2005 GAME-BY-GAME RECAPS

GAME 1 — 9/5 • DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM • TALLAHASSEE, FL No. 14 FLORIDA STATE 10 No. 9 MIAMI 7

After six straight years of frustrating finishes, the Seminoles found some good fortune against their rivals when the Hurricanes botched a short, potential game-tying field goal in the closing minutes of Florida State's 10-7 victory Monday night.

But holder Brian Monroe dropped a low snap that bounced off his hands and rolled back into the pile, never giving Peattie a chance to try the kick.

With No. 9 Miami out of timeouts, No. 14 Florida State simply needed to run out the clock to secure its first victory over the Hurricanes since 1999.

In a series that has seen countless missed field goals by Florida State decide games, Miami missed two and couldn't even get off the biggest one of the game.

Florida State overcame 170 yards of total offense with a defense that registered nine sacks and some solid special teams plays.

Both Florida State's Drew Weatherford and Miami's Kyle Wright were making their first collegiate start at quarterback.

Weatherford was not consistent, going 7-for-24 for 67 yards with an interception. He was pulled early in the fourth, but fellow redshirt freshman Xavier Lee had no luck moving the 'Noles, either.

Wright finished 16-for-28 for 232 yards and a touchdown pass.

So, it came down to the defenses and special teams, and even when those units set up their offenses with prime field position, it was no sure thing they'd capitalize. The Seminoles wasted a first-and-goal from the 1 in the third quarter.

Wright worked through his problems, including two early interceptions and a few dropped passes, long enough to guide an 81-yard touchdown drive in the second quarter. The sophomore's first career TD pass was a 34-yarder, zipped over a defender to Ryan Moore to make it 10-7 Florida State at the half.

It looked even more ominous for Florida State when Lawrence Timmons blocked a Miami punt that left the Seminoles with first-and-goal at the 1. After three runs lost 3 yards and a false start pushed FSU back another 5, first-year starter Gary Cismesia hooked a 23-yard field goal left.

The pick set up Florida State at the Miami 29 and moments later James Coleman bulled in from the 1 for a 7-0 lead and the Seminoles' first first-quarter TD against the 'Canes since FSU's last win six years ago.

Cismesia made the first field-goal attempt of his career from 37 yards out a few minutes later, much to the delight of the Seminoles fans, who have been crushed by bad kicks against Miami more times than they prefer to remember.

Meanwhile, Peattie, a veteran who made 15 of 24 field goal attempts last season, missed badly from 47 and 39 in the quarter.

GAME 2 — 9/10 • DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM • TALLAHASSEE, FL No. 11 FLORIDA STATE 62 THE CITADEL 10

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — After shaky performances earlier in the week, Florida State's two freshmen quarterbacks showed their talent Saturday night.

Drew Weatherford bounced back from after struggling in his first collegiate start to throw for 342 yards and two touchdowns as No. 11 Florida State beat Division I-AA The Citadel 62-10, its most points and yards in a game since the 2000 season.

Weatherford completed 26 of 37 passes, a vast improvement from Monday's 7-for-24 showing for 67 yards in a 10-7 win over Miami. His backup, Xavier Lee, finished with 143 yards and a touchdown in reserve action.

"Both of them showed they can throw the football if we give them some time," Florida State coach Bobby Bowden said. "As it turned out, we had to pass to get the lead."

Trailing 10-3 with just over a minute left in the half, Florida State scored 45 straight points, including five third-quarter touchdowns, to lead 48-10 after three quarters.

Lee also ran 24 yards for another score as the Seminoles (2-0) stayed on the ground for most of the fourth quarter, finishing with 629 total yards.

Tailbacks Leon Washington, Lorenzo Booker and freshman Antone Smith each ran for scores in the third quarter and Weatherford finished off his night's work with a 40-yard touchdown pass to 6-foot-6 freshman Greg Carr, who moments later grabbed a 10-yard scoring pass from Lee.

The outmanned Citadel (1-1) was dominated by Florida State's defense, managing just 91 yards total offense and five first downs.

Chris Davis caught nine passes for 125 yards, De'Cody Fagg had seven receptions for 113 yards and Carr had 104 yards on three catches.

Florida State paid The Citadel $400,000 to play the game, and give its young quarterbacks and receivers some practice.

After Lee was intercepted, the Bulldogs tied the game 3-3 five minutes into the second quarter on Blake Vandiver's career-high 45 yard field goal. Vince Hill then picked up a fumble by Weatherford and went 70 to give the Bulldogs a short-lived 10-3 lead late in the first half.

GAME 3 — 9/17 • ALUMNI STADIUM • CHESTNUT HILL, MA
No. 8 FLORIDA STATE 28 No. 17 BOSTON COLLEGE 17

BOSTON (AP) — Florida State gave Boston College a rude welcome to the Atlantic Coast Conference.

A.J. Nicholson intercepted two passes, scoring on a 19-yard return on the first play of the game, and Greg Carr caught two touchdowns to help eighth-ranked Florida State beat No. 17 Boston College 28-17 on Saturday night and spoil the Eagles' ACC debut.

Nicholson's interceptions sparked the Seminoles (3-0, 2-0) to a 14-0 lead in the first five minutes before BC scored 17 unanswered points to take the lead. The Eagles (2-1) nursed the lead - thanks to a great play by Mathias Kiwanuka — until quarterback Quinton Porter left with an ankle injury and Florida State took advantage.

Drew Weatherford hit Carr on a 6-yard slant across the middle of the end zone with 10:13 left in the fourth to give the Seminoles a 21-17 lead. After Eagles backup Matthew Ryan's third consecutive three-and-out, Darius McClure blocked a punt deep in BC territory and Lorenzo Booker made up for a goal-line fumble by scoring from 4 yards out to make it 28-17.

BC drove to the Florida State 2 in the final three minutes, but couldn't score in seven tries, including a defensive holding penalty — and used up most of the clock while trying.

Weatherford was 20-for-38 for 231 yards and two touchdowns. Porter was 20-for-31 with one touchdown and two interceptions before leaving late in the third quarter, and Ryan was 7-for-11 for 89 yards, most of it on the last drive.

Porter slipped backing away from the center and tried to ditch the ball in the flat toward Larry Lester, but Nicholson stepped in front of it and took it 19 yards into the end zone. Seven seconds into its much-ballyhooped entry into the superconference, Boston College was behind 7-0.

BC drove 55 yards on the next possession before Nicholson picked off another, but this time Porter knocked him out of bounds to postpone the touchdown. Florida State scored three plays later when Weatherford threw a 20-yard jump ball that the 6-foot-6 Carr pulled down over 5-foot-9 cornerback DeJuan Tribble in the corner of the end zone.

But BC reached Florida State territory four consecutive times — resulting in an interception, a field goal and two touchdowns — to take a 17-14 lead early in the second quarter. BC still led at the end of the third when Florida State drove to the BC 33 yard-line.

Although the schools hadn't played in 25 years, Florida State coach Bobby Bowden has a little history with Boston College. He won his first road game with the Seminoles on Oct. 9, 1976, when Florida State beat BC 28-9.

GAME 4 — 10/1 • DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM • TALLAHASSEE, FL
No. 6 FLORIDA STATE 38 SYRACUSE 14

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Drew Weatherford passed for 234 yards and three touchdowns, including a 71-yard swing pass to Lorenzo Booker, and No. 6 Florida State defeated Syracuse 38-14 Saturday.

Weatherford, a redshirt freshman making his fourth collegiate start, also scored a rushing touchdown as the Seminoles rolled up a 24-0 lead.

Florida State (4-0), which had nine sacks in its opener against Miami, got Syracuse quarterback Perry Patterson seven times.

With the temperature approaching 90 on a humid afternoon, Syracuse (1-3) was virtually helpless on offense through most of the game, managing only 57 yards and two first downs by halftime.

Syracuse's Damien Rhodes, who came into the game ranked 10th nationally with an average of 120.3 rushing yards, was held to 44 yards on 15 carries, but added 70 more with four catches.

Weatherford completed 17 of 26 passes, also throwing touchdown passes covering 43 yards to Willie Reid and 15 yards to Chris Davis.

Backup quarterback Xavier Lee passed for 162 yards, including a 75-yard completion to freshman Kenny O'Neal that set up the Seminoles final touchdown — an 11-yard run by Lamar Lewis.

Florida State took a 7-0 lead when Syracuse cornerback Steve Gregory bobbled an overthrown pass from Weatherford right into Reid's arms. Reid, who missed the last two games with a leg injury, grabbed the deflected overthrow in stride and scooted into the end zone uncontested.

The Seminoles got the ball back on the following kickoff when Mikhail Kornegay's hit forced Kareem Jones' fumble at the Syracuse 22 and the Seminoles were in the end zone two minutes later on Weatherford's 1-yard plunge.

Gary Cismesia's 37-yard field goal gave Florida State a 17-0 halftime lead. Florida State coach Bobby Bowden, the winningest coach in major college football, improved to 355-102-4, remaining seven victories ahead of Penn State coach Joe Paterno.

The Orange did manage to become the first team to score on Florida State in the second half this season when Patterson ran 2 yards for a touchdown with 4:06 left in the third period. A 20-yard punt gave the Orange the ball at Florida State's 34 and a pass interference penalty set up Patterson's scoring run.

Patterson lobbed a 30-yard TD pass to Nicholas Chestnut, completing an 80-yard scoring drive late in the fourth quarter as Florida State was substituting freely.

GAME 5 — 10/8 • DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM • TALLAHASSEE, FL
No. 4 FLORIDA STATE 41 WAKE FOREST 21

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Greg Carr is making a name for himself in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The true freshman caught a 63-yard pass to set up the first of three fourth quarter scores, helping No. 4 Florida State beat pesky Wake Forest 41-24 Saturday.

“We had them on the ropes,” said Wake Forest tailback Chris Barclay, whose 31-yard touchdown run pulled his team to 20-17 late in the third quarter.

Following the score, Florida State (5-0, 3-0 ACC) was deep in its own territory, a play away from having to punt. And the game was in the hands of freshmen.

Faced with a third-and-15 at his own 21, redshirt freshman Drew Weatherford escaped a heavy rush and threw the ball long for the 6-foot-6 Carr, who caught it near midfield and ran to the Wake Forest 16 for his big gain — on his 20th birthday.

Wake Forest (2-4, 1-2) knew its upset hopes had ended.

On the next play, Weatherford found Fred Rouse for a 16-yard score to give Florida State a 27-17 lead.

Florida State scored on a long swing pass on its next drive when Leon Washington went 61 yards for a 34-17 lead. The same play worked a week earlier when Lorenzo Booker went 71 yards for a score.

Backup quarterback Xavier Lee scored the final touchdown for the Seminoles with 5:38 left.

Carr, who is averaging almost 30 yards a catch this season, caught a 28-yard touchdown pass from Weatherford in the first quarter for his fifth TD catch of the season.

Weatherford threw for 351 yards and three touchdowns and ran for another as the offense rolled up 587 yards and 27 first downs. He completed 20 of 31 passes and also scored on a 1-yard run that gave Florida State a 7-0 lead.

But Florida State’s nationally ranked defense struggled all day against the pesky Demon Deacons. Though the Seminoles never trailed, they were in trouble heading into the last quarter. Wake Forest rolled up 415 yards of its own.

Barclay, the ACC’s leading rusher, finished with 125 yards against a rush defense that was ranked sixth nationally.

GAME 6 — 10/15 • SCOTT STADIUM • CHARLOTTEVILLE, VA
VIRGINIA 26 No. 4 FLORIDA STATE 21

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va. (AP)—Bobby Bowden has seen a lot in 40 years of coaching, from Heisman Trophy winners to the wonder of Michael Vick in a national championship.

But he’s never seen anything that topped what Marques Hagans did to the fourth-ranked Seminoles on Saturday night, dodging pass rushers all night long, and often finding a receiver and firing a laser into his arms while running for his life.

“I’ve never seen a quarterback make as many one-man plays as he made tonight,” Bowden said after Hagans led Virginia to a 26-21 victory against the Seminoles.

“We couldn’t stop that dadgum No. 18,” Bowden said.

Hagans threw for a career-best 306 yards and two touchdowns and Connor Hughes kicked four field goals for the Cavaliers (4-2, 2-2 Atlantic Coast Conference), who reprinted history and beat a top-5 team for only the second time in their history.

The other was Florida State, too, 10 years ago.

“I’m tired,” said Hagans, who connected on 27 of 36 passes. “But the win was so big. We had lost two in a row and the season was on the line.”

Like their victory in 1995, which ended with Warrick Dunn stopped inches from the goal line on the final play to preserve a 33-28 victory, this one went to the wire, too, sealed by Tony Franklin’s interception of Drew Weatherford with 50 seconds left.

Leading 26-10 entering the final quarter, the Cavaliers led only 26-21 when they stopped the Seminoles (5-1, 3-1) near midfield with 3 1/2 minutes to go.

Hagans then ran for 6 yards before Florida State’s Tony Carter was called for pass interference on third down, giving Virginia a badly needed first down.

After Hagans came up a yard short on the next third-and-7 run, the Cavaliers punted and Florida State got one last chance from its own 26 with 56 seconds left.

Weatherford threw deep downfield, but Franklin was inside the receiver and made the catch. Two downings of the ball brought thousands of students out onto the field.

Florida State, with Weatherford looking less like a freshman as the game got more tense, had rallied behind his 22-yard touchdown pass to Chris Davis and a 32-yard field goal from Gary Cismesia, a drive when Virginia held at its own 15-yard line.

Weatherford finished 35-for-59 for 377 yards.

Florida State lost because it had no answer for Hagans, who used his speed to get away from defenders all night, repeatedly buying time and completing passes on the run. Virginia finished with only 20 yards rushing on 28 attempts, and Hagans officially carried nine times for minus 4 yards, but he clearly frustrated the Seminoles.

GAME 7 — 10/22 • WALLACE WADE STADIUM • DURHAM, NC
No. 11 FLORIDA STATE 55 DUKE 24

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Drew Weatherford threw two touchdown passes and backup Xavier Lee added two of his own to help No. 11 Florida State bounce back from its first loss of the season with a 55-24 victory over Duke on Saturday.

Greg Carr caught three of the TDs and third-string tailback Antone Smith ran for two scores for the Seminoles (6-1, 3-1 Atlantic Coast Conference), who still struggled to generate a running game against the outmanned Blue Devils (1-7, 0-5). Smith was the leading rusher with 76 yards, and 45 of those came on a spectacular run early in the fourth quarter with the outcome no longer in doubt.

On fourth-and-2, Smith broke five tackles near the line of scrimmage - including a couple deep in his own backfield - then dove through another at the goal line.

Weatherford and Lee more than made up for the lack of success on the ground. Combined, they were 34-for-49 for 376 yards against the fourth-best pass defense in the ACC to help Florida State improve to 14-0 in the series.

However, this game was much more competitive than any of the others, even while the Seminoles scored at least 45 points for the fifth consecutive trip to Wallace Wade Stadium. Duke amassed 195 yards rushing and was within 24-14 midway through the third quarter following Justin Boyle's 1-yard touchdown plunge.

That score came after Ronnie Drummer sprinted 55 yards on a reverse to set up first-and-goal, the third game in a row he's had a run of at least 50 yards.

Florida State regained control by going 78 yards to extend the lead, with Smith running around the left end untouched to make it 31-14. Weatherford was 3-for-3 on the drive.

Perhaps Duke's final chance came on the ensuing possession, when coach Ted Roof called for a fake punt from his own 27-yard line. Punter Chris Sprague was stopped for a 2-yard loss, and on the next play, Lee lobbed a perfect pass over cornerback John Talley that Carr caught in the corner of the end zone.

In fact, all of his TDs came on similar plays, where the 6-foot-6 Carr simply jumped over the 5-11 Talley. Those offset Talley's fifth interception in the final seconds of the first half.

Weatherford finished 24-for-32 for 276 yards, while Lee was 10-for-17 for 100 to help the Seminoles pile up 539 yards of total offense.

GAME 8 — 10/29 • DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM • TALLAHASSEE, FL
No. 10 FLORIDA STATE 35 MARYLAND 27

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Drew Weatherford and James Coleman scored fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead No. 10 Florida State to a 35-27 comeback victory over Maryland on Saturday.

Weatherford's 15-yard run with 8:52 left gave the Seminoles a 28-27 lead and they scored three minutes later on Coleman's 1-yard run. Coleman's score was set up by Ernie Sims' interception.

Maryland's final bid for a tie ended with 52 seconds left when Joel Statham was sacked by A.J. Nicholson at the Florida State 40. The Seminoles avoided losing to the Terps for a second straight year.

Florida State (7-1, 5-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) can lock up a spot in the first league title game Dec. 3 at Jacksonville with a victory over North Carolina State next Saturday.

Maryland (4-4, 2-3) scored 24 straight points midway through the game, building a 24-14 lead on Dan Ennis' 40-yard field goal three minutes into the second half.

But the Seminoles turned to their favorite weapon, freshman wide receiver Greg Carr, to get back into the game.

The 6-foot-6 Carr caught a 37-yard pass to the Maryland 1 and then, after two plays lost yards, he broke wide open in the end zone to snag a 4-yard scoring pass to cut Maryland's lead to 24-21.

After Ennis kicked a 35-yard field goal to start the fourth quarter and give the Terrapins a 27-21 lead, Carr was again center stage.

Leon Washington scored on a 3-yard run on Florida State's first offensive series and Willie Reid added a 61-yard punt return TD to give the Seminoles a 14-0 lead in the opening minute of the second quarter.

But Maryland countered with three touchdowns in a span of nine minutes to take a 21-14 halftime lead. Statham ran for a score and added touchdown passes covering 29 yards to Derrick Fenner and 20 yards to Jo Jo Walker.

Statham, who sparked Maryland's 20-17 victory over Florida State a year ago, completed 15 of 29 passes for 177 yards.

Weatherford, a redshirt freshman leading the ACC in passing, completed 27 of 37 passes for 264 yards, but was intercepted twice. Reid had seven catches for 90 yards and finished with 227 all purpose yards.

GAME 9 — 11/5 • DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM • TALLAHASSEE, FL
NC STATE 20 No. 9 FLORIDA STATE 15

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Andre Brown ran for 179 yards and a touchdown and North Carolina State intercepted Drew Weatherford three times to upset No. 9 Florida State 20-15 for its third victory in five years over the Seminoles.

Florida State (7-2, 5-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) backed into the league's first championship game scheduled next month in Jacksonville because Boston College lost at North Carolina.

Without injured tailback Leon Washington, Florida State's offense managed 43 yards rushing and was unable to get the ball to 6-foot-6 receiver Greg Carr, who came into the game leading the ACC in touchdown catches and yards receiving.

Weatherford was particularly ineffective in the second half, completing 5 of 17 passes for 55 yards while throwing three interceptions. He was relieved for two series midway in the fourth quarter by an equally ineffective Xavier Lee.

Florida State, which had averaged 40 points a game over its last seven contests, scored its lone touchdown midway through the second quarter when Chris Davis went 33 yards with a slant pass from Weatherford for a 10-7 lead.

The Seminoles' only other points came on field goals of 25 and 48 yards by Gary Cismesia, and a safety.

N.C. State (4-4, 2-4) built a 20-10 lead late in the third quarter when Anthony Hill caught a 4-yard touchdown pass from Marcus Stone.

Brown, who ran for 248 yards a week ago, raced 65 yards for a touchdown that gave the Wolfpack a 7-0 lead 17 seconds into the game. John Deraney added field goals of 48 and 22 yards.

The defense did the rest.

Interceptions in the final two minutes by A.J. Davis and Garland Heath helped the Wolfpack survive a pair of late blocked punts in the final 6:09.

On top of the defeat, the Seminoles lost their top pass rusher. Defensive end Kameron Wimbley left the game late in the first half with a left knee injury and did not return.

GAME 10 — 11/12 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, SC
CLEMSON 35 No. 17 FLORIDA STATE 14

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP) — Charlie Whitehurst's shoulder still hurt this week. But the Clemson quarterback was not going to miss senior day and a chance to beat Florida State.

After taking a shot to numb his throwing shoulder, Whitehurst threw for 269 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Tigers (6-4, 4-4 Atlantic Coast) over the No. 17 Seminoles 35-14 Saturday.

Whitehurst went 21-of-32 a week after resting his sore shoulder and Chansi Stuckey had 11 catches for 156 yards and two TDs for Clemson.

The Seminoles (7-3, 5-3) gained just 226 yards as they lost for the second game in a row and the third time in their last five. They have lost three games in the ACC for the first time since joining the league in 1992.

It just wasn't Whitehurst and the Clemson offense. Florida State's only touchdown came on a blocked punt.

The Seminoles came into Saturday with the ACC's top passing offense at 309 yards a contest, but the Tigers put pressure on the Seminoles' freshmen quarterbacks all game, getting six sacks and leaving little time for receivers to get open. Starter Drew Weatherford was 12-of-27 for 117 yards and two interceptions, while Xavier Lee, who entered the game in the fourth quarter, was 1-of-7 for seven yards.

Whitehurst showed no ill effects from taking last week off, completing six of eight passes for 100 yards in Clemson's first two drives as the Tigers took a 14-0 lead.

A blocked punt recovered for a touchdown and two field goals helped Florida State tie it at 14 at the half, but the Tigers defense took over in the third quarter.

Both Bowdens said the turning point was the first of Weatherford's two third-quarter interceptions. On the first possession after halftime, Michael Hamlin picked off Weatherford at the Clemson 33, ending one of Florida State's best drives of the game.

The Tigers marched right back down the field, taking a 21-14 lead on Stuckey's 32-yard TD catch from Whitehurst.

As Weatherford continued to struggle, Clemson added an 8-yard scoring run by James Davis and a 4-yard touchdown catch by Aaron Kelly to put the game away. The win made the Tigers bowl-eligible for the seventh straight year.

Bobby Bowden changed quarterbacks in the fourth quarter, but Lee couldn't get his team going either, with his receivers dropping at least two sure catches as the clock wound down.

Whitehurst, who before Saturday called his first win over Florida State one of the highlights of his career, said the win in 2003 felt lucky, while this one felt more like one team dominating the other.

No. 19 FLORIDA 34 No. 23 FLORIDA STATE 7

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Chris Leak threw two touchdown passes, the defense created four turnovers and the No. 19 Gators overwhelmed 23rd-ranked Florida State 34-7 Saturday at The Swamp.

Florida (8-3) finished undefeated at home for the first time since 2000 and knocked off its top three rivals — Tennessee, Georgia and Florida State — in the same season for the first time since 1996.

Florida State (7-4) still has a chance to turn the season around, though. It can win the inaugural Atlantic Coast Conference championship game next week in Jacksonville and advance to the Orange Bowl.

But few would believe that possible after FSU's last three games: losses to North Carolina State, Clemson and Florida. The Seminoles were outscored 89-36 in those contests.

Florida's victory against its in-state rival was the most lopsided in the series since a 52-20 win in the 1997 Sugar Bowl, which gave the Gators their lone national title.

Florida won this one with its most complete game of the season. The offense sustained long drives, the defense delivered constant pressure on Drew Weatherford, and special teams scored a touchdown.

Leak capped a 71-yard drive with an 8-yard TD pass to Chad Jackson on the first play of the second quarter.

Jackson finished with nine catches for 97 yards. Leak wasn't particularly precise, with several overthrows and underthrows, but he 19-of-28 for 211 yards.

Leak threw an interception on the next possession, giving Florida State great field position at the Florida 27 — but the defense forced a 45-yard field goal attempt.

The kick turned out to be disastrous for the Seminoles. Marcus Thomas split two linemen and blocked the low kick with his left hand. Reggie Lewis picked it up on one hop and returned it 52 yards for a score and a 14-0 lead.

Chris Hetland kicked a field goal in the third quarter to make it 17-0, then the Gators pulled away with 17 points in the first five minutes of the fourth quarter — all following turnovers.

Hetland's second field goal followed an interception by Jarvis Herring near the goal line. Herring stepped in front of Weatherford's floating pass on first-and-10 at the 14. The Gators drove 63 yards to set up Hetland's 34-yarder.

Leon Washington fumbled two plays later, then Leak hit Dallas Baker for a 15-yard score that put Florida up 27-0.

The Seminoles fumbled again a few possessions later, and Markus Manson capped another drive with a 2-yard TD run.

Florida State avoided a shutout when Weatherford connected with De'Cody Fagg for a 6-yard score with 6:35 to play. Weatherford finished 24-of-42 for 285 yards. He was sacked five times and hurried on nearly every passing play.

GAME 12 — 12/3 • ALLTEL STADIUM • JACKSONVILLE, FL
FLORIDA STATE 27 No. 5 VIRGINIA TECH 22

This is how it's supposed to be. The Seminoles are conference champs — again. Reid returned a punt 83 yards for a touchdown, the defense continually harassed Marcus Vick and Florida State upset No. 5 Virginia Tech 27-22 Saturday night in the inaugural Atlantic Coast Conference title game.

The Seminoles (8-4) snapped a three-game losing streak — the program's first since 1981 — and won the league title for the 12th time in 14 years.

"We're back to normal now," said Reid, who finished with 210 all-purpose yards and was the game's most valuable player. "We're back to Florida State football."

Florida State turned around a disappointing season and earned a Bowl Championship Series berth in the Orange Bowl, where it likely will face No. 4 Penn State.

The Seminoles silenced the groans — starting with Reid's return, which sparked a 24-point third quarter that broke a 3-3 tie.

Vick led the Hokies (10-2) to consecutive touchdowns in the fourth quarter — a 29-yard pass to Josh Morgan and then a 4-yard run — that cut the lead to 27-15. He capped a 93-yard drive with a 1-yard TD run with 1:45 to play that made it 27-22.

But Tech, without any timeouts, failed to recover the onside kick. The Seminoles ran out the clock from there — and celebrated another ACC title.

"We stayed confident throughout all the troubling things," Florida State defensive tackle Brodrick Bunkley said. "Every team goes through things like that. That's the way champions do it; they overcome their problems."

Vick was much better than he was against Miami last month, when he threw two interceptions and fumbled four times. He finished 26-of-52 passing for 335 yards, with a touchdown and an interception. He also ran 17 times for 11 yards and two scores.

The Seminoles did too much damage in the decisive third quarter. Virginia Tech went three-and-out to open the second half, and Reid fielded the punt near the sideline, sprinted ahead, cut inside and then juked two players and went nearly untouched into the end zone. Punter Nic Schmitt had a shot at Reid, but his diving, one-armed attempt at a leg tackle was futile.

Vick, who was sacked four times in the first half and six times in the game, threw an interception on the ensuing possession. Florida State's Drew Weatherford completed consecutive passes to Fred Rouse and De'Cody Fagg, then Leon Washington sprinted up the middle for a 14-yard score.

The Seminoles had a 17-3 lead and all the momentum. Players were jumping up and down on the sideline. Florida State's famed War Chant resonated through Alltel Stadium. This looked much more like the confident, borderline cocky, Seminoles who used to run roughshod through the conference.

GAME 13 — 1/3 • DOLPHINS STADIUM • MIAMI, FL
No. 3 PENN STATE 26 ... No. 22 FLORIDA STATE 23 (3 OT)

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — This really was one for the ages.

For more than four hours, Joe Paterno and Bobby Bowden paced the Orange Bowl sidelines, searching for offense and enduring one missed kick after another.

Finally, in the third overtime, at 1 a.m. Wednesday, Kevin Kelly made a 29-yard field goal, giving Paterno and Penn State a 26-23 victory over Bowden's Florida State Seminoles.

"I told him we're too old for this," the 79-year-old Paterno said afterward. "It's almost past my bedtime."

Given two earlier chances to win the game, Kelly missed field goal attempts of 29 and 38 yards. Paterno calmly patted the freshman's back after the second miss, then sent him onto the field on second down for the winning kick.

Florida State counterpart Gary Cismesia missed an extra point in the first half and field goal tries of 44 and 38 yards in overtime.

Moments after the game ended, the two old friends came together and stood shoulder-to-shoulder in a crush of cameras and microphones to exchange warm words.

Florida State mostly contained Big Ten most valuable player Michael Robinson, who threw a touchdown pass with six seconds left in the first half but was limited to 253 yards passing and 21 rushing. One scrum knocked off his helmet.

Austin Scott's 1-yard run put Penn State ahead. B.J. Dean pulled the Seminoles even with a 1-yard scoring run.

After Cismesia's 38-yard attempt hit the right upright, Kelly finally came through. The kick gave Paterno his 354th career win, second in Division I-A only to Bowden's 359.

The Seminoles scored two touchdowns in 80 seconds - on an Orange Bowl-record 87-yard punt return by Willie Reid, and on a 57-yard reception by Lorenzo Booker.

Defense produced the first score of the second half. Weatherford, working from his end zone, was called for intentional grounding — a safety — when Penn State's Jim Shaw forced a throw.

Leading 16-13, the Nittany Lions had a chance to take control with nine minutes left. But on first-and-goal at the 4, Florida State recovered a botched snap.

The Seminoles trailed 7-0 when Reid weaved up the middle on a runback, cut left and dashed to the end zone. The punt return broke the Orange Bowl record of 80 yards by former Florida State athletic director Cecil "Hootie" Ingram for Alabama in 1953.
