Tribe Tidbit

When Burt Reynolds came to visit Florida State in the spring of 1954, it was just to do that, visit. He had already signed with the University of Miami and was set on going there to play the next fall. But FSU Head Coach Tom Nugent had other plans for Reynolds. Nugent convinced young Buddy to play for FSU at a time when there was no such thing as a letter of intent. Ultimately, Reynolds played for Florida State for one season and part of another.

Tribe Tidbit

FSU's greatest pro ever was Oakland Raiders wide receiver Fred Biletnikoff, who starred for 13 seasons with the Silver and Black and made the Pro Bowl four times in five years. Biletnikoff played in nine AFL/AFC title games and a pair of Super Bowls. He was MVP in Superbowl XI and in 1988 became the first former Seminole elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In 1991, he will add membership in the College Football Hall of Fame to his list of honors when he becomes only the second FSU player ever inducted into that body this December.

Tribe Tidbit

When the Seminoles play the Michigan Wolverines before over 100,000 fans at Michigan Stadium, they will be playing on a turf new to Michigan players, but familiar to the Seminoles. Last spring, Michigan replaced the artificial turf on its stadium floor with Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT), the same surface as Florida State's playing field. The PAT system was developed by two Purdue University staffers and is said to be the "perfect compromise" between regular grass and artificial surfaces. PAT can keep the field dry, playable, and divot-proof even in downpours of up to one inch of rain per hour. The FSU-Michigan game will be only the second game on the PAT in Michigan Stadium.

Part of the reason for Florida State's success in 1990 was its low rate of turnovers. In fact, the Seminoles ranked third in the nation last year in turnover margin as it committed only 16 turnovers but forced its opponents into 37. A listing of FSU's 1990 turnovers, by game:

GAME*	PLAYER	TURNOVER	NOTES
East Carolina	Edgar Bennett	Fumble after Catch	Second Play of Year
Ga. Southern	Reggie Johnson	Fumble

In 1982, Florida State football really was a family affair for the Bowdens. That season, Coach Bowden's son, Jeff, was a wide receiver for Florida State while his brothers, Terry and Tommy were volunteer and part-time assistants on that staff. All three have gone into coaching as a profession. Terry is now the head coach at Samford University in Birmingham and Jeff is an assistant at Southern Miss. Tommy is the offensive coordinator at Auburn.

Coach Bobby Bowden has done well in homecoming games during his career at Florida State. His record is a perfect 15-0 in homecoming matchups.

TV TIME

Over the past five years, Bobby Bowden's enormously successful Florida State teams have been attracting a national following by virtue of their many appearances on national television. The entire country has learned what fans in Tallahassee and across the state of Florida have known for years — that Seminole football, Bobby Bowden style, is exciting and fun to watch.

With a diversified offense, talented athletes, and a schedule annually rated among the nation's toughest, not to mention Bowden's propensity for the occasional trick or two, the major television networks vie to broadcast FSU's top games each year.

In the 15 years since Bowden took over the helm of the FSU program, the Seminoles have been televised 57 times by six major networks, and have a 38-17-2 record in those games. Forty-five of those 57 broadcasts went to a nationwide audience, including five last season and seven in 1989!

Florida State's battles with intra-state rivals Miami and Florida annually attract network coverage as FSU has been featured on television against one of those two teams 20 times since 1968, including eight times in the last four seasons. But the Tribe's matchups with "traditional" national powers like Michigan, Nebraska and Penn State have gained just as much attention, as have regional battles with Clemson, South Carolina and LSU, to name a few.

This season, Florida State fans across the country can watch the Seminoles kick off the 1991 college football season against Brigham Young at the Disneyland Pigskin Classic and will see the Tribe take on the highly-regarded Michigan Wolverines in Ann Arbor as both contests will be nationally televised. In addition to November games against Miami and Florida sure to attract the networks' attention, midseason games against Syracuse and LSU could gain national exposure.

Since FSU's first television appearance — against Oklahoma State in the 1958 Bluegrass Bowl — Florida State has appeared on ABC 33 times, on CBS 10 times, on NBC four times and on WTBS nine times. In addition, the Seminoles have been featured on ESPN 11 times since 1985, including five times in 1989. Florida State made 44 of its 71 network television appearances during the decade of the '80s and reached its maximum number of regular season showings in two of the last three years. Since 1958, the Seminoles own a 44-24-3 record on television.

In addition to national coverage, most Florida State games not picked up by a national network are broadcast throughout the state of Florida and to other locales in the U.S. by cable's Sunshine Network, either live or on tape delay. The Sunshine Network also carries a weekly highlight show during the season, providing further exposure of Seminole football.

THE BOBBY BOWDEN SHOW

The Bobby Bowden Show is televised in the Southeast's top four media markets and throughout the entire state of Florida.

Bobby Bowden is joined each week on the show by co-hosts Gene Deckerhoff and the Seminoles' No. 1 fan — Burt Reynolds. Every Sunday during football season, Bowden and Deckerhoff review the action-packed highlights of the previous day's games while Reynolds hosts a special feature called "Great Moments in Florida State History."

Following is a list of stations which are scheduled to carry the show in 1991.

Tribe Tidbit

Football at Florida State has become a family affair over the years. This year's team boasts the twin talents of the Ostaszewski brothers, but they are not the first brothers, nor the first twins, to play at FSU. In all, 14 sets of brothers have donned the Garnet and Gold while the Ostaszewski twins were preceeded by the Rice's, Barry and Beryl, who lettered for the Seminoles from 1968-70. Also on this team is one of the brothers with the longest separation between times at FSU as Marvin Jones joined his brother Fred on FSU's lettermen list last year. FSU's all-time sibling list:

Dawson, Bill (1962-64) & Rhett (1969-71)
Futch, Greg (1977-80) & Gary (1979-81)
Glass, Chip (1966-68) & Mike (1970-72)

Tribe Tidbit

Robert Urich was another prominent figure to play for Florida State University football. Urich was recruited as a center for the Seminoles in 1965. During the second half of the Alabama game that fall, Urich was hit in the head by the knee of an Alabama player. Later in the week, on his way to practice, Urich collapsed and was hospitalized. He was diagnosed with a mid-brain injury—a mild blood clot. This ended the football career of Robert Urich but it didn't stop him from continuing to strive for fame in other areas. He is now an accomplished actor.

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

SEMINOLES IN THE PROS

The success of Bobby Bowden's last four Seminole teams has brought national attention to the players who starred for those teams, which includes attention from professional football clubs. As a result, more and more Florida State alumni are starring in the National Football League.

In 1991, even more former Seminoles dot NFL rosters as eight of Florida State's 14 seniors were drafted or signed free agent contracts last spring. Five Seminoles were drafted in 1991, topped by tight end Reggie Johnson, taken in the second round by the Denver Broncos. All-America wide receiver Lawrence Dawsey was chosen by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers early in the second round. Three more Seminoles' names were called over the next four rounds and three others signed free agent contracts.

From 1956, when Tom Feamster became the first Seminole to sign with a professional team, to 1990, nine Tribe football players have been drafted in the first round. All-America cornerback Deion Sanders and single season rushing leader Sammie Smith were the first FSU duo ever to go in the first round in the same year when they were chosen in the 1989 draft by the Atlanta Falcons and Miami Dolphins, respectively. One year later, tailback Dexter Carter joined them as a first-round selection when he was picked by the San Francisco 49ers.

But it's not always the first or even second round Seminole choices who make the greatest marks on the NFL. Jesse Solomon and Garth Jax are examples of late round selections who are still in the league after five years while Jamie Dukes, Zeke Mowatt and Dennis McKinnon signed as free agents and went on to find success in the pros. More recently, Marion Butts played in the shadows of Sammie Smith at FSU, but was drafted in the seventh round in 1989 and was one of the league's leading rushers last year.

The 1990 draft saw seven Seminoles picked and four more sign free agent contracts. Of those 11 players, six spent all or part of the 1990 season on a professional roster, led by Carter, second round selection LeRoy Butler (Green Bay) and third-rounders Peter Tom Willis (Chicago) and Ronald Lewis (San Francisco). They were joined by fifth-round choice Eric Hayes (Seattle) and ninth-rounder Odell Haggins (San Francisco) to make up the largest FSU group ever to impact on the league in one season. Their addition to FSU's NFL alumni list makes a total of 24 former Seminoles who played on a National Football League team last year.

The list of Florida State players in the pros is heavily weighted with Seminoles from the teams of the '80s and '90s. Nearly half (43) of the 88 FSU players ever to be drafted or sign free agent contracts did so in the past 11 years.

Without a doubt, FSU's greatest pro ever was Oakland Raiders wide receiver Fred Biletnikoff, a 14-year pro who made the Pro Bowl four times. Biletnikoff also played in nine AFL/AFC title games and a pair of Super Bowls. He was the Most Valuable Player in Super Bowl XI and in 1988 became the first former Seminole elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

A listing of former Seminoles in the NFL by position shows defensive backs leading the way as 17 FSU grads have roamed the secondary for professional teams. Those selections may have had to cover one of 14 former Seminoles who played receiver in the pros. There have been 11 defensive linemen and nine FSU linebackers in professional football at one time or another.

A total of 10 NFL running backs wore the Garnet and Gold while eight offensive linemen went to Florida State. Six tight ends, not including Johnson, and six former FSU quarterbacks made it at least one season in pro football.

Entering 1991, 24 former Seminoles are on professional rosters and several have had long and illustrious careers. Offensive tackle Ken Lanier is the prime example as he enters his 11th season with the Denver Broncos, for whom he has started four Super Bowls. Last year, Buffalo Bills punter Rick Tuten joined Lanier in a select group of eight former Seminoles who have played in a Super Bowl.

Tribe Tidbit

In 1956, 10 years after the football program at Florida State was started, Tom Feamster became the first Seminole to sign with a professional team. In 1990, eight Tribe football players were drafted, although Florida State had only 14 seniors on the team.

Last year, senior tight end Reggie Johnson led a parade of eight Seminoles drafted by NFL teams when he was taken in the second round by the Denver Broncos.

SEMINOLE AWARD WINNERS

Throughout Florida State's 44 years of college football, Seminole players have garnered nationwide attention and awards. FSU's football tradition lists seven consensus All-Americans, dating back to Fred Biletnikoff's selection in 1964 and continuing through 1989 when LeRoy Butler became the third Seminole defensive back in as many years to earn the honor.

In all, Florida State players have been chosen to at least one All-America team over 100 times. Since the Florida State football program began in 1947, nearly 90 FSU athletes have been drafted by or signed with National Football League teams and went on to play professional football.

In the past four years, four former or current Florida State athletes have attained the highest honors in collegiate or professional football, while another reached finalist status following the 1989 season.

Two of the award-winners, Fred Biletnikoff and Ron Sellers, are among the three whose numbers have been retired by FSU. Biletnikoff and Sellers were the first Seminoles inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame and College Football Hall of Fame, respectively.

Paul McGowan and Deion Sanders earned their awards following their senior seasons. They were recognized as the best at their respective positions, McGowan winning the 1987 Dick Butkus Award for linebackers and Sanders picking up the 1988 Jim Thorpe Award for defensive backs.

In 1989, Michael Tanks continued to add to the Seminole tradition as a finalist for the Outland Trophy, presented annually to the nation's top interior lineman. Tanks, a center from Atlanta, Ga., was one of three finalists for the award and narrowly missed becoming Florida State's third national award winner in four seasons.

Deion Sanders accepts the 1988 Jim Thorpe Award in Oklahoma City, Okla. as the nation's top defensive back.

1987 Butkus Award Winner Paul McGowan

Calling the Butkus Award for linebackers, "the Heisman of the Bad Guys", FSU inside linebacker Paul McGowan accepted the award from Dick Butkus himself in December of 1987.

The 6-1, 230-pound McGowan won the award by a one point margin over Ohio State's Chris Spielman. He was selected by an 11-member panel of sportswriters, broadcasters, NFL officials and former coaches.

McGowan won the award based on a senior season in which he totalled 150 tackles, including 97 solo stops and 11 behind the line of scrimmage. He led the FSU defense into the national spotlight as the team attained a number two national ranking and a season-ending win over Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl. He was named to the Associated

A few months after winning the award, McGowan was chosen Florida's 1987 Amateur Athlete of the Year and honored at the state's annual Hall of Fame banquet.

Biletnikoff First Seminole in Pro Football Hall of Fame

For more than 20 years of high school, college, and pro football, Fred Biletnikoff played just one position — wide receiver. He had no desire to play anything else. Biletnikoff started catching passes in high school in Erie, Pa., continued at Florida State, and went on to star with the NFL's Oakland Raiders.

When his 14-year professional career came to an end after the 1978 season, Biletnikoff had caught 589 passes to rank seventh on the all-time list. He had amassed 8,974 yards and 76 touchdowns. The Raiders never had a losing season during Biletnikoff's tenure; he caught 40 or more passes in 10 straight years and his 76 touchdowns are the most by a Raider.

Although he lacked breakaway speed, Biletnikoff's intangible qualities more than made up for it. By his junior season at FSU, Biletnikoff and quarterback Steve Tensi formed an unbeatable duo. In 1964, he ranked fourth in the nation with 57 receptions for 11 touchdowns. FSU's first consensus All-America choice, he capped a super year with four touchdown catches in the Gator Bowl.

Biletnikoff was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the second round of the 1965 draft and went on to star as a rookie and throughout his career. By his third season with the Raiders, he began to make his mark in pro football, catching 40 passes for 895 yards and five touchdowns as the Raiders went to the AFL championship. He went on to make the AFL all-star team twice and four AFC-NFC Pro Bowls in five years. He played in nine AFL/AFC title games, two Super Bowls and was named the MVP of Super Bowl XI.

The hard work and dedication Fred Biletnikoff displayed throughout his brilliant professional career paid off in 1988 when he became the first Seminole inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

BELOW: Fred Biletnikoff is the only former Seminole in the Professional Football Hall of Fame after a stellar career with the Oakland Raiders.

Sellers Chosen for College Football Hall of Fame

In December of 1988, former Seminole great Ron Sellers became the first Florida State player inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

After holding the collegiate football receiving record for over 20 years, Sellers' mark was broken by Tulane's Marc Zeno in 1987. During his FSU career, which spanned from 1966-68, Sellers caught 212 passes for 3,598 yards. He averaged 119.9 reception yards per game and caught passes in a record 30 consecutive games. He had 18 100-yard receiving days and five 200-yard games. Despite the wealth of talent Florida State has had at receiver since Sellers' day, he remains the top man to ever play the position at the school and still owns nearly every Seminole receiving record. He is credited with starting the fine receiving tradition at FSU.

The Seminoles played in three bowl games during the Sellers era. A player labeled "can't play, too fragile" by Coach Bill Peterson at first, Sellers was later called "simply the best college receiver I ever saw".

Sanders Wins 1988 Jim Thorpe Award

Sure to be remembered as one of the best athletes ever to wear a Florida State uniform, cornerback Deion Sanders won the Jim Thorpe Award as the top defensive back of 1988 in a January ceremony in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Sanders won the award over University of Florida safety Louis Oliver and Arkansas' Steve Atwater after a career which saw him gather 14 career interceptions, not including three in bowl games. Sanders took Florida State's defense to a higher level and made FSU opponents wary of passing into the Seminole secondary, leading the team to its second straight 11-1 record and a national ranking of third in 1988.

During Sanders' career, Florida State teams attained their top national rankings and amassed a 38-9-1 record and four bowl wins. In his junior and senior seasons, FSU went 11-1 with a pair of New Year's Day bowl wins. In 1988, Sanders ranked in the top 10 nationally with five interceptions in nine games. He was also the nation's top punt returner, averaging 15.2 yards per return.

Sanders made one of his greatest plays at the Sugar Bowl game in New Orleans, La. in his final moments in a Florida State uniform. With FSU clinging to a 13-7 lead and SEC champion Auburn driving for a potential game-winning score, Sanders made a leaping interception at the goal-line to preserve the win and Florida State's number three national ranking.

Sanders ranks second on the FSU career charts in interceptions and holds most of the punt return records as well. He provided Florida State fans with countless thrills with his dazzling punt returns, three of which went for touchdowns, and interceptions. His seven career touchdowns is certainly a high for an FSU defensive back.

A three-sport star in football, baseball and track at Florida State, Sanders is a two-sport athlete as a pro, playing professional baseball and football for the Atlanta Braves and Falcons, respectively.

During his career, Deion Sanders returned three punts and four interceptions for touchdowns.

Florida State appeared in its ninth straight bowl game and its 12th in 15 years under Bobby Bowden in 1990. Overall, it was FSU's 20th bowl game in its 44-year football history. That mark is tops among the state's Division I schools. Miami ranks second in the state in bowl appearances, playing in their 19th in 1990 in 65 years of competition. Florida has appeared in 18 bowls in 84 years in the football business.

Ed Williamson

Ed Williamson was appointed Florida State's first coach just a few weeks before the inaugural football season. He had no stadium, no scholarships and not even a nickname for his team. With only 45 ex-high school players, his teams came close to winning three games that year although it ended with an 0-5 record. Williamson did not receive any pay for coaching the team.

Don Veller

Don Veller won 30 of his first 34 games as head coach at FSU before the Seminoles began playing a major college schedule. His overall record included an undefeated 8-0 season in 1950. That was also the year the Tribe moved into Doak Campbell Stadium. Veller, who still resides in Tallahassee, owns the second highest winning percentage of FSU coaches (.716). He is widely credited with laying the early foundation for the FSU football program.

Tom Nugent had a successful coaching stint at Florida State as indicated by his 34-28-1 record in his six years at the Seminole helm. Florida State participated in two bowl games during Nugent's tenure and for the first time, in 1958, Florida State and Florida met on the football field. Nugent also served as athletic director while he was head coach of the Seminoles.

Perry Moss

Moss was one of two FSU coaches who spent only a year at the school. Midway through the season, reports were published that Moss would leave to join the Montreal Allouettes of the Canadian Football League. True to that report, Moss departed after a brief year at the Tallahassee school.

Bill Peterson

(1960-70) 62-42-11

Bill Peterson arrived in Tallahassee to take over a football program in deep trouble. When he left 11 years and four bowl games later, he had become the most significant coach in the first 25 years of Seminole football. Under "Pete" the Seminoles were 62-42-11. The most memorable Peterson year was 1964 when that squad, featuring the "Seven Magnificents", went 9-1-1 and recorded FSU's first ever win over the Florida Gators.

Larry Jones

(1971-73) 15-19-0

Larry Jones compiled a 15-19 record in his three years at the Seminole helm. In his first two seasons, the popular coach led his teams to a 15-8 record, but he is probably remembered most for the following season when his team did not win a game.

Darrell Mudra

Darrell Mudra was a successful coach before arriving at Florida State and he was successful after he left. Mudra inherited an 0-11 team and in two years wasn't able to bring the program back into the glory years it enjoyed under Bill Peterson. Mudra coached from the press box instead of the sidelines.

Bobby Bowden

(1976-PRESENT) 132-42-3

Current Seminole Head Coach Bobby Bowden is one of the top coaches in all of college football. He ranks second on the active coaching list in victories and his overall winning percentage of .731 puts him in the top five nationally. Last season, he became only the 11th man ever to record 200 coaching victories.

Bowden has taken the Florida State program to the top of college football as he has led FSU to 12 bowl appearances, including five on New Year's Day. Florida State is currently riding a nine-game unbeaten streak in bowl games which has given Bowden the best winning percentage in bowl games among all active coaches with a 10-3-1 record (.750). Each of his last four teams has finished the season ranked in the Top Four in the country by the Associated Press, a feat matched or bettered by only three other programs in history. Over his 15-year tenure at FSU, the Seminoles have averaged 8.8 wins a season.

Bowden is far and away the top coach ever at Florida State. The school won only 150 games in 29 seasons prior to his arrival, while Bowden has totalled 132 victories in his 15 seasons for a winning percentage of .754 at FSU.

Tribe Tidbit

Jack Haskins was the first and only assistant to head coach Ed Williamson in 1947. Howard Danford, the athletic director of FSU at that time, brought Haskins into the FSU program — as the circus coach. But, Danford decided Haskins would also be the backfield coach for the 1947 Seminoles. Nowadays, Bobby Bowden has a full-time staff of 10 assistants as well as a recruiting coordinator, volunteer assistant and five graduate assistants.

BOWL GAMES IN REVIEW

1950 Cigar Bowl

FLORIDA STATE _____ 19
WOFFORD _____ 6

TAMPA, Fla. (Jan. 2, 1950) - Red Parrish scored twice and Buddy Strauss rushed for 132 yards to give underdog Florida State a 19-6 win over Wofford in the Cigar Bowl.

The victory was a come-from-behind effort by the Seminoles as the Terriers scored only moments into the contest to make the score 6-0. That touchdown came when Wofford defenders blocked a Bo Manuel punt and recovered it in the end zone. The extra point attempt was no good.

For the balance of the first quarter, Florida State mounted several drives that stalled around midfield while Wofford netted virtually nothing offensively. Early in the second period, however, Wofford had its first real threat. It died on the Seminoles' 16-yard line when Bill Dawkins intercepted a pass and returned it to the Terrier 20. Shortly after, Parrish bolted to the Tribe's initial touchdown to tie the score at 6-6.

Late in the half the Seminoles got cranked up again. Strauss busted up the middle for a 15-yard gain, and an interference penalty pushed Florida State into Wofford territory. On the next play, Parrish lofted a left-handed halfback pass to Norman Eubanks, who made a spectacular catch; the extra point sent the Seminoles to the locker room with a 13-6 lead.

The third period was a dogged defensive battle with no serious scoring threats. But in the final period, FSU pinned Wofford deep in its own territory with a 63-yard Manuel punt. After the Terriers fumbled on their own 8, the Seminoles were unable to cash in as Parrish came up a foot short on fourth down.

Unable to move the ball out of the deep hole, Wofford was forced to punt, giving the Seminoles excellent field position with only minutes remaining. This time Don Veller's team wasted no time cashing in. With only seconds showing on the clock, Parrish sliced in from the five and Florida State had a 19-6 upset victory.

1955 Sun Bowl

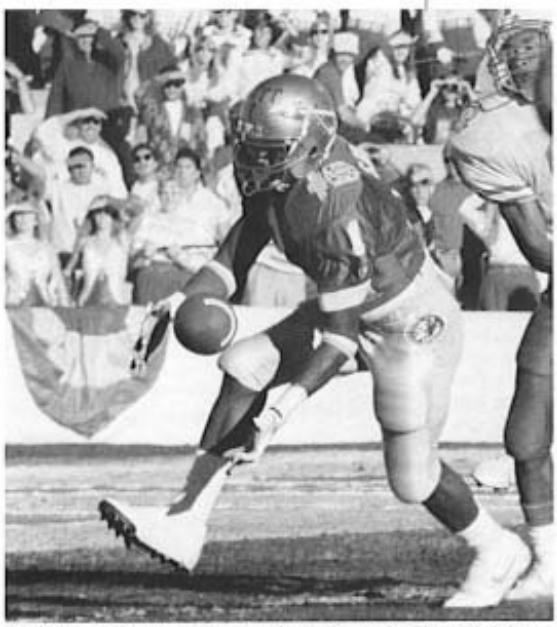
TEXAS WESTERN _____ 47
FLORIDA STATE _____ 20

EL PASO, Texas (Jan. 1, 1955) - Florida State's defense collapsed in the second quarter, allowing Texas Western to move well ahead and capture a 47-20 Sun Bowl victory

With the score tied 7-7 at the end of the first period, the underdog Miners put together a magnificent 28-point quarter that buried the Seminoles on this steamy January afternoon. Texas Western quarterback John Griner ran the option to perfection in that second quarter, and the Seminoles, fighting a blinding sun and high altitude, just couldn't keep pace.

After leading 7-0 in the first four minutes of this 20th renewal of the Sun Bowl, the Seminoles allowed the Miners to tie the score late in the period. On the first play of the second quarter, Florida State fumbled on its own 24 and Texas Western needed only two plays to grab its first lead of the day. That touchdown came on a nifty run by Miner ace Jesse Whittenton.

At that point the flood gates



As a freshman, Shannon Baker starred in the Seminoles' Fiesta Bowl victory over Nebraska as he contributed to FSU's run of nine straight bowl games without a loss since 1980.

opened. Tom Nugent's Seminoles made three more costly mistakes in the quarter that led directly to Texas Western touchdowns, and the homestanding Miners eased into the locker room with a 34-7 advantage.

In the final half, the Miners ran the count to 41-7 before the Tribe managed to get on the board for the second time in the afternoon. Quarterback Len Swantic led a third quarter drive that was sparked by a 43-yard touchdown pass to Tom Feamster. But Western wasted no time in countering that Seminole score. On the next kickoff, Bob Forrest raced 95 yards for the final Miner touchdown of the day.

The Seminoles were able to tack on a final tally in the fourth period. Harry Massey hit Bill Odom on a 16-yard pass play for the score.

1958 Bluegrass Bowl

OKLAHOMA STATE ____ 15
FLORIDA STATE ____ 6

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (Dec. 13, 1958) - A frantic fourth-quarter comeback was not to be as Florida State couldn't fight off the bitter cold and Oklahoma State went home with a 15-6 victory in the only Bluegrass Bowl ever played.

A crowd of just over 7,000 braved 10-degree weather for the first-ever meeting between the two schools. Players on both teams wore tennis shoes in an effort to combat the frozen turf. It was the Seminoles' first nationally televised game and a relatively obscure broadcaster named Howard Cosell handled the broadcast that day.

Florida State got off to a good start in this one, mounting two drives deep into OSU territory. Both times it came up empty-handed though, as field goal attempts from the 16 and 23 fell short.

Oklahoma State managed to dent the scoreboard early in the second quarter when swift halfback Duane Wood sprinted in from the Florida State 17.

Unable to get anything going in that second period, the Seminoles were forced to rely on defense. The last assault came in the final two minutes of the half. The Cowboys drove inside the Florida State 5, but on a fourth down play with 1:15 left, FSU's Ron Hinson stopped Forrest Campbell one foot from paydirt. That sent the clubs to the locker room with the score 7-0.

Early in the third period the Seminoles did themselves in with a pair of fumbles. The second miscue set up the Cowboys at the Florida State 39. It took 10 plays, but Wood finally scored his second touchdown and caught a two-point conversion to make it 15-0.

Tribe Tidbit

FSU's appearance in the inaugural Blockbuster Bowl marked the fourth time in school history the Seminoles played in the first year of a bowl game. The Seminoles were also in the first Bluegrass, Peach and Fiesta contests.

1965 Gator Bowl

FLORIDA STATE ____ 36
OKLAHOMA ____ 19

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Jan. 2, 1965) - The brilliant passing combination of Steve Tensi and Fred Biletnikoff rewrote the Gator Bowl record book and gave the upstart Seminoles an impressive 36-19 victory over Oklahoma in this post-season event.

The Florida State victory will long be remembered as one of the greatest passing shows in the history of college football. Tensi completed 23 of 36 passes for 303 yards and five touchdowns while Biletnikoff hauled in 13 for 192 yards and four TDs. Both players signed professional contracts on the field at the completion of the game.

Oklahoma claimed the first break of the day as Tensi was intercepted. The Sooners marched to the Seminole 34, but on third down, FSU defensive back Howard Ehler picked off an OU pass and sailed 63 yards for the initial touchdown. Later in the quarter, the Sooners came back to claim a 7-6 lead. That lead lasted only as long as it took the Tribe to move 90 yards.

Phil Spooner was instrumental in the drive and Tensi continued to pick the OU defense apart. From the 15, Tensi hit Biletnikoff for a 12-7 lead. Twice more before the intermission, Tensi found Biletnikoff for touchdowns. The first score followed a George D'Alessandro fumble recovery and the second came on a long drive against the clock. The halftime score was 24-7.

Early in the second half, Oklahoma recovered a Seminole fumble and cut the lead to 24-13, but as the third period drew to a close the Seminoles executed an 82-yard drive. On the last play of the quarter, Tensi hit Don Floyd for the touchdown.

With 10 minutes left and the score at 30-19, it was time for the Seminole defense to take over. Two drives late in the game came up short for the Sooners and FSU finally tacked on its final TD - a 14-yard Tensi-to-Biletnikoff toss that made the final 36-19.

1966 Sun Bowl

FLORIDA STATE ____ 20

EL PASO, Texas (Dec. 24, 1966) - Florida State's vaunted passing attack was not enough to overcome a stingy Wyoming defense, and the Seminoles fell 28-20 in their second try for a Sun Bowl title.

Though the Tribe got a couple of early breaks, it was the Cowboys who drew first blood. The initial score came on a Jim Kiick plunge, and the score stood 7-0 at the end of the first period. Florida State bounced back, however, as Bill Moremen fell on a Vic Washington fumble and FSU had the ball at the Wyoming 49. From there, Kim Hammond found Ron Sellers for the tying touchdown.

The Seminoles managed to grab the lead in the game shortly before the intermission. This time Hammond hit T.K. Wetherell behind the Cowboy secondary for a 54-yard scoring strike. At the half it was 14-7.

It didn't take long for the Cowboys to tie the score. Early in the second half, Wyoming quarterback Rick Egloff found Jerry Marion for a 39-yard touchdown. Late in the third quarter the Cowboys went ahead to stay. Kiick, who gained 135 yards on 23 carries, picked up 43 yards on a touchdown run to give the Cowboys a 21-14 lead.

Florida State made a last-ditch attempt to regain a part of the lead as time ticked away in the final quarter. Hammond hit Sellers in Wyoming territory. As the lanky receiver was hit, he fumbled the ball and it was recovered by teammate Chip Glass at the Cowboy five. But the tenacious Wyoming defense held in the final three minutes. Wyoming used a pair of 15-yard penalties and the running of Kiick to drive to the FSU 14 in the waning minutes. Egloff scampered into the end zone for the final Cowboy touchdown.

FLORIDA STATE	17
PENN STATE	17

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Dec. 30, 1967) - Penn State jumped to a commanding 17-point lead at intermission but Florida State battled back in the second half to gain an exciting 17-17 tie.

The Seminoles received the opening kickoff, but the drive stalled at the Penn State 25. The Lions fumbled after one play, but an interception gave them the ball back, and they scored first on a 27-yard field goal by Tom Sherman in the closing minutes of the first quarter.

Late in the second period, Sherman passed 10 yards to Jack Curry for a touchdown and then came back to hit All-America tight end Ted Kwalick with seconds remaining in the half. The Seminoles were completely stopped before intermission as Penn State mounted a stingy defense that kept Kim Hammond and his mates at bay.

The momentum changed in the second half, however. Penn State received the kick but was forced to punt. The Tribe drove quickly to the Lion 1, but couldn't punch the ball in. On the next series, the Lions gambled on fourth down at their own 15 and the Seminole defense held. Three plays later, Hammond passed to Ron Sellers for the initial Florida State score.

When Lion halfback Charlie Pittman fumbled the ball on the kickoff, the Seminoles were back in business at the Penn State 22. Passes to Sellers and Bill Moremen moved the ball to the 1 and from there Hammond took it on himself to cut the lead to 17-14.

With just over a minute to play in the game, Hammond directed a picture-perfect drive from the FSU 31 to the Penn State 15. There Florida State was faced with a fourth-and-five situation with 17 seconds remaining. Coach Bill Peterson decided to go for the sure three points and a tie rather than risk a 17-14 loss. Grant Guthrie booted the field goal and the 1967 Gator Bowl had co-champions.

1968 Peach Bowl

LOUISIANA STATE	31
FLORIDA STATE	27

ATLANTA, Ga. (Dec. 30, 1968) - Competing in its fourth consecutive bowl game, Florida State couldn't outscore Louisiana State and the Seminoles fell 31-27 in a soggy game that initiated Atlanta's Peach Bowl.

The Seminoles were considered a slight favorite in the game until the teams took the field for pre-game warmups. At that point, the rain began to fall and it didn't let up until the final minutes of the contest played at Georgia Tech's Grant Field.

Despite the rain, the Seminoles wasted little time getting on the scoreboard. LSU won the toss but the Tigers bobbled the ball on the kickoff and FSU's John Crowe pounced on it at the Tiger 36. Tom Bailey swept around right end on the game's first play from scrimmage and went all the way for the touchdown.

That was the only score of the first period, however, as a heavy rain hampered both teams. In the first quarter, the Seminoles recovered two more LSU fumbles and intercepted a Tiger pass.

Early in the second quarter, Bill Cappleman capped a 75-yard drive with a 21-yard touchdown pass to Bill Gunter that gave the Tribe a 13-0 lead. LSU's first score came midway through the second period on a 39-yard punt return of a stray Bill Cheshire kick. A 32-yard field goal in the waning minutes of the half cut the Seminole lead to 13-10 at intermission.

The Tigers came roaring back in the third quarter, and a pair of touchdowns staked them to a 24-13 lead. But the Seminoles were not finished. A fourth-quarter Cappleman-to-Sellers pass brought Florida State within five, and with 6:15 left in the game FSU went on top 27-24 on a Cappleman-Sellers aerial and a two-point conversion pass to Chip Glass. The Seminole lead was short-lived as LSU drove in for the winning touchdown with 2:39 left in the game. The Tribe's last ditch effort fell short when a fourth-down pass intended for Sellers was tipped away in the waning moments, leaving FSU on the short end of a 31-27 score.

1971 Fiesta Bowl

ARIZONA STATE _____ 45
FLORIDA STATE _____ 38

TEMPE, Ariz. (Dec. 27, 1971) - In one of the most dazzling offensive shows in bowl history, Arizona State managed to score with 34 seconds remaining in the game to capture the first ever Fiesta Bowl, 45-38.

Over 51,000 partisan Arizona State fans crowded into Sun Devil Stadium and Ray Scott was on hand to call the shots over a 140-station TV network. Florida State's initial drive stalled and Arizona State wasted no time in grabbing a 7-0 lead. FSU's Barry Smith brought the kickoff back 49 yards and like lightning Gary Huff and his mates tied the score. Huff's passes put the Tribe at the 1 and from there Paul Magalski got the six points.

Thirty-two points went on the board in the second quarter. The locals drew first blood, but soon a field goal by Frank Fontes moved the Seminoles within one at 14-13. The momentum seemed to swing to Florida State as it raced 63 yards on a later drive and added a two-point conversion to lead 21-14. With just over two minutes left in the half, ASU's Danny White hit Steve Holden for a 55-yard scoring pass that tied it at 21-21.

At that point, the Seminoles proved they had come to play. Huff put on a brilliant passing display, hitting Kent Gaydos for 46 yards to the Sun Devil 10. With time running out, Rhett Dawson snared his second touchdown pass of the day to give the Tribe a 28-21 lead at halftime.

The third quarter was all Arizona State. Holding the ball almost the entire quarter, the Sun Devils put 10 points on the board and led 31-28 heading into the final stanza. Early in that last quarter, Florida State culminated a 75-yard drive with a field goal to tie the game at 31-31. On an exchange of punts, Holden hurt the Seminoles again. This time he returned a Duane Carrell punt 63 yards for a touchdown. Florida State came back to tie the game again as Dawson made a sensational touchdown grab between two defenders with 4:44 left in the contest.

A final ASU drive resulted in a Woody Green score with 34 seconds left to provide the final margin.

1977 Tangerine Bowl

FLORIDA STATE _____ 40
TEXAS TECH _____ 17

ORLANDO, Fla. (Dec. 23, 1977) - Florida State, making its first bowl appearance in seven years, demolished Texas Tech 40-17 in the 32nd Tangerine Bowl.

A record-breaking crowd of 44,502 witnessed almost total domination by the Seminoles, who became the first major college football team in Florida to achieve 10 victories in a single season.

FSU jumped ahead with 5:50 remaining in the opening quarter on a 23-yard Dave Cappelen field goal. It stayed that way until Mike Mock of Texas Tech evened the count with a 24-yarder early in the second quarter. It was a 93-yard kickoff return by Larry Key following the Tech field goal that gave the Seminoles the lead for good.

Later in the same quarter, quarterback Jimmy Jordan found tight end Grady King on a 37-yard scoring pass that boosted the Seminole lead to 16-3 at intermission.

The Seminoles continued to add to their cushion in the third quarter. First Jordan found Mike Shumann with a 40-yard scoring toss. Next Cappelen booted a 22-yard field goal that made it 27-3, FSU.

Tech returned to the board with 7:46 remaining in the quarter on a 44-yard scoring pass to make it 27-9. The count remained that way until Wally Woodham found Roger Overby on a 15-yard scoring toss to increase the Seminole lead with just 3:34 left.

Neither team was through yet, however. Tech came back to score on a 21-yard run by Billy Taylor and with just 48 seconds remaining, FSU completed the scoring on a 44-yard pass from Woodham to Chip Sanders.

1980 Orange Bowl

OKLAHOMA _____ 24
FLORIDA STATE _____ 7

MIAMI, Fla. (Jan. 1, 1980) - Julius Caesar Watts and Heisman Trophy winner Billy Sims each rushed for more than 100 yards and a stingy Sooner defense held Florida State to 182 total yards as Oklahoma defeated Florida State 24-7 in the 46th annual Orange Bowl Classic.

For 17 minutes, it appeared Florida State would see its dream of a 12-0 season and possible national championship come true as it took a 7-0 lead on a 1-yard Mike Whiting touchdown run in the first quarter.

FSU had a chance to double its lead just moments later when punter Fred Keeling's kick was blocked by cornerback Bobby Butler and recovered on the Oklahoma 17 by Keith Jones.

After a first down, FSU failed to gain more than two yards on three tries and Rick Stockstill fumbled a snap from center on an attempted field goal try, which resulted in Oklahoma stopping the FSU drive and gaining possession at its 19.

Following a 25-yard pickup by Sims and a sack by James Gilbert, Watts kept the ball on a sweep to the right and ran 61 yards for a score.

Watts' run was a sample of things to come for the Seminoles. Following the kickoff, Jimmy Jordan's first pass was picked off by Bud Herbert, who would intercept three passes on the night, and returned to the Seminole 10. Two plays later, Stanley Wilson got the call from the five and rambled in for the score and a 14-7 Sooner lead.

Fred Keeling made it 17-7 at the half with a 24-yard field goal and the Sooners were on their way to victory.

The remainder of the game was a defensive standoff until Sims took a lateral from Watts and raced 22 yards into the Seminole end zone at the 7:13 mark of the fourth quarter.

For the game, Sims gained 164 yards on 24 carries and Watts tallied 127 yards on 15 attempts. FSU was outgained in the game by a 447-182 margin.

1981 Orange Bowl

FLORIDA STATE 17

MIAMI, Fla. (Jan. 1, 1981) - Oklahoma was not supposed to be able to pass. But that's what it took for the Sooners to beat Florida State in the 1981 Orange Bowl. With time running out and the Seminoles leading 17-10, J.C. Watts - a swift quarterback who led a notorious Oklahoma running game - drilled an 11-yard touchdown pass to split end Steve Rhodes with 1:27 remaining.

Going for the win on the conversion, Watts rolled to his right and hit tight end Steve Valora to give the Sooners an 18-17 win over upset-minded Florida State in the 47th annual Orange Bowl Classic.

Six hours earlier, Georgia defeated Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl to wipe out any aspirations of a Seminole national championship. Ironically, the loss came in the same place (Orange Bowl) where hopes for a second undefeated regular season were erased by the University of Miami, 10-9.

A Florida State fumble recovery and a missed field goal kept Oklahoma off the board for the first quarter and FSU took a 6-0 lead when Ricky Williams capped off a 70-yard touchdown drive with a 1-yard plunge. Bill Capece converted and the Seminoles led by seven.

The score remained the same until OU's Fred Keeling hit a 53-yard field goal with two seconds remaining in the half as the Sooners moved to within four at 7-3.

Oklahoma took the second half kickoff and marched 78 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 lead. On second and goal from the FSU four, halfback David Overstreet took a pitchout to the right and scored easily.

On the following series, FSU drove from its own 20 to the Oklahoma 27, only to watch Capece's 44-yard field goal attempt sail to the right. The Seminoles recovered a Watts fumble three plays later, and this time Capece's field goal from 19 yards was good and the Seminoles tied the score at 10.

With 13 minutes left in the game, Keeling dropped back to his own 18 to punt. The snap sailed through his hands and into the end zone where Bobby Butler recovered for a touchdown and a 17-10 Seminole lead.

The teams traded punts and Oklahoma took over on its own 22-yard line, trailing by seven with 3:30 on the clock. At this point, Watts abandoned the forte of the Sooner offense - running - and went to the air.

Facing a third and nine on the OU 23, Watts hit split end Steve Rhodes with a 42-yard pass to the FSU 35. Chet Winters hauled in a 14-yard pass to the Florida State 21 for another first down.

After one more first down on a 10-yard scramble by Watts, the senior quarterback found Rhodes in the end zone for the touchdown.

Two completed passes gave Florida State the ball on the Oklahoma 45 with just five seconds remaining. Capece attempted to give Florida State the win with a 62-yard field goal, but the attempt fell six yards short and the Seminoles had lost to the Sooners for the second straight time in the Orange Bowl.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Dec. 30, 1982) - Greg Allen rambled for 138 yards and two scores, while surprise starter Blair Williams threw for 202 yards and another touchdown as Florida State upset West Virginia 31-12 in the 38th Annual Gator Bowl Classic.

Allen, who was named MVP for his performance, scored on third-quarter runs of 29 and 1 yards to break open a tight game and give the Seminoles a 31-6 lead into the fourth quarter.

The victory lifted the Seminoles to 9-3 on the year and gave FSU Head Coach Bobby Bowden a win in his first encounter against the Mountaineers - the team he coached from 1970-75.

Florida State drew first blood in the game - taking a 3-0 lead on a 20-yard field goal by Philip Hall with 3:30 remaining in the first quarter. Frustrated by a blocked field goal attempt on the first drive of the game, the Mountaineers came back to tie the game on the second play of the second quarter when All-America Paul Woodside hit a 48-yard field goal.

The Seminoles took the lead for good on the next play. Fielding Woodside's kickoff on the five, Billy Allen started up the middle and then broke to his left - going a Gator Bowl record 95 yards for a touchdown and a 10-3 FSU lead.

West Virginia added a field goal to cut the lead to 10-6, but Williams led FSU on a 63-yard drive for a touchdown with under one minute to play in the half.

Taking over on its own 27, FSU got 31 yards from Greg Allen on a pair of sweep plays before the Mountaineers were hit with a 21-yard penalty on a pass interference call. With just 15 seconds remaining and the ball on the 27, Williams lofted a pass into the right corner of the end zone, where Dennis McKinnon went high over two WVU defenders to make a spectacular catch and give the Seminoles a 17-6 intermission lead.

The third quarter belonged to Greg Allen. Carrying the ball just five times, the sophomore tailback logged 52 yards - capping both drives with touchdowns.

Florida State's defense, which was in the face of WVU quarterback Jeff Hostetler all night, controlled the final period by limiting the Mountaineers to two possessions.

FSU held Hostetler to 10 completions in 28 attempts for 118 yards and two interceptions, while the Seminole offense was busy piling up 451 yards of total offense against a WVU defense ranked in the top 10 nationally.

1983 Peach Bowl

FLORIDA STATE _____ 28
NORTH CAROLINA _____ 3

ATLANTA, Ga. (Dec. 28, 1983) - Making his first-ever start at Florida State, Eric Thomas fired a pair of first-quarter touchdown passes to lead the Seminoles to a stunning 28-3 win over North Carolina in the 16th Annual Peach Bowl Classic.

Thomas, a third-year sophomore who played sparingly throughout the year, led FSU on two long scoring drives on the Seminoles' first two possessions. On the first drive, Thomas directed a nine-play, 62-yard march from the Florida State 38. The drive ended when he found Weegie Thompson in the right corner of the end zone from 15 yards out for the touchdown.

Following a strong defensive effort that forced a Tar Heel punt after three downs, Thomas took over again. Displaying veteran composure in eluding a UNC blitz, he found Thompson again with an 18-yard score for a 14-0 lead.

The Seminoles stretched their lead to 21-0 before the intermission. Midway through the second quarter, Pete Panton fell on a fumbled punt return at the UNC 16. Rosie Snipes scored on a 1-yard run and Philip Hall added the conversion for a three-touchdown lead at the half.

Turning in its best defensive effort of the season, Florida State held North Carolina to just three points on a 36-yard field goal by Brooks Barwick with 10:22 remaining in the game. Defensive MVP Alphonso Carreker led the Seminoles, who held the outstanding Tar Heel running attack to only 32 net yards. In the game, UNC could manage only 198 yards in total offense.

In the second half, the Seminoles used a ball control offense that accounted for 265 yards on the ground to limit any hopes of a Carolina comeback. Greg Allen and Cletis Jones led FSU's assault, piling up a combined 176 yards on 37 carries.

Florida State scored its last touchdown on a 1-yard run by Thomas after the Seminoles used an 11-play, 88-yard drive to eat up all but 31 seconds of the fourth-quarter clock. Thomas' two touchdown passes and running off the option play earned him offensive MVP honors.

1984 Citrus Bowl

FLORIDA STATE _____ 17
GEORGIA _____ 17

ORLANDO, Fla. (Dec. 21, 1984) - By blocking its ninth punt of the season, Florida State scored late in the fourth quarter to escape with a 17-17 tie with Georgia in front of 51,821 fans in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

Leading 17-9 with 3:58 left, Georgia punter Chip Andrews dropped back to receive the center snap when FSU's Lenny Chavers burst through the middle of the Bulldog line to block the punt. Special team phenomenon Joe Wessel scooped up the loose ball and returned it 14 yards for his fourth touchdown of the season off of a blocked kick.

"I knew I was going to get it," Chavers said. "I went to the referee and told him I was going to do it."

Florida State fell behind 14-0 at the half, and needed the blocked punt to tie the score at 17.

The Bulldogs took control in the second quarter, scoring on runs of 2 and 4 yards by running back Lars Tate, who gained 75 yards and was named Offensive Player of the Game.

Tate's second touchdown was set up when cornerback Kevin Harris picked off an Eric Thomas pass and returned it 18 yards to the FSU 13 with 1:22 remaining in the first half.

Florida State got on track early in the third quarter, as it marched 67 yards with the second half kickoff to set up a 32-yard field goal by Derek Schmidt.

The Seminoles' next score came with 14:12 left in the game when Tony Smith, who finished the day with 68 yards on 10 carries, bolted over from the 1.

Held to 134 yards of total offense by a stingy Florida State defense, Georgia scored its only points of the second half with 12:10 left in the game on a 36-yard field goal by Kevin Butler.

The FSU defense was led by linebacker Henry Taylor and safety Billy Allen, both of whom registered 11 tackles.

While the defense had success stopping the Georgia offensive attack, Florida State's offense sputtered throughout much of the game, gaining only 246 yards of total offense.

Georgia did mount a late scoring threat when it took possession of the ball on the Florida State 46-yard line with 21 seconds left. After two incomplete passes, the Bulldogs lined up to attempt a 70-yard field goal by All-America Kevin Butler. Butler's attempt fell just short as time expired.

1985 Gator Bowl

FLORIDA STATE _____ 34
OKLAHOMA STATE _____ 23

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Dec. 30, 1985) - Freshman quarterback Chip Ferguson threw for 338 yards and a pair of touchdowns and Tony Smith added 201 yards rushing as Florida State rolled over Oklahoma State 34-23 in the 41st Annual Gator Bowl Classic.

FSU, which entered the game minus its top three receivers, fooled Oklahoma State by throwing on 15 of the first 20 plays of the game. Two Derek Schmidt field goals of 23 and 39 yards, with a 39-yard touchdown play to Herb Gainer sandwiched in between, gave FSU a 13-0 halftime lead.

Oklahoma State got on the scoreboard immediately following the intermission when a Ronnie Williams-directed drive of 63 yards ended in a 33-yard field goal by Brad Dennis.

But Ferguson, who was named the game's MVP, went back to the air, taking the Seminoles 73 yards on the next series and handing off to senior fullback Cletis Jones for a 3-yard touchdown run. An interception by Deion Sanders immediately gave the ball back to FSU and Ferguson, working from the OSU 36-yard line, used just five plays before hitting Gainer once again on a 19-yard touchdown pass. That sent the score to 27-3 in the Seminoles' favor.

Oklahoma State didn't give up; Williams' marching 79 yards on the next series and passing 29 yards to All-America tailback Thurman Thomas for a Cowboy TD. Following a Ferguson fumble, Williams handed off to Thomas, who threw back to the quarterback for a 12-yard touchdown that closed the score to 27-17.

Early in the fourth quarter, Ferguson scored from 1 yard out to give the Seminoles a 17-point cushion. The Cowboys added a late touchdown on a Williams-to-Hart Lee Dykes 31-yard pass play.

FSU sophomore wide receiver Randy White, who had never caught a pass in college, caught four first-half passes for 87 yards while Gainer, who had caught just five during the regular season, hauled in seven for 148 yards and two TDs. Smith's 201 rushing yards came on just 24 carries, many of them on draw plays that FSU mixed effectively with the pass.

The Seminole defense held the heralded Thomas in check the entire game, holding him to 97 yards on 26 attempts.

Last year's Blockbuster Bowl saw only the second matchup ever between two Division 1-A coaches with more than 200 wins apiece when Joe Paterno's Penn State team and Bobby Bowden's Florida State Seminoles did battle in Miami.

Florida State finished the season with a 9-3 record while defending Gator Bowl champion OSU fell to 8-4 before a crowd of 79,417.

1986 All-American Bowl

FLORIDA STATE	27
INDIANA	13

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (Dec. 31, 1986) - Tailback Sammie Smith rushed for 205 yards and two touchdowns as Florida State scored a 27-13 win over Indiana in the 10th Annual All-American Bowl.

Although Florida State was outgained in total yards and time of possession, Indiana was its own worst enemy, missing four scoring opportunities inside the FSU 31-yard line. The Hoosiers gained 383 yards to the Seminoles' 342 and held onto the ball almost 15 minutes more than FSU.

The Hoosiers scored first in the game. After driving 60 yards in 13 plays, Pete Stoyanovich kicked a 35-yard field goal to give his team the 3-0 lead.

FSU turned to Smith, a redshirt freshman. He ran for 28 yards on four carries and caught a pass for seven more as the Seminoles moved down the field. His 4-yard TD run capped the drive. Derek Schmidt's PAT was blocked as FSU took a 6-3 lead.

Florida State picked up another touchdown before the half when Smith scored on a 9-yard romp. The Seminoles would carry that 13-3 lead into intermission after another Indiana drive stalled with a missed field goal.

FSU made it 20-3 on the first possession of the second half when Smith ran three times for 20 yards and the Holloman brothers did the rest. The drive was sparked by a 36-yard reverse by Darrin, while senior Tanner collected 15 yards, including eight on a touchdown run.

IU came right back on a long drive of its own, but Stoyanovich missed a third time, this one from 49 yards out. The Hoosier defense continued to hold the Seminoles and late in the third period, Indiana made an attempt to get back into the game. First, Tony Buford pulled in a 20-yard pass at the FSU 37. Freshman running back Anthony Thompson then gained 17 tough yards on five carries to push the Hoosiers to the FSU 4. Fullback Andre Powell closed the gap to 20-10 with a 2-yard plunge at the 1:19 mark of the quarter.

Following an interception in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter, Indiana drove 56 yards on seven plays and a Stoyanovich 30-yard field goal closed the score to 20-13.

But FSU marched right back behind a handful of carries by Smith that netted 44 yards, and scored on a 10-yard run by Tanner Holloman.

For his performance, Smith was awarded the MVP trophy and the Seminoles finished the season with a 7-4-1 record.

1988 Fiesta Bowl

FLORIDA STATE	31
NEBRASKA	28

TEMPE, Ariz. (Jan. 1, 1988)—Florida State quarterback Danny McManus hit wide receiver Ronald Lewis on a fourth-and-15 touchdown play late in the fourth quarter as FSU bounced back to win the Fiesta Bowl over Nebraska 31-28.

Nebraska struck quickly on this day on a 3-yard run by tailback Keith Jones and a 52-yard punt return by Dana Brinson. At the end of one, Florida State trailed 14-0.

FSU scored 21 points in the second quarter after abandoning the run and turning to the hot hand of McManus, who would be named the game's offensive MVP. When it was over, McManus had broken Fiesta Bowl records for passes attempted (51) and yards (375).

The second quarter was all Garnet and Gold. A Deion Sanders interception of a Steve Taylor pass gave the Seminoles the football at the Husker 40. Six plays later, Herb Gainer snagged the first of his two TDs, this one a 10-yarder.

The Florida State defense continued to tighten. A Paul McGowan fumble recovery after an Eric Williams hit turned the ball back to the offense. Seventy-five yards later, McManus handed off to Dayne Williams for the 1-yard touchdown run.

Florida State scored on its third consecutive possession with just 44 seconds left in the half. McManus connected with Gainer from 25 yards out and the Seminoles enjoyed a 21-14 lead.

The Huskers evened the score at 21-21 when they took the second half kickoff and marched 77 yards behind Taylor, who took it in from the 2. McManus brought his club right back, taking the 24-21 lead on a Derek Schmidt 32-yard field goal. With 40 seconds left in the third period, fullback Tyreese Knox put Nebraska back on top on a 4-yard run.

The fourth period proved to be the culmination of an exciting afternoon for the crowd of 72,112 in Sun Devil Stadium. Nebraska's offense drove the field, using six minutes of clock time as the game wound down. Camped at the Tribe 2 on second and goal, the Huskers were set to deal the final blow. But as Knox got the handoff, the ball popped loose and FSU's Eric Hayes recovered.

With 6:58 left, McManus needed a touchdown for a Florida State win. Starting from his own 3, the senior led his team down to the Nebraska 2– the big play coming on a 43-yard pass to tailback Dexter Carter. A dead ball foul pushed the Seminoles back to the 18 and two plays later, McManus faced fourth and goal from the 15. He hit Lewis on the square-in pattern for the winning touchdown.

FSU outgained the powerful Nebraska offense, 457 yards to 384. McManus completed 28 of his 51 attempts for 375 yards and three touchdowns. Ten of McManus' passes went to seniors Pat Carter (5-54) and Gainer (5-89) while Lewis and Dexter Carter caught four each.

Florida State finished the season 11-1 and was voted runnerup in both the Associated Press and United Press International polls.

1989 Sugar Bowl

FLORIDA STATE ____ 13
AUBURN ____ 7

NEW ORLEANS, La. (Jan. 2, 1989)– Sammie Smith rushed for 115 yards on 24 carries and All-America Deion Sanders intercepted a pass in the end zone on the game's final play to lead Florida State to a 13-7 victory over SEC champion Auburn in the 55th Annual Sugar Bowl.

The victory, before an ABC national television audience, gave FSU an 11-game win streak and a ranking of third in the final AP and UPI polls. It also marked the seventh consecutive bowl championship for FSU.

Florida State scored 10 points in the first quarter and it would be enough for the Seminole defense, which came into the game less-heralded than its Auburn counterpart. FSU limited the Tigers to 108 yards on the ground and 270 total yards. The Tribe recovered a pair of fumbles and grabbed three interceptions, including Sanders' game-saver.

Smith powered the Florida State offense early with 73 yards in the first half alone. He earned the Miller-Digby Award as the game's Most Valuable Player and became the first back to gain over 100 yards on Auburn's defense in 25 games.

Florida State opened the game with an impressive 12-play, 84-yard drive. Smith gained 50 yards as the Tribe surprised Auburn by running the ball up the middle. Dayne Williams got the touchdown on a two-yard run at 9:48 of the first quarter.

After a Stan Shiver interception, FSU's Bill Mason added a 35-yard field goal to give the Seminoles a 10-0 lead. Following a fumble recovery on Auburn's next possession, Florida State drove to the Auburn two, where a fake field goal attempt failed.

The next time the Seminoles got the ball, after a Dedrick Dodge interception, FSU capitalized by driving 24 yards in eight plays for a 31-yard Mason field goal.

The teams exchanged punts on their next possessions before Auburn drove for its lone score of the game. The Tigers took the ball on their own 49 and went 51 yards in seven plays for the TD. Slack threw a 20-yard touchdown pass to Walter Reeves to bring Auburn within six at 13-7.

It was as close as Auburn would get. In fact, neither team would score again as defense dominated the second half. Both teams had opportunities, which turnovers killed.

As the fourth period began, FSU was on the Auburn one following a 68-yard, 17-play drive. On third-and-goal, Chip Ferguson's lateral to Sammie Smith got away and Auburn recovered. The Tigers turned around and drove to the FSU 15-yard line.

On fourth-and-nine from FSU's 15, Howard Dinkins pressured Auburn QB Slack and he was called for intentional grounding. After a punt by Tim Corlew pinned Auburn at its own four with 3:28 to go, the Tigers put together a last-ditch drive to win the game.

With Slack completing passes to receivers Reeves, Lawyer Tillman and Freddy Weygand, the Tigers converted in fourth down situations three times. But on third-and-10 from the FSU 22 and five seconds remaining, the Tigers went at FSU's All-American once too often. Sanders picked off Slack's pass in the end zone, and Florida State had its first Sugar Bowl victory.

FLORIDA STATE ____ 41
NEBRASKA ____ 17

TEMPE, Ariz. (Jan. 1, 1990) — Peter Tom Willis, the game's offensive Most Valuable Player, threw for five touchdowns and 422 yards to lead the Florida State Seminoles to their second Fiesta Bowl win over the Nebraska Cornhuskers, 41-17.

Scoring 10 of their 17 points in the first half, Nebraska came on strong in the first quarter with a seven-play, 69-yard touchdown drive to go up 7-0. Capped by a Gdowski-to-Gregory pass, the drive took only 3:41.

Florida State followed with a drive that ended in a missed 37-yard field goal by Bill Mason. Three plays later, Nebraska fumbled, but the Seminoles could not capitalize on Errol McCorvey's recovery.

With fourth down and two to go, fullback Paul Moore carried over the left side for one yard and Nebraska had the ball again.

When it seemed luck had finally come Florida State's way on a Kevin Grant inter-

Deion Sanders and Sammie Smith became the first FSU duo ever drafted in the first round of the NFL draft in the same year when they were chosen by the Atlanta Falcons and Miami Dolphins, respectively, in the 1989 selection.

ception at the Nebraska 37-yard line, the Seminoles again failed to come through. At the top of the second quarter, Richie Andrews' 39-yard field goal attempt missed to the left.

In the second quarter, Willis completed 12 of 14 passes for 210 yards and three touchdowns to give the Seminoles a 21-10 halftime lead. The first drive began with an Odell Haggins' fumble recovery. Two plays later, Willis' pass to Terry Anthony opened the floodgates for Florida State, and the score was knotted at seven.

Nebraska followed with a 62-yard kick return and a 39-yard field goal to give them the lead, 10-7.

Sixteen plays later—after a Florida State missed fourth down conversion and a Nebraska missed field goal—the Seminoles took the lead for good on a five-yard touchdown pass from Willis to Reggie Johnson.

Then with 24 seconds left in the first half, Willis struck gold again with a 10-yard pass to Dexter Carter to put FSU up 21-10.

Florida State continued the flood in the third quarter. Willis' passing and spectacular catching by the FSU receivers—Anthony caught six passes for 88 yards, Ronald Lewis had five for 106 yards and Lawrence Dawsey had four for 66—helped the Seminoles to three third-quarter touchdowns and a 41-10 lead.

After Paul Moore scored on a one-yard run, Willis connected with Reggie Johnson for the second time, this one for eight yards. Next came a 24-yard pass to Anthony to give the Seminoles their sixth touchdown of the game.

Nebraska's last hurrah came with just over one minute left in the game. On a two-yard scramble by quarterback Mickey Joseph, the Cornhuskers made the final score 41-17.

The win was Florida State's 10th straight after an 0-2 start to the 1990 season. FSU finished with its third straight Top Three ranking.

1990 Blockbuster Bowl

FLORIDA STATE _____ 24
PENN STATE _____ 17

MIAMI, Fla. (Dec. 28, 1990) — In a game that pitted college football's winningest active coaches, FSU quarterback Casey Weldon completed 22 of 36 passes for 248 yards to lead the Seminoles to a 24-17 victory over Penn State before 74,021 in the inaugural Blockbuster Bowl at Joe Robbie Stadium. The victory pushed Florida State to a number four ranking to end the season.

After moving in for a 41-yard Richie Andrews field goal on the game's first drive, Florida State got the ball back just over a minute later. Terrell Buckley's thrilling 39-yard punt return put the Seminoles on the Penn State 17-yard line. Four plays later, Florida State scored the first touchdown of the game on a one-yard Amp Lee run. Lee was named the game's Most Valuable Player with 86 yards on 21 carries and a pair of scores.

Following unsuccessful drives by both Penn State and FSU, Penn State quarterback Tony Sacca launched a 56-yard touchdown pass to David Daniels for Penn State's first score. At the end of the first quarter, Florida State led by a slim three-point margin, 10-7.

That lead increased just 1:32 into the second quarter as Amp Lee ran for his second touchdown of the game, this one a seven-yard scamper. With the score 17-7 FSU, neither team would score again until the third quarter.

Florida State started the third quarter with a drive that ended in a Nittany Lion interception at the Penn State 18-yard line. Twelve plays later, PSU kicker Craig Fayak gave the Nittany Lions their sole score of the third quarter, a 32-yard field goal. The Seminoles came back quickly with a 58-yard, seven-play drive that took 3:41 off the clock. Weldon ran five yards for FSU's final score of the game to put the Seminoles ahead 24-10.

The Nittany Lions and Seminoles exchanged punts at the close of the third quarter and the start of the fourth quarter before Penn State came back. Following a drive of 62 yards on three plays, Terry Smith scored on a 37-yard pass from reserve QB Tom Bill as the Nittany Lions closed to within seven with six minutes left in the game.

The final six minutes would provide some anxious moments for Seminole fans as the Nittany Lions gained momentum with Bill at the helm.

The Penn State defense held after the PSU TD and the Seminoles were forced to punt. But FSU's defense proved it could play too, stopping the Nittany Lions and forcing a punt which pinned FSU deep in its own territory.

Again the PSU defense held and Scottie McLaren's punt gave the Nittany Lions possession on the Florida State 31. When Bill attempted to pass into the end zone on fourth and eight, FSU's John Davis made a leaping interception at the Florida State one. The Seminoles were able to run out the clock after that to hand the Nittany Lions their first loss in nine games.
