2011 OUTLOOK

Senior cornerback who looks to play an even bigger role in just his second year in the secondary. Gives FSU one of the top trios in the country serving as the nickelback but also as a viable option at either field or boundary corner. Considered a smooth player by the coaching staff because he has a good flow to his game due to his knack of always finding the football.

2010: Junior college transfer who made an immediate impact in 2010, jumping into the lineup as the primary nickelback in the season opener and pushing for a starting job at field corner down the stretch...recorded 41 tackles (33 solos), despite no starts...repeatedly showed a penchant for making a big play in key moments...collected the first of four interceptions - which tied for the team lead - against Samford...also intercepted passes in wins over Clemson, Florida and South Carolina...forced two fumbles, including one that teammate Nick Moody returned to the Miami 1-yard line, setting up a touchdown for a 14-0 lead...also forced a fumble against Wake Forest which helped preserve the 31-0 shutout...FSU career-high five tackles - all solos - also came against the Demon Deacons...named one of the top newcomers on defense at the annual Florida State football banquet.

2011 OUTLOOK

One of the top kickers in the country and a leading candidate for the Lou Groza Award heading into his third season as a starter for the Seminoles. One of the strongest legs in the country which was evident with his walk-off game-winning 55-yard field goal against Clemson last season as well as his 60-yard missile in this past spring game. Also one of the top kickoff specialists in the nation having hit 47.7 percent of his kickoffs for touchbacks, which ranked second nationally a season ago. Recognized by the ACC and Florida State as a "Top 6 for Service" award recipient this past year and received the Dean of Students Award. Earned one of six community service awards given out at the end of spring practice.

2010: Sophomore kicker who was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award, which is presented to the nation's top placekicker...a two-year starter, who handled all of the kickoff, field goal and PAT kicks for the Seminoles...scored a career-high 119 points, which led the team and the ACC and was the third-most in a single-season in FSU history...became just the 10th kicker in FSU history to score 100 points in a season and the 12th player overall to eclipse the century mark...converted 22 of 28 field goal attempts and 53 of 53 PATs...will bring a streak of 86 consecutive successful PATs into the 2011 season...had at least one field goal in 13 of 14 games...his career-long field goal of 55 yards came as time expired in a 16-13 victory over Clemson, which is the longest walk-off winning kick in ACC history...Hopkins' game-winner - which was also the longest field goal in the ACC last season - came after he missed a potential game-winner a week earlier from 40 yards against North Carolina...earned ACC Specialist of the Week honors for his effort against the Tigers...was 6-of-6 on field goals inside the 30, and 17-of-19 inside the 40... also boomed a 52-yarder at Oklahoma, matching his previous career long...matched his career-high with four field goals in the Chick-fil-A Bowl which was a bowl record...had three field goals against Clemson and Maryland in consecutive games, one shy of his FSU bowl record four vs. West Virginia in the 2010 Gator Bowl...Hopkins' 41 touchbacks ranked second in the country and was the most by an FSU kicker since All-American

Sebastian Janikowski in 1999 which makes him a valuable contributor in the field position game...he and the Seminoles led the ACC in net kickoffs with a 47.1 average and opponents starting on average just shy of the 22-yard line...in all 41 of his 86 kickoffs (47.7 percent) went unreturned...Hopkins' 216 career points rank 12th in Florida State history and eighth among all-time Seminole kickers...one of four Seminoles selected to the ACC All-Academic Football team...named the team's Co-Special Teams Most Valuable Player along with punter Shawn Powell and also received an academic award for one of the top GPAs in his class at the team's annual football banquet. 2009: True freshman who won starting job in preseason competition with James Esco and handled all of the kicking duties...led the Seminoles in scoring with 97 points; the most prolific freshman campaign by a kicker in program history...converted four of five field goal attempts to set an FSU bowl record in the 33-21 Gator Bowl win over West Virginia...converted his first collegiate field goal attempt from 52 yards against Miami...was successful on 19 of 27 field goal attempts, including 11 of 13 from inside 40 yards...finished the season with a streak of 33 consecutive successful PATs after struggling with his consistency early in the year... his 24 touchbacks led the ACC - nine ahead of his nearest competitor and ranked fourth nationally...opponents average starting point following a kickoff was its own 25...selected to Sporting News ACC All-Freshman squad...one of three Seminoles selected to the ACC All-Academic Football team.

PERSONAL

Was the consensus top-rated kicker in the country coming out of high school...two-time Texas 5A All-State selection...USA Today first team All-American as a senior...participated in the Under Armour All-America game...like former FSU standout kickers Scott Bentley and Sebastian Janikowski, is a gifted athlete who also contributed to his Clear Lake High School team as a starter in the secondary...an outstanding high school student who boasted better than a 4.0 weighted GPA...selected FSU over Notre Dame, Missouri and Kansas State...born October 1, 1990.

2011 OUTLOOK

Takes over as the full-time starter replacing first-round draft pick Christian Ponder but brings a 4-2 record as a starter as well as a wealth of playing experience to the position. His size and presence in the pocket as well as his speed and elusiveness as a runner puts him right up there as one of the top quarterbacks in the country going into the season. Already has garnered preseason All-ACC honors by several publications despite only starting six games in his career and throwing for less than 2,000 yards in a combined two seasons. Named to the Maxwell Award Watch List given to the nation's best college football player. Awarded the Hinesman given to the overall most valuable player of the spring for Florida State as well as one of six community service awards from the spring semester after spring practice.

2010: Built on his stint as a four-game starter in 2009, made 10 appearances with starts against Clemson and Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game...came on in relief in the second quarter of the Chick-fil-A Bowl and helped guide the 'Noles to a 26-17 win over South Carolina, which included a 7-yard TD pass to Taiwan Easterling with just over five minutes to play to cap off a 13-play, 63-yard drive which proved to be the game-clinching moment...boasts a 4-2 record as the starter, including what amounted to an elimination game victory over Clemson while filling in for senior Christian Ponder...led the Seminoles in completion percentage (69.9) and passing efficiency (153.25)...ran for a career-high 71 yards and a touchdown against Clemson in a 16-13 win, eclipsing his previous high of 70 yards in his Gator Bowl MVP performance against West Virginia...also passed for 210 yards in the win over the Tigers, helping him earn ACC Offensive Back of the Week honors...passed for a career-high 288 yards (23-31) in the ACC Championship game loss to Virginia Tech... helped run the final 7:35 off the clock against Florida, rushing for 27 yards in the 31-7 Seminole win...passed for 861 yards and four TDs and added 170 rushing yards and one TD...named to the All-ACC Academic football team. 2009: Thrust into the starting role when Christian Ponder suffered a season-ending injury late in the Clemson game...posted a 3-1 record as the starter, capped by his MVP performance in FSU's Gator Bowl victory over West Virginia...rallied the Seminoles from a 14-3 deficit against the Mountaineers by completing 17-of-24 pass attempts for 189 yards and rushed for 70 yards on 14 carries...Manuel's 2-yard TD run with under nine minutes to play gave the 'Noles a 30-21 lead...completed 75 percent of his passes (15-of-20) in his first career start - a win at Wake Forest - earning ACC Rookie of the Week honors for his effort...led the Seminoles to points on the first five scoring drives in his first career start...guided the 'Noles to a bowl-clinching 29-26 win over Maryland by overcoming three interceptions... Manuel directed his first career fourth quarter rally, scrambling for 35 yards on the first two plays to set up Lonnie Pryor's game-winning TD run with 1:14 to play...appeared in seven games, including four starts...his 196 rushing yards ranked third on the team... completed just over 65 percent of his pass attempts for 817 yards...selected to the ACC All-Academic football team...missed the 2009 spring season with a broken index finger suffered on the first day of practice. 2008: Redshirt season...earned scout team MVP honors for the offense.

Versatile back who has added nearly 15 pounds of muscle heading into his third season as the starting fullback. Considered the unsung hero of the offense. Really worked on his technique and blocking in the spring which included getting better leverage and using his hands more despite earning the team's Skill Blocker Award last season. Named the Offensive MVP of spring practice. Earned one of six community service awards given out at the end of spring practice.

2010: Primarily served as the Seminoles' lead blocker from the fullback slot...his versatility drew comparisons from coach Jimbo Fisher to former FSU back Edgar Bennett...shared the team lead in touchdowns with seven (four rushing, three receiving)...had a pair of two-touchdown games with two through the air in the opener against Samford and two rushing against North Carolina...Pryor's most productive rushing game by yards came against Maryland when he ran the ball three times for 45 yards...had 112 rushing yards on 23 carries on the season (4.9 avg)...added 69 receiving yards on 12 catches on the year...pushed his career touchdown total to 12, which is tied for second with tailback Ty Jones among active players and six behind current leader, tailback Jermaine Thomas. 2009: The only true freshman on offense to play in all 13 games...his four starts were the most by any true freshman...ranked third on the team with four rushing touchdowns and fifth with 156 rushing yards...scored two touchdowns in the BYU and Maryland victories, highlighted by his game-winning 3-yard plunge against the Terrapins with 1:14 remaining to secure a bowl berth...earlier in the Maryland game Pryor flashed his big-play ability when he raced 50 yards with a downfield option pitch from quarterback EJ Manuel for a touchdown...also established himself as an effective pass receiver out of the backfield, collecting 10 receptions for 132 yards on the season...his season-long 49-yard reception resulted in a touchdown pass from Christian Ponder at Clemson...he also returned four kickoffs for 21 yards on the season.

PERSONAL

Ranked as the nation's 15th best running back according to Rivals.com and was a consensus four-star prospect...the Okeechobee High School standout was awarded Offensive Player of the Year honors by the Palm Beach Post and the Scripps Treasure Coast newspapers...rushed for 2,281 yards and 20 TDs as a senior...participated in the Offense-Defense All-American Bowl...earned 4A All-State honors twice after piling up more than 4,000 rushing yards and 40 TDs over his final two seasons...chose FSU after entertaining 17 FBS offers, including Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Boston College and Wake Forest...born February 22, 1990.

2011 OUTLOOK

Bookend on the right side of the offensive line who enters his fourth season as a starter with a team-high 37 career starts under his belt and brings a team-high 111 career knockdown blocks into the season. A Preseason All-ACC pick by several publications who is considered one of the top tackles in the country along with teammate Andrew Datko. Bulkied up in the offseason despite missing spring practice with a minor surgery. Smart player that possesses great strength, foot quickness and explosion off the ball. Tall and athletic lineman, with an impressive wingspan, who has proven adept at both pass and run blocking. He and fellow tackle Andrew Datko spent the spring mentoring and teaching the younger offensive linemen Rick Trickett's blocking schemes, which coaches hope helped them just as much as it did the younger players.

2010: Mammoth junior right tackle and third-year starter who closed out his most impressive season to date, thanks to his dedication in the offseason...started all 14 games, including one at left tackle (Virginia) in Andrew Datko's absence...shared ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week honors for his performance in the season opener against Samford, when he posted a career-high grade of 90 percent...only Seminole lineman credited with at least one knockdown block in 13 of 14 games...finished second on the team with 37 knockdown blocks, including a career-high of five against Boston College...registered a season average grade of 81 percent, which is the best of his career...third among all FSU linemen with 37 career starts, including 23 consecutive, which was second only to Ryan McMahon among linemen...capped off the season grading out at 88 percent against South Carolina in the Chick-fil-A Bowl...also graded out at 88 percent against Boston College and North Carolina...earned an academic achievement award at the 2010 football banquet for having one of the top GPAs for his class...selected to the ACC All-Academic football team. 2009: Starter at right tackle in 12 of 13 games on the year...finished the 2009 campaign with a grade of 73 percent and led the Seminoles with 43 knockdown blocks...enjoyed one of the top performances of his career in the season opener against Miami, grading out at 88 percent with eight knockdowns...struggled with his consistency early on, did not start against USF...regained his starting job and at one point strung together four games - North Carolina, NC State, Clemson and Wake Forest - with grades of 80 or better as the 'Noles went 3-1. 2008: Started opener as true freshman at left tackle before moving to right side, where he started final 10 games...played in all 13 contests and finished third on team with 31 knockdowns...allowed one sack and was penalized one time all season...recorded the line's overall best grade against Boston College and later against Wisconsin in the Champs Sports Bowl.

Tall, fluid and fast receiver who attacks the football at its highest point with his great hands and runs precise routes. One of Florida State's top three returning receivers from a year ago who has coaches even more excited about his junior season. Really worked on his downfield blocking in the spring.

2010: Came into his own as a sophomore after a one-catch freshman campaign...ranked fourth on the team with 31 receptions, good for 448 yards and three touchdowns...continued to develop over the course of the season, managing just eight receptions through the first six games, but collected 25 over the last eight...appeared to gain confidence after reeling in an 18-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter of the victory at Miami; his lone reception of the game...came back the very next week and posted a career-high six receptions against Boston College...in addition to the 18-yard TD reception against the Hurricanes, Smith hauled in scoring passes of 27 (vs. North Carolina) and 39 (vs. Florida)...had five plays over 25 yards on the season...logged his first 100-yard (4-121) receiving game against Clemson...played in all 14 games with eight starts. 2009: Played in seven games, initially on special teams, before working his way into the receiving rotation late in the year...lone pass reception - from EJ Manuel - went for a 7-yard gain against Wake Forest in FSU's road victory...notched four tackles, including three solo stops, on special teams...a very diligent student who met the academic requirements for the ACC All-Academic team, posting better than a 3.0 GPA his first semester at FSU.

PERSONAL

Highly-touted prospect who earned Miami Herald All-Dade honors at receiver...playing in a run-based offense at Archbishop Carroll, 10 of his 35 receptions as a high school senior went for touchdowns...also intercepted four passes from the safety position...had an interception return and two kickoff returns for touchdowns...over final two seasons totaled 65 receptions for 1,330 yards and 17 TDs...a four-star prospect, he ranked among the top 100 players nationally...received more than 30 FBS scholarship offers and chose FSU over Tennessee, Auburn, Ole Miss and Rutgers, among others...born March 11, 1990.
