MEDIA GUIDELINES

All media who wish to cover FSU athletics will be expected to comply with all the procedures of the University, ACC and FSU Media Relations Office in order to be credentialed. Procedures will be provided in detail at the start of the 2023-24 athletic year and are subject to change at any time.

INTERVIEWS

Media interviews with all FSU players and coaches MUST be arranged through the Media Relations Office. Email Derek Satterfield (dsatterfield@fsu.edu) to arrange interviews with head coach Mike Norvell, assistant coaches, staff and all student-athletes. Please give as much advance notice as possible when requesting interviews.

Players will be available at designated times during the season.

Players' phone numbers will not be given to the media and players should not be called directly or contacted through social media sites to arrange interviews or ask questions.

HEAD COACH MIKE NORVELL

FSU head coach Mike Norvell will hold his weekly press conference on Mondays during the season. Contact the Media Relations Office or refer to the weekly release for exact times for the press conferences, which will begin during the week of the first game and run throughout the season, as well as additional media opportunities during game weeks.

All interview requests for Coach Norvell are coordinated through the FSU Media Relations Office by emailing Derek Satterfield (dsatterfield@fsu.edu).

VIDEO SERVICES

Florida State's Sports Information Office has the ability to assist networks and television stations by providing video services through Seminole Productions, Inc. (SPI). Please call Kirby Kander at (850) 644-8036 to arrange for these services. For more information on Seminole Productions, visit seminoleproductions.fsu.edu

XOS DIGITAL EXCHANGE

The Florida State Sports Information Office has partnered with XOS Digital in order to provide over-the-air television stations with instantaneous access to video content. The partnership involves the use of the company's Digital Media Xchange Server that will allow television stations to pull down video content year round. The data transfer speed is much faster than a traditional FTP service allowing very large files to be downloaded in just minutes.

The password-protected video FTP site will be hosting Monday press conferences with head coach Mike Norvell as well as post-practice availabilities throughout the week.

If you have an interest in creating an account that gives you access to the video weekly, please email Derek Satterfield (dsatterfield@fsu.edu). If you are looking for access just for a particular game week, please email prior to that game to set up a guest account.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Florida State Sports Information is making a continued effort in 2023-24 to utilize social media outlets as another way of passing information to our fans and those who cover our programs. FSU Football's twitter account @FSUFootball and Instagram feed @FSUfootball provide updated information and behind-the-scenes news as does the Noles' Facebook page - facebook.com/FSUFootball.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for working press, radio, television, photography or scouting credentials should be directed to our online credentialing site located on the Seminoles.com Media Relations page no later than the Tuesday before the game. PHOTOS WILL BE REQUIRED AND MUST BE UPLOADED AT THE TIME YOU REQUEST CREDENTIALS. PHOTO MUST BE IN COLOR AND PROVIDE A CLEAR VIEW OF YOUR FACE. Requests for the home opener should be made at least two weeks prior to the first game. Space for the working press, radio and television is allocated by the FSU Media Relations Office. Any credential questions can be answered by Assistant Director Christa Salerno (csalerno@fsu.edu).

INTERNET ACCESS

Internet access is available in the ninth level press box and any additional media work space. Access will be granted through the FSUMedia network. The password will be available on all seat cards and will also be posted throughout the press box. All game day materials, including game notes, media guides and stats, will be made available through Seminoles.com.

RADIO-TV

Florida State will host both home and visiting radio in booths in the press box. The live television broadcast will be working from a mid-field booth on the eighth level (one below working press). Both home and visiting radio will broadcast from booths at the south end of the ninth level.

TELEPHONES

Telephone service should be secured directly through the Florida State University Office of Telecommunications at (850) 644-4357. The Telecommunications Office can provide both lines and phones. Orders can also be placed on-line at www.its.fsu.edu. Please make sure to request phone lines at least three days prior to the game.

DIGITAL MEDIA

The Digital Media Department is responsible for presenting the Seminoles online. Offices are located on the second floor of the Moore Athletics Center.

The department manages FSU's official site Seminoles.com, the official social media platforms for the Seminoles, online stores, auctions, apps, promotional and championship sites.

SEMINOLES.COM ALSO PROVIDES:

- Live game audio featuring "The Voice of the Seminoles" Jeff Culhane and William Floyd
- Live press conference coverage Mondays and after games
- Live in-game stats
- Unique written and video content aimed at engaging and informing Seminole fans
- Roster, schedules, media guides, game notes and more

CULHANE IN SECOND YEAR AS VOICE OF THE SEMINOLES

Jeff Culhane was named Director of Broadcasting for LEARFIELD's Seminole Sports Properties on June 20, 2022, and is in his second season serving as the voice for Florida State football and men's basketball.

Culhane has more than 20 years of multimedia experience and has extensive experience growing radio networks through adding new affiliates and producing original content, including daily shows, weekly features and podcasts that highlight student-athletes and coaches in each program.

Culhane was the voice of North Dakota State football, men's basketball and baseball from 2016-22. In his role at NDSU, Culhane was the play-by-play announcer for four FCS National Championship Games and two men's basketball NCAA Tournament appearances. He also coordinated affiliate relations for the Bison Radio Network while developing a sports radio station in Fargo and hosting a daily show on the network.

Culhane also gained experience with play-by-play and hosting duties at West Virginia and Nebraska. Prior to his time at Nebraska, Culhane was the play-by-play voice for South Dakota women's basketball and held multiple broadcasting roles throughout the state from 2001-2007.

The Seminole Sports Network from LEARFIELD brings you all Florida State Football radio broadcasts. LEARFIELD unlocks the value of college sports for fans, brands, universities and conferences through an omnichannel fan engagement platform. The company engages millions of fans with data-driven media, commerce, and experiential solutions, including licensing and multimedia sponsorship management; publishing, radio, digital and social media; ticket sales and professional concessions expertise; branding; campus-wide business and sponsorship development; and venue technology systems. Headquartered in Plano, Texas, LEARFIELD is a longtime advocate for intercollegiate athletics and the student-athlete experience. Since 2008, it has served as title sponsor for the acclaimed LEARFIELD Directors' Cup, supporting athletic departments across all divisions.

Florida State's broadcast crew has historically been one of the nation's best, providing insight and entertainment as well as detailed and expert analysis. Jeff Culhane, the "Voice of the Seminoles", is joined in the booth by national champion and Super Bowl winner William Floyd as the color analyst. Floyd is now in his 15th season broadcasting FSU football games after joining the team in 2008. The former Florida State great is very familiar with the broadcasting world as he has hosted his own radio show in the Bay Area and worked as a reporter and studio analyst for SUN Sports. Sideline reporter Tom Block teams with Culhane and Floyd in providing in-depth analysis during the game. Florida State's game-day broadcasts begin two hours prior to every kickoff.

ACC NETWORK

Come to ACC Network for everything you love about ACC Football. It's the traditions, triumphs and rivalries. It's the culture, competition and unrivaled coverage, year-round. It's more than the game. COME FOR IT ALL.

ACC Huddle is the all-day destination for ACC Football providing a mix of expert analysis, humor and fun every Saturday. Each week, the crew travels to the ACC Saturday Primetime game to be a part of game day on campus and get you ready for kickoff. Coverage kicks off in the morning, continues all day between games and concludes with a nightcap show. Plus, ACC Huddle Tailgate travels alongside ACC Huddle each week, bringing games, giveaways, talent appearances and more to campus.

ACC Football kicks off August 31st on ACC Network. Watch all season long on ACCN and streaming live on the ESPN App.

COACHES

MIKE NORVELL
HEAD COACH

Experience: 4th Season at FSU | 8th Season as head coach | 18th Season as collegiate coach
Hometown: Irving, Texas | Alma Mater: Central Arkansas, 2005; Central Arkansas, 2007
Family: wife, Maria; daughter, Mila

Mike Norvell was named Florida State's 11th full-time head football coach on Dec. 8, 2019, and has built the Seminoles back among the nation's elite as he enters his fourth season at the helm.

Norvell's offenses are averaging 37.4 points per game during his seven years as a head coach, which is the third-highest average in the country among head coaches active each year from 2016-23. Norvell and Nick Saban were the only two FBS head coaches to score at least 500 points each season from 2016-19, and Norvell is one of only three head coaches to produce a top-7 rushing offense and top-7 passing offense since 2016. His offense has showcased 58 individual 100-yard rushing games, 37 individual 100-yard receiving games and 23 individual 300-yard passing games. In addition to his high-powered offenses, Norvell's teams have also scored 13 defensive touchdowns and 12 kickoff return touchdowns.

Norvell, a 2019 finalist for the Eddie Robinson and Bear Bryant Coach of the Year awards, has developed an impressive coaching tree in his seven seasons as head coach. For the 2023 season, 44 current Division I coaches, including five head coaches and 12 coordinators, have served on a Norvell staff. He has hired coaches who are now on staffs at Arizona State, Oregon, Memphis, Southern Miss, Northern Arizona, Akron, Arkansas, Auburn, Duke, FAU, Indiana, Miami, Oregon State, Pitt, SMU, South Carolina, TCU, Texas A&M and Virginia Tech, among others.

Nineteen of Norvell's pupils have been selected in the last seven NFL Drafts, led by 2022 first-round selection Jermaine Johnson II. Norvell has coached multiple picks in five of the last six years. In addition to Johnson, Norvell also guided second-round picks Anthony Miller and Asante Samuel, Jr., as well as third-round selections Darrell Henderson, Antonio Gibson and Dylan Parham. In his career, Norvell has coached 25 NFL Draft picks, eight All-Americans, including six first-team selections, four conference Players of the Year, one ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and 83 all-conference recognitions.

In his first three seasons at the helm of FSU's program, he has re-established the foundation and championship standards while building a program around explosive playmakers in all three phases. The Seminoles have utilized a unique blend of high school prospects and transfer portal players to maximum impact, evidenced by a 10-win season in 2022 that doubled the previous year's win total and led to a No. 10 finish in the final Coaches Poll and a No. 11 final ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 behind 15 all-conference performers, FSU's highest total since 2015.

Statistically, the 2022 team was among the nation's best in multiple categories in all three phases. FSU was the only team to lead its conference in both total offense and total defense in 2022. Florida State was one of two teams nationally to average at least 270 passing yards and at least 210 rushing yards per game. The Seminoles, along with Alabama and Georgia, were the only three teams to rank in the top-15 in yards per play on offense and defense. Those three teams were also the only ones ranked in the top-20 in total defense, scoring defense, total offense and scoring offense.

Florida State led the country with an average of 7.46 plays of at least 20 yards per game and ranked second nationally with an explosive play differential of +7.41. The defense was fourth in the country in passing defense, and FSU was one of six teams nationally to rank in the top-25 in kickoff return and punt return average. Florida State led the ACC in passing defense, third-down offense, yards gained per pass, yards gained per play, yards gained per rush, total offense per game, yards per completion, yards allowed per pass, rushing offense per game, yards allowed per play, total defense per game and scoring offense per game.

The Seminoles were led by quarterback Jordan Travis, who was PFF's highest-graded quarterback nationally and the highest-graded offensive player in the ACC. Travis continued to showcase his development under Norvell, ranking first in the ACC in yards per play, yards per pass attempt, yards per completion and pass efficiency rating. He had a school-record six straight games accounting for at least three touchdowns and became the first player in program history with at least 20 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in one season. The redshirt junior saved his best performance for last, accounting for an FSU bowl-record 468 yards of total offense in the Cheez-It Bowl victory over Oklahoma that included a career-high 418 passing yards and 50 rushing yards, making him only the fifth player nationally with at least 400 passing yards and 50 rushing yards in a bowl game since 2000.

The defense was led by first-team All-Americans Jared Verse and Jammie Robinson. Verse was the ACC's Newcomer of the Year after he dominated in his first season at Florida State following a transfer from Albany, leading the conference with an average of 0.75 sacks per game and ranking second in the ACC and 10th nationally with an average of 1.4 tackles for loss per game. Robinson, FSU's first back-to-back first-team All-ACC defender since Jalen Ramsey in 2014-15, was the Seminoles' leading tackler for the second straight season. He registered 99 stops, including a game-high 13 in the Cheez-It Bowl victory, and recorded 5.0 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack, five pass breakups, one interception and one fumble recovery.

Offensive lineman Dillan Gibbons became the first FSU player to win the prestigious Wuerffel Trophy, given to the FBS player who best combines exemplary community service with leadership achievement on and off the field. Along with the Wuerffel, Gibbons, who started all 13 games at left guard, was voted captain of the Good Works Team, named the winner of the Jim Tatum Award given to the ACC's top football senior scholar-athlete and was selected as a first-team All-ACC performer.

The 2021 season was highlighted by first-team All-American and ACC Defensive Player of the Year Jermaine Johnson II, who elevated his game into a first-round NFL Draft pick in his one season at Florida State. Johnson, the only athlete to win a Player of the Year award in his first season with an ACC program, and first-team All-ACC defensive back Jammie Robinson led FSU's contingent of eight all-conference recognitions for the program's most All-ACC honorees since 2016.

Florida State ended the 2021 season converting 32 consecutive red zone trips, the longest active streak in America and the second-longest streak at any point in 2021, scoring an average of 6.1 points per red zone trip during the streak. The Seminoles also grabbed at least one interception in each of the last eight games of 2021, tied for the longest streak in the country in 2021.

Florida State ranked second in the ACC and seventh nationally in red zone defense, allowing points on only 70.6 percent of red zone drives. The Seminoles also ranked third in the ACC with 20 total takeaways and 7.2 tackles for loss per game, while their 14 interceptions were fourth overall in the conference. The tackles-for-loss average ranked 12th nationally and was FSU's highest for a season since 2016.

In his first season at Florida State, Norvell led the youngest team in the nation as freshmen and sophomores made up 75 percent of FSU's roster and 34 players made their first appearance for the Seminoles. While navigating through a global pandemic that ended spring practice after only three sessions and impacted summer workouts and the regular season, Norvell became the only coach in ACC history to defeat a top-five team in his first season when FSU earned a 31-28 victory over No. 5 North Carolina. In the season finale, a 56-35 win over Duke, Florida State scored six rushing touchdowns, matching the program record for rushing touchdowns in an ACC game.

The Seminoles averaged 199.9 rushing yards per game, the program's highest since 2016 and 20th nationally among teams that played at least nine games in 2020, and 5.11 yards per rush, 16th in the nation among teams with at least 350 carries and FSU's most in a season since 2015. Florida State topped 400 yards of total offense in five of the last seven games, including more than 500 yards of total offense twice, and produced FSU's first game with at least 250 yards rushing and passing since 2016.

Norvell's teams are known for elite special teams play, and that was on display in his first season with the Seminoles. Florida State tied for second in the NCAA with five blocked kicks, including two blocked field goals, two blocked punts and one blocked PAT. FSU was one of only two teams in the country to block multiple field goals and multiple punts in 2020. Additionally, the Seminoles ranked 16th in the nation in net punting average.

The team posted a program-record 3.127 grade-point average in the spring 2020 semester, an immediate indication of the importance Norvell places on academics in his program, and Florida State produced a program-record 10 Academic All-ACC selections after the 2022 season. FSU's 972 multi-year Academic Progress Rate announced in May of 2023 was the highest in program history and followed the program's best two single-season APRs in 2021 and 2022. As another public signal, 253 players have earned a Seminole Scholar patch on their uniform as part of a program Norvell introduced to recognize academic achievement.

Norvell spent the 2016-19 seasons as the head coach at Memphis, compiling a record of 38-15, including the 2019 American Athletic Conference championship and a spot in the New Year's Six Cotton Bowl. His 71.7 winning percentage was the highest in Memphis history, and included wins over Power Five opponents Ole Miss, 25th-ranked UCLA and Kansas. Memphis was the first school to appear in three straight American Athletic Conference Championship Games, and Norvell is one of 16 head coaches in any conference to appear in three straight conference championship games. He is also one of only eight to make three conference championship game appearances in their first four years as a head coach.

Memphis was one of three FBS teams to rank in the top-15 nationally in scoring offense every year from 2016-19, along with Ohio State and Oklahoma. As an FBS coordinator or head coach, Norvell and Lincoln Riley were the only individuals to coach a 1,000-yard receiver each season from 2013-19.

Memphis shined on special teams under Norvell as the Tigers were one of only two schools with at least one kickoff return touchdown each year from 2016-19, and their 11 kickoff return touchdowns over that span were the most in the nation. The 2019 team ranked second in the country in special teams efficiency by ESPN, trailing only Penn State which hired Norvell's special teams coordinator prior to the 2019 season.

The Tigers' defense wreaked havoc on opponents, forcing 99 takeaways and averaging 6.8 tackles for loss per game. Memphis scored 10 total defensive touchdowns under Norvell's direction and was one of only six FBS teams with multiple defensive touchdowns every year from 2016-19.

In 2019, Norvell led Memphis to a school-record 12 wins and the program's first outright conference championship since 1969. Norvell, who is the only coach in Memphis history with two 10-win seasons, produced two of the four 10-win seasons at the school and holds program records with eight wins in his first season, 18 over his first two, 26 in his first three and 38 in his first four seasons. He also holds the school record for the most wins over a three-year span with 30 victories from 2017-19 to bypass his 26 wins from 2016-18.

The Tigers ranked eighth in the nation with an average of 40.5 points per game and with an average of 6.90 yards per play. Their team passing efficiency of 167.41 and average of 14.91 yards per completion were both 10th in the country, while their third-down conversion percentage of 46.3 was 21st. Memphis ranked 20th with a team passing efficiency defense rating of 115.36, averaged 7.0 tackles for loss per game, the 25th-best average in America, and ranked in the top-six in kickoff returns, blocked punts and blocked kicks. ESPN ranked Memphis 10th in offensive efficiency and 20th in team efficiency.

The 2019 Tigers produced a program-record 14 all-conference selections, including co-Special Teams Player of the Year Antonio Gibson and Rookie of the Year Kenneth Gainwell, in addition to Mortell Award winner Preston Brady as the national holder of the year. Gibson's average of 28.8 yards per kickoff return ranked sixth in the country, while Gainwell ranked ninth with 150.54 all-purpose yards per game and 12th with an average of 6.42 yards per rush. Brady White, named a finalist for the Manning Award and Johnny Unitas Award, ranked in the top-20 in FBS in passing yards per completion, yards per attempt, passing efficiency, passing touchdowns, passing yards per game and points responsibility. He had a streak of 11 straight games with at least two passing touchdowns, tied for the longest streak in AAC history, and was one of five quarterbacks in the nation with at least 11 multiple-touchdown games.

In 2018, Norvell's team boasted the fourth-best rushing attack in the nation, averaging 279.9 yards per game with a school-record 3,919 total rushing yards and 48 touchdowns on the ground. He produced the first season in Memphis history with two 1,000-yard rushers, led by Doak Walker Award finalist and unanimous All-American Darrell Henderson. Henderson broke the NCAA record with an average of 8.22 yards per carry, and his 2018 average of 8.92 yards per carry was the highest for a season with a minimum of 200 carries in records dating back to 2000. The Tigers ranked fourth in the country with an average of 523.1 yards per game and 7.12 yards per play while also ranking seventh with an average of 42.9 points per game.

The 2017 team averaged 45.5 points per game, the second-highest average in the country, and ranked fourth in the NCAA with 523.1 yards per game and 7.35 yards per play. The team passing efficiency rating of 160.15 was sixth in the nation with a passing offense of 335.0 yards per game that was seventh. That year, Memphis forced 31 takeaways, good for third in the country, and ranked third with a turnover margin of plus-1.15 per game. The team's average of 26.02 yards per kickoff return also ranked fourth. Anthony Miller earned consensus All-America honors after leading the NCAA with 18 receiving touchdowns and ranking third in the country with 96 receptions and 1,462 yards.

In his first year at the helm, Norvell immediately put his stamp on the program. Memphis ranked second in kickoff return defense, allowing only 16.04 yards per return, while boasting the nation's fifth-best kickoff return average of 26.57 yards per return. The Tigers were the only team to rank in the top-17 of both categories in 2016. Memphis also forced 29 takeaways, the fifth-highest total in the country, and ranked in the top-15 in scoring offense, averaging 38.8 points per game, and passing offense at 304.4 yards per game.

The Tigers flourished academically under Norvell as well, posting single-year APR scores of 991 in 2018-19, 988 in 2017-18 and 976 in 2016-17. Under his guidance, the football team earned its highest grade-point average in program history in the fall of 2017. Through his first three years, 55 players earned their bachelor's degree, including eight on the 2019 team.

Norvell took over at Memphis after four years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arizona State. The Sun Devils averaged 38.1 points per game and scored nearly 2,000 points in his four seasons. His 2014 offense gained 5,750 yards, 3,556 of those through the air, and ranked 13th in the nation with 34 touchdown passes. The 2013 team's average of 39.7 points per game ranked 10th nationally.

Norvell spent one year as Pitt's co-offensive coordinator, wide receivers coach and director of recruiting. From 2007-10 he coached wide receivers at Tulsa, adding passing game coordinator duties in 2009 and director of recruiting responsibilities in 2010. The Golden Hurricane had five 1,000-yard receivers under Norvell's leadership, led by All-American Damaris Johnson. Johnson broke the NCAA record for career all-purpose yards with 7,796 and is one of four players in NCAA history with three seasons of at least 2,000 all-purpose yards.

Norvell was a four-year letterwinner at Central Arkansas and was inducted into the UCA Sports Hall of Fame in 2015. He broke the school record with 213 career receptions and was second on the program's all-time list with 2,611 receiving yards and an average of 4.6 catches per game. He helped lead the Bears to 33 wins in his four years, including an 11-3 mark in 2005. The next year, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Norvell earned two degrees from Central Arkansas, completing his bachelor's degree in social science in 2005 and his master's degree in training systems in 2007. Norvell and his wife, Maria, have a daughter, Mila.

ALEX ATKINS
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE

4th Season at FSU | 17th Season as collegiate coach
Hometown: Chicago, Ill. | Alma Mater: UT-Martin, 2007
Family: wife, Brittany

Alex Atkins enters his second season as Florida State's offensive coordinator and fourth on staff in 2023.

Atkins, who served as offensive coordinator at Charlotte in 2019, was the offensive line coach on Mike Norvell's first Florida State staff in 2020 and has continued coaching that position group with his elevation to the Seminoles' offensive coordinator. His FSU offensive line has featured 18 different starting combinations in 34 games but has blocked for 18 games with at least 200 rushing yards, including a school-record-tying seven consecutive 200-yard rushing games in 2022. The group has produced six all-conference performers and two Freshman All-Americans under Atkins.

In 2022, Atkins coordinated one of the most explosive offenses in the nation while helping lead FSU to a 10-3 record and a final ranking of No. 10 in the Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the AP Top 25. Florida State led the nation with its average of 7.46 plays of 20-plus yards per game, the program's highest season average since the 2013 national championship, and was third in the country with an explosive play rate of 17.15 percent. The Seminoles were one of two teams nationally to average at least 270 passing yards and at least 210 rushing yards per game in 2022. FSU also tied for the national lead with eight touchdown drives of 90-plus yards, and its 16 touchdown drives of 80-plus yards were third-most in the country.

The Seminoles led the ACC in third-down offense, yards gained per pass, yards gained per play, yards gained per rush, total offense per game, yards per completion, rushing offense per game and scoring offense per game. Florida State was the first team to lead the ACC in scoring offense and total offense in the same season since 2019 and was one of two teams nationally to lead its conference in yards per rush, yards per pass and yards per play in 2022.

In Atkins' first season coordinating FSU's offense, the Seminoles showed remarkable improvement in all areas. Florida State's 36.1 points-per-game average was an increase of 8.5 points per game from 2021, while the 270.2 passing yards were an increase of 68.6 yards per game and the 214.1 rushing yards increased 36.4 yards per game for a total offense increase of 104.9 yards per game to an average of 484.2. FSU also increased its third-down percentage by 16.6 percent to 51.2, a mark that ranked fourth in the country. The Seminoles' ranked 10th nationally in total offense and yards per completion.

He oversaw the development of eight All-ACC honorees on offense in 2022, including first-team offensive lineman Dillan Gibbons and second-team selections quarterback Jordan Travis, offensive lineman Robert Scott Jr., running back Trey Benson and wide receiver Johnny Wilson. Florida State was the only school in the conference with at least one first- or second-team selection at quarterback, running back, wide receiver and offensive line. Gibbons also became the ACC's first winner of the Wuerffel Trophy, was chosen as captain of the AFCA Good Works Team and earned the Jim Tatum Award as the ACC's top senior scholar-athlete.

Florida State was led by Travis, who was PFF's highest-graded quarterback in the nation and the highest-graded offensive player in the ACC. Travis continued to showcase his development under Norvell, ranking first in the ACC in yards per play, yards per pass attempt, yards per completion and pass efficiency rating. He had a school-record six straight games accounting for at least three touchdowns and became the first player in program history with at least 20 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns in one season. The redshirt junior saved his best performance for last, accounting for an FSU bowl-record 468 yards of total offense in the Cheez-It Bowl victory over Oklahoma that included a career-high 418 passing yards and 50 rushing yards, making him only the fifth player nationally with at least 400 passing yards and 50 rushing yards in a bowl game since 2000.

Benson led the ACC with his average of 6.43 yards per carry and broke PFF College's single-season record by forcing 0.51 missed tackles per rush. Wilson led the ACC and ranked third nationally with 22 catches of at least 20 yards, and his average of 20.86 yards per catch was second in the conference and fifth in the country.

Atkins' 2021 line was highlighted by honorable mention All-ACC guards Gibbons and Devontay Love-Taylor. The duo helped lead an offensive line that blocked as FSU converted 32 consecutive red zone trips into points, the longest active streak in the nation at the end of the 2021 season, while leading the ACC and ranking seventh nationally by scoring touchdowns on 73.8 percent of red zone trips in 2021.

In his first season with the Seminoles, Atkins led a young group that blocked for a top-20 rushing offense while featuring nine different starters making up six different starting lineups in nine games. Scott and Maurice Smith were both recognized among the best freshmen in the country as Scott earned True Freshman All-America honors from 247Sports and Smith was named a Freshman All-American by Rivals.

Florida State averaged 199.9 rushing yards per game, the program's highest since 2016 and 20th nationally among teams that played at least nine games in 2020, and 5.11 yards per rush, 16th in the nation among teams with at least 350 carries and FSU's most in a season since 2015. The Seminoles topped 400 yards of total offense in five of the last seven games, including more than 500 yards of total offense twice, and produced FSU's first game with at least 250 yards rushing and passing since 2016.

In the season finale, a 56-35 win over Duke, Florida State rushed for six touchdowns, the most in the ACC and tied for the seventh-highest single-game total nationally in 2020. That also was only the second time in FSU history the Seminoles rushed for six touchdowns in a conference game. At North Carolina State, Florida State started four freshmen offensive lineman for the first time since 2011. That group blocked as FSU had five successful fourth-down conversions, which was the second-highest single-game total in program history, the most by an ACC program in 2020 and the second-highest total nationally in 2020.

Atkins served as Charlotte's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in 2019 after three years as assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Tulane. He also has Division I experience at Georgia Southern, Chattanooga, Marshall and UT-Martin.

In 2019, Atkins coordinated an offense that led Charlotte to its first bowl game in program history as the team won seven games and was selected for the Bahamas Bowl. The 49ers allowed 1.62 sacks per game, tied for the 32nd-lowest average in the country, had their conference's top rushing attack and ranked 32nd in FBS with an average of 203.0 yards per game, scored on 88.4 percent of their Red Zone possessions to tie for 35th in the nation, ranked 17th with an average of 14.10 yards per completion and ranked 24th with a time of possession average of 31:59 per game.

Atkins, whose offensive line was one of 24 to be included on the Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll, tutored first-team all-conference performers Cam Clark and Benny LeMay as well as all-freshman offensive lineman Dejan Rasuo. Clark, a fourth-round selection by the New York Jets in the 2020 NFL Draft, anchored an offensive line that produced 10 100-yard rushing games compiled by three different athletes in 2019. LeMay led the way with a school-record seven 100-yard rushing games, ranking 23rd in the nation with his average of 98.4 rushing yards per game while his 120.4 all-purpose yards per game ranked 34th in the nation.

From 2016-18, Atkins was Tulane's assistant head coach and offensive line coach. He also added running game coordinator responsibilities his final season in New Orleans. In his first season with the Green Wave, he helped direct a remarkable turnaround from the 118th rushing team in the country in 2015 at 115.8 yards per game to the NCAA's 26th-best rushing attack in 2016 with an average of 228.1 yards per game. The improvement continued in 2017 as Tulane averaged 231.5 rushing yards per game, 20th in FBS. In his last year at Tulane, the Green Wave won seven games and the Cure Bowl behind an offense that posted the 23rd-highest rushing average in the country at 218.2 yards per game.

Prior to Tulane, Atkins coached the offensive line at Georgia Southern for two seasons and helped lead the Eagles to back-to-back nine-win seasons. In 2014, as Georgia Southern was transitioning into FBS, the team finished 9-3 and averaged a Division I-best 381.1 rushing yards per game. The next season, the Eagles finished 9-4 after winning the first bowl appearance in program history and led all FBS schools with an average of 363.0 rushing yards per game.

Atkins arrived at Georgia Southern following two years as offensive line coach at Chattanooga. In 2012, with FSU defensive coordinator Adam Fuller serving the same role for the Mocs, Chattanooga won six games behind an effective offense that ranked second in FCS with only nine turnovers and converted 61.5 percent of its fourth-down attempts. The next season, the Mocs finished 8-4 including a program-record six conference victories.

Atkins began his coaching career at UT-Martin, his alma mater, serving as a graduate assistant in 2007 and coaching tight ends in 2008. He was then a graduate assistant at Marshall in 2009. His first full-time coaching stop was at Itawamba Community College in Mississippi. As the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator, he helped produce an offense that was top-25 in the country in both 2010 and 2011.

A four-year starter at offensive guard for UT-Martin, Atkins twice earned all-conference honors. His senior year he helped lead the Skyhawks to an OVC championship and the program's first FCS playoff appearance. He blocked for two 1,000-yard rushers that season as the Skyhawks finished 9-3 and ranked 12th in the country.

Atkins, a native of Chicago, earned his bachelor's degree in history from UT-Martin in 2007. He is married to the former Brittany Mitchell.

ADAM FULLER
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

4th Season at FSU | 26th Season as collegiate coach
Hometown: Tewksbury, Mass. | Alma Mater: Sacred Heart, 1998; Wagner, 2001
Family: wife, Hope; sons, Jack and Aidan

Adam Fuller was named Florida State's defensive coordinator on Dec. 12, 2019, and enters his fourth season in charge of FSU's defense in 2023.

Fuller has an impressive track record of developing talent, evidenced by his players earning 24 All-America recognitions and 72 all-conference honors. Jermaine Johnson II, selected 26th overall by the New York Jets in the 2022 NFL Draft, developed into a first-round pick after being named the 2021 ACC Defensive Player of the Year, a first-team All-American and first-team all-conference performer in Fuller's defense. Defensive back Jammie Robinson was a Carolina Panthers selection in the 2023 NFL Draft after two All-ACC seasons, and two of Fuller's former defensive backs were among the four FSU defenders selected in the 2021 NFL Draft, marking the second straight year and third time multiple defensive backs coached by Fuller were taken in the same draft.

In 2022, Fuller orchestrated one of the nation's best defenses to help lead Florida State to a 10-3 record and a final ranking of No. 10 in the Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the AP Top 25. The Seminoles led the ACC and ranked in the top-15 nationally in both passing defense, yards per pass attempt allowed and total defense. FSU's average of 165.4 passing yards allowed per game ranked fourth in the country, its average of 6.2 yards per pass attempt allowed was 12th nationally, and its 321.8 total yards allowed per game was 15th in the country. The Seminoles also ranked 12th nationally with an average of 3.08 sacks per game, 14th with an average of 4.85 yards per play allowed, 20th in scoring defense holding opponents to an average of 20.6 points per game and 22nd in passing efficiency defense with opposing quarterbacks having a 120.63 rating.

Fuller's defense showed improvement across the board as the 2022 defense allowed nearly a touchdown fewer points per game, dropped its passing defense average by 67.8 yards per game, allowed 56 fewer total yards per game, improved third-down defense by 5.4 percent and recorded an increase of 0.33 sacks per game from 2021. In a remarkable stretch toward the end of the season, FSU held four straight opponents out of the end zone in the first half, went 32 straight drives without allowing a touchdown and became the first FBS team to hold consecutive opponents to 65 or fewer passing yards. In a 45-3 win at Miami, the Hurricanes gained only 62 yards through the air and the next week Syracuse was held to 65 passing yards in a 38-3 FSU victory as Florida State accounted for the two lowest passing totals for an ACC team in 2022.

The defense featured All-Americans Jammie Robinson and Jared Verse, as well as ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year Patrick Payton. Robinson and Verse were first-team All-ACC performers, with Verse earning the most votes among defensive players after leading the conference in sacks per game and ranking second in the ACC and 10th nationally in tackles for loss per game. Robinson once again led FSU in tackles and became the first Seminole defender to earn first-team All-ACC honors in back-to-back seasons since Jalen Ramsey in 2014-15.

In addition to Johnson's 2021 accolades, Fuller oversaw the development of Robinson, a first-team All-ACC selection, and third-team All-ACC defensive end Keir Thomas. Johnson authored one of the best seasons in recent memory as the defensive end ranked first in the ACC with 12.0 sacks and 18.0 tackles for loss, which were both the highest totals for an FSU defender since 2016, and led all defensive linemen nationally with 70 tackles. Johnson and Thomas, who recorded 12.0 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks with 15 quarterback hurries, were the only teammates in the ACC, and one of only three pairs in the country, to average at least 1.3 tackles for loss per game in conference play.

Robinson, who ranked first in the ACC and 14th nationally in interceptions, led a group on defense that featured eight different defenders who grabbed at least one interception and forced 20 total takeaways. FSU made at least one interception in eight straight games to end the season, the longest active streak in America at the end of the 2021 season and tied for the longest streak in the country at any point during the 2021 season.

The 2021 defense ranked second in the ACC and seventh nationally in red zone defense, allowing a score on 70.6 percent of drives that reached the red zone. The Seminoles' average of 7.2 tackles for loss per game ranked 12th in the nation, and the defense had four games with at least 9.0 tackles for loss, the program's highest total since 2017. FSU also ranked in the top-five in the ACC in sacks per game, total takeaways, pass efficiency defense, total interceptions and fewest first downs allowed.

The 2020 season was his second coordinating defense for head coach Mike Norvell. Fuller's defense had nine first-time starters at FSU and 12 who made their Florida State debut. Linebacker Stephen Dix Jr. earned Freshman All-America honors while cornerback Asante Samuel Jr. was named first-team All-ACC before becoming a second-round NFL Draft pick by the Los Angeles Chargers and defensive tackle Marvin Wilson was a second-team all-conference selection.

Samuel continued his development into one of the top defensive backs in the nation as he finished the season leading all active ACC defenders with 29 career pass breakups. He became only the second FBS defender to grab three interceptions and have two fumble recoveries in his team's first four games of a season in records dating back to 2000. Samuel also became the first FSU defender since 2016 with at least one takeaway in four straight games and only the third Seminole since 2000 with three interceptions and two fumble recoveries in a season.

Florida State's defense held opponents to 46.2 percent on fourth-down attempts, which ranked as the fifth-best rate in the ACC and 31st nationally. The Seminoles posted three of their four lowest total yards allowed games over the final three weeks of the season and recorded 19.0 tackles for loss, four interceptions and six quarterback hurries in that span.

Fuller spent the 2019 season as Norvell's defensive coordinator at Memphis, helping lead the Tigers to a program-record 12 wins, including the school's first outright conference championship since 1969, and a berth in the New Year's Six Cotton Bowl. His defense, which featured five all-conference performers, ranked 20th in FBS with a team passing efficiency defense rating of 115.36 and ranked 25th in the nation with an average of 7.0 tackles for loss per game. The Tigers forced 18 takeaways and returned two for touchdowns as Memphis became one of only six teams in the country with multiple defensive touchdowns each season from 2016-19.

In the regular season finale that clinched a third straight berth in the American Athletic Conference Championship Game, Memphis recorded 15 tackles for loss, the fifth-highest single-game total in the nation in 2019 and one shy of the program record. One week earlier the Tigers held USF to five first downs and forced five straight three-and-outs to close out a 49-10 victory.

Fuller arrived in Memphis following six years on the defensive staff at Marshall, including serving as defensive coordinator in 2018. That year, the Thundering Herd ranked seventh in FBS with an average of 3.23 sacks per game and eighth in rushing defense, allowing 104.2 yards per game. Fuller coordinated one of only three defenses in the country that did not allow a 100-yard rusher that season. The defense allowed a third-down conversion rate of only .317, 13th-lowest in the nation, and also ranked 12th with 12 fumble recoveries, 17th with three defensive touchdowns and 20th with 24 total takeaways.

From 2013-17, Fuller served as Marshall's assistant head coach and linebackers coach along with overseeing special teams. In his first season with the Thundering Herd, the defense allowed 22.9 points per game one season after giving up 43.1 points per game, a turnaround that helped win the division crown and the Military Bowl.

In 2014, the improvement continued as Marshall finished 13-1 with a victory in the Boca Raton Bowl and was ranked No. 22 in the final AP poll. All three of Fuller's specialists earned first-team all-conference honors, and linebacker Neville Hewitt was the conference's Defensive Player of the Year. Fuller made it two straight Defensive Player of the Year honors courtesy of linebacker Evan McKelvey, and the Thundering Herd finished the 2015 season 10-3 after a victory in the St. Petersburg Bowl. In 2017, Marshall ranked 17th in the country with a scoring defense average of 19.9 points per game and ranked 10th in red zone defense, allowing points on only 73.2 percent of opponents' drives into the red zone. The Thundering Herd also had the conference's top rushing defense, ranking 19th in the nation with an average of 121.2 yards allowed per game.

Prior to his time at Marshall, Fuller was the defensive coordinator at Chattanooga from 2009-12. In his first season, his defense was the most improved in FCS. The Mocs allowed 25.7 points per game and 307.7 yards of total offense one season after giving up 37.9 points and 442.5 yards per game. The defensive strides helped Chattanooga go from one win in 2008 to six victories in 2009.

Fuller spent the 2008 season as the head coach at Assumption College, a Division II program in Worcester, Massachusetts. He was hired to the head chair after three seasons at Richmond, where he helped the Spiders win two conference championships and advance to the national semifinal round of the FCS playoffs in 2007 and the quarterfinals in 2005. He helped develop three NFL Draft picks at Richmond.

From 1999-2004 Fuller coached at Wagner, starting as linebackers coach for two seasons before taking over the defensive backs and adding special teams coordinator duties. His final season he was the co-defensive coordinator. His first coaching job was overseeing linebackers at Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

Fuller was a four-year letterwinner at Sacred Heart University, where he earned All-America honors from his linebacker position in 1996 and served as a team captain in 1997. He earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice with a minor in sociology from Sacred Heart in 1998 and a master's degree in secondary education from Wagner in 2001.

Fuller and his wife, Hope, have two sons, Jack and Aidan.

JOHN PAPUCHIS

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE ENDS

4th Season at FSU | 23rd Season as collegiate coach
Hometown: Gaithersburg, Md. | Alma Mater: Virginia Tech, 2001; Kansas, 2003
Family: wife, Billie; daughters, Addyson, Sophia and Rylee; sons, John and Jack

John Papuchis was named Florida State's special teams coordinator and defensive ends coach on Dec. 24, 2019, and is in his fourth season with the program in 2023.

Papuchis' players have earned 47 all-conference recognitions, four conference Player of the Year awards and one Rookie of the Year. He has coached 15 NFL Draft picks and four All-Americans, including the first defensive player to earn Associated Press Player of the Year honors. Papuchis won the 2007 national championship as part of the staff at LSU and has coached in six conference title games.

Papuchis continued his development of one of the most productive defensive ends groups in the country in 2022, helping lead Florida State to a 10-3 record and a final ranking of No. 10 in the Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the AP Top 25. The Seminoles led the ACC and ranked in the top-15 nationally in passing defense, yards per pass attempt allowed and total defense. FSU's average of 165.4 passing yards allowed per game ranked fourth in the country, its average of 6.2 yards per pass attempt allowed was 12th nationally, and its 321.8 total yards allowed per game was 15th in the country. The Seminoles also ranked 12th nationally with an average of 3.08 sacks per game, 14th with an average of 4.85 yards per play allowed, 20th in scoring defense holding opponents to an average of 20.6 points per game and 22nd in passing efficiency defense with opposing quarterbacks having a 120.63 rating.

Entering 2022, Papuchis had to replace two NFL defensive ends and he guided a first-team All-American in Jared Verse and the ACC's Defensive Rookie of the Year in Patrick Payton. The 2022 defensive ends were responsible for an increase of 0.33 sacks per game from the 2021 season, led by Verse's ACC-best average of 0.75 sacks per game. Verse, who as a first-team All-ACC selection garnered the most votes among defensive players, also ranked 10th nationally with an average of 1.4 tackles for loss per game and blocked a field goal in FSU's 24-23 win vs. LSU. Payton led all ACC freshmen with 5.0 sacks while becoming Florida State's third ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and first since 2012. Junior Derrick McLendon II became a starter and posted career-high season totals in tackles, tackles for loss and sacks.

In 2021, Papuchis guided the development of first-team All-American and ACC Defensive Player of the Year Jermaine Johnson II as well as third-team all-conference defensive end Keir Thomas. Johnson authored one of the best seasons in recent memory as the defensive end ranked first in the ACC with 12.0 sacks and 18.0 tackles for loss, which were both the highest totals for an FSU defender since 2016, and led all defensive linemen nationally with 70 tackles.

Johnson was picked 26th overall in the first round of the NFL Draft by the New York Jets following his impressive senior season, marking the 11th straight year at least one player coached by Papuchis was selected.

Johnson and Thomas, who recorded 12.0 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks with 15 quarterback hurries, were the only teammates in the ACC, and one of only three pairs in the country, to average at least 1.3 tackles for loss per game in conference play.

Florida State's special teams featured redshirt freshman punter Alex Mastromanno and redshirt freshman kicker Ryan Fitzgerald continuing their ascent as primary contributors for the Seminoles. Mastromanno averaged 42.7 yards per punt, the sixth-highest average in the ACC, and landed 18 punts inside the 20-yard line with none of his 61 punts resulting in a touchback. Fitzgerald scored 67 points in his first season as FSU's primary kicker, including a career-high 11 points in the 31-28 victory vs. Miami and the 59-3 win vs. UMass.

Papuchis made an immediate impact on special teams his first season on staff, vaulting FSU back into the realm of the nation's elite in 2020. The Seminoles tied for second in the NCAA with five blocked kicks, including two blocked field goals, two blocked punts and one blocked PAT. FSU was one of only two teams in the country to block multiple field goals and multiple punts in 2020. Additionally, the Seminoles ranked 16th in the nation with a net punting average of 41.34 yards per punt.

Florida State tied multiple single-game school records in 2020. The Seminoles had a school-record-tying three blocked kicks, including tying the single-game record of two blocked field goals, in the season opener against Georgia Tech. In FSU's 31-28 victory over No. 5 North Carolina, the Seminoles tied a single-game school record with two blocked punts, both of which came in the first quarter. Florida State's punt coverage unit registered three takeaways in 2020 by recovering fumbles on punt returns.

His defensive ends made an impact in 2020 as well, led by Janarius Robinson and Joshua Kaindoh. Kaindoh gave FSU a 24-0 lead in the win over UNC with a 25-yard interception return for a touchdown, which was the first pick-six by a Seminole defensive lineman since 2009, and Robinson had 3.0 tackles for loss with a career-high 2.0 sacks against the Tar Heels. The 2021 NFL Draft featured both Robinson and Kaindoh being taken in the fourth round.

Papuchis came to Tallahassee after coordinating Maryland's special teams and coaching inside linebackers in 2019. He has been a defensive coordinator at North Carolina and Nebraska and also served as special teams coordinator at Nebraska.

In 2019, Maryland had a special teams efficiency rating of 67.4 to rank 11th in ESPN's efficiency rankings. The Terrapins were one of only four Power 5 teams with at least one kickoff return touchdown and punt return touchdown. Maryland led the Big Ten and ranked 11th in the country with an average of 13.67 yards per punt return, and the Terrapins allowed only 4.00 yards per punt return to rank 17th nationally. Maryland's kickoff return average of 22.73 yards per return was fourth in the Big Ten.

Javon Leake was the 2019 Rodgers-Dwight Big Ten Return Specialist of the Year and a first-team All-Big Ten return specialist. He led the conference and ranked third in the nation with 804 kickoff return yards, while his school-record-tying two kickoff return touchdowns were the most in the Big Ten and fifth nationally and his Big Ten-leading average of 26.8 yards per kickoff return was 13th in the country.

Papuchis spent the 2015-18 seasons at North Carolina, serving as linebackers coach his first two seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator for 2017 and 2018. He made an immediate impact in 2015 as the Tar Heels posted the most improved Power 5 defense in the country. North Carolina allowed 14.5 fewer points per game than the season before and also had the highest jump in pass efficiency defense and yards allowed per pass attempt. The Tar Heels led the ACC in interceptions, total takeaways, turnover margin and passes defended while tying the single-season school record with 11 victories, breaking the program record with an 8-0 ACC mark, advancing to the ACC Championship Game for the first time and ranking 15th in the final national polls.

The 2016 UNC defense led the ACC in passing touchdowns allowed and passing yards allowed per game, while allowing the fewest touchdowns by receivers in the country. The Tar Heels held their opponents to only 11 passing touchdowns, tied for fourth-best in the nation, and ranked 12th in FBS with an average of 180.8 passing yards allowed per game.

In his first season as defensive coordinator, Papuchis helped direct M.J. Stewart, a second-team All-ACC performer and second-round pick by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and Jacksonville native Andre Smith who was taken in the seventh round by the Carolina Panthers. Stewart ended his career with a school-record 41 pass breakups.

Papuchis spent seven seasons at Nebraska and was the Huskers' defensive coordinator for the last three. He was the youngest solo defensive coordinator in the country when he was promoted to the post in 2012. In his three seasons coordinating the defense, Nebraska held 11 opponents to 14 or fewer points. In 2014, his defense ranked second in the country by allowing a completion percentage of just 48.5 while also ranking fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense at 104.83 and fifth in third-down percentage at 30.1.

His first four seasons in Lincoln were spent coordinating special teams and coaching the defensive line. He was one of four finalists for the 2010 Football Scoop Special Teams Coordinator of the Year. On defense, he coached back-to-back Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year winners in Ndamukong Suh and Prince Amukamara. In 2009, Suh won the Outland Trophy, Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Lombardi Award and Bednarik Award while also being a Heisman finalist. Suh, the first defensive player to earn AP Player of the Year honors, was picked second overall in the 2010 NFL Draft. Papuchis also helped Amukamara become a unanimous All-American and the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in 2010 before being drafted 19th overall by the New York Giants.

From 2004-07 Papuchis was on staff at LSU assisting in every aspect of the defensive gameplan and scouting reports. He helped the Tigers rank among the nation's top defenses, placing in the top three in total defense each season from 2005 through 2007.

The 2007 team won the SEC and national championships, defeating Ohio State 38-24 in the BCS National Championship Game. The 2006 Tigers allowed only 242.8 yards per game, the lowest average at LSU since 1976, and led the SEC in six defensive categories while ranking in the top-five nationally in points allowed, total defense, pass defense and pass efficiency defense. LSU had the nation's third-best total defense, third-best scoring defense and sixth-best rushing defense in 2005.

Papuchis also coached the punters at LSU. In 2007, Patrick Fisher led the SEC with an average of 44.5 yards per punt and was a first-team All-SEC selection. Papuchis' first year on Nick Saban's staff was 2004, and he helped the Tigers reach the Capital One Bowl.

Papuchis began his career as a graduate assistant at Kansas from 2001-03. In 2001, he worked with the secondary and assisted coaching the linebackers. In 2003, Kansas earned a berth in the Tangerine Bowl.

Papuchis graduated from Virginia Tech in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in business management and earned his master's degree in sports administration from Kansas in 2003.

Papuchis and his wife, Billie, have three daughters, Addyson, Sophia and Rylee, and two sons, John and Jack.

RANDY SHANNON
CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

3rd Season at FSU | 29th Season as collegiate coach
Hometown: Miami, Florida | Alma Mater: Miami, 1989

Three-time national champion Randy Shannon is in his third season at FSU and second as co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2023.

Shannon, who was a senior defensive analyst on FSU's staff for the 2021 season, has 31 years of coaching experience and has directly coached nine first-team All-Americans, 79 all-conference performers and 74 NFL Draft picks, including 21 first-round selections. He was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at UCF from 2018-20 and also has served as head coach at the University of Miami and defensive coordinator at Miami and Florida, as well as linebackers coach at Arkansas, TCU and the Miami Dolphins.

Shannon directed an FSU linebacker unit that was a crucial piece to Florida State's 10-3 record and final ranking of No. 10 in the Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the AP Top 25. The Seminoles led the ACC and ranked in the top-15 nationally in passing defense, yards per pass attempt allowed and total defense. FSU's average of 165.4 passing yards allowed per game ranked fourth in the country, its average of 6.2 yards per pass attempt allowed was 12th nationally, and its 321.8 total yards allowed per game was 15th in the country. The Seminoles also ranked 12th nationally with an average of 3.08 sacks per game, 14th with an average of 4.85 yards per play allowed, 20th in scoring defense holding opponents to an average of 20.6 points per game and 22nd in passing efficiency defense with opposing quarterbacks having a 120.63 rating.

The linebackers were led by all-conference performer Tatum Bethune and Kalen DeLoach. Bethune ranked second on the team with 84 tackles and added 9.5 tackles for loss, while DeLoach was third on FSU's defense with his 65 tackles and had 7.5 tackles for loss. Bethune made a season-high 14 tackles, including 2.5 for loss, at No. 14 NC State and was one of two defenders in the ACC to hit both those totals in the same game in 2022. DeLoach, who made a season-best eight tackles in the Cheez-It Bowl victory vs. Oklahoma and had three other seven-tackle games, also led the team with seven pass breakups in 2022.

Sophomore DJ Lundy made 48 tackles with 5.0 for loss and also showcased his versatility by scoring two rushing touchdowns and one receiving touchdown. He scored vs. LSU, vs. No. 4 Clemson and at Miami to become only the sixth player nationally since 2000 to record at least 40 tackles, one rushing touchdown and one receiving touchdown in the same season. Lundy was the only one of those six to also record a sack, and in 2022 he produced 40 more tackles than any other player with a rushing and receiving touchdown.

In his three years coordinating the UCF defense, Shannon developed 15 all-conference honorees while helping the Knights to a 28-8 overall record, including the 2018 AAC championship and a berth in the 2019 Fiesta Bowl. Safety Richie Grant was a three-time All-AAC selection and 2020 Jim Thorpe Award finalist. Grant, a second-round selection by the Atlanta Falcons in the 2021 NFL Draft, was one of four NFL Draft picks coached by Shannon in Orlando, joining 2019 second-round pick Trysten Hill, 2021 third-round selection Aaron Robinson and 2021 sixth-round pick Tay Gowan.

The 2018 UCF defense ranked fifth in the nation with an average of 8.2 tackles for loss per game and was sixth nationally with 28 takeaways. In 2019, the Knights led the country with 9.0 tackles for loss per game and also ranked third in passing efficiency defense and fifth in third-down defense. In 2020, their 13 fumble recoveries were tops nationally while their 22 total takeaways ranked sixth.

Shannon went to UCF following three seasons at Florida, where he helped the Gators win 33 games and two SEC Eastern Division titles. In 2016, he coached a defense that ranked second in the country in pass defense and fifth nationally in total defense. Linebacker Jarrad Davis was a finalist for the Butkus Award and the Lott IMPACT Trophy before being picked 21st overall in the first round of the 2017 NFL Draft. The 2015 defense ranked fourth in the SEC in yards-per-carry defense and fifth in rushing defense while producing three players with more than 95 tackles, the first time UF had three 95-tackle performers since 2002.

The 2017 team ranked third in the SEC in third-down defense, fourth in red zone defense and second in interceptions, led by CJ Henderson's four that were the most among SEC true freshmen, while ranking sixth in the nation in interception return touchdowns with Henderson being one of only two true freshmen in the country to record two pick-sixes that season.

In the only three seasons he has coached outside the state of Florida, Shannon coached linebackers at TCU in 2012 before coaching linebackers at Arkansas for the 2013 and 2014 seasons. The 2014 Arkansas defense featured first-team All-SEC linebacker and 2015 fifth-round NFL Draft selection Martrell Spaight, who led the SEC with 123 tackles while helping the Razorbacks rank second in the SEC and 12th nationally in rushing defense. In 2012, he mentored All-Big 12 linebacker Kenny Cain on a defense that led the Big 12 in total defense, rushing defense and takeaways.

Shannon spent 20 years coaching in Miami, beginning his career as a graduate assistant at the University of Miami for the 1991 national champions before coaching the defensive line in 1992 and linebackers from 1993-97. After three seasons on staff with the Miami Dolphins, Shannon returned to the University of Miami as defensive coordinator for six seasons and head coach for four.

As head coach, he led the Hurricanes to 28 wins and three bowl appearances while also ranking in the top 10 nationally in Academic Progress Rate each season. His 2009 team won nine games and had nine all-conference performers after the 2008 team produced the ACC's Defensive Rookie of the Year and four Freshman All-Americans. He guided the Hurricanes to appearances in the Sun Bowl, Champs Sports Bowl and Emerald Bowl in his final three seasons as head coach.

In five of his six seasons as defensive coordinator, Miami ranked in the top-10 nationally in total defense, including the 2001 national championship team that led the NCAA in scoring defense, turnover margin and passing efficiency defense. The 2001 squad allowed only 12 touchdowns while scoring seven defensive touchdowns. His defenses produced 25 players drafted from 2002-07, including 12 first-round picks. In 2005, his defense led the country in pass defense and pass efficiency defense while also ranking fourth nationally in total defense and scoring defense. Shannon also coordinated the nation's best passing defense in 2002 and 2003, with the 2003 defense ranking second nationally in total defense and fourth in scoring defense.

The 2001 Broyles Award winner as the best assistant coach in the country, Shannon was a four-year letterman at linebacker for the University of Miami and a starter on the 1987 national championship team. He was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in 1989 and became the first rookie to start at outside linebacker for Dallas since 1963. Shannon earned his bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Miami in 1989.

CHRIS THOMSEN
DEPUTY HEAD COACH/TIGHT ENDS

4th Season at FSU | 27th Season as collegiate coach
Hometown: Vernon, Texas | Alma Mater: TCU, 1993; Abilene Christian, 2000
Family: wife, LeAnn

Chris Thomsen was named Florida State's deputy head coach and tight ends coach on Dec. 19, 2019. He enters his fourth season in Tallahassee in 2023.

Thomsen has coached 116 different all-conference players who have combined for 184 all-conference recognitions as well as 25 individual All-Americans who have earned 38 All-American certificates, including 13 first-team selections.

During his first three seasons, Thomsen has elevated the tight end position into a play-making group contributing valuable receptions and powerful blocking. In 2022, his group helped lead FSU to a 10-3 record and a final ranking of No. 10 in the Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the AP Top 25. Florida State led the nation with its average of 7.46 plays of 20-plus yards per game, the program's highest season average since the 2013 national championship, and was third in the country with an explosive play rate of 17.15 percent. The Seminoles were one of two teams nationally to average at least 270 passing yards and at least 210 rushing yards per game in 2022. FSU also tied for the national lead with eight touchdown drives of 90-plus yards, and its 16 touchdown drives of 80-plus yards were third-most in the country.

The Seminoles led the ACC in third-down offense, yards gained per pass, yards gained per play, yards gained per rush, total offense per game, yards per completion, rushing offense per game and scoring offense per game. Florida State was the first team to lead the ACC in scoring offense and total offense in the same season since 2019 and was one of two teams nationally to lead its conference in yards per rush, yards per pass and yards per play in 2022. Three different tight ends caught a touchdown pass in 2022, including two scoring their first collegiate touchdown, and two tight ends made receptions for two-point conversions. The group combined for 39 catches for 529 yards and four touchdowns.

In 2021, Camren McDonald was named to the 2021 Allstate Good Works Team and to the Mackey Award Watch List. He caught 24 passes for 243 yards and two touchdowns and provided the highest production for an FSU tight end since 2018 NFL Draft pick Ryan Izzo. Redshirt senior Jordan Wilson returned from an injury to make 11 receptions for 132 yards. The tight ends also blocked for a running game that featured six 200-yard rushing games and seven individual 100-yard performances in 2021.

In his first year at Florida State, Thomsen developed a versatile tight end group led by McDonald, who started all nine games and made 23 catches for 263 yards and two touchdowns. McDonald's first career score came at No. 12 Miami and his second proved to be the winning points in FSU's 31-28 victory over No. 5 North Carolina. Additionally, freshman walk-on Preston Daniel had a 36-yard catch in the win over the Tar Heels and sophomore Wyatt Rector scored a rushing touchdown against Pitt after the former quarterback took a snap under center and scored from the one-yard line.

The tight end group also helped blocked for a vastly improved rushing attack in 2020. The Seminoles averaged 199.9 rushing yards per game, the program's highest since 2016 and 20th nationally among teams that played at least nine games in 2020, and 5.11 yards per rush, 16th in the nation among teams with at least 350 carries and FSU's most in a season since 2015. Florida State topped 400 yards of total offense in five of the last seven games, including more than 500 yards of total offense twice, and produced FSU's first game with at least 250 yards rushing and passing since 2016.

Thomsen came to Tallahassee following three years coaching the offensive line at TCU, his alma mater. He was the head coach at Abilene Christian from 2005-11 and also brought experience as an assistant at Arizona State, Texas Tech and Central Arkansas.

During his three years at TCU, Thomsen directed one of the top offensive lines in the country and coached five all-conference performers. The Horned Frogs led the Big 12 in fewest sacks allowed in each of his first two seasons, averaging 1.23 sacks allowed per game in 2018 and 1.29 in 2017 to rank 14th and 19th, respectively, in the country. The 2019 line paved the way for the Horned Frogs to average 204.0 rushing yards per game.

Thomsen made an immediate impact in the 2017 season as the Horned Frogs played in the Big 12 Championship Game and won 11 games behind an offensive line that placed all four seniors into the NFL. Joseph Noteboom was drafted in the third round by the Los Angeles Rams, while Matt Pryor was a sixth-round pick by the Philadelphia Eagles. Additionally, Patrick Morris and Austin Schlottmann signed free-agent contracts and both made the Denver Broncos active roster.

Thomsen mentored Lucas Niang, a 2020 third-round pick by the Kansas City Chiefs, to All-Big 12 honors in 2018 after the junior started all 13 games and did not allow a sack the entire season. Niang was a preseason All-Big 12 selection and had started 27 career games at right tackle before undergoing season-ending surgery in October of 2019.

The 2019 season featured an offensive line blocking for the sixth-best red zone offense in the country, led by senior guard Cordel Iwuagwu returning from an injury that cost him most of 2018 to earn All-Big 12 accolades. Iwuagwu and linemate Anthony McKinney were signed by the Houston Texans and Tennessee Titans, respectively.

Thomsen was the assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Arizona State from 2013-16, spending the first three years with Sun Devils' offensive coordinator Mike Norvell and helping lead ASU to the 2013 Pac-12 Championship Game. Their 2014 offense gained 5,750 yards, 3,556 of those through the air, and ranked 13th in the nation with 34 touchdown passes. The 2013 team's average of 39.7 points per game ranked 10th nationally.

Thomsen coached five different Sun Devil linemen to All-Pac 12 recognition. Three of his linemen were drafted as Jamil Douglas was a fourth-round pick by the Miami Dolphins in 2015, Christian Westerman went to the Cincinnati Bengals in the fifth round of the 2016 NFL Draft and Sam Jones was a sixth-round selection by the Denver Broncos in 2018. Additionally, Quinn Bailey was a rookie with the Broncos in 2019 and Cohl Cabral was a 2020 signee by the Los Angeles Rams.

Prior to his time in Tempe, Thomsen spent the 2012 campaign as the offensive line coach at Texas Tech. That year, Texas Tech led the Big 12 and ranked second nationally in passing with an average of 355.9 yards per game. He was named interim head coach for the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas and led the Red Raiders to a 34-31 win over Minnesota. He coached Indianapolis Colts third-round pick Le'Raven Clark and free-agent signee LaAdrian Waddle who started as a rookie in 2013 for the Detroit Lions and played seven seasons in the NFL.

During Thomsen's time as the head coach at Abilene Christian, he led the Wildcats to a 51-21 record and six straight trips to the Division II playoffs with the 2008 team advancing to the quarterfinal round. He was a four-time Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year, receiving the honor in 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2010. ACU won Lone Star Conference championships in 2008 and 2010, winning 11 games both seasons. Prior to his arrival, the Wildcats had never played in the Division II playoffs and had not won a conference championship since 1977.

In the second round of the 2008 playoffs, Thomsen led ACU to a win in the highest-scoring game in NCAA history. His team defeated West Texas A&M 93-68 as the teams combined to break 45 Division II records. That year, the Wildcats led the NCAA with 558.8 yards per game and 52.3 points per game. In 2007, Abilene Christian ranked first in Division II with an average of 49.2 points per game and second with 544.8 yards per game.

Thomsen had five draft picks at Abilene Christian. Danieal Manning was picked in the second round of the 2006 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears, the first non-Division I player taken in 2006 and the highest ACU pick since 1977. Johnny Knox was a fifth-round selection by Chicago in 2009 and Bernard Scott, who earned the Harlon Hill Trophy as Division II's MVP in 2008, was taken in 2009's sixth round by the Cincinnati Bengals. Clyde Gates was a fourth-round pick by the Miami Dolphins in 2011, and Daryl Richardson was taken in the seventh round by the St. Louis Rams in 2012. He also helped develop wide receiver Taylor Gabriel, who had more than 2,000 career receiving yards in six NFL seasons, and running back Charcandrick West, who played five seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Before becoming the head coach at Abilene Christian, Thomsen served as Central Arkansas' offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator in 2003 and 2004. He began his coaching career in 1994 as a graduate assistant at Abilene Christian, before spending two seasons as the offensive line coach and one as the defensive line coach. He was named the Wildcats' offensive coordinator in 1998. After spending one season away from football, he got back into coaching as the offensive coordinator at Wichita Falls High School in 2001 and 2002.

Thomsen played football and baseball at TCU, lettering for the Horned Frogs on the gridiron from 1988-90 and on the diamond in 1991. During his lone season with the baseball team, he earned All-Southwest Conference, All-America and TCU Male Athlete of the Year honors after nearly hitting for the triple crown. He led the SWC with 21 home runs and 70 RBI, while his .373 batting average was second in the conference. Thomsen was selected in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball Draft by the Oakland Athletics and played two seasons in Oakland's minor league system.

After retiring from baseball, he returned to play one season on the football team at Abilene Christian. He was a second-team All-American and first-team All-Lone Star Conference tight end for the Wildcats in 1993.

Thomsen earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from TCU in 1993 and completed a master's degree in secondary education from Abilene Christian in 2000.

ODELL HAGGINS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE TACKLES

30th Season at FSU | 30th Season as collegiate coach
Hometown: Bartow, Fla. | Alma Mater: Florida State, 1993
Family: wife, Robin; daughter, Amelia Grace

Odell Haggins enters his 30th season on Florida State's coaching staff in 2023, serving as associate head coach and tutoring the Seminoles' defensive tackles.

Haggins, the longest-tenured active assistant coach at one institution in the country and the longest-tenured assistant coach in FSU history, has helped FSU post a 264-102-1 (.721) record with 13 ACC titles and two national championships in his time on staff. In recognition of his many accomplishments at Florida State, he was inducted in the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame class of 2018 and the Polk County Sports Hall of Fame in 2022.

Haggins has twice served as interim head coach for the Seminoles and has a career record of 4-2. He has led Florida State to bowl eligibility in both tenures as an interim head coach, taking over for the first time on Dec. 1, 2017, and defeating ULM 42-10 the next day as FSU clinched bowl eligibility for an NCAA-record 36th straight year. He then directed a 42-13 win over Southern Miss in the Independence Bowl to finish FSU's 41st consecutive winning season. He was named interim head coach again on Nov. 3, 2019, and led the Seminoles to wins over Boston College and Alabama State to return FSU to bowl eligibility.

Haggins has repeatedly developed future NFL pros while at Florida State. He has coached 20 defensive linemen that have been selected in the NFL Draft, including first-round selections Brodrick Bunkley in 2006, Travis Johnson in 2005, Corey Simon in 2000 and Andre Wadsworth in 1998. Wadsworth was the No. 3 overall pick and remained the highest-drafted player in FSU history until 2015 when Jameis Winston was selected No. 1 overall. Haggins also coached second-round picks Eddie Goldman and Timmy Jernigan in addition to Pro Bowler Darnell Dockett as well as Larry Smith, Andre Fluellen, Jerry Johnson, Julian Pittman and Letroy Guion.

Haggins has established himself as an outstanding recruiter, developer of talent and a role model to his players. He earned ACC Top Recruiter of the Year honors from ESPN in 2012. In 2014, Haggins was named one of the top 25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com for the fourth consecutive year. He captured the same top-25 mention from 247Sports in 2016.

In 2022, Florida State posted a 10-3 record and final ranking of No. 10 in the Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the AP Top 25. The Seminoles led the ACC and ranked in the top-15 nationally in passing defense, yards per pass attempt allowed and total defense. FSU's average of 165.4 passing yards allowed per game ranked fourth in the country, its average of 6.2 yards per pass attempt allowed was 12th nationally, and its 321.8 total yards allowed per game was 15th in the country. The Seminoles also ranked 12th nationally with an average of 3.08 sacks per game, 14th with an average of 4.85 yards per play allowed, 20th in scoring defense holding opponents to an average of 20.6 points per game and 22nd in passing efficiency defense with opposing quarterbacks having a 120.63 rating.

Robert Cooper and Fabien Lovett earned All-ACC acclaim for the second straight season in 2022 after each started every game they played. The pair combined for 29 tackles, 1.0 sack and one forced fumble while anchoring one of the nation's toughest defenses. His 2021 group was headlined by Cooper and Lovett, who combined for 67 tackles, including 9.0 for loss with 2.5 sacks, and also included redshirt freshman Malcolm Ray's 24 tackles, including 5.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks. The interior defensive line contributed to a defense that ranked seventh nationally in red zone defense, 12th in the nation in tackles for loss per game and was top-five in the ACC in sacks per game, total takeaways, pass efficiency defense, total interceptions and fewest first downs allowed.

In 2020, Haggins' group combined for 68 tackles, including 7.0 for loss with 3.5 sacks, and two forced fumbles. He helped guide Marvin Wilson to second-team All-ACC recognition and an opportunity to participate in the Senior Bowl. In 2019, Wilson was a team captain, PFF All-American, first-team All-ACC defensive tackle and Bednarik Award semifinalist. Wilson was so dominant he earned first-team all-conference accolades despite only playing the first nine games of the season before a season-ending injury.

The 2018 season added two more all-conference linemen to his resume as senior Demarcus Christmas and Wilson both earned All-ACC recognition. Wilson's 42 tackles included 3.5 sacks, the second-highest total on the team, while Christmas recorded 28 tackles with 3.0 for loss and two pass breakups before being drafted by the Seattle Seahawks. The duo helped plug the inside of FSU's defense as the Seminoles ranked second in the ACC and 20th in the NCAA holding opponents to only 3.52 yards per rush and only 16 rushing touchdowns, the fourth-lowest total in the conference.

The 2017 version of FSU's defensive line was a dominant force in the middle as senior Derrick Nnadi, who was selected in the third round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs, and Christmas teamed up to wreak havoc in opponents' backfields. Nnadi was a third-team All-ACC selection after setting career-high marks with 53 tackles and 10.0 tackles for loss, while Christmas also posted career highs of 36 tackles and 4.5 tackles for loss. In 2016, the Seminoles ranked first in the nation in sacks per game and were fifth in the ACC in rushing defense while Nnadi garnered first-team all-conference recognition.

Haggins' defensive line anchored one of the nation's best defenses in 2015. The Seminoles ranked ninth in the country in scoring defense and allowed only 10 rushing touchdowns, fifth-fewest in the country, while improving from 17 sacks in 2014 to 32 in 2015. Two defensive linemen captured all-conference honors as Nile Lawrence-Stample was a first-team selection and Nnadi was on the third team. In 2014, Goldman captured third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press and was a first-team All-ACC selection. The Seminoles advanced to the first-ever College Football Playoff, set an ACC and FSU record with a 29-game winning streak and captured the program's third straight ACC championship that season.

A staunch interior defense played a prominent role in helping Florida State to its third national championship in the 2013 season. Jernigan enjoyed another fine season as he earned All-America nods from several organizations including the Football Writers Association of America, Associated Press and USA TODAY. The high-powered run-stuffer in the trenches led a defensive front that surrendered just seven rushing touchdowns, the fewest in the nation. Florida State's defensive tackles paved the way for the nation's top scoring defense and the third-best total defense. The work of the front four was noticeable on several fronts, including allowing only 124.8 yards per game to opposing rushers. Opponents averaged just 3.3 yards per rush against the stout defensive front of the Seminoles, and FSU continued its strong pass rush, racking up 35 sacks.

The 2012 season saw three Seminole defensive tackles earn All-ACC honors with senior Everett Dawkins and sophomore Jernigan capturing second-team recognition while senior Anthony McCloud picked up honorable-mention accolades. In part due to suffocating pressure up front, the Seminoles ranked second in the nation in total defense in 2012, yielding just 254.14 yards per contest. FSU allowed opposing running backs only 2.75 yards per carry, which tied for fourth in the country. Jernigan was productive in his first season under Haggins' tutelage, becoming a Freshman All-American in 2011 with 30 tackles, including 6.0 for loss. FSU's run defense allowed opposing backs to average just 2.35 yards per carry, which led all 120 FBS programs, and the Seminoles ranked fourth nationally in total defense.

Haggins helped produce one of the best defensive lines in the nation in 2010 as the Seminoles ranked third in FBS in quarterback sacks per game and tied for first nationally in total sacks with 48.

Haggins' 1999 defensive front was instrumental in FSU's 12-0 run to the national championship. The Seminoles boasted the nation's top-ranked defense in 1998 and the No. 1 rushing defense in 1996 and 1997. The 2008 defense ranked first nationally in tackles for loss.

Haggins has won at every level as a player and a coach. He was on the front end of Florida State's dynasty years, starring at nose guard for the Seminoles. FSU posted a 39-8-1 (.823) record with Haggins on the defensive line, and he was part of four bowl-winning teams. He earned Kodak, Walter Camp and UPI All-America honors as a senior in 1989.

A ninth-round pick in the 1990 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers, Haggins went on to play for the Buffalo Bills during their 1991 Super Bowl season. Following a three-year NFL career, he returned to Florida State, completed his degree and joined Bobby Bowden's staff following the Seminoles' 1993 national championship season.

RON DUGANS
WIDE RECEIVERS

5th Season at FSU | 19th Season as collegiate coach
Hometown: Tallahassee, Fla. | Alma Mater: Florida State, 1999
Family: wife, Yasheka; daughters Yasmin, Y'Allana and Yanni; son, Ron Jr.

In 2022, Dugans helped lead FSU to a 10-3 record and a final ranking of No. 10 in the Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the AP Top 25. Florida State led the nation with its average of 7.46 plays of 20-plus yards per game, the program's highest season average since the 2013 national championship, and was third in the country with an explosive play rate of 17.15 percent. The Seminoles were one of two teams nationally to average at least 270 passing yards and at least 210 rushing yards per game in 2022. FSU also tied for the national lead with eight touchdown drives of 90-plus yards, and its 16 touchdown drives of 80-plus yards were third-most in the country.

The Seminoles led the ACC in third-down offense, yards gained per pass, yards gained per play, yards gained per rush, total offense per game, yards per completion, rushing offense per game and scoring offense per game. Florida State was the first team to lead the ACC in scoring offense and total offense in the same season since 2019 and was one of two teams nationally to lead its conference in yards per rush, yards per pass and yards per play in 2022.

The 2022 receiving corps was led by second-team All-ACC performer Johnny Wilson, whose average of 20.86 yards per reception after totaling 897 yards on 43 catches ranked fifth nationally. Wilson made a career-high eight receptions for a career-high 202 receiving yards in FSU's Cheez-It Bowl victory vs. Oklahoma. His receiving yards output broke the Cheez-It Bowl record, was the most in a bowl game in program history and the highest single-game total by an FSU receiver since 2016 and was the only 200-yard receiving game during the 2022 bowl season. Wilson accounted for an ACC-high 22 catches of at least 20 yards and also had 100-yard receiving games in wins at Louisville and vs. Georgia Tech.

Mycah Pittman, Ontaria Wilson and Kentron Poitier also made strong contributions in 2022, combining for 76 receptions for 1,108 yards and 11 touchdowns. Wilson made two touchdown receptions in the 24-23 win vs. LSU, staying focused through pass interference on both, caught the game-winning score on the third play of Florida State's 45-3 victory at Miami, and added a scoring grab in the Cheez-It Bowl. Poitier also made four touchdown receptions and led the Seminoles in receiving yards twice. Pittman had two touchdown grabs vs. No. 22 Wake Forest as part of a career-high day and also was Florida State's leading punt returner in 2022, ranking 15th nationally with an average of 9.2 yards per return.

His 2021 group featured impact transfer Andrew Parchment as well as key returners Ontaria Wilson and Keyshawn Helton and true freshman Malik McClain. That quartet combined for 1,170 yards and 11 touchdowns on 82 receptions. Wilson's five touchdowns were the most on the team, and his average of 16.61 yards per reception ranked ninth in the ACC. Parchment, Helton and McClain each had multiple receiving touchdowns as well.

During the 2020 season, Dugans directed the development of a young position group without a senior on the roster. Ontaria Wilson showcased his explosiveness, leading the team with 30 receptions for 382 yards and grabbing FSU's two longest receptions of the year, including a career-long 69-yard touchdown catch at North Carolina State. Helton returned from a season-ending injury in 2019 to play all nine games in 2020.

In his first season back in Tallahassee, Dugans' group helped the Seminoles tie for 22nd in the nation in completion percentage, their highest ranking since 2014. Dugans had six receivers with at least 15 catches in 2019, including two who missed significant time due to injury. Junior D.J. Matthews made 36 grabs for 355 yards and three touchdowns, while Helton caught 17 passes for 239 yards and three touchdowns before a season-ending injury in the sixth game of the season and Ontaria Wilson, who missed the final five games of the regular season due to injury, had 21 catches for 227 yards and one touchdown.

Dugans returned to Florida State after three years as wide receivers coach at Miami. In his first two seasons there he also served as passing game coordinator before being promoted to co-offensive coordinator for the 2018 season. Prior to his time in Coral Gables, he coached wide receivers at South Florida in 2014 and 2015 following four years as Louisville's wide receivers coach. Dugans began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at FSU in 2005 and 2006, after which he was a coaching assistant with the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL and then served as wide receivers coach at Georgia Southern for three seasons.

In 2018, Dugans co-coordinated an offense that converted at least 45 percent of its third-down conversions in seven games after only reaching that benchmark twice the year before. In 2017, he helped direct the Hurricanes to a 10-win season that culminated with an appearance in the Capital One Orange Bowl. Braxton Berrios had career-high totals with 52 receptions, 634 yards and nine touchdowns while earning All-ACC recognition and the Jim Tatum Award as the ACC's top student-athlete in addition to being a finalist for the Campbell Trophy. In Dugans' first season at Miami, he guided Ahmmon Richards to Freshman All-America and All-ACC honors after breaking UM's freshman receiving record with 934 yards. Senior Stacy Coley also was named All-ACC after becoming only the eighth Hurricane to accumulate 2,000 career receiving yards behind a career-high 754 yards in 2016.

Dugans' receivers broke USF's single-season touchdown record in both of his seasons at South Florida. In 2014, Andre Davis set the Bulls' record with seven receiving scores despite missing four games due to injury. The following year, Dugans tutored Rodney Adams to a career-high 822 yards and a school-record nine receiving touchdowns as USF finished 8-5 and played in the Miami Beach Bowl.

Dugans helped lead a program revitalization in his four seasons at Louisville. The Cardinals were 23-3 over the 2012 and 2013 seasons, including 11-2 with a victory over Florida in the Sugar Bowl in 2012 and a 12-1 mark in 2013 that culminated with a win over Miami in the Russell Athletic Bowl. He guided wide receiver DeVante Parker, the 14th overall pick in the first round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins, to first-team All-AAC honors in 2013 as the junior caught 55 passes for 885 yards and 12 touchdowns. Parker, who was also a 2012 first-team All-BIG EAST selection after posting 10 touchdown receptions, caught 28 touchdowns in his first three seasons. Three Cardinal receivers caught 40 or more passes in 2013, including senior Damian Copeland who had a career-best 58 receptions for 780 yards for his second straight 50-catch season.

Prior to his time at Louisville, Dugans coached the receivers at Georgia Southern. Under Dugans' guidance, Raja Andrews broke numerous single-season school records in 2008, including 64 receptions, 873 yards and five 100-yard receiving games, while finishing the year ranked 15th nationally in receptions per game and 20th in receiving yards. Dugans started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at FSU, working in the strength and conditioning program in 2005 before working with the offense in 2006. He also served as a coaching assistant in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals in 2007.

Dugans was a wide receiver at FSU from 1995-99, playing his first two seasons before taking a medical redshirt in 1997. He returned to start in 1998 and 1999, helping the Seminoles reach the BCS National Championship Game in both seasons. He caught six passes for 135 yards in the 1999 Fiesta Bowl against Tennessee and grabbed five receptions for 99 yards and two touchdowns in the 2000 Sugar Bowl win over Virginia Tech that gave FSU its second national championship and completed the first wire-to-wire season as the Associated Press' No. 1-ranked team. In his career, he made 105 receptions for 1,520 yards and seven touchdowns. He was selected by Cincinnati in the third round of the 2000 NFL Draft and played professionally for four seasons, compiling 89 catches for 797 yards and three touchdowns in 46 games.

A Tallahassee native, Dugans was a three-sport standout at Florida A&M University Developmental Research School. He played football, rushing for 730 yards and 10 touchdowns while adding 75 tackles and seven interceptions on defense as a senior, in addition to winning two state championships in basketball and three team track and field state titles, including two individual triple jump state championships.

DAVID JOHNSON
RUNNING BACKS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

4th Season at FSU | 16th Season as collegiate coach
Hometown: New Orleans, La. | Alma Mater: Nicholls State, 1995
Family: wife, Akeia; children, Jermaine, De'Von and Karaaz

David Johnson was named Florida State's running backs coach and recruiting coordinator on Jan. 5, 2020, and is in his fourth season with the Seminoles in 2023.

He has coached 19 all-conference performers who have combined to earn 28 all-conference recognitions, including four Special Teams Player of the Year honors. Johnson has produced an NFL Draft pick in each of the last six years.

In 2022, Johnson's running backs contributed to one of the most explosive offenses in the nation while helping lead FSU to a 10-3 record and a final ranking of No. 10 in the Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the AP Top 25. Florida State led the nation with its average of 7.46 plays of 20-plus yards per game, the program's highest season average since the 2013 national championship, and was third in the country with an explosive play rate of 17.15 percent. The Seminoles were one of two teams nationally to average at least 270 passing yards and at least 210 rushing yards per game in 2022. FSU also tied for the national lead with eight touchdown drives of 90-plus yards, and its 16 touchdown drives of 80-plus yards were third-most in the country.

The Seminoles led the ACC in third-down offense, yards gained per pass, yards gained per play, yards gained per rush, total offense per game, yards per completion, rushing offense per game and scoring offense per game. Florida State was the first team to lead the ACC in scoring offense and total offense in the same season since 2019 and was one of two teams nationally to lead its conference in yards per rush, yards per pass and yards per play in 2022.

Florida State's average of 214.1 rushing yards per game was the program's highest since 1995 and was bolstered by eight 200-yard rushing games, including a school-record-tying seven straight to end the regular season. In the season opener, FSU had three 100-yard rushers for the first time in school history and in the regular season finale, a 45-38 win over Florida, the Seminoles' five rushing touchdowns were the most by a Gator opponent since 1997.

Second-team All-ACC performer Trey Benson paced the running backs with his five 100-yard rushing games, including three consecutive career-high totals, and led the ACC with his average of 5.5 yards per carry. Treshaun Ward, who had two 100-yard rushing games, was an honorable mention all-conference selection and semifinalist for the Burlsworth Trophy despite missing four games due to injury. The running back group combined for 2,283 rushing yards and 24 touchdowns.

The 2021 season featured a breakout performance by All-ACC running back Jashaun Corbin. The redshirt sophomore totaled 1,159 all-purpose yards, and his average of 6.2 yards per carry ranked first in the conference and 16th nationally among rushers with at least 10 rushing attempts per game. Corbin showed off his amazing speed with touchdown runs of 89 yards against Notre Dame and 75 yards against Louisville. He was the only rusher in the ACC and one of six nationally with multiple 75-yard runs in the 2021 season and only the fourth player in program history with multiple 75-yard touchdowns runs in a season.

The running back group also received significant contributions from Ward and Lawrance Toafili in their redshirt freshmen years. Ward rushed for 515 yards and four touchdowns, and his average of 6.36 yards per carry was the highest in the ACC among rushers with at least four attempts per game. Toafili rushed for 163 yards and one touchdown and added 116 yards and two touchdowns receiving. Toafili caught a 75-yard touchdown at Clemson, which made him the fifth player in program history with a receiving and rushing touchdown of at least 70 yards in a career.

In his first year at Florida State, Johnson coached a completely new group as Florida State's running back room featured zero returning scholarship players from the previous season. He utilized the group's youth and versatility to account for 1,855 all-purpose yards, led by Corbin and Toafili, and 13 touchdowns, including Ja'Khi Douglas' two receiving scores. Against Duke, Corbin rushed for a career-high three touchdowns, one shy of the school record, and Toafili posted a career-best 117 yards, including a 73-yard touchdown, on only seven carries. Toafili was one of only 12 rushers in the ACC with a 70-yard run in 2020.

Florida State averaged 199.9 rushing yards per game, the program's highest since 2016 and 20th nationally among teams that played at least nine games in 2020, and 5.11 yards per rush, 16th in the nation among teams with at least 350 carries and FSU's most in a season since 2015. In the season finale, a 56-35 win over Duke, Florida State rushed for six touchdowns, the most in the ACC and tied for the seventh-highest single-game total nationally in 2020. That also was only the second time in FSU history the Seminoles rushed for six touchdowns in a conference game, and the 346 rushing yards against Duke were the most by a Florida State team since 2012.

Johnson spent the 2018 and 2019 seasons at Tennessee after coaching on Mike Norvell's Memphis staff in 2016 and 2017. Johnson also brought Division I experience from Tulane and before that spent 12 years as a high school coach in New Orleans around a four-year stint at Millsaps College.

Tennessee improved from four wins the season before Johnson arrived to eight wins and a Gator Bowl victory in 2019. He coached the Vols' wide receivers in 2018 before moving to running backs in 2019, leading a group that produced five 100-yard rushing games.

Eric Gray broke UT's single-game true freshman rushing record with 246 yards against Vanderbilt, a total that ranked fifth on the Vols' all-time list. Nationally, it was the ninth-highest single-game total, and highest by a true freshman, in 2019. Gray was named Gator Bowl MVP after recovering an onside kick and scoring the game-winning touchdown 30 seconds later. The 2018 team ranked sixth in the SEC with an average of 7.9 yards per catch and had four different receivers average more than 14.0 yards per reception, led by Josh Palmer's 21.04 average.

In his two seasons at Memphis, Johnson was the Tigers' wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator. He developed former walk-on Anthony Miller to consensus All-America honors in 2017 after Miller led the NCAA with 18 receiving touchdowns and ranked third in the country with 1,462 yards and fifth with 96 receptions. Miller was then selected 51st overall in the 2018 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears. Memphis concluded the 2017 season ranked second in the country with an average of 45.5 points per game, fourth with 523.1 yards of total offense per game, sixth with a passing efficiency rating of 160.15 and seventh with an average of 335.0 passing yards per game.

The 2016 season was Miller's breakout year as he re-wrote Memphis' single-season records with 95 catches, 1,434 yards and 14 touchdowns. Those numbers would all improve in Johnson's second season working with Miller. The 2016 Tigers ranked 14th in the country with 304.4 passing yards per game, and their 38.8 points-per-game average was 15th.

Johnson joined Memphis after four seasons as Tulane's running backs and tight ends coach. In 2014, he coached a Freshman All-American at each position as running back Sherman Badie led the Green Wave with 688 rushing yards and tight end Charles Jones caught 21 passes for 192 yards and a team-high three touchdowns. The 2013 team advanced to the program's first bowl since 2002 and Orleans Darkwa was named MVP of the New Orleans Bowl after rushing for three touchdowns. Those three scores pushed his season total to 12, tied for the third-highest single-season output in program history, and allowed him to tie former NFL running back Matt Forte for the Tulane record with 39 career rushing scores.

From 2005-08, Johnson coached wide receivers, tight ends and special teams while also serving as the recruiting coordinator at Millsaps College. While there he helped lead the Majors to three consecutive SCAC championships and set the program up for a fourth straight in 2009.

Johnson was the head coach at St. Augustine High School from 2009-11. He led the Purple Knights to district titles in 2010 and 2011, earning the district's Coach of the Year honor in 2011. In his first season he developed defensive back Tyrann Mathieu, who earned consensus All-America honors and was named SEC Defensive Player of the Year and a Heisman finalist in 2011 at LSU. He also coached two-time USA

Today High School All-American running back Leonard Fournette at St. Augustine, laying the foundation for a consensus All-America performance in 2015 and two All-SEC selections while at LSU before being drafted fourth overall in 2017 by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Johnson served as offensive coordinator at John F. Kennedy High School and O. Perry Walker High School. He helped direct O. Perry Walker to three straight district championships and the 2002 state championship game while coaching All-American Craig Davis, a first-round selection by the Chargers in 2007 after winning a national championship at LSU, and Mike Wallace, who was taken in the third round in 2009 out of Ole Miss.

A two-time all-conference player at Nicholls State, Johnson led the Colonels in receiving in 1992 and 1993. He totaled 50 receptions for 990 yards and eight touchdowns in those two seasons and also served as a punt returner for Nicholls.

Johnson graduated from Nicholls State in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in general education. He and his wife, Akeia, have three children, Jermaine, De'Von and Karaaz.

PATRICK SURTAIN, SR.
DEFENSIVE BACKS

1st Season at FSU | 1st Season as collegiate coach
Hometown: New Orleans, La. | Alma Mater: Southern Miss, 1998
Family: wife, Michelle; children, Patrick II, Paris and Parker

Patrick Surtain Sr., an 11-year NFL veteran and long-time South Florida high school coach, was hired as Florida State's defensive backs coach on Jan. 18, 2023.

Surtain joined the Florida State football program after serving as a defensive assistant for the Miami Dolphins in 2022. The Dolphins advanced to the NFL Playoffs for the first time since 2016 and only the third time since 2001. The Dolphins' defense ranked fourth in the league allowing an average of 103.0 rushing yards per game and produced two Pro Bowl selections. In the final three weeks of the regular season, the defense led the NFL in total defense and ranked second in yards per play allowed, rushing defense and yards allowed per rush. The Dolphins held the New York Jets to six points in a final-week victory that clinched the playoff berth. In The AFC Wild Card round at Buffalo, the Dolphins registered a franchise playoff-record seven sacks and grabbed three takeaways.

He spent the previous nine seasons, including six as head coach, at American Heritage High School in Plantation, Florida, and was named the 2020 High School Football America National Coach of the Year. He led the Patriots to three state championships and a 65-10 overall record in his six seasons as head coach while developing numerous Division I players and NFL Draft picks, including Brian Burns who was the 16th overall selection in the 2019 NFL Draft after a three-year career at Florida State.

During the 2021 NFL Draft alone, six former Surtain pupils from American Heritage were selected, the second-highest total ever from one high school in a single draft. Cornerback Patrick Surtain II was the ninth overall pick by the Denver Broncos and earned a selection to the Pro Bowl following the 2022 season. Cornerbacks Tyson Campbell and Marco Wilson were taken in the second and fourth rounds, respectively, wide receiver Anthony Schwartz was a third-round selection, defensive tackle Tedarrell Slaton was taken in the fifth round and running back Khalil Herbert was picked in the sixth round.

Surtain played 11 seasons in the NFL, spending seven years with the Dolphins after they drafted him in the second round of the 1998 NFL Draft and four seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs. He was a two-time All-Pro and was selected to the Pro Bowl after the 2002, 2003 and 2004 seasons. Additionally, he was named the 2002 NFL Alumni Association's Defensive Back of the Year. For his career, he appeared in 163 games with 131 starts and recorded 547 tackles, including 435 solo stops, with 26.0 tackles for loss, 37 interceptions, eight forced fumbles and eight fumble recoveries. His 29 interceptions with the Dolphins are tied for fourth in franchise history.

Surtain, who played four years at Southern Miss, was a second-team All-American and the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year in 1997 and a first-team all-conference selection in 1996 and 1997. His 16 interceptions and 31 pass breakups rank third and fourth, respectively, on the school's career lists. He was a 2011 inductee into the Southern Miss Hall of Fame, was named to the Senior Bowl Hall of Fame in 2021 and inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 2023.

Originally from New Orleans, Surtain earned his bachelor's degree in coaching and sports administration from Southern Miss in 1998. He and his wife, Michelle, have three children, Patrick II, Paris and Parker.

TONY TOKARZ QUARTERBACKS

4th Season at FSU | 12th Season as collegiate coach
Hometown: Worcester, Mass. | Alma Mater: Worcester State, 2012
Family: wife, Emily; son, Bo

Tony Tokarz is in his fourth season on FSU's staff and second as quarterbacks coach in 2023.

In 2022, Tokarz's quarterbacks directed one of the most explosive offenses in the nation while helping lead FSU to a 10-3 record and a final ranking of No. 10 in the Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the AP Top 25. Florida State led the nation with its average of 7.46 plays of 20-plus yards per game, the program's highest season average since the 2013 national championship, and was third in the country with an explosive play rate of 17.15 percent. The Seminoles were one of two teams nationally to average at least 270 passing yards and at least 210 rushing yards per game in 2022. FSU also tied for the national lead with eight touchdown drives of 90-plus yards, and its 16 touchdown drives of 80-plus yards were third-most in the country.

The Seminoles led the ACC in third-down offense, yards gained per pass, yards gained per play, yards gained per rush, total offense per game, yards per completion, rushing offense per game and scoring offense per game. Florida State was the first team to lead the ACC in scoring offense and total offense in the same season since 2019 and was one of two teams nationally to lead its conference in yards per rush, yards per pass and yards per play in 2022.

During his first season leading the quarterbacks, Tokarz oversaw the continued development of starter Jordan Travis among the nation's elite while continuing to grow depth in the room. Travis was PFF's highest-graded quarterback in the nation and highest-graded offensive player in the ACC after passing for 3,214 yards with 24 touchdowns and only five interceptions while adding 417 yards and seven touchdowns rushing plus one receiving score. Travis, whose 32 total touchdowns were third-most in a season in FSU history, became the only Florida State player with 20 touchdown passes and seven rushing scores in one season.

Travis, who was named second-team All-ACC, joined Heisman Trophy winners Charlie Ward, Chris Weinke and Jameis Winston as the only FSU players with at least 3,000 total yards and 30 total touchdowns in a season. His 3,631 yards of total offense was the fifth-highest single-season total in FSU history, while his passing yards total was seventh and passing touchdowns were 10th. Travis led the ACC in yards per play, yards per pass attempt, yards per completion and pass efficiency rating. His average of 8.35 yards per play was third in the country, while his 9.10 yards per pass attempt was fifth nationally and his 14.22 yards per completion ranked eighth.

Travis peaked in his final appearance of the season, totaling an FSU bowl-record 468 yards of total offense in the Cheez-It Bowl victory over Oklahoma while garnering MVP honors. He completed a career-best 27 passes for a career-high 418 yards and two touchdowns and added 50 yards on seven rushes. Travis was only the fifth player in records dating back to 2000, and first since LSU's Joe Burrow in the CFP National Championship Game, to have 400 yards passing and 50 yards rushing in a bowl game. Travis also ended the regular season with a program-record streak of six consecutive games accounting for at least three touchdowns.

Redshirt sophomore Tate Rodemaker and true freshman AJ Duffy benefited from Tokarz's tutelage as well. Rodemaker led a second-half comeback at Louisville after Travis was forced from the game due to injury and was 6-for-10 passing for 109 yards and two touchdowns, including the game-winning score in the fourth quarter. In that game, Travis and Rodemaker became the first pair of FSU teammates with at least 100 yards passing and two touchdowns in the same game since 2005. Duffy played in three games and threw his first collegiate touchdown pass during FSU's 49-17 win over Louisiana.

Tokarz, who was FSU's senior analyst on offense for the 2020 and 2021 seasons, has 12 years of collegiate coaching experience. He has been on head coach Mike Norvell's staff for the last six years and, in addition to his time coaching quarterbacks, also has experience coaching wide receivers and tight ends.

Tokarz spent three seasons at Memphis with Norvell, serving as tight ends coach in 2019 after spending the 2017 and 2018 seasons as a graduate assistant. The 2019 team won a school-record 12 games and the program's first outright conference championship since 1969. The Tigers ranked eighth in the nation with an average of 40.5 points per game and with an average of 6.90 yards per play. Their team passing efficiency of 167.41 and average of 14.91 yards per completion were both 10th in the country.

In 2018, Tokarz worked with running backs as Memphis had the country's fourth-best rushing offense with an average of 279.9 yards per game behind a school-record 3,919 total rushing yards and 48 touchdowns. It was the first season in Memphis history with two 1,000-yard rushers, led by Doak Walker Award finalist and unanimous All-American Darrell Henderson. Henderson broke the NCAA record with an average of 8.22 yards per carry, and his 2018 average of 8.92 yards per carry was the highest for a season with a minimum of 200 carries in records dating back to 2000. The Tigers ranked fourth in the country with an average of 523.1 yards per game and 7.12 yards per play while also ranking seventh with an average of 42.9 points per game.

The 2017 team averaged 45.5 points per game, the second-highest average in the country, and ranked fourth in the NCAA with 523.1 yards per game and 7.35 yards per play. The team passing efficiency rating of 160.15 was sixth in the nation, and their average of 335.0 passing yards per game ranked seventh.

Tokarz began his coaching career in 2012 at Anna Maria College, where he coached wide receivers and helped the program tie a single-season wins record that stood until 2021. He tutored Domenique Concepcion to first-team all-conference honors in a season that included breaking single-game school records with 17 receptions, 236 receiving yards and three touchdowns, single-season records with 72 receptions and 848 receiving yards, and the program's all-time career records with 213 receptions, 2,585 receiving yards, 21 receiving touchdowns and an average of 5.46 catches per game.

Tokarz then moved to Stonehill College, where he coached wide receivers and worked with quarterbacks in 2013. That year, the Skyhawks posted their best record since 1996 and earned a share of the regular-season conference championship for the first time in program history. Wide receiver Nate Robitaille broke Stonehill single-season records with 91 receptions, 1,229 receiving yards and an average of 8.3 receptions per game while tying the single-season record with 13 receiving touchdowns.

Tokarz spent the 2014 and 2015 seasons at Memphis, working with the quarterbacks in 2015 and secondary in 2014. In 2015, the Tigers won nine games behind an offense that ranked 11th in the country in scoring and eighth in third-down conversion percentage. Tokarz worked with Paxton Lynch, who was a first-team All-AAC honoree as well as a finalist for the Manning Award and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award after breaking program records for passing yards, passing touchdowns and 300-yard passing games. He ranked 11th in the nation in passing efficiency, 12th in completion percentage, 16th in passing yards and 19th in passing touchdowns. Lynch went on to be selected 26th overall in the first round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos.

The 2014 team won 10 games, the program's most in a regular season since 1963, and earned a share of the AAC conference championship. The defense ranked third nationally in red zone defense and ranked ninth in the country in total takeaways. Memphis also was third in the conference and top-25 nationally in scoring defense, rushing defense, passing efficiency defense, third-down defense, interceptions and fumble recoveries.

In 2016, he returned to Stonehill College as the passing game coordinator, quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. That season, freshman Andrew Jamiel matched Robitaille's single-season program record with 91 receptions and broke the receptions-per-game record with an NCAA Division II-best 9.1 catches per game. He also twice broke Robitaille's single-game receptions record by posting 16 receptions in week two before breaking his mark with 18 catches for 169 yards and two touchdowns five weeks later in the Division II Football Showcase. Jamiel was named the conference's Rookie of the Year, Stonehill's first offensive player to earn conference rookie of the year honors, and headlined three all-conference selections on offense for the Skyhawks.

Tokarz was a three-year starting quarterback at Worcester State and left as the program's all-time leader in rushing yards by a quarterback while also ranking second in career touchdown passes and fourth in career passing yards. He was a first-team all-conference performer in 2011 when he led the Lancers to an 8-3 record, the program's most wins since 2003, and an appearance in the ECAC Northwest Bowl to cap his senior season.

Tokarz earned his bachelor's degree in history from Worcester State in 2012. He is married to the former Emily Williams, and they have one son.

BRUCE WARWICK

Associate AD for Football
4th Season at FSU
Alma Mater: Columbia College
Family: wife, Debra; sons, Alexander, Joseph and Jacob

Bruce Warwick was named Florida State football's chief of staff on Dec. 28, 2019, and promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Football on Jan. 31, 2022.

In his role, Warwick is on the athletic department's leadership team while coordinating all aspects of the program's administrative impact and influence. He also works closely with the coaching, recruiting, operations, academics and communications staffs.

Warwick came to Florida State after spending the previous eight seasons as director of operations for the Rams following three years as assistant to the head coach, working from 2009-15 in St. Louis and then relocating with the team to Los Angeles from 2016-19. He led the organization's operations related to the move as he was responsible for all logistical operations and execution for players, coaches and front office staff. The move included building four fully operational team facilities in addition to two business operation sites and insuring all daily operational and technical needs were addressed as well as all NFL gameday requirements were met.

With the Rams, he worked for three different head coaches and was in charge of travel operations and organizing training camps as well as overseeing construction at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The Rams won two straight NFC West division titles and in 2018 advanced to Super Bowl LIII after a 13-win regular season.

Warwick served as the assistant athletic director for football operations at the University of Tennessee in 2007 and 2008, helping the Volunteers reach the 2007 SEC Championship Game and finish the year with 10 wins after defeating No. 18 Wisconsin in the Outback Bowl. In 2006 he was Duke's director of player personnel. In that role, he was heavily involved in recruiting efforts while serving as the program's liaison for academic support, community relations, ACC officials, computer technology and the Iron Dukes, a fund-raising arm of the athletics department.

From 2000-05, Warwick was the assistant to the general manager and director of football administration with the Green Bay Packers. In his six seasons with the Packers, he oversaw staff in strength, video, training room, equipment and player programs as well as managed the team's annual training camp and mini-camps. Additionally, he was responsible for all coaching and personnel staff contracts, new hires and the minority internship program while also serving as a liaison to the NFL office and NFL officials.

Warwick began his career at Syracuse, where was a football administrative graduate assistant in 1991. He returned to be the Orange's director of football operations from 1996-99, helping Syracuse win three straight Big East championships from 1996-98. In between stints at Syracuse, he worked in football operations at Maryland for two seasons and was Clemson's assistant athletic director for football management from 1994-95.

Warwick earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Columbia College in 1989 and completed his master's in sport management from the U.S. Sports Academy in 1993. He and his wife, Debra, have three sons, Alexander, Joseph and Jacob.

JOSH STORMS

Director of Football Strength & Conditioning
4th Season at FSU
Alma Mater: South Dakota
Family: wife, Darcy; son, Colt

Josh Storms was named Florida State's director of strength and conditioning on Dec. 28, 2019, and is in his fourth season with the program in 2023.

Storms earned Master Strength and Conditioning Coach distinction, the highest honor given in the strength and conditioning coaches profession, by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa) in 2018. Certified through both the CSCCa and National Strength and Conditioning Association, he was the strength coach for Memphis football from 2016-19 after working with football for 11 years on the sports performance staff at Arizona State.

Storms has worked with Norvell each of his eight seasons as a head coach, playing an integral role in the development and continued rise of the FSU and Memphis football programs. In their seven years together at FSU and Memphis, they have compiled a 56-31 overall record and in 2019 earned Memphis' first outright conference championship since 1969. Storms' strength program has helped lay the foundation for Norvell to put together a 20-5 career record in November, including a 4-0 mark in the final month of the 2022 regular season.

Memphis was one of three FBS teams, along with Ohio State and Oklahoma, that have ranked in the top-15 nationally in scoring offense each of the last four years. The Tigers shined on special teams, with an NCAA-best 11 kickoff return touchdowns from 2016-19, and wreaked havoc on defense, forcing 100 total takeaways and averaging 6.8 tackles for loss per game.

Storms spent 2005-15 at Arizona State, including his last four years with Norvell as the Sun Devils' offensive coordinator. Storms helped develop student-athletes who participated in a school-record five straight bowl games covering his final five seasons in Tempe.

In the four seasons Norvell and Storms worked together at ASU, the Sun Devils averaged 38.1 points per game and scored nearly 2,000 points. Over that same four-year span, Arizona State's 13 interception return touchdowns and 16 defensive touchdowns were the most in the country.

Storms joined the Arizona State staff after two years as an assistant strength coach at UNLV. He spent 2001 as a seasonal assistant strength coach with the Minnesota Vikings.

Storms played tight end at the University of South Dakota and earned his bachelor's degree in recreation in 2001. He completed his master's of education in curriculum and instruction from Arizona State in 2006.

Storms and his wife, Darcie, have a son, Colt.

DARRICK YRAY

General Manager of Personnel
2nd Season at FSU
Alma Mater: Fresno State
Family: wife, Minda; son, Kyran

Darrick Yray (pronounced Ray) was named Florida State's general manager of personnel on Feb. 7, 2022.

Yray joined Florida State after seven years at Oregon State, most recently as director of player personnel. He also served as director of recruiting operations, coordinator of on-campus recruiting and assistant director of player personnel for the Beavers. Oregon State's 2022 signing class was the highest-rated nationally for OSU since 2011, and the 2021 team produced 17 All-Pac-12 recognitions, the program's most since 2008, while advancing to a bowl game for the first time since 2013.

He was responsible for managing all aspects of Oregon State's recruiting operation, including identifying potential student-athletes and scheduling official and unofficial visits to campus, while also serving as the Beavers' pro liaison.

Prior to his time in Corvallis, Yray spent four years as an offensive assistant and three as assistant director of football operations at Fresno State. He was the pro liaison with the Bulldogs along with his recruiting, team travel, player personnel and other operations duties. As an offensive assistant, he was tasked with preparing scouting reports, charts, film breakdown, academics and special teams. In 2010, Yray was a guest coach with the CFL's Saskatchewan Roughriders working with special teams and the defensive line.

Yray earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Fresno State in 2011 and completed his master's degree in kinesiology at Fresno State in 2013. He is married to Minda McCullough, and the couple has a son, Kyran.

JEFF KUPPER

Director of Player Development & Operations
4th Season at FSU
Alma Mater: Texas
Family: wife, Lindsay; daughters, Ruby-Wayne and Jennings

Jeff Kupper is in his fourth season with the Seminoles in 2023. He was announced as Florida State's director of player development and operations on Jan. 6, 2020.

Kupper came to Tallahassee following 10 seasons as the director of operations at Memphis. In that role, he was responsible for many administrative duties, including team travel, camps and community service as well as budget management, fundraising, gameday event operations, facility design and construction. He also handled football events such as team banquets, booster club functions and women's clinic and was instrumental in daily communication with student-athletes regarding practice schedules and team meetings.

Prior to his time at Memphis, Kupper spent five years as assistant athletics director of football operations and special projects at Columbia. He was involved with football marketing, development, compliance, equipment and facility operations while also overseeing quality control for game day events and arranging all staff and team travel, both in and out of season. Kupper joined Columbia in August 2005 from Ohio University, where he was a facilities and equipment graduate assistant from 2003-05.

As an undergraduate at the University of Texas, Kupper earned three letters as a student football equipment manager. During his time in Austin, he was involved in logistical support for three Cotton Bowls and two Holiday Bowls.

Kupper was a three-time recipient of the Darrel K. Royal Scholarship Award and the Glen Swenson Award, both presented to an outstanding equipment manager. He spent four consecutive semesters on the Athletics Director's Honor Roll.

The Odessa, Texas, native graduated from Texas in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in religious studies. He earned a master's of business administration and a master's of sports administration and facility management from Ohio.

Kupper and his wife, Lindsay, have two daughters, Ruby-Wayne and Jennings.

Bold – Current Assistant Coaches

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

RICHARD McCULLOUGH

University President

Richard McCullough became the 16th president of Florida State University on Aug. 16, 2021, bringing more than 30 years of academic research and leadership experience to the role as well as a commitment to innovation, entrepreneurship, and student success.

President McCullough is focused on building on Florida State University's foundation as a Top 20 public university and pursuing a bold vision for the future. Since assuming the presidency, he has recruited world-class faculty, staff, and administrators; invested in academic excellence, student success, and faculty and staff; grown the university's research portfolio; encouraged student and faculty entrepreneurial endeavors; cultivated relationships with elected officials and community leaders; enhanced fundraising efforts; and promoted athletic success.

Under McCullough's leadership, the university launched FSU Health — one of the largest and most ambitious projects in Florida State history. This initiative will transform health care delivery, education, and biomedical research in North Florida.

Prior to joining FSU, McCullough had served as vice provost for research and professor of materials science and engineering at Harvard University since 2012. In this role, he oversaw the development, review and implementation of strategies, planning, and policies related to academic research. In addition, he led an office of Foundation and Corporate Engagement and assisted in the oversight of more than 25 interdisciplinary institutes, centers and initiatives across the university.

During his tenure, McCullough successfully built and launched the new Harvard Data Science Initiative, a collaboration between 12 of the university's schools and more than 120 faculty, which led to the creation of three new master's programs and many new undergraduate courses.

McCullough developed and launched a new structural biology program and cryo-electron microscope facility that partners Harvard Medical School with three Boston-area hospitals. He also led the development of a new $100 million, multi-institution collaboration to build the Advanced Biological Innovation and Manufacturing Center and Facility, known as Landmark Bio, which is a hub for medical research and education, as well as economic and workforce development.

Previously, McCullough spent 22 years at Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh, where he began his academic career as an assistant professor of chemistry in 1990 and became the Thomas Lord Professor of Chemistry in 2009. He was promoted to head of the chemistry department in 1998 and then served as dean of the Mellon College of Science from 2001 to 2007 before becoming the university's vice president for research.

McCullough, who holds multiple patents and is the founder of two companies, has a rich background in entrepreneurship and innovation. At Carnegie Mellon, he developed a vibrant innovation ecosystem, including the Greenlighting Start-ups Initiative that exponentially increased the generation of university spin-out companies and corporate engagement. In 2013, he was elected a fellow of the National Academy of Inventors.

McCullough is the author of numerous peer-reviewed articles and serves on the editorial boards of several academic journals, including Advanced Materials. He has been an innovation, entrepreneurship, and technology transfer advisor to Oxford University, Princeton University and Washington University at St. Louis.

A first-generation college student from Mesquite, Texas, McCullough attended Eastfield Community College before earning a bachelor's degree in chemistry from the University of Texas at Dallas in 1982 and a doctoral degree in organic chemistry from Johns Hopkins University in 1988. McCullough also spent two years as a postdoctoral fellow at Columbia University in New York.

He and his wife, Jai Vartikar, have two children, Jason and Dylan, daughter-in-law, Sarah Christian, and two granddaughters, Gladys and Archer.

Jordan Travis

In a game full of big plays on both sides of the ball, the Seminoles churned out 587 yards of total offense and recorded six quarterback sacks and 11 tackles for loss in the win that secured a 10-win season and continues the national narrative of FSU as one of the hottest programs in the country.

Game Most Valuable Player Jordan Travis was 27-of-38 passing for 418 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He completed two or more passes to six different receivers with Johnny Wilson having a great night with eight receptions for 202 yards. Treshaun Ward led all FSU rushers with 81 yards on 10 carries, and Travis had 50 on the ground.

Oklahoma had a pair of running backs go for over 100 yards each and quarterback Dillon Gabriel was 14-of-24 through the air with one touchdown.

Florida State opened the game with an impressive 75-yard, 13-play drive and took a 3-0 lead when Fitzgerald's 22-yard field goal split the uprights with 11:26 left in the first quarter.

Oklahoma scored on the ensuing drive when Gabriel's pass found Jalil Farooq in the end zone from 22 yards out to give the Sooners a 7-3 lead at the 7:01 mark of the initial stanza.

The Seminole defense came up big later in the first quarter when the offense failed to convert on fourth down and Oklahoma took over at the Seminoles' 43-yard line. But Oklahoma's three plays lost yards back to their 48-yard line and they were forced to punt.

The Sooners' offense had a short field once again late in the first quarter setting up at FSU's 49-yard line. Eight plays later, Gabriel scored from eight yards out on a quarterback keeper around the right end to make it 14-3 OU with 14:31 left before the half.

A second fourth down conversion attempt by Florida State failed setting Oklahoma up at their own 43-yard line with 11:39 left. After a 28-yard pass got the Sooners down to the 16, FSU's defense stuffed the Sooner attack and forced a 28-yard field goal attempt that sailed wide left.

The defensive stand ignited the FSU sideline and the offense ripped off big chunks of yardage on its next drive with Travis hitting Ontaria Wilson with a perfectly placed 16-yard touchdown pass in the corner of the end zone. The Seminoles went for two with tight end Wyatt Rector hitting tight end Brian Courtney for the conversion and a 14-11 score with 7:18 left in the half. The drive covered 56 yards on six plays with the biggest plays being a pair of passes to Johnny Wilson of 14 and 23 yards.

Oklahoma drove 65 yards on seven plays on their final possession of the half extending their lead to 17-11 on a 41-yard field goal with 15 seconds left.

Travis completed 10-of-14 passes for 170 yards and one TD in the first half. He also led the Seminoles in rushing with 34 yards on five carries. Johnny Wilson had 110 receiving yards on seven catches for his third 100-yard game of the season.

Florida State had a great start to the second half taking its first lead since its first possession in the game on a masterful 94-yard drive on its initial drive of the second half. The Seminoles used 15 plays and nearly five minutes to take the 18-17 lead when Ward took the snap in the wildcat formation and plunged in from the one.

The Sooners, who were shut out during the third quarter, went up 25-18 with 13:22 left in the game on a Gavin Sawchuck touchdown run up the middle and a successful two-point conversion.

FSU bounced right back on its next drive capping a 75-yard scoring drive with a 38-yard touchdown run by Ward that tied the score at 25-25 with 11:05 left.

The Seminole defense came up with a huge play on Oklahoma's next possession when Omarion Cooper's hit on Sawchuck knocked the ball out and Jammie Robinson recovered it at the FSU 36. Six plays later, Travis hit tight end Markeston Douglas with a 17-yard touchdown pass to put FSU up 32-25 with 7:22 left.

Oklahoma tied the score at 32-32 with 3:37 left on a 12-yard Jovantae Brown run that capped a nine-play, 75 yard drive, before FSU used up most of the clock to kick the game winner.

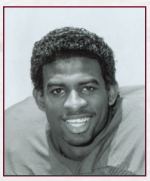
RETIRED JERSEYS & NUMBERS

Since Florida State University first fielded an intercollegiate football team in 1947, only 11 numbers/jerseys have been retired. Those numbers/jerseys — 2, 9, 10, 16, 17, 25, 27, 28, 34, 50 and 55 — belonged to 11 of the greatest players in Florida State football history – Deion Sanders, Peter Warrick, Derrick Brooks, Chris Weinke, Charlie Ward, Fred Biletnikoff, Terrell Buckley, Warrick Dunn, Ron Sellers, Ron Simmons and Marvin Jones.



2 ■ DEION SANDERS

- Defensive Back, 1985-88
- Number Retired Oct. 7, 1995

Deion Sanders' place in the history of college football was immortalized over a five month period in 2011 when he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in August and the College Football Hall of Fame in December. Sanders redefined the position of cornerback over his historic career winning the 1988 Jim Thorpe Award as a senior at Florida State and landing two-time consensus All-America honors. He left FSU second on the all-time interceptions list, first for career punt return yards and became one of college football's all-time brightest stars.

9 ■ PETER WARRICK

- Wide Receiver, 1996-99
- Jersey Retired Sept. 3, 2018

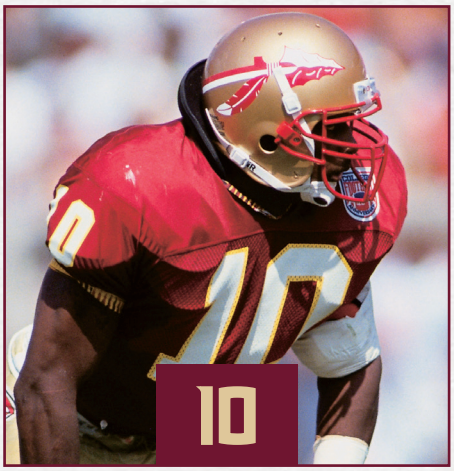
Peter Warrick was one of the most electrifying players to ever don the Garnet and Gold. During his four-year career, he helped lead the Seminoles to a 45-4 record and the 1999 national championship. Warrick was named MVP of the national title game victory over Virginia Tech after catching six passes for 163 yards and two touchdowns and adding another touchdown on a 59-yard punt return as FSU became the only team in college football history to go wire-to-wire as the AP No. 1-ranked team. Warrick was a two-time consensus All-American who still holds the FSU record with 32 career receiving touchdowns. His 3,517 career receiving yards were the most in ACC history and ranked second on FSU's all-time list. He also ranked second in school history with 207 catches, 15 100-yard receiving games and an average of 4.81 receptions per game.



10 ■ DERRICK BROOKS

- Linebacker, 1991-94
- Jersey Retired Nov. 13, 2010

Derrick Brooks was a two-time consensus All-American at outside linebacker for the Seminoles where his blend of speed and athleticism set a new standard for the position. He starred at FSU from 1991-94 leading FSU to its first national title as a junior and earning first team All-ACC honors as a sophomore, junior and senior. He was named the ACC Player of the Year in 1994 and was a finalist for the Butkus, Lombardi and Football Writer's Defensive Player of the Year Award in both 1993 and 1994. Brooks was just as highly regarded off the field earning first team Academic All-America honors in 1994 and winning an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. In addition, he was committed to public service causes throughout his Seminole career. Brooks carried his excellence both on the field and as a citizen into his Hall of Fame career as the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers' all-time leading tackler. He was voted to 10 consecutive Pro Bowls (11 total) and at the time of his retirement had made an NFL-leading 200 consecutive starts. He led his beloved Tampa Bay team to the Super Bowl title in 2002. As a professional, Brooks was the recipient of several prestigious awards, including the 2000 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year award, the 2003 Bart Starr Award, the 2004 Bryon "Whizzer" White Award, and the 2008 JB Award for community service through the NFL Players Association, all of which recognize an NFL player annually for their commitment to the communities in which they live.

RETIRED JERSEYS & NUMBERS

16 ■ CHRIS WEINKE

- Quarterback, 1997-2000
- Jersey Retired April 7, 2001

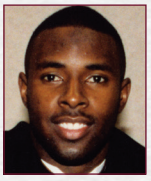
Chris Weinke literally rewrote the Florida State record book over his career as the Seminoles' quarterback. He set 26 school records, including both the FSU and Atlantic Coast Conference records for career passing yards with 9,839. He led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the national championship as a junior in 1999. He became FSU's second Heisman Trophy winner as a senior in 2000, while leading the nation in passing with 4,167 yards and averaging 347.3 yards per game. Weinke compiled a remarkable 32-3 record as the starting quarterback at FSU, which ranked as the seventh best winning percentage in NCAA history. His 79 career touchdown passes ranked as the 12th best performance in NCAA history and his career passing yards placed him at 18th on the NCAA's all-time list. Weinke owned the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000. His accomplishments were even more impressive considering he suffered a potentially career-ending neck injury as a sophomore. Weinke's place among Florida State's all-time greatest players was recognized when his jersey was retired in 2001, at the time making it one of only seven retired numbers/jerseys in school history. His place among the ACC's all-time best was recognized when he was voted one of the 50 best players in the history of the conference.



17 ■ CHARLIE WARD

- Quarterback, 1989-93
- Number Retired Dec. 15, 1993

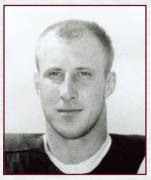
Charlie Ward began his senior season in 1993 chasing both the school's first national championship and the Heisman Trophy. Ward's passing and running skills were already well known qualities by 1993, but his inspired leadership and poise under pressure during his senior year elevated him to one of the game's all-time greats. So exceptional was Ward's command of the offense that coaches moved him into the shotgun to allow him to make adjustments during the play. Ward set 19 school and seven Atlantic Coast Conference records over his two years as the starting quarterback for the Seminoles. A consensus All-American, Ward won over 30 individual awards in addition to the Heisman. Ward ranks second in career total offense at FSU with 6,636 yards and has the highest completion rate for a career (62.3%) and lowest interception percentage (2.90%). Ward set the FSU record for touchdown passes in a season with 27 in 1993. Thousands of fans poured into Doak Campbell Stadium for a celebration of the national championship and Ward's Heisman, which included the surprise retirement of his number. He joined Fred Biletnikoff and Ron Sellers becoming only the third player in FSU history to be so honored.



25 ■ Fred Biletnikoff

- Wide Receiver, 1962-64
- Number Retired Jan. 2, 1965

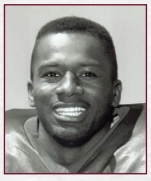
Fred Biletnikoff played wide receiver at Florida State from 1962-64 under Head Coach Bill Peterson. He was FSU's first consensus All-American. As a senior, he ranked fourth in the nation with 57 receptions for 11 touchdowns, not including four touchdown catches in the Gator Bowl. Following his collegiate success, Biletnikoff went on to star for the Oakland Raiders of the National Football League for 14 years. During that time, he played in four Pro Bowls and was the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XI.



27 ■ Terrell Buckley

- Cornerback, 1989-91
- Jersey Retired Sept. 3, 2011

Florida State retired the jersey of former Seminole and NFL star cornerback Terrell Buckley at halftime of the ULM game on Sept. 3, 2011. Buckley owns most of FSU's interception records following his outstanding three-year career from 1989-91 including the single-season mark with 12 interceptions as a junior. He became FSU's second Jim Thorpe Trophy winner following the 1991 season and finished seventh in the Heisman Trophy balloting. He totaled 21 career interceptions as a Seminole. Buckley was also one of FSU's all-time great punt returners and he scored seven career touchdowns, four on interceptions and three on punts. He also played two years for the FSU baseball team and ran track for the Seminoles. Buckley was the fifth player taken overall in the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers. He went on to an outstanding 14-year NFL career in which he totaled 50 career interceptions.

RETIRED JERSEYS & NUMBERS

28 ■ Warrick Dunn

- Running Back, 1993-96
- Jersey Retired Jan. 22, 1997

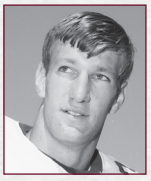
Warrick Dunn's four-year career at Florida State established him as one of the most popular players in all of college football and the finest running back in school history. Dunn was the first Seminole ever to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons. His 3,959 career rushing yards broke Greg Allen's school record set in 1984. He also broke Allen's single-season rushing record when he ran for 1,242 yards as a junior in 1995. Dunn has the record for most touchdowns scored in a career with 49 over four seasons and rushed for over 100 yards more times (22) than any player at FSU. He was a three-time All-ACC selection as well as a member of the ACC All-Academic Team. He was selected to the First Team Football Writer's All-America squad as a senior and earned Second Team Associated Press honors that same year.



34 ■ RON SELLERS

- Flanker, 1966-68
- Number Retired Dec. 30, 1968

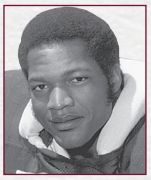
Ron Sellers remains the most prolific receiver in FSU history. He held most of the NCAA receiving records from the end of his senior season in 1968 until 1987. A flanker for Florida State from 1966 to 1968, he accumulated 3,979 yards on 240 receptions. Sellers' career was marked by consistency, quality and quantity. He caught passes in 30 consecutive games, averaging 119.9 yards per game. Sellers also led Florida State to three bowl games during his playing days.



50 ■ RON SIMMONS

- Nose Guard, 1977-80
- Number Retired Sept. 24, 1988

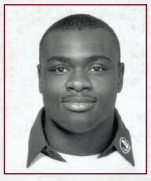
The greatest defender in Florida State history, Ron Simmons' No. 50 was retired in 1988. Simmons anchored the center of the defense that took FSU to a pair of Orange Bowl appearances in 1979 and 1980, resulting in FSU's highest national rankings ever at that time. A dominating nose guard and the Tribe's first two-time consensus All-American, Simmons seemed to camp out in opponents' backfields. He totaled an FSU record 25 quarterback sacks and 44 tackles for loss — a mark that held top ranking at FSU for 23 years. He was the first Seminole defender to have his number retired.



55 ■ MARVIN JONES

- Linebacker, 1990-92
- Jersey Retired Oct. 10, 2015

Marvin Jones won both the Butkus and Lombardi Awards as a junior in 1992 and finished fourth in the balloting for the 1992 Heisman Trophy. He recorded 369 tackles over three seasons with the Seminoles, a mark that sits seventh all-time in the FSU record books. Jones played a vital role in leading Florida State to three top four finishes including a ranking of fourth in the Associated Press poll in 1990 and 1991, and second in 1992 with an 11-1 record and a 27-14 win over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. He was inducted into FSU's Sports Hall of Fame in 2000. A graduate of Northwestern High in Miami, Jones left FSU following his junior season and was selected with the fourth overall pick of the 1993 NFL Draft by the New York Jets. He played his entire 10-year professional career with the Jets and finished with 1,022 tackles over 142 games.

Charlie Ward

CHARLIE WARD

- Quarterback
- 1989-93

1993 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

The most decorated player in the history of college football as a senior, Charlie Ward won every award he was eligible for in his final season. Ward, who led the Seminoles to their first national championship, became Florida State's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1993. A native of nearby Thomasville, Ga., Ward waited for his turn at quarterback and overcame a rough start as a junior to become the finest player in Florida State history. In addition to the individual trophies, Ward saw his No. 17 jersey retired and, remarkably, played in the NBA for more than a decade. He was only the second football player in history to win the prestigious Sullivan Award, presented to the nation's top amateur athlete.

CHRIS WEINKE

- Quarterback
- 1997-2000

2000 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

The first three-year starter at quarterback for the Seminoles under Bobby Bowden, Chris Weinke became the second FSU player to win the Heisman Trophy when he was named the nation's best football player in December 2000. Weinke led the nation in passing as a senior with 4,167 yards and averaged 347.3 yards per game. Weinke led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the national championship as a junior in 1999 and compiled a remarkable 32-3 record as a starter at FSU, which ranked as the seventh best winning percentage in NCAA history. Weinke set both the Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference record for career passing with 9,839 career passing yards and would set 26 school records during his career. His 79 career touchdown passes ranked as the 12th best performance in NCAA history and his career passing yards placed him at 18th on the NCAA's all-time list. Weinke owned the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school-record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000. Weinke also won the Davey O'Brien and Johnny Unitas awards as a senior signifying his selection as the nation's best quarterback. Weinke's No. 16 jersey was retired at a ceremony during halftime of the 2001 spring football game.

JAMEIS WINSTON

- Quarterback
- 2013-14

2013 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

The dazzling playmaker and charismatic leader authored the greatest freshman season by a quarterback in college football history by leading Florida State to a 14-0 record and the 2013 VIZIO BCS National Championship. In the process, Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy at 19 years, 342 days and just the second freshman. In addition, Winston captured the Davey O'Brien Award, the Manning Award and the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award while earning Consensus All-America accolades. The Bessemer, Ala., native became the first freshman to collect the ACC Player of the Year honor in the 61-year history of the conference and also nabbed the league's ACC Offensive Player of the Year and ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year trophies. Winston elevated his performance when the stakes were highest, too. He was named Offensive MVP of the BCS National Championship Game after leading the Seminoles to a 34-31 come-from-behind victory over No. 2 Auburn in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. The Seminoles trailed by 18 points (21-3) late in the second quarter to complete the largest comeback in the game's history. Winston clinched the victory by engineering the game-winning seven-play, 80-yard drive that started with just 1:11 remaining in the game and FSU trailing 31-27 and ended with a two-yard touchdown pass to Kelvin Benjamin to give FSU the lead with 13 seconds left. Winston shattered the ACC record, Florida State record and national freshman record for touchdown passes (40) and broke the national freshman record for passing yards (4,057), while leading the nation and setting the ACC record for pass efficiency rating (184.8). Over his two-year career, Winston passed for 7,964 yards (third in FSU history) and 65 touchdowns (second in FSU history), while compiling a 26-1 record. His career pass efficiency mark (163.28) ranked as the 10th-best in college football history and is the FSU and ACC record. Winston won his first 26 starts - a feat unmatched by major NCAA Division I quarterbacks all-time and had five fourth-quarter comebacks in his career, including a nation-leading four in 2014. He was also a valuable member of Florida State's nationally-ranked baseball team for two years as a pitcher and an outfielder, serving as the closer in 2014.

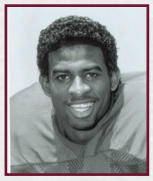
JIM THORPE AWARD

Honoring the best defensive back in the nation, presented by the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame and Paycom.



DEION SANDERS

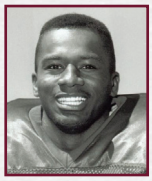
- Cornerback
- 1985-88

1988 JIM THORPE AWARD WINNER

One of the best athletes ever to wear a Florida State uniform, cornerback Deion Sanders won the Jim Thorpe Award as the top defensive back of 1988.

Sanders collected the prize after a career which saw him gather 14 career interceptions, not including three in bowl games. In his junior and senior seasons, FSU went 11-1 with a pair of New Year's Day bowl wins. In 1988, Sanders ranked in the top 10 nationally with five interceptions in nine games. He was the nation's top punt returner, averaging 15.2 yards per return.

The Ft. Myers, Fla., native ranks third on the FSU career interceptions chart and holds most of the school's punt return records. A three-sport star in football, baseball and track at Florida State, Sanders was the fifth pick in the 1989 NFL draft by the Atlanta Falcons. He became a successful two-sport pro — elected to the Pro Bowl seven times in football and started in centerfield for the Atlanta Braves and the Cincinnati Reds. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2011.



TERRELL BUCKLEY

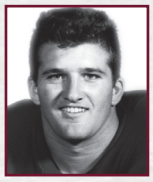
- Cornerback
- 1989-91

1991 JIM THORPE AWARD WINNER

In 1991, Terrell Buckley capped the best season ever by a Florida State cornerback by becoming the second Seminole ever to win the Jim Thorpe Award. A junior, Buckley blew away the Florida State record for interceptions with 12 in 1991. He intercepted passes in eight of FSU's 12 regular season contests to lead the country in pickoffs. Against Michigan in Ann Arbor, his interception and 40-yard return for a touchdown on the game's first play set the stage for a 51-31 Florida State win. A native of Pascagoula, Miss., Buckley also demolished the Florida State career record with 21 INTs in just three seasons. His 501 career return yards broke an NCAA record that had stood since 1974. Following the year, Buckley entered the NFL draft and was selected by the Green Bay Packers with the fifth pick in the first round. He's been named one of the Top 100 Greatest College Football Players of all-time by CollegeFootballNews and named one of Sports Illustrated's Ten for the Ages' Defensive Back Game Breakers of all-time in college football. Buckley's FSU jersey No. 27 was retired in 2011.

BUTKUS AWARD

Emblematic of the nation's top collegiate linebacker, presented by the Butkus Foundation and named for College Hall of Famer Dick Butkus of Illinois.



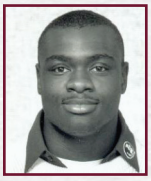
PAUL McGOWAN

- Inside Linebacker
- 1984-87

1987 BUTKUS AWARD WINNER

Calling the Butkus Award for linebackers, "The Heisman of the Bad Guys," FSU inside linebacker Paul McGowan accepted the award from Dick Butkus himself in December of 1987.

The 6-1, 230-pound McGowan won the award by a one-point margin over Ohio State's Chris Spielman. McGowan won the award based on a senior season in which he totaled 150 tackles, including 97 solo stops and 11 behind the line of scrimmage. He was named to the Associated Press, Sporting News and Football News first team All-America squads.



MARVIN JONES

- Inside Linebacker
- 1990-92

1992 BUTKUS AWARD WINNER

The top player in the nation in 1992, Marvin Jones became the first Seminole to capture two national awards in the same year when he earned both the Butkus Award for linebackers and the Lombardi Award for linemen and linebackers following his junior season.

Florida State's third two-time consensus All-American, Jones tallied 111 tackles and seven tackles for a loss in 1992 while leading the Seminoles to an 11-1 record. He made 10 or more tackles in nine games and finished fourth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy.

He finished his career seventh on FSU's career tackle chart with 369 and third on the all-time list with 28 tackles for loss. A first team All-ACC choice out of Miami, Fla., Florida State tailored its nationally-ranked defense to Jones' strength in 1992.

Jones left Tallahassee for the NFL after his junior season, and at the time, was the highest Seminole draft choice when he was selected fourth overall by the New York Jets.

LOU GROZA AWARD

The Lou Groza Award recognizes the top placekicker of the year and is presented by the Palm Beach County Sports Commission, in conjunction with the Orange Bowl Committee.

SEBASTIAN JANIKOWSKI

- Placekicker
- 1997-99

1998 & 1999 LOU GROZA WINNER

Sebastian Janikowski became the first Seminole to win the Lou Groza Award when he was named the nation's top kicker in 1998. He became the first kicker to win back-to-back Groza awards in 1999.

Janikowski set Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference records with 27 field goals in 1998. He nailed a remarkable 84.4 percent (27-of-32) field goals in 1999 and led the nation with an average of 2.23 per game. His 123 points were the most scored in a single season by a kicker in FSU or ACC history. He matched Bill Capece's Florida State record for field goals in a game by booting five at Maryland in 1998 and vs. NC State in 1999. His 53-yard field goal against Clemson tied for the third longest in Seminole history and he kicked 10 of 40 yards or more. He was named first team Associated Press and Football Writer's All-America along with earning first team All-ACC honors.

ROBERTO AGUAYO

- Placekicker
- 2013-15

2013 LOU GROZA WINNER

Roberto Aguayo became the third Seminole to win the Lou Groza Award after his record-breaking redshirt freshman season in 2013. Aguayo collected several All-America honors and All-ACC accolades while breaking the national record for points by a kicker in a season with 157 points. During Florida State's undefeated national championship run, Aguayo outscored eight the Seminoles' 14 opponents. He made 115 of his 116 kicks, including a perfect 94-94 on extra point attempts to set the FBS record for most extra points made in a season without a miss. His 94 extra points also set new ACC and FSU records. Aguayo led the nation in scoring average per game (11.2 ppg) among kickers and ranked third overall. He converted the first 70 kicks of his career - 12 field goals and 58 PATs - setting a new FSU record for consecutive kicks made to begin a career. Aguayo drilled 21 of his 22 field goal attempts, including a career-long 53-yard field goal against Syracuse.

Aguayo nearly joined Sebastian Janikowski as the second two-time winner of the Groza Award in 2014, finishing as one of three finalists for the award during a season where he captured consensus All-America honors and made 27 of 30 field goals and all 55 of his extra point attempts.

He became the most accurate kicker in NCAA history in 2015, finishing his career converting 48 of 52 field goals, while never missing an extra point.

GRAHAM GANO

- Placekicker
- 2005-08

2008 LOU GROZA WINNER

Graham Gano brought home the third Lou Groza Award in school history in 2008. That season Gano finished first in the FBS for field goals made, percentage of field goals converted and 50-yard field goals made. He was one of only two kickers in college to make over 90% of his field goal attempts that season and he was the highest scoring kicker in America. Gano was a Rivals.com, Scout.com and CBS Sports first team All-American, a Walter Camp, Associated Press, Sporting News, SI.com and Phil Steele second team All-American. He also earned All-ACC First Team honors.

Gano was the first kicker in FSU history to convert over 90% of his field goals in a season. He is the Seminoles single season record holder for 50 yard field goals and he finished second for career 50-yard field goals at FSU despite kicking for just one season. At one point in 2008 Gano made 18 consecutive field goals covering 55 days after missing his first career field goal attempt against Wake Forest. He also made five straight attempts from 50 yards or longer.

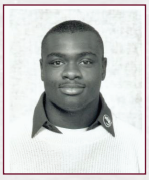
LOMBARDI AWARD

The Lombardi Award honors the outstanding college lineman/linebacker of the year, sponsored by the Rotary Club of Houston.



MARVIN JONES

- Inside Linebacker
- 1990-92

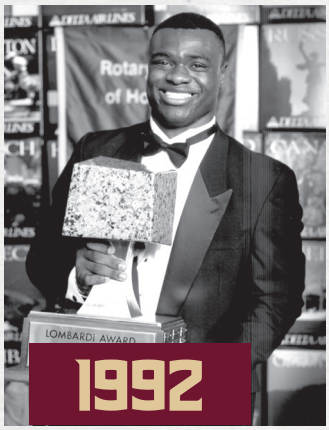
1992 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

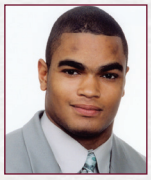
The top player in the nation in 1992, Marvin Jones became the first Seminole to capture two national awards in the same year when he earned both the Butkus Award for linebackers and the Lombardi Award for linemen and linebackers following his junior season.

Florida State's third two-time consensus All-American, Jones tallied 111 tackles and seven tackles for a loss in 1992 while leading the Seminoles to an 11-1 record. He made 10 or more tackles in nine games and finished fourth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy.

He finished his career seventh on FSU's career tackle chart with 369 and third on the all-time list with 28 tackles for loss. A first team All-ACC choice out of Miami, Fla., Florida State tailored its nationally-ranked defense to Jones' strength in 1992.

Jones left Tallahassee after his junior season for the NFL and, at the time, was the highest Seminole draft choice ever when he was selected fourth overall by the New York Jets.





JAMAL REYNOLDS

- Defensive End
- 1997-2000

2000 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

Defensive end Jamal Reynolds became just the second Florida State player to win the Lombardi Award when he was named the nation's most outstanding lineman/linebacker following his senior year.

A consensus All-American following the 2000 season, Reynolds was another in a long and prominent line of great defensive linemen for the Seminoles that included 1999 Lombardi runner-up Corey Simon. Reynolds joined Seminole star Marvin Jones who won the Lombardi in 1992 from his middle linebacker position. Reynolds led the Seminoles in sacks as a senior with 12 and forced four fumbles for a defense that was among the nation's best in 2000. He finished the year with 58 tackles including 28 unassisted stops and had two safeties on the year. His 23.5 career quarterback sacks ranks fifth all-time at FSU and his 12 sacks as a senior tied him with Ron Simmons (1977) as the fifth best season ever. Reynolds was the first FSU player selected in the 2001 NFL draft when he was taken in the first round by the Green Bay Packers with the 10th pick. Reynolds' distinction as a consensus All-American puts him in the company of Peter Boulware (1996), Reinard Wilson (1996) and Andre Wadsworth (1997), who also earned the distinction at defensive end.

RIMINGTON TROPHY

The Rimington Trophy honors the nation's most outstanding center, sponsored by the Boomer Esiason Foundation.

BRYAN STORK

- Center
- 2009-13

2013 RIMINGTON TROPHY WINNER

Bryan Stork captured consensus All-America honors as a senior in 2013, leading Florida State to an undefeated 14-0 season and the BCS National Championship in the process. Stork won the Rimington Trophy as the nation's most outstanding center and was named to the All-ACC First Team. Stork was the anchor of the Seminole offensive line that protected Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston and also was named a finalist for the Outland Trophy, presented to the top interior lineman in college football. Stork made 40 career starts and served as FSU's most consistent lineman in 2013, finishing with the highest average grade. He was the centerpiece of an offense that set a national record with 723 points scored and led the nation with 94 touchdowns. The Seminoles set FSU and ACC records for touchdowns (94) and passing touchdowns (42). Stork was drafted in the fourth round (105th overall) by the New England Patriots in the 2014 NFL Draft.

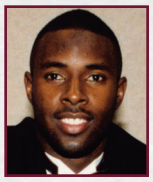
The Davey O'Brien Award honors the No. 1 quarterback in the nation, presented by the Davey O'Brien Foundation. The award is named for TCU Hall of Fame quarterback Davey O'Brien (1936-38).

The Maxwell Award is presented to the nation's outstanding college football player by the Maxwell Football Club.

The Manning Award is presented to the nation's best quarterback by the Allstate Sugar Bowl and is the only quarterback award that takes the candidates' bowl performances into consideration in its balloting. The Manning Award was created to honor the college football accomplishments of Archie, Peyton and Eli Manning.

The Johnny Unitas Award is presented by the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Foundation, to the best senior college quarterback in the country. The award is named for Hall of Fame quarterback Unitas, who played at Louisville before his 18-year NFL career.



CHARLIE WARD

- Quarterback
- 1989-93

1993 DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD WINNER
1993 JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD WINNER
1993 MAXWELL AWARD WINNER

The most decorated player in the history of college football, Charlie Ward won literally every award he was eligible for as a senior signal caller. Ward, who led the Seminoles to their first national championship, became Florida State's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1993.

A native of nearby Thomasville, Ga., Ward waited for his turn at quarterback and overcame a rough start as a junior to become the finest player in Florida State history.

Ward saw his No. 17 jersey retired and, remarkably, played in the NBA for 11 years. He also became only the second football player in history to win the prestigious Sullivan Award as the most outstanding amateur athlete in the United States.

Charlie Ward

CHRIS WEINKE

- Quarterback
- 1997-2000

2000 DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD WINNER
2000 JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD WINNER

The first three-year starter at quarterback for the Seminoles under Bobby Bowden, Chris Weinke became the second FSU player to win the Davey O'Brien Award. He became the third FSU quarterback to win the Johnny Unitas Award when he was named the nation's best quarterback joining FSU alums Charlie Ward (1993) and Casey Weldon (1991).

Weinke led the nation in passing as a senior with 4,167 yards and averaged 347.3 yards per game. Weinke led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the national championship as a junior in 1999 and compiled a remarkable 32-3 record as a starter at FSU, which ranked as the seventh best winning percentage in NCAA history.

Weinke set both the Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference record for career passing with 9,839 career passing yards and would set 26 school records during his career. His 79 career touchdown passes ranked as the 12th best performance in the NCAA history and his career passing yards placed him at 18th on the NCAA's all-time list. Weinke owns the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000.

Weinke also won the Heisman Trophy as a senior signifying his selection as the nation's best player. Weinke's No. 16 jersey was retired at a ceremony during halftime of the 2001 spring football game.

CASEY WELDON

- Quarterback
- 1988-91

1991 JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD WINNER

Quarterback Casey Weldon capped a great senior season with the 1991 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award. Weldon, who was runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, completed 189-of-313 passes for 2,527 yards and 22 touchdowns in leading the Seminoles to an 11-2 record and 4th-place finish in the Associated Press poll.

A native of Tallahassee, Weldon was truly a hometown hero who won over fans with a combination of exceptional talent and great desire. He led the Seminoles to a 10-2 win over powerful Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl as a senior.

JAMEIS WINSTON

- Quarterback
- 2013-14

2013 DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD WINNER
2013 MANNING AWARD WINNER

The dazzling playmaker and charismatic leader authored the greatest freshman season by a quarterback in college football history by leading Florida State to a 14-0 record and the 2013 VIZIO BCS National Championship. In the process, Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy at 19 years, 342 days and just the second freshman. In addition, Winston captured the Davey O'Brien Award, the Manning Award and the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award while earning Consensus All-America accolades. The Bessemer, Ala., native became the first freshman to collect the ACC Player of the Year honor in the 61-year history of the conference and also nabbed the league's ACC Offensive Player of the Year and ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year trophies. Winston elevated his performance when the stakes were highest, too. He was named Offensive MVP of the BCS National Championship Game after leading the Seminoles to a 34-31 come-from-behind victory over No. 2 Auburn in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. The Seminoles trailed by 18 points (21-3) late in the second quarter to complete the largest comeback in the game's history. Winston clinched the victory by engineering the game-winning seven-play, 80-yard drive that started with just 1:11 remaining in the game and FSU trailing 31-27 and ended with a two-yard touchdown pass to Kelvin Benjamin to give FSU the lead with 13 seconds left. Winston shattered the ACC record, Florida State record and national freshman record for touchdown passes (40) and broke the national freshman record for passing yards (4,057), while leading the nation and setting the ACC record for pass efficiency rating (184.8).

Over his two-year career, Winston passed for 7,964 yards (third in FSU history) and 65 touchdowns (second in FSU history), while compiling a 26-1 record. His career pass efficiency mark (163.28) ranked as the 10th-best in college football history and is the FSU and ACC record. Winston won his first 26 starts - a feat unmatched by major NCAA Division I quarterbacks all-time and had five fourth-quarter comebacks in his career, including a nation-leading four in 2014. He was also a valuable member of Florida State's nationally-ranked baseball team for two years as a pitcher and an outfielder, serving as the closer in 2014.

MACKEY AWARD

The John Mackey Award honors the nation's most outstanding tight end and was established in 2000. The award is named after the legendary NFL tight end who was elected to the Pro Bowl five times and won a Super Bowl title with the Baltimore Colts.

NICK O'LEARY

- Tight End
- 2011-14

2014 JOHN MACKEY AWARD WINNER

In 2014 Nick O'Leary added a new national honor to FSU Football's lore as he became the first Seminole to win the John Mackey Award as the nation's best tight end. The native of Palm Beach, Fla., finished with 48 catches for 618 yards and six touchdowns, averaging nearly 13 yards per catch (12.9). Throughout his career O'Leary was a favorite red zone target of quarterback Jameis Winston, and finished his senior season strong with four TDs over the final four games. O'Leary was a primary target for first-down conversions as a senior, with 28 of his 48 catches (58.3 percent) moving the chains. One of O'Leary's signature performances came against rival Florida on Nov. 29, 2014, when he hauled in two touchdowns to help the Seminoles come back for a 24-19 victory at Doak Campbell Stadium. An excellent blocker and pass-catcher, O'Leary's contributions helped FSU's offense average 33.7 points, 303.3 yards passing and pile up an average of 441.4 total yards of offense.

O'Leary wrapped up his four-year career as FSU's all-time leader among tight ends in career receptions (114), yards (1,591) and touchdowns (18). His 17 touchdown receptions tied for the second-most in ACC history. O'Leary collected consensus All-America honors and All-ACC first team accolades in 2014. He was a John Mackey Award finalist, All-ACC second-team selection and third-team All-American as a junior in 2013.

COACH OF THE YEAR AWARDS

BOBBY BOWDEN

- Head Coach
- 1976-2009

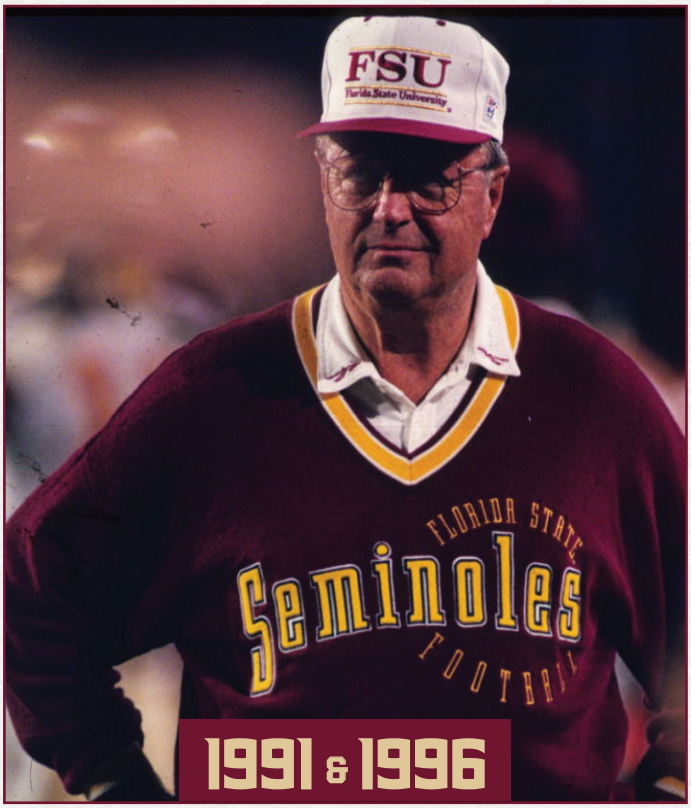
1979 ABC-TV/CHEVROLET COACH OF THE YEAR
1980 BOBBY DODD COACH OF THE YEAR
1991 WALTER CAMP COACH OF THE YEAR
1996 HOME DEPOT COACH OF THE YEAR

Legendary head coach Bobby Bowden was twice named national Coach of the Year, bringing the Walter Camp Coach of the Year honor to Tallahassee in 1991 and earning the Home Depot Coach of the Year award in 1996.

Bowden led the Seminoles to an 11-2 record and spent 11 weeks ranked No. 1 in the country in 1991. That year, FSU defeated four ranked teams, including a 51-31 win at No. 3 Michigan that broke a record for the most points by an opponent in Michigan Stadium, and ended the year with a win over No. 9 Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl.

Bowden's 1996 team capped off an 11-0 regular season with a 24-21 win over No. 1 Florida, FSU's first victory against the No. 1-ranked team in the country. That season featured four wins over top-15 opponents and concluded with a No. 3 final ranking after an appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Bowden cemented his legacy at Florida State, compiling a 316-97-4 (.763) record from 1976-2009 with two national championships, 12 ACC championships and 31 bowl appearances. He finished his career, which included head-coaching stints at Samford and West Virginia, with a 389-130-4 (.748) record. At the time of his retirement, Bowden's win total was the second-highest in major college football history. He is the only coach ever to lead his team to 10 or more wins in 14 straight seasons and also is the only coach to lead his team to 14 consecutive top-five finishes in the AP poll.



WUERFFEL TROPHY

The Wuerffel Trophy was established in 2005 and is presented annually to the FBS player who best combines exemplary communit service with leadership achievement on and off the field.

DILLAN GIBBONS

- Offensive Lineman
- 2021-22

2022 WUERFFEL TROPHY WINNER

Dillan Gibbons became the ACC's first Wuerffel Trophy winner to cap off an impressive senior season in 2022. The first-team All-ACC offensive guard and Jim Tatum Award winner as the conference's top senior football scholar-athlete also was voted captain of the 2022 Allstate Good Works Team.

Gibbons established a non-profit foundation to raise funds for those in need. His foundation partnered with collegiate ambassadors across college football and connected with charitable causes they are passionate about, including those with special medical needs, shopping with children in the community and repairing damage caused by natural disasters. His efforts resulted in nearly $500,000 being raised to support meaningful causes throughout the college football community through the end of the 2022 season.

Gibbons started all 24 games he appeared over his two seasons with the Seminoles and was a two-time all-conference selection. In 2022, he blocked for an FSU offense that led the country with an average of 7.46 plays of at least 20 yards per game and tied for the national lead with eight touchdown drives of at least 90 yards. The Seminoles also led the ACC in third-down offense, yards gained per pass, yards gained per play, yards gained per rush, total offense per game, yards per completion, rushing offense per game and scoring offense per game. FSU was one of two offenses nationally, and only one in ACC, to average at least 270 passing yards (270.2) and at least 210 rushing yards (214.1) per game. Gibbons and his offensive line mates opened lanes as FSU topped 200 rushing yards in seven straight games, tying the school record.

GOOD WORKS TEAM

The Allstate AFCA Good Works Team was established in 1992 to recognize extra efforts made by college football players and student support staff off the field. Florida State's eight all-time selections are the most from any school in Florida and rank seventh among all schools nationally.

Jamal Reynolds

Alex Barron

Rodney Hudson

58 ■ Jamal Reynolds

- Defensive End, 6-4, 254
- Aiken, S.C. (Aiken)

2000 (unanimous)

A consensus All-American following the 2000 season, Reynolds was another in the prominent line of great defensive linemen for the Seminoles…became just the second Florida State player to win the Lombardi Award when he was named the nation's most outstanding lineman/linebacker following his senior year…joins Seminole star Marvin Jones who won the Lombardi in 1992 from his middle linebacker position…led the Seminoles in sacks as a senior with 12 and forced four fumbles for a defense that was among the nation's best in 2000…finished the year with 58 tackles including 28 unassisted stops and had two safeties on the year…his 23.5 career quarterback sacks ranked fourth all-time at FSU and his 12 sacks as a senior tied him with Ron Simmons (1977) as the sixth-best season ever…was the first FSU player selected in the 2001 NFL draft when he was taken in the first round by the Green Bay Packers with the 10th pick…distinction as a consensus All-American put him in the company of Peter Boulware (1996), Reinard Wilson (1996) and Andre Wadsworth (1997), who also earned the distinction at defensive end.

70 ■ Alex Barron

- Offensive Tackle, 6-6, 308
- Orangeburg, S.C. (Wilkinson)

2003, 2004 (unanimous)

Joined Ron Simmons, Deion Sanders, Derrick Brooks, Marvin Jones, Sebastian Janikowski and Peter Warrick as Florida State's seventh two-time consensus All-American (2003 and 2004)…the only Seminole offensive lineman in school history to earn the distinction and have his locker sealed…in 2003, became the first FSU consensus All-American on the offensive line since offensive guard Jason Whitaker earned the distinction following the 1999 season…a two-time, first team All-ACC honoree…started 24 of 25 games at tackle over the final two years of his career…regarded as the nation's top pass blocker as a junior and a senior…selected in the first round of the 2005 NFL Draft by the St. Louis Rams.

62 ■ Rodney Hudson

- Offensive Guard, 6-2, 282
- Mobile, Ala. (B.C. Rain)

2010 (unanimous)

One of the finest offensive lineman in FSU and ACC history…a four-year starter who capped off his career as the most decorated offensive lineman in Atlantic Coast Conference history earning consensus first team All-American honors, the first by a Seminole since Alex Barron in 2004…one of three finalists for the 2010 Outland Trophy…won consecutive Jacobs Blocking Trophies (2009 and 2010) as the ACC's most dominant lineman and was just the second lineman in league history to be selected All-ACC four times and the first selected first team three times…nine-time ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week over the course of his career; more than any player at any position in conference history...he started all 14 games at left guard in 2010, pushing his career total to 46 career starts…played 904 snaps as a senior in 2010 and led the team with 48 knockdown blocks while being penalized just once.

45 ■ Shawn Powell

- Punter, 6-4, 235

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Five former Seminoles have been selected for the Pro Football Hall of Fame after defensive back LeRoy Butler was enshrined in 2022.

Butler joins Walter Jones and Derrick Brooks (both inducted in 2014), Deion Sanders (2011) and Fred Biletnikoff (1988) as the Seminoles that most excelled in the National Football League.

Florida State's four Hall of Fame inductees since 2011 are tied for second in the country. The Seminoles five total Hall of Fame inductees are the second-most in the state of Florida, the fourth-most among current teams in the Atlantic Coast Conference and tied for 11th among all colleges nationally.

FSU IN THE ALL-TIME BCS/CFP WEEKLY RANKINGS

FLORIDA STATE IN THE ALL-TIME BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES STANDINGS (1998-2013)

From 1998 to 2013, the Bowl Championship Series produced rankings used to identify the two teams that would play in the BCS National Championship at the end of the season after the other bowl games. The BCS relied on a combination of polls and computer selection methods to determine relative team rankings to narrow the field to two teams in order to crown an undisputed national champion. The BCS also selected matchups for the other BCS bowl games. The BCS was discontinued in 2013. Florida State appeared in the first three BCS National Championship games (1998, 1999, 2000), winning the second in 1999. The Seminoles won the final BCS National Championship in 2013.

FLORIDA STATE IN THE ALL-TIME COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF RANKINGS (2014-PRESENT)

The College Football Playoff began in 2014 and was created to select the four best teams to play for the CFP National Championship. A selection committee ranks teams based on conference championships won, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, comparison of results against common opponents and other factors. The final four teams play in two semifinal games rotating annually among the Cotton Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Peach Bowl, Rose Bowl and Sugar Bowl with the National Championship rotating to a different city each year and always playing on Monday night. The CFP rankings also selects the teams that play in the four remaining "New Year's Six" bowls that are not selected for the semifinals that year. Florida State played Oregon in the first-ever College Football Playoff Semifinal on Jan. 1, 2015 at the Rose Bowl. The Seminoles have appeared in two additional "New Year's Six" bowl games, facing Houston in the 2015 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and defeating Michigan in the 2016 Orange Bowl.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

ED WILLIAMSON
(1947) 0-5-0

Ed Williamson was appointed Florida State's first coach just a few weeks before the inaugural football season. He had no stadium, no scholarships and no team name. With only 45 ex-high school players, his teams came close to winning three games that year, although it finished 0-5. Williamson was not paid for coaching the team.

DON VELLER
(1948-52) 31-12-1

Don Veller won 30 of his first 34 games as head coach at FSU before the Seminoles began playing a major college schedule. His overall record included an undefeated (8-0) season in 1950, the year the Tribe moved into Doak Campbell Stadium. Veller owns the second highest winning percentage of FSU coaches (.716). He is credited with laying the early foundation for the FSU football program.

TOM NUGENT
(1953-58) 34-28-1

Tom Nugent had a successful coaching stint at Florida State, as indicated by his 34-28-1 record in six years at the Seminole helm. Florida State participated in two bowl games during Nugent's tenure and his 1958 squad was the first FSU team to play Florida. Nugent also served as athletic director while head coach of the Seminoles.

BILL PETERSON
(1960-70) 62-42-11

Bill Peterson took over a football program in deep trouble in 1960. When he left, 11 years and four bowl games later, he had become the most significant coach in the first 25 years of Florida State football. Under "Pete," the Seminoles went 62-42-11. The most memorable Peterson year was 1964, when the "Seven Magnificents" led Florida State to a 9-1-1 record and FSU's first ever win over Florida.

Bill Peterson led Florida State to one of the greatest seasons in school history in 1964. The Seminoles finished 9-1-1, defeated Florida for the first time and routed Oklahoma in the Gator Bowl.

LARRY JONES
(1971-73) 15-19-0

Larry Jones compiled a 15-19 record in three years as the Seminole head coach. In his first two seasons, the popular coach led his teams to a 15-8 record; but he is probably remembered most for the 1973 campaign, when his team did not win a game.

DARRELL MUDRA
(1974-75) 4-18-0

Darrell Mudra was a successful coach before arriving at Florida State, and he was successful after he left. At FSU, Mudra inherited an 0-11 team and wasn't able to bring the program back to the glory years it enjoyed under Bill Peterson. Mudra coached from the press box instead of the sidelines.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

BOBBY BOWDEN
(1976-2009) 316-97-4*

Bobby Bowden spent 34 years at the helm of the Seminole program that he resurrected beginning in 1976. By far the winningest coach in school history, Bowden accumulated more wins than the previous seven head coaches combined. He finished his career as major college football's all-time second-winningest coach. Bowden took the Florida State program to the top of the college football world and won two national championships (1993, 1999). Bowden's Seminoles were one of the most dominant bowl teams ever posting a 21-9-1 record with NCAA records for consecutive bowl wins (10) and consecutive bowl appearances without a loss (14). Bowden is the only coach in the history of college football to lead teams to 10 or more wins over 14 straight seasons. He is also the only coach ever to lead his team to 14 straight finishes among the Associated Press Top Five.

 Due to sanctions imposed on Florida State by the NCAA, the NCAA recognizes Bowden with 377 overall victories and 304 wins at FSU.*

JIMBO FISHER
(2010-17) 83-23-0

Jimbo Fisher led the Florida State program for nearly eight full seasons. He finished his career with five bowl wins, including the 2013 National Championship and two Orange Bowl titles. He earned the highest winning percentage in ACC history (.783) and his 78 wins in his first seven years were the most by a Power Five coach through their first seven seasons in modern history. Fisher guided the Seminoles to three consecutive ACC championships from 2012-2014, winning a school- and ACC-record 29 straight games in the process. In 2013, Fisher planted the Seminoles back at the top of the college football world, leading Florida State to a 14-0 record en route to the final national championship of the BCS era.

WILLIE TAGGART
(2018-19) 9-12-0

Willie Taggart returned to his home state when he was named Florida State's 10th full-time head coach on Dec. 5, 2017. The Palmetto native guided FSU through a transition in 2018 with 25 student-athletes making their collegiate debut and 19 starting as a Seminole for the first time. That year, FSU beat a ranked team for the first time since 2016. His tenure ended nine games into the 2019 season with the Seminoles holding a 4-5 record.

MIKE NORVELL
(2020-Present) 18-16-0

Mike Norvell was named Florida State's 11th full-time head coach on Dec. 8, 2019. In his first season, he led the youngest team in the country through a year impacted by the global COVID-19 pandemic, and he became the only coach in ACC history to beat a top-5 team in his first season. In year three, he led the Seminoles to their 25th 10-win season and a bowl victory over Oklahoma to finish 11th in the final AP poll.

1993
NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

- Florida State put an exclamation point on its 1993 season by capturing the program's first National Championship with a dramatic, 18-16 victory over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl on January 1, 1994.
- The Seminoles closed the year with a 12-1 record and Florida State was the first team in eight years to open the season at No. 1 and go on to win the title.
- FSU led the nation in scoring offense and defense, outscoring their 13 opponents by an average of 34 points per game.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

- The 1999 Florida State football team became the first in the history of the Associated Press poll to go wire-to-wire as the No. 1 team in the nation. The Seminoles completed their 12-0 campaign with a thrilling 46-29 Sugar Bowl victory over Virginia Tech on January 4, 2000.
- Not only did coach Bobby Bowden lead the Seminoles down a path no other team had traveled – wire-to-wire at No. 1 – he also recorded the first perfect season of his career. Along the way, Bowden picked up his 300th career victory.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

- Florida State closed out a perfect 14-0 season with an exciting 34-31 victory over Auburn in the 2014 Vizio BCS National Championship Game on January 6, 2014. It marked the first time FSU had won 14 games in a season and was only the sixth time a team had gone 14-0 in college football history.
- The Seminoles won the final national championship in the 16-year BCS era and did so by making the largest comeback in any national championship game. FSU trailed 21-3 with 5:07 left in the second quarter and outscored the Tigers 31-10 the rest of the game, culminating in a 2-yard touchdown catch by Kelvin Benjamin from Jameis Winston with 13 seconds left.
- FSU led the nation in kickoff return yardage, interceptions, passing yards allowed, red zone offense, scoring defense, passing efficiency and set an NCAA record with 723 points. The Seminoles were also top-5 in the country in 10 other categories including total defense, scoring offense per game and turnover margin.
- FSU had a 1,000-yard rusher for the first time since Warrick Dunn in 1996 as Devonta Freeman amassed 1,016 yards on the ground. The Seminoles also had players break the 1,000-yard receiving mark for the first time since Anquan Boldin in 2002 as Rashad Greene (1,128) and Kelvin Benjamin (1,011) each tallied more than 1,000 yards on the season.
- Redshirt freshman quarterback and 2013 Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston led FSU to its third undefeated season in school history.

9,908 SQUARE FEET OF HD

When the Seminoles opened up the 2016 season, fans were greeted with the tallest video board structure in college football broadcasting in 1080p true high-definition. The upgraded board is three-times larger and twice as high as the old one. The new board stands 63 feet high and it is accompanied by new high definition ribbon boards throughout the stadium. Overall, 9,908 square feet of LED displays were added to Doak Campbell.

NOV. 20, 2004

In a special ceremony prior to the Florida game on November 20, 2004, the home of Florida State football took on a meaning even more special when Bobby Bowden Field was dedicated. Now, with numerous additions to enhance the gameday experience, Seminole fans are treated to one of college football's greatest venues.

200 & 300

Bowden's 200th career victory came on Oct. 27, 1990, as FSU routed Louisiana State, 42-3, in Tallahassee. In 2007, Bowden won his 300th game at FSU on the field that bears his name with a 24-16 win over Maryland.

SOUTH ENDZONE

The south end zone houses the Florida State University School of Hospitality, where students in the program receive hands-on experience in various aspects of the food and beverage industry. The multi-level facility is also home to the Champions Club, which includes private entrances, food and drink service in chair-back seats, covered rooftops with cabanas, and WiFi access with panoramic views of downtown Tallahassee.

NORTH ENDZONE

The north end zone, which consisted of wood bleachers until the 1994 season kicked off, is topped by the offices of the football coaches. The offices are just part of the Daisy Parker Flory wing of the Moore Athletic Center which includes a number of amenities for the football staff. An even more drastic change came to completion in June of 2005 when the athletics department offices moved back into the newly rebuilt Moore Center.

NOLES WIN 300TH HOME GAME

In 2017, Florida State won its 300th home game with a 27-24 win over Syracuse. Including eight wins at Centennial Field from 1947-49, FSU is now 322-10-4 at home.

309 & COUNTING

The Noles boast a 314-104-4 all-time record at Doak Campbell Stadium with a winning percentage of .749. Overall, the Seminoles are 322-108-4 (.747) as the home team, which includes three seasons — 1947-49 — when they played their home games at Centennial Field. FSU was 8-4 at the downtown Tallahassee site, including 8-0 in coach Don Veller's first two seasons.

OCT 7, 1950

Doak Campbell Stadium opened on Oct. 7, 1950, with Florida State celebrating a 40-7 victory over Randolph-Macon. Since then, millions of fans have passed through the gates.

FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

THE MOORE ATHLETICS CENTER

The main hub for Seminole football and the Florida State Department of Athletics is the Moore Athletics Center, which is adjacent to Doak S. Campbell Stadium – and in the north endzone.

The four-story state-of-the-art building includes the football locker room, weight room, athletic training and rehab facility, tutorial and study hall space, computer labs for student-athletes, multi-purpose theatre for team meetings, press conferences and symposiums, classrooms and a dining facility with a full service kitchen and a mailroom. It's also the perfect hub of life for FSU's 400-plus student-athletes.

It's also home to the athletics administration and support staff housing the executive staff, business office, computer information services, coaches' video, Seminole Productions, college of communication faculty offices and student edit rooms, academic support, student services, compliance, sports information, digital media, marketing and promotions, facilities and event management.

The main level showcases Florida State's talented student-athletes with wall-to-wall vibrant memories of historic Seminole seasons and athletic achievements, including the 1993, 1999 and 2013 football national championships as well as FSU's three Heisman Trophy winners.

THE FLAUMENHAFT FAMILY LOCKER ROOM

The brand-new Flaumenhaft Family Locker Room was unveiled to the Florida State football team in spring of 2022. The redesign, which was done by Populous, a global leader in sport and live entertainment venue design, began immediately after the 2021 season concluded and featured a complete reimagining of the existing locker room space as well as the display areas and field entrance.

The FSU Football Locker Room Renovation was a complete redesign of the existing space and surrounding areas leading to the field. All areas were completely demolished and reconstructed with specialty graphics, branding and lighting, along with flat screen monitors and new lockers with individualized player graphics. A trophy room was added to display the rich tradition of the program and celebrate years of success with national championship, conference championship and bowl trophies as well as a unique display of football rings. Former players are also recognized through graphics on locker end-caps as well as an All-American wall display in the entryway to the locker room.

Upgraded audio and video technology elements were also part of the renovation. Club-quality speakers and specialized lighting throughout the space are synchronized from the locker room through entry corridors and out through the new Hype Tunnel to energize the space and the players on their way to the playing field.

The Hype Tunnel, which debuted for the 2021 season, features synchronized lights and music as the team makes its way to enter Bobby Bowden Field.

UNCONQUERED HALLWAY

The Unconquered Hallway is the permanent home for individual and team trophies won throughout Florida State's illustrious history. The space displays FSU's three Heisman Trophy winners as well as other individual national award winners. An interactive display for all the national award winners also is housed in the space.

PLAYERS LOUNGE

Florida State football's one-of-a-kind 6,000-square foot players lounge debuted in January 2016. The Seminoles' players lounge features three 75-inch TVs, seven arcade games and one very large 50-yard line marker on the ceiling. There are multiple living-room style seating areas, a Seminole-themed pool table and a ping pong table. There's multiple Pop-A-Shot basketball games and a football toss game.

In addition to room-wide surround sound, cell-phone charging stations and a nutrition counter, there are Garnet and Gold flourishes found in nearly every inch of the lounge.

Foosball and pool tables feature emblazoned FSU logos and wordmarks, and arcade basketball games are adorned with photos of Osceola and Renegade. Oversized versions of the Seminole head logo and spear, complete with crisp backlights, hang from the walls.

ALBERT J. DUNLAP ATHLETIC TRAINING FACILITY

AL AND JUDY DUNLAP

ALBERT J. DUNLAP ATHLETIC TRAINING FACILITY

Florida State unveiled its brand-new indoor practice facility in 2013, which allows the Seminoles to practice year-round in state-of-the-art championship facilities without disruptions from inclement weather conditions. The nearly $15-million, 92,000-square-foot facility features a 120-yard artificial turf field with a 2,000-square-foot training room, rehab area and storage space. The facility is climate controlled and includes platforms that allow for multiple video angles to be shot during practices. The field resembles Bobby Bowden Field inside Doak Campbell Stadium and includes garnet end zones.

In 2015, the facility was nominated for the American Institute of Architects Florida People's Choice competition.

FSU's two full-size natural grass fields (the Al Dunlap Football Practice Fields) outside of the facility also were updated and feature a new tower between fields for video and viewing purposes. The entire project was funded by donations, including the $5 million lead gift by Al and Judy Dunlap. Al and Judy Dunlap's lifetime giving to Florida State University exceeds $40 million.

SOD CEMETERY

Florida State's sod cemetery holds chunks of the field from 110 great Seminole road wins.

6

Spanning more than six decades, "sod games" and the Florida State University Sod Cemetery have been a rich part of the Seminoles college football history, commemorating many of the greatest victories.

1962

In 1962, as the Seminoles completed their Thursday practice in preparation to face Georgia at Sanford Stadium, Dean Coyle Moore – a long-time professor and member of FSU's athletic board – issued a challenge: "Bring back some sod from between the hedges at Georgia."

OCT. 20 - FSU 18, GEORGIA 0

On Saturday, October 20, the Seminoles scored an 18-0 victory over the favored Bulldogs. Team captain Gene McDowell pulled a small piece of grass from the field, which was presented to Moore at the next football practice. Moore and FSU coach Bill Peterson had the sod buried on the practice field as a symbol of victory. A monument was placed to commemorate the triumph and the tradition of the sod game was born.

ON THE ROAD: UNDERDOG, UF, ACC TITLE, BOWLS

Before leaving for all road games in which Florida State is the underdog, all road games at the University of Florida and all ACC championship and bowl games, Seminole captains gather their teammates to explain the significance of the tradition. Victorious captains return with a piece of the opponent's turf to be buried in the Sod Cemetery inside the gates of the practice field.

Away from home and against the odds, Florida State sod games represent the most difficult battles on the football field. The Sod Cemetery stands as a tribute to those triumphs, to be enjoyed by the Seminole faithful.

OSCEOLA

THE BEST NCAA FOOTBALL TRADITION IN THE COUNTRY

Arguably the greatest spectacle in college football unfolds moments before kickoff at Doak Campbell Stadium when Osceola charges down the field aboard Renegade, a beautiful Appaloosa, and plants a flaming spear at midfield prior to each home game. This tradition is a tribute to the great Seminole Tribe of Florida.

The tradition was born on Sept. 16, 1978, when a student, portraying the famous Seminole warrior Osceola, led the football team from the tunnel riding a horse as the Seminoles headed into battle against Oklahoma State. The first student to portray Osceola was Jim Kidder riding Renegade I. Since then, six different Renegades and 17 different riders have made the ride and planted the spear, which brings the game day crowd to its feet. In 2018, the tradition of Osceola and Renegade celebrated 40 years, including the 250th spear plant, and the 17th Osceola taking the field aboard Renegade.

Bill Durham, a 1965 FSU graduate, developed the concept of the Osceola and Renegade tradition. He launched the tradition at Florida State University in 1978 after obtaining permission from the Seminole Tribe of Florida. The Durham family provides the beautiful Appaloosa horses involved with the program and has directed the Osceola and Renegade program since its inception with the assistance of the members of the Renegade Team. The regalia used by Osceola is designed for authenticity and approved by the Seminole Tribe of Florida.

Prior to the 2011 season, ESPN's SportsNation voted Osceola and Renegade the best NCAA Football Tradition in the country. A framed rendering of the spear plant was presented to the Durham family during the Oklahoma game on Sept. 17, 2011. That rendering now resides in the Moore Athletics Center.

In 2013, Osceola and Renegade made their second appearance at a National Championship Game, traveling to the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, California, to watch the Seminoles claim their third national title. Osceola and Renegade also appeared at the Orange Bowl where Florida State won its first national championship to cap the 1993 season.

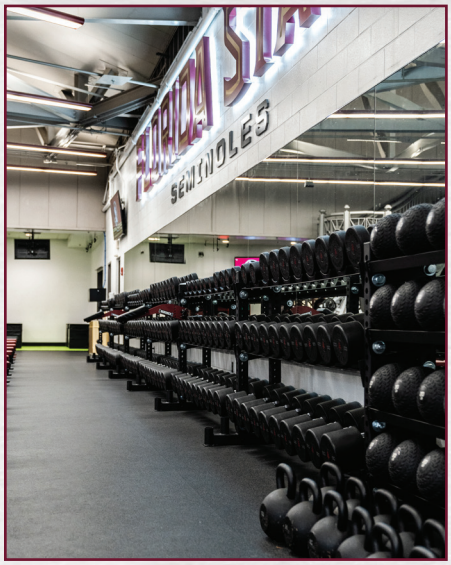
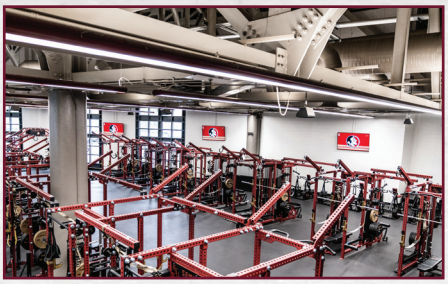
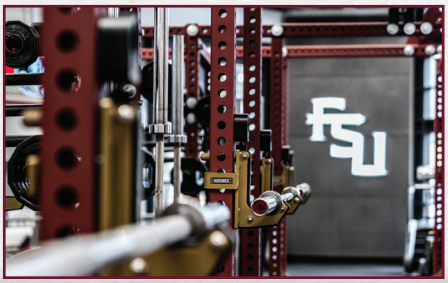
STRENGTH
& CONDITIONING

THE ROGER HOLLER CHAMPIONS TRAINING COMPLEX

The goal of the Seminole Strength program is to safely, effectively and efficiently prepare our student-athletes for the rigors of football. The Roger Holler Champions Training Complex was upgraded during the 2021-22 academic year to better serve the needs to FSU student-athletes, including all new Sorinex products. FSU has five Strength and Conditioning professionals all certified by the NSCA and the CSCCa who dedicate all of their time to football student-athletes.







PERFORMANCE
NUTRITION

MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission for the Performance Nutrition Program at Florida State University is to provide evidence-based nutrition services that will maximize the performance of our student-athletes on and off the field of play. We strive to provide nutrition that ensures maximal athletic performance as well as comprehensive nutrition education that the student-athlete can utilize throughout their lifetime.

"THE MISSING LINK"

Nutrition can often times be the "missing link" for athletes in their training. Proper nutrition can help prevent injury, enhance the benefits of strength training programs and aid in the recovery process. Adequate fueling can turn an elite athlete into a champion.

NUTRITION EDUCATION

Every interaction is an opportunity to educate the student-athletes on how to properly fuel themselves. We provide team talks, cooking classes, handouts and one-on-one counseling to provide strategies to prepare student-athletes not only for athletic success, but to educate them for life after football.

FUELING THE ATHLETE

The performance nutrition staff offers a variety of different options for student-athletes to properly fuel themselves for their performance. We provide pre/post workout nutrition tailored to the needs of each student-athlete. The sports nutrition staff also provides nutrition around competition, on the road traveling and meal planning.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The Don Fauls Athletic Training Facility was completed in 2004 and serves as the centerpiece for the daily healthcare needs of Seminole football student-athletes as well as the student-athletes for all 20 of FSU's intercollegiate teams. This 15,000 square foot facility provides FSU student-athletes with access to virtually any needed avenue of health care through the many amenities in place in the facility, as well as through the network of team and supporting physicians. Seminole football student-athletes come here to receive care for any and all types of health-related issues.

BACK ON TRACK

Seminole football student-athletes are also able to receive the very best in recovery and rehabilitation of injuries with the guidance of the Sports Medicine staff of four full-time Licensed and Certified Athletic Trainers, one of whom is also a Licensed and Certified Physical Therapist, as well as two Certified Athletic Trainer Graduate Assistant interns. At their disposal are a wide variety of tools to assist in rehabilitation including a Biodex System 3™ Iso-Kinetic exercise and testing system and an AlterG® Anti-Gravity Treadmill®.

THE NECESSARY STEPS

With the goal of injury prevention, Seminole football student-athletes are screened for mobility and stability deficiencies using the Functional Movement Screening™ and Selective Functional Movement Assessment™. The athletic training staff takes all the proper precaution before practices and games in preparing players for competition on the field.

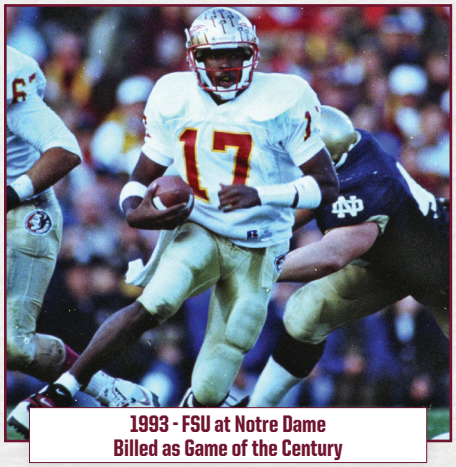
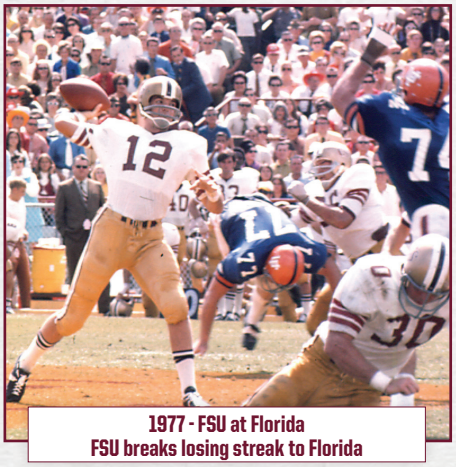
HISTORY OF FSU FOOTBALL



1993 - FSU at Notre Dame
Billed as Game of the Century



1977 - FSU at Florida
FSU breaks losing streak to Florida

1851

Florida State University actually began in 1851 when a legislative act established the Seminary West of the Suwannee. The first students enrolled in 1857 and the Florida State College was co-educational until 1905 when the Buckman Bill sent all the female students to the "new" Florida State College for Women. The huge numbers of male college students wishing to enter school on the G.I. Bill after World War II forced the legislature to make FSU co-educational in 1946.

1902-04

Thirty-three years after Princeton and Rutgers kicked off American college football, the Florida State College played three seasons of football in Tallahassee. From 1902-1904, FSC played wearing the colors purple and gold. The 1904 squad was crowned state champions after defeating the University of Florida at Lake City and Stetson.

1946

Florida State University became a co-educational institution in 1946 when the first male students were enrolled, most of whom were coming back from World War II. The transition from FSCW, which was regarded as one of the nation's top colleges, to the new institution was remarkably quick and the development of an athletics program was almost as rapid.

1947

Florida State University fielded a football team in 1947 coached by Ed Williamson. On October 18, 1947, Stetson kicked off to the FSU three yard line. Don Grant returned the kickoff to the FSU 32 and 7,165 fans at Centennial Field celebrated the first football game. The team finished 0-5 on the season.

1948

Don Veller became FSU's second football coach in 1948 and would coach the team until 1952. An outstanding player at Indiana University, Veller inherited 20 lettermen from the first year, but only 12 would letter in 1948. Veller would lose just two games over his first three years, including an undefeated 8-0 campaign in 1950.

1950

Florida State played its first football game in Doak S. Campbell Stadium on Oct. 7, 1950 against Randolph Macon. 9,676 fans watched the Seminoles win 40-7, but the new home field was a story in itself. It was built on a former cow pasture and was completed in just five months. Tallahassean Rainey Cawthon was instrumental in selling over 1,000 season tickets at $50.00 each to fund the stadium and won a wheelbarrow ride down Monroe Street from contractor Red Coleman, who missed the completion date by two days. FSU players painted the stadium over the next summer for $1 per hour.

1953

Tom Nugent became FSU's third head coach in 1953 and would coach the Seminoles until leaving to become Maryland's head coach in 1958. An innovator on a national level, Nugent developed the I-formation and the typewriter huddle. Among the players he coached were FSU greats Bobby Renn and Lee Corso as well as a talented tailback named Burt Reynolds whose career was cut short by injury.

1960-70

Florida State's arrival on the national map occurred during Bill Peterson's 11 seasons as head coach. He came in 1960 when free substitution was still five years away in the game. He moved FSU boldly into the forefront of the passing game and led the Tribe to its biggest win yet when they topped No. 5 Kentucky 48-6 in 1964. He would post a 62-42-11 record in Tallahassee. Among a host of other things, Peterson developed the concept of the "hot receiver" in 1964 that remains in most offenses today.

1964

Fred Biletnikoff became FSU's first consensus All-American as a senior in 1964. He ranked fourth nationally with 57 receptions for 11 touchdowns which did not include his four touchdowns in the Gator Bowl win over Oklahoma. Biletnikoff put FSU on the map and he was married under the goalposts at Doak Campbell in 1965. He would go on to have a Hall of Fame career with the Oakland Raiders. The national award given to the top college receiver in the country is named after him.

1966

Ron Sellers began a career at Florida State that would prove one of the most prolific in college history. He gained an unheard of 3,979 yards over his career. His statistics were so impressive that most lasted as national records all the way until 1987. He caught passes in 30 consecutive games and averaged 119.9 yards per game. He is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

1970

While integration of schools throughout the country came painfully slow, Florida State's first African-American player took the field in 1970. J.T. Thomas was a starter from the first game he played at FSU and he backed a sterling college career with three Super Bowl rings earned as a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

1971

Larry Jones coached the Seminoles from 1971-1973. An 0-11 campaign in his last year spelled the end for the coach. Among notable players during his era were outstanding wide receiver Barry Smith, quarterback Gary Huff and Alabama transfer Billy Sexton.

1974-75

Darryl Mudra coached the Seminoles for two seasons and did his work from the pressbox on game day. Perhaps the biggest accomplishment of Mudra's brief tenure, that included the NCAA mandated scholarship limits for the first time, was the signing of an unheralded running back named Larry Key. Key would prove to be one of the finest running backs in Seminole history.

1976

FSU president Stanley Marshall and athletic director John Bridgers set up a dinner meeting at an airport hotel in Tampa where West Virginia head coach Bobby Bowden was coaching an all-star game known as the American Bowl. They offered him a four-year contract worth $37,500 and he became the Seminoles' eighth head coach on Jan. 12. Bowden was interviewed for the job six years earlier when it went to Larry Jones, but FSU officials felt he lacked the experience.

1977

Florida State ended a nine year drought versus the Florida Gators in convincing style with a 37-9 victory before 63,563 fans in Gainesville. The victory capped a brilliant regular season for the Garnet and Gold. It was the ninth victory in 11 games, the first time in Seminole history the school had recorded nine wins during the regular season. And, the win also returned FSU football to respectability throughout the south since head coach Bobby Bowden had said more than once that the program "would not be turned around until we beat Florida." Thus the victory - only the third in the 20 year series for the Seminoles - was more important than any other win in recent memory for Seminole coaches and boosters.

1979-80

Florida State got its first taste of the real big-time in 1979 and 1980 going to back-to-back Orange Bowls against Oklahoma. FSU went undefeated (11-0) over the regular season in 1979, but lost 24-7 to the Sooners and finished sixth in the final AP poll. FSU took a 10-1 record into the Orange Bowl showdown the next year before losing a heartbreaker 18-17.

DID YOU KNOW?

Scholarships In '51

It was not until 1951 that Florida State began to grant athletic scholarships and the move put added pressure on the program to win. FSU left the Dixie Conference and petitioned for membership in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the Southeastern Conference but were rebuffed. Interestingly, it was the University of Florida that sponsored FSU for admission to the SEC.

Seminoles First To Score Two

The late Vic Prinzi, who is a member of the Florida State Hall of Fame and was the color commentator for the radio network until his death in 1997, was the first college player ever to score a two-point conversion. On Sept. 13, 1958, the Seminoles took the season-opening drive of the Tennessee Tech game in for a touchdown and Prinzi, playing quarterback, ran in the two-point conversion to beat the other national games by just minutes.

Football Since 1902 Actually

Florida State College actually played football during the 1902-1904 school years and played it well. The first game in 1902 was a 5-0 win over South Georgia Military on Nov. 21 when touchdowns were worth five points. The NCAA nor the governing body at the time recognizes the early games for FSC, although the school won the state championship in 1904. The 1904 season included a 23-0 win over Florida in Lake City, Fla. The school then became the Florida State College for Women and would remain one of the nation's top all-female institutions until the large number of returning veterans from World War II triggered the state system to open Florida State University to men in 1946. The school resumed football in 1947, taking on Stetson in its first game.

1980
If one game can be singled out as the most important in the run of unprecedented success at Florida State, it would be the contest at Nebraska on Sept. 7, 1980. FSU won in Lincoln, 18-14, opening the eyes of the entire country. Nebraska fans shook off a mixture of shock and confusion to stand and give Bobby Bowden and his Seminoles a standing ovation as they left the field.

1981
FSU takes on the following schools in order all on the road: Nebraska, Ohio State, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh and LSU. FSU won at Ohio State, Notre Dame and LSU, but, more importantly, won fans coast to coast for its undaunted spirit.

1981
In 1981 a freshman tailback named Greg Allen was given the football in the middle of legendary Death Valley with a sea of LSU fans around him. He finished the day with a remarkable 202 rushing yards that signaled the arrival of a superstar for the Seminoles. Later that year, he would rip Western Carolina for 322 rushing yards, which still stands as the best rushing game ever for a Seminole.

1986
Deion Sanders spent a quiet first two years at Florida State before exploding on the national scene in a preseason press conference. He would become one of the most popular players ever in college football and one of the greatest athletes in FSU history.

1991-92
On July 1, 1991, the Atlantic Coast Conference accepted Florida State University as its ninth member and the first addition to the league since Georgia Tech joined in 1978. FSU had competed in the Metro Conference for all sports other than football, which had been an independent. FSU's first ACC football game was a 48-21 win over Duke on Sept. 7, 1992.

1993
The Seminoles won their first national championship behind Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward in 1993. FSU played Nebraska in the national title game at the Orange Bowl and used freshman Scott Bentley's late field goal to win 18-16.

1995
A 31-26 come-from-behind win in the fourth quarter of the Orange Bowl against Notre Dame was FSU's 11th consecutive bowl win. The streak set an NCAA record as was FSU's 14-game unbeaten streak in bowls that was spoiled only by a 17-17 tie with Georgia in the 1984 Citrus Bowl.

1999
Bobby Bowden used to keep an empty picture frame in his office, which was reserved for his first perfect season. He filled the frame with a 1999 team photo. The Seminoles finished the year 12-0 and topped off the record run with a 46-29 win over Virginia Tech for the national championship in the Sugar Bowl.

2000
Chris Weinke literally rewrote the FSU record book over his senior season and took home the second Heisman Trophy for a Seminole player when he won the award in December of 2000. He would finish his career with a record of 32-3 as a starter.

2002
Bobby Bowden passed Bear Bryant and moved into second place on the all-time coaching wins list.

2003
Bobby Bowden defeats Wake Forest to become all-time winningest major college coach. The Seminoles won the ACC and earned the BCS bid.

2004
Bobby Bowden Field at Doak S. Campbell Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 20, 2004 prior to the Florida game.

2005
Florida State wins the inaugural ACC Championship game by a score of 27-22 over Virginia Tech in Jacksonville. Willie Reid was named the game's MVP. The conference title was FSU's 12th since joining the league in 1992.

2006
The College Football Hall of Fame announced that Bobby Bowden and Charlie Ward would be two of the year's 15 inductees. Bowden and Joe Paterno, who was also inducted, were the first two active coaches to be honored.

2007
Head Coach Bobby Bowden won his 300th career game at FSU with a 24-16 victory over Maryland.

2008
The College Football Hall of Fame announced that Ron Simmons would be one of 15 inductees. The Rhodes Trust named junior Myron Rolle one of 32 U.S. Rhodes Scholars for 2009 - the first time in nearly 25 years it has awarded the scholarship to a prominent college football player. Senior kicker Graham Gano was named the Lou Groza Award winner, making him just the second Seminole to ever garner the honor.

2009
Legendary head coach Bobby Bowden (1976-2009) and longtime defensive coordinator Mickey Andrews (1984-2009) announced their retirements during the season and said their final farewells when FSU defeated West Virginia 33-21 in the 2010 Gator Bowl. The victory secured the Seminoles' 33rd straight winning season under Bowden. It was Florida State's 28th straight bowl appearance – the nation's longest active bowl streak. Bowden retired ranked second all-time in victories for NCAA major college football.

2010
Jimbo Fisher took over the helm at Florida State in 2010 after being named the successor to legendary coach Bobby Bowden on Jan. 5, 2010. In just his first year, Fisher guided the Seminoles to a final ranking of No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. He led Florida State to the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl Championship after a season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, an ACC Atlantic Division Title and the program's first 10-win season since 2003. His 10 wins were the most by a first-year head coach at FSU and the third-most by a rookie coach in ACC history.

2013
The Seminoles earned their third national championship with a 34-31 win over Auburn in the BCS National Championship Game on Jan. 6, 2014. Redshirt freshman quarterback Jameis Winston led Florida State to a 14-0 record and its first undefeated season since 1999. Winston earned the 2013 Heisman Trophy as he finished with 4,057 yards passing and a school-record 40 TDs through the air to go along with 219 yards and four scores on the ground.

2014
Florida State won its third consecutive ACC Championship, and 15th overall since joining the league in 1992, earning a spot in the inaugural College Football Playoff. The Seminoles posted a streak of 29 consecutive wins, setting FSU and ACC records, becoming just the 14th team in college football history to win 29 games in a row.

2016
Florida State earned a New Year's Day/BCS Bowl berth for the fifth straight season. FSU's appearance in the 2016 Orange Bowl qualified FSU as one of only two teams to earn a New Year's Day/BCS Bowl berth for the five straight seasons.

2018
Willie Taggart was named Florida State's 10th full-time head coach and made his FSU debut for the 2018 season. The Palmetto, Florida, native returned to his home state, where he previously coached four years at South Florida, after serving as head coach at Oregon and also was head coach at his alma mater, Western Kentucky.

2019
The College Football Hall of Fame announced that Terrell Buckley was included in the 2019 Hall of Fame class.

2020
A new era of FSU football was ushered in on Dec. 8, 2019, when Mike Norvell was formally introduced as the program's 11th full-time head coach. Norvell came to Tallahassee after leading Memphis to three straight conference championship games.

2022
The College Football Hall of Fame announced that Terrell Buckley was named to the 2022 Hall of Fame class.

THE BOWDEN ERA

1976
Although FSU had considered dropping football due to a 4-29 record over the previous four seasons, Bobby Bowden is hired as head coach and records his only losing season at FSU with a 5-6 mark.

1977
In one season, Bowden turns the program around with a 10-2 record, FSU's first-ever 10-win season. Under Bowden's direction, FSU won its first bowl game since 1964 with a 40-17 drumming of Texas Tech in the 1977 Tangerine Bowl.

1978
Bowden and Florida State received the program's first preseason national ranking at No. 17. He led the Seminoles to a second straight win over Florida, marking the first time in history FSU had recorded two straight wins over the Gators.

1979
Bowden led FSU to the Orange Bowl in its first ever New Year's Day bowl. Bowden recorded FSU's first ever unbeaten regular season and the highest AP ranking at No. 4 entering the postseason and coached FSU to a school-record 11 wins.

1980
Bowden's 1980 team was the first in program history to finish in the AP Top 5. When it's looked at how FSU became a national power, the 18-14 win at Nebraska always comes to mind as a landmark victory. He was named National Coach of the Year (Bobby Dodd).

1981
Bowden and Florida State gained notoriety with a schedule that lined FSU up in successive weeks on the road against Nebraska, Ohio State, Notre Dame, Pitt and LSU. The Seminoles went 3-2 in that stretch while Florida State's overall schedule was nicknamed "Murderer's Row" and "Octoberfest."

1982
For the second straight year, Bowden and the Seminoles faced the nation's toughest schedule according to the NCAA. Bowden reached into his bag of tricks for a 34-17 upset win at Ohio State.

1983
Bowden surpassed former head coach Bill Peterson as the all-time winningest coach at FSU. He was inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame. The "War Chant" saw its birth and FSU sported its "mustard" uniforms for the first and only time.

1984

1985
Bowden coached FSU to its ninth straight winning season, capped off by a 34-23 Gator Bowl victory over Oklahoma State. Perhaps FSU's biggest victory came in the second game when FSU traveled to No. 10 Nebraska and defeated the Cornhuskers 17-13, a game Bowden would later call "one of the biggest wins in FSU history."

1986
Bowden and FSU recorded a 56-14 pounding of South Carolina in FSU's first-ever appearance on ESPN. Bowden led FSU to a perfect 6-0 record at home and the most points scored in a game by FSU in history with a 76-14 win over Tulsa. He was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

1987
Bowden missed his first national championship by one point when two Miami defenders knocked down a two-point conversion and FSU fell 26-25. FSU snapped a six-game losing skid to the Gators which marked Bowden's 100th victory at FSU.

1988
Bowden's preseason No. 1 ranked team fell at Miami breaking its streak of 11 opening day victories. The Seminoles would not lose again, winning 11 straight games. Bowden called one of his greatest trick plays, the Puntrooskie, at Clemson. FSU drubbed Florida 52-17 for the Seminoles' largest victory margin over the Gators.

1989
After a loss to Clemson, FSU went on to win 10 straight and earn a Top 3 ranking for the third straight year. FSU played in a third straight New Year's Day bowl with a win over Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl, extending its bowl unbeaten streak to eight.

1990
Bowden earned his 200th career victory when FSU beat LSU 42-3. The 1990 meeting with Florida marked the first time in the series that both teams were ranked in the Top 10 as No. 8 FSU defeated No. 6 UF 45-30. Bowden and FSU beat Joe Paterno's No. 7 Penn State Nittany Lions 24-17 in the Blockbuster Bowl.

1991
Bowden was named National Coach of the Year (Walter Camp) and led FSU to an 11-2 mark and fifth straight season of 10 or more wins. FSU was preseason No. 1 and stayed there 11 weeks before falling to Miami in Wide Right I. FSU defeated No. 3 Michigan 51-31, the most points ever allowed in the Big House.

THE LEGEND RETURNS

On Oct. 26, 2013, Bowden returned to Doak Campbell Stadium for the first time since his final season in 2009. In what was coined "Bobby Bowden Day," the coaching legend was honored prior to Florida State's game against NC State, which was won 49-17 by the 'Noles. Bowden planted the spear once again and gave a thank you speech to the Garnet and Gold crowd, talking about his memories as FSU's cherished leader.

BOWDEN IN BRONZE

Former head coach Bobby Bowden is bigger than life in front of the Moore Athletics Center at Florida State as a bronze statue of his likeness was unveiled in a ceremony on Sept. 24, 2004. The statue is one-and-a-half life-size of Bowden and was sculpted by Tallahassee artist Stanley Proctor. The artist also created a smaller piece of artwork, measuring just over 12 inches high, featuring Bowden and Doak Campbell Stadium.

1992
Bowden and FSU beat Duke in FSU's first game as a member of the ACC. FSU suffered Wide Right II at Miami and fans saw the birth of the "fast-break offense" in the comeback win at Georgia Tech. Marvin Jones became the first Seminole to capture two national awards. Bowden was named the 1992 Neyland Trophy Winner.

1993
Bowden brought home FSU's first national title with an 18-16 win over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. Charlie Ward became FSU's first Heisman Trophy winner and won every award he was eligible for. Bowden was named ACC Coach of the Year and led FSU to 12 victories for the first time in school history.

1994
Bowden's squad set an NCAA record with the amazing 28 point fourth quarter comeback against Florida. He led the Seminoles to another ACC Title and Top 4 national ranking. Florida State would play Florida a second time in a game dubbed the Fifth Quarter in the French Quarter, as FSU won 23-17 in the Sugar Bowl.

1995
Florida State's streak of 29 straight ACC wins came to an end with a loss at Virginia. FSU still won the ACC Championship and the victory over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl preserved its NCAA record 11th straight bowl win. Bowden earned career win No. 250 in his 20th year as Florida State's head coach.

1996
Bowden guided FSU to its second national championship game as FSU celebrated 50 years of Seminole football. Florida State fell in a rematch to Florida in the national championship. Bowden was honored as the 1996 National Coach of the Year (Home Depot). FSU finished the season ranked No. 3.

1997
Bowden and FSU went 11-1 for the second straight season, capped off by a win over Ohio State in the Sugar Bowl. Bowden recorded his 200th victory at FSU. He was named ACC Coach of the Year for the second time. FSU finished No. 3, keeping alive the streak of 11 straight seasons of Top 4 finishes in the AP poll.

1998
Bowden led FSU to its second national championship appearance in three years. FSU won another ACC Championship despite falling at NC State 24-7 in only the second ACC loss for the Seminoles since joining the league. FSU went 11-2 and with a Top 4 ranking (No. 3) and 10 or more wins for a 12th-straight season.

1999
Bowden led FSU to its first undefeated season as FSU became the first team in the history of college football to go wire-to-wire as the AP No. 1 ranked team. Bowden was named National Coach of the Year (Home Depot), a National Coach of the Decade Finalist (Home Depot) and his Seminoles were honored as the ESPN College Team of the Decade (any sport).

2000
FSU played in its third straight national championship game and fourth in five years. The 2000 season was the last of Bowden's streak of 14 straight AP Top 5 finishes and 14 straight seasons of 10 or more wins. The Seminoles finished the season 11-2, 8-0 in the ACC and a No. 5 ranking in the AP final poll.

2001
For the first time since joining the ACC in 1992, Bowden's Seminoles did not win the ACC championship but still went to their 11th straight New Year's Day bowl with an invitation to the Gator Bowl where FSU defeated Virginia Tech. With that win, Bowden tied Bear Bryant for second place on the all-time coaching wins list with 323.

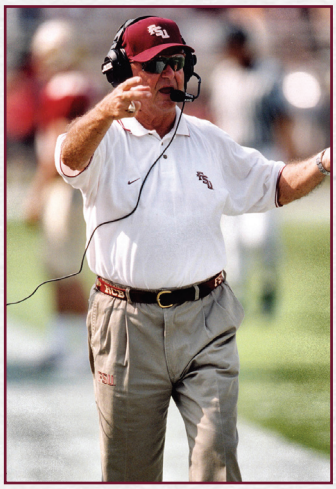
2002
Florida State returned to the top of the ACC and the Seminoles played Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. FSU concluded the season ranked 21st in the final AP poll. During the season, Bowden recorded his 250th victory at Florida State and 325th victory of his career.

2003
Bowden led FSU back to another 10-win season and passed Joe Paterno as the all-time winningest major college football coach. The Seminoles captured the ACC title, its 10th in 12 years, and earned the BCS bid to the Orange Bowl, marking FSU's 22nd straight postseason trip and 13th consecutive January bowl game.

2004
Bowden coached FSU to its 23rd straight bowl and a No. 15 final ranking as he recorded FSU win No. 275 and career win No. 350 during the season. The field at Doak Campbell Stadium was named Bobby Bowden Field, a stained glass window depicting Bowden and a statue of his likeness were placed in front of the stadium.

2005
Bowden guided FSU to another ACC title in the inaugural ACC Championship game with a 27-22 win over Virginia Tech in Jacksonville which propelled FSU into the FedEx Orange Bowl against Penn State. The game was Bowden's 24th consecutive bowl, as he coached against Joe Paterno in an epic triple OT game.

2006
Bowden was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The Seminoles made their longest road trip in school history, venturing 2,600 miles to San Francisco for the Emerald Bowl where they beat UCLA. The game marked FSU's 25th straight bowl appearance and the win extended Bowden's winning-season streak to 30.



2007
Bowden earned his 31st consecutive winning season with a 7-6 record and made a Music City Bowl appearance. Bowden reached another milestone in his decorated career when he earned his 300th win at Florida State in a 24-16 victory over Maryland.

2008
Bowden coached his 'Noles to a 9-3 record, No. 21 national ranking and a tie for 1st in the ACC Atlantic Division. FSU concluded the season with a win over Wisconsin in the Champs Sports Bowl and touted the nation's longest bowl streak at 27 straight. In FSU's win over Colorado in Jacksonville, Bowden recorded his 500th game as a head coach.

2009
On December 1st, Bowden announced that the bowl game would be his last as head coach of Florida State. He was carried off the field in his final game as his Seminoles defeated West Virginia, the school he coached prior to coming to FSU, in the Gator Bowl.

FSU FOOTBALL TRADITION

FSU Fight Song

While the "War Chant" has become familiar at FSU games, the Florida State fight song still remains the definitive sound of Seminole sports. FSU's band became the Marching Chiefs in 1950 and with that came the fight song. Tommy Wright, a member of the faculty in the School of Music, was perturbed that the Seminoles had been using "On Wisconsin" and the "Notre Dame Victory March" so he introduced the song in the Sewanee game, setting to music a poem by FSU Alumni Doug Alley.

History of the Garnet and Gold

Florida State's school colors of garnet and gold date back to the Florida State College championship football teams of 1904 and 1905. In those championship seasons, FSC donned purple and gold uniforms. When Florida State College became Florida Female College in 1905, the football team was forced to attend the University of Florida. The following year the FFC student body selected crimson as the official school color of 1905. The administration in 1905 took crimson and combined it with the recognizable purple of the championship football teams to achieve the color garnet. The now-famous garnet and gold colors were first used on an FSU uniform against Stetson on Oct. 18, 1947.

War Chant

Florida State's "war chant" appears to have begun with a random occurrence that took place during a 1984 game against Auburn. In the 1960s, the Marching Chiefs would chant the melody of a popular FSU cheer. In a sense, that chant was the long version of FSU's current "war chant." During a thrilling game with Auburn in 1984, the Marching Chiefs began to perform the dormant melody. Some students behind the band joined in and continued the "war chant" portion after the band had ceased. Most agree the chant came from the fraternity section, but many spirited Seminole fans added the now-famous hand motion. The chant continued among the student body during the 1985 season, and by the 1986 season, it was a stadium-wide phenomenon. Of course, the Marching Chiefs refined the chant, plus put their own special brand of accompaniment to the "war chant," for the sound we hear today. Atlanta Braves fans took up their version of the song and chant when former FSU star Deion Sanders came to the plate as an outfielder. The Kansas City Chiefs first heard it when the Northwest Missouri State band, directed by 1969 FSU graduate Al Sergel, performed the chant while the players were warming up for a game against San Diego.

Goal Posts Salute Peterson

The Bill Peterson era as head football coach at FSU was a time of great offensive innovation and of many firsts for the upstart Seminole program, including the first Seminole coach to beat the Gators at Florida Field, coaching the program's first All-American in Fred Biletnikoff and recruiting James Thomas, the first African American player to ever play football at FSU. A tradition of the Peterson era was to enter the field through the goal posts. As a tribute to the players and coaches of the Peterson era and their many firsts, "H" style goal posts were added to the field at Doak Campbell Stadium prior to the 2002 season and will forever be referred to as "Pete's Posts."

Tomahawks Can Be Won and Lost

Florida State's coaching staff and academic staff award tomahawks to individual players for great plays or contributions on the field and in the classroom. Players may get a tomahawk for a crucial play, a touchdown, a saving tackle or various other achievements on the field. In 1997 the Seminoles began receiving tomahawks for outstanding academic achievements as well. They look identical except the word academics runs down the handle of the tomahawk. What many fans do not know is that Florida State players can actually lose tomahawks as well. Poor performance on the field or in the classroom can cause a player to be stripped of the coveted decals.

SPECIAL LANDMARKS

"Unconquered"

Dedicated on Oct.10, 2003, Fritz White's bronze statue "Unconquered" was designed to capture the indomitable spirit of the Seminole people and those who have adopted that spirit as a symbol for their university. The massive structure, including its granite-covered pedestal base, stands approximately 31 feet in the air and depicts a spear-brandishing Seminole astride a rearing horse. At sunset the night before each home game, the spear is ignited and burns until sunrise on the morning after the game. George Langford's endowment of the project for up to $1 million helped make the statue a reality. Fifty-one artists were then considered before White eventually saw the statue dedicated 10 years after the concept was inspired by attorney and FSU graduate Stephen Reilly's trip to South Bend, Ind. for an FSU football game.

Sportsmanship Statue

Between Gates B and C of Doak Campbell Stadium stands the one ton, 15-foot tall Sportsmanship Statue given in honor of Pappy Strum by his daughter Margaret Strum Allesee, who is an FSU graduate and former Seminole cheerleader. The enduring symbol of the most important aspect of athletic competition was sculpted by FSU alumnus and accomplished artist Edward Jonas.

Three Different Helmets to One

For one season in 1962 the Florida State Seminoles took the field with three different helmets. Coach Bill Peterson's three-team system featured the two-way Chiefs, the defensive Renegades and the offensive Warriors with each group wearing a different helmet. By 1963 the Seminoles were back to just one helmet, an all-gold version which once again lasted just one season as the word "State" was added in 1964.

NIKE

VISION

As Florida State University leads and embraces the future — entering new markets, connecting with new students, faculty and staff, and expanding its presence —it is essential that the Florida State Athletics brand grows with the university. The objective of this exercise is to make sure that the brand is consistent across all applications and captures new audiences in an authentic and meaningful way. The Seminole Tribe of Florida was consulted through the brand development process and approved all modifications of these beloved symbols.

THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS BRAND

What are the elements that make up our Brand Identity? The words you choose. The type you use. The colors, graphics, and imagery you display. A unique and iconic primary logo. The way you position and apply the primary logo. These are the key building blocks that help tell the Florida State story and shape people's perception of Florida State University.

Perfection is in the details. Underlying all Florida State brand expressions is a detailed, well-ordered system of visual assets. This unified system defines the Florida State experience.

EVOLUTION NOT REVOLUTION

At first glance, the new Florida State Brand Identity System may look revolutionary. It's bold and intriguing. It's designed to serve as an evolution of an already iconic identity and position the brand for the future.

BRAND ATTRIBUTES

Brand Attributes are a set of characteristics that represent the essence of the Florida State brand. These attributes identify personality traits and serve as a filter for all of the components of the identity system. When you experience the Florida State brand, we want you to be reminded of:

RESPECT | INTEGRITY | STRENGTH | PRIDE
CHARACTER | FIGHT | PASSION | LEADERSHIP
FAMILY | TRADITION

PRIMARY IDENTITY– THE SEMINOLE LOGO

The Seminole logo is indisputably iconic and unique to Florida State Athletics. It signals a consistent foundation—honoring the brand equity that has been built across decades of competition while creating distinction and reinforcing the brand for the next generation. The mark is strong, youthful and bold paying off the true attributes of a Seminole Warrior. It purposefully incorporates the Florida State color palette, and with the head held high it expresses our position with purpose and conviction.

The Seminole logo is the primary representation of the brand and is used as the main identifying device for athletics. Reinforcement of the primary identity will build equity in Florida State Athletics. In primary or secondary colors, the Seminole logo works well across all media. With a flexible approach to palettes and logo staging, the Seminole logo now comes alive with renewed spark and energy.

FSU LOGO

The FSU Logo is a stylistic ligature. At the origin of typographical ligatures is the simple running together of letters in manuscripts. In writing and typography, a typographic ligature occurs where two or more letters are joined as a single glyph.

The FSU Logo was created from the custom unconquered alphabet. It works closely in support of the primary identity to represent Seminole Athletics. This type-based mark gives the identity flexibility while staying consistent with the main look and feel.

SEMINOLE SPEAR

Perhaps the most spectacular tradition in all of college football occurs in Doak Campbell Stadium when a student portraying the famous Seminole leader, Osceola, charges down the field riding an Appaloosa horse named Renegade and plants a flaming spear at midfield to begin every home game. Together, Osceola and Renegade highlight a pre-game ritual, considered to be one of the most popular in the nation.

Florida State's trademark helmet with the Seminole spear is well known throughout all of college football. This design was first introduced during Bobby Bowden's first year as head coach in 1976. Prior to that season, FSU had used a variety of different helmets ranging from gold with a garnet FSU, solid gold with garnet and white striping, an image of the state of Florida with STATE running down it, and various others. The refined spear now reflects the same visual language as the other elements of the identity system.

SEMINOLE PATTERN

In the early 1900s, a new decorative technique was developed by Seminole women, now commonly known as patchwork. Early patterns included blocks and bars of alternating color with occasional sawtooth designs that were sewn directly into garments. Patchwork was rapidly adopted as a standard means of embellishing the Seminoles' traditionally vibrant clothing. These authentic and meaningful patterns live on through today's Seminole natives, and are now an official element of the performance apparel palette for Florida State Athletics.

FSU and Nike were determined to incorporate meaningful symbolism into their uniforms and designers included Seminole lore in each element. The Seminole symbols for Arrow, Man on Horse and Fire (top to bottom, repeating) were the inspiration for this unique pattern.

ACC

THE TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

In today's intercollegiate athletics, competition is so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency. Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds.

Established in 1953, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Through 70 years of competition, ACC schools have captured 182 NCAA team championships, including 92 in women's competition, 85 in men's sports and five in fencing. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 204 times in men's competition and 201 times in women's action.

Since 2015, the ACC has won a combined seven national championships in football, men's basketball, women's basketball and baseball. The ACC is the only conference to win each of those four titles over that stretch.

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The ACC conducts championship competitions in all 27 sports – 13 for men and 14 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming at North Carolina State University on February 25, 1954.

The 13 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming & diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, wrestling, baseball, tennis, and golf and lacrosse. Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet held in tennis October 6-8 at Wake Forest University. Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, field hockey, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming & diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing, with volleyball deciding its champion by regular-season play. Men's lacrosse also determines its champion via regular-season competition.

The ACC's sports sponsorship is slated to grow to 28 (15 women, 13 men) with the addition of women's gymnastics in 2023-24. No Autonomy Five conference sponsors more than 28 sports. The soon-to-be 15 women's sports will be the most of any peer conference.

2022-23 YEAR IN REVIEW

The conference completed championship competition in all 27 sports with 14 different schools claiming at least one conference crown. The ACC led all conferences in 2022-23 with nine NCAA titles in sports it directly sponsored, and ACC student-athletes accounted for 28 individual national championships. The ACC has averaged more than four national team titles per year over the past quarter-century (113 in 26 years) and has won multiple NCAA titles in 39 of the past 42 years.

The ACC's nine national team titles in 2022-23 eclipsed the previous league record of seven first set in 2009-10 and matched in 2021-22.

Academically, the member institutions of the ACC again led the way among Power 5 conferences in the "Best Colleges" rankings released by US News & World Report. ACC member institutions combined for an average rank of 54.5, marking the 16th straight year that the ACC led all Power 5 conferences.

2022-23 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Women's Cross Country	NC State
Field Hockey	North Carolina
Men's Soccer	Syracuse
Women's Swimming and Diving	Virginia
Fencing	Notre Dame
Men's Tennis	Virginia
Women's Tennis	North Carolina
Women's Golf	Wake Forest
Men's Lacrosse	Notre Dame

ACC HISTORY

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, North Carolina with seven charter members – Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest – drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, North Carolina, where a set of bylaws was adopted, and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were Dixie, Mid-South, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when South Carolina tendered its resignation. The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of Miami and Virginia Tech. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

The ACC added its 13th and 14th members on Sept. 18, 2011, when Pittsburgh and Syracuse accepted invitations to join the conference. The two schools officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013. Notre Dame also officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013, after announcing on Sept. 12, 2012 its intention to enter the league for competition in all sports but football, bringing the membership of the conference to 15. The Fighting Irish will play five games with ACC schools each year.

On July 1, 2014, Louisville entered the ACC on the same day Maryland withdrew, keeping the conference's membership at 15 institutions.

THE SEMINOLE TRIBE OF FLORIDA

THE UNCONQUERED PEOPLE

By Barry Ray, FSU Office of News and Public Affairs

As a people, few have prevailed over more trying circumstances than the Seminole Indians of Florida. Over the course of almost two centuries, Florida's Seminoles endured three wars with the U.S. government, resisted numerous efforts to relocate them to federal reservations in the West, and ultimately made their home in one of the world's most inhospitable environments, the Florida Everglades. That they have not only survived, but thrived — all the while maintaining their fierce independence and rich culture — is a tribute to their courage and perseverance. This is their story.

Long before European explorers ever visited the area now known as Florida, native peoples had been living here for thousands of years. In fact, as many as 100,000 members of four Indian nations — the Apalachee, the Tequesta, the Timucua and the Calusa — were living in highly organized settlements throughout the peninsula when the Spanish first arrived in 1513.

The native peoples' lack of resistance to smallpox, yellow fever and other "European" diseases, as well as later slaving raids from the English colonies of Georgia and South Carolina, eventually decimated their numbers. By the mid-18th century, the Indian nations of Florida had ceased to exist.

In their place, groups of Indians from a confederation of tribes collectively referred to as the Lower Creeks began moving into Florida from Alabama and Georgia. They had been pushed out of their former homes by the encroachment of white settlers, as well as by conflicts with other tribes. It was around this time that the name "Seminoles" first appeared; there are several possible explanations as to its origins.

When the first English speakers began arriving in Florida in 1763, they found many Creeks living as yat'siminoli, or "free people," across the northern part of the Florida peninsula. ("Yat'siminoli" was a term used in the Mikisúkî, or Miccosukee, language, which still is spoken today.) The settlers may have simply ignored the Indians' separate tribal affiliations and called them all Seminolies, or Seminoles.

Others believe that the Seminole name comes from the Spanish word cimarron, meaning "wild men" or "unconquered." The Indians may have been given this name because they had escaped from slavery in the English-controlled colonies to the north.

With the end of the American Revolutionary War in 1784, English-speaking settlers began moving southward in ever greater numbers, buying or seizing land from the native inhabitants. By 1813, some of the Creek tribes in Alabama rose up against the white settlers and the Indian tribes that supported them. This conflict, known as the Creek War of 1813-14, proved disastrous to all of the tribes. U.S. troops led by Gen. Andrew Jackson crushed the uprising and forced a treaty on the Creeks that took more than 2 million acres of land from them. Several thousand Creek warriors and their families migrated south into Spanish Florida, where they and the Seminoles increased their resistance to white settlement.

In 1814, such conflicts escalated into the first of three Seminole wars. Over the next four years, Jackson illegally entered Spanish Florida numerous times to burn Seminole villages and kill resistance leaders.

With the end of the First Seminole War in 1818, many Indians moved further into Florida. By 1820, the year before Spanish Florida became a U.S. territory, there were at least 5,000 Seminoles, Creeks and Mikisúkî people living here. However, a series of federal treaties failed to protect their rights and, in 1835, war broke out again.

The Second Seminole War (1835-42) proved to be the longest, most costly, and the last of the U.S. wars of Indian removal fought east of the Mississippi River. It also would be the first guerilla-style war faced by U.S. troops. Led by the fierce warrior Osceola, the Seminoles were aided by runaway slaves, who received protection from their allies in return for a portion of the agricultural staples that they grew. These so-called "Black Seminoles" also had a reputation as fierce fighters, and were equally determined to preserve their freedom.

THE SYMBOL: SEMINOLES

Florida State would play two games in 1947 before students demanded the school acquire a symbol. While details conflict, most believe the account of a poll of the student body is accurate. The Florida Flambeau reported that Seminoles had won by 110 votes over Statesmen. The rest of the top contenders (in order) were Rebels, Tarpons, Fighting Warriors and Crackers.

In the 1950s, a pair of students dressed in Native American costumes and joined the cheerleaders on the field which eventually evolved into the majestic symbol of Osceola and Renegade that FSU now enjoys. Today, the Seminole Tribe of Florida participates in many campus activities.

Florida State University is proud of its longstanding cooperative relationship with the Seminole Tribe. The Seminole people have suffered many hardships and injustices, but they have remained brave, dignified and proud. The Seminoles are unconquered. They symbolize what we hope will be the traits of all of our graduates, including our student-athletes.

The fighting ended in a stalemate in 1842, and an uneasy peace lasted for 14 years. In 1856, however, Seminole leader Billy Bowlegs and his followers were provoked by U.S. soldiers. They retaliated, and the ensuing series of skirmishes became known as the Third Seminole War (1856-58).

When U.S. troops once more withdrew — again with no treaty or victory — the Seminole Wars finally ended. All told, more than 3,000 Seminoles had been forcibly removed from Florida to the Western territories of Arkansas and Oklahoma. As few as 300 remained in Florida, and they took refuge within the dense swamps of the Everglades. However, their place in history was assured as the only American Indian tribe never to have signed a peace treaty with the U.S. government.

From the 1920s onward, as the development boom exploded in South Florida, the Seminoles lost more and more of their hunting lands to tourists and settlers. They became agricultural workers in the vegetable fields of South Florida, and also ran tourist attractions, wearing their colorful patchwork clothing, producing souvenirs and wrestling alligators.

On Aug. 21, 1957, the Seminole Tribe of Florida was established through a majority vote of Florida's Seminole Indians. This vote gave the Seminoles federal recognition as a self-governing tribe with a constitutional form of government. The Seminole Tribe of Florida now has almost 3,000 members living on five reservations across the peninsula at Hollywood, Big Cypress, Brighton, Immokalee and Tampa.

The Seminoles work hard to be economically independent. Tourism and gaming profits pay for infrastructure and schools on their reservations, while citrus groves, cattle agriculture, aircraft production, tobacco sales, land leases and aquaculture are other significant sources of revenue.

Having persevered through two centuries of adversity, the Seminole Indians of Florida have earned the right to call themselves "the unconquered people." Their indomitable spirit is one that Florida State University proudly seeks to emulate in all of its endeavors.
