St. Anselm College '83
2nd Season at FSU
13th Collegiate Season

Florida State soccer head coach Mark Krikorian took over the Seminole soccer program in 2005 and in one year he led FSU to the most successful season in school history. Under his guidance Florida State went from a team that was unranked in every college soccer poll and pegged to finish sixth in the ACC at the start of the 2005 season to the College Cup and a top five national rank.

In Krikorian's first year at the helm of the Seminole program, FSU established new records for overall wins, winning percentage, fewest losses, most ACC wins, the best ACC winning percentage and longest winning streak both in and out of the conference. Krikorian's 2005 squad was the first in school history to reach 20 wins and they matched the highest finish ever by an FSU team in ACC play. He led Florida State to a school-record seven wins over NSCAA Top 25 teams and for the first time in program history FSU spent a month ranked among the nation's top 10 teams in every soccer poll.

Krikorian took a Seminole team that was eliminated in the first round of the 2004 NCAA Tournament and led them to the College Cup in 2005. He is just the sixth coach in the history of DI Women's soccer to lead his team to the national semifinals in his first season at a school. FSU is now one of six schools who have gone to the College Cup under the direction of two different coaches. Four of those teams (Florida State, Cal, Notre Dame and Colorado College) each went to the College Cup for a second time under a first year coach, but Krikorian is the only coach of those four who led his team to the College Cup after the previous year's squad did not win at least one game in the tournament directly preceding his hiring.

For his efforts Krikorian was honored both regionally and nationally. He was named the first ACC Coach of the Year in Seminole soccer history, the 2005 Soccer America National Coach of the Year, the 2005 Soccer Buzz National Coach of the Year, Soccer Buzz's Southeast Region Coach of the Year and the NCSAA's South Region Coach of the Year.

Krikorian guided Florida State into uncharted territory in 2005 with win streaks of seven and nine games. He is only the second coach in ACC history to lead his team to a seven game win streak inside the conference. He did one thing in 2005 that no other ACC coach was able to do: Krikorian's Seminoles were the only team in the ACC to finish two spots higher than they were predicted in the preseason coaches' poll. Florida State was pegged to finish sixth and wound up in second place. Only two other ACC teams finished higher than predicted and neither of those programs qualified for the ACC Tournament. Every other team in the conference either

The Seminoles have flourished under Krikorian's guidance. The team finished the most dominant season ever as far as both offense and defense is concerned. Proof of that is Florida State's goal differential, which was a +43, 11 better than the previous record. The 2005 Seminoles established single season records for goals and points. His team also set a new record for shutouts in a season with 11 and posted the lowest GAA in school history at 0.86, which is the first sub-1.00 GAA ever at FSU.

The 2005 season marked the fifth straight year Krikorian led a team to the NCAA Women's soccer tournament and the second time he has guided a Division I squad to the quarterfinals. He took Hartford to the NCAA Tournament from 1997-2000 including trips to the quarterfinals and two appearances in the round of 16. Krikorian has a lifetime winning percentage of .607 in the Division I Women's Soccer Tournament and also captured two Division II National Championships with Franklin

*National Champions

"The first thing that comes to mind is Mark's work ethic is unparalleled," said former US National Team Coach April Heinrichs. "He has a great eye for talent, and he will leave no stone unturned, at home and overseas, trying to find the best players for Florida State."

Despite all the success FSU has had over the last five years, Krikorian's team and players managed to establish over 50 firsts and records in 2005. His players won more than 30 conference, regional and national honors including three All-ACC first team selections, which led the entire conference. Three players were finalists for national player of the year awards and FSU players received five All-American honors this past season.

On top of his impressive resume in coaching the top talent at the collegiate level, Krikorian has worked with the world's best players during his stops as the head coach of the U-19 National Team and his three years with the Philadelphia Charge. Florida State's head coach has coached soccer greats from all over the world including US National team stars Brandi Chastain, Kristine Lilly, Tiffeny Milbrett, Heather Mitts and Lorie Fair; English National team player Kelly Smith; French national Marinette Pinchon and Brazilian National Team players Sissi and Katia.

Florida State players weren't only recognized for their success on the field but in the classroom as well. Three Seminoles received regional academic awards and India Trotter was named an academic All-American marking a first for the FSU soccer program. Twelve FSU soccer players earned ACC academic Pierce. FSU's 2005 College Cup match versus UCLA represented Krikorian's fifth all-time appearance in an NCAA soccer semifinal match.

The FSU coach has been at the helm of a college team for a total of 12 seasons now and he has recorded 19+ wins five times in that span. With a .820 winning percentage in 2005, Krikorian has won 73% of the games he has coached at the collegiate level. The 2005 season was a personal best for him when it comes to his first year on the job as he established new bests for wins, fewest losses and highest winning percentage.

US U-19 NATIONAL TEAM

Prior to taking over the Seminole soccer program, Krikorian came to Florida State fresh off leading the United States U-19 National Team to the bronze medal while winning the FIFA Fair Play Award at the 2004 U-19 Women's World Cup. As the head coach for the US U-19 National Team, Krikorian was responsible for all technical aspects of the program as the team prepared for the second-ever U-19 FIFA World Championship.

His U-19 squad cruised through Group C play finishing undefeated beating South Korea, Russia and European Champion Spain. They were the only team to win all three group matches in the tournament as the US outscored its opponents 8-1. Krikorian then led the US past Australia in the quarterfinals before falling to eventual World Champion Germany in the tournament semifinals. The team responded by beating Brazil 3-0 to secure the bronze medal. It kept the US's streak alive as the only country to secure a top-three finish in all nine FIFA World Championships for women.

The team not only left Thailand with bronze medals but they also were awarded the FIFA Fair Play Trophy. Individually US midfielder Angie Wozniak received the Silver Ball as the tournament's second Most Outstanding Player and the Bronze Shoe as the tournament's third-leading scorer. Overall, Krikorian's squad outscored the competition 13-4 in the world championships.

WUSA

As the head coach of the Philadelphia Charge from 2000-2003, Krikorian had another opportunity to coach the top players in the world and he once again proved he could take talent and guide it to great heights. He not only coached 2002 WUSA MVP and Offensive MVP Pichon but he also had the league's top keeper in Melissa Moore who led the league with a 1.00 GAA. He coached the Charge to two playoff berths in his three seasons and was named the league's coach of the year in 2002. Krikorian drafted and coached 10 WUSA All-Stars in just three years on the Charge bench.

In his first season with Philadelphia Krikorian posted 11 wins in leading the Charge into the playoffs. His side finished third that year in the regular season standings. The next year the Charge once again won 11 games and finished second in the standings, which was an amazing accomplishment considering Krikorian's top player was lost for the season when Kelly Smith went down with an injury. His squad still finished the regular season 11-4-6.

THE UNIVERSITY OF HARTFORD

Krikorian had achieved an equal measure of success on the college level before jumping to the WUSA. He coached the University of Hartford for five seasons from 1996-2000 leading the squad to an Elite Eight and two Sweet Sixteen appearances during his four consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament. He recruited five National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-Americans, three academic

All-Americans and his squads received the NSCAA Team Academic Award on four occasions. Overall, Krikorian's teams averaged 15 wins per season as he posted a 75-30-3 overall record while winning three conference championships. Three of his squads finished the year ranked in the NSCAA's top 15 and they were awarded the NSCAA Team Academic Award for four straight seasons.

Krikorian wasted little time in turning Hartford into a national power. After a 4-14 first season, Krikorian's Hawks won at least 17 games and never lost more than five while advancing to the NCAA Tournament in each of his next four seasons.

Hartford immediately improved to 19-2-1 in just the second season under Krikorian including a win over national power Connecticut. Hartford also won just the second NCAA Tournament game in school history that year. In 1998 the success continued as the Hawks posted a 17-5 record while advancing to the Sweet 16. That year Krikorian led Hartford to wins over Texas A&M and Harvard in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

In 1999, only his third year at the helm of the Hawk program, Krikorian put together the best soccer season in school history. Hartford finished the regular season 15-4-2 and as conference champions for the third straight year. That regular season success was tame compared to the team's magical run through the NCAA Tournament. After opening with a home win over Princeton, Krikorian traveled to Gainesville to take on the defending National Champions. His Hawks dethroned the Gators on the road and then did the same thing a week later to Virginia in a 3-2 triple overtime win. The victory moved the Hawks into the Elite Eight for the first time in school history.

In his final season in Connecticut Krikorian put together his most impressive regular season as his Hawks went 17-2. They defeated both Virginia and Florida again. The win over Florida was a decisive 3-0 victory. Krikorian also led the Hawks to the school's first-ever victory over Dartmouth in the seventh meeting between the programs.

FRANKLIN PIERCE COLLEGE

Krikorian came to Hartford after spending six years as the head coach at Franklin Pierce College in Rindge, NH (1990-1996) where he built one of the most dominant soccer programs in the college game. His teams won two National Championships, both during undefeated seasons, and appeared in two other final fours. His squad's had a remarkable 39-game winning streak and his 1995 National Championship team was 20-0. Krikorian's teams compiled a 93-19-3 record in six seasons. He recruited three National Players of the Year, eight All-Americans, five academic All-Americans and four national scoring champions. His team at Franklin Pierce also garnered the NSCAA Team Academic Award.

Before Krikorian arrived at Franklin Pierce, the school had an all-time record of 21-36-4 in five seasons winning just under 38% of their games. After he arrived on campus, the Ravens have had just one losing season in 14 years and have won five National Championships. Since Krikorian became the head coach and rejuvenated the program, Franklin Pierce has won almost 89% of their matches. Krikorian built the foundation for the Franklin Pierce dynasty in just six years on the job.

In 1990, his first year in New Hampshire, Krikorian went 10-6-2. The school's 10 victories were just four shy of tying the program's total from its first five years of existence. Two seasons later the Ravens were 20-1 and finished in the NCAA semifinals. After a 16-3 season in 1993 and another NCAA semifinal, Krikorian completed his reclamation of Franklin Pierce by going a perfect 19-0 and winning the school's first-ever NCAA women's soccer championship. What did Krikorian then do for an encore? In 1995 he repeated as National Champions this time with a record of 20-0.

After departing for Hartford after the 1995 season, the Ravens went on to capture two more National Championships and five in a six-year span. Franklin Pierce and North Carolina are still the only two schools in the history of NCAA soccer to win four consecutive NCAA Championships.

HONORS & AWARDS

Krikorian's two national coach of the year awards in 2005 continued an impressive trend in which the Seminole boss has been honored at every stop of his career. He was named WUSA Coach of the Year in 2002 and received numerous honors and awards throughout his coaching career prior to moving to the professional ranks. He was named the NSCAA's Northeast Division I Coach of the Year in 1997, the NSCAA Division II National Coach of the Year in 1992 and 1995, the NSCAA Division II Northeast Region Coach of the Year in 1992 and 1995 and was a two-time New England Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year in 1994 and 1995. In 1990 and 1993 he was named the Division II New England Coach of the Year as well.

Krikorian was a standout player at St. Anselm College in Manchester, NH from 1981-1983. He was a two-time captain and team MVP. In 1983 he was a New England Indoor Soccer League (NEISL) All-Star and a first team All-New England selection.

PERSONAL

Krikorian graduated with a degree in history from St. Anselm College and he earned his master's degree in education from Keene (NH) State College in 1994. Krikorian also served as an assistant men's coach at the University of Maine at Farmington and was a Social Studies teacher at Mt. Abram High School in Maine and Raymond High School in New Hampshire. Krikorian was born in Malden, MA March 28, 1960. He is married to the former Linda Mastrogiovanni. They have two children Alexandra (5) and Michael (3).

Assistant Coach
ERIC BELL
College of Wooster '92
1st Season at FSU

Eric Bell is in his first season with the Seminole soccer program and comes to Tallahassee after spending the last four years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Illinois. Last season he was named NSCAA Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year while working at one of the top soccer programs in the Big 10. For the past decade Bell has been an assistant and head coach in both the men's and women's side of the college game. He is a member of the coaching staff for Region II of the Olympic Development Program and was the state team head coach for the ODP in Minnesota in 2001.

"I want people that have leadership qualities and are able to step right up, grab the reins and lead our group," said FSU Head Coach Mark Krikorian. "Eric is capable of all that and will help continue to build our program. We are thrilled to have him on board. He brings a lot of different ideas to the table. He will be a great compliment to the staff we have. I have great respect for him."

While at Illinois the team had tremendous success on the field and on the recruiting trail with Bell on the staff. After going 9-11-1 in his first year with the Illini, the team went 16-4-2 the next season and posted a 44-17-7 record overall the next three years. In 2004 the team advanced to the national quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament for first time in school history and the Fighting Illini advanced to three straight NCAA Tournaments with Bell on staff.

In his role as recruiting coordinator Bell attracted some of the nation's top talent to Champaign. His 2005 recruiting class was ranked 23rd by SoccerBuzz and his 2006 class is once again among the top 25 with six signees among the top 200 in the nation. Bell recruited some of the nation's and the world's top players to Illinois in his four years. Freshman Emily Zurrer played for the Canadian U-20 National Team at the CONCACAF qualifying tournament in Mexico this year. The defender was named MVP of the 2004 CONCACAF qualifying tournament and two years ago she led Canada to the CONCACAF title and a berth in the 2004 World Championships. Freshman midfielder Marti Desjarlais, brought to Champaign during Bell's tenure as recruiting coordinator, was a three-time NSCAA high school All-American and the only high school All-American on the 2005 team to earn that honor for three straight years.

"He's been a vital part of this program's success, and there are two areas where he's really impacted the program," said Illinois head coach Janet Rayfield about Bell. "He's taken our recruiting to the next level, both organizationally and as a talent evaluator, and he has a great tactical mind, which has helped our staff to teach our team to solve problems tactically."

Bell comes from a strong academic background as well. As the head coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania his team compiled a GPA of 3.43 in 2000, the third-highest team GPA in Division II that year. Last season senior Christen Karniski was named an NSCAA/adidas first team scholar All-American at Illinois.

Before coming to Illinois, Bell spent 2001 as an assistant coach for Minnesota's women's soccer team. He organized and directed the soccer booster club for the Golden Gopher program in addition to his regular coaching and recruiting duties. Bell was also involved with the Minnesota Youth Soccer Association as the Olympic Development Program state team head coach in 2001. Prior to heading to Minnesota, Bell was the head coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania for the 2000 season.

From 1997-2000, Bell was an assistant coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at Ashland University in Ohio. While there, he helped the women's team to three consecutive conference titles from 1997-99 and to the NCAA Division II national semifinals in 1998.

Bell is a United States Soccer Federation 'A' Licensed coach and a member of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. He attended the College of Wooster where he earned a B.A. in 1992. He led the soccer team to two NCAA Division III tournament appearances in 1989 and 1990 and to a North Coast Athletic Conference title in 1989. He was voted the team's best offensive player following the 1991 season. Bell and his wife, April, were married in May of 2001. They have two children, Malena, 4, and Cameron, 2.

Assistant Coach
PAULIINA MIETTINEN
 Franklin Pierce '99
 2nd Season at FSU

One of the greatest players ever to take the field in collegiate soccer, Pauliina Miettinen moves from her position as team manager to assistant coach in 2006. Miettinen played for FSU Head Coach Mark Krikorian in 1995 at Franklin Pierce College where she went on to have one of the most remarkable careers in collegiate soccer history winning three National Championships, playing in four national semifinals and setting NCAA career records that still stand almost a decade after her playing career.

Miettinen is the Division II leader for career points scored with 309 in her illustrious four-years at Franklin Pierce and only three players in college soccer have ever averaged more points per game in a career than Miettinen's 3.96. No player in the history of collegiate soccer has more than 300 career points except for Miettinen and her 122 goals are the second-most ever by a collegiate player. Her 65 assists are also a D-II career record and she is second in Division II history with 122 goals in her four year career. She is also the only player in NCAA soccer history to score more than 110 goals and record more than 60 assists in a career. Miettinen was a three-time NSCAA All-American from 1996-1998 and also a two-time Academic All-American receiving honors in 1997 and 1998.

The first year assistant coach appears in the NCAA Division II record book 23 times. On top of her career record for goals and assists, she ranks among the NCAA leaders for points per game in a single season in her sophomore, junior and senior seasons. Her 105 points in 1998 still ranks as the third-highest total in the history of NCAA soccer as she scored 43 goals and recorded 19 assists as a senior. She is one of just three players to ever score 100 points in a single season. Miettinen is also one of just two D-II players to appear in the top 10 for single season points twice in her career.

One of the college games greatest goal scorers, Miettinen is in the top five for goals per game in a single season and also appears in the top 15 on two occasions. She is also among the top single season goal scorers when it comes to goals scored appearing on the list twice. Her 43 goals in 1998 ranks as the fourth-highest single season total in D-II history and her 34 goals in 1997 puts her in the top 15 of all-time as well. She is second all-time in Division II in points per game and third all-time in goals per game. Her average of 0.83 assists per game ranks her fourth all-time in D-II history.

The Franklin Pierce product also ranks in the top 10 for consecutive games with a goal as she scored in 10 straight games in both the 1997 and 1998 season. She is one of only two players in collegiate soccer history to record two streaks of 10 or more consecutive games with a goal. She also ranks among the Division II leaders for points in a game with 12 versus Albany September 8, 1998 as well as recording five assists in a game versus Mass.-Lowell October 12, 1996, which is the second-highest assist total in D-II history and the third-most ever in a women's college soccer game.

Miettinen had a successful career on the International level as well making 26 international appearances for Finland.

She appeared in seven games from 1992-1995 as a goalkeeper. Then from 2002-04 she was back on the national side making 17 appearances in the back for her home country. In 2002 she reached the semifinals in the first ever UEFA Cup with Team HJK from Helsinki.

In 2005, Miettinen received her mater's in elementary education from Barry University. She completed her undergraduate degree in 1999 when she received her bachelor's in psychology and secondary education from Franklin Pierce.

Volunteer Assistant Coach
ILEANA MOSCHOS
Wofford '98
1st Season at FSU

Ileana Moschos is in her first season with the Seminole soccer program after spending two seasons as an assistant coach with Iowa State. A world-class goalkeeper, Moschos was a member of the Greek Women's National Team from 2002-2004 and started for Greece in the Olympics. Moschos brings more than 10 years of coaching experience to head coach Mark Krikorian's staff.

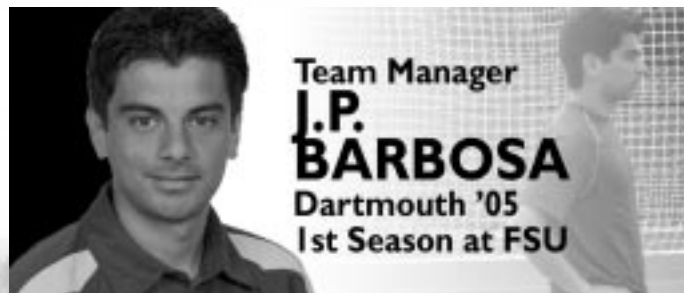

Moschos has coached at the collegiate level since 1998. She worked as an assistant at Iowa State, the University of North Texas, Sacramento State University, the University of Wyoming and Davidson College. She has also coached in the Olympic Development Program as a member of the North Texas ODP staff in Dallas from 2002-2004.

As an assistant at Iowa State, Moschos played a key role in recruiting for the Cyclones. ISU's 2006 class was ranked 26th-best in the nation and the second-best class in the Big 12. She was part of the Big 12 Coaching Staff of the Year in 2005 as the Cyclones advanced to the NCAA Tournament that season and finished a program-best second in the conference. Moschos' also worked with the Iowa State goalkeeper Joanna Haig who was recently named to the U-20 US Women's National Team for the FIFA World Championships in Russia. Under her guidance, Haig was named to the NSCAA All-Central Region Team in 2005 and All-Big 12 Second Team selection. The Iowa State standout keeper was also named a member of the Big 12 newcomer team in 2004, Soccer Buzz's 2004 All-Central Region Freshman Team, and a two-time Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week.

The Wofford College graduate has not only had success as a coach but also as a player. She started for her national side on their home turf in the 2004 Athens Summer Olympics. She was named the Most Valuable Goalkeeper for the WPSL in 2002 as a member of the California Storm. Moschos was a Northern California Regional Pool member in 2001 and selected to the Bay Area CyberRays training camp in 2001 after being invited to the inaugural WUSA combine and draft.

As a collegian, Moschos had a distinguished career at Wofford College. She was named an All-Southern Conference Tournament Team member in 1997, an NSCAA/Umbro All-South selection in 1996 and was the team's MVP that season as well. She served as team captain in 1997.

Moschos received an advanced national diploma from the NSCAA this year and her national diploma in 2005. She has been a licensed goalkeeping coach since 2000 by the NSCAA. She received her bachelor's degree from Wofford in 1998 in business economics. In 2000 she earned a master's degree from the University of Wyoming in physical and health education and kinesiology.

Team Manager
J.P.
BARBOSA
Dartmouth '05
1st Season at FSU

J.P. Barbosa begins his first season as Florida State soccer's team manager. Barbosa brings more than a decade's worth of coaching experience along with experience playing Division I soccer at Dartmouth College. The team manager has trained internationally in Norway and had experience working in all areas of sport and in the private sector.

As a member of the Dartmouth men's team, Barbosa participated in three NCAA Tournaments. His team played in the 2000, 2004 and 2005 NCAA's and was seeded 16th in the 2005 NCAA Tournament. He was also a member of three Ivy League Championship squads.

In the summer of 2005 Barbosa trained with Lov Ham of the Norwegian first division before returning to Dartmouth for his senior season. A native of Hawaii, Barbosa was a member of the state ODP team from 1996-1998 and a three-year member of the Punahou School varsity soccer team. As a high school player he was a member of the state and league champions in 1997, a league champion and state runner-up in 1998 and a captain for the 1999-2000 season. Barbosa also served as team captain for his club team. He led AC Honolulu Soccer Club to four Far West Regional Tournaments, reaching the finals in 1994 and 1997, the semi-finals in 1998 and the quarterfinals in 1996.

Barbosa received his NSCAA Coaching Regional Diploma in 2002. He has a USSF National Coaching License and a USSF C, D and E License as well. He spent four summers coaching at the Dartmouth Soccer Academies and was the clinic coordinator at the Dartmouth Clinics in 2005. Barbosa has been a coach at the club level since 1994 with AYSO, AC Honolulu Soccer Club and the Upper Valley Lightning Soccer Club.

Barbosa is currently pursuing his master's in sport management at Florida State. He has worked for the CIA in Washington D.C. as a transnational analyst and with the Department of State in Athens, Greece as a political analyst. He graduated from Dartmouth with a bachelor's degree in government (international relations) and history in December of 2005.
