FIFTY YEARS OF FLORIDA STATE FOOTBALL 1959

Former Washington head coach Don James was an assistant on Perry Moss' staff along with Ken Shipp who would go on to coach the New York Jets. FSU's go-for-the-win attitude may have been born this season as the Seminoles elected to go for two points and the win at Miami rather than settle for a tie. Fred Pickard's controversial dive over the endzone was not ruled a TD and FSU lost 7-6.
