VITA

Curtiss M. Long was born in Manatee County, Florida, on November 1, 1943. He attended the Florida State University Developmental Research School, Tallahassee, Florida. Upon graduation in 1962, he entered Florida State University, receiving a B. S. degree from that institution in the fall of 1966. Continuing his education at Florida State University, he received a M. S. degree in 1968. During the summer of 1968, he entered the U. S. Air Force as a special services officer. After a four-year tour of duty, including eleven months in Viet Nam, he received an honorable discharge in 1972. In the fall of 1972, he entered the doctoral program at Florida State University. The Doctor of Philosophy degree was awarded in August 1976. He was employed by the University of Georgia in September of 1976 as an instructor in the Division of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation and as an assistant track and field coach.
