

win of her career in the Seminoles first-ever ACC road win against No. 7 Clemson. The freshman keeper out dueled 2000 All-ACC goalkeeper Katie Carson, making five saves in FSU's 3-2 victory...after picking up her third win of the year over NCAA Tournament team Kansas, York injured her knee in warm-ups before the NC State game. The freshman lasted almost 57 minutes on the injured knee before re aggravating the injury while diving for a loose ball in the penalty box... (vs. Maryland) York rehabbed for four weeks before she made her return against the Terrapins in the Seminoles' last home game of the regular season. With third place in the ACC and an undefeated home campaign on the line, York rose to the occasion against the Terrapins, registering her first shutout in conference play...her play at the ACC Tournament was one of the main reasons FSU advanced to the ACC Championship final...recorded a win against the Terps for the second time in less than a week in leading FSU into the semifinals... (vs. Virginia) played brilliantly in the first half under heavy pressure against Virginia in picking up half of a shutout as she and Ali Mims split time in net. She faced nine shots and made six saves keeping FSU in the game against No. 7 UVa as FSU went on to advance in a shootout. HIGH SCHOOL: 2001 Gatorade High School Player of the Year in Maryland...Baltimore Sun All-Metro selection in 2001...Anne Arundel County Player of the Year 2001...Washington Post All-Metro first team 2000 and All-Metro second team 1999...posted a .920 save percentage as a senior...was the starting, and only, goalkeeper for the Severna Park High School Falcons since the first game of her freshman year...as a freshman, York was part of a team that won no titles — county, regional or otherwise the year before her arrival, and organized a defense which helped the team capture the county championship, the regional championship and reach the state semifinal game... sophomore year, she again helped lead Severna Park to the county and regional titles and the state final...as a junior, York's Severna Park team once again captured the county title and progressed to the regional final finishing 19-2...in her senior season, York captained the Falcons
