DUNN NAMED 2005 NO. 1 GOOD GUY IN PRO SPORTS AND NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

Former Seminole tailback Warrick Dunn of the Atlanta Falcons was named the 2005 No. 1 Good Guy in pro sports by The Sporting News. It's the second such award Dunn has received as last February he was recognized by the NFL with the Walter Payton Man of the Year Award for his efforts to help those less fortunate. Dunn started a foundation to help single mothers soon after he entered the NFL. Through his "Homes for the Holidays" program, the Warrick Dunn Foundation has secured new homes for more than 50 single mothers in Dunn's hometown of Baton Rouge, La., as well as Tampa Bay and Atlanta. The FSU Hall of Fame member now joins former Seminole Derrick Brooks, who was No. 1 on the The Sporting News' 2000 Good Guy Award's list.

HE HAS WON AWARDS AND NOW HE IS AN AWARD

A new national award, named after Florida State football coach Bobby Bowden was initiated by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes organization in 2003. Named after the legendary FSU football coach, the National Bobby Bowden Award highlights the collegiate football player who best epitomizes the term student-athlete. The person selected will be one of character, classroom excellence, athletic achievement and community involvement. This award combines the role modeling of the NFL Player of the Year Award, the Heisman for best collegiate player performance on the field and the CoSIDA Academic Award for classroom excellence. The award is presented annually during the week of the BCS Championship game. The Fellowship of Christian Athletes will compile the nominees each year.

ANDREWS INDUCTED INTO ALABAMA SPORTS HALL OF FAME

Defensive Coordinator Mickey Andrews was one of eight individuals inducted into the State of Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 2006. A native of Daleville, Alabama, Andrews played collegiately at the University of Alabama. He earned second team All-American honors as a wide receiver and defensive back. He was also an All-SEC choice in baseball. In 1964, he received the Hugo Friedman Award as the Tide's best all-around athlete. He has been involved in five national championships (two as a player at Alabama '61 and '64, as head coach at Livingston '71 and two at Florida State '93 and '99). He was inducted with Joe Ciampi (basketball), Jim Davenport (baseball), Tim Flock (NASCAR), Mia Hamm (soccer), Lionel James (football), Buddy McClinton (football) and Bob Veale (baseball).

Seminole Head Coach Bobby Bowden and Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Charlie Ward were inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2006. The 2006 class included 13 All-America players and two legendary coaches. Florida State University was the only school with two inductees. The College Football Hall of Fame 2006 Class will be inducted at the 49th Annual Awards Dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City in December and will officially be enshrined at the Hall in South Bend, Indiana, during ceremonies in the summer of 2007. Bowden and Ward are joined by Bobby Anderson (RB-Colorado), Bennie Blades (DB-Miami), Carl Eller (T-Minnesota), Steve Emtman (DL-Washington), Thomas Everett (FS-Baylor), Chad Hennings (DT-Air Force), Chip Kell (OG-Tennessee), Mike Phipps (QB-Purdue), Mike Rozier (RB-Nebraska), Jeff Siemon (LB-Stanford), Bruce Smith (DT-Virginia Tech) and Emmitt Smith (RB-Florida). Penn State's Joe Paterno joins Bowden as the two coaches inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

PRODUCING THE NFL'S TOP PLAYERS

In August of 2006 the Wall Street Journal published the findings of what the paper labeled "The Dow Jones College-Football Success Index". The study sought a different way to determine the success of college football programs by determining how many of a school's alumni made it to the NFL and how effective those players were once they made it to the National Football League. Florida State not only finished No. 1 in their index but the Seminoles blew away the field. FSU finished ahead of its nearest competitor by 11% causing the paper to exclaim "No contest".

SEMINOLE QUARTERBACK PAJIC GIVES TO THE WARRICK DUNN FOUNDATION

Florida State alumnus and former quarterback Gary Pajic made a sizable contribution to the Warrick Dunn Foundation at the Seminoles' annual spring game in 2006. Although separated by a couple of decades, both Pajic and Warrick Dunn were star football players who later made it a priority to give back to their communities. The two former players met on Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Campbell Stadium during the annual Garnet and Gold Game to help others in need. Pajic, on behalf of FSU and his law firm Pajic and Pajic, presented Dunn with $100,000 for the Warrick Dunn Foundation — an effort to expand the "Homes for the Holidays" program that he started after being drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1997.

AFCA RECOGNIZES FLORIDA STATE FOR GRADUATION RATE

Florida State was among nine Atlantic Coast Conference schools who were recognized for graduating at least 70 percent of their football student-athletes according to the American Football Coaches Association annual Academic Achievement Awards data in 2006. SMU won top honors with a 100 percent graduation rate while Boston College and Duke were among six Division I-A institutions with a graduation rate of 90 percent or better. The ACC led all conferences with nine schools on the honors list, followed by the Big East and Big 12 with four.

FSU PRESIDENT WAS A FOOTBALL STAR

Florida State president Dr. T.K. Wetherell starred on the football field from 1965-67. Wetherell was coached by Bobby Bowden as a wide receiver in his first two years. The president was part of two of the longest kickoff returns in school history. In 1965, Wetherell took a lateral from Bill Moreman and raced 100 yards for a touchdown against Kentucky. The two pulled off another touchdown of 94 yards in a 23-20 victory over Miami on Sept. 24, 1966. He is still tied for the school record for the longest kickoff return.

FLORIDA STATE RANKED FOURTH IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL APR TOP 25

Florida State ranked fourth nationally in a 2006 USA Today poll of the top college football programs in terms of academic and athletic success. The newspaper took the final USA Today/Coaches Top 25 poll from the 2005 season and re-ordered it using the re-

"UNCONQUERED"

Dedicated October 10, 2003, Fritz White's bronze statue "Unconquered" was designed to capture the indomitable spirit of the Seminole people and those who have adopted that spirit as a symbol for their university. The massive structure including its granite-covered pedestal base stands approximately 31 feet in the air and depicts a spear-brandishing Seminole astride a rearing horse. At sunset the night before each home game, the spear is ignited and burns until sunrise on the next morning after the game. George Langford endowment of the project for up to $1 million helped make the statue a reality. Fifty one artists were then considered before White eventually saw the statue dedicated 10 years after the concept was inspired by attorney and FSU graduate Stephen Reilly's trip to South Bend, IN for an FSU football game.

BOWDEN IN BRONZE

Head coach Bobby Bowden is bigger than life in front of the Moore Athletics Center at Florida State as a bronze statue of his likeness on the field was unveiled in a ceremony on Sept. 24, 2004. The statue is one and a half life-size of Coach Bowden. The statue was sculpted by Tallahassee artist Stanley Proctor. The artist has also created a smaller piece of artwork, measuring just over 12 inches high, featuring Bowden and Doak Campbell Stadium.

NO NEW HOME FOR BOWDEN

Bobby and Ann Bowden live in the same home that they bought when he took the FSU head coaching job in 1976, although they have made some additions. They have even had the same phone number for the past 30 years. Bowden still maintains a grueling off-season schedule that includes a 24-stop Seminole Booster speaking and golfing tour. Bowden is an early riser generally waking before 4:30 a.m. He reads and often watches film before coming into the office. He plays golf nearly every day from the end of spring practice until after the family vacation in July then does not touch the clubs again until the next spring.

SIX FEET UNDER

Florida State's sod cemetery holds chunks of the field from great Seminole road wins. See the complete list on page 181.

BROOKS ON BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Derrick Brooks established himself as one of the greatest players in school history during his career at Florida State. He also made a name for himself academically as a First-Team Academic All-American in 1994 and the winner of an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship. He has also established himself as one of the finest players in the NFL and led his Tampa Bay Buccaneers to the World Championship in 2002. Now he is the boss — sort of. Brooks is in his fourth year as a member of Florida State's Board of Trustees having been named to the board in 2003.

SEALED LOCKERS

The retirement (or permanent sealing) of lockers in the Florida State locker room began after Deion Sanders, senior season in 1988. The criterion for locker retirement allows only the dressing area of a two-time consensus All-American and/or Heisman Trophy winners to be retired. Ron Simmons (1979-80), Deion Sanders (1987-88), Marvin Jones (1991-92), Derrick Brooks (1993-94), Sebastian Janikowski (1998-99), Peter Warrick (1998-99) and Alex Barron (2003-04) have had their lockers sealed as two-time consensus All-Americans while Heisman Trophy winners Charlie Ward (1993) and Chris Weinke (2000) have had their lockers retired. The lockers are encased in glass with the player's final home uniform and gear intact right down to the sweat bands.

SPORTSMANSHIP STATUE

Between Gates B and C of Doak Campbell Stadium stands the one ton, 15' tall Sportsmanship statue given in honor of Pappy Strum by his daughter Margaret Strum Allesee, who is an FSU graduate and former Seminole cheerleader. The enduring symbol of the most important aspect of athletic competition was sculpted by FSU alumnus and accomplished artist Edward Jonas.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S WINNINGEST COACH

With 359 career victories, Florida State head coach Bobby Bowden has more wins than any other coach in major college football history. Bowden, in his 31st year at FSU in 2006, passed Penn State's Joe Paterno on the list with a 48-24 victory over Wake Forest in 2003.

DOAK CAMPBELL SEATS 82,300

New structures in the north endzone have raised the seating capacity in Doak Campbell Stadium once again with the home of the Seminoles now holding 82,300. A second deck of the Varsity Club opened two years ago in the northwest corner of the stadium just above the existing structure. A mirror image of that has been built in the northeast corner of the stadium, but contains skyboxes leased through the Seminole Boosters. The new additions brought the total to 94 private boxes within the stadium. The football home for the Seminoles since 1950, the stadium was named after the popular Florida State president who was instrumental in the development of intercollegiate athletics at the new university. In order to help finance the stadium, a five-year season ticket was offered for $50.00 and FSU players helped paint the stadium at $1 per hour. The stadium was built at a cost of $250,000 in 1950.

GOAL POSTS SALUTE PETERSON

The Bill Peterson era as head football coach at FSU was a time of great offensive innovation and of many firsts for the upstart Seminole program, including the first Seminole coach to beat the Gators at Florida Field, coaching the program's first All-American in Fred Biletnikoff and recruiting James Thomas, the first black player to ever play football at FSU. A tradition of the Peterson era was to enter the field through the goal posts. As a tribute to the players and coaches of the Peterson era and their many firsts, "H" style goal posts were added to the field at Doak Campbell Stadium prior to the 2002 season and will forever more be referred to as "Pete's Posts." It is believed that FSU joins LSU as the only two Division 1A schools currently using H posts.

Media & University Information

COULD HAVE HAD BOWDEN IN 1970

Bobby Bowden signed his first contract as head coach at FSU on January 12, 1976. The four-year deal called for a salary of $37,500 per year. Many did not know, however, that Bowden actually interviewed for the FSU job in 1970. It went to Tennessee assistant Larry Jones who was 15-19 over three seasons before he was succeeded by Darrell Mudra in 1974.

SCHOLARSHIPS IN '51

It was not until 1951 that Florida State began to grant athletic scholarships. The move put added pressure on the program to win. FSU left the Dixie Conference and petitioned for membership in the ACC and the Southeastern Conference but were rebuffed. Interestingly, it was the University of Florida that sponsored FSU for admission to the SEC.

SEMINOLES FIRST TO SCORE TWO

The late Vic Prinzi, who is a member of the Florida State Hall of Fame and was the color commentator for the radio network until his death in 1997, was the first college player ever to score a two-point conversion. In 1958, the Seminoles took the season-opening drive of the Tennessee Tech game on September 13th in for a touchdown and Prinzi, playing quarterback, ran in the two-point conversion to beat the other national games by just minutes.

FOOTBALL SINCE 1902 ACTUALLY

Florida State College did play football during the 1902-1904 school years and played well indeed. The first game in 1902 was a 5-0 win over South Georgia Military on November 21 when touchdowns were worth five points. The NCAA nor the governing body at the time recognizes the early games for FSC, although the school won the state championship in '04. The 1904 season included a 23-0 win over Florida in Lake City. The school then became the Florida State College for Women and would remain one of the nation's top all-female institutions until the large number of returning veterans from World War II triggered the state system to open Florida State University to men in 1946. The school resumed football in 1947, taking on Stetson in its first game.

THREE DIFFERENT HELMETS

For one season in 1962 the Florida State Seminoles took the field with three different helmets. Coach Bill Peterson's three-team system featured the two-way Chiefs, the defensive Renegades and the offensive Warriors. Each group wore a different helmet. By 1963 the Seminoles were back to just one helmet, an all-gold version which once again lasted just one season as the word "STATE" was added to the helmet in 1964.

TOMAHAWKS CAN BE WON AND LOST

Florida State's coaching staff and academic staff award tomahawks to individual players for great plays or contributions on the field and in the classroom. Players may get a tomahawk for a crucial play, a score, a touchdown, saving tackle or various other achievements on the field. In 1997, the Seminoles began receiving tomahawks for outstanding academic achievements as well. They look identical except the word academics runs down the handle of the tomahawk.

What many fans don't know is that Florida State players can lose tomahawks as well. Poor performance on the field or in the classroom can cause a player to be stripped of the coveted decals.

13 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Florida State's women's programs were brought to national prominence in the early 1980s when the Seminoles earned five national championships in four sports within a four-year period. The golf program earned the AIAW championship in 1981 while the softball team had back-to-back AIAW titles in 1981 and 1982. The women's track and field program ran away with the 1984 NCAA Outdoor and 1985 NCAA Indoor championships. Florida State's other national titles include men's gymnastics in 1950-51 and again in 1951-52. The men's volleyball team won the national championship in 1955 and 1957, while football claimed a No. 1 ranking in 1993 and 1999. Most recently, the men's track and field team took home the 2006 and 2007 national outdoor title.

HISTORY OF SCHOOL COLORS

Florida State's school colors of garnet and gold date back to the Florida State College championship football teams of 1904 and 1905. In those championship seasons, FSC donned purple and gold uniforms. When Florida State College became Florida Female College in 1905, the football team was forced to attend the University of Florida. The following year the FFC student body selected crimson as the official school color of 1905. The administration in 1905 took crimson and combined it with the recognizable purple of the championship football teams to achieve the color garnet. The now-famous garnet and gold colors were first used on an FSU uniform in a 14-6 loss to Stetson on October 18, 1947.

FSU FIGHT SONG

While the war chant has become familiar at FSU games, the Florida State fight song still remains the definitive sound of Seminole sports. FSU's band became the Marching Chiefs in 1950 and with that came the fight song. Tommy Wright, a member of the faculty in the School of Music, was perturbed that the Seminoles had been using "On Wisconsin" and the "Notre Dame Victory March" so he introduced the song in the Seawee game, setting to music a poem by FSU Alumni Doug Alley.

OSCEOLA & RENEGADE

Perhaps the most spectacular tradition in all of college football occurs in Doak Campbell Stadium when Osceola charges down the field riding an Appaloosa horse named Renegade and plants a flaming spear at midfield to begin every home game. The tradition was born on September 16, 1978 against Oklahoma State when a student led the team from the tunnel riding a horse. Since the beginning of the FSU tradition, three different horses and 10 different riders have actually appeared at a game. However, there have been a total of 16 horses trained in the Renegade program. The original Osceola and Renegade were Jim Kidder and Reo. In 2003, local businessman Bill Durham, who had trained the riders and horses for 20 years, passed the honor and responsibility to his son Allen, who was a former rider in the 90s. The clothing and rigging that Osceola and Renegade use were designed and approved by the Seminole Indian Tribe of Florida.

WAR CHANT

Florida State's "war chant" appears to have begun with a random occurrence that took place during a 1984 game against Auburn, but in the 1960s, the Marching Chiefs band would chant the melody of a popular FSU cheer. In a sense that chant was the long version of FSU's current "war chant." During a thrilling game with Auburn in 1984, the Marching Chiefs began to perform the dormant melody. Some students behind the band joined in and continued the "war chant" portion after the band had ceased. Most agree the chant came from the fraternity section, but many spirited Seminole fans added the hand motion to symbolize the brandishing of a tomahawk. The chant continued among the student body during the 1985 season, and by the 1986 season, it was a stadium-wide phenomenon. Of course, the Marching Chiefs refined the chant, plus put their own special brand of accompaniment to the "war chant," for the sound we hear today.

Atlanta Braves fans took up their version of the song and chant when former FSU star Deion Sanders came to the plate as an outfielder. The Kansas City Chiefs first heard it when the Northwest Missouri State band, directed by 1969 FSU graduate Al Sergel, performed the chant while the players were warming up for a game against San Diego.
