SEMINOLE RADIO NETWORK

The Seminole Sports Network, a regional radio network that covers three states, brings Florida State football to fans, alumni and college football enthusiasts throughout the southeast.

Originating on flagship station WTNT in Tallahassee, the network's 70 stations make it the largest collegiate radio network in the state.

The announcing team of Gene Deckerhoff and Vic Prinzi is in the third year with Deckerhoff handling the play-by-play duties and Prinzi, a former FSU quarterback, adding color commentary.

Gene Deckerhoff

Gene Deckerhoff is in his first year as a full-time staff member at Florida State as its radio and television coordinator although he has been a member of FSU's football broadcast team for the past six years.

Deckerhoff joined the Seminole athletic family in November of 1983 after five years at WCTV Channel 6 in Tallahassee where he served as sports director and sports anchor. Entering his sixth year as the "Voice" of the Seminoles, Gene first teamed with former FSU coach Bill Peterson before Vic Prinzi replaced Peterson as color commentator three years ago. Deckerhoff has also been the Seminoles' play-by-play announcer for basketball for eight years.

Since joining the FSU staff, Deckerhoff's responsibilities have grown to include executive producer of the Bobby Bowden Show as well as coordinator of all radio and television activity at FSU. Deckerhoff also co-hosts the Bobby Bowden Show.

When the Tampa Bay Bandits were looking for a play-by-play announcer two years ago, Gene Deckerhoff's name immediately surfaced. He teams up with Prinzi for that network also.

A graduate of the University of Florida ('66) with a bachelor's degree in international relations, Gene has worked at two television stations and four radio stations since entering the broadcasting field. He has received the Florida Sportscaster of the Year Award four times: in 1979, 1980, 1983 and 1984.

Deckerhoff and his wife have three sons.

Vic Prinzi

Joining Gene Deckerhoff for his third season as color commentator on Seminole football broadcasts is Vic Prinzi, a former Tribe quarterback.

A member of the football team from 1954-57, Prinzi is currently Vice President of Wholesale for Dulin Brokerage in Tampa, Florida. He also finds time to team up with Deckerhoff on the Tampa Bay Bandits network.

A long-time friend and teammate of actor Burt Reynolds, Prinzi played briefly with the New York Giants and Denver Broncos following graduation from FSU. He later spent 12 years in high school and college football coaching before joining Dulin in 1971.
