

2010 TEAM BIOS

28 A.J. Alexander

Wide Receiver • r-So. • 5-11 • 184
Altoona, Pa. (Altoona)

2010 OUTLOOK

Returns to the offensive side of the football in 2010 where he was initially recruited to play for the Seminoles. Will line up as a slot receiver and compete for the right to replace Louis Givens. Demonstrated natural ability as a pass catcher, but is still learning the offense after two seasons at cornerback.

2009: Played in three games - Miami, BYU and Florida - at the cornerback position as a redshirt freshman...collected his first career interception and returned it 21 yards in FSU's 54-28 win at No. 7 BYU.

2008: Granted a medical hardship after playing in the first two games of the season...Returned one punt for 12 yards in the season-opener against Western Carolina.

PERSONAL

A highly touted prospect out of Western Pennsylvania, who split time between quarterback and tailback throughout his high school career...as a senior he rushed for more than 1,000 yards and 23 TDs, while adding more than 400 receiving yards and six more TDs...rushed for more than 1,000 yards and 14 scores as a junior...a sprinter on the Altoona track team, he posted times of 10.5 in the 100 meters and 21.5 in the 200...had more than 40 college offers and chose FSU over Tennessee, North Carolina and Pitt, among others...father played football at Maryland...born June 3, 1989.

18 Mister Alexander

Linebacker • r-Sr. • 6-3 • 227
Aldine, Texas (Eisenhower)

2010 OUTLOOK

Selected by the coaches as the most improved linebacker at the end of spring practice. Entering the fall as the back-up to strongside starter Nigel Carr, he was playing as well as any linebacker on the squad. Outstanding athlete who excels in space, figures prominently in the new scheme.

2009: Enjoyed his most productive season as he played in all 13 games and recorded 17 tackles...stayed virtually injury free for the first time in his career as he played in only two games in his first three seasons because of injuries...finished fifth among the Seminoles' linebackers in tackles... finished second on the team with five quarterback sacks, including one in the Gator Bowl...recorded quarterback sacks against Brigham Young, USF, NC State and West Virginia...his career high of three tackles came against Georgia Tech...clearly found a home at linebacker after transitioning from the safety position. 2008: Played in one game ( NC State) while continuing to recover from a knee injury suffered in 2007. 2007: Played in the season opener against Clemson...suffered a knee injury against the Tigers and was lost for the season. 2006: A redshirt season.

PERSONAL

A three-star rated safety who amassed 137 tackles over final two seasons at Eisenhower High despite missing time with injuries...named Mister by his parents with the acronym MR standing for mentally ready...chose FSU over Arizona State, Arkansas, Oklahoma State and Washington State... volunteered to read to first grade students at Kate Sullivan Elementary... born June 2, 1988.

3 Justin Bright
 Safety • r-Fr. • 6-0 • 185
 Duncan, S.C. (Byrnes)

2010 OUTLOOK

Enters the fall as the back-up to Nick Moody at the free safety position after spending most of his true freshman year mirroring the starters in practice. A physical player with better than average speed and a knack for delivering the big hit. Will compete for playing time in a secondary hit hard by graduation after picking up on the new defensive scheme quickly in the spring.

2009: A redshirt season.

PERSONAL

Product of powerhouse Byrnes High School, which won three consecutive state titles, capped by a 14-1 season in 2008 - Bright's senior year... earned AP All-State honors as a senior...registered 192 tackles and seven interceptions over his final two seasons...an outstanding student who graduated from high school with a 3.4 gpa...selected FSU over offers from Texas A&M and Stanford...born October 3, 1990.

12 Nigel Carr

Linebacker • Jr. • 6-2 • 231
Jacksonville, Fla. (First Coast)

2010 OUTLOOK

Steps into the role as the weakside linebacker starter, replacing All-ACC performer Dekoda Watson. Has set new standards of excellence with his work ethic and accountability on and off the field and is poised for a big season after earning most dependable honors among linebackers at the conclusion of spring practice.

2009: A mainstay on defense after appearing in all 13 games, including his first career start in the Seminoles' road victory at North Carolina... established a single-season, career-high 26 tackles as a sophomore, which ranked fourth among FSU linebackers...his single game career-high of six tackles came in the season opener against Miami...also totaled four tackles against Boston College and North Carolina... registered tackles for loss against Boston College and UNC...collected his first career fumble recovery against Georgia Tech. 2008: Played in 11 of 13 games and recorded four tackles...saw most of his action on FSU special teams...appeared in the first eight games of the season, with his collegiate debut coming in the home-opener against Western Carolina...logged his first solo tackle against Wisconsin in the Champs Sports Bowl.

PERSONAL

Coaching staff has raved about his development over the past year... plays with passion and leads with emotion...earned the defensive leadership award for the 'Noles in the spring of '09...a four-star prospect coming out of First Coast High School, where he played alongside current Seminoles Jermaine Thomas and Avis Commack...earned first team 4A All-State honors as a senior as well as Under Armour All-American accolades...finished prep career with 399 tackles, including 133 as a senior...chose FSU over Florida, Clemson, South Carolina, USF, Georgia Tech and Minnesota...born January 22, 1990.

8 Chad Colley

Safety • r-Jr. • 5-10 • 174
Gulf Breeze, Fla. (Gulf Breeze)

2010 OUTLOOK

Valuable walk-on member of the team who excels on the scout team, earning a spot on the dress roster for every game last season. Provides depth at both safety positions.

2009: Saw action in four games - Georgia Tech, Clemson, Florida and the Gator Bowl against West Virginia - including time at safety and on special teams. 2008: Played in four games, primarily on special teams, against Western Carolina, Chattanooga, Colorado and Wisconsin in the Champs Sports Bowl.

PERSONAL

Joined the team as a walk-on in the spring of 2008...one of the most distinguished student-athletes on the squad, Colley is a double-major in civil engineering and pre-med biology...intends to enroll in medical school...a dean's list member since his arrival in the fall of 2007, Colley is twice a member of the All-ACC Academic Honor Roll and the recipient of a Golden Torch award...active in the FSU student government and member of the Phi Eta Sigman honors program...starred in football, wrestling and baseball at Gulf Breeze High School...entire family graduated from Florida State, including his father, Neal, who played football for the 'Noles (1969-70)...born September 16, 1988.

14 Avis Commack

Cornerback • Jr. • 6-4 • 197
Jacksonville, Fla. (First Coast)

2010 OUTLOOK

Makes the move from wide receiver to cornerback entering fall practice. The transition has been slowed by a broken leg, suffered while running the hurdles in practice for the FSU track & field team during the indoor season. Has been diligent in his rehabilitation and expects to be back to full speed for the start of camp.

2009: Saw his only action against Miami in the season-opener and in the road win at North Carolina. 2008: Appeared in five games as a true freshman at receiver but did not record a reception.

PERSONAL

A four-star prospect out of Jacksonville's First Coast High School, where he played alongside fellow Seminoles Jermaine Thomas and Nigel Carr...earned 4A All-State honorable mention honors on the football field as a senior...selected to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Super Southern 100...an outstanding track & field athlete who won consecutive state championships in the 110-meter high hurdles as a junior and senior...chose FSU over South Carolina, Georgia Tech, Illinois, NC State and Purdue...born January 8, 1990.

87 Andrew Datko

Offensive Tackle • Jr. • 6-6 • 303
Weston, Fla. (St. Thomas Aquinas)

2010 OUTLOOK

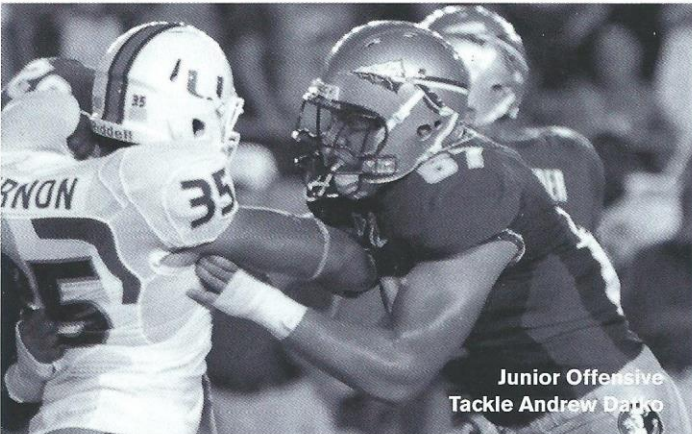

A rising star at left tackle on one of the finest offensive lines in the nation. Sets standard for excellence in the weight room and carries it over to the field where he is a relentless competitor.

2009: Started every game at the left tackle position and boasted a season average grade of 80 percent...registered 24 knockdown blocks...allowed two sacks all season, shutting out Georgia Tech All-American Derrick Morgan and All-ACC standouts Robert Quinn (UNC) and Willie Young (NC State)...made his 25th consecutive start in the Gator Bowl...earned ACC Lineman of the Week honors following dominating performance in the come-from-behind win at North Carolina...was penalized just three times on the season...earned honorable mention All-ACC honors...recognized by the coaches as the offensive player most committed to physical development in the spring of '09.

2008: Started the final 12 games of his true freshman season...became the third Seminole to earn Freshman All-American honors from the FWAA under line coach Rick Trickett...also collected Freshman All-American honors from Sporting News, Rivals and Phil Steele...was the first FSU tackle to earn that distinction since Brett Williams in 1999...played 852 snaps and recorded 21 knockdown blocks...named top newcomer on offense by the coaching staff.

PERSONAL

Coveted three-star recruit who earned All-Broward honors from the South Florida Sun-Sentinel as a senior at St. Thomas Aquinas...an outstanding student who carries that intelligence on to the field...understands leverage and balance...a tireless worker in the weight room, he has added nearly 30 pounds of muscle mass since arriving at FSU...played for the state championship every season at powerhouse St. Thomas Aquinas and was part of the 14-1 team that won the title his senior season...a business major, he won the freshman class academic award for offense in 2008 and was named to the ACC All-Academic team that season...chose FSU over UCF and FIU...born August 15, 1990.

Junior Offensive Tackle Andrew Datko

93 Everett Dawkins

Defensive Tackle • r-So. • 6-2 • 269
Spartanburg, S.C. (Byrnes)

2010 OUTLOOK

Projected as the starter at defensive tackle, building on a standout redshirt freshman season. Has bought into the system and made the permanent move inside from defensive end, where his quickness and leg strength serve him well.

2009: Played in all 13 games and started seven as a redshirt freshman...nine of his 14 tackles were of the solo variety...finished sixth on the team with 3.5 tackles for loss, including one sack...made his first start against USF and notched three tackles; a feat he matched two other times...had a season-best three solo stops in the bowl-clinching home win against Maryland...began season at defensive end but moved inside due to injury and quickly found his niche. 2008: Played in three games as a true freshman before being granted a medical redshirt...had two tackles, including his first career sack in the second game against Chattanooga.

PERSONAL

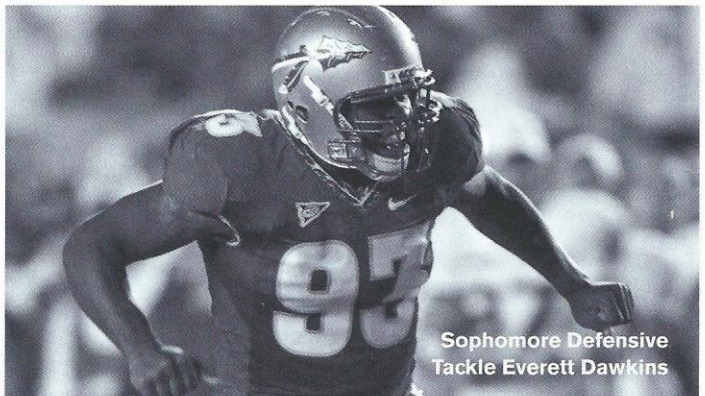

A four-star prospect, he earned All-State honors at defensive end for South Carolina powerhouse Byrnes High School...his team capped a 15-0 senior season with a state championship...played in Max Emfinger's All-American Bowl Classic in Jackson, Miss., where he recorded five sacks and double-digit tackles...also played in the 71st annual Shrine Bowl game...had 115 tackles from his defensive end position as a senior, including 14 sacks and five fumble recoveries...Byrnes teammate Justin Bright joins him on the FSU roster...received 10 scholarship offers and selected FSU over South Carolina, Illinois, Michigan State, Tennessee and Virginia Tech...born June 13, 1990.

2010 OUTLOOK

Durable, reliable and intelligent, he carries a streak of 39 consecutive starts - every game - at center into his senior season and could finish his career with more starts than any player in FSU history. An integral piece in one of the nation's finest offensive lines, he makes his third consecutive appearance on the Rimington Award preseason watch list as a candidate to be named the nation's top center.

2009: Boasted a season average grade of 80.6 percent, which ranked second only among linemen to All-American guard Rodney Hudson...led all linemen with a grade of 84 percent in FSU's Gator Bowl victory over West Virginia, including a career-high six knockdown blocks...checked in with a career-high matching grade of 93 against mammoth Clemson defensive front...penalized three times and allowed only 2.5 sacks in 823 snaps all season...credited with 20 knockdown blocks...in 2,654 snaps through three seasons has recorded 64 knockdown blocks, been flagged for six penalties and allowed 7.5 sacks...played all but 10 snaps, getting a respite in rout of BYU, where he also saw a handful of plays at guard...vastly improved his pass protection and shotgun snaps...became the first two-time recipient of the Crenshaw Award as the player with the biggest heart, sharing the award with defensive end Markus White...earned his degree in economics at the end of the '10 spring semester. 2008: Started all 13 games at center and earned All-ACC honorable mention...earned first Crenshaw Award...had streak of 994 consecutive snaps played end in blowout of Western Carolina...graded out at 81 percent or higher in six of his final seven games...charged with just 12 missed assignments on the season...registered a career-high 24 knockdown blocks in 872 snaps. 2007: Played every offensive snap during redshirt freshman season...was the lone freshman or sophomore center at an FBS school to make that claim...was penalty-free on the season, a stunning statistic considering he was involved in all 959 offensive snaps...joined teammate and left guard Rodney Hudson on FWAA Freshmen All-American team...credited with a fumble recovery against Kentucky in the Music City Bowl...made the transition from defensive tackle to center during spring practice under the supervision of offensive line coach Rick Trickett. 2006: Spent a redshirt season working on the scout team defensive line.

PERSONAL

Collected several awards at the end of 2010 spring practice, including most dependable offensive lineman and offensive player most committed to physical development...collected Iron Nole, leadership and second-effort awards in spring of '09...arrived at FSU as a three-star defensive line prospect out of Darlington Prep, where he combined for 88 tackles, 24 tackles for loss and 10 sacks over his final two seasons...also played offensive guard...helped lead the team to an 8-2 record and a spot in the state playoffs as a senior...selected FSU over Florida, Alabama, Auburn and Kentucky...born May 11, 1988.

Quarterback • r-Sr. • 6-3 • 227
Colleyville, Texas
(Colleyville Heritage)

2010 OUTLOOK

One of the most highly acclaimed quarterback prospects in the nation entering his final season. Should contend for multiple major awards and is already being mentioned as FSU's first Heisman Trophy candidate since 2000. Returned from shoulder surgery to take every meaningful snap during spring practice and was named the team's offensive MVP. Passed for 266 yards and two touchdowns while guiding the Gold team to victory in the spring game. Is the team's undisputed leader whom coach Jimbo Fisher believes will be the finest quarterback he has ever coached.

2009: Started the first nine games of the season before suffering a shoulder injury while making a tackle at Clemson, which required season-ending surgery...at the time of the injury, Ponder ranked among the nation's top quarterbacks in virtually every statistical category...though he failed to reach the minimum percentage of games played required to appear in NCAA statistics, the ACC still recognized his league-leading 321.8 total yards a game...that was the sixth-best season for total offense in ACC history...was the only ACC quarterback to average more than 300 passing yards a game (301.9)...Ponder was FSU's offensive captain as a junior and earned All-ACC honorable mention distinction, narrowly missing a spot on the second team...was a finalist for the Wuerffel Trophy, which weighs athletic, academic and community service efforts...was a semifinalist for the prestigious Maxwell Award as well as a semifinalist for the Manning Award...recorded at least 250 yards passing in eight of nine games, including the first four 300+ yard games of his career...threw five TD passes against Georgia Tech in defeat, which ranks 3rd in FSU's single-game records...tied FSU and ACC record with a 98-yard TD pass to Rod Owens in the win at UNC...had a career-high 395 yards passing to rally the Seminoles in the second half to victory over the Tar Heels in a nationally-televised game...earned ACC Offensive Back of the Week honors for the performance against UNC...rushed for a season-high 77 yards, including a TD in FSU's 54-28 romp at No. 7 BYU, which ended the Cougars' 18-game home winning streak...directed the 'Noles to come-from-behind, fourth quarter wins against Jacksonville State, North Carolina and NC State...was well on his way to a 3,000-yard passing season prior to the injury and finished with 2,717 through the air...

completed 68.8 percent of his pass attempts and tossed 14 touchdown passes compared to seven interceptions...finished with a 147.71 pass efficiency rating which ranked among the nation's best...enters his final season ranked ninth at FSU in career passing yards (4,828) and third in career completion percentage (61.9)...earned his MBA in the spring of 2010 and is currently enrolled in sport management graduate program... was one of three 'Noles named to the ACC All-Academic football team. 2008: Started all 13 games and led FSU to its first nine-win season since 2004 as a first-year starter...named offensive MVP and Seminole Warrior...passed for 2,006 yards and 14 TDs, completing 55.7 percent of his attempts...became the first FSU quarterback since Charlie Ward to rush for more than 400 yards in a season and finished second on the team with four rushing TDs...his running prowess was unearthed in a 144-yard performance in a win at Miami; second only in FSU history to quarterback Ken MacLean's 146 set in 1948. 2007: Played in one game - the first game of his career - as he was forced into action on the road at Virginia Tech...performed admirably by leading the 'Noles to 15 second half points...his first career TD pass - an 8-yard strike to De'Cody Fagg - gave the 'Noles a 21-20 lead late in the third quarter...he finished the game with 108 passing yards.

PERSONAL

An outstanding student who boasts a 3.7 gpa over the course of his collegiate career...earned a bachelor's degree in finance in two and a half years...well-rounded student-athlete who is heavily active in community service endeavors...the son of former FSU defensive tackle David Ponder, he graduated from Heritage High School in January of 2006 and enrolled at FSU immediately...a three-star quarterback prospect who earned All-District honors in one of Texas' toughest districts in suburban Dallas...threw for 2,214 yards and 20 TDs as a senior and rushed for 911 yards and 12 TDs...Ponder's highlight performance was a 318-yard, three TD passing game against eventual state champion Southlake Carroll...passed for 1,500 yards and seven TDs as a junior... chose FSU over Oklahoma State, Arizona, NC State and Georgia Tech... born February 25, 1988.

2010 OUTLOOK

Enters junior season on the cusp of becoming one of the nation's top punters and a candidate for the Ray Guy Award. Will handle all the holds on kick placements for a third consecutive season, but will be breaking in a new long snapper.

2009: In his first season as FSU's full-time punter he boasted a career-best 41.6 yard average, which included a career-long 64-yarder, which led all ACC punters...was even better in league play, ranking second in ACC games with a 42.7 average...adept at booming traditional punts and athletic enough to excel on rugby (on the run) punts...allowed only 136 return yards with 13 punts downed inside 20 and six fair caught...also handled all placement holds for second consecutive season. 2008: Started seven games as punter while incumbent Graham Gano recovered from knee surgery...averaged an impressive 41.1 yards on 18 attempts before Gano returned to the lineup...registered FSU season-long punt of 56 yards against Wake Forest...handled all placement holds as a true freshman...his steady hands helped Gano convert 57 of 60 combined kicks on the year.

PERSONAL

Graduated from Darlington Prep in 2007 but delayed his enrollment at FSU until January 2008...was an accomplished kicker and punter in high school, converting 11 of 12 field goal attempts while averaging 51 yards a punt...a strong student who is majoring in international affairs...chose FSU over VMI... born November 29, 1988.

2010 OUTLOOK

Heads into his final season of eligibility battling for back-up duties in a crowded backfield. Led the Garnet team in rushing with 40 yards on three carries in the spring game, including a 35-yard run.

2009: Appeared in six games and carried the ball nine times for 40 yards (4.4 ypc)...most extensive action came in FSU's 54-28 win at No. 7 BYU when he carried seven times for 25 yards in his first appearance as a Seminole...also had carries against USF and Maryland. 2008: Redshirted after suffering a season-ending ACL knee injury during preseason practice, requiring surgery.

BEFORE FSU

Spent two seasons in the California junior college ranks before transferring to Florida State after graduation...earned All-Mission Conference honors after rushing for 832 yards and 11 TDs for El Camino Community College in 2007, despite averaging less than 10 carries a game...as a freshman in 2006 accounted for 171.3 yards a game for Monterey Peninsula College...ran for 1,211 yards and added 147 receiving and 357 return yards.

PERSONAL

Played quarterback at Arcadia DeSotoa High School before making the transition to tailback in the junior college ranks...an outstanding athlete blessed with speed and power...coming out of junior college selected FSU over offers from Kansas State, Colorado, Ole Miss, Nebraska, Arizona and Washington State...volunteered as a guest coach in the Tallahassee Flag Football League...born April 23, 1987.

Running Back • So. • 6-0 • 209
Okeechobee, Fla. (Okeechobee)

2010 OUTLOOK

Versatile, talented and productive, he enters the preseason as the starting fullback with the ability to be a playmaker from the tailback spot as well. Selected by the coaching staff as the most dependable running back coming out of the spring, he has a firm grasp on the offense and continues to improve as a blocking back as well.

2009: One of just two true freshmen on the squad, and the only one on offense to play in all 13 games...his four starts were the most by any true freshman...ranked third on the team with four rushing touchdowns and fifth with 156 rushing yards...scored two touchdowns in the BYU and Maryland victories, highlighted by his game-winning 3-yard plunge against the Terrapins with 1:14 remaining to secure a bowl berth...

earlier in the Maryland game Pryor flashed his big-play ability when he raced 50 yards with a downfield option pitch from quarterback EJ Manuel for a touchdown... also established himself as an effective pass receiver out of the backfield, collecting 10 receptions for 132 yards on the season...his season-long 49-yard reception resulted in a touchdown pass from Christian Ponder at Clemson...he also returned four kickoffs for 21 yards on the season.

PERSONAL

Ranked as the nation's 15th best running back according to Rivals.com and was a consensus four-star prospect...the Okeechobee High School standout was accorded Offensive Player of the Year honors by the Palm Beach Post and the Scripps Treasure Coast newspapers...rushed for 2,281 yards and 20 TDs as a senior...participated in the Offense-Defense All-American Bowl...earned 4A All-State honors twice after piling up more than 4,000 rushing yards and 40 TDs over his final two seasons...chose FSU after entertaining 17 FBS offers, including Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Boston College and Wake Forest...born February 22, 1990.

2010 OUTLOOK

Continues to demonstrate the maturity and athletic ability which should enable him to be one of the team's most outstanding offensive players. Was selected by the coaches as the team's most dependable receiver following spring practice and is the projected starter at the X receiver position. Has made remarkable strides over the past year that extend beyond his ability to make plays.

2009: Played extensively in all 13 games and made three starts during his redshirt sophomore campaign...came up one reception and 19 yards shy of leading the team in both receiving categories, behind graduated senior Rod Owens...finished the season with career-bests for receptions (60) and receiving yards (710), but surprisingly failed to find the end zone as a receiver...tied for 8th in the ACC with 4.7 receptions per game and was 10th with 59.17 receiving yards a game...ranked third on the team with 807 all purpose yards...eclipsed the 100-yard receiving standard for the first two times in his career...had a career-high nine receptions for 114 yards against USF and followed a week later with seven catches for 106 yards at Boston College...notched eight receptions against North Carolina in the Seminoles' come-from-behind victory...caught at least one ball in 12 of 13 games on the year...was an integral part of FSU's running game, rolling up 94 yards on 18 carries, which included fourth quarter TD runs against NC State and Maryland...his 3-yard scoring run against NC State came with 1:36 to play and stood as the game-winner in a 45-42 contest...Reed had a career-high 44 rushing yards on four carries against the Wolfpack. 2008: Played in 10 games and finished fourth on the team with 551 all-purpose yards...collected at least one reception in eight of 10 games and finished the season with 23 receptions for 295 yards and three touchdowns, which was good for a share of the team lead...also carried the ball nine times for 61 yards...amassed 100-plus all-purpose yards against Chattanooga and Miami...closed the season with a career-high five receptions against Wisconsin in the Champs Sports Bowl. 2007: A redshirt season.

PERSONAL

Played quarterback, wide receiver and running back for Bay High School...earned 3A All-State honorable mention honors at quarterback...a four-star prospect who ranked among the top 25 prospects in Florida...accounted for more than 2,500 yards from the quarterback position, rushed for 750 yards from the tailback spot and finished with 16 TDs (rushing and receiving)...speed, quickness and elusiveness in the open field made him a coveted recruit...signed with FSU over Florida, Alabama, South Carolina, West Virginia, NC State and USF...born June 1, 1988.

5 Greg Reid

Cornerback • So. • 5-8 • 174
 Valdosta, Ga. (Lowndes County)

2010 OUTLOOK

As an encore to a sensational freshman season, Reid raised the stakes during spring practice, earning defensive MVP honors as he put his name at the top of the depth chart at field cornerback. Rather than rest on the laurels of an accolade-filled rookie season, he went to work in an effort to move into the starting rotation after he was primarily as a nickel back who proved to be a dynamic return specialist. The Seminoles figure to get even more mileage out of Reid as a full-time position player in 2010.

2009: Played all 13 games as a true freshman...led the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision in punt returns with an 18.4 yard average, piling up 387 yards on 21 returns, including a 68-yard return for a touchdown at Wake Forest...a week later at home against Maryland, with FSU's active bowl appearance streak on the line, his 48-yard return set up the game-winning TD with 1:14 to play...Reid burst on the scene with 100 yards in kickoff returns in his collegiate debut against Miami, and also added his first interception and contributed three tackles...he averaged 25.5 yards as FSU's primary kickoff return man to rank fourth in the ACC...returned a third quarter interception 63 yards for a touchdown in a 54-28 win at No. 7 BYU...became the first Seminole since Clifton Abraham in 1992 to return a punt and an interception for a touchdown in the same season...finished the season with 23 tackles (16 solos), which ranked second among true freshmen...finished second on the team with six pass break-ups...logged a career-high four tackles (3 solos) against Georgia Tech...led the Seminoles with 1,114 all purpose yards (85.7 ypg) without a single yard of offense...twice earned ACC Specialist of the Week honors and added one ACC Defensive Back of the Week honor...a consensus freshman All-American as a punt return specialist...was an honorable mention All-ACC selection.

2010 OUTLOOK

Split time at boundary cornerback with incumbent starter Ochuko Jenije in the spring and figures to push the veteran for the starting job throughout the fall.

2009: Appeared in two games - Boston College and Georgia Tech - on special teams before suffering a hand injury that sidelined him for the balance of the season.

PERSONAL

Tall and rangy with outstanding hands and ball skills, Rhodes excelled on both sides of the football in high school...led Miami Norland in both rushing and receiving as a senior, earned Miami Herald All-Dade honors as an all-purpose back...also earned All-Dade honors on the defensive side of the ball...played in the 12th annual Nike South Florida All-Star game...as a junior recorded more than 1,000 all-purpose yards...chose FSU over offers from West Virginia, Auburn and FIU...born June 19, 1990.

77 Zebrie Sanders

Offensive Tackle • Jr. • 6-6 • 288
Dayton, Ohio (Northmont)

2010 OUTLOOK

Enters his junior season as the leading candidate to start at right tackle for a third consecutive year, despite sitting out spring practice following hip surgery. Has been cleared to resume practice. Tall and athletic, with an impressive wingspan, has proven adept at both pass and run blocking. On a talented line, has the tools to be a top-flight prospect at the next level, providing he improves his consistency.

2009: Starter at right tackle in 12 of 13 games on the year...finished the '09 campaign with a grade of 73 percent and led the Seminoles with 43 knockdown blocks...enjoyed the top performance of his career in opener against Miami, grading out at 88 with eight knockdowns...struggled with his consistency early on, did not start against USF...regained his starting job and at one point strung together four games - North Carolina, NC State, Clemson and Wake Forest - with grades of 80 or better as the 'Noles went 3-1. 2008: Started opener as true freshman at left tackle before moving to right side, where he started final 10 games...played in all 13 contests and finished third on team with 31 knockdowns...allowed one sack and was penalized one time all season...recorded the line's overall best grade against Boston College and later Wisconsin in the Champs Sports Bowl.

PERSONAL

chamber orchestra...earned Eagle Scout rank from Boy Scouts of America...born in Columbia, SC...mother attended Georgia...selected FSU from offers which included Georgia, Florida, LSU, Clemson and UCLA, among others...born December 4, 1989.

73 Rhonne Sanderson

Offensive Tackle • r-So. • 6-3 • 281
Tampa, Fla. (Plant)

2010 OUTLOOK

The most experienced lineman among non-starters, he enters the fall listed as the back-up to left tackle Andrew Datko, though most of his game experience has been at right tackle.

2009: Earned his first career start against USF at right tackle in place of Zebrie Sanders and played a career-high 42 snaps...one of nine games he appeared in, though much of his game experience came on kicking teams...did get 10 snaps at tackle in FSU's road win over BYU and graded out at 100 percent, which prompted his start the following week against USF...versatile reserve who can also fill in at guard.

2008: Granted a medical hardship.

PERSONAL

Helped his Plant High team to a 26-2 record over final two seasons...won the Jimbo Kynes Outstanding Lineman Award presented to Hillsborough County's best lineman...second team 4A All-State selection...played in the FACA North-South All-Star game following his senior season...has a brother who plays for South Carolina...chose FSU over Michigan State, Florida Atlantic, FIU, Toledo and Ball State...born December 23, 1989.

16 Will Secord

Quarterback • r-Fr. • 6-1 • 214
Frisco, Texas (Wakeland)

2010 OUTLOOK

Chosen by the coaches as the most improved quarterback in the spring, he will compete with true freshman Clint Trickett for the third-team position behind Christian Ponder and EJ Manuel. Capped his spring by completing 12 of 23 passes for 115 yards in the Garnet & Gold game.

2009: Left-hander redshirted while handling the scout team quarterback duties as a true freshman.

PERSONAL

A three-star recruit who passed for more than 5,400 yards over his final two seasons of high school...a three-year starter who capped his career by passing for 3,382 yards and more than 20 TDs...threw for 2,019 yards and 23 TDs as a junior while leading a Wakeland High School in a turnaround campaign...team improved from 3-7 to 9-2 between his sophomore and junior seasons...played for his head coach father, Marty...a two-sport star who earned all-district honors in baseball in 2007 and 2008...selected FSU over Arkansas...born October 10, 1990.

29 Kendall Smith

Linebacker • Sr. • 6-0 • 235
Bushnell, Fla. (South Sumter)

2010 OUTLOOK

Most veteran linebacker on the team, he is the projected starter at middle linebacker for a second consecutive season. Smith embraced the change in defensive philosophy which should enhance his skill set. A tireless worker and student of the game, he is anxious to improve on his most productive season as a Seminole with a big final season.

2009: A 13-game starter at middle linebacker, Smith more than tripled his previous season-high in tackles with 85 stops...was second among Seminoles in tackles and third with a career-high 7.0 tackles for loss and also registered the first two sacks of his career...started all 13 games at the middle linebacker position...equalled his career-high of 10 tackles three times, including wins over Jacksonville State and North Carolina and a loss to Georgia Tech...collected his first career interception in FSU's road win at Wake Forest. 2008: Made three starts at strongside linebacker and appeared in all 13 games...followed up a solid freshman season with a new career-high with 24 tackles...also checked in with 4.5 tackles for loss, including the first two sacks of his career, which came against Wake Forest and Virginia Tech...also have a season-best five tackles against the Demon Deacons and Hokies. 2007: Named FSU's top defensive newcomer at the annual awards dinner after appearing in all 13 games...finished the season with 14 tackles, which led all true freshmen...saw all of his action in the regular season on special teams...made his first career start at strongside linebacker against Kentucky in the Music City Bowl...had season-best three tackles in FSU's road win over No. 2 Boston College and matched it against Kentucky.

PERSONAL

Has played in all 39 games since arriving at FSU from South Sumter High School, where he was a PrepStar All-American and four-star prospect and 45th ranked player in U.S. by Rivals.com...first team 2A All-State linebacker in 2006 while leading team to state title game... District 4 MVP...registered 156 tackles...played in the Offense-Defense All-American Bowl game and led his East team with six tackles...selected FSU over Florida, Alabama, Ole Miss, USF, Iowa State and UCF...born December 3, 1987.

Wide Receiver • So. • 6-6 • 220
Miami, Fla. (Archbishop Carroll)

2010 OUTLOOK

Promising youngster with huge upside, continued to impress through spring practice and heads into the fall listed as the back-up to Jarmon Forston. Has added 12 pounds of muscle to frame since the fall, indicative of his work ethic in the weight room.

2009: Played in seven games, initially on special teams, before working his way into the receiving rotation late in the year...lone pass reception - from EJ Manuel - went for a 7-yard gain against Wake Forest in FSU's streak-snapping road victory...notched four tackles, including three solo stops, on special teams.

PERSONAL

Highly-touted prospect who earned Miami Herald All-Dade honors at receiver...playing in a run-based offense at Archbishop Carroll, 10 of his 35 receptions as a high school senior went for touchdowns... also intercepted four passes from the safety position...had an interception return and two kickoff returns for touchdowns...over final two seasons totalled 65 receptions for 1,330 yards and 17 TDs...a four-star prospect he ranked among the top 100 players nationally...a very diligent student who met the academic requirements for the ACC All-Academic team, posting better than a 3.0 gpa his first semester at FSU...fluid and fast receiver who attacks the football at its highest point and runs precise routes....received more than 30 FBS scholarship offers and chose FSU over Tennessee, Auburn, Ole Miss and Rutgers, among others...born March 11, 1990.

61 Blake Snider

Offensive Line • So. • 6-3, • 283
Anniston, Ala. (Cleburne County)

2010 OUTLOOK

Came on strong over the final two weeks of spring practice when he began getting repetitions with the first team offense at right tackle after spending the majority of his prior time at guard. Tabbed as the back-up to right guard David Spurlock, but clearly provides adds depth with the ability to work inside or out.

2009: Played in four games, including the final three of the season, with most of his action coming on special teams...saw his first action with four snaps at guard when Seminoles went on the road and routed No. 7 BYU...was a member of FSU's 2008 signing class but delayed his enrollment until January 2009 and immediately stood out with a solid initial spring practice...arrived on campus in good shape and has continued to develop through hard work in the weight room.

PERSONAL

A prototype Rick Trickett signee who was not as highly rated but demonstrated the toughness and work ethic necessary to succeed...rugged interior lineman whose father was the defensive coordinator at Cleburne County (Ala.) High...member of the Pigskin Round-Up All-Star team in '07 after his Cleburne High team advanced to the Alabama 4A state playoffs...worked hard to return for his senior season after suffering a torn ACL in a 2006 state playoff game...chose FSU over Samford and Troy...born June 23, 1989.

79 David Spurlock

Offensive Guard, • Jr. • 6-4 • 286
Murfreesboro, Tenn. (Riverdale)

2010 OUTLOOK

A mainstay on the offensive line who has demonstrated a tenacity by playing with a variety of injuries over his first two seasons. Solidified his starting right guard position with a solid spring. A tenacious pass blocker who plays with a mean streak.

2009: Started all 13 games at right guard, extending streak of consecutive starts to 20...posted winning grades in 12 of 13 games and carried a season average grade of 76.9...finished second on the team with 42 knockdown blocks...was especially dominant during the second half of the season with 32 knockdowns coming over the final seven games, including 24 in the final five...posted a top-two grade among starters in three games with a season-high mark of 88 logged against Maryland...one of five FSU linemen nominated by opposing coaches for All-ACC honors.

2010 OUTLOOK

Hard-working, veteran walk-on who moved up to the second team center position in the spring and was the starter for the Garnet squad in the spring game.

2009: Third-year member of the squad dressed and traveled to all games and made his first career appearance in FSU's road win at BYU.

PERSONAL

Joined the Seminoles in the spring of 2007 and has worked at center, guard and tackle...provides valuable depth across the line...was a standout at Trinity Christian who graduated in 2006...invited to play in the FACA North-South All-Star game...earned All-First Coast honors from the Florida Times-Union as a senior captain...also a member of the baseball team...was a member of the National Honor Society in high school...enjoys scuba diving and motorsports...chose to walk on at FSU but was recruited by The Citadel, Charleston Southern and Jacksonville...has volunteered at local elementary schools...born March 12, 1988.

96 Toshmon Stevens

Defensive End • r-So. • 6-5 • 225
Pomona Park, Fla. (Crescent City)

2010 OUTLOOK

Continues to physically develop through hard work in the weight room as he tries to add weight to his frame. Emerged from spring practice as the back-up to starting senior left end Markus White. An explosive edge rusher, capped his spring with a sack in the Garnet & Gold game.

2009: Played in all 13 games in his first season of action...the majority of his playing time came on special teams, but he impressed in limited action at defensive end...managed just two tackles, but one of those was a tackle for loss against West Virginia star tailback Noel Devine in FSU's Gator Bowl victory. 2008: Recorded a half-sack in opener against Western Carolina and played against Chattanooga in the second game before sitting out the rest of his true freshman season with an injury which earned him a medical redshirt.

52 Bryan Stork

Offensive Guard • r-Fr. • 6-4 • 284
Vero Beach, Fla. (Vero Beach)

2010 OUTLOOK

Selected as the most improved offensive lineman in spring, he is listed as the back-up to All-American Rodney Hudson at the left guard position heading into the 2010 season.

2009: Bulkied up considerably during a redshirt season as a true freshman.

PERSONAL

A tight end in high school, had the frame and the tenacity to make the move to offensive line...primarily a blocker in a run-based high school offense, where he registered 43 pancake blocks...has added more than 40 pounds to his frame since arriving at FSU...chose the Seminoles over Maryland, Syracuse, UCF and FIU...born November 15, 1990.

38 Jermaine Thomas

Running Back • Jr. • 5-11 • 190
Jacksonville, Fla. (First Coast)

2010 OUTLOOK

Lost his hold on the starting job during the spring, when he was supplanted by Chris Thompson on the two-deep chart, where he's a co-No. 2 pick with Ty Jones. Has struggled at times picking up assignments, but remains a real threat in open space. Fighting to reclaim his starting job from the outset of fall camp.

2009: FSU's most productive tailback over the past two seasons...played in all 13 games, including 10 starts...Jacksonville native ran for 121 yards and two TDs in Gator Bowl victory against West Virginia before a hometown crowd...had a team-leading 10 touchdowns and ranked first in rushing with 832 yards for a 64.0 yards per game average...recorded three straight 100-yard rushing games, including a career-high 186 yards and two TDs in the win over NC State...was the first FSU rusher to notch three consecutive 100-yard games since Greg Jones in 2002...ran for 119 yards at Clemson and 149 against Wake Forest...pushed his career 100-yard game rushing total to five in '09...also a capable receiver either coming out of the backfield or lining up in the slot...had a career-high 16 receptions for 120 yards and a TD. 2008: Enjoyed a dynamic true freshman season...played in 12 games and averaged 7 yards a carry...482 rushing yards ranked sixth-best by a true freshman at FSU...registered the longest run of the season when he broke off a 62-yarder at Georgia Tech...torched the Yellow Jackets for 130 rushing yards on just nine carries...followed a week later with 94 ground yards against Clemson.

An early enrollee whose development was hastened by his basic understanding of the offense, passing ability and daily, side-by-side work with veteran quarterback Christian Ponder.

BIO

Polished passer with savvy and toughness...son of FSU assistant head coach/offensive line Rick Trickett...outstanding student who graduated early from high school with a 3.8 gpa and plans to pursue a business degree... carries three-star ranking from both Rivals and Scout...Rivals rates him as the No. 36 quarterback in the nation...earned All-Big Bend honors as a senior...member of the Florida Super 75 list by the Florida Times-Union and was rated the No. 3 quarterback... rated No. 8 quarterback in Florida by Bill Buchalter of the Orlando Sentinel...member of the SuperPrep All-America 290 as the 10th rated quarterback nationally...threw two touchdowns for the North team in the FACA All-Star game...completed 103 of 169 pass attempts for 1,671 yards, 21 TDs and seven interceptions as a senior...in three seasons amassed more than 5,300 passing yards and tossed 59 touchdown passes for the perennial small school state power...earned first-team 1A/1B All-State honors as a junior...won a state championship as a sophomore...had multiple offers but settled on FSU after closely considering Florida and Arkansas.

44 Will Tye

6-3 • 230 • TE
Salisbury, Conn. (Salisbury School)

2010 OUTLOOK

Physically mature tight end who could have an immediate impact at a position of need. Strong hands and ability to use his body to create space make him a dangerous target.

BIO

Big and athletic with surprising speed, Tye has transitioned from undersized basketball post standout to big-time tight end...carries a three-star ranking from both Rivals and Scout.com...rated the No. 6 prospect overall in Connecticut by Rivals and the No. 19 tight end prospect nationally by Scout...SuperPrep has the big man tabbed as the No. 8 prospect overall in the New England 12 rankings...No. 19 tight end according to ESPN...explosive threat who was a primary red zone target...collected 44 receptions for 587 yards and six touchdowns as a senior...boasted a 31.9 yard average on kickoff returns, including a long of 95 yards...also doubled up as a defensive end where he made 26 stops with two sacks...chose FSU over Miami, NC State, Temple, Wyoming and UConn.

95 Bjoern Werner

6-4 • 264 • DE
Salisbury, Conn. (Salisbury School)

2010 OUTLOOK

Boasts the physical frame the coaching staff covets as the coaching staff rebuilds the defense. A good enough athlete to play early on, even though he is still learning the game.

BIO

German exchange student is an impressive physical specimen with a relentless motor and athleticism...played only two years of high school football in the United States...recently upgraded to a four-star prospect by Scout.com...has a three-star ranking from Rivals, which ranks him as the No. 65 defensive end nationally and the No. 6 prospect in Connecticut... No. 24 defensive end prospect according to ESPN...high school teammate of FSU tight end signee Will Tye...as a senior logged 57 tackles in seven games with three sacks, four forced fumbles and two blocked field goals...also caught 10 passes for 98 yards from the tight end position... played at home for Berlin Adler national team as a junior...as a sophomore at the Salisbury School, had 54 tackles, including 24 for losses, 12 sacks and two fumble recoveries in just eight games...was married over spring break...whittled lengthy list of offers to two, selecting FSU over Oregon.
