MEDIA

Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

■ All requests for working press, radio, television, photographer or scouting credentials should be directed to Sports Information Director Wayne Hogan no later than one week prior to the game. Requests for season credentials should be made at least two weeks prior to the first game.

Space for the working press, radio, television and scouts is allocated by the FSU Sports Information Office.

Florida State's press box is located on the west side of Doak Campbell Stadium with elevator service to all levels. Media representatives and scouts should enter through the press gate, located next to the elevator. The Will Call booth, where media can pick up credentials on game days, is located outside the gate at the base of the elevator. Will Call credentials will also be available in the Sports Information Office on Fridays prior to games.

PRESS POLICIES

■ Working press will be admitted to Level 5, where approximately 90 seats are available. Credentials are issued by FSU according to the following criteria:

1. Local newspapers, wire services, national publications, newspapers from opponents' area, and student newspapers from FSU and opponents' schools.
2. Other daily newspapers with preference to those which regularly cover FSU.
3. Scouts.
4. Non-daily newspapers, with preference to those which regularly cover FSU.
5. Radio and television personnel not broadcasting, but considered reporting (seats may be provided in the stands and locker room access granted).

MEDIA HEADQUARTERS

■ The official media headquarters for the 1992 home football season is the Ramada Inn - North. It is located at North Monroe Street (U.S. 27 North) and I-10. Most media functions, including the Sunday morning "Breakfast with Bobby," will be held there. The Florida State University Sports Information Office has a number of rooms set aside for accredited media representatives during home game weekends. Arrangements for these rooms must be made through Debbie Powell of the Sports Information Office (904/644-1402) and priority is determined in the same manner spelled out above under "Press Policies."

[SPECIAL NOTE— Media rooms at the Ramada Inn - North on home game weekends will require a TWO NIGHT MINIMUM. There will be no exceptions. The 1992 rate is $65 per night on football weekends. When reserving a room through FSU, it will be necessary to give us a credit card number to guarantee the room.]

Florida State also maintains a minimal number of rooms for the media at the team headquarters for all road games. Check with the Sports Information Office for information on availability of these rooms.

RADIO — TV

■ The sixth level of the press box is designated for use by radio and television broadcasting crews and home and visiting coaches. Each booth is fully enclosed and sound proof.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

■ Only accredited photographers and photographers shooting for the FSU Sports Information Office will be issued working credentials.

Florida State reserves the right to admit only those photographers deemed to be on the premises for legitimate media purposes. All photographers working FSU games should be prepared to show a media ID card and equipment designed to photograph major college football.

Florida State will use a double photo line system on its sidelines again in 1992. Only those photographers actually shooting the game will be allowed on the "front" line. These shooters will be given special credentials upon check-in to allow them front line access. All other photo personnel will be required to stay behind a second line so as not to obstruct the working view of the shooters. This would include grips, runners and sideline reporters. Violation of the double-line system will result in removal from the sideline.

The press box catwalk, or photo deck, offers an unobstructed view for TV and video cameras. Holders of a photo deck pass will be assigned space in that area. Still photographers may have access to the sidelines only. Those holding a still photography credential should report to the gate specified on the pass, where they will be issued an armband, a set of rosters and a pre-game meal. A photographers' lounge area with tables and chairs is available.

Special requests for photographers whose assignments warrant shooting from the photo deck may be made to Sports Information Director Wayne Hogan.

VIDEO SERVICES

Florida State's Sports Information Office has the ability to assist networks and television stations by providing video services through Seminole Productions, Inc. The FSU athletic department has a working relationship with SPI and its general manager, Mark Rodin, whose office is located in the Moore Athletic Center. Seminole Productions has editing facilities and studio equipment on site and can produce virtually any material upon request. In most cases, there will be a nominal fee charged for these services. Please call Rodin at 644-0019 to arrange for these services.

PRESS PARKING

Parking is extremely limited in 1992 and passes will be issued on a priority basis within the same guidelines as working credentials.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Play-by-play, half-time and complete statistics will be provided. Post-game quotes from FSU Head Coach Bobby Bowden, selected players and the visiting coach will also be distributed.

REFRESHMENTS

A pre-game meal will be served on Level 6 of the press box beginning approximately two hours before kickoff. Refreshments will be available throughout the game.

TELEPHONES

Telephone service for the FSU press box should be secured directly through the Florida State University Office of Telecommunications at (904) 644-2414. Have them contact the Sports Information Office for location. The Telecommunications Office can provide both lines and phones. When contacting them, please be specific as to the type of line you need (i.e. touchtone, etc.).

FAX SERVICE

An independent fax service will be available for each game with a nominal fee charged. Please contact a member of the Sports Information Office staff during the game to secure post-game FAX service.

MID-WEEK INTERVIEWS

Media interviews with all FSU players should be arranged through the Sports Information Office. For phone interviews, a staff member will fill out a card informing the player to return the call. Please give one day advance notice when requesting players for mid-week interviews. All player calls to the media will be made collect.

Anyone wishing to schedule an interview with Head Coach Bobby Bowden should contact his assistant, Sue Hall, at (904) 644-0097.

ACC TELECONFERENCE

Each Wednesday during the 1992 football season, Bowden will be available to the media on the ACC football teleconference call, along with all eight other league head coaches. Bowden will be on the call from 12-12:10 p.m. every Wednesday from Sept. 2 through Nov. 18. Contact the FSU Sports Information Office or the Atlantic Coast Conference Office to get the number for the call, as well as a complete listing of the coaches and times. This is the only regular conference call Coach Bowden will conduct in 1992.

ACC SATELLITE FEED

Video highlights and taped interviews with Florida State players and coaches can be obtained each week via an ACC satellite feed put up by JP Sports. The feed, which will contain at least six minutes of Florida State information, will run every Wednesday from 9-10 a.m. beginning Sept. 2nd. The coordinates for this feed are GALAXY 6, Transponder 7 (channel 7).

BREAKFAST WITH BOBBY

Following each Seminole home game, Head Coach Bobby Bowden will join the media Sunday morning at 8:30 a.m. for breakfast followed by a question and answer session.

CONFERENCE CALL

On road game weekends, media members may contact Bowden for follow-up material via a Sunday conference call. Contact a member of the Sports Information Office during the previous day's game for further information.

ROAD GAME CREDENTIALS

Writers covering Florida State may make requests for road credentials with the opponent school or with the FSU Sports Information Office by Monday of game week.

INTERVIEW Policy

■ Florida State University's athletic staff is well aware of the importance of media coverage and is briefed continually on the role of the media insofar as it interacts with their respective duties. At no time is this cooperation more important than in the post-game interview and locker room procedures. To ensure the most workable situation for members of the media and for the FSU staff, the following procedures must be observed:

1 Entrance to the Florida State locker room can be made only through the second floor interview room. All members of the media will be directed to this room by the FSU Sports Information staff immediately at the conclusion of the game. It is helpful if all media personnel assemble at the tunnel entrance in the north end zone following the conclusion of the game. You will not be allowed access to the locker room through the player entrance, so follow closely.

2 Florida State Coach Bobby Bowden will be brought directly to the interview room as soon as he dismisses the team and declares the locker room open.

3 When Coach Bowden makes his appearance in the interview room, those members of the media who wish to go to the locker room will be shown the proper route. Down one flight of stairs leads directly into the player dressing area.

4 FLORIDA STATE'S LOCKER ROOM IS OPEN TO ALL MEDIA MEMBERS, MALE AND FEMALE. HOWEVER, IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT FEMALE REPORTERS INFORM FSU SPORTS INFORMATION PERSONNEL DURING THE GAME THAT THEY WILL NEED LOCKER ROOM ACCESS. (FSU players have been assured they will be told on a game-by-game basis whether there will be female reporters in the locker room — a courtesy we feel must be extended.)

5 Exit from the locker room and access back to the press box can be made through the player entrance to the stadium.

It is our desire at Florida State to make the post-game procedure as painless as possible for both the media and our staff. Remember, both groups have important tasks and are under extreme pressure.

The Florida State Athletic Department cannot and will not be responsible for problems incurred by any member of the media not following the above procedures. Security personnel will facilitate only those following the proper guidelines. However, if you encounter a problem while following this procedure, please inform a Sports Information Office staff member immediately.

SEMINOLE SIDELINE

Florida State enjoyed one of its most successful athletic years ever in 1991-92. The Seminoles joined Louisiana State as the only athletic program in NCAA Division I history to send its football team to a major New Year's Day bowl, its basketball team to the NCAA "Sweet Sixteen" and its baseball team to the College World Series. The 1991 Florida State football team defeated Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl last January. The basketball team, in its inaugural season in the Atlantic Coast Conference, advanced to the Sweet Sixteen with two wins in the NCAA Tournament. The 1992 baseball team captured the South II Regional and made its fifth trip to the College World Series in the last seven years. Louisiana State's teams pulled the amazing triple in 1987.

■ Florida State's Seminole Sports Network is a regional radio network which broadcasts FSU football over a three-state area covering most of Florida and parts of both Georgia and Alabama. The Network brings the excitement of Seminole games to fans, alumni and college football enthusiasts across the Southeast.

The Seminole Sports Network is controlled by Host Communications, Inc., one of the nation's leaders in collegiate sports broadcasting. FSU and the Lexington, Ky. based company have joined forces to establish a comprehensive marketing opportunity which will include radio, TV, print and corporate sponsorship components.

In addition to a long-term broadcast relationship with the NCAA, Host also owns the rights to the networks of other outstanding schools like Texas, Auburn, Alabama, Kentucky, Tennessee, Army, Navy and LSU.

In 1992, the Florida State network will extend into nearly 60 markets throughout the region. Locally, Tallahassee's WTNT-FM is the flagship station.

Florida State's broadcast crew will remain intact for the 11th straight year in 1992 as play-by-play announcer Gene Deckerhoff and color analyst Vic Prinzi both return.

Deckerhoff begins his 14th season as the "Voice of the Seminoles" in 1992. A six-time Florida Sportscaster of the Year, he also has been judged by the Florida Sportscaster's Association as the best college and pro play-by-play announcer in the state 11 out of the past 15 years. Deckerhoff also handles play-by-play duties for the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He is nationally known as one of the finest announcers in the South for both football and basketball. Deckerhoff will continue to serve as producer and co-host of the Bobby Bowden Television Show in 1992. He runs Gene Deckerhoff Productions, a firm specializing in sports broadcasting which also produces radio and television commercials.

Former Florida State quarterback Vic Prinzi (1954-57) begins his 11th season as Deckerhoff's color analyst. A long-time friend and former teammate of actor Burt Reynolds, Prinzi had a brief professional football career with the New York Giants and Denver Broncos following graduation from FSU.

After a 12-year coaching career in the high school and college ranks, Prinzi joined Dulin Brokerage in Tampa where he is Vice President of the Wholesale Division.

FLORIDA STATE

Outlook

■ Consider the size of the shoes that 12 hungry, young Florida State football players will have to fill upon becoming first-time starters in 1992.

Imagine taking over for a fifth-year senior who completed his eligibility in 1991 and left his starting job up for grabs. That player — outside linebacker Howard Dinkins, for example — played on FSU teams that compiled a 53-8 record, won two Fiesta Bowls, a Sugar Bowl, a Blockbuster Bowl and a Cotton Bowl, and finished no worse than fourth in the nation in any of his five years as a Seminole.

Some pretty big shoes to fill, to be sure. And a challenge, passed down now from one season to another, and from one group of Florida State seniors to the next — “Top That!”

Florida State Head Coach Bobby Bowden believes a winning tradition has been established and the gauntlet passed. For five years of greatness on the field has led to five years of recruiting success as well.

“Oh, we’ll be just as talented, maybe even more so,” says the Coach of his 1992 team. “How these new boys mature, and how quickly they gain experience will determine just how good we will be.”

Although this year’s FSU team is stocked with the talent recruiting success brings, a lack of experience almost works to the advantage of the 1992 squad. After all, last year’s team was both talented and experienced, leading to a unanimous preseason No. 1 ranking. The Seminoles carried that ranking, with its pressures, through the season. Working from a few notches below that No. 1 mantle suits Bowden and his 1992 club just fine, thank you.

No matter what the win-loss record is in 1992, it will be a historic season. For in the fall of ‘92, Florida State University will compete as a full-fledged member of the Atlantic Coast Conference for the first time.

And my, do the nine ACC teams have something for which to play. The recently completed Football Bowl Coalition agreement sends the ACC’s regular season champion to either the Orange, Sugar or Cotton Bowl — no questions asked. It’s a sweet reward that awaits the league’s top finisher.

Florida State entered the ACC as an official member on July 1, 1991. Miraculously, it took just one year to work out a full slate of conference games for the football team.

This year, FSU has filled its three non-conference slots with Miami, Florida and Tulane. In 1993 and ‘94, it’s Miami, Florida and Notre Dame — still the full plate to which Seminole fans have become accustomed.

“You had better not underestimate the ACC,” warns Bowden. “Don’t forget, they had a national champion in 1990, and our experience with Clemson through the years has been all-out war. If we can win the ACC and the ‘Big Florida’ on top of it, we will have had one heck of a year.”

The year began last spring, when some of FSU’s young players made bids for starting positions, while some veterans proved they were ready to become leaders of the ‘92 Seminole team.

A top priority in the spring was rebuilding the Florida State offensive line, which lost three of five starters to graduation. But plenty of watchful eyes, including Bowden’s, were glued to the quarterback spot. After all, Heisman Trophy runner-up Casey Weldon, who compiled a 17-2 record as a starter over two seasons, is gone.

The QB battle last spring featured Seminole basketball star Charlie Ward beating out baseball talent Kenny Felder for the starting nod entering fall practice, when the two were expected to resume the competition that had started when both were freshmen. But Felder was chosen in the first round of the

How Seminoles? After the Florida State football team played its first game on October 18, 1947 without a nickname, the FSU students submitted ideas for potential nicknames to be voted on by the entire student body. A week after that first game, the list was narrowed to six names — Golden Falcons, Statesmen, Croakers, Senators, Indians and Seminoles. After the final ballot, "Seminoles" won out over "Statesmen" by 110 votes.

Major League Baseball draft last June and signed with the Milwaukee Brewers, leaving Ward alone atop the quarterback heap this fall.

So talented is the junior from Thomasville, Ga., that he was the catalyst at point guard for the 1991-92 Florida State basketball team. That squad finished second behind eventual national champion Duke in its first ACC season and became the first Seminole team to advance to the NCAA's "Sweet Sixteen" in 20 years.

Quick as a cat, Ward has run circles around Seminole defenders as a backup the last three seasons. But he's a disciplined player as well, and one who comes equipped with as good an arm as the Seminoles have seen.

"He has kind of a reputation for freelancing," Bowden says of Ward. "But truly, he wants to sit in the pocket and run the offense. He's had good coaching, and he's very disciplined."

What happens, Coach, when Charlie decides it's time to tuck the ball in and run?

"I'll be cheering him on louder than anybody."

Felder's departure did leave a big hole behind Ward. Redshirt freshman Jeff McCrone and first-year player Danny Kanell, neither of whom has ever taken a snap in a collegiate game, will try to fill that back-up hole while gaining much-needed experience.

After two years as the understudy to Amp Lee, Sean Jackson takes center stage at tailback in 1992.

Ward and his QB cohorts will work behind a revamped offensive line. Split tackle Robert Stevenson and center Robbie Baker are senior veterans, and guard Patrick McNeil, a sophomore, was a part-time starter in 1991.

The other two spots on the FSU offensive line are up for grabs. During the spring, converted tight end Marvin Ferrell and redshirt freshman Lewis Tyre did the grabbing. Ferrell came from out of nowhere to earn the starting tight tackle spot after just weeks of working at the position. Tyre emerged as the class of the five highly-touted freshman signees of 1991, who were redshirted last season. Both players will be pushed by some of those redshirt freshmen, like Clay Shiver, Juan Laureano and Greg Frey.

"Talented, but no experience other than practice," Bowden says of that group. "We'll see which of them can produce."

Amp Lee's early departure to the NFL didn't exactly leave the cupboard bare in the Seminole backfield. Junior Sean Jackson is a bruiser at 6-2, 225. He rushed for nearly 400 yards playing behind Lee in '91, and given the starting nod against Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl, responded with a 27-carry, 119-yard effort to earn MVP honors.

Tiger McMillon showed flashes of brilliance as well in his freshman year, and USA Today's 1990 Offensive Player of the Year —

Marquette Smith — is ready to make an impact in his sophomore season.

Another talented sophomore, William Floyd, is the most likely candidate to replace Edgar Bennett at fullback. Junior newcomer Zack Crockett made a bid for the back-up spot during the spring and could push Floyd for playing time this fall.

Seminole receivers were uncharacteristically inconsistent in 1991. The faces are the same for '92, but experience and confidence should be a key to a better year. Senior Shannon Baker is the leading returnee. He caught 30 balls in 1991 to lead Florida State. Juniors Matt Frier and Kevin Knox and sophomore Kez McCorvey all saw plenty of action, and all have started at one time or another.

The top two tight ends, Lonnie Johnson and Warren Hart, return in 1992. Both juniors, they combined to catch 34 passes for eight touchdowns last season in one of the most productive years for Seminole tight ends.

"We'll run pretty much the same scheme with our offense this year," said Bowden, whose scheming has produced one of college football's most potent attacks over the last decade. "Defenses are getting quite a bit more sophisticated, so we'll add a wrinkle or two. You've got to keep up with the changes."

Bowden is happy he doesn't have to play against his own defense, because this year's Florida State unit looks solid, to say the least.

Led by Lombardi Award finalist

A three-year starter at free safety, Leon Fowler led the secondary in tackles with 59 last year.

Marvin Jones, a junior, Florida State returns five starters from last year's top five defense, which continued to improve as the 1991 season progressed. In its last three games, the Tribe allowed just 17 points to Miami, 14 to Florida and two to Texas A&M.

Perhaps of most concern this year is replacing both cornerbacks, a task none too easy when one of those is Jim Thorpe Award winner Terrell Buckley. He opted to forego his senior season at FSU and was one of the first five players selected in last spring's NFL draft.

But Florida State is in the habit of producing great defensive backs with three straight consensus All-Americans at that position. Deion Sanders was followed by LeRoy Butler, who gave way to Buckley. FSU coaches are hoping the next in that line will emerge from a group that includes sophomores Clifton Abraham and Corey Sawyer, junior Corey Fuller and senior Tommy Henry. Abraham and Henry are listed as the starters entering August, but any of the four could be on the field for the first down against Duke.

Strong safety John Davis and free safety Leon Fowler will provide plenty of leadership in the secondary. Both are seniors and two-year starters. The Seminoles are deep here with senior Lavon Brown, junior Richard Coes and sophomore Steve Gilmer with playing time behind them.

Academic All-America candidate Ken Alexander will line up next to Marvin Jones at inside linebacker. A junior, he was fourth on the team last year with 61 tackles, despite playing a backup role. The Austin, Texas native has patiently waited his turn at the job and begins 1992 ready to make his mark as a starter.

The development of Derrick Brooks at outside linebacker could play out as one of the most interesting stories of 1992. The sophomore was USA Today's Defensive Player of the Year out of high school and could be an impact player at the "bandit" outside linebacker spot, where he takes over from Dinkins. At 210 pounds now, he too is outstanding in the classroom as well as on the field.

Brooks will be paired with junior Sterling Palmer, who was named the most outstanding player of spring practice in 1992. Palmer finally played to his unlimited potential in spring drills and was the most dominating Seminole defender. At 6-7, 256, Palmer coming at the quarterback with 4.7

speed is an intimidating sight. But he will be pushed by senior Reggie Freeman, who started most of 1991 at the "ed" OLB spot.

Florida State defensive coaches feel the 1992 Seminoles may be stronger up front than at any time in recent memory. Three seniors—Carl Simpson, Dan Footman and Troy Sanders—return, along with junior Toddrick McIntosh. Simpson recorded the second-most sacks in school history last year with 11 and is another early candidate for all-star honors. Add to the above quartet junior college transfer Kelly Rush, redshirt freshmen Derrick Alexander, Enzo Armella and Tyrant Marion, and FSU has the makings of a very stout, and deep, forward wall.

"I feel pretty darn good about our defense," Bowden says. "(Defensive coordinator) Mickey Andrews has settled into an outstanding scheme where he utilizes a lot of players. There must be 25 guys that have some game experience on that side of the ball and that's encouraging."

An area in need of encouragement is the kicking game. Sophomore Dan Mowrey and junior Gerry Thomas shared placement duties last year, with Mowrey handling the kickoffs and long field goals and Thomas kicking PATs and short field goals. That battle kicks up again in August, with St. Petersburg freshman Sean Liss, a 1992 signee, joining the fray.

"We've got to have more consistency there," implores Bowden. "We're bringing in guys that have the tools to be great kickers. They've just got to go out and do it."

Liss may make his biggest mark as the Seminole punter in 1992. That spot is open following the departure of senior walk-on Scott Player, who averaged nearly 40 yards per punt last year. Liss averaged over 45 yards per punt in high school, but will have to win the job from senior John Wimberly and redshirt freshman Scott Holmes.

The Seminoles' 1992 schedule begins with four league contests in September. Games at Clemson and N.C. State are sandwiched between home games with Duke and Wake Forest. The annual FSU-Miami showdown moves back to early October in 1992, this time at the Orange Bowl. Road games at Georgia Tech and Virginia close the month.

A finishing flurry has Florida State at home the entire month of November for games with Maryland, Tulane and Florida.

"It looks to be a well-balanced schedule," Bowden says. "Some of our bigger ACC games are spaced out, and gosh am I glad we don't have to play Miami and Florida back-to-back like last year."

Top That? Maybe, just maybe, this is the year Florida State does.

SEMINOLE SIDELINE

Last November, Miami ended the longest winning streak in Seminole football history at 16 games. Florida State ended the 1990 season with six straight wins and won 10 straight to open the '91 campaign. The second longest string of wins for FSU came in the late '70s, when the 1978-79 teams strung together 15 consecutive wins from the eighth game of the '78 season until the 11th game of 1979.

One big reason for Florida State's recent defensive success is turnovers. FSU ranked among the national leaders in turnover margin in 1991.

In 1982, Florida State football really was a family affair for the Bowdens. That season, Coach Bowden's youngest son, Jeff, was a wide receiver for Florida State while his brothers, Terry and Tommy served as volunteer and part-time assistants on the coaching staff. All three have following their father into the coaching profession. Terry is now the head coach at Samford University in Birmingham, Ala., and Jeff is an assistant at Southern Miss. Tommy is the offensive coordinator at Auburn.
