#11 Mike Martin

Head Coach
28th Season • Florida State '66

As he enters his 28th season as Florida State's head coach, Mike Martin continues to cement his legacy as one of collegiate baseball's most prolific coaches. In just the last year alone the legendary Seminole coach won his 1,400th game and was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. The Florida State graduate is one of just eight baseball coaches in the history of the NCAA to win 1,400 games and with just 11 more wins he will pass two more coaches and move into the top five for victories in the history of the sport.

Mike Martin has become the face of Florida State baseball having been associated with the Seminoles for 35 of FSU's 60

"THERE ARE NOT ENOUGH PEOPLE LIKE HIM IN SPORTS, LET ALONE LIFE AND HE DESERVES THE VERY BEST. YOU WANT TO RUN THROUGH A BRICK WALL FOR HIM."

seasons. He is by far the winningest coach in the history of the program. Of the 3,205 baseball games played in program history, Martin has been involved in 2,316 as a player, assistant coach and head coach. What is even more impressive is that Martin has been at FSU for 1,719 of the 2,330 all-time baseball victories. In one way or another Mike Martin has been a part of almost 74% of Florida State's

Martin Quick Facts

- Second highest career winning percentage among all active collegiate coaches
- Fifth-most wins all-time in NCAA DI baseball history
- 27 consecutive NCAA regional appearances
- 12 College World Series trips in 27 years including eight to Omaha in the last 16 seasons
- 15 conference championships four of which are ACC titles (1995, '97, '02 and '04)
- Has produced 13 first round draft picks with 11 coming since 1990
- Has coached 64 All-Americans, 109 All-Conference selections and a record three Golden Spikes winners
- ACC Coach of the Year in 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2001
- Six-Time Metro Conference Coach of the Year
- FSU has finished the season ranked in the top 15 nationally 22 times in Martin's 27 years as FSU Head Coach victories.

Martin has led the Seminoles to 12 College World Series appearances and 27 consecutive NCAA Regional Appearances, one for each year he has been on the bench. He has won 15 conference championships since taking over as head coach in 1980 with 11 from the Metro Conference and four in the ACC. He was a six-time Metro Conference Coach of the Year and has been the ACC Coach of the Year four times as well. Fifty-six Florida State players have earned All-America honors under Martin and 108 players earned first team all-conference recognition. He has coached four players, Mike Fuentes, Mike Loynd, J.D. Drew and Shane Robinson, who were named national player of the year.

For the past 27 seasons, Martin hasn't just produced great players he has also developed great teams. Florida State has grown into one of the most prestigious collegiate baseball programs in the NCAA under Martin's guidance. FSU baseball is the second-winningest program all-time but since 2000 no school has won more games than Martin's Seminoles. No other Division I school has finished in the top 10 more times, compiled more 50+ win seasons or gone to more NCAA Regionals since 2000 as well.

since 1990 may be one of the most impressive runs of consistent success in all of collegiate sports. Over the last 17 years, no team in America has gone to more NCAA Tournaments, finished in the top 10 more often or compiled more 50 win seasons than Florida State. Since 2000, FSU is one of the winningest programs in college baseball with more victories than any other school.

FSU's regular season success has translated into postseason success under Martin as well. Since 1990, the Seminoles are fourth in College World Series appearances with eight including seven trips in the last 15 seasons. FSU's streak of 29 consecutive regionals is the second-longest run in DI baseball.

Florida State's NCAA Tournament streak was extended in 2006 as Martin once again led his Seminole squad to the postseason as Florida State played for the championship of the NCAA Athens Regional. Last season also saw Martin's squad set a new school record with 32 consecutive home wins. Seminole players garnered four more All-America honors and Martin saw Tyler Chambliss become the first player in conference history to be named All-ACC as a starting pitcher and as a closer.

The 2006 Seminoles had yet another stellar season as the team spent three weeks as the No. 1 team in America in the Collegiate Baseball poll and two weeks ranked No. 1 in three of the four major college baseball polls. Florida State has been ranked by Collegiate Baseball for 312 consecutive weeks under Mike Martin, one of the most amazing accomplishments in his storied career.

The 2005 season was a special one for Martin as he was not only inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame but he also had his alma mater name their baseball diamond in his honor. Mike Martin Field at Dick Howser Stadium was officially dedicated April 2 in typical Martin fashion as he picked up his 1,366th win with a 3-1 victory over Clemson. In 2005 Martin set yet another career milestone. With the Seminoles victory over VMI February 6, Martin recorded his 1,344th win passing Southern Cal legend Rod Dedeaux and moving into sixth place all-time for wins by a Division I coach.

Martin not only led his squad to team success in 2005, he once again proved he is one of the top shapers of talent in the game. Shane Robinson's selection as Collegiate Baseball's National Player of the Year marked the fifth time one of Martin's players was named collegiate baseball's top player. Robinson was also the fifth consensus first team All-American to play for Martin. With Robinson's inclusion on the Team USA roster in 2005, the Seminole coach has now tutored 12 players that have gone on to wear the Red, White & Blue.

In 2004 FSU captured its fourth ACC Championship under Martin in what is widely considered the best baseball conference in America. Martin also saw five more of his players drafted including the 14th first round pick of his career as FSU's head coach when Stephen Drew was taken 15th by the Arizona Diamondbacks. was a second round pick of the San Francisco Giants as well and he also garnered the 27th first team All-American honor under Martin's watch.

Martin's 2003 Seminoles added another 50-win season to the record books and advanced to an NCAA Super Regional once again. The team featured eight players that were selected in the MLB Draft, including All-American catcher Tony Richie who was a fourth round pick of the Chicago Cubs. The squad also extended FSU's streak of top 10 finishes to 10 seasons, which was the longest current run in the nation. The Seminoles finished as the ACC regular season champs for the third straight year.

Despite losing in the final game of the Super Regional to Notre Dame, Martin's 2002 squad will always be one of his all-time favorites. Led by All-American Ryan Barthelemy, that team put together a list of accomplishments that had never before been reached. The Seminoles swept three games at Miami and did the same later in the year at Clemson. Both sweeps were firsts for the FSU program. The three-game sweep of then-No. 1 Clemson at the end of the regular season gave the Seminoles the ACC regular season title and the top seed in the ACC Tournament. The 2002 club did not stop there, winning all five games in St. Petersburg to take home the ACC Tournament Championship. The school record winning streak would reach 25 games as the team swept through NCAA Regional play.

The 2001 squad finished the year one game short of a fourth straight College World Series appearance. Martin was named ACC Coach of the Year for the fourth time since FSU joined the league in 1992 after leading the team to the regular season title. Slugging outfielder John-Ford Griffin was a Golden Spikes Award finalist, a consensus All-American, the ACC Player of the Year, and Martin's 11th first round draft pick.

Martin seems to outdo his accomplishments every season. His 2000 club was the 19th to reach the 50-win plateau in his 22nd season. After defeating Miami in the NCAA Super Regional to earn a College World Series berth, the 2000 Seminoles rallied from an opening round loss to advance to the final four in Omaha before losing to eventual national champion LSU.

Martin was named ACC Coach of the Year in 1999 after his team won the ACC regular season with a 22-2 mark, the best regular season record in conference history. The Seminoles went on to finish second in the country with an impressive CWS showing. Marshall McDougall, who earlier in the season set the NCAA record with six home runs in a single game, was named the CWS Most Outstanding Player.

The Seminole skipper earned his 1,000th victory in a 4-3 decision over Jacksonville on April 9th, 1998. He became the second-fastest head coach to reach the 1,000-win mark in NCAA Division I baseball history. Former FSU players, friends and Bullpen Club members honored Martin for his 1,000th win with a special ceremony and diamond-studded gold Rolex watch. Martin also garnered ACC Coach of the Year distinction from his peers for his efforts that season.

Martin guided his 1997 squad to the Seminoles' second Atlantic Coast Conference Championship. That team was led by a pitching staff that hurled four complete games in a five-game ACC Tournament sweep. In 1996, FSU's 19-5 ACC record and first-ever first place conference finish in the regular season earned Martin his first ACC Coach of the Year honor. His squad made history as they put together a then-FSU record 22-game winning streak and traveled to the College World Series for the third consecutive season, the first three-year streak in school history.

Martin's brilliant career has meant more than just wins on the baseball diamond. The 2001 team got a first-hand reminder of that prior to a series at Stanford. Leaving the San Francisco airport, Martin and then-assistant coach Chip Baker gained control of the team's charter bus after the driver suffered a fatal heart attack and safely guided it to the side of a busy highway. Martin and Baker were presented with the university's prestigious Westcott Award for their bravery in saving the lives of players and staff. There's no question that the Seminoles' outstanding character in the most difficult of times stems directly from their head coach.

When Martin transferred to FSU from Wingate Junior College in 1965 to play center field for the Seminoles, it was the beginning of a love affair that has never ended. His love for the game of baseball is matched only by the success he has had teaching it to aspiring players. He teaches the game with a fire and drive that has given Florida State perhaps the nation's very best all-around college baseball program.

From the new facilities to the coaching staff to the unequalled community support, Mike Martin has improved an already strong Seminole baseball tradition with every season. Just when it seems that the program can reach no higher plane, something bigger and better comes along. When Martin took over in 1980, it was taboo to mention the word Omaha around the ball club. No one wanted to jinx an FSU team that had made it to the College World Series only three times in the previous 16 seasons. After taking the Seminoles to that hallowed ground in his very first season, Martin would eventually make Omaha not only a household word, but a second home to the Seminoles. Martin has led the Tribe to the CWS 12 times in his career.

Martin won 50 or more games his first 12 seasons at the helm, interrupted by 49 and 46-win seasons in 1992 and 1993. He has added 10 more 50-win seasons since to bring the total to 22, including a 60-win season in 2002 that tied the ACC single season victory record. The numbers Martin and his FSU teams have posted are monumental.

Martin's succeeding of Dick Howser as FSU head coach seemed a perfectly logical step in 1979. As a player in 1965-66, Martin hit .354 in two seasons as the starting center fielder for the Seminoles. He was a part of the 1965 College World Series team and earned all-district honors in his senior season. Martin then went on to play professionally in the New York Mets and Detroit Tigers organizations for three years prior to embarking on his career as a coach. Martin began his career as a baseball and basketball coach at the junior high level. He served as head basketball coach at Tallahassee Community College before spending four seasons as basketball coach at Tallahassee's Godby High.

When Woody Woodward became FSU head baseball coach in 1975, he quickly called on Martin to assist him. He served as the No. 1 assistant under Woodward for four years and one under Dick Howser. When New York Yankees boss George Steinbrenner called Howser in November 1979, Martin was the obvious replacement. Since that day in 1979, there has been no doubt that Mike Martin and Seminole baseball has been a perfect match. For Martin, it is a dream come true. He would be the first to tell you his current position is his ultimate thrill. Martin has won more games than all of Florida State's former head baseball coaches combined. Seminole baseball teams have participated in the NCAA Tournament every year under Martin. That run, on the heels of appearances in 1978 and 1979, gives FSU 29 consecutive tournament trips, the second longest streak in the country. Martin has been involved in 14 of the 18 College World Series trips that Florida State has made all-time, as a player, assistant coach and head coach.

Martin says his years around FSU coaches like Fred Hatfield, whom he played for in 1965-66, Woodward and Howser (both of whom he coached under) instilled in him the desire to produce winners on and off the playing field. Stepping out of their shadows, Martin has built his own legacy in Tallahassee. During his tenure, an incredible 124 players have signed professional contracts. In 2005 Martin coached his fifth consensus first team All-American in Shane Robinson who was also the fifth national player of the year coached by the FSU legend. Robinson is the most recent in a long line of award winners developed by Martin. In 1999, second baseman Marshall McDougall was a consensus All-American, a finalist for the Golden Spikes and Dick Howser Awards, and the ACC Player of the Year after winning the conference's triple crown. Center fielder J.D. Drew took home consensus All-American honors in 1997, as well as player of the year awards from Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. Drew also became the first Seminole to win the Dick Howser Award, named after FSU's former All-American and head coach. Three of Martin's Seminoles (Mike Fuentes, Mike Loynd and Drew) have won the Golden Spikes Award, honoring the nation's best amateur baseball player. No school has produced more Golden Spikes Award winners than Florida State.

Martin does not just produce winning teams, All-Americans and major league prospects, he believes in developing a true student-athlete. The most important thing about Mike Martin's teams is that they have won with class, a direct reflection of the man who leads Seminole baseball. In just three seasons of presenting The ACC Sportsmanship Award, Martin's Seminoles have won it twice. His team has been in the top three in the ACC for overall GPA and six Seminoles were named to the All-ACC Academic Team as they posted a GPA of at least 3.0 in each of the last three semesters.

A popular speaker, Martin has delivered keynote addresses at several state and national meetings, including gatherings of the Florida High School Coaches Association, Atlanta Braves instructional clinics and Seminole booster clubs throughout the Southeast. He is also in demand as a speaker at churches and is active in national and local Fellowship of Christian Athletes activities.

Martin's success on and off the field led to the coach being honored by his two former schools in 2004. The legendary FSU baseball coach was named a Distinguished Alumnus at Wingate University where he went to school for two years before coming to Florida State and earning his degree in 1966. Florida State also bestowed an honor on the coach when he was named a recipient of the Bernard F. Sliger Award for Service. The Sliger Award, named for the eleventh president of the University, is the single highest honor accorded by the Alumni Association. It recognizes a member of the University community who has, through their efforts, made a major contribution toward the fulfillment of the mission of the University.

A 1966 graduate of Florida State, Martin earned his master's degree in 1971. He and wife Carol have three children, Mary Beth, Melanie and Mike, Jr., a former starting catcher and current assistant coach at Florida State. Mary Beth and husband Tom Buchanan are the parents of Martin's first grandchild Hannah Elizabeth (9). Mike, Jr. and his wife Litzie are the parents of Martin's second and third grandchildren Tyler (6) and T.J. (4).

Jamey Shouppe begins his 17th season as a member of the Florida State coaching staff and his fifth year as associate head coach. He continues to serve as one of the nation's premier recruiting coordinators and pitching coaches. His success has been proven year after year with top-ranked recruiting classes and staff ERA's consistently among the nation's best.

Shouppe has been the catalyst in attracting top caliber talent to Florida State since taking over as the recruiting coordinator in 1990. The former FSU player has had a top 25 ranked class every year he has been at FSU and 11 of his 16 classes have been ranked in the top 10 with half being in the top five. Baseball America ranked his 1992 class No. 1 in the country. More recently, the 2002 group headlined by Eddy Martinez-Estevé and Mark Sauls garnered a No. 4 national ranking and last year two AFLAC All-Americans were members of the Seminoles' top 25 recruiting class. Shouppe has shown no sign of slowing down either as the top prospect in America in 2008 has already signed with the Seminoles.

Shouppe's eye for talent is evidenced by the awards won by his recruits. Since taking over the role as FSU's recruiting coordinator, Seminole players have been named first team All-Americans on 18 occasions and garnered All-America honors 124 times.

In 1993, the former Seminole hurler added the role of pitching coach to his duties with equal success. Under Shouppe's tutelage, the Florida State pitching staff has been among the nation's best. FSU's ERA has been ranked among the top four in the country in three of the last seven years in the final NCAA statistics. The Seminoles have also won the ACC's team ERA title 10 times in the last 15 seasons, which is tied for first all-time with North Carolina despite the fact FSU has been in the conference for just 15 seasons. The Tar Heels won their first ACC pitching title almost 40 years before Florida State ever joined the ACC.

The longtime coach has also shown he can develop Major League caliber pitchers. Ten of Shouppe's pitchers have been selected in the MLB Draft in the last four seasons and 49 Seminole pitchers have been selected in the MLB draft since Shouppe became the team's pitching coach.

A former Seminole pitcher, Shouppe played for Mike Martin in 1981-82. The southpaw compiled a 10-4 record in two seasons with the Seminoles. During his career, Shouppe took the mound in 60 games and posted a 3.78 ERA. He fanned a total of 122 batters in 126 innings of work and was named to the Metro Conference All-Tournament team his senior year.

A native of Chattahoochee, Fla., Shouppe came to FSU via George Wallace Junior College in Dothan, Ala. At Wallace, he earned all-conference, all-state, and all-region honors in each of his two seasons while playing in the outfield and pitching.

The Houston Astros drafted Shouppe in the eighth round following his senior season at FSU. The left-hander played three years in the Astros organization at the A and AA levels and was invited to Major League camp in 1984, before retiring from baseball in 1985.

Shouppe received his bachelor's degree in physical education from FSU and a master's degree from Nova University in Fort Lauderdale. He held various coaching and teaching positions in Florida before returning to FSU in 1990.

Shouppe taught classes in the physical education department before giving up that responsibility prior to the 2000 season. He has worked as director of the Mike Martin Baseball School, 6-10 age division, for the past 20 years.

Shouppe and his wife, former FSU cheerleader Karen Hall, have three children 19-year-old son Jake, 15-year-old daughter Kasey and 13-year-old son Jared.

Assistant Coach
10th Season • Florida State '95

Since joining the Florida State coaching staff in 1998, Mike Martin Jr.'s numbers speak for themselves. Under his direction the Seminoles have batted .311, slugged .491, averaged over eight runs per game and hit almost 80 homeruns each and every year. On top of impressive offensive statistics, FSU baseball has played in three College World Series, seven Super Regionals, nine consecutive NCAA Tournaments and won over 75% of its games.

Now in his 10th season as an assistant coach, Martin continues to carve out his own identity as one of the college game's top young coaches. Martin serves as the squad's third base coach and will continue to work with Florida State's hitters. A former Seminole All-American behind the plate, Martin began working exclusively with the catchers in 2003.

Since joining the Florida State coaching staff, Martin and the Seminole baseball team have had as impressive of a run as any squad since the mid 80's. It has been more than a decade since any FSU baseball teams have won as many games and had a higher winning percentage than the squads have since he returned to Tallahassee and joined the staff following his professional baseball career. No other school in America has won as many games in that time as well.

Martin has coached five Major Leaguers, seven first team All-Americans, eight consensus All-Americans, 27 All-ACC selections and seen 27 players drafted in his tenure at Florida State.

Martin's biggest influence has come through his work with the FSU offense. He has served as FSU's hitting coach over the last seven years and since then six of FSU's last eight teams have batted .300 or better. Of the top 15 hitting teams of all-time at FSU, seven have come since Martin became the squad's hitting coach. The 1999 Seminoles hit .327 as a team, which ranks third all-time in school history and in Martin's seven years his teams have a combined batting average of .309 and a slugging percentage of .488. They average 1.14 home runs a game, which is the second-highest total over any nine-year span in school history.

Even more impressively, the Seminoles have been at their best at the most important time of the year. Since Martin took over as the Seminoles' hitting coach, Florida State has batted .311 in the ACC Tournament, NCAA Tournament and College World Series. FSU team's under Martin average 7.8 runs per game in the postseason, which is just slightly below the team's average for all games despite playing the toughest competition of the year in those tournaments.

Having learned from two great hitting minds, Mike Martin and Duane Espy, Martin, Jr.'s philosophy is a combination of their theories and has produced impressive results. FSU's hitters are taught an offensive approach that utilizes the entire field. Martin has also implemented the use of wood bats in practice since taking over as hitting coach. He has helped develop 12 All-Americans, 27 All-ACC selections and 22 players that signed professional contracts as Florida State's hitting coach.

Martin took over the additional duty of handling the Seminole catchers in 2003. He learned the art of catching from former FSU assistant Chip Baker and Roger Hanson of the Seattle Mariners, a highly regarded former Major League catching instructor.

In 2005, Martin helped Shane Robinson put together one of the most remarkable seasons in NCAA Baseball history. The Tampa native won Collegiate Baseball's National Player of the Year award and was a consensus first team All-American after a school-record 40-game hit streak. Robinson hit .427 on the year and became the only FSU player to ever record more than 100 hits and 40 stolen bases. In just one off-season, Martin helped Robinson raise his average 147 points and bolster his slugging percentage from .371 to .605.

As a player, Martin was the Seminoles' starting catcher from 1993-95 and earned NCAA All-Tournament Team honors in each of his three years at Florida State. He was the Most Valuable Player of the NCAA Atlantic II Regional in 1994 as he led the Seminoles to the College World Series and garnered second team NCBWA All-American honors. He was selected to the 1995 NCAA Atlantic I Regional All-Tournament Team as the Seminoles returned to Omaha for the second straight year. Martin was a member of Team USA in 1993.

Martin was selected by the San Diego Padres in the ninth round of the 1995 draft following his senior season. After playing for the San Diego Padres organization for two years, he was signed by the Seattle Mariners as a free agent in 1996 before retiring from professional baseball in 1997.

In 1992, Martin was an all-conference selection at Manatee Community College in his only year of junior college. The Tallahassee native attended Maclay High School where his jersey #10 is retired. He captained the 1991 team that won the state championship his senior season. He was drafted as a shortstop out of high school by the Seattle Mariners in the 31st round.

Along with his coaching duties, the 1995 Florida State graduate speaks to booster clubs as well as high school and college coaching clinics on a regular basis. On November 27, 1999, Martin married the former Litzie Andrade. They have two sons Tyler (5) and T.J. (3). Martin, Jr. also has the honor of coming to work everyday with his Hall of Fame father and FSU Head Baseball Coach Mike Martin.

The senior member of Mike Martin's staff and a Seminole 'fan favorite, Chip Baker enters his 23rd season at Florida State. After 18 years as an assistant coach, Baker has served as the director of baseball administration and facilities for the last four years. As he has done for two decades, he will fill many roles for the program.

Baker oversees all aspects of Seminole baseball in his administrative role, including the budget, team travel, game operations, equipment, field and facility maintenance, and scheduling. Baker also assists the efforts of the marketing and ticket offices in development of new group and season ticket sales plans. He served as the liaison through facilities during stadium construction and will do so with any new baseball projects. In addition, he will communicate with the Bullpen Club and Seminole Boosters on a regular basis.

During his tenure at Florida State, Baker has participated in 22 NCAA postseason tournaments and 11 College World Series. He coached two teams that played in the National Championship game (1986 & 1999). As an assistant, Baker coached third base and worked with FSU's catchers. He was also responsible for scouting opposing teams and directing the Seminoles defensively.

A former assistant at Virginia Tech and Georgia Tech, Baker is known as one of college baseball's premier catching instructors. During his tenure, Baker has coached six All-Americans, including Ed Fulton, Barry Blackwell, major-leaguer Marc Ronan and first-team All-American Pedro Grifol. Most recently, Tony Richie was a two-time All-American and 1998 All-American Jeremy Salazar was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies.

Each summer, Baker is the director of the Mike Martin and Seminole Advanced Baseball Schools. These camps have not only proved to be popular, but beneficial. Over 100 former campers have gone on to wear the Garnet and Gold and several have advanced to the major leagues. Past camps have produced 26 first round draft picks including John-Ford Griffin, Nick Stocks, Jonathan Johnson, J.D. Drew, Chipper Jones and Alex Rodriguez. The nationally known Super Skills Academy has quickly become one of the nation's top summer camps.

Baker is a popular speaker and addresses Seminole Booster clubs and civic organizations around the state. He has been on the staff of national and regional baseball clinics. Baker works closely with Tallahassee area youth organizations and has put together clinics for the Tallahassee Babe Ruth League and other youth leagues.

The 48-year-old native of North Carolina has written articles for Scholastic Coach and Collegiate Baseball magazines on the subjects of catching, third base coaching and bunting; and has published a Collegiate Level Strength & Speed book. Three years ago, Baker put together a record selling catching video with Championship Videos entitled, 'Expanding the Strike Zone.'

A 1980 graduate of High Point in North Carolina, Baker was a part of four Carolina Conference championship teams. He was a member of the High Point team that finished second at the 1979 NAIA World Series.

After completing his bachelor's degree in physical education, Baker earned his master's degree in motor behavior at Virginia Tech, where he began his collegiate coaching career.

Baker is married to the former Julie Larsen, a record-holding pitcher on FSU's 1985-88 softball teams who was inducted into the Florida State Hall of Fame in 1995. The two were married in 1991 in a most memorable ceremony between games of a doubleheader at Dick Howser Stadium. The Bakers are the proud parents of an 11-year-old daughter, Katie Nicole, who is a regular at FSU home games and has traveled to the College World Series four times. Baker's older brother, Jim, is the head basketball coach at Catawba College.

Upon FSU's return from a trip to Stanford in 2001, Baker and head coach Mike Martin were presented with the university's prestigious Westcott Award for their bravery in saving the lives of players and staff. Leaving the San Francisco airport, the two coaches gained control of the team's charter bus after the driver suffered a fatal heart attack and safely guided it to the side of a busy highway.

Baseball Support Staff

Pete Jenkins is in his second year as a volunteer assistant coach with the Florida State baseball program. The former Nebraska standout comes to Florida State after serving as an assistant at UNC Asheville.

Prior to joining the UNCA staff, Jenkins spent two years as a hitting and catching instructor at California State University, San Bernardino. He was involved in all aspects of the program for head coach Don Parnell's program.

Prior to coaching, Jenkins played professional baseball for four years. He played two seasons in the Milwaukee Brewers organization before playing two years of Independent Baseball in the Western League. His last team was the Chico Heat where he played for former Houston Astros pitcher Charlie Kerfeld.

Jenkins played for one season at the University of Nebraska where he was the Cornhuskers starting catcher during the 1996 campaign and hit .320. Jenkins came to Nebraska after a standout two-year career at junior college powerhouse Riverside Community College in Riverside, Calif. He played for legendary coach Dennis Rogers.

Russell Orr joined the Florida State strength and conditioning staff after spending the previous 11 years with the New York Yankees and he begins his fourth season with Florida State Baseball. Orr spent seven seasons as a Player Development athletic trainer. In the fall of 1999, he was promoted to the Coordinator of Strength and Conditioning. He was responsible for all aspects of strength and conditioning for Player Development and assisted with major league rehabs. Orr will coordinate the training efforts for the Seminole baseball team from the recently renovated Dick Howser weight room and oversee the cross country team's training regimen.

A graduate of the University of South Carolina, Orr has a BS in Physical Education — Athletic Training and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the NSCA since 1996. He is also a licensed Athletic Trainer through the NATA since 1995. A licensed Massage Therapist since 1997 and certified Level 1 Club Coach through USA Weightlifting (USAW) since 2004.

Orr is married to the former Kelly May since November 18, 1995. The couple has two children: Riley (7) and Bryant (5).

Jake Pfeil is in his third year as a member of the Florida State University staff. He served as a student athletic trainer at FSU for football and baseball, graduating in 2000 with a degree in Sports Management.

As an undergraduate student, he served two summer internships with the Atlanta Falcons. Jake then received his master's degree in sports administration from Mississippi State University in 2002, where he was a graduate assistant athletic trainer for football. He then returned to the Atlanta Falcons and worked as a seasonal assistant athletic trainer for the 2002 season.

Immediately prior to joining the FSU staff, Jake was employed by Tallahassee Orthopedic and Sports Physical Therapy and was the head athletic trainer at Tallahassee Community College. In 2004 Pfeil served as the Insurance/Risk Coordinator at FSU, where he was the liaison between the various medical providers used by FSU, insurance companies, and the sports medicine department. Pfeil is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and is a licensed athletic trainer by the State of Florida.

The Madison, FL native married the former Cheryl Tingle in July of 2004. His interests include fishing, hunting, cooking, following NASCAR, college football and baseball.
