Stupples wins first major

Former Seminole ties record for lowest score in a major with 19-under 269 at Women's British Open

SUNNINGDALE, England — Karon Stupples began the final round of the Women's British Open eagle-double eagle. It was the kind of start Annika Sorenstam needed.

Stupples won her first major title with a record-tying score of 19-under 269, while defending champion Sorenstam's bid to win all four majors back-to-back ended in a tie for 13th.

This time the victory went to a homegrown talent who has been playing on the LPGA Tour for six years after playing at Florida State from 1992 to 1995. She won her first title in the opening tournament of the season, and now she has a major to go with it and a check for $290,880.

"It's quite mind blowing," Stupples said after finishing five strokes ahead of Rachel Teske. "It's something that I never knew was going to happen."

Stupples shot an 8-under 64 in the final round on the Old Course at Sunningdale to tie the record-low score in a major, set by Dottie Pepper at the 1999 Nabisco Dinah Shore.

Starting the round a stroke behind third-round co-leaders Heather Bowie and Teske, Stupples began the day with an eagle on No. 1 and a double-eagle on the second hole.

At the 475-yard second, she followed a huge drive with a 5-iron from 202 yards, the ball bouncing onto the green and rolling straight at the hole. The flag initially stopped the ball from dropping in.

"It's quite mind blowing," Karon Stupples said Sunday after winning her first major. "It's something that I never knew was going to happen."
