

QUARTERBACKS

DREW WEATHERFORD

The Seminoles return Drew Weatherford as the starter at quarterback after he led all freshmen nationally in passing yards and touchdowns in 2005. He also broke Philip Rivers' ACC record for passing yardage in a single season by a first-year quarterback. Weatherford threw for 3,208 yards last year, which ranked third in school history, and earned freshmen all-america honors from several publications. He put much of his focus in the spring on cutting down on interceptions and threw only one pick over the entire spring in scrimmage situations.

Behind Weatherford on the depth chart to open camp will be sophomore Xavier Lee, who did not participate in the spring following post-season shoulder surgery. Lee saw playing time in seven games in 2005 and completed 27-of-57 passes for 466 yards with three touchdowns and one interception. Lee also ran for a pair of scores with a long rush of 27. True freshmen Christian Ponder, who enrolled in January, and D'Vontrey Richardson will back up Weatherford and Lee.

RECEIVERS

GREG CARR

Senior Chris Davis, juniors De'Cody Fagg and Joslin Shaw, and sophomore Greg Carr lead a talented group of Florida State wide receivers in 2005. Davis was a starter last year ago along with Willie Reid, but will have to hold off Greg Carr for the top spot on the depth chart. Davis led last year's team with 51 catches for 666 yards while Carr tied an ACC freshmen record with nine TD catches and was third on the team with 618 receiving yards. Carr earned freshman All-America honors last year as well as a spot on the All-ACC second team. Senior Robert Hallback and sophomore Richard Goodman will see plenty of playing time behind Davis and Carr as FSU coaches substitute freely and use a variety of three and four-wide receiver sets.

On the other side, Fagg and Shaw will battle for starting honors when preseason practices begin. Fagg was on pace for a solid season in 2005, but a shoulder injury slowed him and he was held out of drills in the spring in order to get back to 100 percent. Shaw took advantage of the opportunity and impressed coaches not only with his receiving skills, but with his outstanding downfield blocking ability. No matter who wins the starting job, both will be heavily involved in the fall. True sophomore Rod Owens had knee surgery in January and will be closely evaluated by the training staff as workouts begin.

RUNNING BACKS

LORENZO BOOKER

Once again, running backs coach Billy Sexton boasts one of the nation's top groups at tailback. Senior Lorenzo Booker leads the way and takes over as the full-time starters after splitting time with Leon Washington (now with the New York Jets) over the last two seasons. Booker led the 2005 squad in rushing with 552 yards and four touchdowns while his 1,773 career rushing yards rank 12th on the school's career rushing list. Also an outstanding receiver out of the backfield, Booker added 329 yards on 38 catches and two TD's a year ago.

Second on the depth chart is sophomore Antone Smith, who shared most valuable player honors with Booker following spring practice. Smith showed his homerun capability in the spring and coaches expect him to have a breakout season in 2005. Smith was third on the team as a true freshman in rushing with 188 yards on 36 carries (5.2 ypc) and finished second with three rushing touchdowns. Jamaal Edwards also had an impressive spring and will see action as well. Edwards bring a good combination of size and speed that will give FSU a good change of pace at the position.

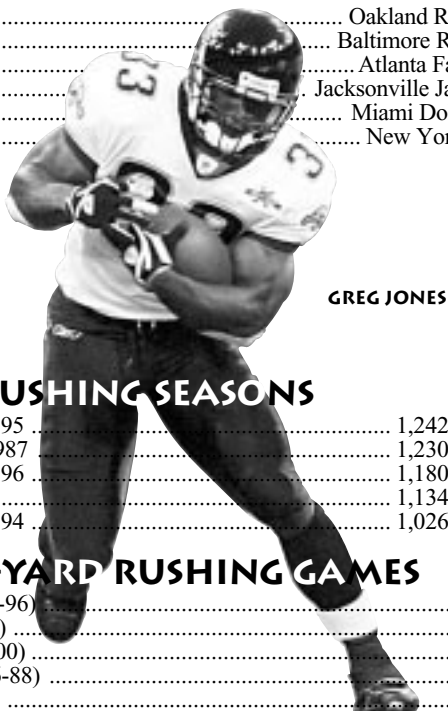

The starting job at fullback is now in the hands of Joe Surratt following the graduation of B.J. Dean and James Coleman, who saw most of the playing time at the position last year. Surratt played in all 13 games in 2005, but did not record a carry. True freshman Seddrick Holloway and walk-on Sean Compton will serve as the back-ups to Surratt. Matt Dunham could also see time in the backfield if depth at tight end allows.

TIGHT ENDS

CHARLIE GRAHAM

Tight ends coach John Lilly will have his work cut out this fall as he must replace Matt Henshaw, Donnie Carter and Matt Root — who were 1, 2, 3 on the depth chart in 2005. Redshirt freshman Charlie Graham will open as the starter and has shown significant improvement in his blocking and receiving skills since arriving at Florida State a year ago.

Behind Graham will be true freshmen Matt Dunham and Caz Piurowski. Dunham played running back in high school and broke a Georgia state record for with 111 rushing touchdowns — a mark formerly held by Herschel Walker. Piurowski was one of the nation's top prep tight ends a year ago and many will remember his name as his father, Paul, lettered for the Seminoles at linebacker from 1977-80. He was second on the 1980 Orange Bowl team with 122 total tackles.

OFFENSIVE LINE

JACKY CLAUDE

After battling injuries across the board for much of 2005, the Seminoles should be much improved on the offensive line. Three starters return in Cory Niblock, Jacky Claude and David Overmyer. Offensive line coach Mark McHale did some shifting during spring drills as Niblock was held out following knee surgery. McHale lost three-year starter David Castillo at center, but has a pair of talented players battling for starting honors at the position in John Frady and Dumaka Atkins.

Senior Mario Henderson returns at left tackle after starting the Virginia Tech and Penn State games there last year when Niblock went down. Henderson played well in his opportunity and coaches hope that will carry over to the 2006 season. At right tackle, junior college All-American Shannon Boatman took the top spot on the depth chart with an impressive spring. Overmyer started at right tackle last year, but got some time at guard in the spring. He could play either position if called upon this fall.

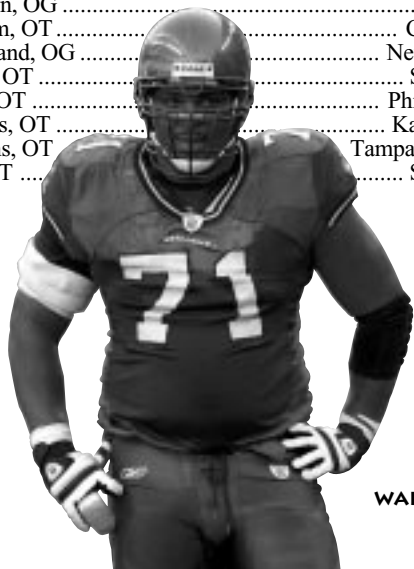

Claude returns as the starter at left guard and will be backed up by Geoff Bernard, who is another player who could play tackle as well. At right guard, a pair of returning starters are listed as co-starters going into August practices in Niblock and Overmyer. Both have plenty of starting experience and McHale could still shuffle the lineup prior to the Miami game. Much will depend on how quickly Niblock gets back to 100 percent and if any of the newcomers could be ready to contribute early on.

DEFENSIVE LINE

ALEX BOSTON

With a pair of first round picks (Kameron Wimbley and Brodrick Bunkley) gone from last year's defensive line, some might think it would be a down year across the defensive front. That will not be the case as Andre Fluellen returns as the starter at defensive tackle while Alex Boston and Darrell Burston come back after splitting starting duties a year ago opposite Wimbley.

Boston will open No. 1 at left defensive end and began to show coaches his outstanding potential in 2005. A powerful pass rusher, Boston will need to continue to improve his ability to get to the quarterback with Wimbley gone. Neefy Moffett saw quite a bit of playing time last year as a true freshman and will back up Boston along with true freshman Justin Mincey, who has the physical tools to make an immediate impact. The only senior on the defensive line, Darrell Burston, will start at right end. Burston played in all 13 games last year with seven starts despite several nagging injuries. Junior D.J. Norris will see action behind Burston as will redshirt freshman Everette Brown, who was almost unblockable during the spring.

Fluellen steadies the interior and he is regarded as the next outstanding FSU defensive tackle. Letroy Guion got one start in 2005 as a true freshman when Fluellen was held out and he will open the season No. 2 on the depth chart at defensive tackle. At noseguard, junior college transfer Paul Griffin turned in an impressive spring to move up to the first team. That battle will continue through August as Kendrick Stewart and Emmanuel Dunbar push Griffin for first team honors.

LINEBACKERS

BUSTER DAVIS

The linebackers should once again be a strong suit on a Seminole defense that is one of the nation's best year in and year out. Senior Buster Davis returns as a starter for the third year and has been named to several preseason All-American teams. Davis was second on last year's team with 91 total tackles. Backing up Davis will be Derek Nicholson, Jae Thaxton and Anthony Kelly. Nicholson could move into the starting lineup with Davis' ability to also play weakside linebacker.

Lawrence Timmons was named the Hinesman Award winner in the spring as the most dominant player of the spring. Timmons has earned the reputation as a ferocious hitter and coaches are confident he can step in for first round draft pick Ernie Sims at strongside linebacker. Timmons will be backed up by junior college transfer and January enrollee Toddrick Verdell and senior Jeremy Franklin.

On the weakside, true sophomore Geno Hayes will open camp as the starter at weakside. Hayes has great speed and put on a few pounds of muscle in his first year in Tallahassee. After seeing most of his playing time on special teams in 2005, he could have a breakout year at linebacker this season. In addition to his starting duties in the middle, Davis will back up Hayes on the weakside as linebackers coach Kevin Steele will have some flexibility in his defensive packages. Sophomore Rodney Gallon begins August workouts third on the depth chart, but should see plenty of action as FSU substitutes freely as well as special teams duty.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

TONY CARTER

Mickey Andrews' defensive backfield has produced some of the nation's top talent over the last 20 years and while some may not know the names of the members of this year's secondary, the talent is still as strong. The two starters at corner — Tony Carter and J.R. Bryant — were in the lineup for the second half of last season and should form an outstanding duo. Junior Roger Williams will start at one of the safety spots, likely at free, where he moved up to first team in the last two games of the 2005 regular season.

Carter returns as the starter at field corner, where his speed allows him to close ground on the wide side of the field. Carter was named to several freshmen All-American teams and, despite his 5-9 size, is an excellent cover corner. He will be backed up Michael Ray Garvin, who earned All-America honors with the FSU track and field team while helping the men win their first national championship during the outdoor season. Redshirt freshman Korey Mangum had a great spring and will see time behind Carter and Garvin. On the other side at boundary corner, Bryant brings plenty of experience as he started the last six games in 2005 including the ACC Championship and the Orange Bowl. Talented redshirt freshman Jamie Robinson also turned heads this spring and will back up Bryant.

Williams basically split time with Pat Watkins, a fifth round pick of the Dallas Cowboys, last year and gets his chance to be first on the depth chart this year. Sophomore Darius McClure and walk-on Mikhal Kornegay will be listed 2-3 behind Williams as fall practice starts. At rover, junior Anthony Houllis will have to hold off true freshman Myron Rolle for starting duties. While Houllis has the edge in experience, Rolle was regarded by many as the top high school player in the country a year ago. He graduated early to enroll in January and made the most of his spring, recording two interceptions in the spring game with one of those being returned for a touchdown. Sophomore Roosevelt Lawson played mainly on special teams last year and is listed behind Houllis and Rolle.

SPECIALISTS

GRAHAM GANO

The Seminoles return placekicker Gary Cismesia but must replace punter Chris Hall and deep snapper Myles Hodish. Cismesia went 17-of-24 on field goal attempts last year and 42-of-43 on extra points. He will have to hold off Graham Gano and Chase Goggans during preseason practices. Coaches charted kicking accuracy in the spring and Cismesia edged out Gano in terms of percentage. Goggans was slowed by a hamstring injury and will need to get back into form to make a move.

Gano emerged from the spring as the No. 1 punter and will be pushed by Louisville transfer Brent Moody for the starting job. Gano will also handle kickoffs this season as he did during the second half of last year. He will be backed up by Cismesia on kickoffs.

Probably the most important loss in the area of special teams was Willie Reid at punt returner. Coaches will look at several possible replacements there including Chris Davis, Richard Goodman and possibly a few of the incoming freshmen. Candidates at kickoff return include tailback Jamaal Edwards and speedy cornerback Michael Ray Garvin.
