REVIEW

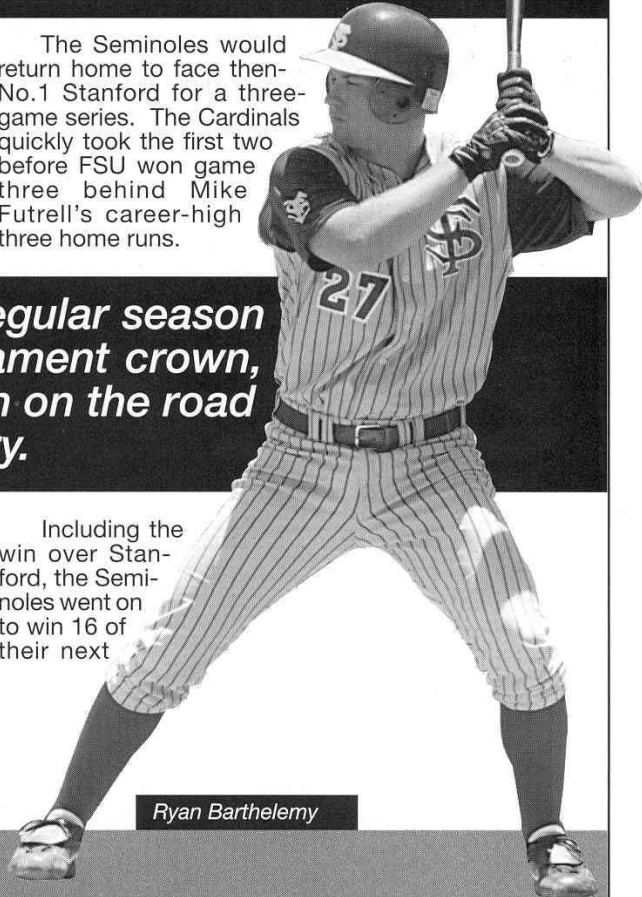

2002 SEASON

A team that will go down in history as one of Mike Martin's favorites, the 2002 Seminoles accomplished what no teams before them had. The Seminoles won their fifth regular season ACC title and third ACC Tournament crown, swept rivals Miami and Clemson on the road for the first time in school history, set the school record for consecutive games won with 25 and tied the ACC record for wins in a season (60).
Led by senior third baseman Ryan Barthelemy, FSU

The Seminoles would return home to face then-No.1 Stanford for a three-game series. The Cardinals quickly took the first two before FSU won game three behind Mike Futrell's career-high three home runs.

Ryan Barthelemy

battled one of the toughest schedules in the country to earn the top overall seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Seminoles swept their way through the ACC Tournament and the NCAA Regionals before taking a surprising fall to a streaking Notre Dame team in the Super Regional. Despite not making a 19th trip to the College World Series, the 2002 season was one to remember.

Including the win over Stanford, the Seminoles went on to win 16 of their next Florida State opened the season in beautiful Hawaii for seven games in eight days against Hawaii-Hilo and the University of Hawaii. FSU would return with a 6-1 record, but lost freshman shortstop Stephen Drew, who broke a bone in his left foot rounding first base at Hawaii on Feb. 1.

17 games, including a two-game sweep of the sixth-ranked Florida Gators. The one loss in that streak came at Jacksonville. The win for the Dolphins snapped a 20-game losing streak to the Seminoles, but Florida State would later avenge the loss to JU with a 7-1 win on April 10. During that span, head coach Mike Martin hit a milestone in his coaching career. The Seminole skipper recorded his 1,200th career victory in FSU's 4-2 win in game one of a doubleheader against Appalachian State on March 13. Martin became just the 12th coach in NCAA Division I history to record 1,200 career wins.

Mercer came to town for a mid-week series before Florida State headed to Wake Forest. The mid-week game marked the return of Stephen Drew from his foot injury he had suffered earlier in the year. Drew broke the game open with a three-run double off the fence in right to spark an 11-2 win.

Heading into ACC action, in what turned out to be the toughest conference in college baseball, the Seminoles got off to a slow start with a conference record of 3-6. After taking two-of-three at Virginia, the Seminoles were swept by North Carolina in Chapel Hill and lost two-of-three at Wake Forest.

As the month of April approached, so did the biggest regular season series of the season with rival Miami and an important ACC series with Georgia Tech. The Hurricanes had taken five-of-six from the Seminoles in 2001 and this stretch would determine if FSU would host an NCAA Regional.

Florida State pounded out five home runs en route of a 13-3 game one win over the Hurricanes. Miami would come back to take game two, 5-2. The 13-inning game three in Tallahassee turned out to be another FSU/UM classic and may have turned the season around for the Seminoles. In a game that saw five lead changes in the first nine innings, the score would stay knotted at six apiece for the first three extra frames. In the top of the 13th, Miami's Haas Pratt doubled and moved to third on a sacrifice bunt. With the infield in, Stephen Drew couldn't handle a Paco Figueroa grounder and Pratt scored to give the Hurricanes a 7-6 lead heading into the bottom half of the 13th inning. Jeff Probst and Kevin Richmond both drew walks with one out in the bottom of the inning. Drew didn't waste any time in making up for his error as he launched his fourth home run of the season deep over the right field fence to give FSU the 9-7 win. The Seminoles would go on to win 31 of their last 34 games to close out the season. Florida State continued the annual six-game set at Miami and swept the Hurricanes in Coral Gables for the first time in school history. Sunday's game that saw the Seminoles win 17-11, which marked the most runs ever scored by FSU at Miami.

Coming off the sweep at Miami, the Seminoles were heading into a difficult ACC stretch that included a road series at No.1 Clemson — a place the Seminoles had struggled since joining the ACC in 1992. FSU went into the series with a 2-13 record at Clemson since 1992.

Behind the power of Tony Richie and a strong performance from the starting rotation, Florida State swept Clemson on the road for the first time in school history. Richie went 9-for-14 with four homers, two doubles and eight RBI in the series and was honored as the Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week. The Seminoles won all three games easily (9-3, 12-3 & 9-3) to clinch the ACC regular season title and the No. 1 seed in the ACC Tournament. FSU finished with an 18-6 conference record, reeling off 12 straight ACC wins after the 3-6 start.

The Seminoles posted a 17-game winning streak heading to St. Petersburg for the 29th Annual ACC Tournament and a first round date with the ninth-seeded Duke Blue Devils. Duke jumped all over Florida State with five runs in the top of the first inning. The Seminoles added single runs in the bottom of the third and fifth innings to cut Duke's lead to 5-2. Trent Peterson relieved starter Robby Read and picked up the win as FSU added eight runs in the seventh and eighth innings to avoid the upset and take a 10-7 opening round victory.

FSU added victories over Clemson, Wake Forest and Georgia Tech to advance to the championship game against Clemson. Florida State had beaten the Tigers eight consecutive times heading into the match-up. FSU and Clemson were the top two teams in the country and it was only fitting these two teams to meet for the conference crown. Sophomore pitcher Marc LaMacchia allowed only run over eight innings while Stephen Drew went 3-for-4 with a home run and a double to give the Seminoles a 4-1 victory. The title was FSU's third ACC Championship and Drew was voted ACC Tournament MVP honors.

Florida State swept through the Tallahassee Regional with games against Stetson, Central Florida and South Florida on their way to hosting Notre Dame in the Super Regional. Those three wins pushed the school record winning streak to 25 games.

With the winning streak on the line and a shot at a College World Series berth, the Seminoles were set to host Notre Dame Fighting in NCAA Super Regional action in Tallahassee. Florida State's hot finish had earned it the top seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Irish showed they weren't intimidated by FSU's top seed and winning streak as they handed the Seminoles a 10-4 loss in Friday's opener. After Saturday's action was rained out, Florida State bounced back with a 12-5 victory on Sunday to force a deciding game three on Monday. Notre Dame's Chris Niesel pitched the Irish to the CWS as he allowed just one run in eight innings of work. J.P. Star closer J.P. Gagne finished off the Tribe in the ninth by striking out the side.

Although the season ended one game short of the team's goal of reaching the College World Series and making a run at a national title, the positives far outweighed the negatives when you look back at the 2002 season. Four Seminoles would go on to earn All-American honors (Ryan Barthelemy, Matt Lynch, Tony Richie and Stephen Drew). With three of those four players back with another year under their belt, the 2003 club will be poised to make a return to Omaha. From the winning streak to the ACC regular season and tournament titles along with road sweeps of Clemson and Miami, 2002 will always be a season to remember.
