HEAD COACH MIKE MARTIN

Eight Straight Top 10 finishes. Twelve College World Series appearances. Twenty 50-win seasons. Before Mike Martin's return to Florida State as head coach in 1980, those accomplishments would not have been mentioned in the same breath as Seminole baseball. Now, 22 years later, they define the program that Martin has built into a national power.

Martin's blood runs garnet through his heart of gold. The truest of Seminoles, Martin has been associated with 30 of Florida State's 55 seasons of baseball — two as a player, five as an assistant coach — enters his 23rd year at the helm.

FSU's 2001 team had to battle through as much adversity as any of his previous 22 clubs. Injuries to a pair of four-year starters, center fielder Karl Jernigan and short-stop Brett Groves, forced Martin to shuffle the lineup all year.

The team got a first-hand reminder that some things were more important than wins and losses prior to the series at Stanford. Leaving the San Francisco airport, Martin and assistant coach Chip Baker gained control of the team's charter bus after the driver suffered a fatal heart attack and safely guided it to the side a busy four-lane highway. Martin and Baker were presented with the university's prestigious Westcott Award for their bravery in saving the lives of players and staff. There's no question that the Seminoles' outstanding character in the most difficult of times stem directly from their head coach.

Through it all, the 2001 squad finished the year one game short of a fourth-straight College World Series appearance and a No. 9 ranking in Collegiate Baseball's final poll. The ranking extended FSU's streak of Top 10 finishes to eight years — the longest run in the country. Martin was named ACC Coach of the Year for the fourth time since FSU joined the league in 1992 after leading the team to the regular season title. Slugging outfielder John-Ford Griffin was a Golden Spikes Award finalist, a consensus All-American, the ACC Player of the Year, and Martin's 11th first round draft pick.

Martin seems to outdo his accomplishments every season. His 2000 club was the 19th to reach the 50-win plateau in his 22-year career. After defeating Miami in the NCAA Super Regional to earn a College World Series berth, the 2000 Seminoles rallied from an opening round loss to advance to the final four before losing to eventual national champion LSU.

*Active Coaches

Martin was named ACC Coach of the Year in 1999 after his team won the ACC regular season with a 22-2 mark, the best regular season record in conference history. The Seminoles went on to finish second in the country with an impressive CWS showing.

The Seminole skipper earned his 1,000th victory in a 4-3 decision over Jacksonville on April 9th, 1998. He became the second fastest head coach to reach the 1,000-win mark in NCAA Division I baseball history.

Former FSU players, friends and Bullpen Club members honored Martin for his 1,000th win with a special ceremony and diamond-studded gold Rolex watch. Martin also garnered ACC Coach of the Year distinction from his peers for his efforts.

Martin guided his 1997 squad to the Seminoles' second Atlantic Coast Conference championship in the last three years, as his pitchers hurled four complete games in the five-game sweep.

In 1996, FSU's 19-5 ACC record and first ever first-place conference finish in the regular season earned Martin his first ACC Coach of the Year honor. His squad made history as they put together an FSU-record 22-game win streak and traveled to the College World Series for the third consecutive season, the first three-year streak in school history.

Martin has become a familiar face in Omaha, as he has guided 12 teams to the College World Series including six of his past nine squads. Seminole teams have been invited to the NCAA Regionals 24 consecutive years, including 22 under Martin's direction. He ranks second among the nation's winningest active Division I coaches and ninth among winningest all-time Division I coaches with a .745 percentage and 1,179 victories entering the 2002 season.

Winning, however, has not been Martin's only goal in his brilliant career. He believes making a difference in his players' lives off the ball field, as well, is just as important as his win-loss record.

When the skinny kid from Charlotte transferred to FSU from Wingate Junior College in 1965 to play centerfield for the Seminoles, it was the beginning of a love affair that has never ended. His love for the game of baseball is matched only by the success he has had teaching it to aspiring players. He teaches the game with a fire and drive that has given Florida State perhaps the nation's very best all-around college baseball program. From the facilities to the coaching staff to the unequalled community support, Mike Martin has improved an already strong Seminole baseball tradition with every season.

Martin just keeps getting better and better. Just when it seems that the program can reach no higher plane, something bigger and better comes along. When Martin took over in 1980, it was taboo to mention the word Omaha around the ball club. No one wanted to jinx an FSU team that had made it to the College World Series only three times in the previous 16 seasons. After taking the Seminoles to that hallowed ground in his very first season, Martin would eventually make Omaha not only a household word, but a second home to the Seminoles. Martin has led the Tribe to the CWS nine of the past 13 seasons.

Martin won 50 or more games his first 12 seasons at the helm, interrupted by 49 and 46-win seasons in 1992 and 1993. The Seminoles rattled off seven more 50-win seasons before last year's 47-19 mark.

The numbers Martin and his FSU teams have posted are monumental. During the 1992 season, he collected his 700th career victory, reaching that milestone faster than any coach in NCAA history — just 13 seasons.

Martin's succeeding of Dick Howser as FSU head coach seemed a perfectly logical step in 1979. As a player in 1965-66, Martin hit .354 in two seasons as the starting centerfielder for the Seminoles. He was a part of the 1965 College World Series team and earned all-District honors in his senior season. Martin then went on to play professionally in the New York Mets and Detroit Tigers organizations for three years prior to embarking on his career as a coach.

Martin began his career as a baseball and basketball coach at the junior high level, then became head basketball coach at Tallahassee Community College before spending four seasons as basketball coach at Tallahassee's Godby High.

When Woody Woodward became FSU head baseball coach in 1975, he quickly called on Martin to assist him. He served five seasons as the No. 1 assistant under Woodward for four years and one under Dick Howser. When New York Yankees boss George Steinbrenner called Howser in November 1979, Martin was the obvious choice. Since that day in 1979, there has been no doubt that Mike Martin and Seminole baseball are a perfect match.

For Martin, it's a dream come true. He would be the first to tell you his current position is his ultimate thrill. Martin has compiled a 1,179-402-3 record and is Florida State's winningest coach. Seminole baseball teams have participated in the NCAA Tournament every year under Martin — 21 consecutive years. That run, on the heels of appearances in 1978 and 1979, gives FSU 23 consecutive tournament trips. Only one other team in the nation—Miami—has a longer string of consecutive appearances. Martin has been involved in 14 of the 18 College World Series trips that Florida State has made, as a player, assistant and head coach.

Martin says his years around FSU coaches like Fred Hatfield, whom he played for in 1965-66, Woodward and Howser — both of whom he coached under — instilled in him the desire to produce winners on and off the playing field. Stepping out of their shadows, Martin has built his own legacy in Tallahassee.

During his tenure, 41 different players have earned All-America honors, 79 have been named to all-conference teams and an incredible 96 players have signed professional contracts. In 1999, second baseman Marshall McDougall was a consensus All-American, a finalist for Golden Spikes and Dick Howser Awards, and the ACC Player of the Year after winning the conference's triple crown. Center fielder J.D. Drew took home consensus All-American honors in 1997, as well as player of the year awards from Baseball America, The Sporting News, and Collegiate Baseball. Drew also became the first Seminole to win the Dick Howser Award, named after FSU's former All-American and head coach. Three of Martin's Seminoles — Mike Fuentes, Mike Loynd and Drew — have won the Golden Spikes Award, honoring the nation's best amateur baseball player.

A popular speaker, Martin has delivered keynote addresses at several state and national meetings, including gatherings of the Florida High School Coaches Association, Atlanta Braves instructional clinics and Seminole booster clubs throughout the Southeast. He is also in demand as a speaker at churches and is active in national and local Fellowship of Christian Athletes activities.

A 1966 graduate of Florida State, Martin earned his master's degree in 1971. He and wife Carol have three children, Mary Beth (32), Melanie (26) and Mike, Jr. (29), a former starting catcher and current assistant coach at Florida State. Mary Beth and husband Tom Buchanan are the parents of Martin's first grandchild — Hannah Elizabeth (3). Mike, Jr. and wife Litzie are the new parents of Martin's second grandchild — Tyler.

CHIP BAKER

The senior member of coach Mike Martin's staff and a Seminole "fan favorite", Chip Baker enters his 18th season as a Seminole assistant coach. During his tenure at Florida State, Baker has participated in 17 NCAA postseason tournaments and 11 College World Series. He was part of two teams that played in the National Championship game (1986 & 2000). This 2002 season will, again, see Baker continue to fill many roles for the program.

Baker will return to familiar ground as third base coach for the Tribe. In addition, he is responsible for scouting opposing teams and directs the Seminoles defensively. Baker also oversees FSU's catchers, a position that has shown great improvement since his arrival.

A former assistant at Virginia Tech and Georgia Tech, Baker is one of college baseball's premier catching instructors. During his tenure, Baker has coached six All-Americans, including Ed Fulton, Barry Blackwell, major-leaguer Marc Ronan and first-team All-American Pedro Grifol. Most recently, Tony Richie was named a 2001 Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American and 1998 All-American Jeremy Salazar was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies.

Baker's duties go beyond the field. Administratively, he coordinates team travel plans and handles overall administration of the total program.

During each summer, Baker is the director of the Mike Martin and Seminole Advanced Baseball Schools. These camps have not only proved to be popular, but beneficial. Over 95 former campers have gone on to swing the bats for the Seminoles and several have advanced to the major leagues. Past camps have produced 21 first round draft picks including John-Ford Griffin, Nick Stocks, Jonathan Johnson, J.D. Drew, Chipper Jones and Alex Rodriguez. Eight of FSU's nine starters on last year's Florida State team attended Seminole camps as high school athletes. The nationally known Super Skills Academy has quickly become one of the nation's top summer camps.

Baker is a popular speaker and has addressed Seminole Booster clubs and civic organizations around the state. He has been on the staff of national and regional baseball clinics. Baker works closely with Tallahassee area youth organizations and has put together clinics for the Tallahassee Babe Ruth League and other youth leagues.

The 44-year-old native of North Carolina has written articles for Scholastic Coach and Collegiate Baseball magazines on the subjects of catching, third base coaching and bunting; and has published a Collegiate Level Strength & Speed book. Just last year, Baker put together a record selling catching video with Championship Videos entitled, "Expanding the Strike Zone."

A 1980 graduate of High Point College (University) in North Carolina, Baker was a part of four Carolina Conference championship teams. He was a member of the High Point team that finished second at the 1979 NAIA World Series.

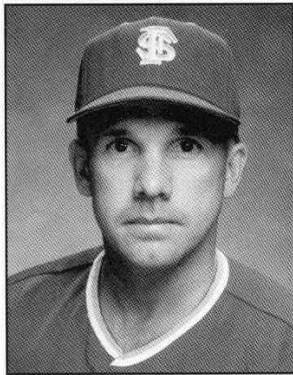

After completing his bachelor's degree in physical education, Baker earned his master's degree in motor behavior at Virginia Tech, where he began his collegiate coaching career.

Baker is married to the former Julie Larsen, a record-holding pitcher on FSU's 1985-88 softball teams who was inducted into the Florida State Hall of Fame in 1995. The two were married in 1991 in a most memorable ceremony - between games of a doubleheader at Dick Howser Stadium. The Bakers are the proud parents of a five-year-old daughter, Katie Nicole, who is a regular at FSU home games and has traveled to the College World Series four times. Baker's older brother, Jim, is the head basketball coach at Catawba College. In August of 1999, Baker underwent successful hip replacement surgery.

Upon FSU's return from a trip to Stanford in 2001, Baker and head coach Mike Martin were presented with the university's prestigious Westcott Award for their bravery in saving the lives of players and staff. Leaving the San Francisco airport, the two coaches gained control of the team's charter bus after the driver suffered a fatal heart attack and safely guided it to the side a busy four-lane highway.

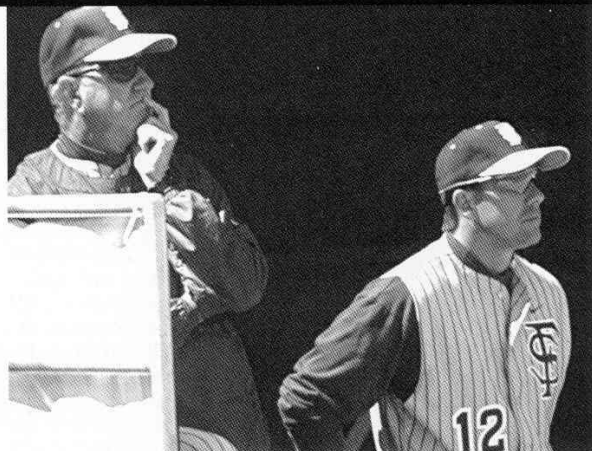

JAMIEY SHOUPPE

Jamey Shouppe begins his 12th season as an assistant coach for Florida State as he continues to serve as one of the nation's premier recruiting coordinators and pitching coaches. His success has been proven year after year with top-ranked recruiting classes and staff ERAs.

Shouppe has been the catalyst in attracting top caliber talent to Florida State since taking over as the recruiting coordinator in 1990. His last 10 classes have been ranked in the Top-10 nationally. After garnering Baseball America's top recruiting class honors in 1992, Shouppe's '93 and '95 classes were rated the third.

In 1993, the former Seminole hurler added the role of pitching coach to his duties, with equal success. Under Shouppe's tutelage, the Florida State pitching staff has consistently been among the nation's best. Last season, the Seminoles again led the ACC and were second in the nation with a 3.47 ERA.

A former Seminole pitcher, Shouppe played under Mike Martin in 1981-82. In two seasons with the Seminoles the southpaw compiled a 10-4 record. During his career Shouppe stood atop the pitching mound in 60 games and posted a 3.78 ERA. He fanned a total of 122 batters in 126 innings of work and was named to the Metro Conference All-Tournament team his senior year.

A native of Chattahoochee, Fla., Shouppe came to FSU via George Wallace Junior College in Dothan, Ala. At Wallace, he earned all-conference, all-state, and all-region honors in each of his seasons while playing outfielder and pitcher.

The Houston Astros drafted Shouppe in the eighth round following his senior season at FSU. The left-hander played three years in the Astros organization at the A and AA levels and was invited to Big League Camp in 1984, before retiring from the sport in 1985.

Shouppe received his bachelor's degree in physical education from FSU and a master's degree from Nova University in Fort Lauderdale. He held various coaching and teaching positions in Florida before returning to FSU in 1990.

Shouppe taught classes in the physical education department before giving up that responsibility prior to the 2000 season. He has worked as director of the Mike Martin Baseball School, 6-10 age division, for the past 17 years.

Shouppe and his wife, former FSU cheerleader Karen Hall, have three children — 14-year-old Jake, 10-year-old daughter Kasey, and eight-year-old Jared.

MIKE MARTIN, JR.

Mike Martin, Jr., grew up living and learning about Seminole baseball from his father. This year, he enters his fifth season as the Seminoles assistant coach after returning to Tallahassee following his professional baseball career. Martin will continue to serve as the Tribe's first base coach and is also responsible for working with the Florida State outfielders. Martin has served as FSU's hitting coach over the last four years and the team has hit no lower than .307 during that period. The 1999 Seminoles hit .327 as a team, which ranks third all-time in school history. Martin learned from Duane Espy, who is regarded as one of the top hitting instructors in Major League Baseball, during a stint with the San Diego Padres organization.

Martin was the Seminoles starting catcher from 1993-95 before being selected by the San Diego Padres in the ninth round of the 1995 draft after his senior season. He finished his career with a .272 hitting average, 26 home runs and 148 RBI. Martin was the Most Valuable Player of the NCAA Atlantic II Regional as he led the Seminoles to the College World Series and also garnered second team

All-ACC honors in 1994. He was selected to the 1995 NCAA Atlantic I Regional All-Tournament Team as the Seminoles returned to Omaha for the second straight year. Martin was a member of Team USA in 1993.

After playing for the San Diego Padres organization for two years, he was signed by the Seattle Mariners as a free agent in 1996 before retiring from professional baseball in 1997. He captained the 1991 team that went on to win the state championship in his senior season. He was drafted as a shortstop out of high school by the Seattle Mariners in the 31st round.

In 1992, Martin was an all-conference selection at Manatee Community College in his only year of junior college. The Tallahassee native attended Maclay High School where his jersey #10 is retired.

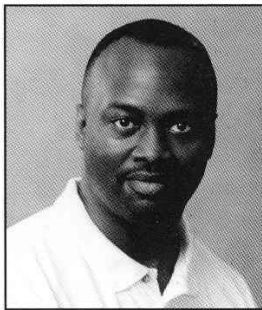

In addition to his coaching duties, Martin teaches classes in the physical education department. On November 27, 1999, Martin married the former Litzie Andrade. Their first child, Tyler, was born on December 10, 2001.

SUPPORT STAFF

DUANE BROOKS

Baseball Trainer

Duane Brooks enters his eighth season on the Florida State training staff and his sixth as assistant athletic trainer. Brooks previously served as a graduate assistant in the FSU training room for two years.

Brooks' main responsibilities are split between the Seminole football team and the FSU baseball squad. This is the fifth year he has worked with both teams.

A 33-year-old native of Tampa, Fla., Brooks graduated from Florida A&M University in 1994 with a bachelors' degree in Applied Physical Education. Brooks worked with the Rattlers' football team, as well as other sports, as FAMU's head student athletic trainer from 1991 to 1993.

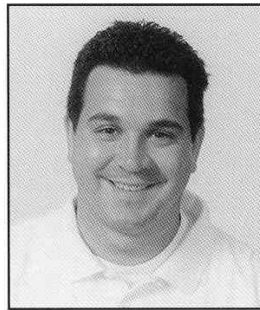

Brooks received his masters' degree in April of 1996 from Florida State University in sports administration. He has also served as a summer assistant athletic trainer for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Tallahassee Sports Council. Brooks is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Athletic Trainers Association of Florida.

Brooks married the former Natasha Palmer on July 3, 1999.

BOB HOLLAND

Equipment & Clubhouse Manager

Bob Holland enters his second season as the equipment and clubhouse manager in 2002.

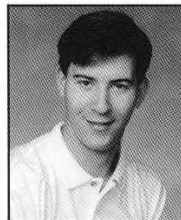

Holland played baseball at nearby Florida High School from 1988-90. He then moved on to Pearl River Community College (MS) where he earned all-state honors as a catcher in 1992. Holland continued his career at the University of West Florida before completing his degree at Johnson and Wales.

Holland has many responsibilities throughout the year. His foremost duties are ordering and maintaining all equipment for the FSU baseball program.

When the Seminoles travel, Holland coordinates the transfer of luggage and equipment for the team. In addition, Holland is responsible for managing the upkeep of the clubhouse and locker room of Dick Howser Stadium — one of the finest facilities in the nation.

Holland married the former Aimee Mallini on October 24, 1998. Aimee gave birth to the couple's first child, Hudson, on August 3, 2001.
