JACLYN BURCH

Senior • Height: 5-5 • Swings: Right
Wildwood, Mo. (Lafayette)

On Burch

- The senior and longest tenured member of the Seminoles starting line-up who will be a leader for the fourth consecutive season for the Florida State golf team.

- Has helped lead the Seminoles to two NCAA Championship appearances and two top-20 national finishes during the first three years of her career.

- Earned All-ACC honors in 2005 as one of the top 12 golfers in the nation's top conference for women's golf. Is only one of three sophomores in school history to earn All-ACC Honors joining Caroline Larsson (2004) and former Florida State All-America Kristin Tamulis (2001).

- Has earned a team-leading three top-five career finishes – tied for second at the spring 2006 Ryder/Florida Championship, tied for fifth at the spring 2005 Lady Gamecock Invitational and tied for fifth at the fall 2005 Chrysler Challenge.

- Also an academic standout, she was named to the National Golf Coaches Association Division I Scholar Athlete team in 2006. She owns a 3.579 grade point average with a major of sport management after three years of her academic career and was named to the Atlantic Coast Conference Academic Honor Roll in both 2004 and 2006.

- Has played in 31 consecutive events during her career and has been in the Seminoles' starting lineup in every event during her career. She has not missed playing in an event during the first three years of her career.

- Had 100 percent of her scores (27 of 27) counted toward the team score in all nine tournaments during the fall 2004 and spring 2005 seasons – the only Seminole to have each of her rounds counted. She has had nearly 90 percent of her rounds during her career counted toward the team total (81 of 93/.871 percent) during the first three years of her career.

- Earned her career-best tournament score (220), career-best tournament score vs. par (+7), career-tying 36-hole score (147) and a tied-for-15th-place finish in leading the Seminoles to a ninth place team finish at the fall 2004 ACC/SEC Challenge.

- Played in the 2003, 2005 and 2006 U.S. Women's Amateur and the 2005 Public Links tournaments and made it through the first round of qualifying before falling in sectional qualifying for the 2003 and 2006 U.S. Women's Open. She advanced to match play and through two rounds of stroke play at the 2006 North-South Amateur at Pinehurst.

- Averages 77.20 strokes in 93 rounds during 31 tournaments in the first three years of her career.

Fall 2003

- Became a member of the Seminoles' starting line-up upon her arrival at Florida State and competed in four tournaments during her first semester.

- Earned her first career top 20 individual finish in helping the Seminoles to the team championship at the Ann Rhoads/University of Alabama Intercollegiate.

Spring 2004

- Helped lead the Seminoles to the NCAA Championship during her first spring season as a member of the Seminoles' starting line-up.

- Established her career-best single-round score with an even-par 72 in the fourth and final round of the NCAA Championship.

- Among the team leaders with .909 percent of her rounds (20 of 22) counted towards the team score throughout the season.

Fall 2004

- The best season of her first two years at Florida State as she earned a pair of top-20 individual finishes and carded her career-best tournament score of 220 at the Florida State hosted ACC/SEC Challenge.

- First career top-15 finish at the ACC/SEC Challenge.

- Top Seminole finisher at the Cougar Fall Classic and the ACC/SEC Challenge and helped Florida State to three top-10 team finishes in four events.

Spring 2005

- Played in all five of the Seminoles' events and led the team in stroke average with a 77.93 mark.

- Counted all 15 of her individual scores toward the team score in all five events and earned three top-25 finishes in five events during the spring season. She was Florida State's top finisher in three of five events.

Fall 2005

- Led the Seminoles with a 76.17 stroke average and ranked first among her teammates with three single-round scores at par or better.

WOMEN'S GOLF 2006-07 FSU Seminoles

PLAYERS

- Carded her career-best single-round score of 68 in the second round of the Florida State hosted Chrysler Challenge. Her score was the lowest of her career and the lowest of the fall 2005 and spring 2006 seasons for the Seminoles.

- Was Florida State's leading finisher in the season-opening Cougar Classic and helped Florida State to top-10 finishes at the Tar Heel Invitational and the Chrysler Invitational.

- Earned the third of her three career top-five finishes at the Chrysler Challenge with a tied-for-fifth-place finish.

Spring 2006

- Helped lead Florida State to the NCAA Championship for the second time during her career. The Seminoles earned a top 16 national ranking with a 16th place finish at the NCAA Championship. It marked the second time in her career she has led Florida State to a top-20 national finish after a tied-for-19th-place finish in 2004.

- Earned her career-best finish of tied for second in leading the Seminoles to the team title at the Ryder/Florida Championship. She finished with a 222 total score – the fourth best of her career – in finishing tied with Caroline Westrup as the Seminoles' top finisher in the individual standings.

- Finished tied for 25th in the NCAA East Regional Championship in leading Florida State to a fourth place team finish in the team event. The Seminoles advanced to the NCAA Championship with their fourth place finish in the regional.

- Carded a 71 in the third round of the regional championship to help the Seminoles keep their fourth place standing. Her score of 71 ranks as the second best of her career and the best of her career in six regional championship rounds.

- Played in her third career ACC Championship and finished tied for 15th in the individual standings to earn the second top-15 ACC finish of her career.

- Averaged 76.36 strokes in 22 rounds during a career-high seven events.

On Westrup:

- All-America First-Team and All-ACC in 2006 as one of the nation's top female collegiate golfers.
- Only the seventh All-America in school history, the first First-Team All-America selection since Nadia Ste-Marie 1989 and the first freshman in school history to be honored with All-America honors.
- Finished tied for 29th in the individual standings and led the Seminoles to a 16th place finish in the 2006 NCAA Championship.
- Also performed well academically with a 4.0 grade point average in her first semester at Florida State.
- Helped lead Sweden to the team title at the 2006 European Ladies Junior Team Championship.

Spring 2006

- Earned All-America and All-ACC honors as she led the Seminoles in stroke average (73.64), rounds scored at par or better (nine), rounds scored at 75 or better (15) and tied for the team lead with her low round score of 70.
- Earned five top-five individual finishes – first at the Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic, second at the Lady Gamecock Invitational, tied for second at the Ryder/Florida Championship, tied for third at the NCAA East Regional Championship and fourth in the ACC Championship.
- Finished the season with the fifth lowest scoring average in the ACC – behind three Duke players (Amanda Blumenherst, Liz Janangelo and Anna Grzbień) and one player from Virginia (Leah Wigger). All five players finished in the top 30 of the individual standings at the NCAA Championship
- Finished in 29th place at the 2006 NCAA Championship on the Scarlet Course at The Ohio State University. The 29th place finish was her lowest of the season as she finished in the top-30 in each of the seven tournaments she entered during the spring.
- After finishing in 24th place in her first collegiate tournament (LSU/Cleveland Golf Classic) in March, Westrup finished in the top four of her next five events leading up to the NCAA Championship. Included in those top placings was a first place finish at the prestigious Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic at the University of Georgia, a third place finish at the Lady

Gamecock Classic at the University of South Carolina and a third place finish at the NCAA East Regional.

- Earned All-ACC honors as voted on by the league's nine head coaches. It marked the first time a Seminole freshman had earned All-ACC honors.
- Earned National Player of the Week honors by GolfWeek Magazine on March 29, 2006 after earning medalist honors in the Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic.
- Florida State's top individual finisher in all seven events during the season. Only four of her 22 rounds of golf were played with scores at 75 or above and was a cumulative total of 36 strokes over par for the ENTIRE season.
- Her low 36 round score of 143 came at the NCAA East Regional Championship with scores of 71-72-70 as she finished tied for three with a three-under par score of 213. Her 213 score at the NCAA East Regional Championship was the best of her first season as a Seminole.
- Counted 21.5 of her 22 single-round scores (.977 percent) toward the team score in her first season.
- Averaged 73.64 strokes in 22 rounds during seven tournaments.
