

THE SEMINOLE EXPERIENCE

BUILDING CHAMPIONS

During an individuals stay at Florida State, the Seminoles take pride in developing the complete athlete. Community service, speaking engagements, social activities and media activities are a part of everyday life for FSU student-athletes. The Florida State Sports Information Department makes it a priority to promote all student-athletes and the Seminoles media coverage is among the best in the nation. In fact, many of the country's top writers from newspapers all over the nation live in Tallahassee and specifically cover Florida State athletics!

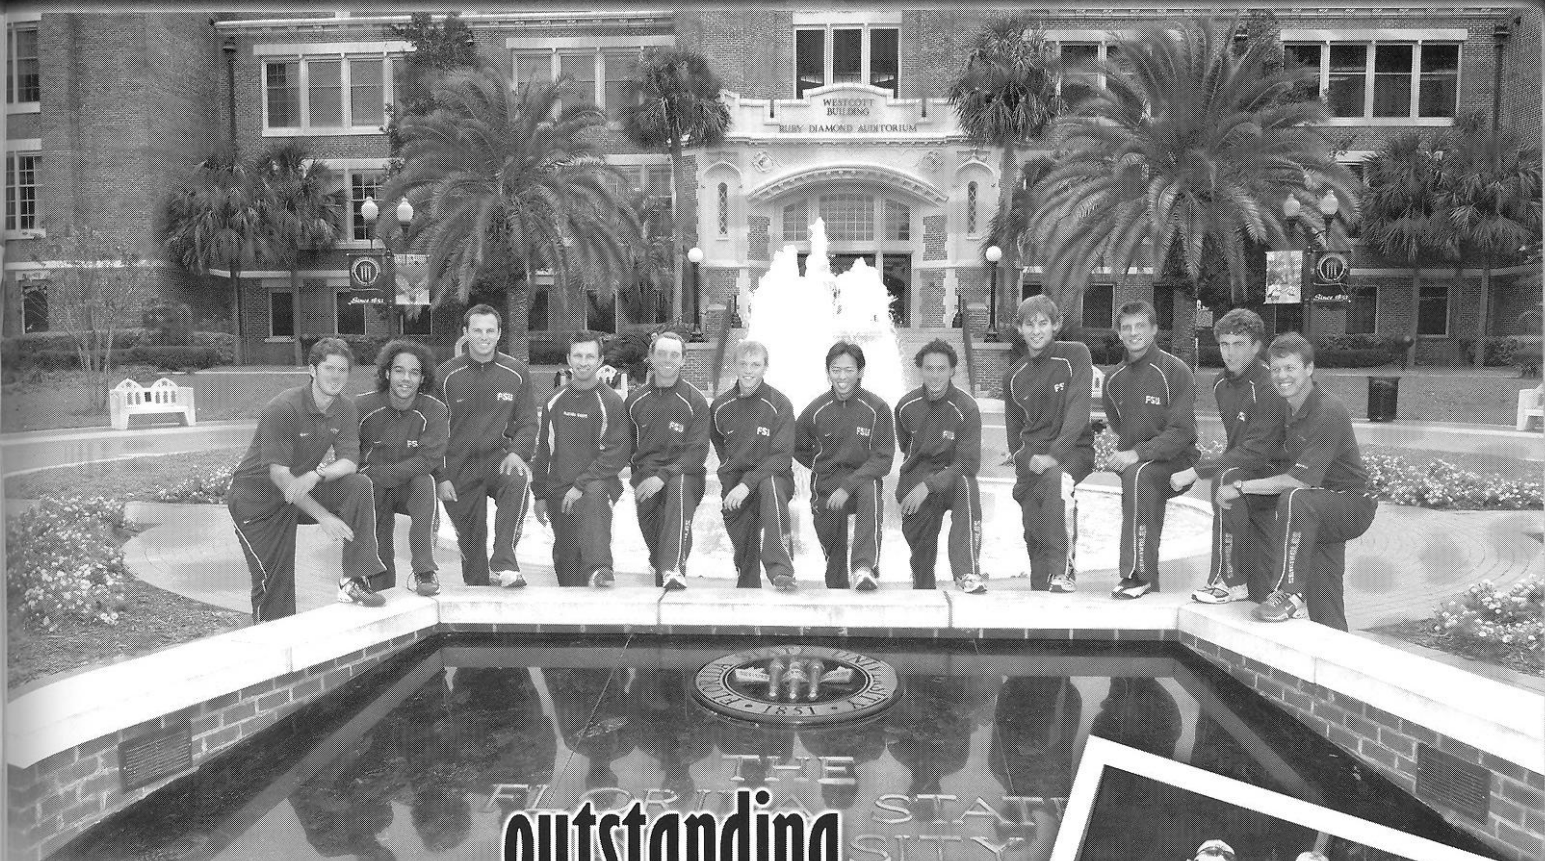

Community service, media coverage, sunny climate, incredible athletic facilities and outstanding fan support are some of the reasons it's fun to be a Seminole!

Loose Talk

"When I walk through the Moore Athletic Center all I can think is I hope to see my team's banner up there after we win the National Championship. I also hope to see myself in the Hall of Fame at Florida State."

Ytai Abougzir

"This is my first year at Florida State and I really enjoy the campus and all the cool people I have met. My experience here has been very exciting."

Andrew Bailey

"The FSU tennis team is always together. We are our own fraternity. My team feels like my family."

Jason Hood

"I enjoy going to the football games and hanging out with my friends and tailgating."

Chris Westerhof

"There are so many things I love about Florida State. There are the obvious reasons like the facilities and the winning tradition but I also love the weather, sports, and girls."

Jonathas Sucupira

"I think this program has a great future. I'm an upper classmen and every year our team has improved with us reaching the Elite Eight last year. I'm sure our team will keep improving and this should be an even greater year with even greater memories."

Chris Westerhof

"When I walk through Moore Athletic Center and see the legacy on the walls...I am inspired to one day try to join them."

Andrew Bailey

"Coach Hultquist is a nice guy on and off the court. He organizes team events for us away from tennis and helps out his players with anything."

Sam Chang

"I have so many favorite things about playing for Florida State, but the things that stick out in my mind are the meals, away trips, staying in nice hotels, going to Hawaii and Los Angeles. It's the things off the court I'll never forget 10 years from now."

Ytai Abougzir

"When I walk through the Moore Athletic Center I am inspired, especially because my brother is up there. My hope is to someday join him."

Chris Cloer

"When I walk through the Moore Center I realize what I am representing. FSU has a strong tradition and history of greatness."

Jason Hood

"As a team we hang out a lot and do things together like shop and go to the movies. We are more like a family."

Sam Chang

How the Seminoles describe their coach, Dwayne Hultquist, in two words:

 Ytai Abougzir: Involved, Caring
 Chris Cloer: Hardworking, Leader
 Ryan Boyajian: Determined, Motivating

Fun Facts About The Seminoles:

Jonathas has 25 uncles and loves computers.

Jason's hometown changes frequently because his father is in the United States Army. He is a 2-Star General in GTMO Bay right now.

Chris Westerhof loves to fish!

Sam was the hitting partner for Serena and Venus Williams. He also moved to the United States from Taiwan when he was 12 years old.

Andrew grew up with a tennis court in his backyard!

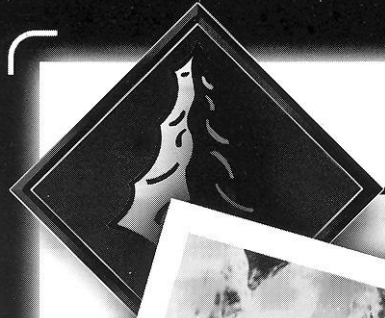

Chris Cloer painted his body for every single basketball game at Brevard High.

Ryan is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon and he is an engineering major.

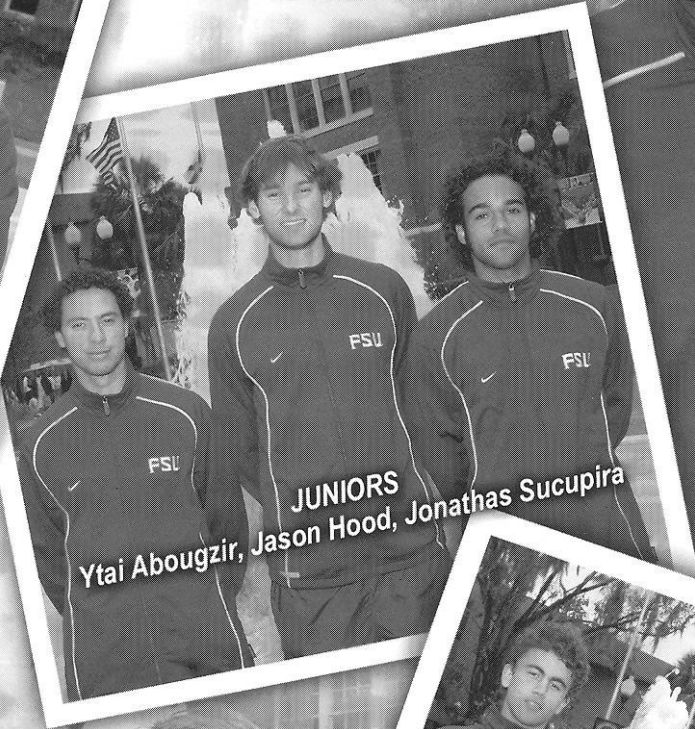

Ytai's father was a professional soccer player for 20 years. He is like Michael Jordan in Israel. Everyone knows him.

Maciek is a member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) at Florida State
