biggest games of the season in Florida State's most important road victory at Clemson after which she was named ACC Player of the Week and was also named to the Soccer America Team of the Week. After falling behind the Tigers 1-0 just two minutes in, Tollefson collected a pass from freshman Camie Bybee just outside the Clemson 18-yard box and beat a couple of Tiger defenders. The Boca Raton native then launched a blast from the far edge of the box about 16 yards out. The shot found its way into the upper corner at the far post beating 2000 first team All-ACC keeper Katie Carson, marking the first goal scored against Clemson in 2001. After FSU fell behind 2-1 and once again fought back to tie the contest at 2-2, Tollefson was sent in behind the Clemson defense where she launched a dangerous cross in front of the Tigers' net. The ball was headed for a waiting Jez Ratliff in the six-yard box before Tiger defender Sarah Turner came running back to clear the cross and ended up deflecting the ball past Carson into the Clemson net. Tollefson was credited with the goal, the second game-winner of her career, and FSU recorded its first-ever win in an ACC opener. Tollefson's two goals nearly equaled her total of three from the entire 2000 season and her four points were a single game high for the sophomore...recorded her second game-winner of the season in the 73rd minute against Louisville giving FSU a 3-2 win... Tollefson had another huge ACC game in the program's first-ever win over Duke. She helped to lead the Seminoles' largest comeback ever getting FSU on the board with her fourth goal of the year, which gave the team new life just over eight minutes into the second half and closed Duke's lead to 2-1. After FSU went on to tie the match 2-2, Tollefson recorded the first game-winning assist of her career on Cindy Schofield's overtime game-winner, completing the unprecedented comeback...continued her hot play in the conference, recording her second assist of the season against No. 19 Wake Forest, which evened the game just three minutes after Wake had taken a 1-0 lead...had another assist against a ranked ACC opponent, helping stake FSU to a 2-1 lead just 10 minutes in against No. 8

Virginia...with third place in the ACC and a perfect home record on the line, Tollefson showed well in another big game against a ranked conference foe. Just 22 minutes in against No. 21 Maryland, Tollefson broke open a defensive game with her fifth goal, and third game-winner of the year, staking the Seminoles to a 1-0 lead. She then cemented the Seminoles best home record (8-0-0), best conference record (4-3-0) and highest conference finish (third) in team history by assisting on Cindy Schofield's goal to put FSU up 2-0 on the Terps...Tollefson equaled her season high for points with four in FSU's quarterfinal blasting of Maryland with a goal and two assists.
