NICK SABAN, HEAD COACH OF THE MIAMI DOLPHINS, ON WHETHER OR NOT HE WAS SURPRISED FLORIDA STATE HAD FOUR FIRST ROUND PICKS ON DEFENSE THIS YEAR:

"No, not after I looked at the players. They're very good on defense, very aggressive and very well-coached. Mickey (Andrews) and Kevin Steele have a good scheme. The players play hard. They're very competitive. They're well coached and they develop players there very nicely as well as being able to recruit quality players. Each one of those guys we felt like were going to get picked in the first round. They certainly did — and very quickly at that. Had (Antonio) Cromartie had a little better body of work in terms of playing more, he may have been a guy who may have risen from where he was as well because coming off an ACL and not having played that much prior to that or played since probably created a question mark in some people's minds, certainly not in ours. We think he's an outstanding player and we'd have been happy to have him on our team. We would have been happy to have any of those guys, actually. And they're all outstanding people."
