Jessica van der Linden

#99 • Junior • Cerritos, CA • Cerritos High School

Pitcher • Outfield • Bats Left • Throws Left

In the Circle:

2002: Another in the long line of great Seminole pitchers, van der Linden will take over the No. 1 spot in the rotation for the first time ever this season...had a stellar sophomore season after being named ACC Rookie of the Year in 2001...saw her numbers improve in almost every category despite pitching twice as many innings versus more difficult opponents...set new career highs in 2002 for wins (16), appearances (32), starts (31), saves (1), innings pitched (175.2) and strikeouts (175) despite moving from third to second in the rotation...van der Linden led the team in opposing batting average (.193) and led all starters with a .727 winning percentage...led the Seminoles in opponent batting average against left-handed hitters (.220), with the bases empty (.177) and with two outs (.149)...also led the staff in allowing the fewest leadoff batters to reach base (34%), fewest hits per game (5.1) and fewest doubles per game (0.52)...in ACC competition, van der Linden made giant strides from her freshman year as she cut her ERA from 5.25 to 1.56, raised her record from 0-1 to 2-0 and registered 19 K's compared to zero in 2001...versus conference opponents, the southpaw went undefeated (2-0), led the team in ERA (1.56), allowed just four earned runs in 18.0 innings and led FSU by holding ACC batters to an average of just .192...started the season strong by pitching two complete games, striking out 16 batters and limiting opponents to .089 batting average in games versus Georgia Southern and Mercer...allowed just one run in two starts and struck out nine GSU batters in game two of the DH...pitched two more complete games the next week and went 1-1 on the mound with a 1.00 ERA while striking out 15 batters...allowed just two earned runs in two complete game outings versus FAU and Louisville...struck out 10 against Louisville and didn't allow an extra base hit in her third two-hitter of the season...at the Seminole Classic, she went 1-0 with a 1.00 ERA...versus Maryland, she walked three and struck out nine Terrapin batters as she pitched a complete game and allowed just three hits in a 2-1 win...threw a perfect game, went 2-0 and didn't allow an earned run in 20 innings on the mound at the Troy Cox Classic, which led to tournament MVP honors...threw 15 hitless innings and went 20 innings without allowing an earned run...threw the first perfect game and fourth no-hitter of her young career in a 5-0 win over Dayton that tied Coach Graf for the NFCA All-Time wins record. The seven inning gem featured eight strikeouts of which six were looking...pitched three innings in a blow-out of Rutgers at the Kia Classic while striking out four batters and allowing just one hit...in an eight game stretch that began against Maine and ended at the Buzz Classic, the sophomore pitched 27.0 innings, went 3-1 and posted an ERA of just 0.52 while striking out 33 batters...opponents hit just .173 off of her during that stretch...set a season-high with 11 strikeouts vs. Princeton...in three games versus FAMU van der Linden had a 0.00 ERA, picked up a win and struck out two with no walks...went 2-0 in the circle while striking out 16 batters and issuing just two walks against UAB and Georgia Tech...her two wins in the circle helped her equal her entire win total from her ACC Rookie of the Year season...picked the team up in a big way after a disappointing loss to Florida in the first game of a twin bill. She pitched a complete game five-hitter and allowed just one run and struck out eight Gators as FSU came back to split the season series...allowed just two earned runs in 5.2 innings of work versus defending ACC Champion UNC in a series sweep by the Seminoles...won her next three starts versus Jacksonville State, Virginia and Troy State in important conference and regional games...allowed just one run and established a new season high with 13 strikeouts in a complete game win against JSU...went six innings, didn't allow an earned run and moved to 2-0 in ACC games as she helped FSU sweep Virginia and clinch the conference regular season title...gave up only three hits in six innings as she registered her 16th complete game of the year against Troy State that extended the Seminoles to a season-long nine game winning streak...made two appearances in the 2002 NCAA Tallahassee Regional...suffered the loss on the mound in FSU's first game versus Georgia Tech but only two of the four runs she allowed in the first were earned and she gave up only two hits and walked two...recorded the first save of her career as she pitched the final three innings in relief of Leslie Malerich in the Regional Championship...allowed zero hits and zero runs while striking out four to close out the regional and send the Seminoles to the World Series...set down the final nine batters of the game and faced the minimum of nine batters during her outing...built on that momentum and had a spectacular outing at the 2002 Women's College World Series...got her only start in the biggest game in over 10 years for FSU as she took the circle versus defending National Champion Arizona in the WCWS semi-finals...van der Linden pitched six strong innings and allowed just one earned run as FSU took the Wildcats into extra innings.

At the Plate:

2002: Van der Linden continued to progress after her ACC Rookie of the Year season and blossomed into one of the Tribe's top offensive threats...ranked either first or second on the team in 10 major offensive categories...led the team in at bats (214), plate appearances (269), starts (75) and doubles for the second straight year (14)...after only two seasons van der Linden already ranks third for all-time doubles at FSU and is only 11 shy of establishing a new all-time record...she and first team All-American Brandi Stuart formed one of the most formidable duos to ever wear an FSU uniform...ranked second on the team just behind Stuart in batting average (.336), total bases (99), slugging percentage (.463), hits (72), triples (5), walks (37) and on base percentage (.435)...set career highs for batting average (.336), at bats (214), runs (38), hits (72), triples (5), home runs (1), total bases (99), slugging percentage (.463), walks (37), on base percentage (.435) and sacrifice hits (14)...at the 2002 NCAA Tallahassee Regional van der Linden led the entire team in average (.333), runs (2), hits (5), doubles (1), triples (1), RBIs (3) and total bases (8)...batted .300 with two RBIs to open the 2002 season...went 2-for-3 versus No. 9 Washington...at the Seminole Classic, she led the team with a .417 average, five hits, two doubles and a .583 slugging pct...doubled in two runs in a 6-3 win over Syracuse...had two walks, two hits and scored two runs versus St. John's... hit .444 (8-for-18) at the Troy Cox Classic. Scored six runs, had three doubles and a home run...slugged a team-leading .778 and struck out just once...at the Kia Classic versus Rutgers and No. 14 DePaul, van der Linden went 4-for-6 with two RBIs and four runs scored...went a perfect 2-for-2 with a run scored and an RBI versus the Scarlet Knights...against the Blue Demons, she was 2-for-4 with three runs scored, an RBI and a walk...at the Sunshine Classic, she hit .417 (5-for-12), scored three runs, had a double, a triple and slugged .667...recorded her seventh double and first triple of the year while knocking in her ninth RBI at the Classic...versus Maine and in six games at the Buzz Classic, van der Linden hit .370 (10-for-27), scored five runs, had four RBIs and two doubles...the sophomore hit safely in all eight games highlighted by a 4-for-6, two RBI, two run performance in the doubleheader versus Maine...versus UAB and in FSU's ACC-opener versus Georgia Tech she hit
