

2008-09 Season REVIEW

Caroline Westrup Earns Fourth All-ACC and All-America Honors

Seminole golfer Caroline Westrup earned All-American Honorable Mention Honors by Golf Week Magazine making her the first Seminole women's golfer to earn All-America recognition four-times Westrup garnered All-American first team honors in 2006 and 2007 and second team honors in 2008. She is also the only four-time All-ACC selection in school history and won a school-record five individual tournament championships, was Florida State's team captain a school-record three times and led the Seminoles to the NCAA Tournament a school-record tying four times.

she carded a four-over par 76. Young managed to beat her championship winning score from a year ago by six strokes.

Down and Out

The Florida State women's golf team had its share of challenges with illness and injury in 2008-09. FSU's top golfer, senior All-American Caroline Westrup missed three tournaments in the spring semester, suffering from mono. She returned in time for the post season and played at the ACC Championship and in the NCAA regional. Freshman Hannah Thompson, who was considered one of the top players in the lineup for the Seminoles, tore her meniscus at the start of the spring semester and competed in the postseason only.

Travels Take 'Noles To Puerto Rico

The Seminoles had the opportunity to travel to beautiful Rio Grande, Puerto Rico as they competed in the Lady Puerto Rico Classic at the Coco Beach Golf Course. The 36-hole event, which was the first of the spring season for the Seminoles, was played over three days.

Seminole's Silva Leads Chile at Women's World Amateur Golf Championship

Seminole Ma-

carena Silva had the honor to represent her country Chile at the World Championship in Australia in October. She finished in a tie for 68th place in the individual standings at the Women's World Amateur Team Championship. She led Chile to a 34th place finish in the team standings. Silva finished tied for the team lead as she carded a 74 on the West Course at The Grange Golf Club. Her score of 74 tied her personal best in the tournament; she also carded a 74 in the first round of the 72-hole tournament. Silva's score of 74 was tied for the best among her Chilean teammates while her 307 tournament score was the best on the team.

Seminole Women's Golf Team Played in 2009 NCAA Championship

Florida State's women's golf team once again proved that it is one of the most consistent programs in collegiate golf when the Seminoles were selected to participate in the NCAA Championship tournament for the 16th time in the last 19 seasons. The Seminoles traveled to the NCAA East Regional Championship at the Mark Bostic Golf Course at the University of Florida May 7-9. It marked the fourth consecutive season and the eighth time in the last nine seasons that the Seminoles played in a regional with a chance to qualify for the NCAA Championship finals. The Seminoles finished in 15th place in the team standings and fell just short of qualifying for the NCAA championship round.

Seminole's Young Wins PGA Minority Championship for Second Consecutive Year

In mid-May, Sara Young won the independent women's division championship of the 23rd Annual PGA Minority Golf Championship at the PGA Golf Club for the second consecutive year. She defeated Etivise Latu of California State-Monterey by four strokes. Young carded three scores in the 70's and finished with a 13-over par score of 229. She shot a 78 in the first round and moved into first place with a 75 in the second round. She maintained her lead in the third round as

Seminole's Westrup Pegged the Nation's No. 1 Ranked Collegiate Women's Golfer

In September, senior Caroline Westrup was pegged the No. 1 ranked women's collegiate golfer and the Seminole women's golf team was ranked No. 14 in the GolfWeek/Sagarin Performance Index.
