Tight End
6-4 • 231 • JR
Brentwood, TN
(Brentwood)

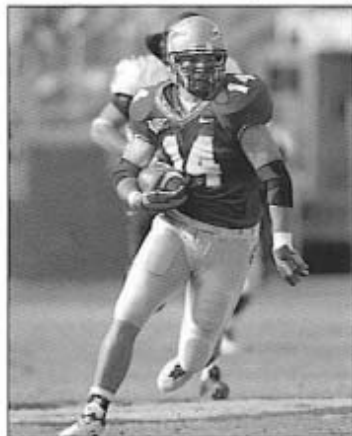

At Florida State: Will vie for playing time behind tight ends Paul Irons and Donnie Carter...came to FSU as a quarterback but made the transition to tight end in his freshman season...has played in 21 games over the past two seasons...led the tight ends with two touchdown catches in 2003, including one vs. Miami in the Orange Bowl, and ranked second among the tight ends with 94 yards receiving...good athlete with good hands...coaches believe tight end position is as deep as it has been in years.

Sophomore Year (2003): Played in 11 games at the tight end position...was second among tight ends with 94 yards receiving which ranked ninth on the team...was first among tight ends with two touchdowns... recorded his first career touchdown at Florida on a 20-yard reception in the second quarter of the Seminoles' 38-34 win...scored FSU's only receiving touchdown in the Orange Bowl with a seven-yard catch in the second quarter which gave FSU a 14-3 lead...had a career-high two catches for a career-high 58 yards against Wake Forest.

Freshman Year (2002): Due to a lack of depth at tight end, made the transition from quarterback to tight end...saw action in 10 games including the Nokia Sugar Bowl versus Georgia, primarily on special teams...impressed coaches with his progress

At Florida State: A dominating defensive lineman who will begin August in a race for starting duties with Charles Howard at noseguard in 2004...a Sporting News Freshman All-American in 2001...totaled 31 tackles during his freshman season...regarded by many analysts as the top defensive lineman in the country as a high school senior in 1999...coaches will look for more consistent play from the senior in 2004...

saw plenty of playing time last year behind two-year starters Jeff Womble and Darnell Dockett in the interior defensive line and started eight games as a sophomore in 2002...staying healthy is crucial as his experience is needed among a very young interior defensive line corps.

Junior Year (2003): Played in all 13 games and totaled 36 tackles (17 solo, 19 assisted) on the season...also registered three stops for loss, eight QB hurries, a forced fumble, a recovered fumble, and a shared sack...had four or more tackles in games against North Carolina, Miami, Notre Dame and Clemson...had two tackles in the Orange Bowl against Miami.

Sophomore Year (2002): Saw action in all 14 games and started eight games at the noseguard position...played very well over the second half of the season and showed great potential

PLAYERS

...recorded a career-high two sacks in win over Florida... finished season with two tackles for loss, a half sack and five tackles in the Sugar Bowl against Georgia... had 10.5 tackles for loss and 10 quarterback hurries... forced two fumbles and recovered one... ranked ninth on the team with 50 tackles.

Freshman Year (2001): Named a Freshman All-American by the Sporting News... served as the No. 2 noseguard behind Jeff Womble in his first year of action... started in the season opener at Duke and recorded two sacks... played in 11 games, missing the Wake Forest game with an ankle injury... ranked fifth among FSU defensive linemen with 31 total tackles... tied for second on the team with eight tackles for loss... recovered a fumble vs. Miami... also forced a fumble and registered two quarterback hurries against the Hurricanes... had at least three tackles in eight games... credited with two solo tackles in Gator Bowl win over Virginia Tech.

2000: Granted a medical redshirt after early season injury sidelined him for the rest of the year... would have likely seen a lot of playing time in his rookie season.

High School: Regarded by many as the best player in the country... had 104 tackles, 32 tackles for loss and 17 sacks as a senior as well as eight blocked kicks (4 punts, 2 FG's and 2 PAT's)... one of four Parade All-Americans in the signing class... rushed for six touchdowns in short yardage situations in 1999... a USA Today All-USA first-team selection... named to PrepStar's 1999 Top 100 (No. 1 defensive linemen) Dream Team... listed as the No. 2 prospect in the West Region by PrepStar... selected a PrepStar and Football News All-American... listed 23rd on Orlando Sentinel Top 100 list... a St. Pete Times "Blue Chipper"... Rivals100.com's No. 2 defensive end... SuperPrep's No. 2 defensive lineman... ranked the No. 2 defensive lineman in the nation by G&W... set a school record for career sacks (40), tackles for loss (77), forced fumbles (14) and blocked punts (5)... chose FSU over Michigan, UCLA, Tennessee and USC.

Personal: A social science major... born April 26, 1982... one of five Seminoles who hail from the state of California (Lorenzo Booker, Chris Rix, Kenny O'Neal and Dominic Robinson are the others).

At Florida State: Teams with Alex Barron to give Florida State what could be the best set of offensive tackles in the country...held out of the first part of spring practice after a having a shoulder scope, but did return during the second half of spring drills...one of five returning starters on this year's offensive line...the only three-year starter along the offensive front...has started 24 games at offensive tackle over his four-year career...should contend for All-America and All-ACC honors as a senior.

Junior Year (2003): Started all 13 games for the Seminoles at tight tackle...a dominating run blocker who helped FSU running backs average a combined 4.6 yards a carry in 2003...named ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week twice following the Maryland and NC State games...FSU offense finished second in the ACC in scoring, third in pass offense, fourth in pass efficiency and third in total offense in 2003...one of two Seminole offensive linemen (Matt Meinrod was the other) to start every game.

Sophomore Year (2002): Started eight games...had the most starts among all underclassmen on the line...provided physical play up front which led to the success of the running game in 2002...a solid spring session moved him to the top of the depth chart at the tight tackle position.

Freshman Year (2001): Played in every game for the Seminoles, starting against Florida and Georgia Tech...his start against Florida was the first of his career...the start came after All-ACC split tackle Brett Williams went down with an injury against NC State...the injury to Williams moved the starter at the tight tackle position, Todd Williams, to split tackle and put Willis into the starting lineup...allowed only one quarterback pressure and no quarterback sacks in his 12 appearances...graded out at 82 percent for the season, including a season-high 88 percent against Duke...recorded eight intimidation blocks.

2000: Redshirted along with most of his class.

High School: Another highly-recruited offensive lineman out of the state of Texas...high school team ran a West Coast style offense...an All-District selection as a senior...an honorable mention Class 5A all-state selection...SuperPrep's No. 28 offensive lineman and No. 36 prospect in Texas...listed as the
