What's INSIDE ...

7 Outlook

With nine returning letterwinners and a group of highly-touted newcomers, the Florida State women's basketball team will have numerous offensive weapons and size in the middle, making them solid on both ends of the court. Get a glimpse of the season preview here.

13 Coaches

Sue Semrau begins her sixth season at the helm of the Florida State women's basketball program. Assistants Theresa Gernatt and Angle Johnson have been with her every step of the way. The staff welcomes Assistant Scott Stoehr to the program in 2002-03. Take a look at the women's basketball staff here.

23 Players

Florida State has three seniors, three juniors, three sophomores and four freshmen on this year's squad, hailing from eight different states and two countries. While there are differences in where they're from, they're all here now. Learn all about the 2002-03 Seminoles here.

41 University

Being a student-athlete at Florida State means not only going to school at a great university in a great city, but so much more. Seminole student-athletes train and compete in state-of-the-art facilities and receive quality support in a number of areas thus assuring a positive and successful academic and athletic collegiate experience. Here's a look at the advantages of FSU and Tallahassee.

71 Opponents

Florida State has a very challenging schedule in 2002-03. The Seminoles will play 12 games against teams that advanced to last year's NCAA Tournament, highlighted by a visit from defending national champion Connecticut. The season gets underway at home with the annual Seminole Classic, November 22 and 23. Size up the competition here.

81 Review

The Seminoles saw a great deal of adversity in the 2001-02 season but learned a lot in the process. Here's everything you want to know about last season including news and notes of the year as well as team and individual statistics, results and box scores.

97 Honors/Awards

All-Americans, Academic Honors, FSU Athletics Hall of Fame — the Florida State women's basketball program has had it all and continues to strive for such success. Take a look at the Seminoles, of both the past and present, who have made their mark on FSU women's basketball.

107 Records

Did you know the most prolific scorer in Florida State basketball is a woman? It's true. Sue Galkantas scored an unbelievable 2,323 points in her career — the most of any basketball player, male or female, in Florida State history. Check out all the FSU records and much more here.

SEMINOLE PRODUCTIONS

THE FLORIDA STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM enjoys some of the finest video production in the country through Seminole Productions.

Seminole Productions is an educational auxiliary of the Florida State University Department of Communication. The department began in 1988 by producing an athletics television series called "Seminole Uprising."

Since then, the relationship with FSU athletics has grown. SP now provides virtually every video service in the athletics area including the Bobby Bowden Show, Seminole Basketball Highlights with Sue Semrau and Leonard Hamilton, The Mike Martin Show and Seminole Sports Magazine, which are aired weekly in the Southeast Region on Sunshine Network. SP also handles the production for In-Game Entertainment of FSU football and men's and women's basketball.

Under the direction of Mark Rodin, Seminole Productions provides complete professional-quality video production services to University Departments, Schools, Colleges, Divisions, and other activities. Seminole Productions also provides services to state government, local government, and FSU related entities. SP has also produced nature documentaries, informational and training videos, and even an op-

Utilization of Seminole Productions services does more than just provide great video productions. Seminole Productions provides an opportunity for students of television design, production, performance, and broadcasting to participate in actual, professional television activities.

Projects are supervised by the industry's finest professional producers while seniors in the Media Communication program in the Department of Communication provide the crews.

Seminole Productions' award-winning productions are produced using high-end, network-quality video equipment. SP uses Betacam SP and Digital DVCam for videotaping, and do master editing on Avid Non-Linear, digital editors and Betacam SP in order to assure a high-quality finished product.

SP also has sophisticated digital video effects equipment and can perform complicated 3-D animation and multi-layer compositing effects. Complete studio facilities are also available.

THE SEMINOLES ON RADIO

Florida State University's marketing office announced in May of 2001 that it had extended the contract with WTNT-FM and WFLA-AM of Tallahassee to continue as the flagship stations for Seminole athletics through the 2002-2003 athletic season.

The three-year deal features expanded coverage of Seminole athletics with all football and men's basketball games carried live on WTNT while 20 regular-season women's basketball games will be carried live on WFLA this season.

"We have enjoyed our relationship with our flagship stations and are very pleased that we are able to extend and expand on that relationship in this contract," FSU Director of Athletics Dave Hart said.

"Clear Channel is thrilled to be a long-term partner with Florida State to present the premiere sports program in the Southeast," John Hunt, Vice President and Market Manager, Clear Channel Communications said. "Our continued affiliation with the Seminoles organization is a long term strategic goal for both Newsradio 1270 WFLA and 94.9 WTNT. This alliance gives us a competitive advantage that allows us to continue our ratings dominance across the radio dial."

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY & SUNSHINE NETWORK

Florida State University and Sunshine Network announced a multi-year contract in August of 2000 that ensured Sunshine Network will continue to be the exclusive Florida cable home of FSU athletics for many years to come. Six regularseason women's basketball games will be shown on Sunshine Network in 2002-

Since 1988, Sunshine Network has been the exclusive regional sports network home of FSU athletics in Florida. Available in over 5.5 million homes statewide via cable and satellite, Sunshine Network provides more coverage of FSU athletics than any other Florida television outlet.

Each year, Sunshine network airs over 100 games/programs for FSU, including its own production of every FSU regular season football game, which replay statewide on Sunshine Sunday evenings at 7 p.m. during "Prime Time 'Noles."

Also included in the agreement are the rights to a minimum of 10 baseball games and a minimum of 14 women's events including basketball, volleyball, soccer and softball.

Other programming includes highlight shows for fall and spring sports, call-in and/ or coaches shows, "Seminole Summer Showcase," highlighting replays or highlights of previous FSU events, "Seminole Sports Magazine," "Seminole Uprising" and more. Additional FSU athletic events, including men's and women's basketball, are available to Sunshine Network from the Atlantic Coast Conference and its rightsholders.

In addition to game coverage, Sunshine Network also provides fans with daily reports and features on its two sports news shows, "Sunshine Network LIVE!," weeknights at 6:30 p.m. and "NEXTEL Florida Sports News," weeknights at 10 p.m. Keith Jones, Tom Block and Barry Milligan cover the 'Noles for both sports news shows on Sunshine Network.

An agreement with the ACC provides Sunshine Network with additional FSU games and events, including the conference's new Sunday night ACC basketball package which begins this fall on regional sports networks nationwide (exclusively on Sunshine in Florida). The network also airs "ACC Live!," Mondays at 7 p.m., and numerous other games/events for the ACC, giving FSU fans coverage of not only their home team, but FSU's conference opponents as well.

'Our contractual partnership with Sunshine Network provides an extremely valuable distribution avenue for Florida State University events which are showcased within our own state and well beyond," FSU Director of Athletics Dave Hart said. "This extension affords us a very comprehensive means of exposure which enhances every facet of our athletics program. We are pleased to extend our contract and relationship with the people at Sunshine Network." ■ ■

WFLA NEWSRADIO

Todd Van Dyke

Liberty Taylor

Newsradio 1270 AM will carry 20 Florida State women's basketball games during the 2002-03 season.

Todd Van Dyke, the voice of FSU women's basketball, begins his fourth season with the program while former Seminole Liberty Taylor returns as color analyst for the fifth straight year.

Van Dyke is a native of Rochelle, III., but has lived in Tallahassee for eight years. Also very active with the Florida State athletics marketing and promotions and sport information departments, Van Dyke serves as the public address announcer for Seminole baseball and volleyball.

Taylor, who hails from New Orleans, La., lettered in women's basketball at Florida State from 1991-95. She graduated from FSU in 1996 with a degree in nutrition and fitness and went on to earn a master's degree in communications in 1999. Taylor works for Porter Novell, a public relations and marketing firm, and is also teaching in FSU's department of communications as an adjunct professor.
