THE ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

THE TRADITION

Consistency. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

THE SCHOOLS

CLEMSON — Charter member of the SIAA in 1894, charter member of the SC in 1921, charter member of the ACC in 1953.

DUKE — Joined the SC in December, 1928; charter member of the ACC in 1953.

FLORIDA STATE — Charter member of the Dixie Conference in 1948, joined the Metro Conference in July, 1976; joined the ACC September 15, 1990.

GEORGIA TECH — Charter member of the SIAA in 1894, charter member of SC in 1921, charter member of the SEC in 1932, joined the ACC in July, 1979.

MARYLAND — Charter member of the SC in 1921, charter member of the ACC in 1953.

NORTH CAROLINA — Charter member of the SIAA in 1894, charter member of the SC in 1921, charter member of the ACC in 1953.

NC STATE — Charter member of the SC in 1921, charter member of the ACC in 1953.

VIRGINIA — Charter member of the SIAA in 1894, charter member of the SC in 1921, resigned from SC in December 1936, joined the ACC in December, 1953.

WAKE FOREST — Joined the SC in February, 1936, charter member of the ACC in 1953.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 49th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 82 national championships, including 40 in men's competition and 42 in women's. In addition, 120 men and 31 women have earned the coveted title of NCAA champion.

The conference had an immediate impact on the national college football scene in the fall of 1953 when the University of Maryland captured the first of what would eventually be five national football titles for the ACC. Clemson laid claim to the league's second national title in 1981 while Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990. Florida State pocketed national titles No. 4 and 5 in 1994 and 1999.

The nine schools that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 373 first or second team gridiron All-Americans and 54 first-team academic

All-Americans. ACC teams have had 1,485 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 109 first round selections. A year ago, the nine ACC member institutions had 186 former players on NFL rosters during the regular season or playoffs.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC over the years has proved itself to be among the elite in Division I-A football. The ACC is the nation's second-winningest bowl conference as the nine current league teams are a combined 84-77-5 (.521) in post-season play. Since 1990, the ACC is one of only five conferences to have each of its schools play in a bowl game.

Georgia Tech and Florida State rank among the nation's winningest bowl teams. Among teams with 20-or-more bowl appearances, the Yellow Jackets are second with a 19-10 (.655) post-season record while the Seminoles are third at 17-10-2 (.621). Over the past three years, ACC teams have posted a 17-14 mark against non-league AP-ranked opponents.

This past season the ACC had five consensus All-Americans and over the past four years has produced 22 consensus All-Americans. Since 1997, the ACC has had more first round draft picks (27) in the annual NFL draft than any other conference except the 12-team Southeastern Conference. The ACC also set two attendance mark during the 2000 season, drawing 2,653,816 fans over 54 home dates for a 49,145 per game mark.

2000-01 IN REVIEW

The 2000-01 academic year concluded with the league pocketing three more national team titles and three individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 39 national team titles over the last 11 years.

The ACC's 2000-01 national champions were North Carolina in women's soccer, Duke in men's basketball and Maryland in women's lacrosse. Overall, ACC teams posted a 73-56 (.566) mark in NCAA Tournament play.

The ACC placed at least one team in the Top 10 nationally in 15 of the 25 sports sponsored by the league. Other records of note during the 2000-01 season include 98 teams competing at NCAA Championships, five bowl teams and 43 Top 10 showings.

The ACC Academic Honor Roll record was broken for the 14th-straight year in 1999-2000 as 1,664 student-athletes were recognized for their work in the classroom.

A HISTORY

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members — Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest — drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia.

The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971 when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school withdrew from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.
