assists placed her second on the squad... third on the team in shots taken in ACC matches... (in the NCAAs) just the third player in Florida State soccer history to record both a goal and an assist in NCAA Tournament play... FSU's third all-time leading scorer in NCAA postseason play... scored her first-ever NCAA Tournament goal versus Ole Miss... her assist was a game-winner as she fed fellow Oklahoman Camie Bybee on FSU's only goal in a 1-0 win over Auburn in the 2001 tournament... (vs. Oregon) had a big game for FSU early in the season as she recorded a goal and game-winning assist in the Tribe's first win of the year. Summer Corum sent a great ball down the right side to Ratliff. The sophomore collected the pass and made a run to goal. Ratliff put a move on the keeper and then buried the shot at the far post for FSU's first goal of the season. In the 61st minute Ratliff helped put the game away as she beat the keeper to a 50-50 ball and sent it to Bybee who scored the game-winner... (vs. Missouri) scored in her second straight game as she equalized the game in the 79th minute after the Seminoles fell behind 2-1. Ratliff carried the ball down the left wing and centered a perfect strike to Cindy Schofield. The senior got off a brilliant shot which caught the inside of the right post and ricocheted straight back to Ratliff on the left side of the box. The Oklahoma native buried her second goal of the year... (vs. Florida) scored her first game-winning goal of the season on her only shot of the game. The Seminoles had just tied the game with the Gators after an early UF goal and time was winding down in the first half. In the 36th-minute freshman Teresa Rivera served a beautiful ball to the back post off a free kick. Amber Tollefson got her head on the service and knocked it into the center of the box where Ratliff was waiting. The sophomore forward one-timed the shot into the Gator net scoring the eventual game-winner... (vs. UCF) in FSU's next match Ratliff had a part in another game-winner, this time via an assist. With just over 10 minutes left before overtime, Leah Gallegos collected a pass from Ratliff about 24 yards away from the goal. She took one look and blasted a shot to the near post, which the keeper had no chance to save... (vs. Duke) recorded another key goal in FSU's next game on the road. With the Seminoles trailing 1-0 for more than 62 minutes, Katie Beal launched a free kick from 40 yards out and Camie Bybee sent a dangerous header that the Blue Devil keeper was just able to keep out of the net. Ratliff collected the rebound and fired the shot into the net for her fourth goal of the season and her first in ACC play in 2002... (vs. NC State) in FSU's next conference road game, Ratliff recorded the first multi-assist game of her career as she played one of her most dominant games of the season. In her first full game in the wide midfield, Ratliff took advantage of NC State's 4-3-3 and ran wild all game on the flanks. In the 27th minute, Ratliff put FSU on the board. She made a great run down the right wing and found freshman Erica Lewis at the top of the box just to the right of the goal. She settled the ball, took one touch and fired a low drive to the near post beating Gretchen Lear. Less than 10 minutes later, Ratliff got the Wolfpack again.

Gallegos sent a long ball down the left side of the pitch. The speedy sophomore chased it down and turned to goal. She sent a perfect service to the backpost where Alli Ferreri was waiting. The freshman deflected the shot past the keeper and into the side netting staking FSU to a 2-0 lead... (vs. Jacksonville) came back in FSU's next match and recorded her fifth goal of the season. Katie Beal started the play by sending Corum endline. Corum looked up and found Ratliff making a run at the back post. The Oklahoma native sent her header shot back to the other side of the net easily beating the Dolphin keeper and staking FSU to the 1-0 lead. 2001: Standout freshman who started seven games and appeared in all 24 matches for the Seminoles... earned All-ACC Rookie team honors as one of the top offensive freshmen in the ACC... provided an unbelievable spark for FSU all season whether she played up top or wide in the midfield due to her rare blend of great pace and an unending work rate... recorded five goals, six assists, three game-winning assists and totaled 16 points in her first season... her 16 points were the fifth-most ever recorded by an FSU freshman and she finished the year with the third-most assists by a freshman... finished 2001 in the top five of every offensive category as she was second in game-winning assists, fifth in points, fourth in assists, third in game-winning goals, fifth in shots and shot percentage, fourth in shots on goal and second in shot on goal percentage... assisted on Bybee's game-winning goal versus Auburn in the NCAA Tournament as FSU won its third postseason match in two seasons. Her cross to the back post, which Bybee headed in, was the third game-winning assist of Ratliff's FSU career... (in the ACC) scored three goals on four shots on goal in conference play helping FSU achieve its best conference record since joining the ACC in 1995... (vs. NC State) in just her second start, she moved FSU to 2-0 in the ACC by scoring both goals in a 2-1 overtime win. Ratliff staked the Seminoles to a 1-0 lead just two minutes into the game and then ended the game in the 96th minute tallying the first game-winner and golden goal of her career... (vs. Wake Forest) scored her third ACC goal of the season giving FSU a 2-1 lead just over two minutes out of the locker room after the half... Ratliff was particularly effective at home, scoring three goals, recording four assists and totaling 10 points in eight home games... (vs. George Mason) in the first game of her Seminole career, Ratliff had her first assist, a game-winner, as she assisted on Cindy Schofield's goal in the 37th minute... (vs. Portland) recorded the first goal of her career against College Cup participant Portland at the Wake Forest/Nike Invitational... had one of her most productive stretches when she started against Kansas, NC State, Florida and Louisville, recording eight of her fifteen points in those four games... in her seven consecutive starts, Ratliff recorded half of her points (8), 60% of her goals (3) and one-third of her assists (2)... (vs. Kansas) she recorded the second assist of her collegiate career as she helped stake FSU to a 4-1 lead on Schofield's goal... (vs. Louisville) FSU fell behind just nine minutes in before Ratliff scored her fourth goal of the year and evened the match at 1-1. 2002: One of FSU's top freshmen and a finalist for ACC All-Rookie team honors...her 12 starts were the second most amongst all Seminole freshmen and she was third amongst newcomers with 21 appearances...the only freshman to start the first game of the 2002 season...filled in admirably for 2001 first team freshman All-American Katie Beal as she recovered from an early season illness...a key member of an FSU defense that allowed the third-fewest regular season goals in team history...her only point of the season came at a huge moment. Her first-ever career point came in the form of a game-winning assist versus FSU rival Florida...Rivera was a weapon on free kicks and corner kicks all season on top of her stellar work in the FSU backline...(in the ACC) appeared in six conference games and made five starts...from her role in the center of the Seminole defense, she and her defensive teammates held ACC opponents to the second-fewest goals in team history...in three of FSU's seven conference games, the defense held the opponent to one goal or less, which has only happened once before in program history...(in the NCAAs) one of five FSU freshmen that saw action in all three NCAA Tournament games in 2002...Rivera was a key contributor to the Seminole defense, which had an unprecedented tournament...the Seminole defense cut down opponent's shots on goal by 50% in the NCAA Tournament compared to the regular season and lowered total shots from 12 to 9.5 per game...(vs. Florida) Rivera served a beautiful ball to the back post off a free kick. Amber Tollefson got her head on the service and knocked it into the center of the box where Jez Ratliff was waiting. The sophomore forward one-timed the shot into the Gator net scoring the eventual game-winner...on top of her game-winning assist, Rivera almost made the Gators pay again on another free kick. She placed a perfect service inside the box that junior defender Kristin Boyce went down to get. Her strong header just six yards out from goal bounced in front of the Gator keeper but Jordan Kelgren came up with the save...(vs. North Carolina) versus the No. 2 Tar Heels, Rivera drove a ball to the back post where two Seminoles made a run. Just before either could get their head on it, UNC's keeper was able to get her fist on the ball and deflect the service out of bounds...(vs. UCF) FSU almost padded its lead on a Rivera corner kick in the 24th-minute. The freshman sent a perfect service to junior defender Boyce in the center of the box. The Austin, TX native fired the header to the left post beating the keeper but it was blocked by a UCF defender before it could cross the goal line...(vs. Clemson) just two minutes into the Seminoles' conference opener, Rivera sent a long, high ball into Cindy Schofield. The senior flicked it on with her head to a waiting Ratliff. The sophomore had a moment of daylight but was unable to challenge the Clemson keeper before the defense closed in on her...(vs. Duke) had one of her best games in another important conference game. Less than 10 minutes after the Seminoles equalized the game, FSU almost broke on top thanks to Rivera. The freshman served a great corner kick to the backpost. Both teams came together in a scramble before the Seminoles fired a shot that went just wide of the post. The flurry continued on the ensuing corner. Rivera once again found an FSU player with a well-placed corner kick. Her service landed at the feet of Katie Beal at the top of the 18 and she launched a shot that sailed over the top of the crossbar. HIGH SCHOOL: One of Florida's best... named 2002 Gatorade Player of the Year in Florida... Student Sports Magazine first team All-American...scored 36 career goals and recorded 44 career assists despite

2002: Team captain and 2001 second team All-ACC selection had another big season for FSU...named All-Southeast Region 3rd team by SoccerBuzz for the second consecutive year...started 21 of FSU's 23 matches and appeared in every game...tied for second on the team with six assists and five of those six assists were game-winners, which led the team and is an all-time FSU single season record...was a nightmare for schools from the state of Florida as she recorded five of her team-leading six assists versus in-state opponents...had the sixth-most points on the team...equaled her assist total from 2001 and she is now fifth on FSU's all-time list for career assists...fifth on the team in shots and sixth on the squad in shots on goal...continues to be one of Florida State's most dangerous playmakers in the wide midfield...(in the ACC) started six of Florida State's seven ACC matches and appeared in every conference game...second on the team in shot on goal percentage (.833) in ACC games and her six shots on frame ranked her third on the team...tied for fifth on the team with six shots...(in the NCAAs) one of just four Seminoles to start all eight NCAA Tournament games in program history...(vs. Oregon) recorded her first assists and first game-winning assist in Florida State's first win of the season...(vs. Miami) recorded another game-winning assist in front of her hometown crowd in the Tribe's 2-1 win. Junior Kristin Boyce played a free kick to Tollefson who lofted a perfect ball right to Summer Corum. The wide midfielder freed herself in the middle of the box and 12 yards from goal. Corum took one step to beat the keeper and then slipped the ball in at the near post...(vs. USF) notched her third assist of the year as she staked the Tribe to a 1-0 lead on senior Cindy Schofield's goal...(vs. Florida) had one of her most important assists of the year in a key 2-1 win. The Seminoles had just tied the game with the Gators after an early UF goal and time was winding down in the first half. In the 36th-minute freshman Teresa Rivera served a beautiful ball to the back post off a free kick. Tollefson, who measures just 5'3", used every inch of her height and an incredible jump to get her head on the service and knock it into the center of the box where Jez Ratliff was waiting. The sophomore forward one-timed the shot into the Gator net scoring the eventual game-winner...(vs. UCF) followed that game-winning assist with another in FSU's next game as she assisted on Leah Gallegos' game-winner...(vs. Jacksonville) continued to be a nightmare versus schools from the state of Florida as she once again assisted on an FSU game-winner. 2001: Garnered honorable mention All-American and first-team all-region honors from SoccerBuzz...was named to the NSCAA's All-Region second team...just the fourth Seminole ever named to the All-ACC team when she garnered second team honors and the fifth FSU player to ever be named to the All-ACC Tournament team...scored six goals, had six assists and totaled 18 points in her second season...recorded three game winning goals and two game winning assists...finished the year in the top five of every major statistical category for Florida State...was second on the team in game-winning goals (3), third in goals (6), fourth in points (18) and fifth in assists (6)...(in the ACC) Tollefson scored five goals on just seven shots on goal versus ACC teams and in conference play she scored four times on four shots on frame...Florida State's most dominant player in games versus ACC teams in 2001, Tollefson led the team in points (16), tied for the lead in goals (5), was first in game-winning goals (2), first in assists (6) and first in shot percentage (.500)...was second on the squad with two game-winning assists versus conference foes and, combined with her two game-winning goals, Tollefson played a key role in four of FSU's five wins versus ACC teams...during the 2001 regular season, Tollefson was also a nightmare for opponents in conference games as she led the squad in points (12), goals (4), game-winning goals (2) and assists (4)...every one of her season highs for points, goals, assists, shots and shots on goal came versus teams in the ACC...against No. 7 Clemson, Tollefson recorded two goals in the Seminoles' biggest regular season road win in program history, she recorded a goal against Duke in FSU's largest comeback in program history and also got the game-winner versus Maryland that assured the Seminoles of their best-ever ACC record (4-3-0) and highest finish (third place) ...scored one of FSU's seven goals in a quarterfinal win over the Terrapins at the ACC Tournament... (vs. Clemson) had one of her biggest games of the season in Florida State's most important road victory after which she was named ACC Player of the Week and was also named to the Soccer America Team of the Week. After falling behind the Tigers 1-0 just two minutes in, Tollefson collected a pass from Bybee just outside the Clemson 18-yard box and beat a couple of Tiger defenders. The Boca Raton native then launched a blast from the far edge of the box about 16 yards out. The shot found its way into the upper corner at the far post beating 2000 first team All-ACC keeper Katie Carson, marking the first goal scored against Clemson in 2001. After FSU fell behind 2-1 and once again fought back to tie the contest at 2-2, Tollefson was sent in behind the Clemson defense where she launched a dangerous cross in front of the Tigers' net. The ball was headed for a waiting Jez Ratliff in the six-yard box before Tiger defender Sarah Turner came running back to clear the cross and ended up deflecting the ball past Carson into the Clemson net. Tollefson was credited with the goal, the second game-winner of her career, and FSU recorded its first-ever win in an ACC opener. Tollefson's two goals nearly equaled her total of three from the entire 2000 season and her four points were a single game high for the sophomore... (vs. Louisville) recorded her second game-winner of the season in the 73rd minute giving FSU a 3-2 win... (vs. Duke) Tollefson had another huge ACC game in the program's first-ever win over Duke. She helped to lead the Seminoles' largest comeback ever getting FSU on the board with her fourth goal of the year, which gave the team new life just over eight minutes into the second half and closed Duke's lead to 2-1. After FSU went on to tie the match 2-2, Tollefson recorded the first game-winning assist of her career on Schofield's overtime game-winner, completing the unprecedented comeback... (vs. Wake Forest) continued her hot play in the conference, recording her second assist of the season, which evened the game just three minutes after Wake had taken a 1-0 lead... (vs. Virginia) had another assist against a ranked ACC opponent, helping stake FSU to a 2-1 lead just 10 minutes in... (vs. Maryland) with third place in the ACC and a perfect home record on the line, Tollefson showed well in another big game against a ranked conference foe. Just 22 minutes in against No. 21 Maryland, Tollefson broke open a defensive game with her fifth goal, and third game-winner of the year, staking the Seminoles to a 1-0 lead. She then cemented the Seminoles best home record (8-0-0), best conference record (4-3-0) and highest conference finish (third) in team history by assisting on Schofield's goal to put FSU up 2-0 on the Terps... (vs. Maryland) Tollefson equaled her season high for points with four in FSU's ACC quarterfinal blasting of the Terps with a goal and two assists. Her two assists against the Terrapins were a season high and gave her two goals and three assists in two games versus UMd... during FSU's run to the ACC Championship final, Tollefson was second on the team in points (4), second in goals (1), tied for the team lead in assists (2), second in shots (4) and first in shots on goal (3). 2000: Appeared in 22 games and started 19 times...scored three goals and tallied two assists...third among freshmen in starts, third in goals scored and fourth in assists...seventh on the team in points (8), seventh in goals scored, tied for third with one game-winning goal and seventh in shot percentage (.150)... (vs. Jacksonville) set season highs for goals, points, assists and shots in two games... two of her three goals came against the Dolphins...first collegiate goal was the game-winner in a 3-0 Seminole victory... (vs. Duke) scored her second goal just 10 minutes into the game to give FSU a 1-0 lead... (in the NCAAs) scored the game-winner in FSU's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance in a 4-1 win over Jacksonville.

2002: Started every game for the Seminoles in net...surpassed all of her numbers from a standout rookie year...fourth on the single-season saves list with 97... cut her GAA from 1.67 in 2001 to 1.46...her 2002 GAA was the fourth-best single season GAA in team history...is currently second among all-time Seminoles with a career GAA of 1.53...registered four shutouts last season compared to three in 2001 and she also doubled her minutes played...only one Seminole keeper has ever played more minutes in a season than York with her 2028-plus minutes...was the keeper of record in every FSU game except for a loss to LSU and she now has 20 career wins, which is already the second-best career win total in program history...was just one win shy from tying the record for the most wins in a single season by any FSU keeper... (in the ACC) her three ACC wins were a single-season record and she now has a school record five conference wins in her career...31 of her 97 saves came in conference play...had a GAA of 2.11 in ACC matches but without the five goals she allowed versus Carolina, her GAA drops to 1.60 against the six other conference opponents...she faced 90 shots in ACC play and had a save percentage of .674... (in the NCAAs) York has been phenomenal in five NCAA appearances over the last two seasons...the sophomore has allowed only two goals in 360 minutes in net for Florida State...her 0.67 GAA is the lowest of any FSU keeper in NCAA Tournament play and no Seminole keeper has registered a higher save percentage in NCAA play than York's .857...she has a career winning percentage of .800 in five tournament games and she is tied for the career lead at FSU with two NCAA Tournament wins in a season...the keeper was stellar in the first two rounds of the 2002 tournament as she recorded her first-ever full shutout in a 1-0 win over Ole Miss...two days later she limited Auburn to only one goal as the Seminoles advanced to their second Sweet 16 in three years... against UConn, she allowed one goal in the opening moments of the match and then went on to shutout the Huskies for 89 minutes... (vs. Oregon State) recorded the first-ever opening day shutout in team history as she held the Beavers off the scoreboard for 110 minutes recording seven saves against OSU... (vs. Virginia Tech) notched her second shutout in a 1-0 win in Coral Gables, FL. She recorded six saves as she kept the Hokie offense off the board for 90 minutes... (vs. Clemson) despite allowing three goals, York came up with one of the biggest saves of the season for FSU in the team's conference opener. After FSU tied the game at 3-3, Deliah Arrington looked to end the game in the 89th-minute and record her third goal of the second half. Arrington used her speed to get in alone with York but the keeper's sliding save preserved the tie and opened the door for Leah Gallegos' golden goal in overtime... (vs. Duke) in a key ACC road game at Duke, York shutdown the Blue Devil offense for more than 86 minutes after an early Casey McCluskey goal. Her efforts allowed FSU to get a tie and would later be a key moment in FSU posting an undefeated record in conference road games... after a loss to Carolina, York played her best soccer of the year at the most important time. She allowed just five goals in the final five games three of which were on the road... (vs. Maryland) had her best game of the year in a shutout win over then No. 16 Maryland in College Park. The keeper, who was recruited by Maryland and grew up just 20 minutes away from Ludwig Field, was huge in the net for FSU all night as she recorded a career-high 12 saves. The win improved the sophomore's record to 3-0-0 all-time versus Maryland and both of her conference shutouts have come against her hometown team. 2001: Won the starting job in preseason and went on to start seven games in goal before injuring her knee against NC State...for the season, posted a 7-3 record and a rookie record 3.0 shutouts with a 1.67 GAA while starting in all 14 matches in which she appeared...played 969 minutes in 2001, recorded 54 saves and posted a .750 save percentage on 141 shots...York's seven wins equaled the fourth-highest single season total in FSU program history and her 54 saves were the third-most ever recorded by a freshman goalie at Florida State... (vs. Loyola) recorded her first career shutout in the second game of the season in a 2-0 win...went on to start against No. 3 Santa Clara and No. 4 Portland recording a season-high eight saves against the Pilots and then breaking the mark with 11 against the Broncos... (vs. Clemson) got the biggest
