Award Winners

GOLDEN SPIKES

Presented annually to the top amateur baseball player in the country as selected by a special committee for the United States Baseball Federation.

FOR THE PAST 25 YEARS, USA BASEBALL HAS HONORED the top amateur baseball player in the country with the Golden Spikes Award. (See winners box.) The award is presented each year to the player who exhibits exceptional athletic ability and exemplary sportsmanship. Past winners of this prestigious award include current Major League Baseball stars J. D. Drew, Pat Burrell, Mark Kotsay, Jason Jennings and Mark Prior, as well as 2002 winner Khalil Greene of the San Diego Padres.

The Golden Spikes Award is sponsored by the Major League Baseball Players Association (MLBPA), underscoring the commitment of Major League Baseball players to the grassroots development of baseball programs, particularly for youth, around the world. The MLBPA supports USA Baseball's ongoing efforts to provide instruction for youth baseball players, coaches, and volunteers, and to prepare amateur athletes for professional competition.

USA Baseball is the National Governing Body of amateur baseball in the United States and a member of the United States Olympic Committee. The organization selects and trains the USA Baseball Olympic Team, the USA Baseball National Team, the USA Baseball Junior National team (18-under), and the USA Baseball Youth National Team (16-under) which participate in various international competitions each year.

ALL-AMERICANS

First Team

DICK HOWSER
1957-58

The first All-American in Florida State history, Dick Howser led FSU into the District III Playoffs each season from 1956-58, and to the District Championship in 1957. This brilliant shortstop was named All-Region in 1957 and '58 and earned All-America recognition from the ABCA both of those years. In 1956, Howser's

.422 batting average set a Florida State season mark. He played professional baseball for Kansas City, Cleveland and the New York Yankees and returned to coach his alma mater to a 43-17-1 record in 1979.

BUDDY TEAGLE
1962

Buddy Teagle, the catcher for the 1962 Seminole, was honored with ABCA All-America status after a fine offensive and defensive year. He proved to be a threat both at and behind the plate. At the plate, Teagle boasted a .325 batting average. Behind the plate, his rifle arm was a threat to all potential base stealers.

MIKE AUGUSTINE

Mike Augustine is literally a Seminole success story. In the 1962 season, he never saw regular playing time until tournament time. The next season, the centerfielder broke a school record for most hits in a season with 58. This 5-9, 150-pound All-American led Florida State to the District III title and a trip to the College World Series.

KEN SUAREZ
1964

For the second time in three seasons, the Seminole boasted an All-America catcher. In 1962, Buddy Teagle was named All-America and in 1964, Ken Suarez was named to the first team Coaches All-America team. Suarez was the leader of the 1964 Seminole. He led the team in five offensive departments, including batting average as he hit .404.

JIM LYTTLE
1966

In 1966, Jim Lyttle was named a first team All-American by The Sporting News and the American Baseball Coaches Association. He was also an All-District III NCAA selection. That year, Lyttle rewrote Florida State slugging records. His 13 home runs, 51 RBIs and 131 total bases set school records that lasted for years. He was also a fine defensive outfielder with an arm like a rifle. He played professional baseball with the Yankees, White Sox and Expos.

DICK GOLD
1969

Dick Gold, the team co-captain for the 1969 Seminole, set many Florida State batting records. His 20 career doubles, 83 career RBIs, 151 career hits and 98 career runs either tied or surpassed the school records of the day. The nine triples he hit in 1969 remains a Florida State mark. Gold was a first team ABCA All-American and a District III team selection.

DICK NICHOLS
1970

Dick Nichols was the leading hitter on the 1970 national runner-up Seminole team that boasted four All-Americans. His batting average of .338 was just above fellow All-American Ron Cash's .335. Nichols, the second baseman for the Tribe, was selected to the All-District III team and earned All-America recognition from The Sporting News.

GUILLERMO (JUAN) BONILLA
1976

The third baseman for the 1976 Tribe team that went 40-16 under Head Coach Woody Woodward, Guillermo (Juan) Bonilla garnered first team All-America honors from the Coaches Association for his offensive and defensive prowess. Bonilla, a native of Rip Piedras, Puerto Rico, hit nearly .350 for the 1976 Seminole and ranked second only to fellow All-American Terry Kennedy in RBI and runs scored.

TERRY KENNEDY
1976-77

The Sporting News Player of the Year

Swinging his big bat or crouched behind the plate, Terry Kennedy gave Florida State his best. From 1975-77, he drove in 122 runs and clouted 32 homers. His 64 RBIs, 21 home runs and .810 slugging average were school records in 1976. He earned 1976 All-Region and 1977 all-Metro honors. In both 1976 and '77, he was named a first team All-American by The Sporting News and added Most Valuable Player recognition from the magazine in 1977.

JIM WEAVER 1980

Jim Weaver, the Seminole leftfielder in 1980, was second only to fellow out-fielder Mike Fuentes in batting. Weaver's numbers, .372 batting average and 18 home runs, fit perfectly into a powerful hitting team which boasted five players who hit above .350. Weaver also had a team-high 28 stolen bases. He was a member of the All-Metro Conference first team, as well as an All-American by The Sporting News.

MIKE FUENTES 1980-81 Golden Spikes Award

Mike Fuentes went from being cut from the Seminole team to winning the Golden Spikes Award in 1981, symbolizing college baseball's best player. He was FSU's third two-time All-American (ABCA) and also earned first-team recognition from Baseball America. He became the first Seminole to hit .400 in a season when he batted .408 as a junior while leading Florida State into the 1980 College World Series. Fuentes capped a brilliant career with a senior season that included 27 home runs, 81 RBIs and a .360 average. During that year, he broke the NCAA career home run mark, finishing his career with 64.

JEFF LEDBETTER 1981-82

The Sporting News Player of the Year
Baseball America Player/
Pitcher of the Year

Jeff Ledbetter was nicknamed "Tree Tops" for his monumental blasts into the pine trees behind the right-field wall at Seminole Field.

Ledbetter set NCAA and FSU records in almost every offensive category, including home runs in a season (42), career home runs (97), home runs in a game (4), career RBIs (346), total bases in a season (273) and career total bases (346). Ledbetter ended an outstanding 1982 season by being named All-Metro, All-Metro Tournament, Metro Player of the Year, consensus All-American and The Sporting News and Baseball America Player of the Year.

FRANK FAZZINI 1985

A powerful slugger, Frank Fazzini posted outstanding numbers during the 1985 season. His remarkable batting average of .413 was padded with other great statistics including 33 home runs and 118 RBIs. Fazzini's offensive skills made him a first team All-America choice by the Coaches Association and Baseball America, as well as a member of the All-Metro Conference and All-Metro Tournament teams.

LUIS ALICIA 1986

Florida State's second baseman in 1986, Luis Alicia literally raked in the awards. He was named to All-America teams by The Sporting News and Baseball America, was the MVP of the NCAA South II Regional Tournament and earned recognition on the College World Series All-Tournament team.

With a batting average of .392 and a fielding percentage of .945, Alicia was dangerous both offensively and defensively. These skills made him an integral member of the Seminoles' College World Series runner-up team.

MIKE LOYND 1986

Golden Spikes Award
Baseball America Player/Pitcher of the Year

Pitcher Mike Loynd, who led the Seminoles to a 61-13 record and a second-place finish in the College World Series, was named the 10th recipient of the Golden Spikes Award in 1986. Loynd won the award after compiling a 20-3 record in a stellar senior season. Loynd was a master at fooling opposing batters, striking out 223 of them. Because of his tremendous numbers, Loynd was a first team ABCA and Baseball America All-American, as well as the Metro Tournament MVP.

Seminoles

Luis Alicea

RICHIE LEWIS 1986-1987

Richie Lewis, a pitcher from Muncie, Ind. was a fiery strikeout artist who mystified opposing batters. From 1985-87, Lewis struck out 520 batters in 392.2 innings of play. This not only remains a Seminole all-time record, but ranks second in the NCAA record book. In 1987, he was chosen to the ABCA, The Sporting

News and Baseball America All-America teams.

PEDRO GRIFOL 1991

Pedro Grifol, an All-America catcher, epitomized the spirit of the 1991 College World Series squad. Always competitive, Grifol posted a .344 batting average and a near-perfect .998 fielding average. He led the squad in RBIs with 80 and in home runs with 16. Grifol, a three-year starter at catcher, proved a great target for Seminole pitchers. His ability to frame a pitch and provide leadership behind the plate gave his Florida State teammates a player they could look up to.

CHRIS ROBERTS 1992

Chris Roberts, one of the highest draft picks to ever attend Florida State, was a three-year starter in the outfield and on the mound for the Seminoles from 1990-92. Roberts was a 1992 Collegiate Baseball All-American, as well as an All-ACC selection. The Middleburg, Fla. product racked up numerous awards at Florida State, including the 1991 Metro Conference Player-of-the-Year. Roberts hit .301, smashing 32 homeruns and driving in 175 runs. As a pitcher, Roberts posted a 23-8 record with 202 strikeouts. While at Florida State, Roberts started in leftfield for the USA National Team in the summer of 1991 and again at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona. Roberts was selected in the first round of the 1992 June draft, and later signed with the New York Mets.

PAUL WILSON 1994

All-American Paul Wilson made Florida State history by becoming the highest Seminole ever chosen in any professional sport draft, when the right-handed pitcher was named the first overall pick in the 1994 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft. Wilson was selected to the Baseball America and National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association All-American teams, in addition to being tagged All-Atlantic Coast Conference. The Orlando native capped his FSU career by being named one of nine finalists for the Golden Spikes award, presented annually to the top amateur baseball player in the country. Wilson compiled a 27-11 record at FSU with a 2.77 ERA. Along the way he struck out 299 in 304.2 innings of work. Wilson established himself as the ace of the 1993 Team USA pitching staff, starting in nine games.

JONATHAN JOHNSON 1995

Jonathan Johnson led Florida State to its first ever Atlantic Coast Conference championship, as he was named Most Valuable Player of the 1995 tournament for his outstanding performance. Johnson, a 1995 Baseball America All-American, also garnered All-ACC honors. He struck out 391 batters in his career, which ranks fourth on the all-time ACC career list. Johnson compiled a 34-5 record and 2.62 ERA in three years as a starter for the Seminoles. The native of Ocala, Fla., was also chosen as a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, presented each year to the nation's top amateur baseball player. Johnson was the seventh pick of the 1995 June draft by the Texas Rangers.

J.D. Drew

J.D. DREW 1996-1997

Golden Spikes Award
Collegiate Baseball Player of the Year
The Sporting News Player of the Year
Baseball America Player of the Year

J.D. Drew rewrote history as he established himself as one of the best hitters in college baseball. Drew was a consensus 1st Team All-American after becoming the only player in Division I baseball history to hit 30 home runs and steal 30 bases. He was named Player of the Year by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, The Sporting News, and the Atlantic Coast Conference and received the Dick Howser Award given by the American Baseball Coaches Association. Drew was also crowned the Golden Spikes Award winner, given by USA Baseball to the best amateur baseball player. He batted a FSU record .455 in 1997, while becoming one of just three players in Division I college baseball history to record a triple-triple — 100 hits, 100 runs, 100 RBI. Drew broke a total of 17 Florida State and ACC records including FSU season batting average, FSU & ACC career slugging percentage and ACC season and career home runs. Drew highlighted his junior campaign with an FSU record 34-game hitting streak during which he batted .524 with 20 home runs and 62 RBI. Drew was the second pick of the 1997 draft by the Philadelphia Phillies.

JEREMY MORRIS 1997

Jeremy Morris turned in a record-breaking year after returning for his senior season despite being drafted in the ninth round after his junior year. Morris became the Atlantic Coast Conference all-time RBI leader as he finished his senior campaign with 273 in his career. He also set a new Florida State career doubles record with 78. Morris was selected a 1st Team All-American by Baseball America and

The Sporting News and earned 2nd Team honors from Collegiate Baseball, the ABCA and the NCBWA. He also earned All-ACC for the second consecutive season and was named the ACC Tournament Most Valuable Player for his performance in the Seminoles' 1997 conference championship. Morris led the Florida State and ACC in RBIs with 116. He batted .356 with 25 home runs, 22 doubles and 25 stolen bases. Morris was named to both the ACC and NCAA East Regional All-Tournament Teams and was selected ACC Player of the Week three times in 1997.

BRIAN COX 1998

Brian Cox will be remembered as one of the most consistent hitters in Florida State history after ending his senior season on a 25-game hitting streak. The senior centerfielder earned 1st team All-America distinction from the American Baseball Coaches Association and 1st Team All-ACC honors after leading the Seminoles with a .393 batting average, which ranks fourth on the FSU single-season charts, 18 home runs and 87 RBI. Cox batted .682 with four home runs and 15 RBI in the NCAA Atlantic II Regional and garnered NCAA Regional All-Tournament Team honors as he led the Seminoles back to the College World Series. He also set a new Florida State record with 10 consecutive hits in the Liberty, Delaware, and Oklahoma games in regional play. Cox finished the year with 27 doubles for third place on the FSU single-season chart. He was also named to the 2nd Team NCBWA Super Team, ACC All-Tournament Team and 1st Team ABCA All-Atlantic Region Team. Cox earned Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Week honors three times during the season.

MATT DIAZ 1998, 1999

The Sporting News Freshman of the Year

Matt Diaz followed up one of the most impressive freshman seasons in FSU history with another outstanding campaign as a sophomore in 1999. Diaz was named The Sporting News Freshman of the Year after hitting .390 with 22 home runs and 84 RBI. The Freshman All-American was named the 1998 NCAA Atlantic II Regional MVP and hit four home runs in one of those games against Oklahoma. As a sophomore in 1998, Diaz earned first team All-America recognition from the ABCA and NCBWA after hitting .379 with 21 home runs and 94 RBI. With a career batting average of .384, Diaz is second only to J.D. Drew on the FSU all-time charts. His career slugging percentage of .700 is fourth in school history and his 43 career home runs are eighth.

CHRIS CHAVEZ 1999

In four seasons as a Seminole, Chris Chavez will be remembered for his ability to step on the mound in any situation and come through with a win. His performance as both a starter and a reliever at the 1999 College World Series will go down as one of the best efforts in FSU history. Chavez, named to the CWS All-Tournament team, got two of the Seminoles' four wins in Omaha and also recorded a save. He was a first team All-ACC selection and was named a NCBWA first team All-American following a senior year in which he went 8-5 with a 2.17 ERA and totaled five saves. Chavez was also named to the NCAA Tallahassee All-Tournament team. He left FSU third all-time in appearances (109), third in relief appearances (85), sixth in strikeouts (312) and sixth in saves (13).

MARSHALL McDOUGALL 1999

In his first year as a Seminole, Marshall McDougall became a household name in the baseball circles around the country. McDougall's six home runs, 16 RBI, 25 total base performance at Maryland on May 9, 1999 shattered NCAA single game records in all three categories. It wasn't just a one game season for McDougall as he went on to win the ACC triple crown and ACC Player of the Year honors with a .419 batting average, 106 RBI and 28 home runs. He started all 71 games and led the nation in RBI and hits (126). The Most Outstanding Player at the College World Series, McDougall was a consensus first team All-American and a Golden Spikes and NCBWA/Dick Howser Player of the Year finalist. In the FSU all-time record book, McDougall's 1999 season ranked among the top five in eight individual categories — hits, runs, runs batted in, home runs, doubles, total bases, batting average and slugging percentage.

NICK STOCKS 1999

The ace of Florida State's national championship runner-up team as a sophomore in 1999, Nick Stocks went 13-2 with a 3.25 ERA and 139 strike-outs. Stocks was recognized as a first team All-American by Collegiate Baseball and the NCBWA. He was a member of one of the top Seminole pitching staffs in school history that ended the year third in the country with a team ERA of 3.18. His single season total of 139 strikeouts is eighth all-time at FSU while his 20 starts rank sixth. Stocks played on Team USA following a freshman year in which he led the ACC with a 2.35 ERA. A two-time All-ACC first team selection, Stocks was a supplemental first round draft pick of the St. Louis Cardinals in 1999.

JOHN-FORD GRIFFIN 2001

One of the top hitters in school history, John-Ford Griffin was named a consensus All-American outfielder as a junior. Griffin led the 2001 Seminoles with a .450 batting average, 19 home runs, 30 doubles and 75 RBI. He was named the ACC Player of the Year and was one of five finalist for the Golden Spikes Award.

Griffin's .427 career batting average not only broke J.D. Drew's former school mark of .391, but was also the best in ACC history and the 16th-best in NCAA history. He was named to the ACC All-Tournament team and was voted the most outstanding player at the NCAA Regional in Tallahassee. Griffin signed with the New York Yankees after being drafted with the 23rd pick in the first round of the 2001 MLB Draft.

RYAN BARTHELEMY 2002

The leader of Florida State's 2002 squad, third baseman Ryan Barthelemy put together an outstanding senior season and was named a first team All-American by Collegiate Baseball and the ABCA. He was a first team All-ACC selection and was named to the ACC All-Tournament team as FSU won both the ACC regular season and tournament titles. The Miami native batted .357 and led the team with 17 home runs and 94 RBI. Barthelemy and the 2002 team compiled a 60-14 record and put together a school record 25-game winning streak. The Seminoles also swept Miami and Clemson on the road for the first time in the history of the program. His 33-game hitting streak came up one short of J.D. Drew's record. Barthelemy ended his Florida

State career among the schools all-time top five in home runs and RBI. He was selected in the 10th round of the 2002 MLB Draft by the Philadelphia Phillies.

TONY RICHIE 2002

Catcher Tony Richie was named a first team All-American by Baseball America in 2002. A freshman All-American in 2001, Richie followed up with a great sophomore season as he hit .353 with 13 home runs and 75 RBI. He earned Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week honors after going 9-for-14 with four homers and eight RBI in FSU's first-ever sweep at Clemson. He was named the MVP of the NCAA Regional in Tallahassee after hitting .667 (8-for-12) with a .917 slugging percentage. Richie was a first team All-ACC selection and was voted to the ACC All-Tournament team as he helped the Seminoles take home the 2002 ACC championship with a 5-0 record. The Jacksonville native led the team with 27 multi-RBI games on the season.

EDDIE MARTINEZ-ESTEVE 2004

A consensus first team All-America selection in 2004, Martinez-Estevé joins John-Ford Griffin, Marshall McDougall and J.D. Drew as the only consensus first team All-Americans in FSU history. Came just two RBIs away from becoming only the second Triple Crown winner in the history of ACC baseball led FSU in eight major offensive categories as a sophomore. He was first in batting average (.385), slugging percentage (.707), hits (104), RBIs (81), doubles (24), home runs (19), total bases (191) and plate appearances (315). Martinez-Estevé hit a team-best .535 versus left-handed pitchers and also led the squad with a .413 average with runners on base, a 1.000 average with the bases loaded, 25 two-out RBIs and a .611 percentage in advancing runners successfully. His 33 multi-hit games and 21 multi-RBI games were both the best marks on the team in 2004 and he posted the second-longest hitting streak of the season at 12 games that year. He was named ACC Player of the Week (3/29), named to the 2004 All-ACC Tournament Team and named to the Dairy Queen Classic All-Tournament team as an outfielder.

SHANE ROBINSON 2005

Collegiate Baseball Player of the Year

Collegiate Baseball's National Player of the Year in 2005, Shane Robinson put together one of the most remarkable seasons in Seminole baseball history earning consensus first team All-American honors. The Tampa native was just the fifth consensus first team All-American in FSU history and was a candidate for every national player off the year honor. Robinson enjoyed a school record 40-game hitting streak that garnered the sophomore national attention including a resolution passed by the Florida House of Representatives recognizing the streak. It was the ninth longest streak ever in Division I baseball and the second-longest in ACC history. After the streak came to an end, the sophomore went on to reach base safely in 17 more games giving him a 57-game streak of reaching base. Robinson became the first player in FSU history to record 100 hits and steal 40 bases in the same season in 2005 and he was also the first player in the nation to reach the 100-hit plateau that year. He led the nation in hits (122) and runs scored (96) as he was one of only two players to finish the season ranked first nationally in two offensive categories. The outfielder finished the season ranked in the top five nationally for hits (122), runs (96), on base percentage (.532), doubles (25), steals (49), steal attempts (56), games played (73) and games started (73) as he was the only player in America to finish in the top five in hits, runs, doubles and stolen bases. Robinson also ranked in the top 10 nationally for walks (57), total bases (173), and batting average (.427). No player in America finished 2005 ranked in the top five of more offensive categories than Robinson.

Seminoles

Florida State & Team USA

Over the past several years, Florida State players have become regulars on Team USA rosters. Since 1989, thirteen Seminole players have represented the United States and Florida State University all over the globe. In the 2000 Olympics, former Seminole Doug Mientkiewicz was a member of the gold-medal winning USA team in Sydney.
