achieved 50 wins, an unprecedented run in college baseball.

Woodward for four years and then under Dick Howser for one. When New York Yankee boss George Steinbrenner called Howser in November of 1979, it was an obvious choice as to who would succeed him as head coach. Since that day in 1979, there has been no doubt that Mike Martin and Seminole baseball are a perfect match.

For Martin, it's a dream come true. He would be the first to tell you his current position is his ultimate thrill. Martin has compiled a 1,132-383-3 record and is

The numbers Martin and his FSU teams have posted are monumental. During the 1992 season, the Seminole coach collected his 700th career victory. That milestone came earlier than any coach in NCAA history — just 13 seasons.

Martin's succession of Dick Howser as FSU head coach seemed a perfectly logical step in 1979. As a player in 1965-66, Martin hit .354 in two seasons as the starting centerfielder for the Seminoles. He was a part of the 1965 College World Series team and earned all-District honors in his senior season. Martin then went on to play professionally in the New York Mets and Detroit Tigers organizations for three years prior to embarking on his career as a coach.

Martin began his career as a baseball and basketball coach at the junior high level, then became head basketball coach at Tallahassee Community College before spending four seasons as basketball coach at Tallahassee's Godby High.

When Woody Woodward became FSU head baseball coach in 1975, he quickly called on Martin to assist him. He served five seasons as the number one assistant under Florida State's winningest coach. Seminole baseball teams have participated in the NCAA Tournament every year under Martin — 21 consecutive years. That run, on the heels of appearances in 1978 and 1979, gives FSU 23 consecutive tournament trips. Only one other team in the nation—Miami—has a longer string of consecutive appearances. Martin has been involved in 14 of the 18 College World Series trips that Florida State has made, as a player, assistant and head coach.

Martin says his years around FSU coaches like Fred Hatfield, whom he played for in 1965-66, and Woody Woodward and Dick Howser, whom he coached under, instilled in him the desire to produce winners on and off the playing field. Stepping out of their shadows, Martin has built his own legacy in Tallahassee.

During his tenure, 40 different players have earned All-America honors, 76 have been named to all-conference teams and an incredible 92 players have signed professional contracts. In 1999, second baseman Marshall McDougall was a consensus All-American, a finalist for Golden Spikes and Dick Howser Awards, and the ACC Player of the Year after winning the conference's triple crown. Center fielder J.D. Drew took home consensus All-American honors in

Drew also became the first Seminole to win the Dick Howser Award, named after FSU's former All-American and head coach. Three of Martin's Seminoles — Mike Fuentes, Mike Loynd and Drew — have won the Golden Spikes Award, honoring the nation's best amateur baseball player.

A popular speaker, Martin has delivered keynote addresses at several state and national meetings, including gatherings of the Florida High School Coaches Association, Atlanta Braves instructional clinics and Seminole booster clubs throughout the Southeast. He is also in demand as a speaker at churches and is active in national and local Fellowship of Christian Athletes activities.

A 1966 graduate of Florida State, Martin earned his master's degree in 1971. He and wife Carol have three children, Mary Beth (31), Melanie (25) and Mike, Jr. (28), a former starting catcher and current volunteer coach at Florida State. Mary Beth and husband, Tom Buchanan, recently gave birth to the Martin's first grandchild — Hannah Elizabeth (two).

Chip Baker

The senior member of coach Mike Martin's staff and a Seminole "fan favorite", Chip Baker enters his 17th season as a Seminole assistant coach. This 2001 season will, again, see Baker continue to fill many roles for the program.

Baker will return to familiar ground as third base coach for the Tribe. In addition, he is responsible for scouting opposing teams and directs the Seminoles defensively. Baker also oversees FSU's catchers, a position that has shown great improvement since his arrival.

A former assistant at Virginia Tech and Georgia Tech, Baker is one of college baseball's premiere catching instructors. During his tenure, Baker has coached five All-Americans, including Ed Fulton, Barry Blackwell, major-leaguer Marc Ronan and first-team All-American Pedro Grifol. Most recently, 1998 All-American Jeremy Salazar was drafted in the 19th round by the Philadelphia Phillies.

Baker's duties go beyond the field. Administratively, he coordinates team travel plans and handles overall administration of the total program.

During each summer, Baker is the director of the Mike Martin and Seminole Advanced Baseball Schools. These camps have not only proved to be popular, but beneficial. Over 85 former campers have gone on to swing the bats for the Seminoles and several have advanced to the major leagues, including 19 first-round draft picks such as J.D. Drew, Chipper Jones, Alex Rodriguez and Dean Palmer. Eight of FSU's nine starters at last year's College World Series attended Seminole camps as high school athletes. The nationally known Super Skills Academy has quickly become one of the nation's top summer camps.

Baker is a popular speaker and has addressed Seminole Booster clubs and civic organizations around the state. He has been on the staff of national and regional baseball clinics. Baker works closely with Tallahassee area youth organizations and has put together clinics for the Tallahassee Babe Ruth League and other little leagues.

The 43-year-old native of North Carolina has written articles for Scholastic Coach and Collegiate Baseball magazines on the subjects of catching, third base coaching and bunting.

A 1980 graduate of High Point College (University) in North Carolina, Baker led the Panthers to four Carolina Conference championships. He was a member of the High Point team that finished second at the 1979 NAIA World Series.

After completing his bachelor's degree in physical education, Baker earned his master's degree in motor behavior at Virginia Tech, where he began his collegiate coaching career.

Baker is married to the former Julie Larsen, a record-holding pitcher on FSU's 1985-88 softball team who was inducted into the Florida State Hall of Fame in 1995. The two were married in 1991 in a most memorable ceremony — between games of a doubleheader at Dick Howser Stadium. The Bakers are the proud parents of a five-year-old daughter, Katie Nicole, who is a regular at FSU home games and has traveled to four College World Series.

In August of 1999, Baker underwent successful hip replacement surgery.

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

Seven former FSU assistants are currently head coaches.

Jamey Shouppe

George Wallace Junior College in Dothan, Ala. At Wallace, he earned all-conference, all-state, and all-region honors in each of his seasons while playing outfielder and pitcher.

The Houston Astros drafted Shouppe in the eighth round following his senior season at FSU. He played three years in the Astros organization at the A and AA levels and was invited to Big League Camp in 1984, before retiring from the sport in 1985.

Shouppe received his bachelor's degree in physical education from FSU and a master's degree from Nova University in Fort Lauderdale. He held various coaching and teaching positions in Florida before returning to FSU in 1990.

Shouppe taught classes in the physical education department before giving up that responsibility prior to the 2000 season. He has worked as director of the Mike Martin Baseball School, 6-10 age division, for the past 16 years.

Shouppe and his wife, former FSU cheerleader Karen Hall, have three children — 13-year-old Jake, nine-year-old daughter Kasey, and seven-year-old Jared.

Jamey Shouppe begins his 11th season as an assistant coach for Florida State as he continues to serve as one of the nation's premier recruiting coordinators and pitching coaches. His success has been proven year after year with top-ranked recruiting classes and staff ERAs.

Shouppe has been the catalyst in attracting top caliber talent to Florida State since taking over as the recruiting coordinator in 1990. His last nine classes have been ranked in the Top-10 nationally. After garnering Baseball America's top recruiting class honors in 1992, Shouppe's '93 and '95 classes were rated the third.

In 1993, the former Seminole hurler added the role of pitching coach to his duties, with equal success. Under Shouppe's tutelage, the Florida State pitching staff has consistently been among the nation's best. Last season, the Seminoles again led the ACC and were second in the nation with a 3.23 ERA.

A former Seminole pitcher, Shouppe played under Mike Martin in 1981-82. In two seasons with the Seminoles the southpaw compiled a 10-4 record. During his career Shouppe stood atop the pitching mound in 60 games and posted a 3.78 ERA. He fanned a total of 122 batters in 126 innings of work and was named to the Metro Conference All-Tournament team his senior year.

A native of Chattahoochee, Fla., Shouppe came to FSU via

Mike Martin, Jr. Assistant Coach

Mike Martin, Jr., grew up living and learning about Seminole baseball. This year, he enters his fourth season as the Seminoles assistant coach after returning to Tallahassee following his professional baseball career. Martin will continue to serve as the Tribe's first base coach and is also responsible for working with the Florida State outfielders and first

Martin was the Seminoles starting catcher from 1993-95 before being selected by the San Diego Padres in the ninth round of the 1995 draft after his senior season. he finished his career with a .272 hitting average, 26 home runs and 148 RBI. Martin was the Most Valuable Player of the NCAA Atlantic II Regional as he led the Seminoles to the College World Series and also garnered second team All-ACC honors in 1994. He was selected to the 1995 NCAA Atlantic I Regional All-Tournament Team as the Seminoles returned to Omaha for the second straight year. Martin was a member of Team USA in 1993.

After playing for the San Diego Padres organization for two years, he was signed by the Seattle Mariners as a free agent in 1996 before retiring from professional baseball in 1997.

In 1992, Martin was an all-conference selection at Manatee Community College in his only year of junior college. The Tallahassee native attended local Maclay High School where his jersey #10 is retired.

In addition to his coaching duties, Martin teaches classes in the physical education department. On November 27, 1999, Martin married the former Litzie Andrade.

Duane Brooks Baseball Trainer

Duane Brooks enters his seventh season on the Florida State training staff and his fifth as assistant athletic trainer. Brooks previously served as a graduate assistant in the FSU training room for two years.

Brooks' main responsibilities are split between the Seminole football team and the FSU baseball squad. This is the fourth year he has worked with both teams.

A 32-year-old native of Tampa, Fla., Brooks graduated from Florida A&M University in 1994 with a bachelors' degree in Applied Physical Education. Brooks worked with the Rattlers' football team, as well as other sports, as FAMU's head student athletic trainer from 1991 to 1993.

Brooks received his masters' degree in April of 1996 from Florida State University in sports administration. He has also served as a summer assistant athletic trainer for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Tallahassee Sports Council. Brooks is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Athletic Trainers Association of Florida.

Brooks married the former Natasha Palmer on July 3, 1999.

Bob Holland Equipment & Clubhouse Manager

Bob Holland takes over as the equipment and clubhouse manager in 2001, the post formerly held by former Seminole Jose Zabala.

Holland played baseball at nearby Florida High School from 1988-90. He then moved on to Pearl River Community College (MS) where he earned all-state honors as a catcher in 1992. Holland continued his career at the University of West Florida before completing his degree at Johnson and Wales.

Holland has many responsibilities throughout the year. His foremost duties are ordering and maintaining all equipment for the FSU baseball program. When the Seminoles travel, Holland coordinates the transfer of luggage and equipment for the team. In addition, Holland is responsible for managing the upkeep of the clubhouse and locker room of Dick Howser Stadium — one of the finest facilities in the nation.

Holland married the former Aimee Mallini on October 24, 1998. The Hollands are expecting their first child in July.
