

2007 REVIEW

- Florida State claimed its first ACC Atlantic Division title in 2007 en route to earning the No. 1 overall seed in the ACC Tournament. It marked the seventh time in conference history that the Seminoles earned the top seed in the tournament.
- With a mark of 24-6, the Seminoles set the school record for the most conference wins in a season surpassing the previous record of 22 set in 1999. The 24 victories also tied for the most wins recorded in ACC history as the Clemson Tigers posted the same record a season ago.
- The 2007 Seminoles set the single-season record for team batting average (.350) and team fielding percentage (.975). The team batting average was also a new ACC single-season team record surpassing the record of .347 set back in 2001 by Georgia Tech. FSU also drew a home record crowd of 183,534 in 41 games at Mike Martin Field where the Seminoles posted a record of 35-6 on the year.
- FSU made its 30th consecutive NCAA Regional appearance and 45th overall in 2007. The Seminoles own an all-time record of 149-100 in the NCAA Tournament including a mark of 124-64 in NCAA Regional play.
- Florida State captured three of the four individual accolades presented by the league office in 2007. Tony Thomas, Jr. was named Player of the Year, while Bryan Henry earned Pitcher of the Year honors. Mike Martin was selected as the Coach of the Year. Seven Seminoles earned All-ACC recognition including a school-record six named to the first-team.
- Tony Thomas, Jr. was named National Player of the Year by Collegiate Baseball and Rivals.com in 2007. The junior second baseman was also a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, Dick Howser Trophy and Brooks Wallace Award - all given to the nation's top collegiate baseball player.
- Four Seminoles were named All-Americans in 2007 including three first team honorees. Bryan Henry (Collegiate Baseball & ABCA), Buster Posey (Collegiate Baseball) and Tony Thomas, Jr. who became just the sixth consensus first team All-American in school history. Shortstop Mark Hallberg was also honored by the ABCA as a third team All-American.
- Buster Posey was a finalist for the Johnny Bench Award presented to the nation's top collegiate catcher. In his first season behind the plate, he threw out 40.9% of potential base stealers while posting a .994 fielding percentage. As just a sophomore, Posey became the youngest finalist in the history of the award.

2007 GAMES STARTED BY POSITION

BEST START IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Florida State's 23-0 start was by far the best start in school history, surpassing the team's previous best start by eight games. The Seminoles started a season with at least a 10-0 record seven times in the program's 60-year history. In the second game against Siena, the Seminoles moved to 16-0 with an 8-3 victory over the Saints, breaking the school record for the best start ever. In 1975, under then head coach Woody Woodward, Florida State began the year 15-0. They finished the '75 season with a mark of 49-10 advancing to the College World Series and finishing the season with a ranking as high as No. 7 by Collegiate Baseball. 1975 also marked the first year as an assistant coach for current head coach Mike Martin. This is the best start in 28 seasons under the legendary ball coach.

LIMITING THE ERRORS

At one stretch during the 2007 season, Florida State went six games without committing an error, a span covering 63.2 consecutive innings. It is the longest errorless streak since 1993 when FSU went five straight games without posting an error. FSU also started the season with a streak of 36 consecutive innings without committing an error.

At year's end, FSU finished with the best fielding percentage in school history at .975. The Seminoles committed 60 errors in 2,360 total chances. For the third straight year, Florida State's team defense ranked among the best in school history. Here is a look at the top five fielding teams in school history dating back to 1973:

TOP 5 FIELDING PCT. IN SCHOOL HISTORY (DATING BACK TO 1973)

14 WINS FOR HENRY

Bryan Henry made Florida State history in 2007 becoming just the third pitcher to reach the 14-win plateau in a single season since FSU joined the ACC back in 1992. The senior right hander finished the season with a 14-2 mark and an ERA of 2.60. He also became the eighth pitcher all-time with 14 or more wins in school history tying Richie Lewis who reached 14 wins in 1986.

Henry's three-year Florida State career comes to a close with an overall record of 32-9 and a career ERA of 2.60. The right hander tallied 273 strikeouts and just 75 walks in 322.1 innings of work good for a 3.64 career strikeout to walk ratio. He leaves Florida State ranked eighth all-time in career starts (47) and wins (32) and 10th in innings pitched and ERA.

ACC ACCOLADES

Tony Thomas, Jr. became the fourth Seminole student-athlete to garner ACC Player of the Year honors and the first since 2001. Thomas finished the season as league leader in seven statistical categories and is ranked in the top 10 in four others. The Valrico, Fla., product finished first in the ACC in batting average (.430), hits per game (1.79), runs scored per game (1.47), doubles per game (0.53), total bases (3.05), on base percentage (.522) and slugging percentage (.733). In addition, Thomas finished second in stolen bases per game (0.50), third in triples per game (.10), eighth in home runs per game (0.18) and eighth in walks per game (0.69). Thomas joins J.D. Drew (1997), Marshall McDougall (1999) and John-Ford Griffin (2001) as past Seminoles to be recognized as ACC Players of the Year.

Bryan Henry was named ACC Pitcher of the Year after finishing the season with a perfect 14-2 record and a 2.60 earned run average. The Tallahassee, Fla., senior ran out to a 14-0 record in his first 16 starts, while he went a perfect 9-0 in 10 ACC starts. In addition to tying for the NCAA-lead in wins, Henry led the ACC in strikeouts (117), innings pitched (117.2) and finished fifth in opponents' batting average (.238).

Mike Martin was voted by his peers as ACC Coach of the Year for the fifth time in his career after leading the Seminoles to the Atlantic Division title and the No. 1 seed in the ACC Baseball Tournament. Florida State finished the year with a 49-13 overall record. FSU's 24-6 record in league play, tied the ACC single-season conference game win mark of 24 set by Clemson a year ago. Martin was previously honored as the top coach in the league in 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2001.

With six first-team selections, Florida State joined the 1977 Clemson Tigers as the only other school in conference history to place six student-athletes on the first team. It also marks the most first-team selections in school history surpassing the previous record of four set three times in 1996, 1999 and 2000. Joining Thomas (2B) and Henry (SP) on this year's first-team are sophomore catcher Buster Posey, freshman third baseman Jason Stidham, junior shortstop Mark Hallberg and junior outfielder Jack Rye. Sophomore outfielder Mark Gildea earned a spot on the second team.

SEEING DOUBLE

FSU hit 172 doubles in 62 games in 2007, that's an average of 2.8 doubles per game. It was the fifth most doubles hit in a single season. The 2007 Seminoles fell just short of the school record of 182 doubles hit in 72 games back in 1990, an average of 2.5 doubles per game that year.

TWO OUT RUNS

Florida State did pretty well when it came to two out run production in 2007. In 62 games, the Seminoles scored 219 runs with two outs. That's 39.0% of their run production in 2007 coming with two outs. FSU scored a season-high 11 runs with two outs twice. First coming in the series finale against UNC Asheville, a game the Seminoles won 15-1. The Garnet and Gold then scored 11 runs on two outs in a 15-3 victory over Duke in game one of the series in Durham. Against the Gators, FSU scored nine runs on two outs including four in the first two innings. The Seminoles scored another nine runs on two outs in a 10-2 win over Appalachian State in game two of that series. In the Seminoles first ACC series in 2007, Florida State outscored Wake Forest 22-10 as 12 of the 22 runs recorded came on two outs. The Seminoles finished out the regular season scoring 16 of the 44 runs posted against Georgia Tech on two outs including nine, two-out runs in game one.

AND TWO OUT HITS

Probably the most overlooked stat was what the team did with two outs in an inning. FSU hit .330 as a team posting 243 hits in 736 two-out opportunities. Four Seminoles batted .370 or better, six registered 20 or more hits and nine tallied 10 or more RBI's. Below is list of those Seminoles and their success with two-outs.

	Hits	RBI's	Avg.
Mark Hallberg .....	29	22	.372
Tony Thomas, Jr. ....	28	21	.412
Buster Posey .....	31	20
Jason Stidham.....	28	22
Jack Rye .....	27	31
Brandon Reichert.....	22	18
Travis Anderson.....			.375
D'Vontrey Richardson.....		11	.405
Ohmed Danesh.....		11
Dennis Guinn .....		10

Junior Jack Rye finished as the team leader with 31 two-out RBI's. Buster Posey tallied a team-high 31 two-out hits. Tony Thomas, Jr. hit a team-best .412 in two-out situations (28-of-68).

DOUBLE-DIGIT RUNS & HITS

The Seminoles got off to a hot start in 2007 scoring double-digit runs in 13 of their first 17 games. FSU had a string of eight straight double-digit run games earlier this year. In the 60-year history of Seminole baseball, Florida State registered double-digit runs in eight consecutive games just twice, the last time coming in 2003 when the Seminoles strung together nine straight games of 10+ runs. FSU posted 26 double-digit run games this year.

FSU also posted double-digit hits in 47 of its 62 games played in 2007. Since 1996, the Seminoles had a streak of eight or more double-digit hit games 10 times, including a more recent streak of 11 games in a row which came to an end in game two vs. UNC (4/21). This year's 16 straight double-digit hit games are the longest of record dating back to 1996. The previous best was 10 straight posted back in 2003.

NO. 1 IN THE NATION

Florida State held the top spot in Collegiate Baseball's top 25 poll for six straight weeks before handing over the reigns to Vanderbilt. The Seminoles earned their first No. 1 ranking of the season as released by Collegiate Baseball on Monday, March 19. FSU posted a record of 16-7 while being ranked No. 1 in the nation.

2007 REVIEW

9 TIMES IN 2007

Florida State was recognized as either the ACC Player or Pitcher of the Week nine times in 2007 the most of any other school in the league. The mark also ties the school record matched three times before in 1997, 1998 and 1999.

ACC PERFORMERS OF THE WEEK

F12	Tony Thomas, Jr.	Player of the Week
M5	Tony Thomas, Jr.	Player of the Week
A2	Tony Thomas, Jr.	Player of the Week
A9	Brandon Reichert	Player of the Week
A16	Buster Posey	Player of the Week
A23	Bryan Henry	Pitcher of the Week
M7	Danny Rosen	Pitcher of the Week
M14	Bryan Henry	Pitcher of the Week
M21	Jason Stidham	Player of the Week

HENRY JOINS ELITE COMPANY

Bryan Henry collected his fourth career honor as ACC Pitcher of the Week on May 14. He became just the second pitcher in FSU history to win ACC Pitcher of the Week honors at least four times. Paul Wilson is the only other pitcher with four or more weekly conference accolades as he won the award a school record six times.

3-PEAT FOR THOMAS

Tony Thomas, Jr. was recognized by the league office as the ACC Player of the Week three times in 2007. It is the ninth time FSU has had an athlete win the weekly honor three times in a season. He joins a list of five other Seminole greats to be recognized by the league office three times in the same year (Paul Wilson and J.D. Drew each won the award three times in a season twice). The last Florida State player to perform such a feat was Mike Ziegler in 2000.

FOURTH PLACE ALL-TIME FOR #11

Two milestones were set by head coach Mike Martin in 2007. The first was established with the Seminoles 14-6 win over Florida in Gainesville on February 20, as Martin moved into sole possession of fifth place on the NCAA all-time wins list with 1,445 victories. Martin passed former High Point and Virginia Tech head coach Chuck Hartman on the list, who retired after 46 years as a collegiate head coach. Martin then moved into sole possession of fourth place with FSU's 17-1 victory over Stetson in the NCAA Tallahassee Regional.

The win moved Martin ahead of current Texas Tech head coach Larry Hays. Martin currently sits with 1,484 career victories.

HOLD IT RIGHT THERE

Florida State finished the season as the leader in the ACC in limiting the opposition to the fewest number of stolen bases attempted in 2007. Opponents attempted a league low 48 stolen bases against the Seminoles and catcher Buster Posey, a finalist for the 2007 Johnny Bench Award, was a big reason for that. In 62 games, Posey threw out 40.9% of attempted base stealers. He had only 44 stolen base attempted against him all season. Posey also finished as the team leader in pickoffs as he recorded six in 2007. To put all the numbers in perspective, North Carolina finished second in the ACC as opponents attempted 59 stolen bases against the Tar Heels.

TOTAL SACRIFICES

Mark Hallberg was a welcome addition to the Florida State roster transferring from Illinois-Chicago in the fall of 2006. The junior from Barron, Wisc., started all 62 games at shortstop where he posted a fielding percentage of .975 (7 errors in 276 chances). Hallberg finished sixth on the team in hitting (.360) and third in RBI's (56). But the one stat that shouldn't be overlooked was his team leading 17 total sacrifices including 14 sacrifice bunts. His sacrifice total tied for the third most in a single season at Florida State with Jose Zabala (1998).

ATTENDANCE RECORD

Florida State set the single-season home attendance record in 2007 drawing a school record 183,354 fans to Mike Martin Field inside Dick Howser Stadium. The home average attendance was 4,472 just under the school record of 4,516 which was set in 2005. This year's home attendance eclipses the record of 171,643 also set in 2005. The Seminoles played 41 home contests in 2007 posting a 35-6 record. Florida State was also the host of the NCAA Tallahassee Regional.
