COACHES

Mike Martin

Head Coach
27th Season • Florida State '66

FOR MORE THAN A QUARTER CENTURY AS FLORIDA STATE'S HEAD COACH,

Mike Martin has defined Seminole baseball. Under his guidance, Florida State is one of, if not the premiere collegiate baseball program in the nation. His teams win every year, his players graduate and go on to pro ball and he runs his program with the class that is expected from a legend of the game.

baseball games played in program history, Martin has been involved in 2,251. Even more impressive is the fact that he has been involved in 1,675 of FSU's 2,286 all-time victories. That's over 73% of Florida State's victories that have come with Martin as a part of the program.

The legendary Seminole coach has seen 62 of his players garner All-American honors, five players named national player of the year, three win the Golden Spikes and 120 sign professional baseball contracts. Only one current Division I coach has won a higher percentage of games than Mike Martin and only five coaches in the history of DI baseball have more wins.

"There are not enough people like him in sports, let alone life and he deserves the very best. You want to run through a brick wall for him."

DOUG MIENTKIEWICZ
Kansas City Royals' First Baseman

Martin is a Florida State graduate and has been associated with the school's baseball program for 34 of its 59 seasons. He spent two seasons as a Seminole outfielder, five as an assistant coach and is now entering his 27th year running the program. Of the 3,144

Martin just completed his 26th season at the helm of the Seminole baseball program and 2005 ended just like his past 25 seasons before it, with the team once again competing in NCAA Tournament play. Only one team in America has been to more consecutive NCAA Tournaments than the Seminoles who have now made 28 straight postseason appearances. Since 1990, no team has finished in the top 10 more times than FSU's 13 top 10 finishes and no other program has come close to compiling as many 50-win seasons as Martin's 12 50-win campaigns in the last 15 years. No team in America has been to more NCAA Tournaments or more Super Regionals in that span either.

The FSU coach is second in the NCAA among active DI coaches for winning percentage, sixth all-time in Division I for wins and fifth in that category among active coaches. Martin is one of just nine coaches in the history of DI baseball to record 1,300 wins and with just nine more victories he will join a group of just eight coaches in collegiate baseball history with 1,400 wins.

Martin is a four-time ACC Coach of the Year and overall he has received 10 conference coach of the year honors. The Seminole skipper has coached 14 first round draft picks, 62 All-Americans and 109 All-Conference selections during his career. Three Seminoles have won the Golden Spikes Award under Martin. The Seminole head coach has also coached 31 freshman All-Americans during his tenure proving the legendary coach not only brings the nation's best talent to Tallahassee he continues to develop players once they arrive on campus.

Florida State is the second-winningest program in the history of the sport and what Martin has done in Tallahassee since 1990 may be one of the most impressive runs of consistent success in all of collegiate sports. Over the last 16 years, no team in America has gone to more NCAA Tournaments, finished in the top 10 more often or compiled more 50 win seasons than Florida State. Since 2000, FSU is the winningest program in college baseball with more victories and a higher winning percentage than any other school.

FSU's regular season success has translated into postseason success under Martin as well. Since 1990, the Seminoles are second in College World Series appearances with eight and Martin has led his teams to Omaha 12 times in his career including 11 trips in the last 20 seasons. FSU is one of only two schools to play in every Super Regional since the format was introduced in 1999 and their streak of 28 consecutive regionals is the second-longest run in DI baseball.

The 2005 season was a special one for Martin as he was not only inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame but he also had his alma mater name their baseball diamond in his honor. Mike Martin Field at Dick Howser Stadium was officially dedicated April 2 in typical Martin fashion as he picked up his 1,366th win with a 3-1 victory over Clemson. In 2005 Martin set yet another career milestone. With the Seminoles victory over VMI February 6, Martin recorded his 1,344th win passing Southern Cal legend Rod Dedeaux and moving into sixth place all-time for wins by a Division I coach.

Last season was special for many other reasons as well. One of the youngest teams in Martin's 26-year tenure at FSU exceeded the expectations of the nation's pundits by winning 53 games and once again advancing to NCAA Super Regionals. Florida State spent the entire season ranked among the top 25 teams in the nation as their record-breaking streak of 289 consecutive weeks ranked in the Collegiate Baseball Hall continued to grow.

Martin not only led his squad to team success in 2005, he once again proved he is one of the top shapers of talent in the game. Shane Robinson's selection as Collegiate Baseball's National Player of the Year marked the fifth time one of Martin's players was named collegiate baseball's top player. Robinson was also the fifth consensus first team All-American to play for Martin. In just the last two seasons alone, Martin has coached two sophomores (Eddy Martinez-Estevé and Robinson) who have garnered consensus first team All-American honors. With Robinson's inclusion on the Team USA roster this past summer, the Seminole coach has now tutored 12 players that have gone on to wear the Red, White & Blue.

In 2004 FSU captured its fourth ACC Championship under Martin in what is widely considered the best baseball conference in America. Martin also saw five more of his players drafted including the 14th first round pick of his career as FSU's head coach when Stephen Drew was taken 15th by the Arizona Diamondbacks. Consensus All-American Martinez-Estevé was a second round pick of the San Francisco Giants as well and he also garnered the 27th first team All-American honor under Martin's watch.

Martin's 2003 Seminoles added another 50-win season to the record books and advanced to NCAA Super Regional play before falling to defending national champion Texas. The team featured eight players that were selected in the MLB Draft, including All-American catcher Tony Richie who was a fourth round pick of the Chicago Cubs. The squad also extended FSU's streak of top 10 finishes to 10 seasons, the longest current run in the nation. The Seminoles finished as the ACC regular season champs for the third straight year.

Despite losing in the final game of the Super Regional to Notre Dame, Martin's 2002 squad will always be one of his all-time favorites. Led by All-American Ryan Barthelemy, that team put together a list of accomplishments that had never before been reached. The Seminoles swept three games at Miami and did the same later in the year at Clemson. Both sweeps were firsts for the FSU program. The three-game sweep of then-No. 1 Clemson at the end of the regular season gave the Seminoles the ACC regular season title and the top seed in the ACC Tournament. The 2002 club did not stop there, winning all five games in St. Petersburg to take home the ACC Tournament Championship. The school record winning streak would reach 25 games as the team swept through NCAA Regional play.

The 2001 squad finished the year one game short of a fourth straight College World Series appearance. Martin was named ACC Coach of the Year for the fourth time since FSU joined the league in 1992 after leading the team to the regular season title. Slugging outfielder John-Ford Griffin was a Golden Spikes Award finalist, a consensus All-American, the ACC Player of the Year, and Martin's 11th first round draft pick.

Martin seems to outdo his accomplishments every season. His 2000 club was the 19th to reach the 50-win plateau in his 22nd season. After defeating Miami in the NCAA Super Regional to earn a College World Series berth, the 2000 Seminoles rallied from an opening round loss to advance to the final four in Omaha before losing to eventual national champion LSU.

Martin was named ACC Coach of the Year in 1999 after his team won the ACC regular season with a 22-2 mark, the best regular season record in conference history. The Seminoles went on to finish second in the country with an impressive CWS showing. Marshall McDougall, who earlier in the season set the NCAA record with six home runs in single game, was named the CWS Most Outstanding Player.

The Seminole skipper earned his 1,000th victory in a 4-3 decision over Jacksonville on April 9th, 1998. He became the second-fastest head coach to reach the 1,000-win mark in NCAA Division I baseball history. Former FSU players, friends and Bullpen Club members honored Martin for his 1,000th win with a special ceremony and diamond-studded gold Rolex watch. Martin also garnered ACC Coach of the Year distinction from his peers for his efforts that season.

Martin guided his 1997 squad to the Seminoles' second Atlantic Coast Conference Championship. That team was led by a pitching staff that hurled four complete games in a five-game ACC Tournament sweep.

In 1996, FSU's 19-5 ACC record and first-ever first place conference finish in the regular season earned Martin his first ACC Coach of the Year honor. His squad made history as they put together a then-FSU record 22-game winning streak and traveled to the College World Series for the third consecutive season, the first three-year streak in school history.

Martin's brilliant career has meant more than just wins on the baseball diamond. The 2001 team got a first-hand reminder of that prior to a series at Stanford. Leaving the San Francisco airport, Martin and then-assistant coach Chip Baker gained control of the team's charter bus after the driver suffered a total heart attack and safely guided it to the side of a busy highway. Martin and Baker were presented with the university's prestigious Westcott Award for their bravery in saving the lives of players and staff. There's no question that the Seminoles' outstanding character in the most difficult of times stems directly from their head coach.

When Martin transferred to FSU from Wingate Junior College in 1965 to play center field for the Seminoles, it was the beginning of a love affair that has never ended. His love for the game of baseball is matched only by the success he has had teaching it to aspiring players. He teaches the game with a fire and drive that has given Florida State perhaps the nation's very best all-around college baseball program.

From the new facilities to the coaching staff to the unequaled community support, Mike Martin has improved an already strong Seminole baseball tradition with every season. Just when it seems that the program can reach no higher plane, something bigger and better comes along. When Martin took over in 1980, it was taboo to mention the word Omaha around the ball club. No one wanted to jinx an FSU team that had made it to the College World Series only three times in the previous 16 seasons. After taking the Seminoles to that hallowed ground in his very first season, Martin would eventually make Omaha not only a household word, but a second home to the Seminoles. Martin has led the Tribe to the CWS 12 times in his career.

Martin won 50 or more games his first 12 seasons at the helm, interrupted by 49 and 46-win seasons in 1992 and 1993. He has added 10 more 50-win seasons since to bring the total to 22, including a 60-win season in 2002 that tied the ACC single season victory record. The numbers Martin and his FSU teams have posted are monumental.

Martin's succeeding of Dick Howser as FSU head coach seemed a perfectly logical step in 1979. As a player in 1965-66, Martin hit .354 in two seasons as the starting center fielder for the Seminoles. He was a part of the 1965 College World Series team and earned all-district honors in his senior season. Martin then went on to play professionally in the New York Mets and Detroit Tigers organizations for three years prior to embarking on his career as a coach.

Martin began his career as a baseball and basketball coach at the junior high level. He served as head basketball coach at Tallahassee Community College before spending four seasons as basketball coach at Tallahassee's Godby High.

When Woody Woodward became FSU head baseball coach in 1975, he quickly called on Martin to assist him. He served as the No. 1 assistant under Woodward for four years and one under Dick Howser. When New York Yankees boss George Steinbrenner called Howser in November 1979, Martin was the obvious replacement. Since that day in 1979, there has been no doubt that Mike Martin and Seminole baseball has been a perfect match.

For Martin, it is a dream come true. He would be the first to tell you his current position is his ultimate thrill. Martin has won more games than all of Florida State's former head baseball coaches combined. Seminole baseball teams have participated in the NCAA Tournament every year under Martin — 26 consecutive seasons. That run, on the heels of appearances in 1978 and 1979, gives FSU 28 consecutive tournament trips — the second longest streak in the country. Martin has been involved in 14 of the 18 College World Series trips that Florida State has made all-time, as a player, assistant coach and head coach.

Martin says his years around FSU coaches like Fred Hatfield, whom he played for in 1965-66, Woodward and Howser (both of whom he coached under) instilled in him the desire to produce winners on and off the playing field. Stepping out of their shadows, Martin has built his own legacy in Tallahassee.

During his tenure, 62 different players have earned All-America honors, 109 have been named to all-conference teams and an incredible 120 players have signed professional contracts. Last season Martin coached his fifth consensus first team All-American in Shane Robinson who was also the fifth national player of the year coached by the FSU legend. Robinson is the most recent in a long line of award winners developed by Martin. In 1999, second baseman Marshall McDougall was a consensus All-American, a finalist for the Golden Spikes and Dick Howser Awards, and the ACC Player of the Year after winning the conference's triple crown. Center fielder J.D. Drew took home consensus All-American honors in 1997, as well as player of the year awards from Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. Drew also became the first Seminole to win the Dick Howser Award, named after FSU's former All-American and head coach. Three of Martin's Seminoles (Mike Fuentes, Mike Loynd and Drew) have won the Golden Spikes Award, honoring the nation's best amateur baseball player. No school has produced more Golden Spikes Award winners than Florida State.

Martin does not just produce winning teams, All-Americans and major league prospects, he believes in developing a true student-athlete. Last season senior catcher Aaron Cheesman was awarded the Weaver-James-Corrigan postgraduate scholarship. Cheesman was a first team academic all-district selection for the second consecutive season and in 2005 the Seminole baseball team finished third among all 12 ACC schools in team GPA.

A popular speaker, Martin has delivered keynote addresses at several state and national meetings, including gatherings of the Florida High School Coaches Association, Atlanta Braves instructional clinics and Seminole booster clubs throughout the Southeast. He is also in demand as a speaker at churches and is active in national and local Fellowship of Christian Athletes activities.

Martin's success on and off the field led to the coach being honored by his two former schools in 2004. The legendary FSU baseball coach was named a Distinguished Alumnus at Wingate University where he went to school for two years before coming to Florida State and earning his degree in 1966. Florida State also bestowed an honor on the coach when he was named a recipient of the Bernard F. Sliger Award for Service. The Sliger Award, named for the eleventh president of the University, is the single highest honor accorded by the Alumni Association. It recognizes a member of the University community who has, through their efforts, made a major contribution toward the fulfillment of the mission of the University.

A 1966 graduate of Florida State, Martin earned his master's degree in 1971. He and wife Carol have three children, Mary Beth (36), Melanie (30) and Mike, Jr. (32), a former starting catcher and current assistant coach at Florida State. Mary Beth and husband Tom Buchanan are the parents of Martin's first grandchild — Hannah Elizabeth (7). Mike, Jr. and his wife Litzie are the parents of Martin's second and third grandchildren — Tyler (4) and TJ (2).

Jamey Shouppe

Associate Head Coach

JAMEY SHOUPPE BEGINS HIS 16TH SEASON as a member of the Florida State coaching staff and his fourth year as associate head coach. He continues to serve as one of the nation's premier recruiting coordinators and pitching coaches. His success has been proven year after year with top-ranked recruiting classes and staff ERA's consistently among the nation's best.

Shouppe has been the catalyst in attracting top caliber talent to Florida State since taking over as the recruiting coordinator in 1990. The former FSU player has had a top 25 ranked class every year he has been at FSU and 11 of his 15 classes have been ranked in the top 10 with half being in the top five. Baseball America ranked his 1992 class No. 1 in the country. More recently, the 2002 group headlined by Eddy Martinez-Estevé and Mark Sauls garnered a No. 4 national ranking and this year two AFLAC All-Americans are members of the Seminoles' top 25 recruiting class. Shouppe has shown no signs of slowing down either as two of Baseball America's top 10 players for 2006 have already signed with the Seminoles.

Shouppe's eye for talent is evidenced by the awards won by his recruits. Since taking over the role as FSU's recruiting coordinator, Seminole players have been named first team All-Americans on 18 occasions and garnered All-America honors 121 times.

In 1993, the former Seminole hurler added the role of pitching coach to his duties with equal success. Under Shouppe's tutelage, the Florida State pitching staff has been among the nation's best. FSU's ERA has been ranked among the top four in the country in three of the last six years in the final NCAA statistics. The Seminoles have also won the ACC's team ERA title 10 times in the last 13 seasons, which is tied for first all-time despite the fact FSU has been in the conference for just 14 seasons.

The longtime coach has also shown he can develop Major League caliber pitchers. Nine of Shouppe's pitchers have been selected in the MLB Draft in the last three seasons and 48 Seminole pitchers have been selected in the MLB draft since Shouppe became the team's pitching coach.

A former Seminole pitcher, Shouppe played for Mike Martin in 1981-82. The southpaw compiled a 10-4 record in two seasons with the Seminoles. During his career, Shouppe took the mound in 60 games and posted a 3.78 ERA. He fanned a total of 122 batters in 126 innings of work and was named to the Metro Conference All-Tournament team his senior year.

A native of Chattahoochee, Fla., Shouppe came to FSU via George Wallace Junior College in Dothan, Ala. At Wallace, he earned all-conference, all-state, and all-region honors in each of his two seasons while playing in the outfield and pitching.

The Houston Astros drafted Shouppe in the eighth round following his senior season at FSU. The left-hander played three years in the Astros organization at the A and AA levels and was invited to Major League camp in 1984, before retiring from the baseball in 1985. Shouppe received his bachelor's degree in physical education from FSU and a master's degree from Nova University in Fort Lauderdale. He held various coaching and teaching positions in Florida before returning to FSU in 1990.

Shouppe taught classes in the physical education department before giving up that responsibility prior to the 2000 season. He has worked as director of the Mike Martin Baseball School, 6-10 age division, for the past 20 years.

Shouppe and his wife, former FSU cheerleader Karen Hall, have three children — 18-year-old son Jake, 14-year-old daughter Kasey and 12-year-old son Jared.

Mike Martin, Jr. #28

Assistant Coach

9th Season • Florida State '95

MIKE MARTIN, JR., GREW UP LIVING AND learning about Seminole baseball from his legendary father. He enters his ninth season as a member of the Seminole coaching staff and is continuing to carve out his own identity as one of the college game's top young coaches. Martin serves as the squad's third base coach and will continue to work with Florida State's hitters. A former Seminole All-American behind the plate, Martin began working exclusively with the catchers in 2003.

Since joining the Florida State coaching staff, Martin and the Seminole baseball team have had as impressive of a run as any squad since the mid 80's. It has been more than a decade since any FSU baseball teams have won as many games and had a higher winning percentage than the squads have since he returned to Tallahassee and joined the staff following his professional baseball career. No other school in America has won as many games in that time as well.

Martin has coached four Major Leaguers, seven first team All-Americans, eight consensus All-Americans, 33 All-ACC selections and seen 24 players drafted in his tenure at Florida State.

Martin's biggest influence has come through his work with the FSU offense. He has served as FSU's hitting coach over the last seven years and since then only one team has hit lower than .306 during that span. Of the top 15 hitting teams of all-time at FSU, seven have come since Martin became the squad's hitting coach. The 1999 Seminoles hit .327 as a team, which ranks third all-time in school history and in Martin's seven years his teams have a combined batting average of .311 and a slugging percentage of .491. They average 1.14 home runs a game, which is the second-highest total over any seven-year span in school history.

Having learned from two great hitting minds — Mike Martin and Duane Espy — Martin, Jr.'s philosophy is a combination of their theories and has produced impressive results. FSU's hitters are taught an offensive approach that utilizes the entire field. Martin has also implemented the use of wood bats in practice since taking over as hitting coach. He has helped develop 12 All-Americans, 27 All-ACC selections and 20 players that signed professional contracts as Florida State's hitting coach.

Martin took over the additional duty of handling the Seminole catchers in 2003. He learned the art of catching from former FSU assistant Chip Baker and Roger Hanson of the Seattle Mariners, a highly regarded former Major League catching instructor. His experience paid off immediately and could be seen in the play of former catcher Aaron Cheesman who was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 2005 draft.

The Seminole backstop raised his RBI total in each of his four seasons at FSU while almost doubling his walks and cutting his strikeouts from his junior to senior season. The Sarasota, FL native also posted the best fielding percentage of his four year career as a senior and the catcher never posted a fielding percentage below .980 in his four years. Martin's influence on Cheesman was highlighted in his first year as a starting catcher in 2004. The team captain set career highs in every offensive category. From 2003 to 2004, Cheesman raised his average 63 points (.284 to .347), started more than twice as many games (29 to 68), doubled his runs scored (25 to 50), almost tripled his hit production (31 to 83) and double production (7 to 18), hit the first three triples of his career and tripled his career home run total (1 to 3). Cheesman almost doubled his RBI total as well as he drove in 42 runs in 2004 compared to 22 in 2003 and his total bases increased from 41 to 116. Under Martin's guidance the catcher's slugging percentage went up over 100 points as well from .376 to .485 and he had a team best 15 game hitting streak.

In 2005, Martin helped Shane Robinson put together one of the most remarkable seasons in NCAA Baseball history. The Tampa native won Collegiate Baseball's National Player of the Year award and was a consensus first team All-American after a school-record 40 game hit streak. Robinson hit .427 on the year and became the only FSU player to ever record more than 100 hits and 40 stolen bases. In just one off season, Martin helped Robinson raise his average 1.47 points and bolster his slugging percentage from .371 to .605.

As a player, Martin was the Seminoles' starting catcher from 1993-95 and earned NCAA All-Tournament Team honors in each of his three years at Florida State. He was the Most Valuable Player of the NCAA Atlantic II Regional in 1994 as he led the Seminoles to the College World Series and garnered second team NCBWA All-American honors. He was selected to the 1995 NCAA Atlantic I Regional All-Tournament team as the Seminoles returned to Omaha for the second straight year. Martin was a member of Team USA in 1993.

Martin was selected by the San Diego Padres in the ninth round of the 1995 draft following his senior season. After playing for the San Diego Padres organization for two years, he was signed by the Seattle Mariners as a free agent in 1996 before retiring from professional baseball in 1997.

In 1992, Martin was an all-conference selection at Monatee Community College in his only year of junior college. The Tallahassee native attended Maclay High School where his jersey #10 is retired. He captained the 1991 team that won the state championship his senior season. He was drafted as a shortstop out of high school by the Seattle Mariners in the 31st round.

Along with his coaching duties, the 1995 Florida State graduate speaks to booster clubs as well as high school and college coaching clinics on a regular basis. On November 27, 1999, Martin married the former Litzie Andrade. They have two sons — Tyler (4) and T.J. (2).

Chip Baker

Director of Baseball Administration & Facilities

22nd Season • High Point '80

THE SENIOR MEMBER OF MIKE MARTIN'S STAFF and a Seminole "fan favorite", Chip Baker enters his 22nd season at Florida State. After 18 years as an assistant coach, Baker has served as the director of baseball administration and facilities for the last three years. As he has done for two decades, he will fill many roles for the program.

Baker oversees all aspects of Seminole baseball in his administrative role, including the budget, team travel, game operations, equipment, field and facility maintenance, and scheduling. Baker will assist the efforts of the marketing and ticket offices in development of new group and season ticket sales plans. He served as the liaison through facilities during stadium construction and will do so with any new baseball projects. In addition, he will communicate with the Bullpen Club and Seminole Boosters on a regular basis.

During his tenure at Florida State, Baker has participated in 21 NCAA postseason tournaments and 11 College World Series. He coached two teams that played in the National Championship game (1986 & 1999). As an assistant, Baker coached third base and worked with FSU's catchers. He was also responsible for scouting opposing teams and directing the Seminoles defensively.

A former assistant at Virginia Tech and Georgia Tech, Baker is known as one of college baseball's premier catching instructors. During his tenure, Baker has coached six All-Americans, including Ed Fulton, Barry Blackwell, major-leaguer Marc Ronan and first-team All-American Pedro Grifol. Most recently, Tony Richie was a two-time All-American and 1998 All-American Jeremy Salazar was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies.

Each summer, Baker is the director of the Mike Martin and Seminole Advanced Baseball Schools. These camps have not only proved to be popular, but beneficial. Over 100 former campers have gone on to wear the garnet and gold and several have advanced to the major leagues. Past camps have produced 26 first round draft picks including John-Ford Griffin, Nick Stocks, Jonathan Johnson, J.D. Drew, Chipper Jones and Alex Rodriguez. The nationally known Super Skills Academy has quickly become one of the nation's top summer camps.

Baker is a popular speaker and addresses Seminole Booster clubs and civic organizations around the state. He has been on the staff of national and regional baseball clinics. Baker works closely with Tallahassee area youth organizations and has put together clinics for the Tallahassee Babe Ruth League and other youth leagues.

The 48-year-old native of North Carolina has written articles for Scholastic Coach and Collegiate Baseball magazines on the subjects of catching, third base coaching and bunting; and has published a Collegiate Level Strength & Speed book. Three years ago, Baker put together a record selling catching video with Championship Videos entitled, "Expanding the Strike Zone."

A 1980 graduate of High Point in North Carolina, Baker was a part of four Carolina Conference championship teams. He was a member of the High Point team that finished second at the 1979 NAIA World Series.

After completing his bachelor's degree in physical education, Baker earned his master's degree in motor behavior at Virginia Tech, where he began his collegiate coaching career.

Baker is married to the former Julie Larsen, a record-holding pitcher on FSU's 1985-88 softball teams who was inducted into the Florida State Hall of Fame in 1995. The two were married in 1991 in a most memorable ceremony — between games of a doubleheader at Dick Howser Stadium. The Bakers are the proud parents of a 10-year-old daughter, Katie Nicole, who is a regular at FSU home games and has traveled to the College World Series four times. Baker's older brother, Jim, is the head basketball coach at Catawba College.

Upon FSU's return from a trip to Stanford in 2001, Baker and head coach Mike Martin were presented with the university's prestigious Westcott Award for their bravery in saving the lives of players and staff. Leaving the San Francisco airport, the two coaches gained control of the team's charter bus after the driver suffered a fatal heart attack and safely guided it to the side of a busy highway.

Pete Jenkins
Volunteer Assistant Coach
1st Season

PETE JENKINS IS IN HIS FIRST YEAR as a volunteer assistant coach with the Florida State baseball program. The former Nebraska standout comes to Florida State after spending last year as an assistant at UNC Asheville.

Prior to joining the UNCA staff, Jenkins spent two years as a hitting and catching instructor at California State University, San Bernardino. He was involved in all aspects of the program for head coach Don Parnell's program.

Prior to coaching, Jenkins played professional baseball for four years. He played two seasons in the Milwaukee Brewers organization before playing two years of Independent Baseball in the Western League. His last team was the Chico Heat where he played for former Houston Astros pitcher Charlie Kerfeld.

Jenkins played for one season at the University of Nebraska where he was the Cornhuskers starting catcher during the 1996 season and hit .320. Jenkins came to Nebraska after a standout two-year career at junior college powerhouse Riverside Community College in Riverside, Calif. He played for legendary coach Dennis Rogers.

Russell Orr
Strength & Conditioning Coach
3rd Season

RUSSELL ORR JOINED THE FLORIDA STATE STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING STAFF after spending the previous 11 years with the New York Yankees and he begins his third season with Florida State Baseball. Orr spent seven seasons as a Player Development athletic trainer. In the fall of 1999, he was promoted to the Coordinator of Strength and Conditioning. He was responsible for all aspects of strength and conditioning for Player Development and assisted with major league rehabs. Orr will coordinate the training efforts for the Seminole baseball team from the recently renovated Dick Howser weight room and oversee the cross country team's training regimen.

A graduate of the University of South Carolina, Orr has a BS in Physical Education — Athletic Training and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the NSCA since 1996. He is also a licensed Athletic Trainer through the NATA since 1995. A licensed Massage Therapist since 1997 and certified Level 1 Club Coach through USA Weightlifting (USAW) since 2004.

Orr is married to the former Kelly May since November 18, 1995. The couple has two children: Riley (6) and Bryant (4).

Dane Smith
Equipment & Clubhouse Manager
2nd Season

DANE SMITH ENTERS HIS SECOND SEASON as the equipment and clubhouse manager for Florida State Baseball. He served as a student manager since the fall of 2001 before taking over the head position in July of 2004. A Florida State graduate, Smith earned his bachelor's degree in August of 2004 in finance with a minor in economics. Smith is a certified equipment manager through the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) since 2005.

Smith's responsibilities include, but are not limited to, ordering and maintaining all uniforms and equipment for the team. He coordinates and facilitates practice, game-day operations, and travel, including the transfer of luggage and equipment for the squad. Smith and his staff also maintain the clubhouse at Dick Howser Stadium, assist in field maintenance, as well as, assist visiting teams with laundry services and team meals.

Smith is a 2001 graduate of Orange Park High School where he served as a student manager for football, baseball and basketball.

Jake Pfeil
Head Baseball Trainer
1st Season

JAKE PFEIL IS IN HIS SECOND YEAR as a member of the Florida State University staff and his first season with baseball. He served as a student athletic trainer at FSU for football and baseball, graduating in 2000 with a degree in Sports Management.

As an undergraduate student, he served two summer internships with the Atlanta Falcons. Jake then received his master's degree in sports administration from Mississippi State University in 2002, where he was a graduate assistant athletic trainer for football. He then returned to the Atlanta Falcons and worked as a seasonal assistant athletic trainer for the 2002 season.

Immediately prior to joining the FSU staff, Jake was employed by Tallahassee Orthopedic and Sports Physical Therapy and was the head athletic trainer at Tallahassee Community College. In 2004 Pfeil served as the Insurance/Risk Coordinator at FSU, where he was the liaison between the various medical providers used by FSU, insurance companies, and the sports medicine department. Pfeil is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, and is a licensed athletic trainer by the State of Florida.

The Madison, FL native married the former Cheryl Tingle in July of 2004. His interests include fishing, hunting, cooking, following NASCAR, college football and baseball.
