Matthew Schmauch, an Assistant Director of Academic Support who worked with the women's basketball program for four seasons, was instrumental in the academic success of FSU student-athletes. His influence went beyond the classroom. He was an ambassador, a mentor, a friend, a big brother, a fan — truly a shining example of where hard work and determination can take you.

This award, established in his memory, is given annually to the women's basketball player who exemplifies these characteristics of leadership.

The Florida State Athletics Department lost a dear member of its Seminole family on June 13, 2003. Matt Schmauch, 29, an Assistant Director for the Athletic Academic Support Program at Florida State, died from anaphylaxis due to an allergic reaction to nuts while representing FSU at the N4A convention in St. Louis, Mo.

A native of Allen Park, Mich., Schmauch had been a valuable member of the athletic academic support staff since 1996. A glowing role model in the classroom, Schmauch earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Florida State in 1995 and went on to receive a master's degree in athletic administration from FSU in 1996.

In 2003-04, the Florida State women's basketball program created a special award in honor of Schmauch.

In Memory

Daughter, Sister, Classmate, Teammate, Role Model, Friend, Seminole. Ronaldda Pierce meant so much to so many people. Although with us a short time, Ronaldda's memory will forever be etched in the hearts of the Seminole family. Ronaldda represented courage, heart, determination, growth and joy. It was these characteristics that allowed her to blossom into the person that was cherished by all who knew her.

The recipient of this award exemplifies these same qualities of perseverance and heart.

On June 8, 2004, the Florida State women's basketball program lost a special member of its family with the sudden death of Ronaldda Pierce, a 6-5 post player from Ashburn, Ga. In 2004-05, the players wore #55 on their shoes in her honor. The Seminoles paid tribute to Ronaldda by celebrating the time, although too short, that they had with her. In 2005, an award was established in her memory.

While Ronaldda Pierce remains on the minds and in the hearts of those associated with Florida State women's basketball, the 2006-07 season will have even greater meaning as it would have represented Ronaldda's senior season. Members of her recruiting class, Nikki Anthony, Shante Williams and Alicia Gladden, proudly hold up their hands signifying the No. 55, Ronaldda's jersey number.

Hall of Fame

The Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame enjoys a rich tradition. Florida State is fortunate to enjoy an athletics program that reflects the integrity achieved by an academic institution with over 150 years of success.

There are 208 members of the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame. The first and largest class was inducted in 1977 and there has been a class inducted every fall since with the exception of 1996 when Florida State spent the year celebrating its 50th Anniversary of athletics.

Three former women's basketball greats, Sue Galkantas, Tia Paschal and Wanda Burns-Jackson, are members of the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame.

Sue Galkantas
Hall of Fame 1989

SUE GALKANTAS

Florida State may never forget the scoring power of Sue Galkantas, who with an amazing 2,323 career points, is the most prolific scorer in Seminole basketball history. That total is the most points ever scored by a player, male or female — in Florida State history.

By the time Galkantas graduated in 1984, her name was listed in nearly every statistical category in the FSU records book. Averaging 19.4 points per game in her career — a mark that still ranks number one on the career lists — was just a glimpse of the impact that she had as a Seminole. In her rookie year, she broke the FSU freshman scoring record and was named a freshman All-American in numerous publications. By her sophomore year, Galkantas had already scored her 1,000th point and established herself as one of the top 20 scorers in the nation. In her junior season, she led FSU to a 24-6 record and to its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Overall, she scored in double figures in 115 of 120 games and still holds six career and single-season records. In 1989, Galkantas also became the first female FSU athlete to have her number retired.

Tia Paschal
Hall of Fame 1999

TIA PASCHAL

The Florida State women's basketball program enjoyed its greatest success during the four-year career of Tia Paschal, who lettered for the Seminoles from 1989 to 1993.

A forward from Thomson, Ga., Paschal was an immediate contributor for Florida State and was a three-year starter after averaging 20 minutes of play as a rookie. She ended her career averaging 19.4 points and 7.4 rebounds as a senior while earning first team All-ACC honors and second team All-America honors by the American Women's Sports Federation. During her career, she helped lead the Seminoles to two consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989-90 and 1990-91 as well as a Metro Conference championship in the 1990-91 season.

Paschal's versatility made her a weapon in every facet of the game which is evident by the records she still holds at Florida State. She holds the records free throws made (14) in a game and steals in a career (269). Paschal is also among FSU's top 10 in five season and six career records and ranks second all-time in scoring with 1,662 points.

Honors came in abundance for Paschal throughout her career. After redshirting the 1988-89 season with a knee injury, Paschal took the conference by storm as a freshman, earning Metro Conference All-Rookie Team honors. She earned Metro All-Tournament Team honors two seasons and was twice named the conference Player of the Week.

Paschal continued playing the game that she loves professionally. Since her graduation in criminology in 1993, Paschal's professional overseas experience has included stops in Germany, Sweden and Spain. She also played one season with the Charlotte Sting of the WNBA.

Wanda Burns
Hall of Fame 2006

WANDA BURNS

Wanda Burns overcame adversity to become a successful women's basketball player at Florida State. One of Marynell Meadors first recruits, Burns was a highly-touted 5-8 guard out of Macon, Georgia.

Though she carried a 3.0 GPA in high school, her SAT scores were below the required score to meet the new NCAA Prop 48 rule and she had to sit out her freshman season. Burns used the year to hit the books and get acclimated to campus life.

She hit the court in 1988-89 with something to prove. She averaged 11 points a game and led the team with 92 assists, helping FSU to its first winning season since 1983. She electrified the team in 1989-90 and sparked FSU to a 21-9 record and to the NCAA Tournament. Burns set an FSU record for free throw percentage and led the team in scoring, three pointers and steals.

In 1990-91, her final season, Burns was named Metro Conference Player of the Week, set a single game record with 10 steals in a game and led the team in three-point shooting. FSU enjoyed one of its most successful seasons with a record of 25-7. Burns led the Metro Conference in scoring at 18.5 points per game and scored double figures in 38 consecutive games. She was named Metro Conference Tournament MVP and Player of the Year and also earned Hanes Her Way NCAA Woman of the Year and Second Team All-American honors.

Burns still ranks among FSU's top 10 in four career and 11 single-season statistical categories.

SUE GALKANTAS: Retired Number 43

By the time Sue Galkantas graduated from Florida State in 1984, her name was atop almost every individual statistical category in the Florida State records book. Galkantas was one of the most prolific scorers ever to play for Florida State, averaging 19.4 points per game in her career — a mark that still ranks number one on the FSU career lists. She scored an unbelievable 2,323 points over her four-year career (1980-84). That total is the most points ever scored by a basketball player — male or female — in Florida State history.

Galkantas shined from the moment she stepped onto the court. In her freshman year, she broke the FSU freshman scoring record and was named a freshman All-American in numerous publications. By her sophomore year, Galkantas had already scored her 1,000 point and established herself as one of the top 20 scorers in the nation. In addition to her individual ability, Galkantas will be remembered for her contribution to the FSU women's basketball team during her All-American junior season. She led Florida State to a 24-6 record and to its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

"She is our first bonafide All-American at Florida State," said former FSU coach Janice Dykehouse. "She's the person who is responsible for turning our program around. She could go down in the record books as doing for our program what Dave Cowens did here for the men's program at FSU."

Galkantas was indeed one of the all-time greatest athletes to ever don the Garnet and Gold. She scored in double figures in 115 of 120 career games played and still holds six FSU records. In 1989, Galkantas was inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame. At that time, she added another "first" to her resume as she was the first women's athlete in FSU history to have her number retired.

Seminoles and the WNBA

The Florida State women's basketball program provides its student-athletes with a solid education and the opportunity to play big-time Division I basketball in one of the nation's strongest conferences. It also prepares its player for the opportunity to play at the next level. FSU has had four players drafted to the WNBA and former Seminole great Tia Paschal (1990-93) played one season with the Charlotte Sting.

Roneeka Hodges, Sue Semrau & Brooke Wyckoff

Former Seminole Brooke Wyckoff, who helped lead the Connecticut Sun to the 2005 WNBA Finals and now plays for the Chicago Sky, will always cherish her experience at Florida State:

"It feels like just yesterday it was draft day and I received the news that the Orlando Miracle had chosen me with their second round pick. I am very blessed to have played in the best league in the world for so long. It has been hard work and is a daily challenge to maintain my position in the league, but I truly feel a huge part of my success is due in large part to my experience playing at Florida State and for Coach Sue. At FSU, I was given the opportunity to develop as a player and, even more importantly, as a person. Coach Sue instilled in me the value of working hard and being consistent with the little things, the things that may not always show up on the stat sheet but are just as important in order to be successful. The coaches at FSU were just as committed, if not more, to my success as a student and a person which I believe is directly related to the success I enjoy today. I'm sure there are many girls out there who are more talented players than me but haven't had the same success. One thing I've learned is that it takes a lot more to be successful at the college and professional levels than just good basketball skills. My time at Florida State, playing for Coach Sue, allowed me to develop into a person and player that would realize more opportunity and success than I ever dreamed to have in the basketball world. And the best part about it is that I had fun doing it and am still enjoying myself today playing the game that I love. My experience as a Seminole was one that catapulted me into the 'real world' ready for anything that came my way as a professional player and beyond."

A Memorable Draft Day!

With the second pick of the second round and the 15th pick overall, Florida State's Roneeka Hodges was taken by the Houston Comets in the 2005 WNBA Draft April 16th at the NBA Studios in Secaucus, N.J. With the selection, Hodges became the fourth Seminole to be drafted to the WNBA but the highest pick in Florida State history. Hodges was also the first player from the Atlantic Coast Conference to be selected in the 2005 draft.

"It's a good feeling to know that you've left your mark somewhere," Hodges said on draft day. "It will always make me feel good about myself and the things that I've done being able to leave that kind of legacy. I think it is good for me and for Florida State."

"This shows the progress of our program," Florida State head coach Sue Semrau said that afternoon. "I believe we will continue to have more and more players go into the league and have the potential to be drafted higher and higher. I'm just really proud of how Roneeka has represented Florida State."

Hodges, her family, and Semrau gathered in the studio with other hopeful women's basketball players. Each athlete in attendance sat at a table with her guests and awaited the announcement by WNBA President Donna Orender.

"When I got picked, I kind of felt relieved that the whole thing was over with and I knew where I was going," Hodges said. "Overall it was a great feeling. I was kind of nervous and anxious but it ended up well. Going to Houston is a good situation considering the players they have and the things that have been going on with the team."

Hodges, a first team All-ACC selection this season, scored an impressive 615 points this season and was second in the league in scoring at 19.2 points per game. She led the Seminoles to the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2001.

"This is kind of like the icing on the cake," Hodges said. "I feel like I've done everything I set out to do when I came to Florida State. I am grateful that Coach Sue and the coaching staff allowed me to come and allowed me to showcase my talent."

Semrau was elated for Hodges. "It was exciting to see Roneeka live out one of her dreams to be at the WNBA draft," Semrau said. "I think she is one of the players this year with the kind of heart, athleticism and skill to make a WNBA team. She's worked very hard and has been tremendous for us and she will really be a benefit to the league."
