

Coaching Staff

Jody Allen

DEFENSIVE ENDS/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
VALDOSTA STATE '83 • 8TH SEASON AT FSU

ALLEN'S QUICK FACTS

Years as a Collegiate Coach: 17

Born: Atlanta, GA

Coaching Stops:

- 1983 — Marion Military Institute (offensive line)
- 1984-85 — Alabama (graduate assistant)
- 1986 — Alabama (receivers)
- 1987-89 — Ole Miss (receivers)
- 1990-91 — Ole Miss (running backs)
- 1992 — Arkansas State (receivers)
- 1993 — Arkansas State (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)
- 1994 — B.C. Lions (CFL) (receivers/special teams coordinator)
- 1995 — Shreveport Pirates (CFL) (receivers/special teams coordinator)
- 1997 — Murray State (receivers)
- 1998 — Griffin (GA) High School (offensive coordinator)
- 1999 — Valdosta State (receivers)
- 2000-01 — Florida State (graduate assistant)
- 2002- — Florida State (defensive ends)

- Jody Allen is set to begin his 17th season as a college coach and his eighth with Florida State
- Allen added the title of Special Teams Coordinator this spring along with

- coaching the Seminole defensive ends
- Coached Cleveland Browns first round pick Kamerion Wimbley who was selected 13th overall in the 2006 NFL Draft
- Three defensive linemen have been taken in the first round of the NFL draft since Allen began working with the ends
- Following the 2004 season, both of Allen's defensive ends were selected in

- the draft
- Four of Allen's defensive ends have been selected in the last five NFL drafts
- Allen worked under Mickey Andrews with the Seminole defensive backs as a graduate assistant and in 2001 Derrick Gibson was Oakland's first round pick in the NFL draft
- Four members of the secondaries Allen worked with were selected in the NFL draft

ALLEN'S #1 PICKS

Kamerion Wimbley (Browns No. 1 Draft Choice in 2006)
Derrick Gibson (Raiders No. 1 Draft Choice in 2001)