QUALITY LEADERSHIP

When head coach Dwayne Hultquist took over Florida State's men's tennis program in 2000, the Seminoles were seventh out of nine teams in the ACC and barely ranked in the top 60 nationally.

Under his leadership, Hultquist morphed the Seminoles into a winning sensation, coaching the team to the No. 7 ranking in the country in 2008, the highest in program history. Hultquist's coaching expertise led the men's tennis team to be recognized as a top contender in the conference and across the nation revamping the perception of the program. As the winningest coach in program history, Hultquist has brought Florida State men's tennis a sense of confidence and success that had not been seen before.

PRESTIGIOUS PROGRAM

Florida State is known for developing elite talent and their reputation was further sustained when the men's tennis team was invited to compete in the NCAA Tournament for their ninth consecutive season. This would not have been possible without assistance from the Seminoles' superb athletes such as five-star blue chip recruits Blake Davis and Michael Rinaldi and five-star recruits Andres Bucaro, Anderson Reed and Dominic Cotrone. In 2012, the Seminoles went to the NCAA Tournament for the 10th consecutive season and advanced to the semifinals of the ACC tournament for the first time since 2009.

NATIONAL ACCOLADES

With having such a successful program over the past 10 years, it is not a surprise that there would be some exceptional athletes playing for the Seminoles. In 2011, the Seminoles added two more All-Americans in Vahid Mirzadeh and Connor Smith when they reached the round of 16 in the Doubles NCAA Championships. Prior to that, the 2009 ACC Player of the Year, Jean-Yves Aubone, was named an All-American in singles in both 2008 and 2009. Mat Cloer, a two-time ACC Player of the Year, was named the first All-American singles athlete in program history in 2005. The only other All-Americans are Ken McKenzie and Brian Stanton who earned the honor in doubles in 1995.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

A key part to maintaining Florida State's reputation as an elite collegiate team is having ambitious athletes that continue to ace the competition on and off the court. Florida State was recognized as only one of six schools to have multiple athletes named to the 2012 All-ACC Academic Team. Vahid Mirzadeh became the second athlete in school history to be honored with the prestigious national 2011 ITA Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsman Award (with Mat Cloer the first winner in 2005). In 2010, Jean-Yves Aubone was named the ACC Men's Tennis Scholar-Athlete of the Year while FSU men's tennis has placed 38 student-athletes on the ACC Honor Roll since 2005.

SCOTT SPEICHER TENNIS CENTER

With the first stage of the construction completed in the summer of 1993, the Scott Speicher Tennis Center at the Donald Loucks Courts opened its gates to the public for the first time at a Children's Miracle Network charity tournament. Since then, many successful tournaments including the 1996 NCAA Women's Championships and 2007 and 2008 NCAA Regionals have graced the courts at one of Florida State University's premier athletic facilities. During the fall of 2012, the Seminoles hosted the ITA Southeast Regional Championships for the first time.

The Scott Speicher Tennis Center houses 12 lighted hard courts, over 1,000 court level seats, coaching offices, men's and women's locker rooms, equipment and storage rooms, two team lounges and a public address system. The growing pride Florida State has for its tennis program was honored just after its opening in 1994, when the United States Tennis Association (USTA) awarded the structure with its "Top Notch" facility award.

The Scott Speicher Tennis Center was named in honor of Lieutenant Commander Michael Scott Speicher, a graduate of Florida State University. Speicher was considered the first American casualty during Operation Desert Storm, but was later reclassified by the United States government as missing in action in 2001 and missing or captured a year later. However, in 2009 Speicher's remains were found in the Anbar province of Iraq after a nearly 20-year search. The Scott Speicher family was later honored by Florida State at a home football game with a missing man formation flyover from the Navy. By Presidential directive, the facility bears the name the "Scott Speicher Tennis Center."

The varsity tennis courts were named for Donald Loucks in 1981. He served as Dean of men from 1957-1967 and was known as a servant of leadership, service and devotion to many worthy causes. In 1947, Loucks became Florida State's first men's basketball coach and a year later was named the school's first tennis coach. His tennis team was the first athletic team.

Scott Speicher Tennis Center was designed by EMO/Architects, Inc., a Tallahassee-based architectural firm, in collaboration with Global Consult Group, Inc., an internationally recognized Tennis Facility Design Consultant.

Did you know...

- ...Florida State has not had a losing record at home since Scott Speicher opened in 1993
- ...The Noles are 180-68 all-time at Speicher since 1994, a 73% winning percentage
- ... Florida State has never had a losing season at home under Dwayne Hultquist
- ...Florida State holds a 120-50 record at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center since 2000 with a 71% winning percentage
- ....The team is 62-19 at home since 2007, good for a 77% winning percentage

INDOOOR TENNIS FACILITY

After breaking ground on construction in January of 2010, the Indoor Tennis Facility was completed in April of 2011. The multimillion dollar indoor practice facility serves as an additional playing arena for the Florida State tennis teams. Since the completion in spring of 2011, the facility has served as both a site for training and competition.

The building hosts six regulation courts, locker rooms, athletic training room, equipment room, office and lobby. With this new facility, both Seminole Tennis teams are equipped with the tools to host both regional and national championships now and in the future. For the next phase, plans are in place to add spectator seating, team lounges, extended locker rooms, offices and a press box.

Besides use from the tennis programs the Multi-Purpose Educational Facility is used for academic classes, clinics and campus. It is now available for use by the public. The facility is the only indoor tennis facility approved for college competition in the state of Florida and only one of a few in the southeast.

The women's tennis team had its first practice on April 6, 2011, while the men practiced the next day on April 7. At the men's Seminole Invitational during September 2011, the back draws were played there for the facilities first competition. The first women's dual match was played on January 21, 2012 against UCF where Florida State won 6-1. The men's team played Furman on January 22, 2012 and came off the courts with a 7-0 victory.

The building was designed by Architects: Lewis + Whitlock while construction was completed by Rippee Construction.

The facility is located adjacent to the Morcom Aquatics Facility and the Don Veller Seminole Golf Course and Club at 2566 Pottsdamer Rd.

SEASON OUTLOOK

Super Seniors

Florida State has three seniors this year who all started together as freshmen three years ago. Each Seminole has left part of a legacy in Tallahassee and looks to complete it this year as they close out their senior seasons. Andres Bucaro was named Co-Captain during his junior season and holds the same title this season. Bucaro has made a lasting impact in academics as he has been named to the ACC Honor Roll the past three seasons and was named to the All-ACC Academic Team in 2012. During his junior season, he went 28-8 which ranks tied for ninth for the most wins in a season. Jordan Kelly-Houston was named Co-Captain this year after playing in the No. 1 spot all last season. He defeated three ranked players that season and was named to the All-ACC Team as the lone Seminole. Anderson

Reed has been the Men's Tennis S.A.A.C. representative on campus the past four seasons and was named to the ACC Honor Roll in 2010 and 2011 while being a reliable player on the courts. Reed took the doubles title with Dominic Cotrone at the 2011 Seminole Invitational.

Standout Sophomores

The Seminoles had three freshmen last season who all posted winning records in their first season of play. The three return to the courts this season looking to make impacts right away. Dominic Cotrone, a native of Bradenton, Fla., starts the season ranked No. 107 in the nation. After playing on courts five and six last year, Cotrone had a standout summer and fall as he upset the No. 17 player in the nation at the Bedford Cup. Benjamin Lock joined the team in the spring and made an immediate impact as he went 14-4 in singles. He and Andres Bucaro won the doubles title at the Bedford Cup this fall and start the season ranked No. 27 in doubles. Lock also starts the spring ranked No. 99 in singles.

Cristian Gonzalez Mendez made a quick impression last fall as his first collegiate win came against the No. 67 player in the nation. He followed that up with a 14-11 record in singles and won the Garnet Singles Draw at the USTA Clay Court Invitational at Disney. All three of the sophomores are standouts in the classroom as Cotrone and Gonzalez Mendez were named to the 2012 ACC Honor Roll and Lock was named to the 2012 All-ACC Academic Team.

Crowell Reaches 10

Associate Coach Nick Crowell joined Florida State's staff 10 years ago and has helped the team grow tremendously. Since Crowell has been at Florida State, the Seminoles have reached the NCAA Tournament every single year. As a doubles specialist in college, he has helped mold strong duos. In 2009, Crowell turned the duo of Jean-Yves Aubone and Clint Bowles into the Florida State's all-time record holders for double's victories in a single season (28). He also helped Vahid Mirzadeh and Connor Smith become All-Americans during the 2010-11 season. They were only the second pairing to receive that honor at Florida State. Not only does he work with the tennis team, Crowell also runs the Seminole High Performance tennis camps which help make young players into champions. He was named the 2011 USTA Florida Junior Coach of the Year.

Strong Schedule Of Play

The Seminoles once again have one of the hardest schedules in the nation with five doubleheaders during the year. The team starts the season with six matches in 10 days with all the matches being doubleheaders. The team plays Florida Gulf Coast and Bethune-Cookman for the first time in school history during that stretch. After a fast start, the team travels to Pepperdine to compete in the ITA Kick-Offs for a chance to reach the ITA National Indoors in Seattle. February 9th marks the annual match against in-state rival Florida. This will be the squads' 73rd meeting since 1956. On February 24, the team hosts Pepperdine in Bradenton, Fla., at the IMG Academy. The weekend of March 1 and 3 features bouts against in-state foe South Florida and top team Texas. After a spring break trip to Oklahoma, the Seminoles start their ACC schedule at Georgia Tech on March 15th. Florida State hosts Clemson, Miami, Boston College, Virginia Tech and Virginia while also traveling to NC State, Duke, Wake Forest and UNC. The ACC Championships are once again held at the Cary Tennis Park in Cary, N.C. but are a week later from April 25-28.

HEAD COACH DWAYNE HULTQUIST

In his 14th season at the helm at Florida State, Dwayne Hultquist has put himself atop the Florida State record books and the Seminoles in the national spotlight.

Under Hultquist's leadership, Florida State men's tennis has emerged as one of the top programs in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the country. When Hultquist took over the Florida State program in 1999, the Seminoles were struggling to compete in the state of Florida, let alone at the Atlantic Coast Conference or national level. But in 13 seasons under Hultquist, FSU has had three ACC Player of the Year recipients, five All-American honors and two national ITA Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award winners.

During the 2011-12 season, Hultquist coached the team to its 10th straight NCAA appearance. The team finished 19-10 and reached the semifinals of the ACC Championships. Jordan Kelly-Houston was named to the All-ACC team while Andres Bucaro, Blake Davis and Benjamin Lock were named to the All-ACC Academic team.

In 2011, the squad reached the NCAA tournament for the ninth consecutive season. Vahid Mirzadeh headlined the season as he and Connor Smith were named All-Americans in doubles play, Hultquist's fourth and fifth athletes to earn that honor. Mirzadeh made a huge impact off the courts as he was named the winner of the ITA Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award, showcasing his playing abilities, leadership, community service, academic achievements and sportsmanship. Mirzadeh was also named to the All-ACC Team.

The 2010 season had the team making the NCAA tournament for the eighth year in a row where they reached the second round of play. Awards started coming in the fall as Clint Bowles was the Wilson/ITA Southeast Regional Singles Champion. Later in the year, Jean-Yves Aubone was named the ITA Senior Player of the Year and was named to the All-ACC team along with Vahid Mirzadeh. The Seminoles stormed the classrooms that year with seven members of the team being named to the ACC honor roll. Jean-Yves capped the year by being named as the ACC Men's Tennis Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

For the first time in school history Florida State made back-to-back trips to the NCAA Round of 16 in 2008 and 2009. 2009 also marked the first time that the Seminoles finished the season ranked inside the top 15 in consecutive seasons (No. 13). Once again Hultquist helped direct his players to career seasons with Maciek Sykut becoming the winningest player in Florida State tennis history in both singles and overall victories. Jean-Yves Aubone also became the first player in school history to become a two-time All-American. The Noles also had three All-ACC performers for the second consecutive season with Aubone, Clint Bowles and Sykut earning those honors.

Hultquist also earned his own accolades in 2009 becoming the winningest coach in Florida State tennis history (159), surpassing his predecessor David Barron (141).

With 21 victories in 2009, Hultquist won more than 20 in one season for the third time in his career and the second season in a row.

The 2008 season was a year of records for Florida State culminating in a trip to the round of 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The

HEAD COACH DWAYNE HULTQUIST

Seminoles achieved their highest ranking in program history at No. 7 and individually saw Jean-Yves Aubone earn the highest singles' ranking in the school's history. FSU's 21 victories marked the second time Hultquist has led his squad to a 20-win season during his tenure.

Under the direction of Hultquist, Florida State players rose to new heights in 2008 with Aubone earning singles All-American honors and along with Sam Chang and Clint Bowles All-ACC accolades. Aubone and Bowles also broke the school record for doubles victories in a single season (28).

In 2007 Hultquist led Florida State to a 17-10 record and the Seminoles received their highest ranking at No. 10 during the season. FSU also hosted an NCAA Regional for the first time in school history.

Undoubtedly, year six in the Hultquist era was the best season in school history. For starters, the Seminoles not only made their third straight trip to the national summit, but FSU reached the 2005 NCAA Elite Eight for the first time ever. Florida State also finished with its then highest-ever national ranking at No. 13 and stamped its first 20-plus win season since 1985. Hultquist led his squad to an impressive 21-8 mark and a second-place finish in the ACC. Under Hultquist's tutelage in 2005, Mat Cloer became the school's first singles' All-American and won the program's first national honor with the ITA Arthur Ashe Award.

Hultquist hit the ground running in the fall of 2005 and led his troops to an impressive fall campaign. For the Seminoles' efforts, Florida State not only earned the school's first invitation to the 2006 USTA/ITA National Men's Team Indoor Championship, but also garnered a respectable preseason ranking of No. 11 by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association.

In Hultquist's fifth season, FSU reached heights it hadn't seen since the mid 1990's. Florida State's second trip to the national summit was their first back-to-back appearances since the 1997-98 campaigns, and they ended the 2004 year ranked for the 11th season in a row with a 10-13 record. Individual honors were also bountiful in 2004 with Mat Cloer claiming his second ACC Player of the Year honor, only the third time in league history that the award has gone to the same player in back-to-back years. Then-freshman Jonathan Sucupira was named to the All-ACC team, a first by an FSU rookie since 1992.

Florida State had a break-out year during Hultquist's fourth season as the 2003 squad returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998 and ended the year with a 15-10 mark. The Seminoles produced their best finish in the ACC standings, taking second, while winning the ACC Indoor Doubles Championship for the second year in a row. Individual accolades rolled in as Hultquist's former aide, Ty Braswell, was named ITA Assistant Coach of the Year. On the court, Cloer became the first Seminole to earn ACC Player of the Year honors.

In his first year, Hultquist brought the Seminoles a winning record of 14-10. In his second year, the men's team entered the 2001-02 season ranked No. 59 by the ITA.

Hultquist arrived at Florida State after serving eight years as an assistant coach at the University of Texas. While working under legendary coach Dave Snyder, Hultquist became known for his excellent recruiting abilities. He was also responsible for scheduling, fundraising, individualized coaching and many of the day-to-day operations of the program. While at Texas, Hultquist coached nine All-Americans, helped lead the Longhorns to six conference titles and made it to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in each of his eight years.

Hultquist began his tennis career at Penn State where he was a four-year letterman and team captain in 1986. During that same year, he was an NCAA Tournament qualifier in doubles, and earned all-conference honors in both singles and doubles. After graduating from Penn State, Hultquist turned pro, playing in the United States, Israel and Asia. During his career, Hultquist was selected to play on national teams that traveled to Korea and China for competition.

Hultquist is married to the former Angela White. The couple has four daughters, Devan (15), Avery (12), Addison (9), and Mackenzie (6) and one son Blake (3).

ASSOCIATE COACH NICK CROWELL

In his tenth year on staff at Florida State, associate coach Nick Crowell continues to prove that he is one of the elite assistants in the country. While earning All-American honors in doubles play for the Longhorns, Crowell played for FSU head coach, Dwayne Hultquist, who was an assistant coach at the time. Since Crowell's arrival, Florida State has reached the NCAA Championships every season and shattered several team records.

In addition to his coaching duties, Crowell runs the Seminole High Performance tennis camps which help mold young players into champions.

During the 2011-12 season, he helped coach the team to its 10th straight NCAA appearance. The team finished 19-10 and reached the semifinals of the ACC Championships.

During the 2010-11 season he helped coach Florida State's second doubles tandem to achieve All-American status in Vahid Mirzadeh and Connor Smith.

From 2009-2011, Crowell spent the summers coaching the Florida USTA Junior Under18 team and in 2010 his team won the National Team Championship at the University of Illinois. This marked the first time since 1983 that the Florida team has won this prestigious tournament. His team's performance over the No. 1 and No. 3 ranked teams was described as one of the greatest upsets in 25 years. His coaching ability made good players believe they were great and for his efforts was named the USTA Florida Junior Coach of the Year.

A doubles specialist in college, Crowell helped mold several new Seminole duos in 2009. In a matter of months Crowell helped turn Jean-Yves Aubone and Vahid Mirzadeh into a top 20 ranked team who upset the No. 1-ranked duo in the country from Wake Forest. The pair also earned a trip to the NCAA Doubles Championships in College Station, Texas. Crowell also helped guide Drew Bailey and Maciek Sykut to 23 victories in 2008-09 including an upset win against the fourth-ranked team from Virginia.

After another successful campaign in 2008, Crowell was elevated to the associate coach position at FSU. In 2008 he took the duo of Jean-Yves Aubone and Clint Bowles who had never played together and turned them into Florida State's all-time record holders for double's victories in a single season (28). The pair also advanced to the second round of the NCAA doubles tournament falling one win shy of All-American honors.

In May 2006, Crowell was named the ITA Mideast Region Men's Tennis Assistant Coach of the Year and became a finalist for the national award.

Crowell attended the University of Texas and graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports management in 2000.

A native of Amarillo, Texas, Crowell is married to the former Lindsey Smith of Tallahassee and has a daughter Brooklyn (3) and son Cash (1).

VOL. ASSISTANT COACH EVAN URBINA

Evan Urbina is in his first year with Florida State men's tennis. Along with his responsibilities with the team, he will also be the Camp Coordinator for Seminole High Performance Tennis Camps working with associate coach Nick Crowell.

Urbina joins the Seminole staff after spending the past year coaching Orem High School's boy's tennis team. Before that, the Huntington Beach, Calif., native played four years at BYU. During his senior season he won the Utah Invitational title in singles and doubles. He won the singles title his sophomore season as well. He was ranked No. 110 in the nation while winning 98 matches to become the third winningest player in BYU history. He was named to the All-MWC singles team his senior and sophomore year and was the MWC Player of the Week four times.

Urbina attended San Joaquin High School and was ranked in the top 20 in California and top 50 in the nation for boys under 18. He graduated from BYU with a degree in Physical Education Teaching in 2011. Urbina resides in Tallahassee and is married to the former Sarah Weaver.

2011-2012 SEASON IN REVIEW

10 Straight NCAA Appearances

The Florida State men's tennis team reaches another career high in school history. The Seminoles marked the program's 10th consecutive NCAA tournament appearance. Florida State is 13-15 all-time in the NCAA Tournament, but holds a 12-10 mark under head coach Dwayne Hultquist. Florida State played Boise State in the first round of the NCAA tournament with a 4-3 victory. The team, who fell to Georgia in the second round of the NCAA tournament, is looking to up the record to 11 straight appearances in the 2012-13 season.

Hultquist, Team Reach Milestones

Head coach Dwayne Hultquist is (202-139) in his 13th season at Florida State and overall as a head coach. This season Hultquist reached a new record of 200 career games won at Florida State while at the ACC Championships against Miami. Florida State men's tennis reached an achievement with the 1500th match in school history. This came in the last match of the season against Georgia in the second round of the NCAA Tournament and capped the season with a 19-10 record.

Zafiros Breaks 100

Former Florida State standout Jason Zafiros obtained a 100 victory milestone with much of his success coming from while he attended University of Arizona ending his collegiate career there with 75 wins. He reached this milestone last season (11-12) after a 6-4, 6-4 win against Trpimir Kujundzic of Virginia Tech. Zafiros ended his career with a 6-3, 6-4 win against Scott Sears of Boise State, marking a high of 104 career wins.

Success On And Off The Courts

Three athletes from the men's tennis program, Andres Bucaro, Blake Davis and Benjamin Lock, were honored as a part of the 2012 All-ACC Academic Team as announced by Commissioner John D. Swofford. To be eligible for consideration for the All-ACC Academic Team, a student-athlete must earn a 3.0 grade point average for the previous semester and maintain a 3.0 cumulative average during their academic career at their respective institution. Bucaro and Davis, along with Dominic Cotrone and Cristian Gonzalez Mendez were also named to the ACC Honor Roll.

Team Rolls To 7-0 Start

With a 7-0 record to kick off the season, Florida State's men's tennis team looked to yet another great season. The Seminoles record came early in the season from competing against teams such as No. 74 North Florida (7-0), Troy (7-0), Florida A&M (7-0), South Alabama (4-0), UAB (6-1), Furman (7-0) and No. 37 Rice (5-2) ending the span to a 4-3 loss at No. 8 Baylor. Florida State got off to a great start with 28 straight points during their winning streak and outscored their opponents 43-3.

TOP SEMINOLES

PAUL HAARHUIS

Paul Haarhuis, the "Dutchman" from Eindhoven, The Netherlands, came to FSU in 1986 after transferring from Armstrong State College in Savannah, Ga. He went on to become one of the best tennis players ever to come out of FSU and was inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993. With the Seminoles, his first season was a true success as he went 35-5 in singles competition and 25-5 in doubles. Included in his long list of accolades was the first-ever Men's Intercollegiate Invitational Tennis Championships held in Panama City.

At one point, Haarhuis had 24 consecutive wins. He was given this honor by way of winning the number one singles and doubles crowns, including an invitation to the NCAA Championships for doubles. Once his collegiate career was finished Haarhuis had a 72-9 overall singles record for his two years and consecutive Metro Conference MVP awards, including 1984 when he helped lead the Seminoles to their third team title in four years.

As successful as Haarhuis was for FSU, his career flourished even more once he turned professional in 1989. Through the 2003 season, Haarhuis had career earnings totaling over $7.7 million dollars. During his 14-year run on the ATP tour, Haarhuis amassed 54 doubles titles including six Grand Slam championships. He won the career Grand Slam with three French Open titles and one championships at Wimbledon, the US Open and Australian Open. He won his lone singles title in 1995 during an event in Jakarta.

LEX WOOD

In 1982, Lex Wood became the first player from the Florida State tennis program to be inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame. He was first a player for the Seminoles from 1961 through the 1963 season, then the program's head coach from 1965 through 1969.

When Wood arrived from his native South Africa in 1962, head coach Eddie Cubbon knew he had a leader amongst his new crop of tennis players. For the following three seasons he would become a mainstay among the nation's top 20 players, playing at No. 1 singles and doubles.

In 1964, his singles match record was 22-1 and his career mark was 51 victories in 54 singles matches. Over the course of his Florida State career, Wood defeated many great collegiate players including a former U.S. Davis Cup player, Marty Riessen. As head coach, his Seminoles went an impressive 89-33 during his tenure. His last two teams in 1968 and 1969 went 19-3 and 23-5 in dual match play, respectively.

DON LOUCKS

After six decades of service to FSU athletics, Don Loucks was inducted into the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1985. In 1936, Loucks started off his relationship with FSU as the coach of every sport at the Florida State College for Women. He was the "pioneer" of many of the current athletic programs. In 1947, he was the first coach for the men's basketball team and a year later was named the first tennis coach. His hoops team scored the first victory for the newly-formed athletics program. His tennis team was the first to have a winning season, going 9-4.

Loucks served as Dean of Men from 1957 through 1967 and during this time, he served as a lead figure in the Seminole athletics program, as well as in the department of education. He retired from the athletics department in 1980 as professor emeritus in physical education. His dedication did not go unnoticed as the varsity tennis courts were renamed in his honor. The Scott Speicher Tennis Center was built around his courts.

DR. RAY BELLAMY

His accolades go far beyond the tennis courts, yet Dr. Ray Bellamy's triumphs at the net still stand out as one of the best as he was inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1992. He served as his team's captain in 1960 and 1961, and during those two years only lost a total of three matches.

After leaving SU and joining the United States Navy, Bellamy went on to become the All-Navy doubles champion and played on the All-Navy team in 1967 and 1968 while serving as a flight surgeon. After returning to Florida to begin his practice, Bellamy became the state's 35-and-over singles and doubles champion in the 1970's.

MARCO ABILHOA

Marco Abilhoa, the native of Brazil, was one of the great Florida State Seminole tennis players who made an impact on the collegiate scene. Prior to enrolling, he was ranked No. 3 in the Brazilian Juniors, when former Florida State head coach Randy Jobson discovered him.

A five-year member of the Seminole tennis program from 1980 through 1984, Abilhoa was at the top of the Metro Conference. He was the No. 1 singles and doubles champion in 1981 and 1982. Upon his return in 1984, Abilhoa went straight back to the place where he left off, at the top of the Metro Conference. His dominating presence earned him a record three Metro MVP awards in 1981, 1982 and 1984.

JOEY RIVE

Joey Rive, a West Palm Beach native, played for the Seminoles from 1981 through 1985. As one of the top players ever to compete at Florida State, Rive led the team in wins in 1983, 1984 and 1985. During his period at number one singles, he was nationally ranked among the Top 25.

His stellar performance for the Tribe resulted in three Metro Conference singles championships in 1983, 1984 and 1985 and two doubles championships in 1983 and 1985, including the conference's top crown, the MVP in 1985. His Metro success led to his invitation to the 1985 NCAA tournament and to the 1987 Tennis Magazine Sportsman of the Year award.

Following his FSU career, Rive played the ATP tour where he reached as high as No. 57 in the world in 1988. He returned back to Tallahassee where he served as an assistant from 1993 to 1994. He is currently running his own collegiate tennis consulting company.

STEPHEN NOTEBOOM

After earning NAIA All-American honors at Huntington College in Montgomery, Ala., Stephen Noteboom, the second "Dutchman" to thrive at Florida State for the Seminoles for the 1990 through 1992 seasons.

Almost immediately making his presence known, Noteboom grabbed the Metro Conference's coveted MVP award for winning the title at No. 1 singles and doubles. That same year, he earned an invitation to the 1991 NCAA Championships for singles.

During his pro career, Noteboom captured a pair of doubles titles. He joined up with Fernon Wibier to win the Ordina Open. Two years later he team up with Lan Bale to win the BMW Open.

BRIAN STANTON & KEN MCKENZIE

Brian Stanton of Coral Springs and Ken McKenzie of Tallahassee finished up their playing careers with the Tribe in 1995. As a doubles team, the duo ended their final campaign earning collegiate tennis' top honor, an ITA All-America award.

The doubles pair received the 1995 accolade after a superb run in the NCAA Championships. What may be the most impressive feat for them was being ranked among the nation's top 10 doubles tandems throughout the season.

During his stay at FSU, Stanton won back to back Junior Davis Cup singles titles in 1993 and 1994, won the 1993 Junior Davis Cup in doubles, and was named to the All-ACC team his sophomore and junior seasons.

McKenzie left behind a void in doubles that was a great challenge to fill. He and Stanton guided No. 1 doubles to an impressive No. 3 national ranking, the highest ranking the program has ever received. He also was also impressive on the singles side earning ACC Flight Championships at No. 2 singles in 1994 and No. 3 singles in 1995.

ANTONIO PRIETO

Antonio Prieto, a native of Curitiba, Brazil, was an outstanding player during his time here at Florida State. His best year came in 1995 when he was an All-ACC performer, ACC Flight Champion in No. 2 doubles, and received an invitation to the NCAA Tournament. In 1996, his final season, he won the National Collegiate Tennis Classic. He turned pro in 1997 and has had a successful doubles career, including an appearance in the 2001 Australian Open. He was consistently ranked in doubles throughout his career and posted a career best mark of 95th in the world during the 2000 season.

JASON WHITE

Jason White finished his four-year run with the Seminoles in 1995, his best season as a player by far. As the top singles and doubles player, White was given a lot of responsibility as FSU's captain.

Even though he won the ACC Championship at No. 4 singles in 1994 and a pair of championships at No. 2 doubles in 1994 and 1995, White was still on top of ACC tennis in 1996. Nationally ranked for most of the year, the senior from Longwood received a bid to the 1996 NCAA Tournament after being edged out for the championships at No. 1 singles.

MAT CLOER

Mat Cloer, a native of Brevard, N.C., became one of the greatest players in not only FSU history, but also conference history during his outstanding senior season in 2004-05. During that year, the two-time ACC Player of the Year became the first player in school history to earn All-American honors in singles. He also received the national ITA/Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award, the first national award for any FSU men's tennis player. He finished his FSU campaign with 85 singles victories and 69 doubles wins. Cloer had an impact with the Seminoles as an assistant head coach for Florida State.

MACIEK SYKUT

Maciek Sykut entered his senior season with an outside chance of becoming the winningest player in Florida State tennis history. To break the record Sykut need career seasons in both singles and doubles. He delivered both, winning a career high 26 singles matches and 23 doubles matches (with partner Drew Bailey) to become the Seminole's overall wins leader. In his second-to-last collegiate match Sykut also earned the honor of becoming the all-time singles victory leader, surpassing Jason White. His terrific senior season earned "Magic" his first career conference honors as he was named to the All-ACC team. In total, Sykut amassed 93 singles wins, 82 doubles victories (second all-time) and 175 combined wins.

JEAN-YVES AUBONE

Jean-Yves Aubone stepped onto Florida State's campus for the 2006-2007 school year and has since left a legacy that will be forever etched in Seminole lore.

The Miami native is Florida State's first two-time singles All-American and 2009's ACC Player of the Year. Aubone is a two-time All-ACC team member, two-time All-ACC Academic Team member and two-time honoree of the ACC Academic Honor Roll. In September of 2009, Aubone was ranked at No. 8 in singles, the highest in Florida State history. In 2008, Aubone and Clint Bowles teamed up to record the most doubles victories in a single season with 28 wins. He finished his career named the ACC Men's Tennis Scholar Athlete of the Year.

VAHID MIRZADEH

Vahid Mirzadeh spent three years as member of the tennis team and the last two as the captain of the team. Mirzadeh capped off his career as an All-American in doubles alongside Connor Smith. In 2011, he was also the second Seminole to receive the national ITA/Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship Award. Mirzadeh started his junior season ranked at No. 115 in the nation and worked his way to a career best of No. 21 this season. In doubles play, he and Smith teamed up to play stellar tennis as they boast a 39-19 record together his past two seasons. He was named to the ACC Honor Roll and Academic All-ACC Team all three seasons.

DIXIE CONFERENCE AFFILIATION (1949-1951)

The 1949, 1950 and 1951 teams, coached by Florida State tennis pioneer, H. Don Loucks (1949-50) and Ralph Matherly (1951), won the Dixie Conference team championship for three consecutive years. The Dixie Conference was made up of seven small schools within the Southeast including Florida State, Stetson, Millsaps, Mercer, Howard, Lambuth and Oglethorpe.

METRO CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY (1976-91)

The Metro Conference, originally tabbed the Metro Six, was formed on June 13, 1975. It's charter members included Cincinnati, Georgia Tech, Louisville, Memphis State, St. Louis and Tulane.

Expansion was soon on the horizon, as the league membership increased its size to seven schools when the Florida State University was admitted on July 28, 1976.

After Georgia Tech left the conference following the 1978 season, Virginia Tech quickly filled the void. Then St. Louis left the Metro. But waiting in the wings was the University of South Carolina who joined in 1983 to increase the membership to eight schools. However, Tulane forfeited its membership when its basketball program was discontinued following the 1984-85 season.

MEDIA INFORMATION

A NOTE TO THE MEDIA, FANS AND OPPONENTS

Florida State assistant sports information director Maryjane Gardner is ready to assist you with any questions or requests you may have about the 2012-13 Seminole men's tennis program, almanac, coaches and student-athletes. Please do not hesitate to contact the FSU Sports Information office if we can further assist you.

PLAYERS & COACHES INTERVIEWS

All players and coaches interviews should be arranged through the sports information office by contacting Maryjane Gardner at (850) 644-2016 at least 24 hours in advance. Student-athlete's phone numbers will not be released. Media may not contact any student-athlete through the use of social media, including Facebook and Twitter.

HOW TO COVER THE SEMINOLES

Members of the media are supplied with weekly press releases, including updated statistics, as well as conference and national rankings and information on upcoming matches. This information may be obtained in the sports information office and will be updated after every match at www.seminoles.com.

WHERE THE HOME MATCHES WILL BE

All of the 2013 tennis matches take place at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center or Indorr Tennis Facility. Media should notify the sports information office prior to home matches if they plan to attend. Any accredited photographer wishing to shoot the matches must check in with Maryjane Gardner prior to match day.

FSU ON THE WEB

All the game stories, updated stats, weekly releases and Seminole men's tennis news you could ever ask for is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year at Seminoles.com. The official FSU athletics Web site is your first stop for all the information you could ever need on the Seminole men's tennis team and is updated immediately following each match.

FOLLOW MEN'S TENNIS ON TWITTER

Media and fans are encouraged to follow @FSU_MTennis on the team's official Twitter page and Facebook (Facebook.com/FSUMTennis) for instantaneous information surrounding the squad. Throughout the 2012-13 regular season, in-match tweeting will be provided in addition to Live Stats.
