

#6 ASHLEE FONTES

DEFENDER • 5'5" • SR • ROCHESTER HILLS, MI (ROCHESTER ADAMS)

2001: Continued to prove in 2001 that she is one of the best one-on-one defenders on the Seminole squad... rarely gets beat and has held her own against some of the best forwards in the nation... started 17 of the last 18 games and appeared in all 24 matches...after starting the year as a reserve, Fontes earned her starting spot back due to her play off the bench and her work on the practice field ...recorded the first point of her FSU career after appearing in 49 matches on an assist against FIU as the Seminoles moved in front of the Golden Panthers 4-1...also recorded her first two shots in three seasons against Santa Clara and Duke...Fontes cemented her place in Seminole soccer history during an epic 150-minute battle with the University of Virginia in the ACC semifinals. After freshman keeper Ali Mims saved her third PK in the shootout with UVa, the score was tied at 2-2 and Fontes was the last kicker remaining. With a ticket to the ACC Championship final on the line, she stepped up to take the first penalty kick of her career. The junior right back had

2001: Garcia started the last twelve games of the 2001 season at center mid and was counted on to replace one of Florida State's all-time greats after Marte Vik Edvardsen was sidelined due to injury... voted by her teammates as a captain in 2002...appeared in all 24 games and played a crucial role especially once she assumed starting duties...scored the first three goals of her career and established a new season-high with six points...despite limited starts, Garcia had the eighth-highest point total on the squad, scored the fourth-most goals and was fourth on the team with .200 shot percentage...recorded the first goal of her career and her first career points in a 5-0 win over UCF. Her goal came just 44 seconds before half and put FSU up 3-0... garnered the first start of her career against defending National Champion North Carolina and scored just the fifth goal of the season against the Heels. Garcia snuck in behind the UNC defense and got her foot on a Marte Vik Edvardsen pass before UNC keeper Kristin DePlatchett could pick the ball up. Garcia sent a high arching shot over the head of the keeper for the second goal of her career and the second goal in just over a week...continued her offensive production against Jacksonville as she helped FSU build on their 3-1 lead in the 82nd
