the best eyes on the team when she steps into the batters box... despite having 59 fewer at bats, Hoffer was just 14 walks behind Jessica van der Linden for the team lead...in a year when she was expected to play a back-up role and adjust to playing ball for at Top 5 team at the DI level, Hoffer started 61 of FSU's 74 games and appeared in 71 games...second on the squad in sac bunts, third in walks, fifth in on base percentage and fourth in runs scored... ranks in the top 10 for Florida State in batting average, slugging percentage, hits, triples, total bases, stolen base percentage and steals...leads the team in assists, tied with Veronica Wootson for second in turning double plays and is fifth in chances and putouts...in ACC games Hoffer was tied for fifth in batting average and runs scored, fourth in on base percentage and in the top 10 for hits, doubles, total bases, walks and slugging percentage...perfect 1.000 stolen base percentage in conference contests. 2004 WCWS Highlights: Started all three games for FSU at the WCWS and appeared at the plate on four occasions...led the Seminoles with five assists in the field. 2004 NCAA Regionals Highlights: Was solid at third base in all five games of the regional...had a team-high 13 assists in the field... scored one of FSU's three, sixth-inning runs in the come-from-behind 5-4 12-inning win over Oregon...recorded two sacrifice hits in the weekend's action. 2004 ACC Tournament Highlights: Florida State's third baseman who started all three games...hit .400 (two-of-five) with one hit each in the first game against Georgia Tech and the second game against North Carolina...third-highest batting average and led the team in sacrifices...her hit in the Seminoles' first game of the tournament was a single in the second inning as Florida State tied the score at 1-1...scored the game-winning run in Florida State's second round victory over North Carolina...led off the third inning with a bunt single and scored as Katie Fricke earned a walk with the bases loaded...Florida State scored six runs in the inning and went on to win the game, 8-0...played all 19 innings for the Seminoles in all three games...as Florida State's starting third baseman she led Florida State with nine assists and committed only one error in 12 chances during the ACC Tournament... recorded seven assists in Florida State's first round win over Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament, a new season high...had a putout or an assist in six of the seven innings against the Yellow Jackets in that game.

Junior College: Pensacola Junior College standout was named All-Panhandle Conference first team in 2003.

High school: Stratford Senior High Most Valuable Player as a junior and senior...Texas All-Star...SBISD All-Tournament Team as a senior...four-time all-district first team selection...three-year varsity basketball starter...first team all-district as a junior and senior, second team all-district as a sophomore...named most outstanding post player and best defensive player as a junior...two-time winner of the spirit award and hustle award...team MVP and Don Coleman Scholarship recipient her senior year.

Personal: High school honor roll student...planned major criminology...born July 29, 1983.

2004: Hard to explain Kim Hoffer's importance just by looking at the numbers last season...the sophomore transfer was an unsung hero for FSU as she has been forced into starting duty at short when Tatiana George went down with a wrist injury and then at third when Lesley Palmer tore her ACL...it is hard to tell where the Seminoles would have been without the versatile infielder who has had her rough spots defensively, which is understandable in her first year at a D1 school and after missing all of fall practice with a broken arm...one of

RECORD BREAKER

Veronica Wootson is the complete package. From generating offense on the bases to hitting balls out of the park to exceptional defense, the second baseman did it all for FSU in 2004. There were so many amazing accomplishments turned in last year by the freshman and her sixth homer of the season was just one of them. When the freshman went yard versus Florida A&M (4/14/04) she broke the freshman home run record. It was also her third straight game with a homer. Wootson finished the year with a rookie record eight homers. Furthermore, she surpassed 100 total bases in her rookie season and she has set a new freshman record with 129. Wootson also finished the year 12th in the nation in runs scored and the only other freshman in the Top 20 was Arizona's Caitlin Lowe who led the NCAA.
