At the plate, Teagle boasted a .325 batting average. Behind the plate, his rifle arm was a threat to all potential base stealers.

MIKE AUGUSTINE 1963

Mike Augustine is literally a Seminole success story. In the 1962 season, he never saw regular playing time until tournament time. The next season, the centerfielder broke a school record for most hits in a season with 58. This 5-9, 150-pound All-American led Florida State to the District III title and a trip to the College World Series.

His 20 career doubles, 83 career RBIs, 151 career hits and 98 career runs either tied or surpassed the school records of the day. The nine triples he hit in 1969 remains a Florida State mark. Gold was a first team ABCA All-American and a District III team selection.

DICK NICHOLS 1970

Dick Nichols was the leading hitter on the 1970 national runner-up Seminole team that boasted four All-Americans. His batting average of .338 was just above fellow All-American Ron Cash's .335. the first Seminole to hit .400 in a season when he batted .408 as a junior while leading Florida State into the 1980 College World Series. Fuentes capped a brilliant career with a senior season that included 27 home runs, 81 RBIs and a .360 average. During that year, he broke the NCAA career home run mark, finishing his career with 64.

FRANK FAZZINI 1985

A powerful slugger, Frank Fazzini posted outstanding numbers during the 1985 season. His remarkable batting average of .413 was padded with other great statistics including 33 home runs and 118 RBIs. Fazzini's offensive skills made him a first team All-America choice by the Coaches Association and Baseball America, as well as a member of the All-Metro Conference and All-Metro Tournament teams.

LUIS ALICEA 1986

Florida State's second baseman in 1986, Luis Alicea literally raked in the awards. He was named to All-America teams by The Sporting News and Baseball America, was the MVP of the NCAA South II Regional Tournament and earned recognition on the College World Series All-Tournament team. He led the squad in RBIs with 80 and in home runs with 16. Grifol, a three-year starter at catcher, proved a great target for Seminole pitchers. His ability to frame a pitch and provide leadership behind the plate gave his Florida State teammates a player they could look up to.

1992

Chris Roberts, one of the highest draft picks to ever attend Florida State, was a three-year starter in the outfield and on the mound for the Seminoles from 1990-92.
