Since 1992, Florida State is the only men's program to capture at least one ACC championship every year.

Florida State is the only school to have two swimmers (Brendon Dedekind and Stephen Parry) win seven events in a single ACC Championship.

Two-time NCAA Champion Brendon Dedekind is third in ACC history with 10 individual ACC championships and 21 combined individual and relay titles.

2004 All-American Emma Dutton is just one of three women's swimmers in conference history to win seven events at a single ACC Championship.
