GREAT MOMENTS IN FSU HISTORY

While Florida State's home game against Cincinnati in 1978 wasn't exactly a prime-time college encounter in terms of national impact, the way in which the outcome was determined certainly has to be one of the most memorable moments in FSU history.

The Seminoles were 3-1 and were heavily favored over the Bearcats. The home fans were a bit disappointed when the teams battled to a 14-14 halftime tie. The anticipated Florida State runaway in the second half never materialized either, and as time wore on, there began to be some serious doubts.

Trailing 21-14 mid-way through the fourth quarter, Florida State scored on a 5-yard Jimmy Jordan pass to tight end Grady King. FSU Coach Bobby Bowden elected to go for two points at that stage, but Wally Woodham's pass fell incomplete, leaving the Tribe down by a point.

When the Seminole defense rose to the occasion and stopped Cincinnati on three plays, FSU was assured of a final try to pull it out.

Incomplete passes and a holding penalty seemed to have the Tribe doomed. The Bearcats were a virtual deadlock to pull the stunning upset. It was fourth down and 22. The ball was resting at the FSU 46. It would take a miracle. Jordan dropped straight back into the pocket. He fired over the middle to a streaking Sam Platt.

At first Platt worried about getting first down yardage as he headed for the east sideline. Suddenly, he turned upfield. Not only did he have the first down, but the endzone was in his sights. A miraculous 54-yard TD pass pulled the Seminoles from defeat, 26-21.

When was the last time Florida State won all of its home games? It happened six years ago, in 1980, when FSU was a perfect 7-0 in Doak Campbell Stadium. It's also the last time that the Seminoles played seven contests at home.

What team has Florida State beaten more than any other team? That dubious title falls to Virginia Tech, who has lost 14 times to the Seminoles. Right behind Tech is Miami, who has fallen 13 times to the Seminoles. Turning it around though, the Seminoles have lost 16 times to Miami and a leading 21 times to Florida.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RECORD

Ed Williamson (1947)

Ed Williamson was appointed Florida State's first coach just a few weeks before the inaugural football season. He had no stadium, no scholarships and not even a nickname for his team. With only 45 ex-high school players, his teams came close to winning three games that year although it ended with an 0-5-0 record. Williamson did not receive any pay for coaching the team.

Don Veller (1948–52)

Don Veller won 30 of his first 34 games as head coach at FSU before the Seminoles began playing a major college schedule. His five-year overall record was 31-12-1 and included an undefeated 8-0 season in 1950. That was also the year the Tribe moved into Doak Campbell Stadium. Veller, who still resides in Tallahassee, produced the second-highest winning percentage of all FSU coaches (.716). He is credited by many as laying the early foundation for the FSU football program.

Tom Nugent (1953–58)

Tom Nugent had a successful coaching stint at Florida State, as indicated by his 34-28-1 record in his six years at the Seminole helm. Florida State participated in two bowl games during Nugent's tenure and for the first time, in 1958, Florida State and Florida met on the football field. Nugent also served as athletic director while he was head coach of the Seminoles.

Perry Moss (1959)

Moss was one of two FSU coaches who spent only a year at the school. In his only season, FSU produced a 4-6-0 record. Midway through the season, reports were published that Moss would leave to join the Montreal Allouettes of the Canadian Football League. True to that report, Moss departed after a brief year at the Tallahassee school.

Bill Peterson (1960–70)

Bill Peterson arrived in Tallahassee with football in deep trouble. When he left 11 years and four bowl games later, he had become the most significant coach in the first quarter of a century of Seminole football. Under "Pete" the Seminoles were 62-42-11. The most memorable Peterson year was 1964 when that squad, featuring the "Seven Magnificents", went 9-1-1 and recorded the first ever win over the Florida Gators. Peterson, after serving as color commentator on the Seminole Sports Network for the past few years, is now athletic director of the University of Central Florida.

Larry Jones (1971–73)

Larry Jones compiled a 15-19 record in his three years at the Seminole helm. In his first two seasons, the popular coach led his teams to a 15-8 record but he is probably remembered most for the following season when his team did not win a game and lost 11. Jones is now an athletic administrator at Louisiana State.

Homecoming

Darrell Mudra (1974–75)

Darrell Mudra was a successful coach before arriving at Florida State and he was successful after he left. But during his two years in Tallahassee, his record was 4-18-0. Mudra inherited an 0-11 team and wasn't able in two years to bring the program back in to the glory years it had enjoyed under Bill Peterson. Mudra, who coached from the press box instead of the sidelines, is head coach at Northern Iowa.

Bobby Bowden (1976–Present)

The all-time winningest coach at Florida State, Bobby Bowden has put together an 83-32-2 record and a .718 winning percentage in 10 years at the Seminole helm. He sits among the nation's top 10 coaches in winning percentage AND victories. After taking over an FSU program in 1976 that had gone 4-29 in the three previous years, Bowden has taken the school to seven bowl games. Two of those bowl games—the 1980 and '81 Orange Bowls—were the first New Year's Day games for the FSU program. Bowden's teams have earned top 10 rankings four times and his last four teams (1982–85) have gone to post-season competition.

BOWL GAMES IN REVIEW

1950 Cigar Bowl
Florida State 19, Wofford 6

TAMPA, Fla. (Jan. 2, 1950)—Red Parrish scored twice and Buddy Strauss rushed for 132 yards to give underdog Florida State a 19-6 win over Wofford in the Cigar Bowl football game.

The victory was a come-from-behind effort by the Seminoles as the Terriers scored only moments into the contest to make the score 6-0. That touchdown came when Wofford defenders blocked a Bo Manuel punt and recovered it in the end zone. The extra point attempt was no good.

For the balance of the first quarter, Florida State mounted several drives that stalled around midfield while Wofford netted virtually nothing offensively. Early in the second period, however, Wofford had its first real threat. It died on the Seminoles' 16-yard-line when Bill Dawkins intercepted a pass and returned it to the Terrier 20. Shortly after, Parrish bolted to the Tribe's initial touchdown that tied the score at 6-6.

Late in the half the Seminoles got cranked up again. Strauss busted up the middle for a 15-yard gain and an interference penalty pushed Florida State into Wofford territory. On the next play Parrish lofted a left-handed halfback pass to Norman Eubanks who made a spectacular catch and the extra point sent the Seminoles to the locker room with a 13-6 lead.

The third period was a dogged defensive battle with no serious scoring threats. But in the final period FSU pinned Wofford deep in its own territory with a 63-yard Manuel punt. After the Terriers fumbled on their own eight, the Seminoles were unable to cash in as Parrish came up a foot short on fourth down.

Unable to move the ball out of the deep hole, Wofford was forced to punt giving the Seminoles excellent field position with only minutes remaining. This time Don Veller's team wasted no time cashing in. With only seconds showing on the clock, Parrish sliced in from the five and Florida State had a 19-6 upset victory.

1955 Sun Bowl
Texas Western 47,
Florida State 20

EL PASO, Tex. (Jan. 1, 1955)—Florida State's defense collapsed in the second quarter allowing Texas Western to move well ahead and capture a 47-20 Sun Bowl victory.

With the score tied 7-7 at the end of the first period, the underdog Miners put together a magnificent 28-point quarter that buried the Seminoles on this steamy January afternoon. Texas Western quarterback John Griner ran the option to perfection in that second quarter, and the Seminoles, fighting a blinding sun and the high altitude, just couldn't keep pace.

After leading 7-0 in the first four minutes of this 20th renewal of the Sun Bowl the Seminoles allowed the aroused Miners to tie the score late in the period. On the first play of the second quarter, Florida State fumbled on its own 24 and Texas Western needed only two plays to grab its first lead of the day. That touchdown came on a nifty run by Miner ace Jesse Whittenton.

At that point the flood gates opened. Tom Nugent's Seminoles made three more costly mistakes in the quarter that led directly to Texas Western touchdowns and the homestanding Miners eased into the locker room with a 34-7 advantage.

In the final half, the Miners ran the count to 41-7 before the Tribe managed to get on the board for the second time in the afternoon. Quarterback Len Swantic led a third quarter drive that was sparked by a 43-yard touchdown pass to Tom Feamster. But Western wasted no time in countering that Seminole score. On the next kickoff, Bob Forrest raced 95 yards for the final Miner touchdown of the day.

The Seminoles were able to tack on a final tally in the fourth period. Harry Massey hit Bill Odom on a 16-yard pass play for the score.

1958 Bluegrass Bowl
Oklahoma State 15,
Florida State 6

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (Dec. 13, 1958)—A frantic fourth-quarter comeback was not to be as Florida State couldn't fight off the bitter cold and Oklahoma State went home with a 15-6 victory in the only Bluegrass Bowl ever played.

A crowd of just over 7,000 was able to brave the 10-degree weather for the first-ever meeting between the two schools. Players on both teams wore tennis shoes in an effort to combat the frozen turf. It was the Seminole's first nationally televised game and a relatively obscure Howard Cosell handled the color that day.

Florida State got off to a good start in this one, mounting two drives deep into OSU territory. Both times it came up empty-handed though as field goal attempts from the 16 and 23 fell short.

Oklahoma State managed to dent the scoreboard early in the second quarter as swift halfback Duane Wood sprinted in from the Florida State 17.

Unable to get anything going in that second period, the Seminoles were forced to rely on their defense. The last assault came in the final two minutes of the half. The Cowboys drove inside the Florida State five and on fourth down with 1:15 left, FSU's Ron Hinson stopped Forrest Campbell one foot from paydirt. That sent the clubs to the locker room with the score 7-0.

Early in the third period the Seminoles did themselves in with a pair of fumbles. The second miscue set up the Cowboys at the Florida State 39. It took 10 plays but Wood finally scored his second touchdown and then caught a two-point conversion to make it 15-0.

1965 Gator Bowl
Florida State 36, Oklahoma 19

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Jan. 2, 1965)—A brilliant passing combination of Steve Tensi and Fred Biletnikoff rewrote the Gator Bowl record book and gave the upstart Seminoles an impressive 36-19 victory over Oklahoma in this post season event.

The Florida State victory will long be remembered as one of the greatest passing shows in the history of college football. Tensi completed 23 of 36 passes for 303 yards and five touchdowns while Biletnikoff hauled in 13 for 192 yards and four TDs. Both players signed professional contracts on the field at the completion of the game.

Oklahoma claimed the first break of the day as Tensi was intercepted. The Sooners marched to the Seminole 34 but on third down FSU defensive back Howard Ehler picked off an OU pass and sailed 63 yards for the initial touchdown. Later in the quarter the Sooners came back to claim the lead 7-6 but that lead lasted only as long as it took the Tribe to move 90 yards.

Phil Spooner was instrumental in the drive and Tensi continued to pick the OU defense apart. From the 15, Tensi hit Biletnikoff for a 12-7 lead. Twice more before the intermission, Tensi found Biletnikoff for touchdowns. The first score followed a George D'Allesandro fumble recovery and the second came on a long drive against the clock. The halftime score was 24-7.

Early in the second half Oklahoma recovered a Seminole fumble and cut the lead to 24-13, but as the third period drew to a close the Seminoles executed an 82-yard drive. On the last play of the quarter Tensi hit Don Floyd in the Oklahoma end zone for the touchdown.

With 10 minutes left and the score at 30-19, it was time for the Seminole defense to take over. Two drives late in the game came up short for the Sooners and finally FSU tacked on its final TD—a 14-yard Tensi-to-Biletnikoff toss that made it 36-19.

1966 Sun Bowl
Wyoming 28, Florida State 20

EL PASO, Tex. (Dec. 24, 1966)—Florida State's vaunted passing attack was not enough to overcome a stingy Wyoming defense and the Seminoles fell 28-20 in their second try for a Sun Bowl title.

Though the Seminoles got a couple of early breaks it was the Cowboys who first drew blood. The initial score came on a Jim Kiick plunge and the score stood 7-0 at the end of the first period. Florida State bounced back, however, as Bill Moreman fell on a Vic Washington fumble and FSU had the ball at the Wyoming 49. From there Kim Hammond found Ron Sellers for the tying touchdown.

The Seminoles managed to grab the lead in the game shortly before the intermission. This time Hammond hit T.K. Wetherell behind the Cowboy secondary for a 54-yard scoring strike. At the half it was 14-7.

It didn't take long for the Cowboys to tie the score. Early in the second half Wyoming quarterback Rick Egloff found Jerry Marion for a 39-yard touchdown. Late in the third quarter the Cowboys went ahead to stay. Kiick, who gained 135 yards on 23 carries, picked up 43 of them on a touchdown run that gave the Cowboys a 21-14 lead.

Florida State made a last-ditch attempt to regain a part of the lead as time ticked away in the final quarter. Hammond hit Ron Sellers in Wyoming territory. As the lanky receiver was hit, he fumbled the ball and it was recovered by teammate Chip Glass at the Cowboy five. But the tenacious Wyoming defense held in the final three minutes. From there Wyoming used a pair of 15-yard penalties and the running of Kiick to drive to the FSU 14 in the waning minutes. Egloff scampered into the end zone for the final Cowboy touchdown.

1967 Gator Bowl
Florida State 17, Penn State 17

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Dec. 30, 1967)—Penn State jumped to a commanding 17-point lead at intermission but Florida State battled back in the second half to gain an exciting 17-17 tie.

The Seminoles received the kickoff but were stalled at the Penn State 25. The Lions fumbled after one play but an intercepted pass gave them the ball back and they got the first score on a 27-yard field goal by Tom Sherman in the closing minutes of the first quarter.

Late in the second period Sherman passed to Jack Curry on a 10-yard touchdown play and then came back to hit All-American tight end Ted Kwalick with seconds remaining in the half. The Seminoles were completely stopped before intermission as Penn State threw up a stingy defense that kept Kim Hammond and his mates at bay.

The momentum changed in the second half, however. Penn State received the kick but was forced to punt. The Tribe drove quickly to the Lion one but couldn't punch the ball in. However, on the next series, the Lions gambled on fourth down at their own 15 and the Seminole defense held. Three plays later Hammond passed to Ron Sellers for the initial Florida State score.

When Lion halfback Charlie Pittman fumbled the ball on the kickoff the Seminoles were back in business at the Penn State 22. Passes to Sellers and Bill Moreman moved the ball to the one and from there Hammond took it on himself to cut the lead to 17-14.

With just over a minute to play in the game, Hammond directed a picture-perfect drive from the Seminole 31 to the Penn State 15. There Florida State was faced with a fourth-and-five situation with 17 seconds remaining. Coach Bill Peterson decided to go for the sure three points and a tie rather than to risk a 17-14 loss. Grant Guthrie booted the field goal and the 1967 Gator Bowl had co-champions.

1968 Peach Bowl
Louisiana State 31,
Florida State 27

ATLANTA, Ga. (Dec. 30, 1968)—Competing in its fourth consecutive bowl game, Florida State couldn't outscore Louisiana State and the Seminoles fell 31-27 in a soggy game that initiated Atlanta's Peach Bowl.

The Seminoles had been considered a slight favorite in the game until the teams took the field for the pre-game warmups. It was at that point that the rain began to fall and it didn't let up until the final minutes of the contest played at Georgia Tech's Grant Field.

Despite the rain, the Seminoles wasted little time getting on the scoreboard. LSU won the toss but the Tigers bobbled the ball and FSU's John Crowe pounced on the loose ball at the Tiger 36. Tom Bailey swept around right end of the game's first play from scrimmage and went all the way for the touchdown.

That was the only score of the first period, however, as the heavy rain hampered both teams. In the first period, the Seminoles recovered two more LSU fumbles and intercepted a Tiger pass.

Early in the second period Bill Cappleman capped a 75-yard drive with a 21-yard touchdown pass to Bill Gunter that gave the Tribe a 13-0 lead. LSU's first score came midway through the second period on a 39-yard punt return of a stray Bill Cheshire kick. A 32-yard field goal in the waning minutes of the half cut the Seminole lead to 13-10 at intermission.

The Tigers came roaring back in the third period and a pair of touchdowns staked them to a 24-13 lead. But the Seminoles were not finished. A fourth-quarter Cappleman to Sellers pass brought Florida State within five and with 6:15 left in the game it went on top 27-24 with a Cappleman-Sellers aerial and a two-point conversion pass to Chip Glass.

1971 Fiesta Bowl
Arizona State 45,
Florida State 38

TEMPE, Ariz. (Dec. 27, 1971)—In one of the most dazzling offensive shows in bowl history, Arizona State managed to score with 34 seconds remaining in the game to capture the first ever Fiesta Bowl 45-38.

Over 51,000 partisan Arizona State fans crowded into Sun Devil Stadium and Ray Scott was on hand to call the shots over a 140-station TV network. Florida State's initial drive stalled and Arizona State wasted no time in grabbing a 7-0 lead. FSU's Barry Smith brought the kickoff back 49 yards and like lightning Gary Huff and his mates tied the score. Huff's passes put the Tribe at the one and from there Paul Magalski got the six points.

Thirty-two points went on the board in the second quarter. The locals drew first blood but soon a field goal by Frank Fontes moved the Seminoles to within one at 14-13. The momentum seemed to swing to Florida State as it raced 63 yards on a later drive and added a two-point conversion to lead 21-14. With just over two minutes left in the half ASU's Danny White hit Steve Holden for a 55-yard scoring pass that tied it at 21-21.

But, at that point the Seminoles proved they had come to play. Huff put on a brilliant passing display, hitting Kent Gaydos for 46 yards to the Sun Devil 10. With time running out, Rhett Dawson snared his second touchdown pass of the day to give the Tribe a 28-21 lead at halftime.

The third quarter was all Arizona State. Holding the ball almost the entire quarter, the Sun Devils put 10 points on the board and led 31-28 heading into the final stanza. Early in that last quarter Florida State culminated a 75-yard drive with a field goal to tie the game 31-31. On an exchange of punts, Holden hurt the Seminoles again. This time he returned a Dwane Carroll punt 63 yards for a touchdown. Florida State came back to tie the game again as Dawson made a sensational touchdown grab between two defenders with 4:44 left in the contest.

A final ASU drive resulted in a Woody Green score with 34 seconds left to provide the final margin.

1977 Tangerine Bowl
Florida State 40,
Texas Tech 17

ORLANDO, Fla. (Dec. 23, 1977)—Florida State, making its first bowl appearance in seven years, demolished Texas Tech, 40-17, in the 32nd Tangerine Bowl.

A record-breaking crowd of 44,502 witnessed almost total domination by the Seminoles, who became the only Division I school currently playing major college football in Florida to achieve 10 victories in a single season.

FSU jumped ahead with 5:50 remaining in the opening quarter on a 23-yard Dave Cappelen field goal. It stayed that way until Mike Mock of Texas Tech evened the count with a 24-yarder early in the second quarter. At that point however, the Seminoles took over. It was a 93-yard kickoff return by Larry Key following the Tech field goal that gave the Seminoles the lead for good.

Later in the same quarter, quarterback Jimmy Jordan found tight end Grady King on a 37-yard scoring pass that boosted the Seminole lead to 16-3 at intermission.

The Seminoles continued to add to their cushion in the third quarter. First Jordan found Mike Shumann with a 40-yard scoring toss. Next Cappelen booted a 22-yard field goal. That made it 27-3.

Tech returned to the board with 7:46 remaining in the quarter on a 44-yard scoring pass to make it 27-9. The count remained that way until Wally Woodham found Roger Overby on a 15-yard scoring toss to increase the Seminole lead with just 3:34 left.

Neither team was through yet, however. Tech came back to score on a 21-yard run by Billy Taylor and with just 48 seconds remaining, FSU completed the scoring on a 44-yard pass involving Woodham and Chip Sanders.

1980 Orange Bowl
Oklahoma 24, Florida State 7

MIAMI, Fla. (Jan. 1, 1980)—Julius Caesar Watts and Heisman Trophy winner Billy Sims each rushed for more than 100 yards and a stingy Sooner defense held Florida State to 182 total yards as Oklahoma defeated Florida State 24-7 in the 46th annual Orange Bowl Classic.

For 17 minutes, it appeared that Florida State would see its dream of a 12-0 season and possible national championship come true as it took a 7-0 lead on a one-yard Mike Whiting touchdown run in the first quarter.

FSU had a chance to double its lead just moments later when punter Michael Keeling's kick was blocked by cornerback Bobby Butler and recovered on the Oklahoma 17 by Keith Jones.

After a first down, FSU failed to gain more than two yards on three tries and Rick Stockstill fumbled a snap from center on an attempted field goal try, which resulted in Oklahoma stopping the FSU drive and gaining possession on the Oklahoma 19.

Following a 25-yard pickup by Sims and a sack of six yards by James Gilbert, Watts kept the ball on a sweep to the right and ran 61-yards for a score.

Watts' run was a sample of things to come for the Seminoles. Following the kickoff, Jimmy Jordan's first pass was picked off by Bud Herbert, who would go on to intercept three passes on the night, and returned to the Seminole 10. Two plays later, Stanley Wilson got the call from the five and rambled in for the score and a 14-7 Sooner lead.

Fred Keeling made it 17-7 at the half with a 24-yard field goal and the Sooners were on their way to victory.

The remainder of the game was a defensive standoff until Sims took a lateral from Watts and raced 22 yards into the Seminole endzone at the 7:13 mark of the fourth quarter.

For the game, Sims ended up the leading ground gainer with 164 yards on 24 carries, Watts tallied 127 yards on 15 attempts. FSU was outgained in the game by a 447-182 margin.

1981 Orange Bowl
Oklahoma 18, Florida State 17

MIAMI, Fla. (Jan. 1, 1981)—It took something that Oklahoma was not supposed to be able to do well to beat Florida State in the 1981 Orange Bowl—pass. With time running out and the Seminoles leading 17-10, quarterback JC Watts—a swift quarterback who led a notorious Oklahoma running game, drilled an 11-yard touchdown pass to split end Steve Rhodes with 1:27 remaining.

Going for the win on the conversion, Watts rolled to his right and hit tight end Steve Valora to give the Sooners an 18-17 win over upset-minded Florida State in the 47th annual Orange Bowl Classic.

Six hours earlier, Georgia defeated Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl to wipe out any aspirations of a Seminole national championship. Ironically, the loss came in the same place (Orange Bowl) where hopes for a second undefeated regular-season were erased by the University of Miami, 10-9.

A Florida State fumble recovery and a missed field goal kept Oklahoma off the board for the first quarter and FSU took a 6-0 lead when Ricky Williams capped off a 70-yard touchdown drive with a one-yard plunge. Bill Capece converted and the Seminoles led by seven.

The score remained the same until two seconds remaining in the first half as Fred Keeling's 53-yard field goal attempt was good, as the Sooners moved to within four at 7-3.

Oklahoma took the second half kickoff and marched 78 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 lead. On a second and goal from the FSU four, halfback David Overstreet took a pitchout to the right and scored easily.

On the following series, FSU drove from its own 20 to the Oklahoma 27, only to watch Capece's 44-yard field goal attempt sail to the right. The Seminoles recovered a Watts fumble three plays later, however, and this time Capece's field goal from 19 yards was good and the Seminoles tied the score at 10.

With 13 minutes left in the game, Keeling dropped back to his own 18 to punt. The snap sailed through his hands and into the endzone where Bobby Butler recovered for a touchdown and a 17-10 Seminole lead.

Both teams traded punts and Oklahoma took over on its own 22-yard line trailing by seven with 3:30 remaining on the clock. At this point, Watts abandoned the forte of the Sooner offense— the running—and went to the air.

Facing a third and nine on the OU 23, Watts hit split end Steve Rhodes with a 42-yard pass to the FSU 35. Chet Winters hauled in a 14-yard pass to the Florida State 21 for another first down.

After one more first down on a ten-yard scramble by Watts, the senior quarterback found Rhodes in the endzone for the touchdown.

Two completed passes gave Florida State the ball on the Oklahoma 45 with just five seconds remaining. Capece attempted to give Florida State the win with a 62-yard field goal, but the attempt fell six yards short and the Seminoles had lost to the Sooners for the second straight time in the Orange Bowl.

1982 Gator Bowl
Florida State 31, W. Virginia 12

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Dec. 30, 1982)—Greg Allen rambled for 138 yards and two scores, while surprise starter Blair Williams threw for 202 yards and another touchdown as Florida State upset West Virginia, 31-12, in the 38th annual Gator Bowl Classic.

Allen, who was named MVP for his performance, scored on third quarter runs of 29 and one yards to break open a tight game and give the Seminoles a 31-6 lead into the fourth quarter.

The victory lifted the Seminoles to 9-3 on the year and gave FSU head coach Bobby Bowden a win in his first encounter against the Mountaineers—the team he served as head coach for from 1970–75.

"I'm happy that we won the Gator Bowl, it was a great victory for our team," Bowden said. "But I get no additional thrill over the fact that we beat West Virginia. I spent 10 years of my life in that town and working for that University. Those are good people up there and I still have a lot of friends in Morgantown."

Florida State drew first blood in the game—taking a 3-0 lead on a 20-yard field goal by Phil Hall with 3:30 remaining in the first quarter. After being frustrated by a blocked field goal attempt on the first drive of the game, the Mountaineers came back to tie the game on the second play of the second quarter when All-American Paul Woodside hit a 48-yard field goal.

But the Seminoles took the lead for good on the next play. Fielding Woodside's kickoff on the five, Billy Allen started up the middle and then broke to his left—going a Gator Bowl record 95 yards for a touchdown and a 10-3 FSU lead.

West Virginia added a late second-half field goal to cut the lead to 10-6, but Williams led FSU on a 63-yard drive for a touchdown with under one minute to play.

Taking over on its own 27, FSU got 31 yards from Greg Allen on a pair of sweep plays before the Mountaineers were hit with a 21-yard penalty on a pass interference call.

With just 15 seconds remaining and the ball on the 27, Williams lofted a pass into the right corner of the endzone, where Dennis McKinnon went high over two WVU defenders to make a spectacular catch and give the Seminoles a 17-6 intermission lead.

The third quarter belonged to Greg Allen. Carrying the ball just five times, the sophomore tailback logged 52 yards—capping both drives with touchdowns.

Florida State's defense, which was in the face of WVU quarterback Jeff Hostetler all night, controlled the final period by limiting the Mountaineers to just two possessions.

FSU limited Hostetler to just 10 completions in 28 attempts for 118 yards and two interceptions; while the Seminole offense was busy piling up 451 yards of total offense against a WVU defense that was ranked in the top 10 nationally.

1983 Peach Bowl
Florida State 28, N. Carolina 3

ATLANTA, Ga. (Dec. 28, 1983)—Making his first-ever start at Florida State, Eric Thomas fired a pair of first quarter touchdown passes to lead the Seminoles to a stunning 28-3 win over North Carolina in the 16th Annual Peach Bowl Classic.

Thomas, a third-year sophomore who played sparingly throughout the year, led FSU on two long scoring drives on the Seminoles' first two possessions. On the first drive, Thomas directed a nine-play, 62-yard march from the Florida State 38. The drive ended when Thomas found Weegie Thompson in the right corner of the endzone from 15 yards out for the touchdown.

Following a strong defensive effort that forced a Tar Heel punt after three downs, Thomas took over again. Displaying veteran composure in eluding a UNC blitz, he this time found Thompson with an 18-yard score for a 14-0 lead.

The Seminoles stretched their lead to 21-0 before the intermission. Midway through the second quarter, Pete Panton fell on a fumbled punt return at the UNC 16. Rosie Snipes scored on a one-yard run and Philip Hall added the conversion for a three touchdown lead at the half.

Turning in its best defensive effort of the season, Florida State held North Carolina to just three points on a 36-yard field goal by Brooks Barwick with 10:22 remaining in the game. Defensive MVP Alphonso Carreker led the Seminoles who held the outstanding Tar Heel running attack to only 32 net yards on the ground. In the game, UNC could manage only 198 yards in total offense.

In the second half, the Seminoles used a ball control offense that accounted for 265 yards on the ground to limit any hopes of a Carolina comeback. Greg Allen and Cletis Jones led FSU's ground assault—piling up a combined 176 yards on 37 carries.

Florida State scored its last touchdown on a one-yard run by Thomas after the Seminoles used an 11-play, 88-yard drive to eat up all but 31 seconds of the fourth quarter clock. For Thomas, his two touchdown passes and running of the option play earned him offensive MVP honors for the game.

1984 Citrus Bowl
Florida State 17, Georgia 17

ORLANDO, Fla. (Dec. 21, 1984)—Blocking its ninth punt of the season, Florida State scored late in the fourth quarter to escape with a 17-17 tie with Georgia, in front of 51,821 fans in the Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando. Leading 17-9 with 3:58 left, Georgia punter Chip Andrews dropped back to receive the center snap, when FSU's Lenny Chavers burst through the middle of the Bulldog line to block the punt. Special team's phenomenon Joe Wessel scooped up the loose ball and returned it 14 yards for his fourth touchdown of the season off of a blocked kick.

"I knew I was going to get it," Chavers said. "I went to the referee and told him I was going to do it."

Florida State, who fell behind 14-0 at the half, needed the blocked punt to tie the score at 17.

The Bulldogs took control in the second quarter, scoring on runs of two and four yards by running back Lars Tate, who gained 75 yards and was named Offensive Player of the Game.

Tate's second touchdown was set up when cornerback Kevin Harris picked off an Eric Thomas pass and returned it 18 yards to the FSU 13 with 1:22 remaining in the first half.

Florida State got on track early in the third quarter, as it marched 67 yards with the second half kickoff to set up a 32-yard field goal by Derek Schmidt.

The Seminoles' next score came with 14:12 left in the game when Tony Smith, who finished the day with 68 yards on 10 carries, bolted over from the one.

Held to 134 yards of total offense by a stingy Florida State defense, Georgia scored its only points of the second half with 12:10 left in the game on a 36-yard field goal by Kevin Butler.

The FSU defense was led by linebacker Henry Taylor and safety Billy Allen, both of whom registered 11 tackles.

While the defense had success stopping the Georgia offensive attack, Florida State's offense sputtered throughout much of the game, gaining only 246 yards total offense.

Georgia did mount a late scoring threat when it took possession of the ball on the Florida State 46-yard line with :21 seconds left. After two incomplete passes, the Bulldogs lined up to attempt a 70-yard field goal by All-American Kevin Butler. Butler's attempt fell just short as time expired.

FSU AIRS IT OUT FOR GATOR BOWL WIN

By Chris Smith,
Florida Times Union Sports Writer

By air and by land, Florida State assaulted Oklahoma State's nationally-ranked defense last night to capture the 41st Gator Bowl game 34-23 before a crowd of 79,417.

FSU freshman quarterback Chip Ferguson and senior tailback Tony Smith turned in career performances as the Seminoles piled up 569 yards in total offense against OSU's 14th-ranked defense.

Despite the absence of his three leading receivers, Ferguson drilled the Cowboys for a career-high 338 yards passing, including touchdown passes of 39 and 19 yards to sophomore Herb Gainer. Gainer himself had a career in his first start, catching seven passes for 148 yards.

Ferguson came out throwing and by night's end had completed 20 of 43 passes.

In the process of establishing a surprisingly effective passing game, the running game opened up for Smith, who gained a career-best 201 yards on 24 carries.

This was the worst yardage beating suffered by OSU this year, the previous being 432 by Missouri. It also matched Nebraska's total for most points scored against the Cowboys.

And it all came despite Ferguson having to operate without the services of regular wide-outs Hassan Jones (suspension) and Darrin Holloman (broken collarbone), plus top sub Phillip Bryant (bruised shin).

"We have confidence in all of our receivers," said Ferguson, who was named FSU's most valuable player. "Obviously, Hassan and Darrin are more experienced, but I never doubted that the others would catch the ball if I got it to them."

Gainer and sophomore Randy White, who entered the game without a college reception, turned in exceptional performances as starters. White became Ferguson's early target and ended with four catches for 87 yards.

"I think part of the reason we were so successful through the air was because Oklahoma State didn't seem to expect the pass," Gainer said. "They bit on practically every move."
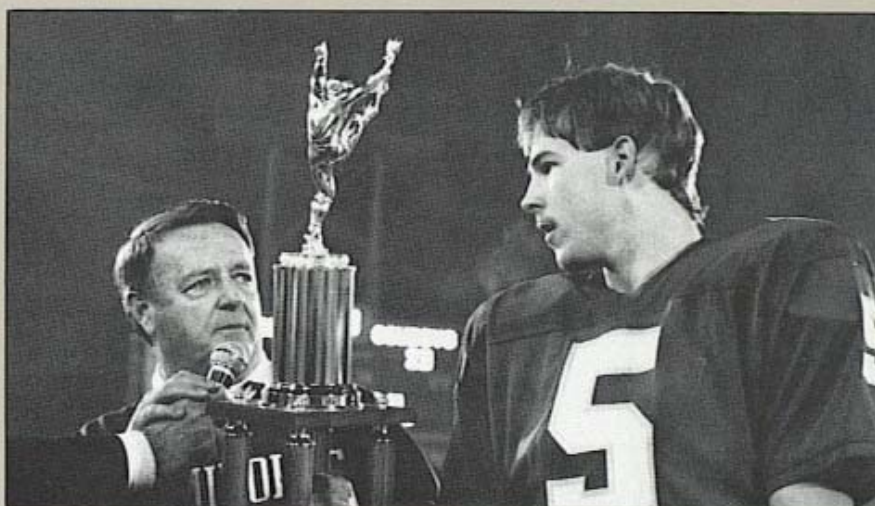

The Seminole defense held the Cowboys in check, meanwhile, as FSU built a 13-0 halftime lead and 27-3 advantage midway through the third quarter.

OSU finally did pierce the Seminoles' defense behind quarterback Ronnie Williams (21 of 43 passes for 251 yards and 2 TDs) and sophomore tailback Thurman Thomas (26 carries for 97 yards, plus a TD pass to Williams) to keep the game interesting.

But the bottom line was, OSU could not stop the Florida State offense.

"Our plan going in was to throw a lot, so I really wasn't surprised by the number of passes I attempted," Ferguson said.

"Our passing game opened the running game up," Smith said. "Their linebackers were taking such deep drops, a 5-yard gain was automatic."

The victory in the nationally televised game closed 18th-ranked FSU's season at 9-3, while the 19th-ranked Cowboys, 21-14 winners over South Carolina in last year's Gator Bowl, ended at 8-4.

"The defense kept us in it in the first half by continuously shutting them down," FSU head coach Bobby Bowden said. "You can't win at Florida State or anywhere else without a solid defense. Our guys showed that tonight."

The Cowboys now are 7-3 in post-season competition and 1-1 under head coach Pat Jones. FSU is 6-7-2 in bowls and 4-2-1 under Bowden.

" The defense kept us in it in the first half by continuously shutting them down. You can't win at Florida State or anywhere else without a solid defense. Our guys showed that tonight. **"

The Seminoles also won for the third time in four games against the Cowboys. The last meeting was in Tallahassee in 1978, won by FSU 38-20.

On the first play of FSU's first possession, Ferguson faked a handoff and then lofted a perfect bomb to White, covering 45 yards. On the next play, Ferguson drilled an 11-yarder to White. On the third play, Ferguson threw into the end zone to Gainer, but OSU's Melvin Gilliam picked it off.

The tone, however, was established. FSU's first running play didn't come until the ninth play and third series.

While the Cowboys went to their bread-and-butter, Thomas, Ferguson threw 26 times in the first half, completing 12 for 215 yards and a touchdown. Combined with a solid defensive effort, which limited Thomas to 55 yards on 13 attempts, and the eventual 90-yard performance of Smith, FSU built a 13-0 halftime lead.

The Cowboys had only one solid scoring opportunity, which they failed to convert on twice. After moving 58 yards to the FSU 25 midway through the first quarter, freshman placekicker Joey O'Donnell tried a 42-yard field goal. O'Donnell, who hit 6 of 11 attempts during the season with a long of 38 yards, missed it. But he was roughed by FSU's Terry Robinson, so the ball was moved 5 yards closer and he was given a second opportunity. He missed that one, too.

The Seminoles took over at their 20, and Ferguson immediately went back to the air. He opened with a 28-yard pass to Gainer and two 11-yarders, one to tight end Pat Carter, the other to Gainer.

With the ball at OSU's 28, Smith broke free, bounced off two tacklers and spun down to the 14-yard line. A roughing-the-passer penalty moved the ball to the 7, but FSU couldn't punch it in. So, in came placekicker Derek Schmidt, who connected on a 23-yard field goal attempt for a 3-0 lead with 2:28 remaining in the quarter.

After several exchanges, FSU finally mounted a 76-yard touchdown drive to take a 10-0 lead—Ferguson connecting with Gainer on a 39-yard scoring pass 2:31 before the half.

The Cowboys opened the second half with a 12-play drive, moving within range for a 33-yard field goal by freshman Brad Dennis.

FSU came right back, however, with a 12-play, 73-yard touchdown drive, capped by fullback Cletis Jones' 3-yard run. Keys to the drive were two third-down conversions: first, a 25-yard pass from Ferguson to Gainer on a 3rd-and-11 at FSU's own 38; then a 21-yard run by Smith on third-and-10 from OSU's 23.

On OSU's very next play from scrimmage, Williams attempted a flea-flicker, handing off to Thomas and then receiving a pitch to throw deep. Deion Sanders, however, intercepted the pass and returned it 28 yards to the OSU 36.

Five plays later, Ferguson connected with Gainer again for a touchdown, this time for 19 yards. Schmidt's conversion opened a 27-3 lead.

It might have ended there.

But OSU quick-hit the Seminoles for two touchdowns of its own. The first drive consumed 79 yards on five plays and took just 1:59. The scoring pass was a 29-yard screen pass from Williams to Thomas.

OSU's defense then arose, causing and recovering a fumble by Ferguson deep in Seminole territory. On a third-and-2 play at FSU's 27, Gilliam jarred Ferguson and the ball squirted back to the 12, where end Harry Roberts recovered.

On the next play, Williams handed off to Thomas, who in turn threw a pass to Williams, wide open on the left side for the touchdown. Dennis added the conversion, and suddenly the Cowboys were back in the game, trailing by 10 with 1:19 left in the third quarter.

That lasted about five minutes. For Ferguson and the Seminoles came back to mount a 9-play, 55-yard scoring drive for a 34-17 lead. Ferguson took it in on his own from a yard out.

Seminoles' Passing Surprised Cowboys

By Tom Kensler
The Daily Oklahoman Staff Writer

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—Perhaps Oklahoma State's defense would have fared better Monday night in the 41st Gator Bowl Classic if Florida State's top three receivers had played.

Sounds crazy, but think about it. The Cowboys were suckered into thinking FSU would feature its running game since replacement receivers Herb Gainer and Randy White had caught a total of just five passes for the season.

At least OSU would have been psychologically prepared for what happened if Hassan Jones (suspension), Darrin Holloman (injury) and Phillip Bryant (injury) had been available. The combined stats on those guys—71 catches for 1,421 yards and 13 touchdowns—scare you to death, those of Gainer and White might draw giggles. Certainly Oklahoma State couldn't have played much worse in the 34-23 Florida State victory.

With a redshirt freshman, Chip Ferguson, pushing the buttons, the air space above Gator Bowl Stadium Monday night resembled the skies above London during a buzz-bomb alert. Ferguson's missiles sailed everywhere, finding their way between OSU's zone defenders with uncanny consistency. When it was over, Ferguson had completed 20 of 43 passes for 338 yards and two touchdowns. He was so effective that Florida State did not call in its ground attack, led by Tony Smith's career-high 201 yards, until Ferguson had called nine consecutive pass plays to open the game.

"We didn't prepare totally like we should have," said Melvin Gilliam, OSU freshman cornerback who was picked on unmercifully. "We thought they'd run more."

Louis Campbell, OSU's defensive coordinator, knew all about Bobby Bowden, Florida State's pass-happy head coach. Campbell coached at Alabama before arriving in Stillwater last winter.

But even Campbell was surprised at FSU's game plan.

Or perhaps not . . .

"They attacked us right where they should have. They went after our cornerbacks (Gilliam and Demise Williams)," Campbell said. "They didn't throw the ball to the middle of the field where Mark Moore was. They didn't need to.

"In most big games, a Bobby Bowden team is going to do everything the first 15 plays and then settle into a mix of run and pass. The thing that surprised me is they did it (passed) the whole game. We certainly didn't expect that."

When it became evident Ferguson was throwing the ball down OSU's throat, Campbell tried everything—two-deep zones, three-deep zones, man-to-man coverage, nickel-back formations and linebacker and safety blitzes.

"That's all there is," he said. "I think our guys got gun-shy."

Ferguson kept drives alive with third-down sideline passes which just cleared the reach of linebackers and floated underneath the deep coverage of cornerbacks and safeties. He hit White for 45 yards to burn Gilliam on the first play from scrimmage, a move obviously designed to rattle the freshman. It worked—the cushion given receivers by OSU cornerbacks grew wider as the game progressed.

Oklahoma State linebackers James Ham and Ricky Adams were not a factor, as has been the case much of the season. The big surprise was the ability of Florida State's offensive line to hold out the Cowboy pass rush. Ferguson was sacked only twice and rarely was flushed from the pocket.

Campbell thought during the game about moving Moore to cornerback and said he probably should have. But there wasn't much else OSU could do but play better football. It didn't help that strong safety Mike Hudson played most of the game with what was later diagnosed as a fractured wrist.

This was only the second time in three years that Oklahoma State's defense cost the Cowboys the game. The other was a 34-24 loss to Nebraska this season.

"We'd get back in it (OSU scored 17 points in the third quarter to pull within 27-17), but then they'd drive right back for a touchdown," OSU coach Pat Jones said. "That surprised me. Normally we rise to the occasion. They moved the ball better on us than I thought they would.

"The kid (Ferguson) never did make a poor throw. We've played good against passing teams the last couple of years, but when a quarterback gets hot like that he's got to give you some help. He never did throw a bad pass. That's amazing for a freshman."

Smith's 201 yards were easily the most gained on Oklahoma State this season. He took advantage of Adams and Ham helping out in pass coverage.

"Their linebackers were taking such deep drops, a five-yard gain was automatic," Smith said.

OSU rolled up 405 yards in offense, but tailback Thurman Thomas managed just 97 yards on 26 carries for a 3.7 average. He did scoot 29 yards for a touchdown with a Ronnie Williams screen pass late in the third quarter and came back 1½ minutes later to throw a tailback-option pass to Williams for a 12-yard TD. Thomas now has thrown five passes in his college career and four have gone for touchdowns.

Thomas tried sweeps, traps and dives—the whole package. His longest gain went for 24 yards. Last year he gained 155 yards in the Gator Bowl win over South Carolina.

"Florida State is a much better team than South Carolina," Jones said. "They get to the ball quicker."

There was a silver lining in the play of Williams (21 of 43 for 251 yards and two touchdowns) and freshman receiver Hart Lee Dykes (eight catches for 104 yards and a TD), who had a coming-out party. But it was a bitter ending for 16 seniors who led OSU to three consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history. Oklahoma State lost its last three games of 1985 to finish 8-4.

This OSU team never reached its potential. Or perhaps it did. The secondary was vulnerable, the linebackers and offensive line were overrated and the kicking game barely passed as Division I-A caliber.

"I don't think it was senioritis," Jones said. "But there wasn't enough competitive depth within the team. Not enough players had to fight for positions.

"And when we're 8-1 and then lose to Iowa State, with a senior-dominated team they're not going to get as excited."

An obvious conclusion to draw is it being yet another case of a Big Eight Conference team failing to be prepared against a sophisticated passing attack.

Not true, Campbell insisted.

"Florida State didn't do anything we hadn't seen, at least on film," he said. "They just did it better.

"I think that we were outcoached and outplayed. For some reason our guys were flat. They had us on our heels. When we got behind (13-0 at halftime) we couldn't get into the flow of the game.

One has to wonder if getting into Florida State's space-age flow could have been possible. When the Big Eight made the arrangement with the Orange, Fiesta and Gator bowls, one league coach who asked not to be identified said the team that drew the Gator Bowl would face the toughest opponent, tougher than Michigan and Penn State in that order. He may be right.

WE ASKED BOBBY BOWDEN FOR ONE GOOD REASON WHY HARDEE'S SHOULD SPONSOR FSU ATHLETICS. HE GAVE US 42.

In 1985 alone, 42 students on athletic scholarships graduated from FSU. Their fields of study were as varied as their names and faces, but each shared a common goal: A college education . . . and those athletic scholarships were helping them get it.

Moreover, for many athletes from disadvantaged families, an athletic scholarship wasn't just the best way to an education, it was the only way. Hardee's corporate sponsorship of FSU Athletics is our way of helping these young men and women achieve their goals in life as well as on the field of play. We know that the excitement of a touchdown pass is fleeting, but the benefits of a college education go on and on.

They'll win a lot of their games, lose some . . . but in the end every graduating athlete will come out a winner. And at Hardee's, we think that's pretty special.
