2002: One of FSU's top newcomers in 2002...led all freshman in every offensive category while starting 69 of 75 games...second on the team in runs scored (39), sacrifice bunts (13) and at bats (207)...third with 102 assists and fourth on the team with 50 hits, two triples, 71 games played, 245 plate appearances and 69 starts...was also in the top five for triples (2), walks (20), on base percentage (.319), RBIs (20) and steals (4)...was a perfect 4-for-4 in stolen bases...led all Seminoles with a .500 batting average in six at bats with the bases loaded...successfully advanced runners nearly 49% of the time while hitting in the one or two hole for 47 games...during the 2002 NCAA postseason, George was in the top five for average and sacrifices...led all six of FSU's newcomers in games played, starts, at bats, runs, hits, doubles and RBIs...recorded the first hit of her Seminole career in the first game of the season versus Georgia Southern...went 1-for-2 with a sacrifice and an RBI versus FAU...hit .500 going 1-for-2 versus No. 22 South Carolina...had her best game of the weekend versus Louisville. She scored a run, drew a walk and recorded an RBI. George also got FSU on the board when she reached on a fielder's choice and then stole third and came home on an errant throw...recorded an RBI on a walk in the seventh...the Seminole Classic was a coming out party for the Fontana, CA native...although she had just three hits, every one was a big one...her walk-off double in the bottom of the seventh won the game for FSU 2-1 versus Maryland. It was her second double of the game...also had a two-RBI triple in the Classic finale versus the Red Storm...had her best week of the season up to that point in terms of batting average and runs scored at the Troy Cox Classic...scored two runs in each game versus NMSU, Texas Tech and Dayton...had multi-hit games versus the Aggies and Red Raiders...led all FSU players with four runs scored at the Sunshine Classic...against Kansas, she went 1-for-3 with two runs. One of the runs was the game-winner...at the Seminole Invitational, George compiled two runs and drew two walks against Iowa State...had a big week at the Kia Klassic versus five ranked teams as she recorded her first homer, scored a team-high six runs, was second on the team with a .476 slugging percentage and third with a .360 on base percentage...rose to the occasion in FSU's biggest games at the Kia...helped move the team to 2-0 in pool play against Rutgers by scoring two runs and recording an RBI...against No. 14 DePaul, she scored three runs and went 2-for-5 with another RBI...went 3-for-6 with a run scored and a stolen base in the Maine doubleheader...had another strong week at the Buzz Classic...scored a run versus Princeton and then finished the week with two big games versus UCF and Troy State. In those two games, she went 4-for-6, scored two runs, had three RBIs and a home run...George earned the title of the new Rattlette killer as she had a big-time game against FAMU in the team's first meeting of the week...George went 3-for-4, scored a run and drove in the game-winning run...she carried that momentum into game one of the doubleheader versus FAMU...the Fontana, CA native came up with the bases loaded in the third and hit a bases clearing double to give her four hits and four RBIs in her last six at bats against Florida A&M...was on an incredible streak before an injury in the UAB doubleheader sidelined her for the Georgia Tech series...against the Blazers, she extended her hitting streak to seven games and had her eighth RBI in seven games...George hit her second triple of the season and slugged an amazing 1.500 in a game and a half vs. UAB...in game one against North Carolina, George extended her hit streak to a season high eight games, driving in the go-ahead run in the bottom of the fifth inning with a pinch-hit, one-out single up the middle...in the doubleheader against Troy State, she batted .667 (4-for-6), scoring five runs with two doubles and two RBIs at the lead-off position...had one of just two doubles for FSU at the 2002 ACC Tournament...opened up NCAA Tournament play versus Auburn by going 2-for-3 against fourth seeded Auburn in a Florida State win...reached base on singles in the third and fifth innings...recorded an unassisted putout with the bases loaded and only one out to help limit the Eagles to one run in the inning...went 1-for-3 with one run scored in the NCAA Tallahassee Regional Championship...singled to lead off the second inning, advanced to second on a Shundra Colzie bunt and scored Florida State's second run on a double to left by Jessica van der Linden...started all four games at the 2002 Women's College World Series...had her best outing in the semi-finals as she recorded a hit and drew a walk off 2001 College Player of the Year Jennie Finch.
