Catcher Tony Richie was named a first team All-American by Baseball America in 2002. A freshman All-American in 2001, Richie followed up with a great sophomore season as he hit .353 with 13 home runs and 75 RBI. He earned Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week honors after going 9-for-14 with four homers and eight RBI in FSU's first-ever sweep at Clemson. He was named the MVP of the NCAA Regional in Tallahassee after hitting .667 (8-for-12) with a .917 slugging percentage. Richie was a first team All-ACC selection and was voted to the ACC All-Tournament team as he helped the Seminoles take home the 2002 ACC championship with a 5-0 record. The Jacksonville native led the team with 27 multi-RBI games on the season.

EDDY MARTINEZ-ESTEVE* 2004

A consensus first team All-America selection in 2004, Martinez-Esteve joins John-Ford Griffin, Marshall McDougall and J.D. Drew as the only consensus first team All-Americans in FSU history. Came just two RBIs away from becoming only the second Triple Crown winner in the history of ACC baseball. Led FSU in eight major offensive categories as a sophomore. He was first in batting average (.385), slugging percentage (.707), hits (104), RBIs (81), doubles (24), home runs (19), total bases (191) and plate appearances (315). Martinez-Esteve hit a teambest .535 versus left-handed pitchers and also led the squad with a .413 average with runners on base, a 1.000 average with the bases loaded, 25 two-out RBIs and a .611 percentage in advancing runners successfully. His 33 multi-hit games and 21 multi-RBI games were both the best marks on the team in 2004 and he posted the second-longest hitting streak of the season at 12 games that year. He was named ACC Player of the Week (3/29), named to the 2004 All-ACC Tournament Team and named to the Dairy Queen Classic All-Tournament team as an outfielder.

SHANE ROBINSON* 2005

Collegiate Baseball Player of the Year

Collegiate Baseball's National Player of the Year in 2005, Shane Robinson put together one of the most remarkable seasons in Seminole baseball history earning consensus first team All-American honors. The Tampa native was just the fifth consensus first team All-American in FSU history and was a candidate for every national player of the year honor. Robinson enjoyed a school record 40-game hitting streak that garnered the sophomore national attention including a resolution passed by the Florida House of Representatives recognizing the streak. It was the ninth longest streak ever in Division I baseball and the second longest in ACC history. After the streak came to an end, the sophomore went on to reach base safely in 17 more games giving him a 57-game streak of reaching base. Robinson became the first player in FSU history to record 100 hits and steal 40 bases in the same season in 2005 and he was also the first player in the nation to reach the 100-hit plateau that year. He led the nation in hits (122) and runs scored (96) as he was one of only two players to finish the season ranked first nationally in two offensive categories. The outfielder finished the season ranked in the top five nationally for hits (122), runs (96), on base percentage (.532), doubles (25), steals (49), steal attempts (56), games played (73) and games started (73) as he was the only player in America to finish in the top five in hits, runs, doubles and stolen bases. Robinson also ranked in the top 10 nationally for walks (57), total bases (173), and batting average (.427). No player in America finished 2005 ranked in the top five of more offensive categories than Robinson.

HONORS & AWARDS

BRYAN HENRY 2007

The 2007 ACC Pitcher of the Year and All-ACC first team honoree for the third consecutive season, Henry was named a first team All-American by Collegiate Baseball. The senior right hander was a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award, Dick Howser Trophy and Roger Clemens Award, while being named a quarterfinalist for the Brooks Wallace Award. He led the team, among starters, in wins (14) and ERA (2.60) and ranked first in the ACC in wins, innings pitched (117.2) and total strikeouts (117), fourth in ERA, fifth in strikeouts per game (8.95) and opponents batting average (.238). Henry finished his final season with the Seminoles tied for the national lead in wins, while ranking 19th in strikeouts. He won nine straight ACC decisions in the regular season and set a career-high with his 10th win against North Carolina. With his win over Georgia Tech, he became the seventh pitcher at FSU and first since 1985 to win 14 or more games in a season. Henry earned ACC Pitcher of the Week accolades twice as a senior and was one of 10 finalists for the Lowe's Senior Class Award. The Tallahassee, Fla., native led the pitching staff with three pickoffs in 2007. Henry gave up a run or less in nine of his 18 starts, while posting seven or more strikeouts in 10 of those starts.

TONY THOMAS, JR.* 2007

Collegiate Baseball Player of the Year

In a breakout season for the Seminole second baseman, Thomas was named National Player of the Year by Collegiate Baseball and Rivals.com. He garnered Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year and All-ACC first team accolades, while being named a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, Dick Howser Trophy and Brooks Wallace Award in 2007. The Valrico, Fla., native became the first Seminole to register 30 doubles, 100 hits and 30 stolen bases in a single season. He finished his junior campaign with 33 doubles which tied for the second most in a single-season at FSU. Thomas led the ACC in batting average with a .430 mark while ranking first in six other offensive categories (hits/game, run scored/game, doubles/game, total bases/game, on base percentage and slugging percentage). He also finished in the top 10 in four other categories including stolen bases/game, home runs/game, triples/game and walks per game. The junior second baseman posted 111 hits in 258 at-bats while scoring a team-high 91 runs. He recorded a team-high 11 home runs, while nine of his round trippers came on the road. Thomas reached base safely in 60 of 62 games in 2007 and finished the season with 37 multiple hit games to lead the team. He was named ACC Baseball Player of the Game three times in 2007. Thomas became the sixth consensus first team All-American in Florida State history.

Tony Thomas, Jr.

BUSTER POSEY 2007-2008

Golden Spikes Award, Dick Howser Trophy, Brooks Wallace Award, Johnny Bench Award Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, Rivals.com Player of the Year

In his first season behind the plate in 2007, Buster Posey was named a first team All-American by Collegiate Baseball, earned a spot on the All-ACC first team and was a finalist for the Johnny Bench Award, presented to the nation's top collegiate catcher. The sophomore finished the year ranked fifth in the ACC in hitting (.382), second in doubles (21), third in hits (94) and RBI (65) and fourth in runs scored with 66. Following his junior season, Posey would go down as arguably the most decorated player ever to come out of Florida State. He won every major Player of the Year award in 2008 including the Johnny Bench Award, given to the nation's top collegiate catcher. The consensus first team All-American, seventh in school history, finished the season as the national leader in six offensive categories including batting average (.463), hits (119), runs batted in (93), total bases (226), on-base percentage (.566) and slugging percentage (.879). His .463 batting average was the highest recorded in a single-season in Seminole baseball history. In the ACC, Posey led the league in eight categories while ranking in the top 10 in three others en route to being named conference Player of the Year. He became just the fourth student-athlete in ACC history to capture baseball's version of the triple crown as he finished 2008 leading the league in batting average, home runs (26) and RBI. Defensively, the Leesburg, Ga., native started 129 games behind the plate over a two year span. He posted a .989 career fielding percentage as a catcher, registered 12 pickoffs and held opposing runners at bay throwing out 40.8 percent of attempted base stealers.

STEPHEN CARDULLO 2009

In his first year as an everyday starter for the Seminoles in 2009, Stephen Cardullo was named a first team All-American at shortstop by Baseball America. The junior infielder further etched his name in the Florida State record books becoming just the second shortstop in school history to earn first team All-American accolades joining the late Dick Howser (1957 & 1958). Cardullo finished the season hitting .376 in 62 games with 20 doubles, 10 home runs and 51 RBI. The Coral Springs, Fla., native ranked second on the team in hits (89), runs (76) and stolen bases (20), while tying for the team lead in triples with three. He surpassed his career totals in every major offensive category in 2009 en route to being named an All-ACC second team honoree and a semifinalist for the Brooks Wallace Award. After moving to shortstop on March 17, 2009 against Florida, Cardullo fell into his own at the position making 47 starts. During that time, FSU responded with a 35-12 mark after beginning the season at 9-6. The move also seemed to spark his offensive production as Cardullo led all players with a .405 average recording nine home runs and 48 RBI during that span. Cardullo put a stamp on the season when he tied the school record and set the NCAA postseason record with a seven-hit performance against Ohio State in the championship game of the Tallahassee Regional.
